Stopped, Has It?

Well, it has been a good faithful Watch, and has earned a rest. Lay it aside, and get a new one at Schneider's while his prices are reduced. The world is moving: you must carry a reliable Watch, or drop behind.

If the Watch is a comparatively new one, it may only need cleaning and oiling, and we can put it on tick and time again at a trifling cost.

A BRILLIANT SPECTACLE.

Ontario Legislature Opened With Great Eclat.

LADIES HANDSOMELY GOWNED

Sir Oliver Mowat's Speech From the Throne as Delivered This Afternoon at Three O'clock.

The opening of the Ontario Legislature this afternoon was a brilliant spectacle rivalling the functions of any preceding year in general ensemble. The great chamber was replete with colour, the dresses of the ladies being remarkable for their richness and beauty and the bright trappings of the military men relieving the conventional evening wear of the members and other gentlemen in attendance.

After the prayers had been read by the speaker, Sir Oliver Mowat entered the chamber with Premier Ross escorted by a large staff of military officers. Many of the most prominent men of the Province occupied seats on the floor of the chamber.

The speech from the throne was as follows:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly—

I take great pleasure in again meeting you as representatives of the Province in Parliament assembled.

Since the last meeting of the Legislature, we have been honoured by a visit from Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. I was greatly pleased to notice the hearty reception given to Their Royal Highnesses, in every part of Ontario, which the limited time at their disposal permitted them to visit. The gracious manner in which they received the expressions of loyalty which their presence evoked, and the interest they manifested in every matter pertaining to the prosperity of the Province, will, I trust, strengthen our attachment to the Empire which they so worthily represented, and in which we, as a province, are so deeply interested.

I congratulate you on the continued prosperity of the lumbering industry, which gives employment to so many of our people and from which a large part of our revenue is derived.

The permanent Crown Forest Reserves amounting to over a million and a half acres, have been carefully protected during the past season, and no loss of any consequence from fires or other causes has occurred. Steps are being taken to further increase these reserves in order, if possible, to establish a perpetual source of income from the forests of the Province.

The mining industry of Ontario is making steady and satisfactory progress. More capital and labour are now being employed than at any previous time, and the output of the chief mineral products of the Province is rapidly and steadily increasing in both quantity and value.

The work of settling the agricultural lands of the Crown has been successfully prosecuted during the year. Extensive areas have been disposed of to actual settlers, most of whom are from Southern Ontario. It is satisfactory to know that those who leave the older settlements of the Province to obtain homesteads or employment in newer fields now realize that they can find unexcelled opportunities within our own boundaries.

The adequate care and maintenance of the insane of our population still engages the attention of the Government. Additional accommodation for 150 patients has been furnished by the completion of the new asylum buildings at Cobourg. This will relieve, for the time being, the existing congestion of the asylums of the province, but I fear you will be called upon at no distant period, to consider the advisability of making further provision for the accommodation of the increasing number of this afflicted class.

I am glad to learn that very satisfactory progress has been made in the promotion of technical education and that in several of our towns and cities special buildings and suitable equipment for the purpose have been generously provided, and also that the system of Travelling Libraries for the newer parts of the Province, for which provision was made a year ago, has met with general approval.

The compilation of the Imperial statutes in force in the Province of Ontario under the provisions of Chapter III, R.S.O., has been completed and embodied in what will constitute Volume III, of the Revised Statutes. This compilation with necessary legislation will be submitted for your consideration, and I have no doubt will be regarded with great favour by the legal profession and the public.

The year just closed has been one of very gratifying prosperity to the agricultural classes. The growth of the dairy interests of the Province is especially noteworthy, and the marked success of the exhibitors of the Province at the Pan-American Exhibition evinces the intelligence with which agricultural operations of every kind are carried on within the Province.

The improvements made at the Agricultural College by the erection of a Physical and Biological Laboratory, and the early completion of the Massey Library and Museum, will add greatly to the efficiency of the College, and place it among the first Agricultural Colleges of America.

I am pleased to learn that the legislation of last Session for the encouragement of the beet sugar industry is likely to produce the results desired. The experiments conducted by the Department of Agriculture conclusively show that the Province is most favourably adapted to the growing of sugar beets, and several companies are now preparing to undertake the work of sugar production.

The amendments to the Factories Act, requiring the owners of factory buildings to provide suitable fire escapes, have greatly increased the safety of the operatives and others connected with the mechanical industries of the Province.

It is gratifying to be able to state that the fishing industry has during the year been unusually prosperous. The work inaugurated last year, of re-stocking the inland lakes and rivers will be continued during the approaching season.

Measures will be submitted concerning the sale of intoxicating liquors, the construction of a railway from North Bay to Lake Temiscamingue, increased representation for the Northern Districts of the Province, the Assessment Laws, the Fisheries and Extra-Provincial corporations.

The report of the Royal Commission appointed to revise the Assessment Laws of the Province and the Reports of the several Departments of the Public Service will be laid before you in due course.

The estimates for the current year, prepared with as great regard to economy as is consistent with efficient service and the growing wants of the Province, will be submitted for consideration at an early date.

The speech concluded, Sir Oliver withdrew, followed by his staff.

MRS. JENNIE E. O'DONNELL,
President of Oakland Woman's Riding Club.

the wonderful curative value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For eight years I had female trouble, falling of the womb and other complications. During that time I was more or less of an invalid and not much good for anything, until one day I found a book in my hall telling of the cures you could perform. I became interested; I bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was helped; I continued its use and in seven months was cured, and since that time I have had perfect health. Thanks, dear Mrs. Pinkham again, for the health I now enjoy."—MRS. JENNIE O'DONNELL, 278 East 31st St., Chicago, Ill. — $5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

HISTORIC HASTINGS.

Happenings in the Village on the Trent —Personal Mention.

No municipal election took place here this year. Mr. H. A. Wilson, Reeve, Messrs. Welsh, Tracey, Huycke and Learmouth will transact the business for the municipality during the ensuing year. During the year 1901 this council with the aid of its competent reeve did excellent work. The streets were always kept in excellent condition, the sidewalks were carefully looked after by the committee appointed, and no moneys were expended foolishly. It is hoped that the council will this year continue in the same course as it has done in the past.

Mr. W. T. Halligan, principal of the public school, has just returned and commenced his duties on Tuesday.

Miss Hattie Cahill of Peterborough, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. J. English, last week.

Miss Grace Coughlin, who has been home for the holidays, has returned to Orillia, where she will resume her duties as teacher in the public school there.

Mr. Tim Coughlan left on Saturday for Ennismore, where he has been successful in securing a school.

The trustees of both the public and Separate schools at a recent meeting decided to unite and have extension work taught in the Public school here. With Mr. W. T. Halligan as as principal this will no doubt be a success. All work connected with the High School Leaving Examination will be taught, and in addition all subjects required in order to obtain teachers' certificates. Now any pupil after having a thorough training here will on entering the High School have no difficulty in obtaining a second class certificate in one year.

Mr. Ambrose Atkinson was on Monday elected reeve, and Messrs. German, Baker, Stone and Armour councillors of the Township of Percy for 1902.

Mr. R. P. Hurlburt, of Warkworth, was in town on Friday.

Mr. P. W. Anderson has been engaged as assistant teacher in the public school here.

Miss Mabel McCaw, who has been the guest of Miss Ethel Elmhirst during the past two weeks, returned on Tuesday to her home in Desoronto.

A number of the young people while skating on the river on Saturday last had a narrow escape from drowning. The river never is nor never shall be safe, and it is hoped that greater precautions will be taken in the future.

SPRINGVILLE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Our new blacksmith, Mr. Walter Wilson, of Whitby, has moved into the village and is thoroughly established in business.

Mr. Matthew Clark met with a severe accident, being the dislocation of his knee joint.

Mr. Richard Lillico having bought the Fowler farm, Mr. Jas. Brown intends moving into town.

OMEMEE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Our holiday visitors have all returned to their respective places of abode and callings, after spending a very enjoyable time in our midst.

There is little or no sickness in the village.

The Christmas and New Year's entertainments attracted great crowds to our village, and the hotels and confectionery stores had a rich harvest from driving parties. The Misses Clancy as vocalists distinguished themselves. Miss Patterson, Peterborough, who recited, delighted everyone. The Royal Choruses were well put on.

There were large shipments of stock from here to-day by Messrs. Kerr, Richardson, Moore and others. This is becoming a great shipping centre, and farmers to all appearances have not had more money for years.

Our village council was elected by acclamation.

The township reeveship was contested by Boates and Fee, the former winning by 50.

The council is composed of Messrs. Scully, Graham, Lowes; the latter is a new man in municipal matters.

The Farmers' Institute Meeting to be held here on Jan. 15th, promises to be successful. Great interest is being taken, showing that the farmers are much profited by attending such gatherings. A good programme of vocal and instrumental music will be rendered.

Our hockey team visited Fenelon Falls and made the best possible showing against them on their own rink; 8 to 13.

Bobcaygeon club will try Omemee here next Saturday; a swift game is looked forward to.

N. TEMISCAMINGUE SENDS A STORY.

A Sturdy Farmer Stricken With Rheumatism is Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

This Man was so bad That he was Almost Paralyzed—A Wonderful Case and a Very Happy Cure by This Excellent Remedy.

North Temiscamingue, Que., Jan 5th, (Special).—At the Douglas Farm near here lives Mr. W. H. Johnston who to-day considers himself a very happy man indeed.

The cause of Mr. Johnston's happiness is his somewhat sudden and very remarkable recovery from the most severe case of Rheumatism ever seen in this country.

For a long time he suffered with the Rheumatism which gradually grew worse till it threatened his life. His principal trouble was in his left side, and it was so bad that his neck stiffened so that he could scarcely move it, and was beginning to fear Paralysis. The pain would go away for a time but return with greater force, and a strange feature of his case was that after the pain would leave any part, it left behind it that prickly "pins and needles" sensation.

He thought that perhaps his smoking tobacco had something to do with it and he gave this up, but received no benefit at all till he used Dodd's Kidney Pills.

This remedy he found to be a complete and absolute cure for his malady, and very soon after commencing its use, the pain began to leave him and now he is strong and well.

That such an extreme case should yield so easily and quickly proves that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure any case of Rheumatism.

JUSTICE GWYNNE'S DEATH.

His Lordship Judge McMahon Feelingly Refers to the Event.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—At the opening of the High Court of Justice yesterday morning, Judge MacMahon referred to Judge Gwynne's demise. His Lordship said: "Death has claimed one of the brightest of men, one who was an illustrious member of the bar for many years and of the judiciary for thirty-five years. In him they had an example of an upright, honest, conscientious judge. He was a man who scrupulously fulfilled every obligation imposed on him. His death will be a great loss to this city, and greatest of all, to the judiciary of this country."

Cowardly Sailors.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 8. — The steamer Dispatch, which picked up the survivors of the Walla Walla disaster, arrived in port Monday, and Capt. Victor Johnson gave a vivid account of the work of rescue. He expressed strong indignation at the actions of some of the Walla Walla's crew, who sneaked away in a big boat and left others to drown.

P-A-I-N-E'-S IS THE KIND YOU NEED.

Other Celery Preparations are Worthless Imitations.

Paine's Celery Compound

THE KIND THAT CURES.

No Other Medicine has Ever had Such a Reputation in Canadian Homes.

Paine's Celery Compound is to-day, the only medicine that can meet your needs with assured success, if you suffer from kidney disease, blood troubles, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervousness or dyspepsia. It cures the sick as surely as night follows day. It is the only medicine that gives immediate and effective results to the suffering.

The proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound would utter a word of warning for the benefit of the public. The great popularity of Paine's Celery Compound has induced unscrupulous men to put up worthless imitations, calling them celery compounds. Care on the part of those purchasing for the sick is necessary. Ask for PAINE'S and insist upon getting it. See that the name PAINE'S is on each wrapper and bottle; no other is genuine.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Formal Opening of the Provincial Assembly—Mr. Whitney Refuses to Speak of Session.

Toronto, Jan. 8.—With the usual eclat the Ontario Legislature will be opened this afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Lieut.-Governor, Sir Oliver Mowat. His Honor will drive from Government House, with a mounted escort, furnished by the Royal Canadian Dragoons, and at the buildings will be received by a guard of honor, composed of 100 men, a band and three officers from the Queen's Own Rifles.

All the preparations for the opening of the House have been completed, and members are already beginning to arrive. Hon. J. P. Whitney and Speaker Evanturel were at the buildings yesterday and took possession of their respective quarters. The former had nothing to say about the session and was not even disposed to express an opinion as to its length.

Doctors Wait on the Premier.

A deputation of physicians from the Medical Defence Association waited on Premier Ross yesterday, and asked him to consider the advisability of making the council of the Ontario Medical Association elective. The interviewers were Drs. Hilliar, Bowmanville; Sangster, Port Perry; Coburn, Oshawa; Rutherford, Aurora; Parks, Saintfield; Bingham, Peterboro; King, Toronto; Jessop, St. Catharines; Armour, St. Catharines; Haig, Oshawa, and Eastward, Whitby.

Will Apply For Legislation.

Among the applications for legislation that will be made when the House meets are the following: Huron and Bruce Railway Co., which proposes to run a line from Wiarton to Goderich, through or near Kincardine and Southampton; Hamilton Radial Electric Railway, which wants to extend its line from Mimico to Toronto; the town of Dresden, to have a bylaw to give $40,000 bonus to a beet sugar factory, confirmed; the municipality of Shunneh, Thunder Bay, who wish to have the power to advertise tax sales in The Ontario Gazette only.

MOUNTAIN NOT FOR HIM.

Marconi Declines an Offer of One From Rudolphe Lemieux.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—Mr. Rudolphe Lemieux, member for Gaspe, made to Mr. Marconi yesterday the generous offer of Mount Ste. Anne for a wireless telegraphic station. The eminence is known as Mount Ste. Anne, one of the highest elevations on the gulf coast. It is situated in the County of Gaspe. Mr. Marconi, however, has no use for mountains. He says to establish a station on a mountain top would only mean that the apparatus would have to be hauled up hill, thereby increasing the expense of installation.

"But do you not use kites or towers to secure elevation?" the inventor was asked.

"Certainly, but to secure elevation above the surface of the ground. If I went to a mountain top I should still have to erect a tower for my apparatus to get away from the earth currents," was the answer.

Mr. Marcobi further observed that in all his experience with wireless telegraphy on land he had experienced no trouble from the intervention of mountains.

For the Scotch Lighthouses.

London, Jan. 8.—The commissioners for the northern lighthouses in Scotland have decided to adopt wireless telegraphy as a means of establishing communication between the mainland and certain of their lighthouses. The first installation will be made without delay, on the Flannan Islands, which are about 16 miles outside the west coast, off Lewis. The Flannan Islands are practically the first land sighted by vessels coming from America, and the new installation will therefore be exceedingly valuable for reporting the sighting of vessels. The installation is being made in conjunction with Lloyd's shipping agency and will be on the Marconi system.

To Change a Sentence.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—Mr. C. M. Woodworth, a lawyer from Dawson City, is here to ask the authorities to mitigate the punishment of George St. Cyr, who is undergoing a life sentence at the police barracks, Dawson, for shooting and killing James Davis, some miles below Hootalinqua, on Nov. 17, 1900. St. Cyr was tried on Feb. 6, 1901, found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged on the 7th of June following. On the 18th of March, however, the sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life. It seems the evidence by no means established that St. Cyr intended to commit murder.

British Want Native Tars.

London, Jan. 8.—A movement has been started in Liverpool to replace foreigners on British ships by British sailors.

This is the outcome of an agitation started by Lord Romney.

It is pointed out that most vessels under the Union Jack are manned by seamen of other nationalities to such an extent that in the event of a European war the British navy could not protect its mercantile fleet.

A Large Increase.

Winnipeg, Jan. 8.—The Provincial Land Department has during the last year just closed disposed of 151,079 acres of land. Of this 92,147 acres were Manitoba and Northwest lands. This shows a very large increase over last year, when only 52,642 acres were disposed of.

Candidature Endorsed.

Kingston, Jan. 8.—James H. Metcalfe, ex-M.P., is the Conservative candidate selected to oppose the Hon. W. Harty in the bye-election for the Federal House. His candidature was endorsed at a meeting held last night. Mr. Metcalfe was nominated by Lieut.-Col. Hunter and Dr. Ryan seconded the motion.

A FIGHTING SPEECH

How Sir Wilfrid Laurier Closed Up a Successful Meeting.

MR. DROUIN RETIRES FROM FIELD

Only One Liberal Candidate in St. James', Montreal—The Premier and Hon. Messrs. Fielding and Tarte Spoke—Premier's Magnificent Reception—Mr. Bergeron Remains—Hon. Mr. Sifton at Orono.

Montreal, Jan. 8.—There will be only one Liberal candidate after all in St. James' division, for Mr. Drouin has retired in favor of Ald. Brunet. A meeting was called last night in the old Bonsecours Market, in support of the candidature of Mr. Drouin, and there were about 2,000 electors present. But, though he was the choice of a regular convention by a large majority some days ago, and the choice was ratified by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. J. I. Tarte, later events showed he was not a strong candidate. Ald. Brunet refused to be represented at the convention, and announced in a sworn statement that he would remain in the field against the Government candidate or anyone else. He is a large employer of labor, has represented the division in the Council for many years, and is popular among the working classes, who form such a large portion of the electors.

Mr. J. G. H. Bergeron thought to take advantage of the split, and announced himself as the Conservative candidate. Under the circumstances the leading Liberals of the division thought it advisable to revise the decision of the convention, even though it was regularly called. Sir Wilfrid Laurier arrived from Ottawa last night with Hon. W. S. Fielding and agreed to this step. This was not known to the electors, however, and when Mr. Drouin stepped forward to address the meeting there were some interruptions. He explained that he thought his services to the party entitled him to the nomination, but he had been asked by Sir Wilfrid Laurier to retire, and cheerfully did so. He hoped Mr. Brunet would be elected, and asked his friends to support that gentleman. The other speakers touched little on political questions, but referred to the situation in St. James' and dwelt upon the necessity of party union.

The Premier's Reception.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier had a magnificent reception when called upon by Ald. Lamarche, the chairman, to address the meeting. He referred to former occasions on which he was present in the old hall. The last time was before he was leader of the party, and he recalled two of the speakers who stood on the platform with him. One of them was that eminent French-Canadian, Honore Mercier, the mention of whose name was received with cheers. Sir Wilfrid Laurier caused great laughter by announcing that his other supporter on that occasion was Mr. Bergeron. He reminded them that Mr. Bergeron had joined the Liberals in the election of 1886, but the conversion lasted only as long as the election, and after the election was over Mr. Bergeron was safely back in the Conservative fold. After eulogizing the ambition of those who wanted to go to Parliament, and especially to represent the great City of Montreal, he said that the convention had chosen Mr. Drouin legitimately, and he honored Mr. Drouin for resigning under the circumstances. Mr. Brunet was an old warrior, and if both remained in the field Mr. Bergeron would profit by it. Sir Wilfrid said he was not there to talk politics, but only as chief of the party to maintain party discipline. So long as he was head of the party he would insist upon the maintenance of discipline, but if the party did not want him he would go back to the ranks as a simple soldier. (Loud cries of "Never, never,")

The other Ministers who spoke were Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. J. I. Tarte.

At the conclusion of their speeches, for two minutes before the meeting closed, Sir Wilfrid Laurier made a ringing fighting speech.

Heart Disease.

Ninety Per Cent of it Really Caused From Poor Digestion,

Real organic heart trouble is incurable, but scarcely one case in a hundred is organic.

The action of the heart and stomach are both controlled by the same great nerves, the sympathetic and pneumogastric, and when the stomach fails to properly digest the food and it lies in the stomach fermenting, gases are formed which distend the organ causing pressure on the heart and lungs causing palpitation, irregularity and shortness of breath.

The danger from this condition is that, the continued disturbance of the heart sooner or later may cause real organic heart trouble and in fact frequently does so.

Furthermore, poor digestion makes the blood thin and watery and deficient in red corpuscles, and this further irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible thing to do for heart trouble is to insure the digestion and assimilation of the food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which may be found at most drug stores and which contain the necessary digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

Thousands of people keep well and vigourous by keeping their digestion perfect by observing the rule of taking one or two of these tablets after each meal, or at least after each hearty meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain U.S.P. pepsin, diastase from malt and other natural digestives which act only on the food, digesting it perfectly and preventing acidity, gases, and the many diseased conditions which accompany a weak stomach.

When Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used you may know you are not taking into the system any strong medicine or powerful drug but simply the natural digestive elements which every weak stomach lacks.

So widely known and popular have these tablets become that they are now sold by every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

P. Cuffe, J. N. Ackerman, and Fred Fry, who were declared elected. For trustees the three retiring members, Messrs. F. Fraser, P. W. Stevenson, and R. W. Waters, were returned.

A wedding in which many Norwood people are interested, took place at "Pine Grove," Bass Lake, the residence of Mr. Jos. Martin, on Xmas Day, when his daughter, Mamie, was united in marriage to Mr. S. B. Gerven of this place. The bride, who was at one time the popular saleslady in the Arcade store here, was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Girven arrived in Norwood on Monday, and will take up their residence on Queen street, opposite the residence of Mr. Thos. Fraser.

MR. SIFTON AT ORONO.

Orono, Jan. 8.—The opening meeting in the interests of Mr. Robert Beith in the bye-election for the riding of West Durham, was held in the Town Hall here last evening. The size of the audience was only limited by the capacity of the building. It was a most enthusiastic and representative gathering. After speeches by the candidate, Mr. Robert Beith, and Mr. G. H. Linton, Hon. Mr. Sifton, who received an ovation on rising, which was repeated when he concluded an hour and a half address, made a very marked impression upon his audience, many of whom personally congratulated him upon the clear and convincing presentation he had made of the Government policy. Mr. Sifton devoted his address to a comparison of the policies of the two parties as shown by results of Liberal and Conservative rule. He showed how the Government had redeemed its pre-election pledges, and exposed the inconsistencies into which the Conservative party fell through the leaders in various provinces adopting tactics calculated to foster sectional and racial prejudices.

The meeting closed with cheers for the King, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Beith.

STRETCH OUT.

Many a man is unable to stretch his arms or legs because of rheumatism. There is no excuse for this state of affairs. Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure will remove the disease in short order. The value of the combined contracts is about $200,000.

Three Cent Car Fares.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 8.—The three cent street railroad fare ordinance recently introduced in the City Council at the instigation of Mayor Johnson was passed by that body last night. The next step will be to bid for the new lines which, if the program is carried through, will add a number of new street car routes to the city's system.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM CURED

Chronic Rheumatism Cured

The action of Powley's Liquified Ozone is quick in giving relief to rheumatism. The antiseptic action of the oxygen destroys the germs which produce the disease and antidotes their toxins. It will be worth your while to read the interesting statement of Mr. A. Charbonneau.

THE OZONE COMPANY

Gentlemen: In response to your communication, of late date, I am happy to state that I have made use of Powley's Liquified Ozone, and the results have been far ahead of any thing I hoped for when I was first induced to try same. I have been a constant victim of rheumatism, lumbago, etc., for nearly two years and tried all sorts of remedies and so-called cures without benefitting from their use. I must say that I obtained some relief, but this was only temporary and quite unsatisfactory. When I was induced to try Orono I had a very limited confidence in its merits, but I had taken less than half a bottle when I was notably relieved of my trouble and continued the use of Orono. The results, I am happy to say, have been marvellous. With less than two bottles I am now entirely free from pain of any kind and feel rejuvenated by ten years, no trouble whatever having been my lot since I used Ozone. I have since used it in my family with the same beneficial results and I mean to have it handy at all times in the house.

You are at liberty to use the present testimonial as you see fit, and to refer to me as to what Ozone has done for me and may do for anyone in a general way.

Wishing your preparation all the success it deserves, and yourselves the recognition of the public for putting the same within the reach of everyone, I remain,

Very truly yours, A. M. CHARBONNEAU, 200 St. Hippolyte St., Montreal, P. Q.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is oxygen in stable liquid form. It's a new discovery, this way of using oxygen. If you are troubled with rheumatism, kidney disease, try a bottle, it will relieve you in a wonderfully short time.

Consult our physicians about your case. Write full details and you will get a specialist's advice free. Your letters are absolutely confidential. Address the Consulting Department, The Liquid Ozone Co., 220 Kinzie St., Chicago, U. S. A.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

Given by the League of George Street Methodist Church Last Night —Well Attended.

George street Epworth League scored another complete success by the concert of last evening. Very careful preparation for a delightful evening's entertainment had been made, and the efforts of the young people were amply rewarded by the applause with which the different numbers were received. A large platform had been erected in the school room and was nicely arranged with pictures, rugs, chairs, etc., to represent the interior of a drawing room.

Perhaps the prettiest feature of the evening was the garland drill by 24 girls, the girls, dressed in white, with green garlands, making a series of pretty pictures, as the different figures, diamonds, crosses, ladders, wheels, etc., were formed. Miss Whiten's recitation, and the two dialogues given, were well presented in every detail. The character of Miss Buttermilk kept the audience in laughter from start to finish.

The musical part of the programme was quite up to the mark, the choruses, duets, and quartettes being very nicely given. Miss Ida Sanderson added much to the pleasure of the evening by a number of selections on the piano performed in her usual brilliant style. The banjo and guitar duets by Miss Dobbin and Mr. Sanderson were also well received.

During the intermission home-made candies found ready sale and added a neat sum to the proceeds of the entertainment.

The League have to thank all who in any way assisted in the work of the concert, and to whose efforts the success of the entertainment is entirely due.

The programme was as follows:

THE LATE J. H. ROPER.

The announcement of the death of Mr. J. H. Roper will be received with profound grief by the residents of the town at large, as by his kindly interest in, and identification with, all matters of philanthropic import, he became known and appreciated for his noble and Christian-like attributes of character.

His was a sudden call from the Angel of Death. During the day he appeared to be in perfect good health, and met and conversed with many friends on the street in his usual pleasant manner. Two personal friends walked home with him on his way to dinner at six o'clock, and Mr. Roper made no complaint whatever of feeling in any way indisposed. After dinner he retired to his room to write a letter at about nine o'clock. Soon afterwards Miss Kingan, with whom he resides, heard him coughing violently, and entered the room to ask if he needed anything. He was standing, holding on to a chair, and replied that he did not need anything. The words hardly passed his lips, however, before he tottered and fell to the floor. It was thought that he had merely fainted, and restoratives were applied, and medical aid summoned. The vital spark had fled, however, and the earthly career was ended of one of whom no memories but of the most pleasant kind will remain with his friends.

It is over forty years ago since the late J. H. Roper first came to Peterborough in the interests of the Royal Canadian Bank, which had a branch on the north-east corner of Hunter and Water streets, on the site now occupied by the Crown Inn. He was afterwards manager of the old Commercial Bank, which had an office where the Palace Restaurant now stands, afterwards removing to the present site of the Phelan House. When the Commercial Bank passed out of existence Mr. Roper's services were engaged by the Bank of Toronto, which concern he represented, as manager, in Brockville, and afterwards in Cobourg, being transferred from the latter point to Peterborough in the early seventies. Retiring from the management of the Bank of Toronto some ten or twelve years ago, he entered into partnership with Mr. R. Mulholland in conducting a private bank. This firm retired from business on Mr. Mulholland's removal to Toronto about five years ago, since when Mr. Roper has largely retired from active business, although latterly he has been connected with the Cereal Company staff.

The deceased was sixty-seven years of age, and was a native of Scotland, coming to Canada at an early age. He leaves a family of four sons and two daughters, viz., Messrs. Harry, Alfred and Percy, of Montreal; Ernest, of New York; Mrs. R. H. Fortye, of Peterborough; and Miss Margaret Roper, of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. He has also two brothers and three sisters living—Mr. F. E. Roper, Toronto; Mr. Edward Roper, Scotland; Mrs. Carey, Mrs. Merton, and Mrs. Taylor, Hamilton.

The deceased was a charter member and for many years an active worker in the local branch of the Royal Arcanum. At the time of his death he held the position of Chaplain in the Lodge.

He was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian church.

The funeral will take place from the residence of the Misses Kingan, at 2.30 o'clock, on Friday afternoon, interment taking place at the Little Lake cemetery.

A YOUNG LIFE GONE.

Demise of Miss Irene LaPlante, Daughter of Mr. Thos. LaPlante of Town.

The sympathy of the entire community will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. LaPlante in the untimely demise of their promising young daughter, Miss Irene, which occurred this morning after a lingering illness. The deceased young lady was 20 years of age and had many amiable qualities. She fell a victim to a chronic disease and notwithstanding all that medical skill could accomplish her young life could not be saved.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, No. 230 Rubidge street, at 9 o'clock on Friday morning to St. Peter's Cathedral, and thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery for interment.

This is the third member of Mr. LaPlante's family that has been taken away by the hand of death within the past 18 months.

CATHEDRAL WEDDING.

Mr. Leon Lafontaine Wedded to Miss Valerie Eugenie Brault of Town.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Cathedral at 9 o'clock this morning when Miss Valerie Eugenie Brault was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Leon Lafontine, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father O'Brien. The bride was married in her travelling dress of fawn broad cloth, trimmed with cream applique. She was attended by her neice, Miss Louise Laplante, while Mr. Alexander Miron, of Belleville, was best man.

The wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. J. B. Larocque.

The bride and groom were in receipt of many valuable and useful presents and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

WEDDING BELLS.

Mr. Reginald Farthing Married to Miss Elsie May Winters.

The residence od Mrs. Farnum, No. 20 College street, was the scene of a very interesting event at noon yesterday, when Miss Elsie May Winters, of Ennismore, became the partner in life of Mr. Reginald Farthing, of Harvey. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss E. A. Winters, and Mr. George Warnes acted as groomsman. The nuptial knot was tied by Elder Washington Morse, of town.

A pleasing inovation was introduced into the proceedings in the form of a literary programme in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

A loyal lover, ever true;
Yea, lover to the last;
For, stronger was the chain that grew
As years and years were passed.

THE VACCINATION.

The People are Responding to the Order of Compulsory Vaccination.

There is nothing very new to report regarding the local small-pox scare. The isolation hospital at Jackson Park and the boarding house on Aylmer street in which Mr. Joyce, the patient, boarded are under strict quarantine, and there does not appear to be any cause for alarm. The condition of the patient at Jackson Park has not changed much during the past few days. He is a pretty sick man, but the worst is not feared. The accommodation at the isolation hospital is excellent and the telephone service out to the park is now in order.

The Nicholls Hospital and the Frise house are also under quarantine.

IT'S WINTER IN EARNEST NOW

And you may expect the same thing to continue for the next couple of months. You must be careful of your health these days, and keep yourself comfortably clad. There's many a cold contracted at this time of the year that centres on some weak spot and develops into something more serious later. We have lots of comfortable things that you can buy for little money, particulary at this time of the year, as we are unloading, trying to reduce our stock before Inventory. We find it's much easier to count money than to measure goods.

FASHIONABLE ULSTERS

Are again the proper thing and we don't know of any garment that is more suitable for this winter weather. We have quite an assortment of ready-made ones that we are offering at big reductions — two-thirds of the regular price, which means a $15 ulster for $10, and other prices at the same reduction, or if you want one made to order we have the cloths and the dressmakers that will make you up one in short order, and we guarantee satisfaction.

A WINTER NECESSITY

For everyone and specially for children it is necessary to provide that which is comfortable and warm in cold weather. We have a specialty in a Warm Woollen Cloth, which is heavy enough to protect the body from cold, and firm enough to stand hard wear. It is all wool and in several pretty warm colours, and we are selling it now at Fifty Cents a yard. The regular price was 65 cents.

HOME COMFORT.

If you want both comfort and enjoyment from your days at home you must have soft, clinging garments, which have body enough to keep you warm and the sort of finish that would make you look well if visitors came. We are offering a line of wrapperettes at 15c a yard that are just the proper thing for you. The regular price was 20-23c per yard.

THE BEST STOCKINGS

For winter wear are those that will keep the feet warm and which don't pull or shrink. They'll wear better and be a pleasure every cold day. We have them in all sizes from the very smallest ones for boys and girls up to the full sizes for big boys and ladies, made in the very best imported wools. Stockings that we know will give you satisfaction, and the prices are very low when you consider the quality. We have lots of cheap ones, too, but we don't recommend you to buy cheap stockings.

HEAVY UNDERWEAR.

You can't get Underwear that's too warm for this climate, but it's getting late for the selling of them now. We are pushing them for that reason. We are showing nice heavy Wool Underwear in both Vests and Drawers at 50c a garment that ought to interest you if you are wanting anything in that way. They are certainly the best value in this city. THE BELLEVILLES WERE DEFEATED.

Colts Win Their First Junior Game by One Goal.

A FAIR CROWD PRESENT.

An Exciting Match The Result in Doubt Until the Last Minute of Play.

The Peterborough Colts redeemed the laurels which they lost to Norwood on Friday, by defeating the Belleville team last evening, after as hard fought a game as had been seen on the local rink in some time. The match was the first in the Junior Series of the O.H.A. for this district, and it looked in the first half as though a certain defeat was in store for the Colts, as the visitors had succeeded in shutting out the Peterboroughs and at the same time had tallied twice themselves. The Belleville men were somewhat heavier in build than the locals and had therefore an advantage in body checking, but the secret of their success in keeping the Colts from scoring did not lie in this fact, but rather in the clock-like precision with which their point-man and goal-keeper worked together. The latter was a wonder, and the way he took care of the shots which came at him from all directions, was marvellous. The crowd didn't seem to have a cheer left in it when the players were called on the ice after half time, but when Roy Armstrong made a pretty run up the ice and passed to Bert Cameron, who notched Peterborough's first point, there was a yell went up which must have startled some of the residents out in Monaghan. After that the crowd found their voices, and the noise was like unto the good old times when Lionel King and the others of that ilk used to sweep all before them. Things now seemed to be coming Peterborough's way, and the play was chiefly in Belleville's territory. Unfortunately Whitcroft received a bad cut near the eye which caused a delay, but he very quickly came back on the ice again, and the loss of blood appeared to do him good, as he played up better than ever after this, and as the result of a fast follow up scored Peterborough's next goal, and made the score a tie. Time, four minutes.

Allan scored the next for Belleville out of a scrimmage in 3 1-2 minutes, and Wally Robinson made the score a tie again two minutes later.

Burrows, Belleville's heavy-weight, was responsible for scoring the two following goals in 1 1-2 and 4 minutes respectively as the result of a couple of very fast dashes up the ice. This put the visitors in the lead once more by two goals, but the crowd never lost faith in the Colts as they seemed to be settling down to their work in better style every minute they played.

In the next game Roy Armstrong took the puck from the face-off and dashed straight in on the Belleville goal with it. He dodged both cover point and point and scored in fifteen seconds. Whitcroft did the very same thing in almost the same length of time and the game stood five goals all.

Burrows took the measure of the Peterborough net for the next one in just a minute later, but the Bellevilles had shot their bolt and the Colts pressed them hard from this out. Robinson scored in five minutes making the score a tie once more and Whitcroft, following up one of Armstrong's long lifts very quickly, took the puck off Wallace's stick and scored the deciding point thus winning the game for Peterborough. Only one minute was left to play and no more tallying was done the final score being 7-6 in favour of the Colts.

The two teams were composed as follows:

Belleville—goal, G. Rainbow; point, H. Wallace; cover point, G. Adams; forwards, S. R. Burrows, B. K. Allan, H. Galloway and W. Hough. Umpire, John Gordanier. Timekeeper, H. A. Fish.

Mr. E. Wasson's services as referee were solicited by Belleville and there wasn't a single kick at any of his decisions.

NOTES.

It was a brilliant Rainbow that Belleville had in the goal.

It is questionable whether it was exactly sportsmanlike for the team committee to play Armstrong and Whitcroft, as both will be ineligible to play when the Cobourg Juniors come here, giving the latter a good chance of winning on Peterborough ice. Belleville might thus be the best team and yet not win the district.

Speaking of Harold Armstrong, he certainly is a most brilliant player, and on his showing last night is fit for any company. Whitcroft was in no shape to play as he has not had his skates on before this season. He came to himself, however, towards the close of the match and played in something like his old form.

In Rob. Davidson the Colts have a steady man in the goal. He made some very clever stops last night, and showed that he was very quick in clearing.

There were very few delays last evening in the play, as in the event of broken skates, etc., a man dropped off the opposing team and the game went on.

When Innis Hamilton gets a little heavier he will make a good man at point. He has the nerve to charge but has not the weight to carry him through. He did some clever lifting last night.

TO-NIGHT.

FROM HALIFAX.

Trooper Trotter Sends a Letter to His Friends in Peterborough.

Halifax, Jan. 2, 1902.

My dear Bert —I now take the pleasure of writing you a few lines to let you know that I am still alive and hope that you are the same. Well, we are having a good time down here. We were out shooting to-day and I had good luck. There were 38 men out of our troop. Each was to shoot 14 shots which would make a possible total of 56 points for each one. Dr. Blanchard and I made 51 points each. The next highest score to us was 37, so that we did very very well. We had a grand trip out to Halifax. There are about 900 or 1,000 horses here and I got kicked on the hand by one of them. We get three square meals a day and plenty of work. We get up at 6.30 and have breakfast at 9.30. We would be all right if we had some of Michael Tooley's beer to drink. We pay 10 cents a glass for it so we can't buy very much of it. We only get 28 cents a day until we sail and then we get $1.24 a day. Give my kindest regards to all the folks.

Yours truly,
PTE. ALEX. TROTTER.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

Rev. Mr. Murphy was Listened to by a Large Congregation Last Night.

Another strong and practical address by Rev. Mr. Murphy was listened to last night by a larger congregation than on Monday evening. It was on the subject of "Jewels" from the text, Mat. iii., 17, "And they shall be Mine saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up My Jewels."

The name "Jewel" for the child of God is like the names of endearment used in homes. It expresses the worth of the soul in God's sight shown by the great cost of redemption.

Its worth is also shown by the great protection God affords to His trusting follower, as Elisha was protected by the hosts of Heaven though unseen by those who know not God.

The diamond and the soot are of exactly the same properties in themselves, but the one is able to reflect the light, the other is not. So men are of the same fleshly properties, but the Christian reflects the light of the Son of Righteousness, the others do not.

The Jewel may be increased in value by its cutting and polishing — Christians are to "Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The value of the Jewel depends on the numter of its facets—the value of the Christian is in the number of the traits of his character which reflects the character of Christ. But there are dinmonds and diamonds, some only counterfeits of the genuine. There are Christians and Christians—some genuine, some only in beautiful settings as officers of the church or Sunday school, but not Jewels of value to God. But there is one place where counterfeits are not found and that is in the Crown of Jewels—that would be a disgrace, and while there may be counterfeit Christians in the church on earth there will be no counterfeits in Heaven.

At the Childrens' service at 4 15, seating room was at a premium and these services may be held in the church to accommodate the large numbers.

Service to-night at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Captain Naaman."

A short work-out was indulged in after the game last evening. It is expected that the team to play at Lindsay on Friday will be one of the strongest that has represented the Intermediates, but the number of good men available makes the selection of a team come down almost to a matter of condition.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION

Given by St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild to St. Luke's Men's Guild.

Last night the Young Men's Guild of St. Andrew's church held their first meeting of the New Year in the church parlor. The occasion was the installation of the new officers for the year. The Rev. Mr. Potter acted as installing officer, and Mr. Wm. Langford as assistant. The list of officers for the ensuing year is as follows:—

President..... ... ... Thos. Anderson
Vice-President... ... ...W. Campbell
Secretary, ... John Lang.
Cor. Secretary .... Chas. Anderson.
Treasurer .... R.M. Glover.
Councillors—Willis Garrow, Peter Kerr Wm. Batten and H. H. Edmison.

The Rev. Mr. Potter, on his own behalf and on behalf of the Guild, expressed the great pleasure it gave them to have St. Luke's Men's Guild visit them in such large numbers, and felt that the result would be very beneficial to that growth of true religious interest that would make itself felt in such a community as this.

The Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, Rector of St. Luke's, replied in most felicitous language, and gave words of counsel that will be long remembered by all those present.

A paper was then read by Mr. A. C. McCallum on "How to draw a straight line." The scientific or technical was throughout made illustrative of moral and spiritual principles, and was in every sense beneficial to the members.

Mr. J. J. Turner, jr., gave a very earnest and practical address, speaking of his hearty appreciation of the kindness accorded, and expressing hope that at an early date there would be a return of compliments.

After some routine work, adjournment was made to the lecture hall, where refreshments were served by a most efficient committee. Several toasts were indulged in and responded to. Mr. R.H. Elliott proposed "Our Guests," which again elicited a very pleasant speech from Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, and also some helpful hints from Mr. F. Adams and R. B. Rogers.

Some instrumental and vocal music was indulged in, Messrs. R. Adams, J. Gerrard and Hancock taking part, after which a most successful meeting was closed with the national anthem and the benediction.

TO-NIGHT.

Peterborough's Rising Vocalist, Mr. James Dawson, will sing a number of his best songs at the Lecture by Prof O'Brien on Scientific Palmistry to-night in Sons of England Hall.

CRESSMAN

One of the chief points of Abbey's Effervescent Salt is it's superiority as a laxative—taking the place of nauseating draughts and other harsh remedies. It is particularly useful in cases of obstinate constipation, without being attended with debility of the stomach and bowels; not having the reactionary effect peculiar to most aperients and cathartics.

All druggists sell Abbey's Effervescent Salt, 25c. and 60c. a bottle.

STORIES OF SINGERS

TIMES WHEN THEIR VOICES WERE OF MORE WORTH THAN MONEY.

Santley's Adventure With a Band of Mexican Bandits—Some Experiences of the Tenor Marie—How Labiache Put a Bear to Flight.

Many years since, when traveling with some friends in Mexico, Charles Santley was captured by halfbreed bandits and, being unable to pay the large ransom demanded, carried off to the mountains. Over supper the singer, by no means weighed down by his mishap, chanced to break into song, which so delighted the brigand chief that he demanded an encore.

Santley saw his chance and expressed his willingness to comply on condition that he and his companions were granted their release. The suggestion was accepted, and for over two hours was the singer's voice raised in such exquisite melody that the bandits, true to their word, allowed him and those with him to depart.

The late Joseph Maas had a somewhat similar experience. Years back, when with a companion buffalo hunting on the American prairies, he was captured by Indians and carried to their camp. When at his wits' end how to extricate himself from the dilemma, his friend suggested the power of song. Forthwith he commenced an operatic selection that so delighted his captors that they loosened his bonds and urged him, at the point of their spears, to continue.

Luckily his voice had a soporific effect upon the Indians, who one by one dropped asleep until, just as he was on the point of stopping from exhaustion, the last passed into the realms of dreams. Then he and his companion quietly stole away.

His wonderful voice on one occasion placed the great tenor Mario in a somewhat invidious position. When traveling with some companions in Spain, he fell into the hands of a party of marauding gypsies, who demanded the customary ransom. Mario, tickled at the situation, answered their request in impromptu song, which he delivered with such exquisite mock dignity that his captors with unanimous acclamation elected him captain of their band. The singer diplomatically acquiesced in their decision, but in the course of the following day contrived to make his escape with his friends.

On another occasion in Madrid the same singer, as he was returning late one night from the theater where he was engaged, was arrested by the police in mistake for a political discontent. In vain he asserted his identity. He was carried before their chief, who likewise smiled incredulously at the captive's asseverations.

Greatly angered, Mario vehemently demanded that his friends should be forthwith communicated with, but the official shook his head and remarked that if indeed he were the great tenor he possessed in his voice a sure means of proving the truth of his words. Ten minutes later Mario was bowed out with many regrets and profuse apologies.

When traveling to Paris with some other ladies, Mme. Grisi had a thrilling adventure. At a small wayside station a man entered the carriage, and it soon became evident from his threatening gestures and eccentric behavior that he was a dangerous lunatic.

Though her companions were panic stricken, Mme. Grisi retained complete presence of mind and with the utmost composure began to sing. At once the maniac was quiet; his whole attention was riveted on that magnificent voice, and he remained the most appreciative of listeners until the train reached the next station, where he was secured. It transpired subsequently that he was a maniac with homicidal tendencies who had escaped from an asylum.

An amusing story is told of Labiache, the celebrated bass singer. One day as he was strolling leisurely through a French fair a cry was suddenly raised that a bear had escaped from the menagerie. The crowd fled in every direction—all save the singer, whose massive proportions precluded the idea of rapid motion. Amid the general commotion he among them all stood unmoved, calmly awaiting the advent of the ferocious beast, which sure enough came slouching rapidly toward him. When within a few feet, it halted as though to gather itself together for a final rush, when Labiache stepped forward and from the lowest depths of his immense chest sent forth such a thunderous roar that the terrified animal turned and fled.

When Will a Man Be Too Rich?

What will eventually be the limit of individual wealth? Half a century back "ten thousand a year" was considered to be a vast fortune. Then "fifty thousand a year" was the phrase commonly used to describe the income of fabulously rich men or women. Later we took to speaking of "millionaires." In quite recent times the "multimillionaire" with twenty millions had reached the limit of private wealth; then forty millions. Now the limit has risen to a hundred millions, and already the word "billionaire" has come into use in the United States. Will the multibillionaire ever replace the multimillionaire?—London Standard.

DON'T BECOME AN OBJECT

Of Aversion and Pity. Cure Your Catarrh. Purify Your Breath and Stop the Offensive Discharge.

Rev. Dr. Bochror, of Buffalo, says: "My wife and I were both troubled with distressing Catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from this aggravating malady since the day we first used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. Its action was instantaneous, giving the most grateful relief within ten minutes after first application. 50 cents. 9

PICK UP USEFUL TRICKS.

"Animals show great aptitude in learning things that are of peculiar interest to them in the struggle for existence," said a gentleman from one of the nearby parishes, "and I have been very much amused at times at the little things they do in an effort to comfort themselves and to make life's burden as light as possible. They are very astute at times.

"We have an old bay horse which is an expert when it comes to slipping the bridle, and even since we have discovered his peculiar trick it is almost impossible to keep him hitched on account of the proficiency he has acquired by long practice. He is one of the best natured horses I ever saw, and it is the easiest thing in the world to catch him. Really, he will meet you half way in the pasture if he thinks you are coming after him. He probably does this because he delights in slipping the bridle and getting away from you and probably causing you to walk several miles after sunset. For a long time I could not understand the ease with which he would slip his bridle and get away.

"I was always extremely careful about the throatlatch and would buckle it up so tight that it would seem almost cruelty to animals to force it any farther. In spite of this precaution, in a short while after the horse was hitched he would slip the bridle, leave it dangling from the post and gallop playfully down the road. Frequently I would have to walk miles in order to get back home. I finally concluded to make a closer study of the fellow in order to find out just how it was he could slip his head through a throatlatch that had been buckled so tightly under his neck. I learned how it was. He had a way of swelling the muscles of his throat and neck until there was probably a difference of several inches at the point where the throatlatch circled his neck near the head. He would keep his throat in this abnormal condition until he was hitched and the rider was out of sight. Then he would relax the muscles, rub his head against the post until the top of the bridle slipped over his ears, and then, because of the laxity of the throatlatch, it was an easy matter for him to pull his head through the frame of the bridle and skip out.

"In spite of the discovery, the old bay still slips the bridle, and I suppose he always will. He seems to enjoy it more than anything else in the world, and I never punish him for it now, as this is really the only fault he has. But it is very trying to one's patience when a fellow is forced to splash through the mud for several miles, and after dark at that."

Just a Cold in the Head!

But if it is followed by another cold, or some extra exposure, is liable to result in Nasal Catarrh. Unless a radical cure is obtained the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and finally the lungs become affected. Nothing cures colds so quickly and pleasantly as Catarrhozone. The Inspector of Mines of Nova Scotia, Mr. Neville, says, "Catarrhozone is the best remedy I have ever used. It cured me of catarrh of the head and throat, and I am pleased to recommend such a satisfactory remedy." Catarrhozone is a safeguard against Colds, Coughs, and Catarrh. It can be used while at work, in the church, theatre or street cars. Simply inhale Catarrhozone and it cures. Price $1; small size 25c. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, or will be supplied by N. C. Polson, Kingston, Ont.

A Singular Bequest.

A peculiar fate is said to overhang the family of the late Sir Julian Goldsmid. An ancestor of his, so says the legend, once gave shelter to a rabbi, who, at his death, left to him a bequest of a mysterious box, which was on no account to be opened until after the customary seven days of mourning. If opened before that time, a curse would fall upon the family.

Curiosity got the better of superstition, and the box was opened before the seven days were up. In it was found a document which said that as the injunction of the rabbi had not been heeded no future owner of the estate would be succeeded by a son. And such, strangely enough, has been the case ever since.

Arab Music.

Arab music has been described as the singing of a prima donna who has ruptured her voice in trying to sing a duet with herself. Each note starts from somewhere betwen a sharp and a flat, but does not stop even there and splits up into four or more portions, of which no person can be expected to catch more than one at a time.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

THE FATE OF CORONETS.

Lord Brougham's Became G. W. Childs' Fruit Dish.

Peers and their coronets are soon parted when the ceremonial use has been served. The fate of one coronet is told by a correspondent of M. A. P. He writes: "When I was staying some years ago in Philadelphia with G. W. Childs, the well known proprietor of The Ledger newspaper there, I noticed at dinner one evening a peculiarly shaped gilt stand used as a support for a china dish containing grapes. My host, observing that I was scanning it rather closely, said: 'Oh, that is the coronet Lord Brougham wore at the queen's coronation. I have taken out the velvet cap and turned it upside down. The golden balls form excellent feet, and it makes a most elegant dish stand.' Which it certainly did."

But what is the fate of coronets compared with the fate of coronation robes? A large portion of George IV.'s wardrobe, including the coronation robes, was put at public auction in the summer of 1831. There were 120 lots disposed of, and some of the items are interesting. A pair of fine kid trousers, of ample dimensions and lined with white satin, was sold for 12 shillings. The sumptuous crimson velvet coronation mantle, with silver star, embroidered with gold, which cost originally, according to the auctioneer, £500, was knocked down for 47 guineas; a richly embroidered silver tissue coronation waistcoat and trunk hose, £13. The purple velvet coronation robe, embroidered with gold, of which it was said to contain 200 ounces, brought only £55, although it cost his late majesty £300. An elegant and costly green velvet mantle, lined with ermine of the finest quality, presented by the Emperor Alexander to George IV., which cost 1,000 guineas, was sold for £125.

When the Bowels Are Constipated

The character of food, sedentary habits, and neglecting the calls of nature, may be set down as the usual causes of constipation. The accompanying derangements are indigestion, stomach trouble, liver and kidney diseases, and an endless amount of pain and suffering. Poisonous impurities when left in the blood, are bound to find lodgment in some weak spot of the system and the result is disease of the most deadly nature.

It is a serious smatter to neglect constipation. You may do so for a time, only to find that your health has been undermined by bodily derangements of the most deadly kind. You should have a movement of the bowels every day. To accomplish this, avoid concentrated foods, use vegetables and fruits freely, and take one of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills before retiring, two or three times a week, or oftener, if required.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are not an ordinary cathartic. They have a specific and combined action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and consequently cure constipation, and the accompanying derangements, thoroughly and well, by removing the causes. For the information of those who are not yet familiar with the peculiar merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, we might add that they are purely vegetable in composition, pleasant and natural in action, and remarkably prompt and far-reaching in effect, even in the most serious and chronic cases of constipation, kidney and liver diseases.

Persons with weak kidneys are peculiarly susceptible to sudden change of temperature, and for this reason need to be on a sharp lookout during the fall and winter seasons, lest the cold settle on these filterin gorgans and bring on Bright's disease of the kidneys, by far the most painful and fatal of diseases. Scores and hundreds of people make a practice of keeping Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house, and take one whenever the symptoms of constipation and kidney derangements make themselves known. Scanty, highly-coloured urine, painful urination, and pain in the back and limbs are the danger signals of kidney disease.

Whatever else you may neglect, do Wnot overlook the importance of keeping the bowels, the kidneys, and liver in healthful, vigourous action. There is no surer way of avoiding serious disease and prolonging life, and the evidence of the people of this country seems to prove conclusively that by far the most effective treatment in bringing about these results is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose; 25 cents a box; at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto. 6

Fishes That Sing.

The scievia, a little six inch chub variety of the lagoons of Italy, sticks its head above the water and sings a dainty song equal to that of some species of warbling birds; Trigia hirundo (the sea swallow) is known to every fisherman of the Danube and the Rhine by the peculiar grunting noise it makes. Trigia nolitans make a whining noise like a young puppy, while scivenæ gather in bands to hold regular concerts, no doubt originating the fable of the sirens.

ABOUT GAS METERS.

WHY THESE ERRATIC INSTRUMENTS DO NOT EXPLODE.

Such an Accident Is No More Likely to Happen to Them Than to Milk Bottles or Salt Bags—What Does Happen in Case of Fire.

The proneness of the average newspaper reporter to attribute cellar conflagrations to the explosion of gas meters represents what appears to be an ineradicable race trait. No amount of contradiction and no accumulation of proof that such an accident is an impossibility seems to reach the newsgatherers, who go on reporting the explosion of gas meters, doubtless because the firemen have a tradition that meters are explosive and give this explanation of every fire which they cannot otherwise account for.

For the reassurance of nervous people it gives us pleasure to say that no gas meter ever exploded since the world began, and until they are made on very different plans and contain gas of very different composition from that now used for illuminating purposes such an accident is no more likely to happen to them than to milk bottles or salt bags.

The domestic gas meter has a more or less well deserved reputation for habitual mendacity, though as likely to lie against the gas company as for it; but it has never done anything to warrant the suspicion that it is liable to go off with a bang. It is a tin box of a little less than one cubic foot capacity, put together with soldered seams and japanned.

Into and through it passes the gas, which enters through the service pipe connecting the main with the house, usually of half an inch diameter. It has very little capacity for gas storage, and is not strong enough to carry gas under a greater compression than, say, half a pound per square inch. More than this would bulge its sides. In point of fact the pressure of gas in meters is rarely more than enough to balance a column of water two or three inches high.

If a gas meter is exposed to great heat from external fire, nothing very serious happens. The soldered seams will probably melt, allowing the gas to escape. This gas is not explosive, however. It becomes so only when mixed with air in certain definite proportions.

Should this admixture exist in a meter, which is almost impossible, its shell is not strong enough to offer any great resistance, and should an explosion occur by reason of fire reaching this admixture of gas and air the meter would be wrecked, but it is doubtful of any other damage would result. None has been wrecked from this cause.

If the seams of the meter are opened by the melting of the solder or by fracture from accident, the gas within it would escape, and, if it had the chance, burn. Outside the meter it might have opportunity to form the explosive mixture with air and do some damage.

What actually happens in the case of fires attributed to the explosion of gas meters is usually this: Gas which has leaked from defective pipes or worked into the cellar from broken or defective street mains accumulates in pockets formed by rafters and elsewhere and remains there until it comes in contact with an accidental fire of some sort. A fire starts in the cellar and the temperature gradually rises until the smoldering rubbish bursts into flame. This reaches the mixture of gas and air along the ceiling and an explosion follows.

The meter, naturally enough, is thrown down and probably torn from its connections, and the conclusion is reached that, instead of being the victim of the accident, the inoffensive meter is the cause of all the trouble and has indulged its inherent propensity to set the house afire after lifting it from its foundations.

It is a perfectly safe generalization that the gas which makes trouble in cellars is wholly outside the meter and never inside of it. Grindstones sometimes explode with fatal results in saw factories, but the excellent old lady who, after reading of such an accident and recalling that there was an old grindstone in one corner of the cellar which had been there twenty years, hired a couple of tramps to carry it to the extreme corner of the garden and pour water on it for an hour, meanwhile giving thanks that it had not blown herself and family into eternity "unbeknownst to any of us," was of the type of those who, through fear of gas meter explosions, are all their lifetime subject to nervous chills.

There is not a gas meter in use under which it would not be perfectly safe to build a bonfire, provided, of course, there was not a quantity of gas outside of it which the same fire could reach.

Why Snow Is Not Black or Red.

Why is the snow white? is a question frequently asked. Because black snow would be dangerous; so would red or yellow. These are "warming up colors," and they change the sun's rays to heat. Such snow would soon melt again and prove a very poor protection. But white snow throws back the sunlight in just the form in which it receives it, and thus the snow can be long on the ground. Throw dirt on the snow and its dark color quickly makes it eat its way in whenever the sun shines on it. After a snowstorm, once let the horses' feet mingle the dirt of the road with the snow and sleighing will soon be over.—Professor S. C. Schmucker in Ladies' Home Journal.

To be sure, faint heart never won fair lady, but, on the other hand, discretion is seldom sued for breach of promise.

EVARTS' STRANGE CLIENT.

William M. Evarts was the most approachable of men while secretary of state. "I find that it pays better in the long run," he once said, "to see a man while the impulse is still fresh upon him and before he has had time to think up a set speech or prepare an argument. So when a caller asks me to fix a future day and hour for an interview of five minutes—he always wants just five minutes, no matter whether his errand merely involves the writing of an autograph or portends the collapse of an empire—I answer: 'I'm ready now. Go on.' Taken thus by surprise, he probably puts into the fewest words whatever he has in mind, and I get off easily.

"Once in awhile my confidence is imposed upon. I was just closing up my business at attorney general at the end of the Johnson administration when a man who announced himself as a New Yorker called; as usual, wished me to make an appointment and, also as usual, was admitted at once. He wore a very mysterious look and requested that I dismiss my secretary, as his business was of the most private nature. When he was sure that we were alone, he said:

"'Knowing that you are going back to private practice in New York, I wish to avail myself promptly of your services as a legal adviser.'

"I bowed.

"'As there should be no secrets between counsel and client,' he went on, 'I may as well tell you frankly that I am a sneak thief by profession and have devised what I believe to be a novel and ingenious trick, but before putting it into operation I should like to consult you about the law on the subject. Suppose I went into a savings bank and, by pretending to be one of the employees, led a depositor into handing me his money, using no force, of course, but simply accepting what he voluntarily handed me. Is there any statute under which I could be punished for that?'

"I suppose a good many lawyers would have knocked the fellow down, but I saw that he had no idea of insulting me, that he considered the whole thing a simple matter of business and that he had done me the compliment of a first choice from among all the members of the bar. So I answered quietly that I had never studied the law on that point and was too busy to look it up. 'You had better go to somebody else,' I added.

"'Well, would you do me the favor to recommend the lawyer who has made, in your judgment, the most exhaustive examination of the criminal law that fits a case like mine?' he persisted.

"'With pleasure,' I replied. 'Try the district attorney.'".

Mirrors and Lions.

"Lions object to mirrors," observed a keeper in a menagerie. "On one occasion a looking glass in the hands of a small boy so frightened and excited our largest lion that we feared he would injure himself. The wretched youngster had drawn a hand mirror from beneath his coat and held it before the face of the king of beasts. The latter looked and jumped for the rival whom he thought he saw. The bars of his cage dashed him back again and again, while he filled the whole house with terrific roars. I have known several other cases in which lions have been thrown into the wildest panic merely by a mirror being held up before them."

Peculiar Lakes.

On the Mangishlak peninsula, in the Caspian sea, there are five small lakes. One of them is covered with salt crystals strong enough to allow a man and beast to cross the lake on foot. Another is as round as any circle and a lovely rose color. Its banks of salt crystal form a setting, white as the driven snow, to the water, which not only shows all the colors from violet to rosy red, but from which rises a perfume as of violets. Both the perfume and the color are the result of the presence of seaweeds, the violet and the pink.

The Supreme Test.

Wigg—I never knew such a generous fellow as Bjones.

Wagg—That's right. The cigars he gives away are just as good as those he smokes himself.

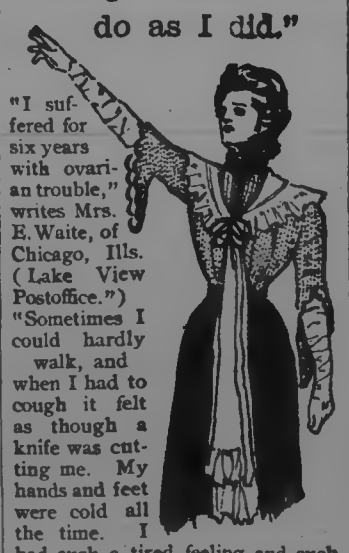
An article that is worth $3 is "raffled off" for $20 to make up for the trouble of selling the tickets.

Painful All Around.

Dumleigh—It was an awful trial for me to make that speech tonight.

Milkmay—Don't mention it, old boy; just think what the rest of us suffered.

"I hope others will do as I did."



"I suffered for six years with ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. E. Waite, of Chicago, Ills. (Lake View Postoffice.") "Sometimes I could hardly walk, and when I had to cough it felt as though a knife was cutting me. My hands and feet were cold all the time. I had such a tired feeling and such a poor appetite, and when I went to bed I slept only about two hours at a time. I got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and by the time I had used two bottles I felt so much better that I continued until I had taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am so well that my friends remark how well I am looking. I go to bed now and sleep till morning. My appetite is splendid and that tired feeling has left me. I hope others will do as I did—give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial."

IN A RUSSIAN BANK.

When I called at a bank in Russia to make a draft against my letter of credit, I was met at the door by a man in gorgeous livery with a long staff in his hand. He wore silk knee breeches, silver buckles on his shoes, a long scarlet coat with silver braid two inches wide, the epaulets of a major general and a big cocked hat. He led me into a reception room which was sumptuously furnished. It might have been the library of a club. There were fine oil paintings on the walls, bronze and marble statuary, and the furniture was artistic and expensive. Upon the center table were several volumes of photographs, a city directory, a railway guide, the last report of the bank, two or three guidebooks and several morning papers. Over in one of the corners was a handsomely carved writing desk furnished with all sorts of stationery.

While I was wondering what I was there for, a gentleman of irreproachable attire and manners entered and asked how he could serve me. I explained that I would like £50 on my letter of credit and wondered how he knew I was an American, but he had doubtless learned from long experience to distinguish the different nationalities, and I soon discovered by the manner in which he received subsequent arrivals that he could speak German and French as fluently as English.

I handed him my letter of credit, and he bowed politely and left the room. For a time I was alone with my own thoughts. I looked over all the books and papers, watched the traffic in the street from the window, made two or three entries in my notebook and wondered if the polite gentleman had not forgotten all about me, when a page in buttons entered with a silver tray, upon which were two drafts—duplicates—for my signature. The little fellow bowed like a French dancing master and seemed to be deeply impressed with a sense of responsibility. He came in several times afterward on similar service for other people, and his salutes were repeated each time with an exactness that showed careful training.

I was afraid he was going to be gone all day and became impatient. I sat down at the desk to write a letter and had written nearly a whole sheet when he came back with my letter of credit and the money upon his tray. But the latter was all in big bills. I handed him one of them and asked him to get it changed. He bowed again and disappeared. I must have spent fifteen minutes regretting my folly when the handsome manager came in to inquire if there had been a mistake. He seemed to think I had been overpaid and was greatly relieved when I told him I only wanted a bill changed. He disappeared, and it was another ten minutes before the boy returned with the smaller bills. I had been in that room for more than three-quarters of an hour.

Loss of Flesh.

If you find yourself falling below normal weight there is danger. The use of fish oils can temporarily add fat, but will never build up healthy tissue. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts through the blood and nervous system and carries new life and energy to every nook and corner of the body. It regulates the various organs of the body, makes the appetite good, adds healthy flesh and replaces the tissues wasted by disease. Gradually and naturally this food cure restores colour to the cheeks, increases the weight of the body, and thoroughly overcomes disease.

Thorough Dramatic Criticism.

Two young men sat through the first act at a local theater, then adjourned to a neighboring tavern for refreshment. The acting was bad and would have excused the use of stimulants by any but the players. When about to re-enter the building, only one could produce his return check.

"It's all right," said he of the check airily. "You remember him. He's with me."

"Yes," answered the gatekeeper, more doubtful than polite, "but he may have given his check to some other person."

"But he didn't," was the convincing reply. "He's a stranger here and hasn't an enemy in the city."

The gate opened wide.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS.

To the chairman and members of the Peterborough Board of Education:

Gentlemen,—Your Committee beg leave to report and recommend that the salary of the Public School Inspector be increased by $100.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. G. FERGUSON, Chairman.

The above resolution evoked considerable discussion and drew from Mr. Langford a resolution to the effect that the salary of the inspector be not increased. The amendment was lost the vote including that of the chairman being a tie. The following was the division:

Against the amendment, Messrs. Ferguson, Fair, Hartley, Burnham, Eastwood and Hill.

The original motion, favouring the increase, resulted in a tie on the same division, and was therefore not carried.

Mr. Bamford introduced a resolution providing for the payment by the town treasurer of certain monthly installments as necessitated by the estimates.

The resolution was carried.

VACCINATION.

Dr. Burnham introduced a resolution making it compulsory for the scholars attending the schools of the town to be vaccinated, under penalty of not being allowed to attend school. The resolution contained the words whereas, etc., the usual number of times and was strictly according to the law. However it raised a storm of opposition from Mr. Langford and Mr. Bamford, who thought the measure entirely uncalled for. The town council had adopted compulsory vaccination and there was no need of the Board of Education entering further into the matter they thought.

Mr. James Stevenson spoke strongly against the adoption of such a resolution and finally Mr. J. J. Hartley proposed an amendment declaring that it is advisable that parents should have their children vaccinated. Mr. Langford seconded the amendment and the same carried.

The Board then adjourned.

Well, it has been a good faithful Watch, and has earned a rest. Lay it aside, and get a new one at Schneider's while his prices are reduced. The world is moving: you must carry a reliable Watch, or drop behind.

If the Watch is a comparatively new one, it may only need cleaning and oiling, and we can put it on tick and time again at a trifling cost.

TEN BYE-ELECTIONS

Candidates Nominated for Parliament on Wednesday.

ONLY ONE BY ACCLAMATION.

Dr. Beland of Beauce Was the Fortunate Man—Kingston's Men—Hon. Wm. Harty and Mr. J. H. Metcalf—West York's Nomination Meeting Ends in the Glory and Splendor of a Fight.

Weston, Jan. 9.—At the nomination for the House of Commons yesterday to fill the vacancy in West York created by the death of Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, Alex. Campbell, ex-M.P., West Toronto Junction, was nominated by the Liberals, and Thomas F. Wallace of Woodbridge, brother of the late member, by the Conservatives.

Ended in a Fight.

The nomination meeting lasted six hours and ended in all the blaze and splendor of a fight. Squire Ellis, returning officer, took his place at 12 o'clock, and by 2 o'clock, when the public meeting commenced, the hall was crowded almost to suffocation. The joint meetings which have been held throughout the riding took the edge off the nomination proceedings, as the usual anticipation of seeing the two candidates face to face has been discounted here. Mr. Campbell was supported by Hon. Dr. Landerkin and Mr. W. J. Hill, M. P. P., and Mr. Wallace had the assistance of Mr. Richard Blain, M.P., (Peel), and Mr. J. W. St. John.

The fight arose from Mr. Blain's calling a gentleman in the body of the hall a blackguard. The insult was naturally resented, both by the gentleman addressed and the audience, and at the close of Mr. Blain's address, the last of the afternoon, the indignant elector marched up to the platform and struck at the member, who hit back at him, but they were separated without any blows being actually received. The incident, deplorable in itself, was rendered still more unpleasant by the presence of a number of ladies, who were naturally alarmed when the men from the back of the hall started a foot race over the benches to the scene of conflict.

Beith—Thornton.

Bowmanville, Jan. 9.—C. J. Thornton, Conservative, and R. Beith, Liberal, were nominated to contest West Durham for the House of Commons yesterday. The election is caused by the unseating of Mr. Thornton. A number of Cabinet Ministers are in the riding speaking in the interests of Mr. Beith.

Frost—Porter.

Belleville, Jan. 9.—E. Gus Porter, barrister, was nominated yesterday by the Conservative party to contest the west riding of Hastings. J. G. Frost, merchant, was nominated by the Liberals. The election is occasioned by the resignation of H. Corby, the Conservative member. In addition to the candidates, Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Mr. M. B. Morrison, M.P.P., spoke for Mr. Porter, and D. J. Simmons spoke for the Liberal candidate.

Wartman—Avery.

Tamworth, Jan. 9.—Nominations for the bye-election for the House of Commons in Addington took place yesterday. Messrs. M. Avery, Sharbot Lake, Conservative, and F. S. Wartman, Colebrooke, Liberal, were nominated. The vacancy was caused by the death of J. W. Bell, Conservative. The candidates and Andrew Broder, M.P., Conservative, and Hugh Guthrie, M.P., Liberal, spoke at the public meeting.

Harty—Metcalf.

Kingston, Jan. 9.—The nominations for the vacancy in Kingston in the Dominion Parliament occurred yesterday. Messrs. W. Harty, Liberal, and J. H. Metcalf, Conservative, were put in nomination. The meeting adjourned at 12.30 o'clock for an hour, when the speeches were made. D. C. Fraser, M.P., Guysboro, N.S., spoke for Mr. Harty, and Mr. Metcalf in his own and party's behalf.

Farquharson—McLean.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Jan. 9.—Yesterday was nomination day in West Queen's, to fill the vacancy in the House caused by the retirement of Sir Louis Davies. The Liberals nominated Donald Farquharson, and the Conservatives, A. A. McLean, barrister.

Brunet—Bergeron.

Montreal, Jan. 9.—Mr. J. S. H. Bergeron, ex-M.P., was nominated in St. James' by the Conservatives, while Ald. Brunet was put forward by the Liberals. Both candidates addressed the public meeting after the nomination.

Wilson—Leonard—Goyer.

Montreal, Jan. 9.—In Laval nominations took place yesterday at Ste. Rose, where the Conservatives nominated E. Leonard; the straight Liberals, Mr. A. C. Wilson and the Independent Liberals Mr. A. Goyer, an alderman of St. Louis de Mile End. At St. Rose, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Senator Casgrain and Mr. H. C. St. Pierre, K.C., spoke for Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Monk, M.P., Hon. S. C. Tallion and Hon. P. E. Leblanc championed Mr. Leonard's cause.

Carbonneau—Caron.

Quebec, Jan. 9.—Onesiphore Carbonneau (Liberal) and Joseph Edouard Caron (Independent) were nominated yesterday for the representation of the County of L'Islet in the House of Commons.

Beland by Acclamation.

Montreal, Jan. 9.—In Beauce three Liberal were aspirants, and as no other agreement could be reached all retired in favor of Dr. H. S. Beland, the local member, who was elected by acclamation.

THE VACCINATION.

Many Have Taken Advantage of the Opportunity—Yesterday's Business.

The public vaccination which has been in progress for the past few days in the Town Council Chamber has proved a great success. Between three and four hundred people have been treated by the local physicians in this manner, and amongst the number are His Worship Mayor Denne, Police Magistrate Dumble, Town Solicitor E. B. Edwards, and a couple of members of the Police force. All sizes, ages and sexes have attended at the Town Council Chamber, and have responded to the call, "Next!"

Yesterday was a fairly busy day, and about 130 persons were vaccinated. Up until noon to-day about 100 had been treated, and there is reason to believe that from this time forward the physicians will be just as busy. Of course there are many people who are too modest to attend at the Town Council Chamber and the physicians of the town have done quite a little business in this line at their offices. Provisions for public vaccination provide for those who cannot afford to pay the sum of 25c. In such cases the patient receives an order from the Relief Officer of the Central Charity Board, and they are vaccinated at the town's expense. There have been a few who have taken advantage of this privilege.

10 a.m. to 11 a.m.—Dr. Pigeon and Dr. Young.

11 a.m. to 12 noon.—Dr. McGrath and Dr. Burnham.

3 p.m. to 4 p.m.—Dr. Moher and Dr. Bradd.

4 p.m. to 5 p.m.—Dr. McFall and Dr. Jessie Birnie.

DIED IN THE STATES.

Mr. Joseph McDonough, Son of Mr. John McDonough of Town.

Mr. Thomas J. McDonough, of the Oriental Hotel last night received a telegram from Meriden, Conn., informing him of the death of his brother Joseph. The deceased was 30 years of age, and was the son of Mr. John McDonough, Bolivar street. He left here about 6 years ago to accept a position in Meriden, where his demise occurred. Previous to that time he was employed in the Lock Works. Joe was one of Peterborough's best lacrosse players some years ago and his demise will be regretted amongst a wide circle of friends. Interment will take place in the States.

SPECIAL COURSE IN MANUAL TRAINING FOR TEACHERS.

The school boards of a number of cities and towns in Ontario have been seeking for qualified instructors in Manual Training. It seems desirable that Canadian teachers should be prepared to accept these positions. By the kind co-operation of the Department of Education of Toronto, it is announced that a bonus of $120 each will be paid to a number of approved teachers from Ontario, who complete the course successfully. Applications stating qualifications and professional standing should be made immediately to Mr. Albert H. Leake, Director of Manual Training, Ottawa, Ont.

The assembly was brought to a close by singing and prayer, and every one pleased that they had met each other, also expressing a wish that Mr. and Mrs. Taylor might live to spend many such New Years in their beautiful home.

GALWAY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

New Year's Day saw the opening of the Roman Catholic Presbytery in Galway, and a grand dinner and supper was given by Rev. Father O'Leary to the parishioners. Rev. Father O'Leary was the recipient of many valuable presents. The house was artistically decorated with flowers and evergreens and the evening was spent in playing games and social intercourse. No pains were spared by the reverend gentleman to make the evening most enjoyable. Among the many guests were Mr. and Misses O'Leary of Indian River and Mr. Foley of Lakefield. All will join in wishing Rev. Father O'Leary every success and happiness in his new home.

BAD BLOOD.

You can't be healthy if your blood is impure or watery,—if poison is circulating through your arteries instead of rich, pure, life-giving blood.

If you feel, drowsy, languid,—are constipated, have pimples or blotches breaking out on your body, the remedy for you is Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I have been using B.B.B., also my brother and sister-in-law, and we find it a most reliable and efficacious blood purifier, and most cordially recommend it. We purchased it from J. R. Ault & Sons of this town." MISS C. M. WATSON, Aultsville, Ont.

BBB FOR THE BLOOD

Paine's Celery Compound

The Sure Banisher of Disease and Giver of Good Health.

Vigorous youth and robust manhood and womanhood are blessings that come to those whose nerves are strong, whose bodily organs are healthy and active and whose blood is pure and rich with nourishment.

Paine's Celery Compound is the one medicine for the banishment of disease. It braces the nerves, makes pure blood and gives strength to every important organ of the body. It has given a new lease of life to thousands whose cases were considered critical. Its powers and virtues will without fail give you the new health and strength you so earnestly look for.

Mrs. A. Perry, Port Maitland, N. S. writes thus, "For two years my system was all run down, and I suffered more than I can describe from nervous prostration and insomnia. At time I almost lost my reason from severe pain at the base of the brain. My husband advised me to try Pain's Celery Compound, which I did and the effects were wonderful. I soon began to sleep well and the pain left my head; my whole system was strengthened, and I now enjoy very good health.

PROHIBITION DELAYED.

Another Vote on Liquor Law to Be Taken in Manitoba.

Winnipeg, Jan. 9.—The Telegram, the local Government organ, said last night: Mr. Roblin was seen by a Telegram reporter yesterday morning, who said:

"The enforcement of the Liquor Act will be submitted to the will of the people as soon as possible after the close of the session. Provision will be made for this at the coming session of the Legislature, but as I said before, the Government will not alter the Act in any way."

Canada's Trade.

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—The aggregate trade of the Dominion for the five months ended November 30 of the present fiscal year amounted to $189,842,135, as compared with $176,588,527 for the corresponding five months of the preceding year, an increase of $13,253,608. The imports increased from $77,000,000 to $84,000,000, and the exports from $99,000,000 to $105,000,000.

GOOD COLORS ARE ESSENTIALS TO SUCCESS IN THE MAKING OF MATS AND RUGS.

When you colour yarns, rags, warps and other materials for the making up of homemade mats and rugs, the Diamond Dyes should be used at all times, as they produce the clearest and prettiest shades and colours that are absolutely fast. Good colours are prime essentials in making up mats and rugs. Do not be induced to buy imitation or worthless dyes from any dealer, simply because he may recommend them; his only interest in poor package dyes is the large profit they give. Insist upon having the Diamond Dyes.

The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 200 Mountain street, Montreal, P. Q., will be pleased to send free to any address sheets of the Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns. See them before you buy others.

EXPORTS TO THE OLD LAND.

Valued at $35,000,000—Cattle and Dairy Produce Decrease.

London, Jan. 9.—From official returns, just issued, the main imports from Canada for the year just ended embraced 88,559 cattle, valued at £1,491,472; sheep and lambs numbered 68,010, valued at £99,506; bacon, 898,697 cwts., £921,509; hams, 125,867 cwts., £304,822; butter, 215,588 cwts., £1,008,002; cheese, 1,547,719 cwts., £3,697,780; eggs, 703,433 great hundreds, £255,766, and 1,500 horses, £46,737.

Cattle show a slight decrease, as compared with the former year; so do bacon, hams, eggs and cheese. The importation of horses dropped 50 per cent., while the falling off in butter is quite 30 per cent.

There is a decided increase in wood pulp, the value of that commodity being £312,084, as compared with £246,435, the showing for 1900.

The total value of Canadian imports for the year was £17,227,752. The exports to Canada totalled £5,096,846.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

The Empress in Control.

Pekin, Jan. 8.—All the evidences indicate that the Emperor of China is now more completely under the domination of the Dowager Empress than he was before the Chinese court went into exile. Several high officials were granted audiences to-day during which the Emperor filled the role of figurehead. The Dowager Empress sat on His Majesty's left and conducted the conversations.

The Dowager Empress has signed an edict ordering the decapitation of Gen. Tung Fuh Siang, the notorious anti-foreigner.

Funeral of Justice Gwynne.

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—Funeral services over the remains of the late Judge Gwynne took place in St. Alban's Church yesterday afternoon, and were attended by all the justices of the Supreme Court, and by Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. R. W. Scott and Hon. Dr. Borden of the cabinet. The chief mourners were Mr. William Gwynne, barrister, of Toronto, son of the deceased judge, and Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, son-in-law.

TO EXCLUDE CHINESE.

Comprehensive Bill That Will Be Introduced From the Pacific.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The Senators and representatives of the Pacific Coast, who have been considering a bill for Chinese exclusion, have perfected a measure, which will be introduced in both houses in a few days. It is much more comprehensive than any bills that have been presented heretofore on this subject, most of which simply provided for excluding Chinese or re-enacting the Geary law. The bill under consideration does not limit itself to any term of years, as did the Geary act, but, if passed, in its present form, would be perpetual, unless repealed.

The bill declares that all Chinese, other than citizens of the United States under the present treaty with China, shall be refused admission and returned to the country whence they came at the expense of the transportation company bringing them.

The only Chinese person permitted to enter the United States under the act are those who have become citizens by birth and naturalization, and officials of the Chinese Government, teachers, students, merchants, travelers for pleasure or curiosity, returning laborers, who must have certificate, or domiciled merchants. No Chinese, except diplomatic or consular officers, are allowed to enter the United States at any other ports than San Francisco, Port Townsend, Washington, Portland, Oregon; Boston, New York, New Orleans, Honolulu, San Juan and Manilla. Ports may be designated on the Canadian or Mexican boundary after contracts have been made with transportation lines to comply with the act.

Provision is made for the registration of all Chinese now in the United States to be completed within six months after the passage of the act. All registered Chinese shall have a certificate, with photograph attached, and those without certificates at the end of six months shall be deported

Does Not Disappoint.

The New Discovery for Catarrh Seems to Possess Remarkable Merit.

A new catarrh cure has recently appeared, which so far as tested, has been remarkably successful in curing all forms of catarrh, whether in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, or in stomach and liver.

The remedy is in tablet form, pleasant and convenient to take, and no special secrecy is maintained as to what it contains, the tablet being a scientific combination of Blood root, Red gum, and other similar valuable and harmless antiseptics.

the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

Whether the catarrh is located in the nose, throat, bronchial tubes, or stomach, the tablets seem to act with equal success, removing the stuffy feeling in head and throat, clearing the mucous membrane of throat and trachea from catarrhal secretions, which cause the tickling, coughing, hawking and gagging so annoying to every catarrh sufferer.

Nasal catarrh generally leads to ulceration, in some cases to such an extent as to destroy the nose entirely and in many old cases of catarrh the bones of the head become diseased. Nasal catarrh gradually extends to the throat and bronchial tubes and very often to the stomach, causing that very obstinate trouble, catarrh of the stomach.

Catarrh is a systemic poison, inherent in the blood, and local washes, douches, salves, inhalers and sprays have no effect on the real cause of the disease. An internal remedy, which acts upon the blood is the only rational treatment and Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the safest of all internal remedies, as well as the most convenient and satisfactory from a medical standpoint.

Dr. Eaton recently stated that he had successfully used Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in old chronic cases, even where ulceration had extended so far as to destroy the septum of the nose. He says, "I am pleasantly surprised almost every day by the excellent results from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. It is remarkable how effectually they remove the excessive secretion and bring about a healthy condition of the mucous membranes of the nose, throat and stomach.

All druggists sell complete treatment of the Tablets at 50 cents and a little book, giving the symptoms and causes of the various forms of catarrh, will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

SPEECH FROM THRONE

Sir Oliver Mowat Opens the Provincial Parliament.

NEW MEMBERS INTRODUCED.

Messrs. Garrow, Lee and Leys—Legislation Respecting the Sale of Liquors Promised—A Government Railway and Assessment Laws Foreshadowed—Lieut.-Governor's Health Was Observed to Be Good.

Toronto, Jan. 9.—Despite a drizzling downfall and general uncheerfulness without, a large gathering witnessed the opening of the Legislature yesterday afternoon. The restraint of Court mourning, owing to the death of Queen Victoria, which prevailed last year, had been removed, and as it is the last session of this Parliament the attendance and interest were greater than usual. Sir Oliver Mowat, the veteran Lieutenant-Governor, whose health continues good, despite his advanced years, again officiated, attended by his staff and a guard of honor. Premier Ross and the members of his Cabinet were early in the chamber to greet their fellows and friends.

Sir Oliver Mowat then read the speech from the throne as follows:

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

I take great pleasue in again meeting you as representatives of the Province in Parliament assembled.

Since the last meeting of the Legislature we have been honored by a visit from Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. I was greatly pleased to notice the hearty reception given to Their Royal Highnesses in every part of Ontario which the limited time at their disposal permitted them to visit. The gracious manner in which they received the expressions of loyalty which their presence evoked and the interest they manifested in every matter pertaining to the prosperity of the Province will, I trust, strengthen our attachment to the empire which they so worthily represented, and in which we, as a Province, are so deeply interested.

Prospering Industries.

I congratulate you on the continued prosperity of the lumbering industry, which gives employment to so many of our people and from whom such a large revenue is derived.

The permanent Crown forest reserves, amounting to over a million and a half acres, have been carefully protected during the past season, and no loss of any consequence from fires or other causes has occurred. Steps are being taken to further increase these reserves in order if possible to establish a perpetual source of income from the forests of the Province.

The mining industry of Ontario is making steady and satisfactory progress. More capital and labor are now being employed in mining operations than at any previous time, and the output of the chief mineral products of the Province is rapidly and steadily increasing in both quality and value.

Homes For Farmers.

The work of settling the agricultural lands of the Crown has been successfully prosecuted during the year. Extensive areas have been disposed of to actual settlers, most of whom are from southern Ontario. It is satisfactory to know that those who leave the older settlements of the Province to obtain homesteads or employment in newer fields now realize that they can find unexcelled opportunities within our own boundaries.

The adequate care and maintenance of the insane of our population still enguges the attention of the Government. Additional accommodation for 150 patients has been furnished by the completion of the new asylum buildings at Cobourg. This will relieve, for the time being, the existing congestion of the asylums of the Province, but I fear you will be again called upon at no distant period to consider the advisability of making further provision for the accommodation of the increasing number of this afflicted class.

Educational Progress.

I am glad to learn that very satisfactory progress has been made in the promotion of technical education and that in several of our towns and cities special buildings and suitable equipment for the purpose have been generously provided, and also that the system of traveling libraries for the newer parts of the Province, for which provision was made a year ago, has met with general approval.

The Revised Statutes.

The compilation of the Imperial statutes in force in the Province of Ontario under the provisions of Chapter III., R.S.O., has been completed and embodied in what will constitute Volume III. of the Revised Statutes. This compilation, with necessary legislation, will be submitted for your consideration, and I have no doubt will be regarded with great favor by the legal profession and the public.

Agricultural Prosperity.

The year just closed has been one of very gratifying prosperity to the agricultural classes. The growth of the dairy interests of the Province is especially noteworthy, and the marked success of the exhibitors of the Province at the Pan-American Exhibition evinces the intelligence with which agricultural operations of every kind are carried on within the Province.

The improvements made at the Agricultural College by the erection of a physical and biological laboratory, and the early completion of the Massey Library and Museum, will add greatly to the efficiency of the college, and place it among the first agricultural colleges of America.

Beet Sugar Production.

I am pleased to learn that the legislation of last session for the encouragement of the beet sugar industry is likely to produce the results desired. The experiments conducted by the Department of Agriculture conclusively show that the Province is most favorably adapted to the growing of sugar beets, and several companies are now preparing to undertake the work of sugar production.

The amendments to the factories act, requiring the owners of factory buildings to provide suitable fire escapes, have greatly increased the safety of the operatives and others connected with the mechanical industries of the Province.

The Fishing Industry.

It is gratifying to be able to state that the fishing industry has during the year been unusually prosperous. The work inaugurated last year of restocking the inland lakes and rivers will be continued during the approaching season.

New Legislation.

Measures will be submitted concerning the sale of intoxicating liquors, the construction of a railway from North Bay to Lake Temiskaming, increased representation for the northern districts of the Province, the assessment laws, the fisheries and extra-Provincial corporations.

The report of the Royal Commission appointed to revise the assessment laws of the Province and the reports of the several departments of the public service will be laid before you in due course.

The estimates for the current year, prepared with as great regard to economy as is consistent with efficient service and the growing wants of the Province, will be submitted for consideration at an early date.

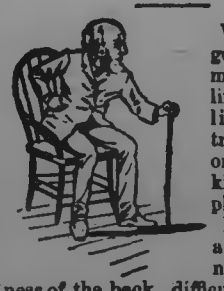
The House in Session.

At the conclusion of the speech the Lieutenant-Governor withdrew, and immediately in walked Sergeant-at-Arms Glackmeyer, carrying the mace. Speaker Evanturel walked in his wake, and from the throne read the new legislature prayer, in which reference is now made to the heir-apparent and his consort, as Prince George of Wales and the Princess of Wales.

The usual motions respecting justices of the peace and a striking committee were made, followed by the introduction of three new members: Hon. J. T. Garrow, West Huron; Lieut.-Col. Leys, London, and Mr. John Lee, East Kent. Mr. Lee was the only one of the three actually new to the House. All three members are Liberals. Announcement was also made by the Speaker of the resignation of Hon. William Harty, member for Kingston, who has accepted the Liberal nomination for the House of Commons. The House then adjourned.

The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne will be begun this afternoon. The mover in the debate will be Mr. J. F. Gross (Welland), and the seconder Lt.-Col. Mutrie (South Wellington.)

Old Folks' Backache.



When people get past the meridian of life they are liable to be troubled more or less with kidney complaint.

Pains and aches, stiffness and soreness of the back, difficulty in urination and frequent rising at night are some of the troubles that seriously afflict the old.

There is no remedy brings such relief and comfort to those advanced in life as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They soothe all irritation, tone up and invigorate the urinary organs, clear away all sediment, take the ache and pain out of the back and permit undisturbed rest at night.

SPRIGHTLY AT 69.

Mrs. Geo. Boutin, Harrington Street, Arnprior, Ont., says: "I have had so much benefit from using Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets that I do not hesitate to recommend them. Since I used them I am free from that constant backache that quite unnerved me and robbed me of all energy. My kidneys have been so invigorated that there now remains no annoyance or inconvenience from the secretions. I wish you could see my father. He is sixty-nine years of age and before using Pitcher's Kidney Tablets suffered acutely from rheumatism in his back. Now he is sprightly and nimble as a young man. He says never anything before did him as much good as Pitcher's Tablets. I am confident that those who have failed heretofore to obtain any relief from bad backs and sluggish kidneys will find themselves well rewarded by using Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail, THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

"I Pity The Poor Fellows Who Board in Homes and Hotels Where They Never Get Malt Breakfast Food At the Morning Meal."

From a letter written by a prominent government official in Ontario to the manufacturers of Malt Breakfast Food, the following extract is taken:

"After two months use of Malt Breakfast Food in my family it has become a valued and permanent friend. There is nothing else in the form of a breakfast food that can ever take its place with us. Many of my friends are using it, and praise it highly as a health food. I pity the poor fellows who are obliged to board in homes and hotels where they never get Malt Breakfast Food at the morning meal. They miss one of the best things of life. The sooner they marry and secure homes of their own where they can command this best of health foods, the better it will be for their future health."

BUTTER AND CHEESE MEN.

President Derbyshire of Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association Gives Startling Industrial Figures—A Bright Future.

Whitby, Jan. 9.—The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association opened yesterday morning. President Derbyshire in his augural address said:

"We made 2,494,686 boxes of cheese in 1901, valued at $17,500,000. Of these 400,000 remain on hand. Prices for cheese have not been so high as last season.

"Of creamery butter we made 670,893 packages, valued at $8,000,000. Of these we have on hand 25,000, and have consumed 200,000 packages.

"The cheese and butter came to $25,000,000, or a gain of $500,000 over 1900. To this we must add our hog products $14,500,000, making 40,000,000 our dairymen have produced in 1901. The future of our business is bright."

He entered a strong plea for improvement all along the line, and was in favor of adding another instructor to the list, making three in all.

The committees were then appointed.

Hon. Sydney Fisher summed up the afternoon's work by declaring a competent cheese and butter maker was worth $1,000 to $2,000 a year.

In the evening in the Music Hall Mayor Ross welcomed the Association to the town. Hon. John Dryden, W. H. Hoyle, M.P.P., A. Pattullo, M.P.P., and William Ross, M.P., delivered addresses.

Hon. Sydney Fisher delivered an address, in which he attributed the present dangerous condition of cheese to lack of ventilated chambers in vessels, to improperly ventilated railway cars, and to the lack of proper curing houses.

Just a Cold in the Head!

But if it is followed by another cold, or some extra exposure, is liable to result in Nasal Catarrh. Unless a radical cure is obtained the Throat, Bronchial Tubes, and finally the lungs become affected. Nothing cures colds so quickly and pleasantly as Catarrhozone. The Inspector of Mines of Nova Scotia, Mr. Neville, says, "Catarrhozone is the best remedy I have ever used. It cured me of catarrh of the head and throat, and I am pleased to recommend such a satisfactory remedy." Catarrhozone is a safeguard against Colds, Coughs, and Catarrh. It can be used while at work, in the church, theatre or street cars. Simply inhale Catarrhozone and it cures. Price $1; small size 25c. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, or will be supplied by N. C. Toronto Trolley Cars Collide.

Toronto, Jan. 7.—The corner of Dovercourt road and Bloor street was the scene last night of one of the most serious accidents that have occurred in the history of the Toronto Railway Company. Considerable damage was occasioned to two cars, one of the motormen, named Bennison, received probably fatal injuries, and 20 passengers were badly shaken up.

Mrs. Ball Died in Guelph.

Toronto, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Ball, widow of the late Rev. W. S. Ball, a well-known Presbyterian clergyman, died at Guelph last night. Mrs. Ball was the only surviving member of the older generation of the Brown family, she being a sister of the late Hon. George Brown and the late Mr. Gordon Brown. Mr. Ball, her husband, died in June, 1897. Mrs. Ball leaves seven sons and two daughters.

Seven Hundred on Strike.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 9.—Seven hundred miners employed at the Buttening colliery of the Parish Coal Company went out on strike yesterday morning.

PROF. O'BRIEN'S LECTURE

A Masterful Exposition of Scientific Palmistry.

On Wednesday evening Professor O'Brien delivered his lecture on Scientific Palmistry, to an appreciative audience in the Sons of England Hall. The Professor introduced his subject by an appropriate reference to the wonderful events of the past century, culminating with the latest achievement of Marconi in wireless telegraphy. He then dealt in clear and explanatory terms with the science of palmistry, illustrating his subject by a chart of the hand. The Professor stated that palmistry was well known and practised long before the time of Christ. He named Napoleon, Gladstone, Chamberlain and other great men as believers in palmistry, and gave several passages in the Bible in support of his theory, as follows: Job xxxvii, 7, "I read in the hand of all men God placed some signs that they could thus know their work." Rev. xiv, 9, "And receive this mark, (God's mark) on his forehead or in his hand." Prov. iii, 16, "Length of days are in her right hand, riches and honour in her left." I Sam. xxvi, 18, "What evil is in my hand."

The evening was rendered additionally interesting by an excellent musical programme, in which Madame O'Brien, the Misses Hurley and Mr. Jas. Dawson took part. Madame O'Brien was particularly effective in her Italian selections, and in her closing rendering of "Home, Sweet Home." Mr. Jas. Dawson sang two fine songs, which brought out the fine compass of his clear strong voice. The Misses Hurley gave excellent satisfaction as accompanistes.

ST. LUKE'S CHRISTMAS TREE.

The Annual Distribution of Prizes Last Evening.

Large Numbers of the Pupils and Their Parents Were in Attendance.

The Sunday School room of St. Luke's church was filled to its utmost capacity with parents and friends and Sunday School children. On the platform stood two large Christmas trees laden with many useful presents that Santa Claus had sent for the children. Mr. E. A. Peck, the superintendent of the Sunday School, acted as chairman in his usual winning way, and with him on the platform was the rector, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt. Miss Edith Burnham acted as accompanist.

The chairman called upon the rector to open the evening with devotional exercises. The Doxology was sung, after which a passage from St. Luke, ii. was read and the prayers said. Then proceeded the programm as follows:

Carol ... ... "The First Nowell."
Recitation ... ...Lulu Greenwood
Song ... ...Edith Scott
Instrumental Duet ...Clara Adams and Janet Quinn
Reading ....Katie Leary
Carol ...."We Three Kings
Song ... . Lulu Scott
Song ... ...Zetta Jamieson
Song ... ... Georgie Long
Song ....Alice Nell

The programme being ended Mr. Langfeldt was asked to distribute the prizes. In his address the rector welcomed the parents and friends to the usual Christmas entertainment, and he hoped that they would continue to take such interest in the religious instruction of the young. Referring to the Sunday School work, he was pleased to announce that the efficiency of the school was never better. The officers and teachers performed their responsible duties with much devotion and heartiness, and possessed the every respect, the confidence and affection of their scholars. As could be seen from the reports the scholars learned their lessons well, and their love for the Sunday School was evinced by the good attendance every Sunday throughout the year. As to the conduct of the scholars at Sunday School, the rector remarked, that he had never seen a better and more reverential and devout conduct than there was at St. Luke's school. He was sorry to say that the school had lost the efficient services of Mr. David Spence as superintendent. His devotion to his office and his indefatigable enthusiasm had raised the Sunday School to its present efficiency. However, Mr. E. A. Peck, who was always so willing to help in any good work, had stepped into the vacancy, and was performing his duties to the entire satisfaction of all.

The first pleasant duty that the Rector had to perform was to make a presentation to Miss Edith Burnham. Through the kindness of a friend the officers and teachers were enabled to make an acknowledgment of faithful services on the part of teachers, and this year it was decided to present a beautiful Bible to Miss Edith Burnham, who is enthusiastic in everything that pertains to the welfare of the church and Sunday school.

He then proceeded with the distribution of prizes to the Sunday school scholars. Through the well-reputed generosity of Mr. David Spence, a special prize is given to the scholars who have the highest marks and the best record of Sunday school attendance. Six such prizes had been awarded, viz., to Eva Nesbitt, 52 Sundays, and 312 marks; Clara Craig, 52 Sundays, and 312 marks; Muriel Scott, 52 Sundays, and 309 marks; Clara Adams, 51 Sundays, and 306 marks; Florence Howden, 51 Sundays, and 305 marks; Rollie Howden, 51 Sundays, and 300 marks. TROUBLE FOR SOMEONE.

Last night the evening papers published a wedding notice in which the contracting parties were Miss Ethel Bradburn and Mr. Amos Wood, Rev. J. C. Davidson being mentioned as the officiating minister. The notice was received through the post office and it now appears that it was false in each and every particular, no such ceremony having ever been performed. Whether the notice was sent to the papers as a joke or as an act of malice cannot at present be ascertained, but the culprit is equally liable in either case and the Examiner is prepared to co-operate to the fullest extent with the parties interested in bringing the author of the notice to the bar of justice. The Hamilton newspapers were imposed upon, recently, in the same manner and succeeded in fastening the blame on the proper shoulders. The result of the trial and the scathing remarks addressed from the Bench to the author of the notice are still fresh in the minds of all. The Examiner expresses the strongest hope that the miscreant concerned in the present case may be detected and no stone will be left unturned to secure that end and obtain a conviction.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Snow Shoe and Toboggan Club was held last night, there being a large turn-out of members. The chair was occupied by Mr. G. M. Hamilton, last year's president. The report of the secretary-treasurer showed the affairs of the Club to be in a flourishing condition.

Hon. President—Wm. Irwin.

On Saturday evening teams that were to play Dec. 28th will do battle, and as shown in the schedule will be teams 1 and 4, and 3 and 6. Captains are reminded of the change and will see that their men are on hand accordingly. The schedule now stands as follows:

Jan. 11—Teams Nos. 1 and 4 and 3 and 6.
Jan. 18.—Teams Nos. 1 and 2, and 3 and 5.
Jan. 25. — Teams Nos. 4 and 6, and 2 and 5.

Feb. 8—Teams Nos. 2 and 3.

HUNTING NOTES.

Mr. Harold Snowden is the possessor of a four-barreled shot gun, which he uses for rabbit shooting.

The Eagle Lake Hunt Club which challenged the Gold Lake Club to shoot for the oysters, has backed out of the proposition. The articles were to have been signed last night but the Eagle Lakers did not show up. After receiving the challenge the Gold Lake sharp-shooters went out to the targets for a practice and the score was a heart-breaker it seems for the Eagle Lake Club.

THE BOER WAR FIELD

Lord Kitchener's Report of the Recent Operations.

SURPRISES AND CAPTURES.

Losses in the Somerset Infantry—Favorable Reports From Cape Colony—An Elaborate Police System All That Is Necessary to Keep Boers In Check There, Says Gen. French.

London, Jan. 8.—Lord Kitchener, telegraphing from Johannesburg on Monday, Jan. 6, reports the occurrence of a number of skirmishes in various parts of the war field. The most serious were at Amersfoort on Jan. 3, and Jan. 4, when Major W. H. P. Plumer and Col. J. Spens were in contact with Commandant Christian Botha's and Commandant Opperman's commands, and drove the Boers from their positions after considerable fighting, during which the Somerset Light Infantry suffered severely.

Major Valentine and 18 men were killed and 5 officers and 28 men were wounded. The Boers left 9 men dead on the field.

Col. Colenbrander susprised Field Cornet Louw's lauger at Watervale, Jan. 5, killed 5 men and captured 29. Lord Kitchener mentions other minor surprises and captures.

Gen. French reports that the Boers in Cape Colony are reduced in numbers as to require only an elaborate police system to keep them in check.

The week's totals of Boer casualties are 36 men killed, 9 wounded, 261 made prisoners, and 72 surrendered.

The Cape Town correspondent of The Times says a summary of the weekly official reports from the end of last June to the end of December shows that 1,162 Boers were killed, 876 were wounded, 7,593 were captured, and 1,912 surrendered.

Details of a Night March.

A correspondent of The Times, who is with Gen. Bruce Hamilton, writing from Davidsdale, Southeast Transvaal, last Friday, gives details of a great march and the surprising of a Boer party Friday morning. Information having been obtained that the Boers were near Amsterdam, Simpson's and Rawlinson's columns started early on Thursday evening. The evidence of Kaffirs whom the troops met en route was conflicting, but the enemy's trail was found at 3 o'clock in the morning, and after it had been followed along a long, winding valley, the Boers were surrounded at dawn. Few of them escaped. Forty surrendered, including Commandant Erasmus and the remainder of Pretorius's commando. Two other Boers were subsequently caught together with 300 cattle. The same evening another group of Boers was surprised, nearer the British camp Twenty of them were captured, together with five wagons.

Will Now Cede Some Territory.

Amsterdam, Jan. 8.—The Boer leaders here are holding daily conferences. After one of these meetings yesterday, Boer Agent Wessels said: "If we are forced to it, we should certainly cede territory. But we will not surrender our sovereign independence in what is left." Mr. Wessels further stated that former President Kruger and Dr. Leyds were in favor of the cession of territory.

Condemns Kitchener's Policy.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Jan. 8.—Kitchener's blockhouse system in the Transvaal is condemned by German military experts, who say that it completely cripples the offensive power of the British army and destroys the morale of the troops.

Increase Light Horse Brigade.

Durban, Jan. 7.—With the consent of Lord Roberts and the approval of Lord Kitchener, it has been decided to increase the Imperial Light Horse Brigade, making it truly imperial, by the addition of a squadron from Great Britain, Canada and Australia.

Tuesday at the Latest.

Halifax, Jan. 8.—By to-day or to-morrow the men of the C.M.R. will all have received their outfits and the work of placing stores on the troopship Manhattan will commence. The troopship is all ready to receive the men and horses, and outside of fodder, fresh meats and ice, will require very little in the line of stores. It is now thought that she will sail by Tuesday at the latest.

Reports Greatly Exaggerated.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—Hon. Dr. Borden received the following telegram last evening from Lieut.-Col. Evans, commanding the Canadian Mounted Rifles: "Halifax, Jan. 7.—Reports of accident greatly exaggerated. Woodside will return to duty in two days. Other accidents equally insignificant."

Lieut. Cory Wounded.

London, Jan. 8.—Full details of the capture by a British force of Nodiz Fort, which had been seized by a gang of Persian raiders, state that Lieut. Cory, son of Chas. D. Cory of Toronto, was among the seriously wounded. Lieut. Cory was leading the charge of the Bombay Sappers against Muhamed Ali when he was stricken down.

NOT A CASE OF SUICIDE.

Detective Murpay Reported to Have Made This Statement at Dutton.

Dutton, Jan. 8.—The W. G. Urlin inquest reopened here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock before Coroner Ling. Chief Government Inspector Murray was present, also D. J. O'Donoghue, K.C., W. L. Laws and O. St. Clair Leitch, composing the legal battery. The Town Hall was packed to the doors, owing to the seeming mystery that surrounds the whole case. Only three witnesses were called yesterday, namely, Albert Hertel, J. C. Hertel, brothers-in-law of deceased, and William Smith, and so far the evidence taken seems of a very unsatisfactory nature. The jury viewed the place where the crime was committed twice during the day.

Detective Murray last night made the statement that he was certain that this was no case of suicide.

William Smith, one of the witnesses, swore that he saw deceased at about 11 o'clock on the Saturday night, in company with another party, of whose identity he could not be certain, though he knew deceased by his having spoken to him. Progress in the matter of evidence was very slow yesterday, and it became necessary to adjourn till this morning at 10 o'clock.

THE DANGER OF LOW VITALITY.

Severe Colds, Pneumonia, Consumption Find Easy Victims in Persons Whose Health is in Poor Condition—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

At no season of the year is a low condition of health more likely to lead to serious results than at the present time. With vitality running low, the blood thin and nerves exhausted, one is made susceptible to colds and catarrhs on the slightest exposure. Gradually a persistent cough, hawking and spitting, is established, and each severe cold is accompanied by chills, fever, pains in the chest, and sometimes spitting of blood.

This is the short and deadly road that leads to pneumonia, consumption and other deadly lung troubles, and the only sure method of avoiding them is to keep the general health just as near to the high-water mark as possible all the time. It is because of its remarkable influence as a system-builder that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has come to be so universally used as a means of increasing vitality and raising the standard of health.

There is no lesson which experience more strongly emphasizes than the importance of keeping the body well filled with health-giving vitality. When a weakened, run-down system is attacked by pneumonia, consumption, or even a heavy cold, there is small chance of ever shaking it off. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food instills into the blood the most potent blood-forming and nerve-invigourating elements which have ever been found in nature. You cannot possibly help but be benefited by this preparation, and even in long-standing cases of extreme debility and prostration there is good hope for recovery by the persistent use of this great food cure.

It is not wise to neglect the health at any time. Do not wait until you are completely exhausted and worn out before appealing to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Build up the system while yet there is some foundation to build on. Put new, rich blood in the shrivelled arteries, new vital energy into the nerves, and add firm flesh and solid muscles to the body, in order that in the day of trial, when attacked by disease, there may be some chance for fighting the great foe to human happiness.

Should you find yourself suffering from a cough, bronchitis, asthma, or any similar trouble, we can recommend you to use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, believing it to be the most thoroughly effective treatment that you can possibly obtain. It has time and again proven its power over asthma, and affords the greatest relief even in the most serious cases of pneumonia and consumption.

While Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is aiding expectoration, clearing the choked-up air passages, healing and soothing the torn and ulcerated linings of the throat and bronchial tubes, do not lose sight of the value of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a means of restoring lost strength and vigour. It is a unique preparation of surprising effect as a blood and nerve restorative. Fifty cents a box, six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 4

WITH BARBARIC SHOW

Court Enters Pekin Amid Oriental Tinselled Splendor.

THE SCENE WAS REVOLUTIONARY

The Horseshoe Wall, Forming the Ancient Gate of the Forbidden City, Was Crowded With Foreigners and Even Cameras Were Focussed on the Son of Heaven—Dowager Empress Humbled.

Pekin, Jan. 8.—The re-entrance of the Chinese Emperor into Pekin today was the most remarkable episode in the annals of the dynasty, save the flight of the Chinese Court when Pekin was bombarded by the allied forces.

The spectacular phases of the return of the court exceeded the expectations. The cortege was a sort of glorified lord mayor's show, and was a bewildering and barbaric exhibition of Oriental tinselled splendor. Its chief significance was the complete effacement of the traditional deification of Chinese royalty. Foreigners were given greater facilities to witness the ceremonial than would have been afforded them at most European courts.

The scene at the Chien gate when the Emperor and the Dowager Empress entered the temple to offer thanks for their safe journey, was nothing less than revolutionary, when viewed in the light of all Chinese customs. The horseshoe wall, forming the ancient gate, was crowded with European diplomats, army officers, missionaries, ladies, photographers and correspondents. When the Emperor and the Dowager Empress arrived at the Temple, the procession halted and their Majesties alighted from their chairs, which were covered with imperial yellow silk and lined with sables.

The Emperor proceeded to the Temple of the God of War on the west side of the plaza, with hundreds of foreigners peering down only 40 feet above him, and dozens of cameras were focussed on the Son of Heaven. When he returned his chair was borne through the gate. Then the chair of the Dowager Empress was brought to the doorway of the Goddess of Mercy on the west side of the plaza and the Dowager Empress appeared.

After an interval of five minutes the Dowages Empress reappeared. Standing in the doorway of the Temple she looked upward. Directly overhead were the German Minister, Dr. Mumm Von Schwartzenstein, the secretaries of the German Legation and six officers and ladies from the American garrison. The Dowager Empress saw the foreigners and bowed low. She advanced a few steps and bowed again in acknowledgement of the salutations of the foreigners.

The expression of the Dowager-Empress seemed almost appealing as she faced those who had humbled her from her former arrogance, and confirmed the impression that she is returning to Pekin with anxiety for her safety.

Although the streets were kept empty, thousands of Chinese crowded the elevations along the line of march, a thing never permitted before.

Russians and Americans Fight.

Washington, Jan. 8.—A serious clash has occurred between American sailors of U.S.S. Vicksburg and the Russian soldiery at Nieuchang, China. There have been three fights, and as a result one Russian soldier is reported wounded. The matter was made the subject of complaint by the Russian Ambassador at Pekin to U. S. Minister Conger, and Mr. Conger in turn has informed the State Department. Secretary of the Navy Long has cabled to Commander Berry of the Vicksburg, to use every effort to prevent further collisions.

Loss of Flesh.

If you find yourself falling below normal weight there is danger. The use of fish oils can temporarily add fat, but will never build up healthy tissue. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts through the blood and nervous system and carries new life and energy to every nook and corner of the body. It regulates the various organs of the body, makes the appetite good, adds healthy flesh and replaces the tissues wasted by disease. Gradually and naturally this food cure restores colour to the cheeks, increases the weight of the body, and thoroughly overcomes disease.

All Is Quiet Now.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 8. — (Via Galveston.)—The Governments of Argentina and Chili, having come to an agreement as to the wording of the clauses in the protocol referring to the policing of Ultima Esperanza, Argentina's rights in the matter being safeguarded, the representations of Argentina on the wording of the clauses referred to are ended, and all the questions in dispute will now be submitted to the arbitration of the British commission.

A Candid Statesman.

London, Jan. 8.—Sir Charles Dilke at a recent meeting of the Shipmasters' Society, made a speech referring to the Admiralty sending a training ship to Newfoundland. He said that the Admiralty were troubled lest they should be spending money to increase the efficiency of America's seamen, indicating that the colonials might be induced to wander into Uncle Sam's navy after they had received their training.

MICHIGAN MINERS BURIED.

From 13 to 17 Thought to Have Lost Their Lives in a Cave-in at the Negaunee Mine.

Negaunee, Mich., Jan. 8.—From 13 to 17 miners are thought to have lost their lives as the result of a cave-in at the bottom of the old shaft at the Negaunee mine yesterday.

Domino Basso, an Italian, was rescued alive. His story is as follows: "We were sitting around the pump at the bottom of the shaft, when, without warning, thousands of tons of ore came down. I remembered no more until I heard the sound of picks and shovels in the hands of rescuers and their shouts. When they found me I was in a drift 75 feet from the place where I had been sitting."

Hundreds of men are at the mine, eager to help in the work of rescue, but it is thought the other bodies cannot be found within 24 hours.

The Negaunee is considered one of the most unlucky properties in the Lake Superior district. Much trouble has resulted in sinking and drifting from surplus water and quicksands. It was at this mine that $1,000,000 was recently expended to sink a shaft to the ledge.

WHITE MAN'S WHISKEY.

Fire Water Caused This Tragic Indian Brutality.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Jan. 8.—A horrible atrocity, which will likely result in death, was perpetrated Sunday night at Garden River, a Canadian Indian reservation 12 miles from here. Joseph Buzenaw, a half-breed, loaded up with fire water, went on a rampage, terrorizing half the inhabitants of the village, and wound up at home. He gave his wife a terrible beating, and then burned her side and face with a red-hot iron.

The poor woman, shrieking with agony, managed to escape from the house, crawling on her hands and knees. She had not gone far when the half-crazed brute followed her with an axe and tried to chop off her head, but was prevented from striking more than one blow by his sister-in-law and other help which arrived. The woman had received a glancing cut from the axe, and was picked up senseless and covered with blood.

Buzenaw was overpowered and taken to the Town Hall, where he was locked up. Soon after he broke down the door and went to his home, where he attempted to cut his wife's throat with a butcher knife. He was fought off by attendants, and then escaped across the river to Sugar Island, on American territory, where he is supposed to be wandering in the woods. An armed party is after him. It is said that Buzenaw's wife cannot live.

The Fate of Col. Lynch.

New York, Jan. 8.—The Journal has this from London: Col. Arthur Lynch, who was recently elected to the House of Commons to represent Galway, will be prevented from taking his seat. More than that, as soon as he sets foot on English soil he will be arrested on a charge of treason. Col. Lynch does not deny that he aided the Boers, but says he will take his seat unless prevented by force.

Man Blown to Pieces.

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—An explosion of dynamite occurred yesterday in a contractor's tool house beside the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks in West Philadelphia. "Doc" Mullen, a watchman employed by P. McManus, the contractor, was literally blown to atoms, and a dozen persons living in the vicinity were cut by flying glass from the shattered windows of the houses.

Kerseys Committed For Trial.

Sarnia, Jan. 8.—Isaac and Walter Kersey were before Police Magistrate Gorman at the Courthouse here yesterday on a charge of robbing the mails between Oil Springs and Edy's Mills, on Feb. 17, 1899. The case occupied the attention of the court all day, and at the conclusion the prisoners were committed for trial.

Admiral Schley May Appeal.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Admiral Schley visited the White House on Monday to request the President to entertain and consider an appeal for the reversal of the action of Secretary Long and the disapproval of the majority judgment of the Court of Inquiry. The interview was satisfactory, the President granting the Admiral's request. Messrs. Rayner and Teague will assist Admiral Schley in the preparation of the appeal.

Virchow's Thigh Broken.

Berlin, Jan. 7.—It developed yesterday that the thigh bone of Prof. Virchow, the eminent pathologist, was fractured when he slipped while alighting from a street car Sunday. The professor is doing well.

Mexico City, Jan. 7—It is thought now that the arbitration question in the Pan-American conference will be determined one way or another, either to-day or Wednesday.

The Key of Death.

The "key of death" is apparently a large key which is shown among the weapons at the arsenal at Venice. It was invented by Tibaldo, who, disappointed in love, designed this instrument for the destruction of his rival. The key is so constructed that the handle may be turned around, revealing a small spring, which being pressed a very fine needle is driven with considerable force from the other end. This needle is so very fine that the flesh closes over the wound immediately, leaving no mark, but the death of the victim is almost instantaneous.

One of the most dangerous and repulsive forms of Kidney Disease is for which Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only certain cure. In Dropsy the Kidneys are actually dammed up, and the water, which should be expelled in the form of urine, flows back and lodges in the cells of the flesh and puffs out the skin. Remove the filth which plugs up the drain. Restore the Kidneys to health. There is only one Kidney Medicine

If a woman is physically miserable and mentally unhappy, the child she bears will, in face and form, as well as in disposition, reflect her own condition. Every woman who anticipates motherhood ought to think of this and be a fairy godmother to her own child, endowing it with health, beauty, and a happy disposition.

The mental misery of the prospective mother is in general the result of her physical condition. She is nervous, her appetite fails, she cannot sleep. Restore her appetite, quiet her nerves and give her sleep and she becomes a new woman.

"It has made a new woman of me," is the constant testimony of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces refreshing sleep. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"During the first month, when I looked forward to maternity, I could not keep anything on my stomach," writes Mrs H. C. Anderson, of South Britain, New Haven Co., Conn. "Was so weak that I went to bed on the 28th of June and never got up till the first of August. I tried different doctors, but with little benefit. I read about many being helped by using your medicine, so I thought I would give it a trial. I began to take your 'Favorite Prescription' in November, and I had a nice little baby girl in February following. My baby weighed over eight pounds. I was only ill for about one hour, and got along nicely during confinement. Was up and dressed on the eighth day. I never had the doctor with me at all, just the nurse and one or two friends. My friends thought I was sick a very short time. This makes my second child. With the first one I did not take 'Favorite Prescription.' The little one lived just about two months, and she was sick all the time. This last baby is as plump and healthy as any mother could wish."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

MIRROR, SCALES, ETC.

There was a man. And his mirror said "sallow skin." And the scales said "losing weight." And his friends did wag their heads as he passed by. But being a prudent man he forthwith swallowed daily certain pleasant doses of Scott's Emulsion.

Then his mirror said "ruddy face." And the scales sunk beneath his weight. And his friends looked upon him with amaze.

(NOTE.—This is no fable—but is true history),

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

Willie Knew a Way.

Four-year-old Willie found a new way to keep a promise the other day. His older brother John hid their sister Nell's doll and told Willie not to tell where it was. Nellie came in later and asked Willie where it was.

"I promised not to tell you," the little fellow replied.

"Oh, please tell," pleaded Nellie.

"No; I can't tell you, Nellie;" replied the boy, "but I will tell mamma and you can listen."

Working Under Water.

Submarine divers have not yet succeeded in reaching 200 feet below the surface with all the advantage of armor, air supply and weights to sink them. The effort has been made to reach a wreck in 240 feet of water. The accounts state that at 130 feet the diver began to experience serious trouble. At 200 feet, after suffering terribly, he lost consciousness and was hauled up. Divers cannot work much below 100 feet.

A Cough Leads to a Coffin.

There's a striking similarity in these two words. Both are to be dreaded. Coffins cost many dollars whereas 25c. buys a bottle of Four T's and cures the cough in 24 hours, making the coffin unnecessary. Four T's is acknowledged by all to be the best lung remedy in existence. Large bottles 25c. at Ormond & Walsh's Drug Storte.

A Debtor's Stratagem.

"Yes," said the business man, "I have given up trying to collect that little bill from Bilkins. You see, he is a pretty big fellow, and he used to throw my collectors out."

Friend—Then why didn't you employ a woman collector? He couldn't do that to a woman.

Business Man—That's what I thought, so I got one and sent her round, but she never came back.

Friend—Why not?

Business Man—He married her.

Her Jewels.

"Theo," and her eyes sought the last embers of the dying fire, "you are not kind as a husband should be. You never give me any jewels."

"Jewels!" And his voice seemed to come from his heart. "You ask for jewels? Any one with diamond eyes, ruby lips and teeth of pearl ask for jewels? Why, the rarest jewels gold could buy would only be superfluous."

Then for the first time for days she kissed him.—London Answers.

INAUGURAL MEETING

Of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A.—The Committees.

The inaugural board meeting for the year of the Y.M.C.A. was well attended on Tuesday evening, Mr. Ackerman presiding.

Very encouraging reports of the work for November and December were presented by the officers. The total attendance at the gymnasium classes was as follows, November, 1109, December, 961. Total attendance at evening educational classes, 501; average weekly attendance for the two months was 49 and 37 respectively. Nine men's meetings showed a total of 309. Thirty-three Bible class sessions had been held during the same period with an attendance of 265. In the Boys' Department, the attendance at the boys' meetings was 175, an average of 21. The Bible classes had a weekly average of 24. Good results had been shown in all departments.

Mr. W. J. Johnston was elected to succeed Mr. Carton on the Board, the latter having resigned.

Delegates were elected to the Provincial Convention at Berlin as follows: Messrs. Trollope, Ayers, G. M. Roger, Pierson and Williamson, and it was decided to invite the convention to Peterborough for next year. In this connection it is to be noted that the convention has not been in Peterborough since 1884.

The following committees of the Board were appointed for the year, the first named is chairman in each case—

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.

The interest in the meetings for prayer throughout the Evangelical churches of the town this week is well sustained, and must be a most potent factor, as it is a true exponent of Christian unity in a practical and real sense.

The meeting in St. Paul's last night was a most impressive one. The Rev. Dr. Torrance presided and both ministers and laymen took part in the devotional exercises.

The Rev. D. O. Crossley addressed the meeting from the topic assigned "Our Churches," and referred in a most earnest manner to the great work the church is designed and destined to do, and warned the various churches against the fostering of a spirit antagonistic to the body of Christ. These characteristics he found enumerated in St. John's Epistle to the churches found in the Book of Revelation.

The service was closed by the entire congregation singing "The Church's one Foundation," and the benediction.

The meeting to-night will be held in George street Methodist church at 8 p.m., and will partake largely of a rally for prayer for "Christian Missions." Isa 60,1-5; Luke 24, 46,47. The Rev. J. G. Potter, of St. Andrew's church will be the speaker, in the place of Rev. J. Bastow, unexpectedly detained.

The meeting to-morrow night will be held in Murray street Baptist church, subject, "The Family and the School." Ps. 68, 6; Gen. 17, 7; Ps. 111, 10. Speaker, Rev. J. P. Wilson.

The following is the programme for the balance of the week:

Thursday, Jan. 9th—George street Methodist church — Subject, "Christian Missions." Isa 60, 1-5; Luke 24, 46, 47. Speaker, Rev. J. Bastow.

Friday, Jan 10th — Murray street Baptist church — Subject, "The Family and the School." Ps. 68, 6; Gen. 17, 7; Ps. 111, 10. Speaker, Rev. J. P. Wilson.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

Rev. Mr. Murphy Will Speak This Evening on "The Great Father."

The growing interest in the special services being held was manifest in the increased attendance last night and at the children's service in the afternoon, which had to be held in the church—the school room being too small. At last night's service Rev. Mr. Murphy spoke on "Captain Naaman" taking two texts—2 Kings, v., 13, "Wash and be clean" and Acts xvi., 31, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved and thy house." He described the character and standing of Naaman, an enviable position except that he was a leper. Leprosy is a type of sin in that it is incurable by human means. It is contagious and comes from small beginnings and ends in death. In seeking cleansing Naaman made the mistake so often made by men seeking salvation. He thought to purchase cleansing. He went to the wrong door. He came in the wrong attitude. The dipping seven times pointed to perfect trust, is the man's part, the cleansing is God's part. Naaman's conduct afterwards showed the reality of his cleansing, as the after life shows the reality of conversion.

To-night Mr. Murphy will speak on "The Great Father." All welcome.

THE NURSES ARE TO GO

War Office Directs That They Be Sent Via England.

ANOTHER GUN RECAPTURED.

It Was Taken by the Boers at Brakenlaagte and Reported Destroyed—Canadian Field Hospital Corps—Fifteen From Toronto Given a Send Off by Student Friends on Thursday Night.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—The War Office must be exceedingly anxious to secure nurses for South Africa, because it has cabled the Governor-General directing that the five Canadian nurses recommended for service proceed to the front by way of England. The cablegram was in response to a message stating that there were no room for the nurses on board the transports Manhattan and Victoria, which will take the Second Mounted Rifles to South Africa. The five ladies will be granted transportation to England on a requisition being made to the Imperial officer in command at Halifax, and on reaching the other side the Adjutant-General will arrange for their passage to South Africa. Lieut. Domville of Woodstock, N. B., has declined the position of assistant veterinary to the Mounted Rifles, and Dr. James of Ottawa has been appointed to the vacancy. The latter will leave for Halifax to-day. Major Cameron, formerly of the Royal Scots, Montreal, was in town yesterday taking leave of his friends. He also starts to-day for Halifax to join the Mounted Rifles.

The nurses are: Miss Forbes, Miss Macdonald, Miss Harcomb, Miss Fortescue and Miss Cameron. They will leave shortly by steamer from Halifax or New York for Liverpool.

SECOND GUN RECAPTURED.

Taken by the Boers at Brakenlaagte and Reported Destroyed.

London, Jan. 10.—Lord Kitchener cables to the War Office that the second British gun captured by the Boers at Brakenlaagte has been recovered. This gun was previously reported to have been destroyed.

FIELD HOSPITAL CORPS.

Fifteen From Toronto Given Send Off by Student Friends Thursday Night.

Toronto, Jan. 10.—Toronto's quota of recruits for the Field Hospital Corps for service in South Africa, numbering fifteen men, were given an enthusiastic send-off by several hundred of their friends at the Union Station last night. The detachments from Hamilton and London arrived early in the evening, and left with the Toronto men by the G.T.R. shortly before 11 o'clock. A large number of medical students from Varsity and Trinity accompanied the men from the barracks to the station, and enlivened the procession by giving their college yells. Col. Otter superintended the departure, assisted by Capt. Shanley. Surgeon-Lieut. Roberts was in command of the detachment.

RECEIVED D.S.O.

Capt. Leckie of the C.M.R. Decorated at Halifax.

Halifax, Jan. 10.—Capt. J. E. Leckie of the C.M.R., who hails from Vancouver, received the distinguished service order here last night. The presentation was made by Lieut.-Gov. Jones at the Armouries in the presence of officers from the C. M.R., 3rd R.C.R.I., Royal Garrison Artillery, and all the city militia corps. Capt. Leckie was in South Africa with Strathcona's Horse.

Manitoba Legislation.

Winnipeg, Jan. 10.—The Legislature met yesterday, and after the Speech from the Throne adjourned until Monday.

The Speech from the Throne referred to the Royal visit, the bountiful harvest, the Canadian Northern line to Port Arthur, the indebtedness of the Federal Government in the schools matter, the disallowing of the "Real Property" Act, and the list of probabilities concludes: "Your judgment will be asked upon some other measures of public importance." There is nothing on the prohibition question.

Over the Canadian Northern.

Fort William, Jan. 10.—The first shipment of wheat over the Canadian Northern Railway arrived at Port Arthur Wednesday night, the consignees being the Lake of the Woods Milling Company. The honor of making the first shipment of lumber over the Canadian Northern Railway to the western market fell to a Port Arthur pioneer firm.

REDUCE INCOME TAX.

Substitute Levy on Wheat and on Timber in Great Britain.

London, Jan. 10.—(Via Montreal.)—Sir Robert Giffen, ex-president of the Statistical Society, long associated with Gladstonian finance, significantly suggests in The Times yesterday that the income tax be reduced from 14 pence to 10 pence, which would mean a loss of ten million pounds sterling to the national exchequer, and that twenty millions be raised by indirect taxation, including a shilling per quarter on wheat and a shilling per load on timber.

The Westminster Gazette, a pillar of free trade, says: "If we could be certain this would not be the thin end of the protectionist wedge we might agree."

The St. James' Gazette, Tory protectionist, says "a grain tax touching the central article of our commercial creed could raise opposition which the advantage gained would not make worth while to provoke. The Chancellor will regard Giffen's suggestions as an indication that the reserve be drawn upon in case of necessity in addition to, instead of a substitution for, the present sources of revenue.

English Duty on Wheat.

Stockton-on-Tees, Jan. 10.—Alfred E. Pease, M. P., addressing the Chamber of Agriculture here last evening, said that, although he was an ardent free trader, he thought it perfectly justifiable as a war tax to levy a "reasonable duty of a shilling or a florin per quarter on imported wheat." This statement caused a sensation, but was vociferously applauded.

DAIRYMEN'S CONVENTION.

Many Interesting Addresses Delivered at the Sessions Thursday.

Whitby, Ont., Jan. 10.—At the Ontario Dairymen's Convention yesterday, Prof. Van Slyke of the New York State Experiment Station at Geneva, gave an address confirmatory of the theory that the success of the cheese industry in Canada depends on having factories equipped with satisfactory curing rooms, capable of keeping the temperature down. Cheese so ripened is better, keeps longer and loses less water.

In the afternoon Prof. Dean gave some startling figures, representing the result of increased milk returns at Guelph. Prof. Fletcher talked on grasses for farm culture.

In the evening C. C. Jones spoke on present day problems in agriculture, holding that honor, fame and emolument were in store for the farmer. Prof. Fletcher, Prof. Dean and Mr. Creelman also spoke.

Miss Wilson and Miss Crabbe of the O. L. C. played and sang. Messrs. Musson and Ross gave a piano duet.

Head Crushed by Passing Car.

Toronto, Jan. 10.—William Mackenzie, a street railway conductor, met with an accident last night that will in all probability prove fatal. He is now lying at the Emergency Hospital suffering from terrible injuries to his face and head. About 8 o'clock Mackenzie was on a northbound Yonge street car, and on passing Melinda street leaned over the rear platform, his head projecting about a foot. As he leaned out he was struck with great force by the vestibule of a southbound Queen and Dundas street car. He was thrown to the floor of the platform and rendered unconscious. It is feared his skull has been fractured. Mackenzie is about 28 years of age and unmarried.

EMPEROR IN BACKGROUND.

Empress Dowager Enters Most Sacred Hall For First Time.

Pekin, Jan. 10.—The Dowager Empress of China asserted her complete supremacy to-day by giving an audience in the most sacred hall in the forbidden city. The rules of the dynasty forbid women to enter this hall, and the Dowager Empress has never before violated its sanctity. The Emperor will receive the foreign diplomats in this hall. Officials believe the Dowager Empress to be paving the way to be present on this occasion in order to prevent any communications between the diplomats and the Emperor, except under her censorship.

Propose to Raise Prices.

Toronto, Jan. 10.—A number of pickle dealers and manufacturers met at the Walker House yesterday to discuss prices and other matters connected with the trade. Among those present were T. A. Lytle, Toronto; Fred H. Zupp, Hamilton; G. A. Harris, Brantford, and J. Taylor, Owen Sound. Nothing definite was done, according to the statement of a couple of those present at the meeting. Two or three of the gentlemen are going to Newmarket to-day to confer with some pickle manufacturers there before promulgating a scheme for an all-round rise of prices.

Intercourse With Canada.

Washington, D.C., Jan. 10.— The Senate Committee on Commerce today favorably reported the bill providing for the reciprocal recognition of certificates of steam vessel inspection between the United States and other countries. The bill is intended especially to facilitate intercourse by water with Canada.

For whooping cough and croup, Vapo-Cresolene is a simple and perfect remedy.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Great Britain's trade with China has considerably increased of late, while that of the United States has declined 25 per cent. Has the United States Chinese exclusion law anything to do with this showing?

Andrew Carnegie during 1901 donated to the cause of public education embracing universities and libraries $40,200,000, or an average of more than $11,000 for each of the 365 days.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell, through his Belleville Intelligencer, calls on the electors of West Hastings to support E. Guss Porter as the candidate of loyalty, etc. Surely Sir Mackenzie cannot forget that the men whom Mr. Porter would support in Parliament, in the event of his election, would be that disloyal crew whom he himself, formed "the nest of traitors."

Of our exports of $177,432,386 we sold the following to these English-speaking countries:

Great Britain	$92,857,525
United States	67,983,673
Australasia	2,297,521
Newfoundland	2,142,877
British West Indies	1,898,262
	$167,179,858

Our purchases from English-speaking peoples amounted also to over $160,000,000.

The Review is backing the Mail and Empire up in its iniquitions advocacy of the introduction of party politics into municipal elections, and glories in the fact that the Conservatives have a majority in the councils in London and Hamilton. There can be but one ending to the introduction of party politics into such matters and that end is not the conversion of the country to Conservatism, but on the contrary, simply means the further alienation from their party of what is left of the right thinking remnant of the Opposition.

BEET SUGAR FACTORY NEWS.

What Berlin Delegates Saw in Michigan.

Interesting Description of Their Visit to a Bay City Factory—Process of Handling the Beets Described—What is Needed to Keep a Factory Running.

Below we publish a portion of the report submitted to Berlin Board of Trade recently by the members of the deputation sent to Bay City, Michigan, to inspect the sugar factories there and to interview the growers of beets as to their opinion of the industry, the profits derived therefrom, and the methods of cultivation. The present article refers almost exclusively to the handling of beets at the factory, and will be followed by others:

AT THE FACTORY.

When we arrived at the gates of the big sugar factory where, by the way, we found 75 farmers' teams in the yards, either coming in with beets, unloading at mammoth sheds, or waiting to have their empty waggons weighed. This was a large string when it is considered that it was a wet day. We were informed that the factory had taken in 398 loads of beets on the Saturday previous. In addition to the continuous string of teams, carloads of beets were arriving by railway. At the weigh house three chemists are stationed to test the beets as they arrive. The farmers bring in their beets in four monthly instalments, and are paid monthly according to the sugar value of their crop—$4.50 being paid them for beets testing 12 per cent. saccharine, and 33 1-3 cents for every point over 12 per cent. sugar. To protect themselves the farmers employ a man at each factory to remain in the weigh house and see that the tests are fairly made. For his services he receives one cent a ton from the beet growers.

The tops must be wholly cut off the beets, and they must be as free of dirt as possible, otherwise a deduction is made. The average amount deducted for tare is 5 per cent. No limit as to size is placed upon the growers. So long as they are solid it pays to have good sized beets.

IN THE FACTORY.

The delegation all admired the big factory building, but their admirations grew with every step from the entrance into it until they reached the warehouse, where the sugar was being put up into bags and barrels, to be shipped to Chicago. They followed the beet from the time it was floated into the factory, through every stage of manufacture, and an exclamation made by Mr. Wendall Shantz will illustrate what all thought as they viewed the big, massive machinery required and noted the various processes of manufacture. He said: "I wondered what the Ontario Sugar Beet Co. was going to do with its $600,000, but it is clear to me now." One fact may convey why sugar factories cost money. In the West Bay City factory are two big sugar boilers, which contain numerous coils of copper and which cost $16,000 each.

HOW THEY MAKE SUGAR.

The farmer is the chief factor in the manufacture of beet sugar, but the process of making sugar commences where the farmer leaves off, at the beet shed. As has been stated above the sheds for this plant are on an improved plan, where beets may be dumped from the waggons if desired, or forked out. In the meantime, however, the farmer and his team are protected from storm and cold by enclosed sheds.

From each waggon or carload of beets received the tareman takes a sample of 25 pounds, just as they fall into the basket. This goes to the tare room where the basketful is weighed as it comes from the shed. The beets are then put into a washer and washed, from where they go on to the table for inspection, and if not properly topped, a person is employed to prepare them properly, when they are again weighed to determine the tare.

The receiving bins in the sheds are built V shape, and underneath is the beet flume or conduit through which flows warm water for floating the beets down to the receiving tanks and washer at the sugar house.

Here the beets are tumbled around until they are clean, and from here they go into the elevator which takes them to the upper story, where they are dumped into an automatic weigher, which weighs the clean beets and from there into the slicer. The slicer is round in shape, the knives V shaped working in the bottom and slicing the beets into cossettes or long strips, much resembling macaroni. These cossettes are carried by an endless belt to the diffusion cells. In an early day sugar was extracted by crushing and pressing the beets; at present however what is known as the diffusion process is universally used. This sugar house has fourteen diffusion cells. During this operation the sugar passes through the cell membranes of the beets into the water, which process is known as "diffusion," from which the apparatus derives its name. The fresh water enters cell number one and passes through the entire number of filled cells in regular order. After some time the slices in No. 1 are entirely leached out, when 11 is filled with fresh beets and the fresh water introduced into cell No. 2, from whence it passes in regular order to cell No. 11, cell No. 1 being meanwhile emptied. After No. 3 is exhausted the water enters No. 4 and passes into cell No. 1, which has been refilled, and now becomes the last number in the series. In this way the process continues indefinitely. The exhausted beets as they are dumped from the cells pass out of the factory to the dump, where they are known as beet pulp, and used for stock feed. The water extracted by the press goes to waste. The juice that is drawn from the battery is measured in tanks, and then pumped through heaters, and from here to the lime and juice mixers and from here it flows by gravity to the seven first carbonating tanks. At this time it is anything but inviting in taste, smell or appearance. This is due to the salts and organic impurities which it contains. The amount of this foreign matter in the juice is indicated by what is known as the "coefficient" of purity, and is an important consideration to manufacturers. This coefficient varies with the nature of the soil on which the beets are grown, but should not be less than 80, which means that 80 per cent. of the solid matter contained in the juice is sugar. On the way to the carbonator from the diffusion cells the juice passes through the lining tanks where it is heated to the boiling point with slaked lime, which precipitates a large portion of the impurities called scums. In the carbonator the lime which has fulfilled its purpose is precipitated by the introduction of carbonic acid gas, obtained from the lime kiln. From these carbonators the juice is pumped through the filter presses, which filters the lime carbonate and impurities from the juice; then the juice goes to the second carbonators for further purification, and these finish the clarifying of the juice. From here it goes to the waiting tanks and it draws from these to the quadruple effect evaporators, where the juice is pumped to the sulphuring station, where the thick juice receives its final clarification, and from here it goes to the receiving tank from the vacuum pans, and from these tanks it is drawn in charges to the vacuum pans where it is boiled to a grain or to crystalization, leaving it in a mixed state of molasses. From here it goes in a form called massecuite to the crystallizers, immense cylinders of about 80 tons capacity. From here it is discharged through a spout into the centrifugal and here the sugar is made before your eyes, and at this place is the real point of interest for the spectator in the sugar house. The massecuite is drawn from the tanks into the centrifugal when the machine is set in motion, and the molasses is thrown out by centrifugal force. Here you may see the thick brown mass turn into the finest of white sugar before you can hardly realise the transformation. The sugar is washed here by steam dumped into a conveyor and carried to the granulator, where it is thoroughly dried, all particles of dust removed, and from here it drops through spouts into barrels or sacks and is ready for the market. From the time the beet enters the sugar house until it has been transformed into marketable sugar requires but sixteen hours.

COST OF OPERATING A FACTORY.

What is required to operate an 800 ton sugar factory:

800,000 tons of beets	$400,000
12,000 tons of coal	47,250
600 tons of coke	7,500
4,800 tons of lime rock	12,000
180,000 double sugar sacks	16,200
15,000 yards fibre cloth	3,300
Sal soda, tallow, sulphur, acid	4,110
Laboratory and other supplies	15,000
Labour	130,000
Incidentals	15,000
Total for year	$675,660

BEET FACTORY NOTES.

The West Bay City Factory slices up from 400 to 450 tons of beets a day, and makes therefrom 225 barrels of sugar.

Large quantities of lime, coal, coke and sulphur are used and it has a cooperage for making its barrels.

Later on in the year beets come into the factory which are frozen as hard as nuts. This does not affect them. Beets that have been frozen and thawed are not good, owing to the sugar in them turning to glucose, which cannot be crystallized.

An interesting fact in connection with beet sugar manufacture in Michigan is that the superintendents and chemists are nearly all Germans who learned their profession in the Vaterland.

Once a factory is started up it runs day and night continuously for a period of 100 days. To stop one day would mean a loss of $4,000.

A staff of 300 are employed during the manufacturing season, and probably a score all the year around.

Heart Disease.

Real organic heart trouble is incurable, but scarcely one case in a hundred is organic.

The action of the heart and stomach are both controlled by the same great nerves, the sympathetic and pneumogastric, and when the stomach fails to properly digest the food and it lies in the stomach fermenting, gases are formed which distend the organ causing pressure on the heart and lungs causing palpitation, irregularity and shortness of breath.

The danger from this condition is that, the continued disturbance of the heart sooner or later may cause real organic heart trouble and in fact frequently does so.

Furthermore, poor digestion makes the blood thin and watery and deficient in red corpuscles, and this further irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible thing to do for heart trouble is to insure the digestion and assimilation of the food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which may be found at most drug stores and which contain the necessary digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

Thousands of people keep well and vigourous by keeping their digestion perfect by observing the rule of taking one or two of these tablets after each meal, or at least after each hearty meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain U.S.P. pepsin, diastase from malt and other natural digestives which act only on the food, digesting it perfectly and preventing acidity, gases, and the many diseased conditions which accompany a weak stomach.

When Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are used you may know you are not taking into the system any strong medicine or powerful drug but simply the natural digestive elements which every weak stomach lacks.

So widely known and popular have these tablets become that they are now sold by every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

Mr. and Mrs. Girven arrived in Norwood on Monday, and will take up their residence on Queen street, opposite the residence of Mr. Thos. Fraser.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Premier Ross Repels the Blue Ruin Utterances of Mr. Whitney

PROSPERITY PREVAILS ALL OVER

The Address in Reply to the Speech From the Throne Adopted by the House After Hearing Messrs. Gross Mutrie, Whitney and Ross—Surplus in Cash Half Million Greater.

Toronto, Jan. 10.—In the Legislative Assembly Mr. Gross of Welland, in moving the address in reply to the speech from the Throne, yesterday afternoon, said that at the beginning of a new reign it was an opportune time for the taking of stock, in a national sense. He dwelt on the importance of the study of history in order to profit by its teachings, and briefly reviewed the leading incidents in the history of Canada. The greatest progress of Canada had been made since Confederation and a comparison with the history and present condition of the United States was greatly in our favor. He was afraid that Canadians were inclined to be too pessimistic and a little of the spread eagleism of our neighbors would do us no harm. He alluded to the royal visit and the hearty reception received by the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall. The reception they met in the city of Toronto was especially creditable. It would result in the people of the Old Country becoming better acquainted with Canada. He referred approvingly to the consolidation of the statutes relating to property law, which would be greatly appreciated not only by the legal profession but by the public. The Province of Ontario was fortunately free from provincial taxation while in New York, as he knew by experience, the State taxes on real estate amounted to four mills on the dollar. The people of the Province were singularly favored in their financial position. It was very satisfactory to note the rapid filling up of the northern portion of Ontario, which would aid the industrial progress of the older districts. The absence of coal was a drawback to the Province, but the development of electrical power from Niagara Falls would largely supply the want by the distribution of heat and power. He described the operations now in progress for generating electrical power at the Falls, where 50,000 horsepower was now being developed on the American side. In developing power on the Canadian side they would be able to avail themselves of the experience thus gained and of the recent improvements in electrical science. In 10 years he believed that the Falls would not only supply power, but heat for domestic purposes to the whole Province. The industrial development of the Province would be greatly aided by technical education and he urged a liberal support of Technical Schools. Agriculture, however, was the backbone of the country, and it was important that young farmers should be as thoroughly trained and educated as if they were going to follow a profession. As regards the question of the traffic in intoxicating liquors there were many issues to be considered and he hoped it would be carefully thought out without any attempt to make a political football out of it. He predicted that the verdict of the campaign next spring would confirm that of the recent bye-elections. (Applause.)

Mr Mutrie of South Wellington, in seconding the motion, paid a high tribute to Sir Oliver Mowat as a statesman and a constitutional authority, and eulogized Hon. G. W. Ross as his worthy successor. The Liberal party was united and enthusiastic in the support of their leaders. There were no traitors or malcontents in their ranks. The visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall would have the effect of bringing Canada more closely in touch with the Motherland, and the sacrifices Canada had made in sending contingents to South Africa had brought honor to the country and showed we were worthy of the sires from which we sprang. The Government deserved much credit for their course in regard to forestry. The passage of the Forest Reserves Act under which forest reserves aggregating 1,500,000 acres had been set aside was a much needed and beneficial measure and would provide supplies of timber for the future. The colonization policy of the Government was also devised in the best interests of the country. It was satisfactory that the attention of the people was being drawn to the vacant lands of their own country so that they need not go abroad to better their condition. In providing a head for the Colonization Bureau the Government had done wisely in selecting an official like Mr. Thomas Southworth, whose fitness for the position was conspicuous instead of appointing a new and untried man. The year just closed had been a prosperous one for the farmer and the Government deserved much credit for what it had done to promote the dairying interests and to raise the standard of agriculture generally. He gave a number of figures showing the extent to which Ontario farmers had carried off the honors at the Pan-American Exhibition in every department in which they had competed. The Winter Live Stock Fair at Guelph he considered the best fair for educational purposes held in Canada, and he hoped the Government would give it the support it merited. The Agricultural College had done a great work and won widespread appreciation outside of Ontario and there was no feature of the Government's policy which was more creditable, and more popular than the maintenance of that institution. (Applause.)

Mr Whitney fully agreed with the remarks of the previous speakers as to the enthusiastic reception of the Duke and Duchess in Ontario. There were many questions which found no place in the address. It had not been explained why the House was called to meet at the present inconvenient season. He supposed it was done to avoid the consequences of their legislation last session for prolonging the life of the Parliament. He approved of the policy of aiding the Mother Country in war time, and he was only sorry that a contingent should be sent with an account attached to them. The official program of the Government included many items to which the speakers had made no reference. He took up the question of the surplus, arguing that the Financial Commission had carefully avoided committing itself to the statement that any surplus existed. No reference was made to the encouragement of the nickel industry, a matter which the Government seemed to have dropped. Government grants in aid of drainage schemes was another project of which no notice was taken. The speech was also silent as regards cold storage, the dressed beef industry and remount stations to provide a market for Ontario horses. So far as the dressed beef industry was concerned the Minister of Agriculture was apparently of the opinion that Dakota rather than Ontario was the place for that. Mr. Dryden's colleagues and supporters had plainly manifested their opinion of his course. He favored increased representation for Northern Ontario as proposed in the speech, but he hoped there would be no further gerrymander. The mover of the speech might have noted the absence from it of any reference to West Elgin and North Waterloo. (Oh! Oh!) The prepetrators of these frauds had been protected by the administration, and until the stain was wiped out the Opposition would never be silent on the question.

Hon. G. W. Ross said that it might be supposed from the address of the Opposition leader that blue ruin had overtaken the Province, whereas, as a matter of fact, content and prosperity prevailed everywhere. He complimented the mover and seconder on the comprehensive and practical character of their speeches. He had not heard any complaints from any one as to the time of calling the House, which was not at all unusual. There had been no opinion expressed by the Minister of Justice that the Act prolonging the life of the Legislature was unconstitutional. The best constitutional opinions, including that of Sir John Bourinot, and sustained the Act. As to the surplus the Financial Commission had clearly stated that the excess of assets over liabilities was about $2,500,000. What was that but a surplus? Moreover the cash balance in the banks this year to the credit of the Government would be half a million dollars greater than that of last year. If Mr. Whitney's ideas in regard to the Succession Duties and Supplement and Revenues bills had been carried out there certainly would have been no surplus. Where then would have come the great impetus which they had been able to give the industrial development of the country? Though the British Government had not as yet taken advantage of the nickel resources of this Province, the Ontario Government had merely done their duty in trying to obtain this market. But the nickel policy had not failed for the mines were being developed and affording employment to large numbers. The Drainage Act was a success, and a large number of localities were taking advantage of it. It was hardly to be expected that they as a progressive Government, would find it necessary to bring up the same questions year after year after they were settled. As to cold storage Mr. Whitney should realize its advantages. His speech was kept in cold storage and brought out time after time as good as new and free from rust or mildew (Laughter.) The results of their measures on the subject has done much to educate public opinion. Over 8,000 horses had been purchased for the British army as a result of the representations of the administration to the Imperial Government. As to dressed beef, private capitalists were engaged in putting it on the British market, and Government operations were not necessary. As to Hon. John Dryden's South Dakota enterprise he had yet to learn that it was a crime to invest surplus capital in a foreign country. In amending the Assessment Act last session their intentions were honest. They meant to abolish the scrap iron assessment. If they had not done it they would try again. As regards corrupt practices the Government had done more than any other Government in Canada to suppress them. Men of both sides convicted of crime had been punished impartially. The results of the bye-elections showed that the electors believed in the purity of the Government.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty. Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

Miss Aggie Patterson's worth as an elocutionist is evidently fully appreciated in Omemee. The Mirror speaks of her recent appearance in the village as follows:—"Miss Patterson, of Peterborough, was then called upon for a recitation and responded with the selection "Mr. Brown's had his hair cut," which was so well received that she was obliged to again favour her listeners. Three times during the evening did this young entertainer appear and just as often was she recalled. Miss Patterson is an elocutionist of wonderful natural powers and it is safe to say that a very bright future lies before her. Her manner of delivery is exceedingly attractive and she will always be heard with much acceptance in Omemee."

PETERBOROUGH'S MODERN STORE.

IT'S WINTER IN EARNEST NOW

And you may expect the same thing to continue for the next couple of months. You must be careful of your health these days, and keep yourself comfortably clad. There's many a cold contracted at this time of the year that centres on some weak spot and develops into something more serious later. We have lots of comfortable things that you can buy for little money, particulary at this time of the year, as we are unloading, trying to reduce our stock before Inventory. We find it's much easier to count money than to measure goods.

FASHIONABLE ULSTERS

Are again the proper thing and we don't know of any garment that is more suitable for this winter weather. We have quite an assortment of ready-made ones that we are offering at big reductions — two-thirds of the regular price, which means a $15 ulster for $10, and other prices at the same reduction, or if you want one made to order we have the cloths and the dressmakers that will make you up one in short order, and we guarantee satisfaction.

A WINTER NECESSITY

For everyone and specially for children it is necessary to provide that which is comfortable and warm in cold weather. We have a specialty in a Warm Woollen Cloth, which is heavy enough to protect the body from cold, and firm enough to stand hard wear. It is all wool and in several pretty warm colours and we are selling it now at Fifty Cents a yard. The regular price was 65 cents.

HOME COMFORT.

If you want both comfort and enjoyment from your days at home you must have soft, clinging garments, which have body enough to keep you warm and the sort of finish that would make you look well if visitors came. We are offering a line of wrapperettes at 15c a yard that are just the proper thing for you. The regular price was 20c 23c per yard.

THE BEST STOCKINGS

For winter wear are those that will keep the feet warm and which don't pull or shrink. They'll wear better and be a pleasure every cold day. We have them in all sizes from the very smallest ones for boys and girls up to the full sizes for big boys and ladies, made in the very best imported wools. Stockings that we know will give you satisfaction, and the prices are very low when you consider the quality. We have lots of cheap ones, too, but we don't recommend you to buy cheap stockings.

HEAVY UNDERWEAR.

You can't get Underwear that's too warm for this climate, but it's getting late for the selling of them now. We are pushing them for that reason. We are showing nice, heavy Wool Underwear in both Vests and Drawers at 50c a garment that ought to interest you if you are wanting anything in that way. They are certainly the best value in this city. See Them.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS.

No Small-pox Wanted Across the River -Public Vaccination Decided Upon.

A joint meeting was held last evening of the Ashburnham Council, Board of Health, and School Board, those in attendence being Messrs. F. Adams, J. H. Smith, Pollock, Sheridan, Johnston, McCarthy, J. T. Wright, E. A. Peck and R. B. Rogers.

The meeting was called for the purpose of discovering what methods should be adopted to prevent an outbreak of small-pox in the village, in the event of any cases being discovered in the municipality. As a result of the discussion the following motion was carried:

Moved by Mr. Johnston, seconded by Mr. Sheridan, — That arrangements be made with Dr. Amys to vaccinate all resident ratepayers of the Village of Ashburnham, who may come to him for that purpose, and pay the fee of 25c., and the clerk be authorized to procure a supply of vaccine points; the doctor to keep a record of those vaccinated and to grant a certificate to each one. All poor persons resident in the village on presenting a certificate signed by any two members of the Charity Committee will be paid for by the municipality.

Dr. Amys will be at the Ashburnham Council Chamber this afternoon and on Monday between the hours of four and five o'clock, and on Saturday between three and four o'clock. A nurse will be present to assist. Dr. Amys will also vaccinate those calling at his surgery during office hours, 9 to 11 a.m., 2 to 4 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

The Special Address This Evening Will be on the Subject of "Heaven."

A congregation that filled All Saints' listened to a most impressive sermon by Rev. Mr. Murphy, on "The Great Father." He took as his text St. Luke xv, and 17th vs, "And when he came to himself," and showed that as the young man was not in his right mind, so really are all those who are away from God. His first step in reform was that of Consideration; the second was that of Resolution carried into effect. Then there was the great compassion of the father, who ran to meet him. A graphic description was given of that meeting which pictured God's inestimable love to man.

When God meets us there is Repentance—then we are clothed by Him in the righteousness of Christ—the very best. The Ring, as a token of the covenant for Eternity, was put on him-and the feast of joy, which never ends, was spread.

Two voices had spoken to the young man—First, the voice in the far-off country, which said, "Go home," and, secondly, the Voice of Heaven, saying "Come home." There is only one Road where God looks for our coming, and in that Road the Father meets us, even as Christ said, "I am the Way."

This evening Rev. Mr. Murphy will speak on "Heaven." There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8.30 a.m., Sunday next.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Non.-Com's Mess of the 57th Regiment.

The annual meeting of the non-commissioned officers' mess of the 57th Regt., was held in the buglers' quarters on Wednesday evening. There was a fairly good attendance and the chair was occupied by the president of the mess.

Hon. Pres.—Col.Sgt. Brittain.
Pres.—Ambulance Sgt. Sharpe.
Chaplain—Rev. J. C. Davidson.
Sec. Treas—Col.-Sgt. Cottrell.
Committee of Management — Staff Sgt. Green, Col.-Sgt. Mulligan, Sgt. Sturgeon, Sgt. Batten and Corp. Irwin.

Arrangements were made for the annual reception which will take place in the near future and a small committee was appointed to make preliminary arrangements for the same.

LITERARY NOTES.

"Good Words," the old London monthly, appeals to the poets of the British Empire to show the quality of their genius and their loyalty in the composition of an ode in celebration of the approaching Coronation of King Edward VII and his Queen Consort. The occasion, the editor says, is enough of itself to inspire the muse of every British poet, but as an additional incentive a prize of £50 is offered for the best Coronation Ode submitted, £15 for the second best, and £10 for the third. All others which are considered worthy of publication in "Good Words," will be accepted and paid for in the regular way. Poems submitted in competition must reach the office of the Magazine not later than April 30th, 1902. The publishers especially desire that the poets of the various distant parts of the Empire will enter into the competition.

CONVICTION QUASHED.

John Kennedy's Case was Carried to the High Court of Justice.

(Special to the Examiner.)

Toronto, Jan. 10.—Chief Justice Meredith this morning quashed a conviction registered against John Kennedy at Peterborough for theft on which he was sentenced to four months imprisonment in the Central. Mr. E. B. Stone, for Kennedy, submitted that the police magistrate could not try Kennedy without his consent, and the Chief Justice, whose respect for Magna Charta and the right of trial by jury is very marked, agreed and quashed the conviction.

Kennedy was tried before Police Magistrate Dumble here about three weeks ago on a charge of stealing oats from Wm. Pew, of Cavan.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

HOCKEY.

The Peterborough Seniors leave this evening for Lindsay to play their first game against Lindsay in the O.H.A. Intermediate series. The team will be composed as follows: Goal, Comstock; point, Glover; cover point, Armstrong; forwards, Whitoroft, Lynch, Morgan and Watt.

The management of the local club is making arrangements for home and home games with Norwood. This is a splendid idea as Norwood has been deprived of several games in the Trent Valley League through the default of Campbellford and the locals are placed in a like position through the default of Belleville in the O.H.A. The first game will very likely take place here on Wednesday night of next week.

The Peterborough Colts go down to Belleville on Monday to play their return game with the team of that town.

The Brownies have issued a challenge to play a practice match with any factory or organized team to be played on time to be arranged. This challenge is open to any senior team in town who wish to be measured for a Waterloo. Captains are again reminded to have their men on hand on Saturday evening for the League games.

Dr. Lionel King will referee to-morrow night's match between the Wellingtons and Varsity, at Toronto, and will then proceed to Michigan.

Walter Phelan, of Peterborough, was captain of the "All-Star" combination that defeated Queen's in Pittsburg on Wednesday.

A Tie at Omemee.

Omemee, Jan. 9. — The first scheduled match in the Trent Valley Hockey League was played here to-night between Omemee Beavers and Bobcaygeon, and resulted in a tie. The score at the end of the game was 5 to 5. The game was the best exhibition of hockey ever seen in Omemee, and the score indicates the progress of the game from start to finish. Bradley, Omemee's stalwart point, evened the score by scoring in the last minute. Dr. Walters, of Lindsay, made a satisfactory referee. The following was the line up:

Timekeepers—Welsh and Moffatt.

A meeting of the Thistle Curling Club will be held in the rink parlours at 7.30 o'clock this evening to elect tankard skips.

In large type the Winnipeg Free Press makes the following announcement in its sporting column: "Skip Flavelle for the Bonspiel—the crack Lindsay curler will visit Winnipeg for the Mid-Winter Carnival." The item continues: A. F. D. MacGachen sprang an agreeable surprise upon the meeting by reading a letter received from Mr. J. D. Flavelle, of Lindsay, Ont., in which that gentleman expressed his intention of again visiting Winnipeg with a rink, to take part in the next bonspiel. He did not do so with an expectation of winning trophies, but to enjoy what had always been to him an enjoyable holiday in Winnipeg. This announcement was received with applause by members of council, and he will doubtless be re-elected amongst members of the curling fraternity throughout the length and bredth of of the Northwest.

The news is correct, and if all goes well Skip Flavelle will leave for the West with Geo. A. Little, H. Cuthbert and L. V. O'Connor.

HUNTING NOTES.

The members of the Eagle Lake Hunt Club claim that they have not shown the white feather in regard to shooting off with the Gold-Lakers for an oyster supper, and that they propose to trim the latter club on Tuesday, after which they will shoot with any club in the town for 500 lbs. of flour for the poor.

PILED ON THE ROCKS

SEVEN OF THE CREW DROWNED

Capt. McIntyre Refused to Allow the Men to Leave the Ship at Once, But After Three Hours 21 of Them Got Away—Captain and Others Were Too Late—Occurred Off Green Island.

Vancouver, Jan. 9.—News was brought by the steamer City of Seattle last night that the steam collier Bristol, running between Vancouver Island and Alaska, owned by Hon. James Dunsmuir, was overtaken by a southeast gale, on the night of Jan. 2, and piled on the rocks off Green Island.

Captain McIntyre refused to allow the men to leave the ship at once, although he was urged to do so by Chief Officer Smith. After three hours 21 of the crew got away from the ship, and although coal was pouring through the ship's bottom into the sea, the captain refused, to leave until the last minute, which proved too late.

The captain, the pilot, and five of the crew, went down with her. The drowned are: Captain McIntyre, Port Townsend; Chief Engineer Vivian, Victoria; Pilot Roberts, Victoria; James Silva, W. Homer, H. C. Hurtlent and A. Edwards of San Francisco.

A TUNNEL WRECK.

Rear-End Collision Under the Streets of New York—Fifteen Persons Killed and Many Injured.

New York, Jan. 9.—Down in the New York Central tunnel that burrows under Park avenue, two local trains met in collision at 8.17 o'clock yesterday morning, and 15 passengers were killed and twice that number were injured. A dozen of the injured were seriously hurt and the roster of the dead may be extended.

It was a rear-end collision between a South Norwalk local that ran in over the New York, New Haven and Hartford and was halted by block signal at the southern entrance to the tunnel, and a White Plains local, that came by the Harlem branch of the New York Central. Most of the deaths, injury and damage was brought by the engine of the White Plains train, which plunged into the rear car of the standing train. It swept away the platform and wedged its way through the floor to the middle of the car, smashing the seats and furnishings and splitting the sides as it moved forward. Its many victims were either mangled to death in the mass of wreckage carried on the pilot, or burned to death by steam, which came hissing from broken steam pipes and cylinders. There were many heroic incidents to be credited to injured passengers and rescuers.

List of the Dead.

The official list of the dead, as made public by the police, is as follows:

Albert M. Ferrin, 43 years old, secretary of the Union Bag & Paper Company of Chicago; residence, New Rochelle, N.Y.
D. C. Fosket, 40, New Rochelle.
A. E. H. Mills, 25, New Rochelle.
E. C. Hinsdale, 35, New Rochelle.
Mrs. A. E. Howard, 35, New Rochelle.
Frank Washburn, 55, president of the Union Bag & Paper Company of Chicago; residence, New Rochelle.
Theodore Forgardo, 30, New Rochelle.
William Fisher, or Forbes, 25, New Rochelle.
William Howard, 48, New Rochelle.
Oscar Meyrowitz, 50, New Rochelle; optician, in business in this city, and secretary of the New Rochelle Yacht Club.
Franklin Crosby, 35, New Rochelle.
Ernest F. Walton, 30, New Rochelle; in business in this city.
H. G. Diamond, New Rochelle; assistant general manager of the American Bridge Company, in this city.
Charles B. Mars, New Rochelle, employed in the New York Custom House.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard, who were said not to be related, and Washburn and Walton were scalded to death; the others met death by being crushed or mangled.

Responsibility for the disaster is unfixed, but Superintendent J. H. Franklin said that as far as he had been able to discover, J. M. Wisker, engineer of the White Plains train, was to blame. When the South Norwalk train was stopped a flagman ran back into the tunnel and besides placing a torpedo on the track endeavored to flag the incoming train. He hurled his lantern at the cab window, but the big engine never halted until it was buried in wreckage. It is not clear that the torpedo exploded or that Wisker was warned by the lantern signal. Engineer Wisker and Fireman Christopher Flynn were placed under arrest. A signal man was also detained for a time, but was released.

Probably Twelve Men Buried.

Negaunee, Mich., Jan. 9.—The situation in practically unchanged at the Negaunee mine, where a number of men are entombed. The rescuers accomplished nothing during the night. Officials of the mine now say there are at least ten men and possibly twelve underground.

Whirled to Death.

Woodstock, N.B., Jan. 9.—Harry Chapman, aged 18 years, met an awful death in Smull & Fisher's Foundry yesterday afternoon. He was putting resin on a moving belt, when he slipped and fell inside the belt, which broke, wrapped around his body, and whirled him to death.

Farmer Killed Himself.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 9.—Thomas Wooden, a well-to-do farmer of Patterson Settlement, Sunbury County, committed suicide yesterday. His wife found him dead with two bullets in his head. He was 63 years old.

Karl's Clover Root Tea purifies the Blood

Catarrh is a Germ Disease.

Science armed with the microscope, has established it a fact, and this conclusion renders obsolete the practice of treating Asthma, Catarrh and Bronchitis by stomach drugging, sprays, snuffs, etc. Such treatments are an utter failure because they cannot penetrate the delicate air cells of the lungs, or permeate the air passages of the nose and bronchial tubes where the germs of Catarrh have their stronghold. Catarrhozone is the only certain remedy. It is inhaled by the mouth and after spreading through all the respiratory organs is exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone kills the germs, heals the inflamed tissues, clears the head and throat in two minutes, and cures in a few hours. Nothing is so effective, pleasant and simple as Catarrhozone. Two months' treatment $1.00. Small size, 25c. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

The Dutton Mystery.

London, Jan. 9.—The Urlin inquest was resumed yesterday, but so far fails to develop much further evidence than has already been reported. Mrs. Urlin, widow of the deceased, the eldest daughter, A. D. Urlin, his brother and wife, were the main witnesses called yesterday, but nothing new seems forthcoming. The inquest will probably close today, there now being the medical testimony only to occupy time. Inspector Murray is still unchanged in his idea of foul play being the cause of death, so that the present inquiry may not dispose of the case entirely, no matter what the verdict may be.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

Baby's cold may be cured in a night by using Vapo-Cresolene, which has been extensively in use for twenty-four years. All druggists.

Has Gone to Halifax.

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—Major-General O'Grady-Haly has gone to Halifax to inspect the Canadian Mounted Rifles previous to the embarkation of the first battalion Tuesday on the transport Manhattan.

A cablegram received at the Militia Department announces that the other transport, the Victorian, will probably arrive in Halifax on Tuesday, the 14th.

"MUSCLES IN KNOTS"

Joints all stiffened and swollen—dagger-like pains, sufferings that no man can describe—this is the experience of thousands of Rheumatism's victims.

Do you know that there isn't a case, no matter how acute or how long standing, that South-American Rheumatic Cure will not relieve almost in a trice and work a permanent cure. Its action on a system so disordered is marvellous. It works quickly, quietly, effectually and harmlessly, and leaves no bad after effects. It does not cure all diseases, but it does cure rheumatism. 1

A Former Governor of South Carolina Sent to Jail For Stealing—Car Shortage Question in Winnipeg—A Branch Factory of Ithaca Wall Paper Mills For Niagara Falls, Ont. —Shot by His Son.

Franklin J. Moses, once governor of South Carolina, was sent to jail on Thursday for stealing an overcoat.

George P. Sills, formerly of Ottawa, Ont., was killed by his son, Percy, at Barnet's Rapids, B. C. It was an accident.

It is asserted that the Ithaca Wall Paper Mills will build a branch factory at Niagara Falls, Ont., for their Canadian trade.

Richard Stewart has been committed for trial at Niagara Falls, Ont., for assaulting Mrs. Zachania D. Angels. The case will be tried on June 10.

The statement of the treasurer of Harvard University, just presented to the overseers, showed that the university ran behind $321,579 for the year ending July 31, 1901.

The Winnipeg Board of Trade Thursday afternoon discussed the car shortage question for two hours and then adjourned. It was a warm debate, all interests being represented.

At Ottawa Mary Gertrude Spry, 15 months old, was choked to death Thursday by a screw nail an inch and a half long. The child found the nail on the floor and tried to swallow it.

John Durand, hotelkeeper of Belmont, who was badly injured at London on Saturday evening by falling down the cellar steps of the Atlantic House, died at Victoria Hospital Thursday.

The sittings of the Half-breed Commission at Winnipeg have been officially postponed until all danger of the further spread of smallpox is at an end. The commission may not meet again until May.

Rev. H. S. Musson, formerly of Toronto, who was recently appointed rector of the Church of the Holy Innocents, Indianapolis, has been made rector of Indianapolis Cathedral, to succeed Rev. Dean Peters.

Mrs. Dennis Buckley, an aged and respected citizen of Hamilton, tripped and fell down a flight of stairs Thursday evening, breaking several ribs. Some arteries burst, and her head was badly bruised. She may die.

During the year 1901 no less than 1,125,501 pieces of baggage were handled at the baggage department at the Union Station, Toronto. In the previous year the number of pieces handled barely passed the million mark.

John Redmond, M.P., announced on Thursday that William Redmond and Joseph Devlin of Belfast, will sail for the United States at the end of the month to complete the work of organizing the United Irish League in America.

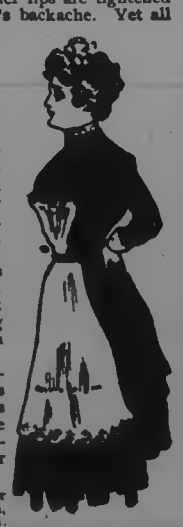
The complimentary banquet tendered Mr. Gilbert Parker, M. P., the well-known writer, by the Canadian Club, in Toronto Thursday evening, will rank as one of the most brilliant functions of the kind ever held in that city. Fully 300 members of the club and their friends were in attendance. In addition to an eloquent speech by Mr. Parker, Hon. Geo. E. Foster delivered a ringing Canadian address.

Stole Three Bodies.

Kingston, Jan. 10.—Wednesday night thieves tore down the ventilator of the vault in St. Mary's cemetery, Division street, and stole three bodies therefrom. The remains taken away were those of Mrs. Hughes of Kingston, Miss Haley and Miss Mary Crofley. They pulled the bodies out of the coffins and forced them through the small opening. The police say four men were in the job, but they have no clue.

The Weak Spot.

If you are sitting in a restaurant where waitresses are in attendance, you will note now and again some young woman put her hand to her back, and straighten herself up, while her lips are tightened as if by pain. It's backache. Yet all day long she must be on her feet, lifting, carrying, hurrying.



That weak spot, the backache can be made strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the womanly diseases which cause headache, backache, sideache, nervousness and sleeplessness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wrote you for advice February 4th, 1895," writes Mrs. Loma Halstead, of Clarcsore, Cherokee Nat., Ind. Ty. "I was racking with pain from the back of my head down to my heels. Had hemorrhage for weeks at a time, and was unable to sit up for ten minutes at a time. You answered my letter, advised me to use your valuable medicines, viz., Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' also gave advice about injections, baths and diet. To my surprise, in four months from the time I began your treatment I was a well woman, and have not had the backache since, and now I put in sixteen hours a day at hard work."

Loss of Flesh.

If you find yourself falling below normal weight there is danger. The use of fish oils can temporarily add fat, but will never build up healthy tissue. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts through the blood and nervous system and carries new life and energy to every nook and corner of the body. It regulates the various organs of the body, makes the appetite good, adds healthy flesh and replaces the tissues wasted by disease. Gradually and naturally this food cure restores colour to the cheeks, increases the weight of the body, and thoroughly overcomes disease.

Not the Canadian Cory.

Toronto, Jan. 9.—A despatch published yesterday announced the wounding of a Lieut. Cory in India. As there is but one Lieut. Cory mentioned in the copy of Whitaker's Naval and Military Directory it was assumed that the wounded man was that one, viz., Lieut. George N. Cory, but friends of the latter state that he is still in South Africa, and is now Capt. Cory, and therefore could not be the officer mentioned in the Calcutta despatch. The despatch probably referred to Lieut. Corry.

To Protest All Seats.

St. Thomas, Jan. 10.—The Times says: Steps will be taken to protest the election of the aldermen-elect for 1902 on the ground that many electors voted for aldermen in the different sub-divisions in which their names were on the roll, whereas they were only entitled to one vote. It is impossible to tell who the repeaters voted for, and the whole council will be attacked.

There are roses, carnations, violets, lilies of the valley, daffodils, hyacinths, and narcissus, vieing with each other in sweetness. DEER HUNTING

In the Highlands of Ontario.

The Grand Trunk Railway System announce that the deer hunting season in Ontario resulted most satisfactorily to the hunters that went into this district during the open season of 1901. Though the complete information with regard to the number of licenses issued this year has not yet come to hand, it is estimated that over 5000 licenses were issued, and hunting parties and others estimate the number of deer killed to be about one and a half deer to each hunter. This would make a total of 7,500 deer killed, and it is somewhat marvellous how the stock of deer keep pace with the number killed, but it seems that each year they are becoming more numerous, and there is an increase instead of a dimunition. This is accounted for by the shortness of the open season, which runs from November 1st to the 15th, and by the strict prosecution by the Ontario Government of anyone transgressing the laws. The wanton slaughter which no doubt would have prevailed had hunters been allowed to kill at their pleasure has thus been prevented to a great extent, and one of the best heritages of the public saved. This year the Canadian Express Co. alone carried 2,372 deer, which is an increase over the season of 1900 of 878 deer, the total weight of these shipments amounting to 236,637 lbs. All of these shipments were made from points located on the Grand Trunk Railway, the largest number of carcases being taken out of the Magnetawan River district, the Muskoka Lakes District and points on their Northern Division north of Huntsville. Of course this is not a criterion of the number that are killed, as this does not include those killed by settlers, Indians and half-breeds, and by those hunters who do not have to express their deer to their homes; nor the wounded ones which get away and die; nor those killed and eaten by the 5000 hunters and their dogs during the two weeks they are in the woods. Taking all this into consideration there could not have been less than 8000 or 9000 deer killed during the season of 1901.

ST. LUKE'S NOTES.

To-night at 7.30 the weekly Bible class will be held at St. Luke's. The Rector will teach, as usual, the Sunday Bible lesson from Acts ii., 1-11. After the Bible class the choir will practice.

To-morrow, Saturday, at 2 p.m., the Mission Band commences its weekly meetings in the Sunday School.

At the Christmas entertainment, Mr. Joseph Ball, the faithful sexton of the church, received from the Decoration Chapter a handsome sum of money, as a Christmas remembrance, and from the Sunday School a dozen bread and butter plates for Mrs. Ball and himself.

FATHER PHELAN HONOURED.

Made the Recipient of a Pair of Fur Gauntlets and an Address on Monday Evening.

(Lindsay Post.)

After vespers at St. Mary's church Monday evening a number of the young men of the parish waited on Rev. Father Phelan at the Presbytery and presented him with a handsome pair of fur gauntlets and the following address, which was read by Mr. Chas. Podger, Mr. H. Mallon bestowing the gift:

Rev. C. J. Phelan, St. Mary's church, Lindsay:

Rev. and Dear Father, — Although the parishioners of St. Mary's still continue to mourn the irreparable loss of their devoted pastor, the late Monsignor Laurent, your appointment as Parish Priest of Lindsay, even for a few months, has been a source of great consolation to them in their bereavement.

His Lordship, the much beloved Bishop of Peterborough, evidently sympathized with the congregation of St. Mary's in their great sorrow; for, on perceiving that you, reverend Father, had, during your curacy in Lindsay endeared yourself to pastor and people alike, he, in his wisdom, chose you as the priest best qualified to assuage the grief of the congregation and to administer the affairs of the parish in the usual way. For this kind consideration of the Bishop the people of St. Mary's are truly grateful, and pray that His Lordship may long be spared to guard and advance the interests of the Church in the Diocese of Peterborough.

We, the undersigned, on behalf of the young men of the parish, have called on you this evening, dear Father, to assure you of our reverence and regard for you, to wish you the compliments of the season—a Happy New Year—and finally, to ask you to accept this pair of gauntlets in token of our esteem and affection, and as a memento of the closing months of 1901, so marked by the demise and obsequies of the good and faithful Monsignor Laurent.

Signed on behalf of the young men of the parish of St. Mary's, Lindsay.

HENRY MALON,
ALBERT COTE,
JOHN BRANIFF,
THOS. SPRATT,
NEIL TOBIN.

Lindsay, Jan. 1st, 1902.

Father Phelan made an eloquent and feeling reply in the course of which he referred to the regret he felt at his impending departure from the parish, where he had made so many devoted friends, but duty was paramount in the hearts of the priests of the Roman Catholic church, and that thought, and the knowledge that he would have their prayers, would help him to bear the parting—the more bitter because of the recollection of the sympathetic, tender and fatherly relations which had existed between their late beloved pastor, Mgr. Laurent, and himself, which alone would suffice to turn his thoughts very frequently in the direction of St. Mary's, Lindsay.

BEET ROOT SUGAR.

(From the St. John Telegraph.)

The development of the beet root sugar industry in the United States is an interesting matter, although as yet it is comparatively trivial in relation to the total consumption. Approximately speaking, the United States uses about 6,081 tons of sugar per day. Last year there were 39 beet sugar factories in the country, with a total output of 150,000 tons, or about 411 tons per day, the total being equal to some 24 days' consumption. The production, however, showed a steady increase since the first establishment of the industry, the statistics being as follows:

Year.	Factories.	Product.
1893	6	12,018 tons
1897	7	37,586 tons
1900	34	76,859 tons

It is claimed that the output for 1902 will amount to 250,000 tons, but on the other hand it is shown that the total consumption of sugar in the United States increased in 1900 by more than 141,000 tons above what it had been in 1899, and the ratio of increase is also developing.

A CHEERFUL OUTLOOK.

It is not enough that we were successful last year and years before—progress must mark our present work.

The Turnbull Store has long been the leading centre of the Dry Goods trade of Peterborough and vicinity. Last year was by far the largest and most successful in its history. Our aim is that 1902 will see us make greater advances than ever. The reorganization of this business is done with a determination to discount and double discount the past. To this end, we bespeak the continued co-operation of lady shoppers especially.

What makes Turnbull's so distinctly Turnbull's is the fact that your interests are considered on a par with our own. Prices and quality go hand in hand. What we want to emphasize and what deserves recognition is the fact that:—

THE TURNBULL COMPANY BUYS ONLY NEW AND RELIABLE GOODS TO SELL AT PRICES AS LOW OR LOWER THAN INFERIOR GOODS ELSEWHERE

How well this has been done in the past is a matter of history. Our annual turn-over is among the largest in the Midland district, enabling us to buy in very large quantities. The emphasis of this fact is our price concessions to customers. Added to this is our valuable connection with three large manufacturing establishments, enabling us to secure merchandise and prices unknown to smaller buyers. And every dollar's worth is bought for Spot Cash. Can there be any doubt that we are in a position to serve you better during 1902 than ever before?

The friends we have we mean to keep, and every new acquaintance we want to hold. A trial will convince you that we practice what we preach.

MILNER SAYS FIGHT

No Use to Threaten Boers, and no Use to Wheedle Them

LORD MILNER'S LATEST SPEECH.

Fidgeting About Negotiations For Peace Would Not Bring the End of the War Nearer—The Only Way Was the Continual Pressing of the Enemy —Boer Delegates in Holland Changing Their View.

London, Jan. 11.—At a local banquet given in Johannesburg Thursday night Lord Milner, the British High Commissioner in South Africa, made a long speech on the situation, and expressed his belief that the storm cloud overhanging Africa had burst, that the great cataclysm was now behind instead of before, and then men breathed more freely.

After strongly denouncing the tactics of the British pro-Boers, Lord Milner declared:

"The war will end all the sooner if we apply a steady physical pressure without fidgeting about negotiations. It is useless to threaten and useless to wheedle. The only thing is imperturbably to squeeze and to keep our clemency and conciliation, both excellent in their proper places, for the Boers who surrender, instead of lavishing it in blandishments upon those who continue the fight."

Champions Peace With Boers.

London, Jan. 11.—James Bryce (Liberal) member of Parliament for Aberdeen, in the course of a speech to his constituents at Aberdeen yesterday, advocated making generous terms with the Boers. He said he was more concerned for the country than for the Liberal party, and would welcome any ministry, however composed, that would conclude an honorable peace. Mr. Bryce believed the country was tired of a ministry which had proved itself incapable of keeping peace or conducting a successful war.

Waiting Her Husbands Fate.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Alice Anthony of San Francisco is at the Auditorium, awaiting the fate of her husband, Dr. R. S. Anthony, who was to have been tried on the charge of high treason Jan. 7 by a court in the British army in South Africa. Mrs. Anthony came from Washington, where she went to intercede for her husband. There she learned he had been arrested about two months ago on two specific charges, that of furnishing aid and comfort to the enemy and intrigue. Dr. Anthony formerly lived in San Francisco, and was practicing medicine in Cradock, South Africa, when he enlisted in the Boer army. Mrs. Anthony left Cradock with her children last winter and has been living in San Francisco ever since. She has been attempting to enlist the services of this Government in securing the release of her husband.

Barefooted Boer Stormers.

Durban, Jan. 10.—Private information states that Dewet's surprise of the British at Tweefontein was complete. Leaving 200 men to guard his laager, Dewet headed north with the bulk of his force on a clever feinting movement. Doubling back after dark the Boers climbed barefooted up the dangerous precipice, upon which Col. Firman's force had pitched its camp, and which was the head of the blockhouse line going to Bethlehem.

Boers Look For Peace.

Amsterdam, Jan. 11.—The Boer delegates in Holland evidently anticipate that some kind of peace overtures will shortly be forthcoming, though they are reticent as to their reasons for this belief. They maintain, however, that the demand for an unconditional surrender must be abandoned. It is privately admitted that none of the delegates will reject what they call "any fair offer of terms."

Call For More Men.

London, Jan. 11.—The War office has issued a call for 9,396 infantry volunteers gradually to replace those now serving in South Africa.

A Company Chiropodist.

London, Jan. 11.—The pedal extremities of the soldier have long been a matter of anxiety to his officers, and one of the preliminaries to a long march in South Africa is always "feet inspection." In future every regiment will have its own chiropodist.

Another Canadian Wounded.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—The following from the British army orders applies to Canada: "The war services of officers engaged in South Africa from the outbreak of hostilities until Nov. 29, 1900, will be recorded in the official army list, and officers commanding units should include in their regular return an appendix showing the services of officers under their command."

His Excellency the Governor-General has received the following cablegram from the Casualty Department in South Africa: Cape Town, Jan. 9.—"Following casualty reported at junction of Zand and Vet Rivers, Jan. 4: South African constabulary severely wounded, John Henry French, shoulder. Please inform brother, Boissevain Postoffice, Manitoba."

UNAUTHORIZED MEDDLING.

Henniker-Heaton, M.P., Arouses Indignation of Australian Premier.

Sydney, Jan. 11.—Mr. Barton, the Federal Premier, explains that the reason why the Imperial Government in expressing its willingness to accept more troops for South Africa mentioned only a 1,000 men was due to the meddling of Mr. Henniker-Heaton, M.P., who telegraphed to Mr. Chamberlain that 1,000 good riders and shots were available who had seen previous service in South Africa. Mr. Barton adds indignantly that but for this unauthorized action of an irresponsible person Australia would now be sending many more than 1,000 men. Mr. Henniker-Heaton's message presumably created the impression that in Australia only 1,000 men were forthcoming.

KILLED EIGHTY-ONE ISLANDERS.

German Revenge For the Killing of Scientist Menke.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—A correspondent at Samoa writes to The Cologne Gazette, giving a hitherto unknown explanation of the killing of Dr. Menke, leader of a German scientific expedition in the South Sea Islands, and his party by natives of St. Matthew's Island, Bismarck Archipelago.

The correspondent says that Dr. Menke and his party ruthlessly destroyed a number of palm trees, of which there but few on the island, and that the natives acted in defence of their property. The German punitive expedition sent to avenge the killing of Dr. Menke and his party, which landed from the German cruiser, Cormoran near the scene of the massacre, killed eighty-one islanders.

"Such is the civilization," says The Vorwaerts, "that our colonial politicians are spreading."

PARAGUAY RULER OVERTHROWN.

President Aceval and General Egusquiza Lodged in Prison.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 11.—Despatches from Asuncion announces that President Emilio Aceval, of Paraguay, has been overthrown by a revolution.

The revolt was headed by the Minister of War, Colonel Escurra, and the Minister of Finance, Senor Moreno.

President Aceval and General Egusquiza, a former President of Paraguay, were arrested yesterday morning at their residences. They offered no resistance and were placed in prison.

The leaders of the revolution will publish a manifesto to explain their action.

As the revolt has the support of the army there is no probability that President Aceval will return to power.

MISS STONE RELEASED.

Report From Vienna That She Was Made Free To Days Ago.

Vienna, Jan. 11.—The Allegemeine Zeitung's Sofia correspondent asserts that despite denials it is a fact that Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary abducted by brigands, was liberated ten days ago, and that the full ransom demanded for her release was paid.

The missionary, the correspondent says, embarked at Salonica for Genoa, en route for America.

The Porte has requested that the matter be kept secret so that the payment of the ransom may not encourage the kidnapping of foreigners, according to the correspondent.

AN ARCHBISHOP'S VIEW.

Winnipeg, Jan. 11.—The subject of the Liquor Act referendum continues to be the absorbing topic of public interest among Winnipeg citizens, expressions of opinion on all phases of the subject are freely offered, and many new ideas are being publicly discussed.

Most Rev. Robert Machray, D.D., Archbishop of Rupert's Land, says: "I entirely disapprove of the principle of prohibitory legislation. But if that principal is to be applied, which I do not approve of, then it should only be upon the clearest proof of a large majority in its favor. I regard it as a matter of individual conscience rather than of law, and only the honest and active convictions of a large majority would warrant a law or secure its proper observance. I should say that the majority should be fully 75 per cent."

The Free Press last night says: It was learned this morning that the Government will use the municipal voters' lists with which to submit the prohibition referendum to the people. There was some uncertainty about this matter, a great many being of the opinion that the new provincial voters' lists would have to be prepared for the purpose in accordance with the act passed last session.

Gifts to Kingston.

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 11.—When the Prince of Wales was here in October he promised to send to the Royal Military College signed engravings of the King and Queen. These have been received and bear the signatures of Their Majesties. The engravings will be hung in the college mess room. The fine collection of portraits of Governors from Columbus to Minto, given to Queen's University by Mr. Gilbert Parker, M. P., have arrived here. Most of them bear the autograph of the subject. The collection is worth $5,000. The donor was the guest yesterday afternoon of Principal Grant.

Took It All Back.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—In the Reichstag yesterday, the Chancellor, Count Von Buelow, took occasion to pour oil on the recently troubled British waters. He spoke sharply against the abuse of Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, indulged in by several speakers since the opening of the House, as well as against the aspersions cast on the honor of the British army, to which the Chancellor presented a warm tribute.

HEARTIEST GOOD WISHES

Extended to Their Departing Local Superintendent by the Separate School Board of Education.

On Thursday evening the members of the Separate School Board of Education, waited upon Ven. Archdeacon Casey for the purpose of expressing their extreme regret at the severance of the pleasant relations which have always existed as between them and the Archdeacon, who for many years has acted in the position of Local Superintendent of the schools.

The following address was read:

To Venerable Archdeacon Casey, Local Superintendent of Separate Schools, Peterborough, Ont.

Reverend and Dear Sir,—It has been with the deepest and most sincere regret that the members of the Separate School Board of the Town of Peterborough learned that in consequence of your removal from here to Lindsay you were about to be called upon to sever the relations which have ever been sustained, with much pleasure to us and profit to the interests entrusted to our care, between yourself, as local Superintendent, and ourselves as a Board.

We desire affectionately and respectfully, reverend sir, to express to you our appreciation of all that you have done in the interests of the children and how solicitous you have been to see those interests advanced by efficient schools. To accomplish this you have not only given your own personal exertions, but you have placed at our disposal all those talents which you possess and which have made your advice so valuable a guide in our work.

And, reverend sir, while it may be unnecessary to convey in words what you must have long since learned by actions, we can assure you that you have not only our deepest gratitude as trustees for your labour of love, but you have also the warm love and sincere affection of the little ones of the flock who are gathered in our schools.

Your kindness, your thoughtfulness, your fatherly forbearance and your spiritual guidance have never been absent from any of your relations with them, and your name will not soon be forgotten by the children of the Separate schools in Peterborough. Your work in the cause of education will long remain in memory of the Board, and will have a still more lasting monument in the record of increased efficiency that has been written under you as Local Superintendent.

And now, reverend sir, allow us as trustees to again express our deep sense of debt for all you have been to us as Local Superintendent, and to assure you that we have always and will ever appreciate the interest you have manifested in education in our schools.

In asking that you will not forget us in the Holy Mass or in your prayers, we would respectfully beg to offer our congratulations on the important duties you have been assigned in the neighboring parish of Lindsay. While regretting your departure, we recognize the wisdom of His Lordship, who has chosen you for the important work there, and we humbly bow to what is in the interests of our church.

We would then, reverend sir, in conclusion, extend our heartiest wishes for continued good health and vigor and holy work to which you have dedicated your life and talents, knowing that here after awaits you the rich reward of all who labour for Him who said "Suffer little children to come unto Me."

Ven. Archdeacon Casey's reply was brimming over with expressions of good will towards the Board and replete with remarks concerning the close interest which he had taken and always would take, in the progress of the Peterborough Separate Schools.

THE VACCINATION.

About 700 Persons Received Treatment in the Council Chamber.

The public vaccination which has been in progress during the past few days at the Council Chamber, concluded last night at 5 o'clock. The scheme may be said to have been highly satisfactory, as during the four days about 700 persons were treated. Of course it is safe in stating that there have been in addition at least half this number vaccinated privately since the first case of small-pox made its appearance in Peterborough. Those who received public vaccination will return to the Council Chamber one week from the day on which they received their vaccination in order to receive a certificate.

THE LOCAL MARKET.

The Prices That Were Being Paid on the Market This Morning.

The improved sleighing was beneficial to the local market this morning, which presented a lively appearance. The farmers were out in large numbers and prices were pretty firm.

The outside market was quite large and considerable produce was offered. Hay moved off freely at from $8 to $10, and wood was plentiful at $5 per cord. There was an abundance of beef at 4 1-2 to 5 1-2. Pork was selling dressed at 8c, and by the quarter at 8 and 9c. The ruling price for hogs next week will be 6 1-4c. Pork was somewhat dull this morning. Potatoes are selling at 75c a bag and are scarce, while apples are going at $1 to $1.50. There were about 328 live hogs handled on the local market this week.

THE LATE REDMOND HENRY.

Mr. M. L. Henry this morning received a telegram from Mr. J. W. Sheridan, of New York, and formerly of Peterborough, concerning the demise of Mr. Redmond Henry which took place in New York on Monday last. It had been expected that the remains would arrive in Peterborough and interment take place here, but owing to the fact that his demise was due to a contageous disease, the authorities would not permit the transportation of the remains. Mr. Sheridan, who was a great personal friend of the deceased, states that the late Mr. Henry died of diptheria and that notwithstanding the fact that his remains were incased in a metallic sealed casket and every precaution used against contagion, the authorities would not allow the remains to be removed.

The deceased was conscious at the end and the last rites of the church were administered to him.

Interment took place in Holy Cross Cemetery, New York.

SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Many of Them Unnecessary. Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Medicine Have Saved Many Women From the Surgeon's Knife.

Hospitals in our great cities are sad places to visit.

Three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves.

Every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at the left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back. All these things are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb.

What a terrifying thought! these poor souls are lying there on those hospital beds awaiting a fearful operation.

Do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an examination and possible operation. Build up the female system, cure the derangements which have signified themselves by danger signals, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from the hospital. Read the letter here published with the full consent of the writer, and see how she escaped the knife by a faithful reliance on Mrs. Pinkham's advice and treatment by her medicines.

If in doubt write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for free advice; her experience covers twenty years.

Here is Proof, Undeniable Proof, That Many Operations May Be Avoided.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—As I am a great sufferer of female trouble I thought I would write to you to see if you thought there was any positive help for me. I am very sore through my bowels, especially over the womb, and on the left side low down I will be taken with a dull sore pain, and in an hour will be so sore that I cannot move myself, and will have to be poulticed, and will be unable to walk for two or three weeks. I have a bad discharge at times. The doctor says I will have to go through an operation and have the left ovary removed. If you can help me let me hear from you soon."—MRS. M. G. SHIVELY, Upson, Wis. (Nov. 12, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I wrote to you last fall in regard to my health, death would have been a welcome visitor to me, but I followed your advice and am now well. I had tried everything I could hear of, went to every doctor far and near, spent a great deal of money and received no benefit. At the time I wrote you I was saving up money to go to Chicago to have an operation upon the womb and ovaries which the doctor said unless I had I would die, but thanks to your remedies, I avoided this. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, two of your Blood Purifier, and used four packages of Sanative, and am a well woman. I advise every woman suffering as I did to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies."—MRS. M. G. SHIVELY, Upson, Wis. (March 20, 1901.)

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

SATURDAY, JAN. 11, 1902.

THE PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS.

From the Lakefield News.

The opening of the Ontario Legislature on Jan. 8th, possesses an unusual significance being, as it is, the last session of the present Parliament. It is more than probable that at the conclusion of the session, the provincial general elections will be brought on, and the people of the province called upon to select their representatives for another parliamentary term. The representation of West Peterborough will, therefore, particularly engage the attention of the electors of this riding.

As is generally known, Lakefield, though in the East Riding for Dominion elections, is in West Peterborough for Provincial elections. Hon. J. R. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, represents and for many years has very efficiently represented, the riding in which this village is situated. In all probability he will again at the coming elections seek the confidence of the electors, which he has so fully enjoyed, and so well, deserved, in the past. It will not be denied that as a private member of the Legislature, Mr. Stratton has given us most faithful and satisfactory representation, and that his opportunities for serving our interests have been increased by his elevation to the Cabinet. It is plain, therefore, that the interests of Lakefield and West Peterborough will be best served by having as a representative, a member of the Government who has a large influence in its councils, and possesses the increased opportunities for good service which that position involves.

It will be remembered that when Mr. Stratton sought to enter public life, his first meeting was held in Lakefield. At this meeting Hon. G. W. Ross, now Premier of Ontario, and a colleague of Mr. Stratton in the Government, spoke in his behalf. Mr. Ross has had the opportunity for over a dozen years of estimating Mr. Stratton's value as a live representative and a public man, and what estimate he has formed of him may easily be judged from the fact of his having offered him a seat in his cabinet. It was perfectly natural that two so like in their spirit of energy and progressive aims should be thus drawn together. This fact suggests and warrants the assertion that this village and riding will be more favourably served by a representative, who has a large influence in the Councils of the Cabinet than by a member, who, however good his will, is no more than a unit in his party.

We are willing to admit that any man occupying a Cabinet position must necessarily be more or less a party man. But party is chiefly, if not entirely involved in regard to great general public questions that divide the parties of the day and does not and should not necessarily apply to what may be called private or local interests. Especially is this the case with a man of Mr. Stratton's breadth of view and freedom from party prejudice. The most extreme Conservative will not say that in the past Mr. Stratton has not been entirely fair and impartial in his relations to his constituents and that when he could render a service such as a constituent could fairly ask of a representative there is no question that that service has been rendered irrespective of his political allegiance. Mr. Stratton acts and has always acted in such matters on the principle that he represents the riding as a whole and that every section is entitled to his services. All things considered and looking at the matter dispassionately the conclusion is plain that West Peterborough cannot do better than re-elect Mr. Stratton and we believe the great mass of the electors agree in this and will also further agree that the extremely problematical success of any Opposition to him would not give West Peterborough as good representation as Mr. Stratton has given and is able and willing to give in the future.

BEET SUGAR FACTORY NEWS.

What Berlin Delegates Saw in Michigan.

Interesting Description of Their Visit to a Bay City Factory—Process of Handling the Beets Described.

Appended is the report of the committee sent from Berlin to the Michigan beet sugar factories:

Your committee appointed to make investigation re sugar beet raising and the manufacture of sugar therefrom, beg to report as follows:

The committee spent two days in Bay City and Saginaw, Mich., where three refineries are now in operation. Two more will be ready to start operation on the 1st of November, and another is under contract to be ready next year. These six refineries will be within a radius of 13 miles and their total cost will be over $3,000,000.00. The investing of this large amount of money shows that investors have great confidence in the permanence of the enterprise.

We were shown through three of the refineries, and shown every process of manufacture, and we feel ourselves indebted to the officials of the institutions for the courteous treatment they extended to us, and for the trouble they took to explain the matter in every detail.

The farmers deliver their beets in large waggons, holding about two tons each. Every load is weighed, and samples taken therefrom to determine what percentage of sugar each load will produce and what amount is to be deducted for tare, dirt, etc. The farmers interests are looked after by a man appointed by themselves, in the weighing house, and for compensation, the farmer is taxed 1 per cent. per load or ton.

We find, upon interviewing the farmers that they have no trouble with the various companies, but feel that they are always treated fairly. We learn that when the farmer once commences to raise beets, that he never stops, but on the contrary, he puts in more acreage each year. As the profits are so large, he finds the raising of beets much more profitable than wheat, oats or barley, or any other farm product, and he is paid in cash at the end of each month.

A number of farmers when interviewed estimated that it cost them $25 to $30 per acre to raise the beets, after counting a fair wage for themselves, and the yield is from $62 to $75 per acre, thus leaving them from $32 to $45 per acre net profit. We have the above statement confirmed by various merchants, who have raised from 10 to 100 acres, hiring all the work done, and the profits were from $30 to $45 per acre.

We met a Mr. Gilbert, who has 1,100 acres of rented land this year, and he has rented 2,300 acres for next year. He speaks in the highest terms of the industry, and the fair and honourable way in which the companies deal with the farmers.

The farmers are paid $4.50 per ton for the beets that show 12 per cent. sugar and 33 1-3 cents per ton is added for each percentage above 12 per cent.; thus showing that a yield of 15 per cent. sugar would make the price $5.50 per ton, less 1 per cent. to 5 per cent. for dirt, etc. The refineries deduct 33 1-3 cents per ton for all beets that average under 12 per cent. sugar. The average yield we find to be about 15 tons per acre. Some farmers run up as high as 18 and others go as low as 12 tons. The highest percentage is produced on the best land, and where the beets are looked after carefully, and the weeds kept down. The weigh master said he could pick out a good load of beets by seeing a German farmer on the wagon. The farmers are raising better beets each year, consequently a large profit is realized. It is unprofitable to use the ground two years in succession; while the percentage of sugar is just as great the second and third year, the beets are smaller and less tons per acre. We find that it does not injure the beets to be frozen and the refineries do not object to frozen beets, if they are not allowed to thaw out.

The farmers are allowed to take away the pulp for feeding purposes, and the refuse lime for fertilizing. The farmers in Michigan have not availed themselves of the above opportunities as far as the pulp is concerned, because they have no cattle to fatten, but most of our Waterloo county farmers would have. The process of keeping this pulp during the winter, and the feeding of it, is explained in a paper called "The Michigan Sugar Beet," a weekly paper at $1 per year, which would keep farmers thoroughly posted on the sugar beet question.

We find that the price of farm land has risen 40 per cent. in Bay county in the last four years. There are many cases on record, where the advances have been over 100 per cent., and we talked with one farmer who bought his land eight years ago at $25 per acre, and last year he was offered $75 per acre for it. This shows a total gain of 200 per cent. since he purchased the farm. He attributes the advance solely to the raising of sugar beets, which has been very profitable for him.

It is profitable for farmers living a long distance from refineries to raise beets, and ship them by rail. We interviewed a number of farmers who were hauling from 10 to 16 miles.

The cultivation of beets is easily learned, and the farmers of Waterloo county, who are accustomed to raising roots, it would present no difficulties. We find that the farmers in and near Bay county were lumbermen, and when the lumber industry ceased to be profitable they took to farming, and, consequently they are not experienced farmers. The sugar beet industry has been of inestimable profit to Bay City, and the cities where the refineries are located. Large refineries pay out $500,000 or more each year. There is plenty of work for the poor classes in the beet fields, and good wages are paid. Even boys and girls from 10 years up make good wages, and are looked upon as very desirable help.

Having plenty of work during the summer, the poor classes are building their homes and paying off the mortgages on their homes, and the labouring classes, and such mechanics as carpenters, bricklayers, stonemasons and painters, are kept steadily working from November until February or March in the refineries, after their outdoor work is through in the fall. This makes the location of beet sugar factories most profitable, in or near a city, and of lasting benefit to the mechanics, and it is an industry which will constantly increase in importance.

The farmers in Bay county, Mich., have not as yet subscribed stock in the companies, but the farmer is always alive to his best interest, and they are now building a large refinery which will be in operation by November 1st.

The buildings of the refineries are absolutely fire-proof, and are very extensive. The plant and machinery are very extensive, and consequently cost a large amount of money to erect. The estimated cost of a 600 ton per day plant is from $550,00 to $600,000.

The refineries are all doing well, with the exception of one—in a fruit growing district. The fruit crop was poor one year, and the farmers took up sugar beet raising, but the next year was a fruit year, and the prices were good, and having their fruit trees to look after they stopped raising beets. However, the shutting down of this refinery is only looked upon as being temporary.

We recommend that the town use their utmost endeavours to have a beet sugar refinery located in or near Berlin.

Does Not Disappoint.

The New Discovery for Catarrh Seems to Possess Remarkable Merit.

A new catarrh cure has recently appeared, which so far as tested, has been remarkably successful in curing all forms of catarrh, whether in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, or in stomach and liver.

The remedy is in tablet form, pleasant and convenient to take, and no special secrecy is maintained as to what it contains, the tablet being a scientific combination of Blood root, Red gum, and other similar valuable and harmless antiseptics.

the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

Whether the catarrh is located in the nose, throat, bronchial tubes, or stomach, the tablets seem to act with equal success, removing the stuffy feeling in head and throat, clearing the mucous membrane of throat and trachea from catarrhal secretions, which cause the tickling, coughing, hawking and gagging so annoying to every catarrh sufferer.

Nasal catarrh generally leads to ulceration, in some cases to such an extent as to destroy the nose entirely and in many old cases of catarrh the bones of the head become diseased. Nasal catarrh gradually extends to the throat and bronchial tubes and very often to the stomach, causing that very obstinate trouble, catarrh of the stomach.

Catarrh is a systemic poison, inherent in the blood, and local washes, douches, salves, inhalers and sprays have no effect on the real cause of the disease. An internal remedy, which acts upon the blood is the only rational treatment and Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the safest of all internal remedies, as well as the most convenient and satisfactory from a medical standpoint.

Dr. Eaton recently stated that he had successfully used Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in old chronic cases, even where ulceration had extended so far as to destroy the septum of the nose. He says, "I am pleasantly surprised almost every day by the excellent results from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. It is remarkable how effectually they remove the excessive secretion and bring about a healthy condition of the mucous membranes of the nose, throat and stomach.

All druggists sell complete treatment of the Tablets at 50 cents and a little book, giving the symptoms and causes of the various forms of catarrh, will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

WANT COMPETITION WITH C.P.R.

Two Hundred and Seven Farmers Want C.N.R. Extended.

Winnipeg, Jan. 11.—A deputation, representing the farmers of the Boissevain district, waited upon the Government to urge the extension of the C. N. R. from Minto or some other point on its line to Boissevain, so as to give competition with the C. P. R. The representatives, Mr. Miller and A. S. Barton, presented a petition signed by 207 farmers, and pointed out that the farmers of that district were very anxious to have the C. N. R. extended. In reply the Ministers promised to take the views of the deputation into very careful consideration. Subsequently, the deputation waited upon D. B. Hanna, of the C. N. R.

When the Bowels Are Constipated

The character of food, sedentary habits, and neglecting the calls of nature, may be set down as the usual causes of constipation. The accompanying derangements are indigestion, stomach trouble, liver and kidney diseases, and an endless amount of pain and suffering. Poisonous impurities when left in the blood, are bound to find lodgment in some weak spot of the system and the result is disease of the most deadly nature.

It is a serious smatter to neglect constipation. You may do so for a time, only to find that your health has been undermined by bodily derangements of the most deadly kind. You should have a movement of the bowels every day. To accomplish this, avoid concentrated foods, use vegetables and fruits freely, and take one of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills before retiring, two or three times a week, or oftener, if required.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are not an ordinary cathartic. They have a specific and combined action on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and consequently cure constipation, and the accompanying derangements, thoroughly and well, by removing the causes. For the information of those who are not yet familiar with the peculiar merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, we might add that they are purely vegetable in composition, pleasant and natural in action, and remarkably prompt and far-reaching in effect, even in the most serious and chronic cases of constipation, kidney and liver diseases.

Persons with weak kidneys are peculiarly susceptible to sudden change of temperature, and for this reason need to be on a sharp lookout during the fall and winter seasons, lest the cold settle on these filterin gorgans and bring on Bright's disease of the kidneys, by far the most painful and fatal of diseases. Scores and hundreds of people make a practice of keeping Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house, and take one whenever the symptoms of constipation and kidney derangements make themselves known. Scanty, highly-coloured urine, painful urination, and pain in the back and limbs are the danger signals of kidney disease.

Whatever else you may neglect, do Wnot overlook the importance of keeping the bowels, the kidneys, and liver in healthful, vigourous action. There is no surer way of avoiding serious disease and prolonging life, and the evidence of the people of this country seems to prove conclusively that by far the most effective treatment in bringing about these results is the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose; 25 cents a box; at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto. 6

QUEBEC VS. CANADA

Company With Provincial River Rights Upsets Ottawa.

HON. MR. TARTE'S AID INVOKED

The Minister of Public Works Will Deal With the Threatened Interference With Chaudiere Water Lessees at Once—If Hawkesbury Lumber Co. Succeeds Ottawa Will Be in Bad Case.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—The aid of the Minister of Public Works was invoked Thursday to avert a threatened interference with the Chaudiere water power, which would jeopardize Ottawa's fire protection, water supply, electric light and car service.

Last session a charter was granted to the Hawkesbury Lumber Company, Mr. W. C. Edwards, M.P., and others, under the name of the Ottawa and Hull Power Manufacturing Company, to utilize the water power appertaining to the Table Rock property on the Quebec side of the Chaudiere Falls. The company obtained its rights in the river from the Quebec Government.

Now it has issued a notice to the water power lessees on the Ottawa side of the river, that they must remove the northern portion of the dam, which was built to secure to the mills and other establishments on this side of the river a constant supply of water. The removal of this dam would leave them all practically without power, even the city pump house, it is claimed.

With this predicament threatening them, a delegation of the Chaudiere lessees, consisting of Mr. J. R. Booth, the Messrs. Bronson, Messrs. A. Lumsden, M.P.P., W. Y. Soper, and P. Whelan, accompanied by Mr. W. A. Belcourt, M.P., interviewed Hon. Mr. Tarte yesterday afternoon, fore the Minister dwelt upon the serious loss the Ottawa and Hull Company's demands, if complied with, would entail on the city. The dams, he pointed out, had been built by the Dominion Government, and any interference with them would not only deprive the lessees of the Chaudiere of the water power to which they are entitled under their leases from the Crown, but would, in fact, render these leases valueless.

Mr. Tarte promised to deal with the matter at once. The Minister will probably protect the interests of the lessees of the city, by seeing to it that in the meantime the company is not allowed to carry out its threat to remove the dam. Should the matter get into the courts, however, there would seem to be all the elements in it for protracted and expensive litigation.

New York, Jan. 11.—In a cable despatch received at Low's Tourist Agency in this city yesterday it was stated that Lord Francis Hope had his foot amputated on Wednesday, but that his condition was very satisfactory. I paid doctors a small fortune without any permanent results. This great remedy is a "priceless pearl" for women suffering as I did."

VICTORIA ELECTION

The Voting Will Take Place on January 28th Next.

BRITISH COLUMBIA POLITICS.

The Calling of the Legislature to Meet on Feb. 20 Causes Much Surprise—Speaker Booth Is Ill and Election of Another Speaker Will Test Government—Is the Government Pressing?

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—The election in Victoria, B. C., which has been rendered necessary by the unseating of Lieut.-Col. Prior, will take place on the 28th inst. The writ was issued yesterday.

BRITISH COLUMBIA POLITICS.

The Calling of the Legislature Causes Much Surprise.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 11.—Of more interest locally even than the announcement of the selection of a date for the Dominion bye-election is that contained in The Provincial Gazette, to the effect that the Local House is to meet for the transaction of public business on the 20th of next month. This was most unexpected, as several of the Ministers have stated that it would not assemble before March, and possibly May. The sudden decision to meet at an earlier date has occasioned considerable surprise, as it was not anticipated that the Legislature would meet until a much later date.

The vacancy in the representation of the City of Victoria has not been filled, and it is anticipated that the writ will be issued very shortly, as it is barely likely that the Government will meet the House with a vacancy in the ranks. Mr. Dunsmuir's difficulty lies in the fact that he cannot get a candidate who will undertake to oppose Mr. E. V. Bodwell, even with the prestige of Government support.

Reports from Salt Spring Island indicate that Speaker Booth, who has been very ill for a long time, is steadily failing and that there is no outlook for his being able to undertake his duties in the House. The necessity for the election of a Speaker from among the other members would still further weaken the Government, already in desperate straits. The Government has two vacant portfolios, and Mr. W. W. B. McInnes arrived from Nanaimo yesterday with the reputed object of being sworn in to that of mines. The Government's sudden decision to call the House together is attributed in some quarters to pressure by the Governor.

WIRELESS READY FOR CORONATION.

Marconi's Ambition Is to Report the King's Crowning.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—It is Mr. Marconi's ambition to have his wireless system working across the Atlantic in time to furnish reports of the coronation of the King on June 26. After doubling the electric power at his Cornwall station Mr. Marconi will return to Canada in two or three months, and get his station at Cape Breton in working order with this object in view. Mr. Marconi is to be the guest of honor at a banquet to be given by the Electrical Society in New York Monday evening.

One result of the inventor's visit to Ottawa will be the installation of Marconi instruments on one or two vessels of the Dominion fishery protection fleet, so that they may communicate with stations similarly equipped at several points on the coast, and also with other steamers using the wireless apparatus.

Will Return in June.

Montreal, Jan. 11.—Signor Marconi passed through here yesterday en route for England. He was dined at the St. James' Club and announced that capital had been offered both in Montreal and Ottawa to complete his enterprises. Besides the Cape Breton station, he says one will be erected on the shore of the Red Sea. Mr. Marconi also promises to return to Canada in June, and will read a paper before the Canadian Electrical Association at Quebec.

MISS BROWN'S FRIEND.

A Hamilton Young Lady who is Very Grateful for a Timely Word of Advice and Persuasion.

Dyspepsia is no reapertor of persons. Old and Young, rich and poor suffer alike with this dreadfully painful and distressing disease. There are few men and women to-day who do not suffer more or loss from Stomach Troubles in some form, and much of the worrying illness of children is due to the very same cause.

Miss Maggie Brown, of Hamilton, Ontario, suffered for six years with Dyspepsia, which combined with fearful headaches made her life one of much pain and misery.

The foremost physicians treated Miss Brown but were unable to do anything to relieve or cure her. They pronounced her case one of the very worst forms of Dyspepsia and absolutely incurable. She tried many medicines but without any benefit and she was constantly getting worse and worse till she had given up all hope of ever being anything but an invalid.

A friend of hers who had used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets with success persuaded her to try a treatment of this remedy, and to her surprise her headaches gradually disappeared and the other unpleasant dyspepsia pains as well.

In a short time she was completely restored to perfect health and strength and has not since then had any return of the headaches or other symptoms of Dyspepsia.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets used according to directions will do for any dyspeptic what they did for Miss Brown and her friend. They instantly relieve and permanently cure all Stomach troubles and Digestive irregularities.

The feature of Thursday's proceedings in the Provincial Board of Health at Toronto were the reading of the annual address by the chairman, Dr. Vaux, and the report of the Committee on Sewage by Dr. Bryce. Dr. Vaux's address stated that there are between four and five hundred cases of smallpox in the Province at present.

CHILDHOOD INDIGESTION

Indigestion is a trouble that is very common in infancy and early childhood, and unless prompt measures are taken to control it the result is often very serious. It prevents the proper growth of the child and weakens the constitution, so that he is unable to resist other diseases that are more dangerous. Fortunately, however, the trouble is one that is easily controlled. Proper food — not too much, but absolutely pure — plenty of fresh air, and Baby's Own Tablets, freely administered according to the directions, will soon put the sufferer right, and make both mother and child happy. Mrs. W. E. Bassam, of Kingston, Ont., is one of the many mothers who has proved the truth of this statement. She says: "When my little girl was about three months old, she had indigestion very badly. She was vomiting and had diarrhoea almost constantly. She was very thin, weighed only four pounds and although she had a ravenous appetite he food did her no good whatever. I had tried several medicines but they did not help her. Then I heard of Baby's Own Tablets, and procured a box. After giving her the tablets for a few days, the vomiting and diarrhoea ceased, she began to improve at once, and grew plump and fat. I always give her the Tablets now when she is ailing and the result is always good. Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I have ever used for a child."

These tablets will promptly cure all the minor ailments of little ones, such as sour stomach, indigestion, colic, constipation, allay the irritation accompanying the cutting of teeth, etc. They are good for children of all ages, and crushed to a powder or dissolved in water can be given with absolute safety to the youngest infant. If you cannot obtain Baby's Own Tablets at your druggists, they will be sent post paid at 25 cents a box by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A GUARANTEE—"I hereby certify that I have made a careful chemical analysis of Baby's Own Tablets, which I personally purchased in a drug store in Montreal. My analysis has proved that the Tablets contain absolutely no opiate or narcotic; that they can be given with perfect safety to the youngest infant; that they are a safe and efficient medicine for the troubles they are indicated to relieve and cure."

Wait for It—Watch for It.

Everyone likes to think of Peterborough as progressive — reaching out for advantages for the common weal of her citizens. The enterprise of Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co in securing the stock of the T. O. Rush Company yesterday at a price that permits of a special benefit to our citizens, was a lucky stroke of business for the town. The stock is practically new, the styles are this winter's, and the class of goods most dependable. Being so advantageously purchased, the clearing prices will be recognized as wonderfully low. In a few days Messrs. LeBrun & Co. will announce the date for commencing a rapid wholesale clearance of this stock at unprecedented bargains.

THE MISSION BAND.

Mrs. Laing Presented With a Life Membership Ticket.

The St. Andrew's Mission Band held their first regular meeting of the New Year on Thursday evening last. Miss Edmison, President for the present year, occupied the chair. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Laing, who has been President for the past three years, was presented with a Life Membership Certificate to the Women's Foreign Mission Society, and the following address, which was read by Miss A. VanEvery, Miss E. Tully presented the certificate.

To Mrs. Geo. Laing, Peterborough;

We, the members of St. Andrew's church Mission Band desire to take this opportunity on your retiring from the Presidency of the Band, of expressing our heartiest appreciation of your services to the work in which we are interested. The past three years have been years of blessing and we are pleased to know that this has been largely due to your untiring zeal and practical sympathy for us in the work. As a token of our esteem and gratitude we take very great pleasure in presenting you with this certificate of a Life Membership in the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, whose motto—"The World for Christ"—was adopted when the first certificate was presented in 1883.

We wish you a very happy New Year. Signed on behalf of the Band,—

MISS EDMISON, Pres.,
MISS J. ALLAN, Sec.

Peterborough, Jan. 9th, 1902.

Mrs. Laing, greatly taken by surprise, made a suitable reply, after which refreshments were served by the young ladies.

SPOKE ON "HEAVEN."

Parents Should Seek Early the Salvation of the Children.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion on Sunday morning at 8.30. The special services will be continued both morning and evening by Rev. Mr. Murphy, who will also address a men's meeting at 4.15 p.m.

Another large congregation heard Mr. Murphy speak on "Heaven" last night. A person going to a strange country would naturally try to find out all he could about it before going. So with us—we desired to know what is revealed about Heaven, but only He who has been there and come to us can tell us truly. That is Jesus Christ. "No man has ascended up to heaven, but He that came down from Heaven, even the Son of Man, which is in Heaven. The speaker showed from scripture that it is material as created, that it is inhabited by great hosts, and we shall know and be known there. The object of the mission services is that we may learn to rejoice in knowing that our name is written there, or if it is not, that we may seek to have it written. In a forcible address the speaker urged upon fathers and mothers to seek early the salvation of their children and all to learn of the great love of God for all men.

There will be no service this evening, but the mission will continue all next week.

PIANO FOR THE HALL.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. Have Decided to Make a Move.

There was a largely attended meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Sheriff Hall presiding.

It was decided to purchase a piano for the hall, and a committee was appointed to take the matter in hand.

Mr. John Manning, President of the Stranger's Fellowship Club, addressed the meeting on the work of that branch, and on behalf of the club requested the ladies to establish the holding of stranger's teas once a month in the building. The ladies very cheerfully and unaminously agreed to undertake the work. Mrs. J. Coyle Brown, the efficient treasurer was elected to represent the auxiliary at the convention to be held in Berlin from Jan. 23rd to 26th. A committee was appointed to purchase linen, dishes and cutlery for the social department.

LINDSAY WON LAST NIGHT

After Having Played Over the Time Limit.

THE TRENT VALLEY LEAGUE.

Lakefield's Were the Winners—Millbrook's Waterloo—Other Sporting Notes.

The Peterborough senior hockey team went to Lindsay last night to play their first match in the Intermediate Series of the O.H.A., and were defeated by a score of 5 to 4. The result, while rather disappointing to the local enthusiasts, need not discourage them, for it is the general belief that the Peterborough seven were slightly off colour, and that much better work may be expected of them. However, there is no getting over the fact that the Lindsay seven is the strongest that that town has put on the ice in some years, and that the game they put up last night was stubbornly fought throughout.

The attendance at the match was large, and great enthusiasm prevailed throughout. Mr. Rose, of Osgoode Hall, refereed, and gave every satisfaction. At half time the score was a tie, standing two all, and at the finish the score was 4 all. This necessitated an additional ten minutes play, during which time the Lindsayites scored again, making the result 5—4 in their favour.

The teams were as follows:

Lindsay—Forwards, A. S. Parkin, C. Dunnison, S. Shannon, E. Taylor; cover point, H. Callaghan; point, H. Burke; goal, W. Gross.

Peterborough — Forwards, F. Whitcroft, H. Morgan, R. Watt, G. Lynch; cover point, H. Armstrong; point, R. Glover; goal, J. Comstock.

The Intermediate players will practice Monday night.

LAKEFIELD WON.

The Lakeviews went to Lakefield last night to play their first match in the Trent Valley League series. The boys have not had very much practice but they succeeded in holding the score down to three goals against them. They speak enthusiastically of the manner in which they were treated. The score at half time was 2-0. The following were the teams:

Lakefield — Wagner, goal; Newbury, point; Marduff, cover point; Redpath, Grey, Strickland, Stabler (captain,) forwards.

Peterborough—McCoy, goal; Graham, point; Thornton, cover point; Meagher (captain,) McGrath, Taylor and Connor, forwards.

The Millbrook hockey team drove over to Keene last night to play their first game in the Trent Valley League schedule. They met a terrible Waterloo being defeated by a score of 23 to 2. President Cameron acted in the capacity of referee.

It is very difficult to get the leads and seconds to turn out this year. Last night skips had to lead in the absence of the regular first stone men on the rinks, as there was not a substitute lead or second stone present.

A serious objection to the present curling schedule exists in the fact that no provision is made in regard to making such arrangements that business men will not be called upon to play on Saturday evenings. On Saturday night seven players are called out, who, if they obey the summons, will have to neglect their business. Such matters as those should have received the consideration of the committee before a hard-and-fast schedule was drawn up.

The request that Rev. W. L. Armitage be named as the first rector of the church will be acceded to by His Lordship, who intimates that he will be pleased to be present for the induction ceremony on any date decided upon by the wardens.

THE WORST FORMS OF DEAFNESS CURED.

Dr. Gelle in his admirable treatise on "Diseases of the Ear," (Precis des Maladies de l'Oreille), says; "Are not the worst forms of ear diseases met with in patients whose ears discharged, and were then not properly attended to?" There is a widespread belief that the deafness and the discharge in such cases are incurable, because of the perforation of the ear drum, but the recent success of a special treatment given by the Drouet Institute in this class of ear diseases, is proof that this opinion is quite wrong. The last number of the "Journal for the Deaf" contains numerous instances of perfect cures in such cases, together with reference to a large number of cases of catarrhal deafness and nerve deafness, in which the hearing was completely restored by the Drouet Special Treatment.

A free copy of the "Journal for the Deaf" can be obtained by addressing the Secretary of the Drouet Institute, 72, Regent's Park-road, London, England. The Journal is always accompanied by a pathological report form which enables each patient to describe his case so clearly that the consulting surgeon can send accurate information of the treatment necessary to effect a cure.

Millinery Sale at Miss Delaney's.

We are leading our efforts to make the season a pleasant one by doing everything we can to cheapen the price of some useful article of Millinery and Dress requirements. Nowhere else in Peterborough can you enjoy the advantages in selection and price that is being offered at this store. Millinery and Mantles are going actually at half price. Gloves, Laces, Ornaments for the hair and other needs for evening wear in newest ideas. New and beautiful handkerchiefs, neckwear, collars, fascinators, infants wear and many other pleasing remembrances for holiday buyers. Miss Delaney.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

It appears that there was no intention on the part of the Mayor or Town Council, to hold a session the other evening on the "star-chamber" order, but that the meeting was summoned at very short notice, and the press was over-looked in the rush of getting word to the Aldermen, and ensuring their presence. It seemed odd at the time that an effort should be made to exclude the press in view of the courtesy and consideration always shown the reporters by the council last year, and it is a sincere pleasure to find that there is to be no rupture of the cordial relations which at present exist.

It appears that one of the reasons why the negotiations hang fire in relation to the union of the town and Ashburnham, exists in the fact that the town thinks the village would at once ask for the establishment of a sewerage system, if it became part of the municipality of Peterborough, and the town would thus be put to considerable expense. Well, what if the village did want sewers constructed? Would it not be better for the town to construct the system, than to wait until the village did it, and then have to assume the debt, when annexation took place? It only seems reasonable that Ashburnham should have sewers, and, doubtless, the village council will be considering the matter before long. Before the Ashburnhamites take up the question of sewer construction, let the town take the initiative of opening negotiations for union.

Already one of the difficulties has cropped up which the town will have to handle in connection with assuming the Waterworks. A few evenings since a letter appeared in the Examiner calling for the construction of a filter at the pump house. The Commissioners will have their hands full with just such knotty problems to handle.

And isn't it about time that the mode of construction of the Board of Waterworks Commissioners be decided upon? Quite a few names are being mentioned in connection with commissionships and the public is anxiously waiting to ascertain how many will be needed.

BENEFITS OF BIGNESS

Interesting Resume of Gough Bros.' Progressiveness.

THEIR REMARKABLE SUCCESS

Phenomenal Increases in Their Peterborough and Toronto Stores—Additional New Premises in Toronto—Reorganization of the Peterborough Business.

The logic of success is success. Business is practical from stem to stern. When a firm engages in trade, it has different avenues open to it through which profits may come. If the object be to make money for a short time only, they need not be over-careful in the methods employed. But when the object is to build a business that will endure there is but one road to success, viz., by winning the esteem and confidence of those they cater to.

From the first day that Messrs. R. P. Gough and A. J. Gough, of the now widely known clothing firm of Gough Bros., started business in Peterborough fifteen years ago, they have enjoyed a continuous, uninterrupted reign of success. Progress has marked their career as go-ahead clothing men of exceptional ability. The Gough Bros. of to-day are not the Gough Bros. of fifteen years ago—nor of ten, five or one year ago. Things move more quickly in 1902 than they did in 1887. Men think, much harder, and also act quicker than their fathers did. To-day Gough Bros. not only keep pace with the procession, but lead in their particular line. Their large stores in Peterborough and Toronto are typical of a new era in merchandising, and the continued success of their past efforts in spurring them on to future ones. They have no idea of letting "the mill run with the water that is passed."

Gough Bros.' Toronto Stores.

Scarcely four years ago Gough Bros. branched out in the city of Toronto. They had been planting fruitful branches one after another in some of the best towns of the Province, but their higher ideas and ambition was for a larger field. Just such a chance as they had been watching for occurred, and to-day in the busiest thoroughfare of Queen street, Gough Bros. are doing a clothing business second to none in Canada. Their trade has been phenomenally good from the start. It has gone on increasing from year to year, until they report up to the present time, it has actually doubled itself in four short years. This remarkable increase in business has grown under the guiding hand of Mr. R. P. Gough, who has devoted to it the greater part of his personal supervision—although the two brothers always keep in touch with each other in the conduct of their business interests.

Stimulated by their success on Queen street, Gough Bros. determined to acquire the Kingsley store on Yonge street, which would give them convenient connection with their Queen street store, and in the form of an L, with frontages on both streets. These eligible premises are now in process of transformation, and when completed will give them the largest retail clothing store in Canada. The alterations in the new premises are to be on an elaborate scale. The store will be fitted throughout with polished oak fittings, and modern and up-to-date silent salesmen and show cases will be installed, the contract for which has been placed with the Dominion Show Case Company. On entering, the first 80 feet of the south side will be devoted exclusively to gentlemen's outfittings, in all the most fashionable lines of the day. The next 60 feet will be fitted up for men's, youths', and boys' fine shoes; and the next 75 feet running out into Queen street, will be devoted to hats and caps. The remaining 210 feet will constitute the clothing department. Automatic parcel and cash carriers will run to and from stations in every section of the ground floor premises, and other up-to-date accessories introduced.

New Manufacturing Department.

Another important new adjunct to Gough Bros.' Toronto business will be the establishment of a manufacturing department for the production of fine clothing for men, youths and boys. This department will be under their own supervision, and conducted according to their own advanced ideas of garment-making. The second floor is to be utilized for this department, where ample accommodation is available for carrying on manufacturing on a very extensive scale. Special efforts will be focussed in the endeavour to turn out at the lowest possible cost the best garments that ingenuity and skill can devise. Gough Bros. have been watching the fluctuations of the public taste, and have foreseen the manner of clothing that the public are going to like. As their efforts have been successful in serving a very large clientale of customers with clothing in a retail way, it is fair to assume that similar success awaits them in the manufacture of their own-make of clothing.

Gough Bros. Peterborough Store.

Fifteen years of well directed management and studiously close attention to business, combined with lots of "sand" and push, have given to Gough Bros' Peterborough business an annual turn-over that a Wanamaker might well be proud of. It might have been presumed that the temporary residence in Toronto of one of the principals of the firm would have tended to diminish their local trade and retard their growth and progress in Peterborough. Not so, however. Gough Bros. have been building for permanence and endurance—and there is a good deal in a name. During the years previous to the acquisition of their Toronto gilt-edge asset, the firm had rapidly grown out of their knickerbockers to become one of the most prosperous full-dress modern retail organizations in Canada. And the record shows that for the four years past, the mammoth Peterborough store—notwithstanding Mr. R. P. Gough's enforced absence in Toronto — has not only lived up to the aggressive British motto of "What we have we'll hold," but will close their present year, by the end of February, with the highest water mark in their history. It might seem invidious to bestow credit on any one particular member of the firm for such gratifying results, when they are undoubtedly due to the combined brains of both gentlemen. Yet it cannot be ignored that to the presiding personality of Mr. Gus. Gough and his shrewd management, the Peterborough store owes much of its prosperity to-day.

The very important undertakings outlined above in connection with Gough Bros.' Toronto business, will necessarily involve important changes in the Peterborough store. With an additional store to be looked after in Toronto, and the management of a large manufactory to be assumed, increased supervision and skilful guidance is indispensible. It has been arranged that Mr. Gus Gough is to assume this responsibility, so that a reorganization of the Peterborough store takes place at once. This may look like "robbing Peter to pay Paul," but a forecast of the future viewed from similar changes of the past, will put all doubts on this question beyond a peradventure. Two trusted employees of the local firm, Messrs. Jas. A. Tully, and Wm. S. Merrill, who have been in the employ of the firm continuously for the past fifteen years, will guide the helm of affairs during the personal absence of the principals of the firm in Toronto, who will continue to be in constant touch with the Peterborough branch as heretofore. The same progressive and aggressive policy of Gough Bros. will be maintained, and the periodical visits of one or other to Peterborough will ensure that their important interests here will be properly safeguarded.

Messrs. Tully and Merrill assume the management about the first of March, and their friends will be glad to know that the success of their management depends largely upon the encouragement and patronage they receive from them. It may be stated without reservation, that, although not members of the firm, Messrs. Tully and Merrill will participate in the net profits of the Peterborough branch.

The best prophet of the future is the past. Gough Bros. have confidence in the people of Peterborough, and the wonderful growth of their business is evidence that the people of Peterborough have confidence in them.

STONY LAKE INCIDENT

That Occurred Last Summer and Which has Come to Light.

The Examiner is in receipt of a poem that may be of interest to townspeople and others who, during the summer time, visit Stony Lake. The poem has for its subject the adventures of three young ladies who from all appearances are residents of Peterborough. On the manuscript is a pencil picture of the surroundings where the incident is alleged to have taken place, as well as an attempt at a photo-engravure of the three young ladies—Gentle Faith, Modest Hope and Charming Charity. These three young ladies, no doubt from the over-taxed condition of the summer cottage, took up their abode for several weeks in the boat house, which made an ideal sleeping spot save occasionally for the mosquitos. On the night of the "Moonlight Adventure" the three girls, so the story goes, thought that they could gain more comfort by leaving the boat house and lying at the top of the gangway that leads from the door of the said boat house to the water's edge. The remainder of the story is told in the appended few verses, which, though rather rustic in style, conveys to the reader to some extent the excitement that prevailed:

The summer sun had disappeared,
The evening, too, had sped—
The campers tired, had sought their homes,
The crowd had gone to bed.

'Twas past the time when decent folks,
To their cosy bunks should go;
The froggies long had said good-night,
The soft winds whispered low.

But on that island shore there stood,
A boat house and a slide,
And in that island house there lived
Three Quaker ladies, quiet.

But on this night, so calm and bright,
The flies still held such sway
That those Quaker ladies spent their time
In batting them away.

The bay reflected shadows weird,
The evening breeze was slack,
The sweat stood out in dew-drops, long,
Or trickled down the back.

They could not sleep or even rest,
Though greatly they had tried,
When one and three they cried in glee,
We'll go out on the slide.

They robed themselves in night gowns white,
Oh, for those nights so free,
And o'er this draped a blanket,
They were a modest three.

With pillows large they made their way,
To comfort on the slide;
They chose their spots, they made their beds,
They lay down side by side.

The night was still, save for the owls,
The bats and polly-wogs,
And the sonorous call of the lumberman,
For the bay was full of logs.

The moon continued brightening,
The stars did twinkle too,
When round the slide of the "mixed retreat,"
There came a green canoe.

On it came with mad career,
Until it reached the slide—
Where the gentle Quaker ladies, three,
Lay sleeping side by side.

Without an invitation,
The inmates of that scow,
Came crawling out upon that slide
With neither scrape or bow.

Their boat they quickly tethered;
A quick march up the slide;
The daring damsels wakened up,
Then tried their face to hide.

Then each one grabbed a pillow:
Took refuge quickly too,
In the little island boat house,
Up from the green canoe.

THE SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The report of the opening of the last session of the present Provincial Parliament has appeared in the Examiner, and, apart from its importance as the last session preceding an appeal, it derives importance from the work indicated in the Speech from the Throne, which shows that the policy of the Government is still a policy of progress. On Thursday the address in reply to the speech was moved in a clever speech by Mr. Gross, of Welland, and seconded by Col. Mutrie, South Wellington. By arrangement, the debate on the address was confined to the speeches of the mover and seconder, and the speeches of the leaders of the Government and Opposition, respectively. It is surprising, or not surprising, according to the way in which it is viewed, that Mr. Whitney, the leader of the Opposition, consented to this arrangement. If he were a shrewd leader, and had faith in the strength of the Opposition cause, one would have thought that he would have insisted upon the fullest discussion, which might have permitted himself and his followers to put themselves on record, and to place before the country, through their speeches, the fullest presentation of the policy of the Opposition, and of what the Opposition had to offer the country to off-set and weaken the strong claims of the Government. By consenting to the adoption of the address without protracted debate, Mr. Whitney showed his lack of faith in his cause, and the weakness of the latter was shown by his attempt at criticism. His speech in answer to Messrs. Gross and Mutrie, and in criticism of the Government programme, might be called, without any sort of gratuitous disparagement, one of the weakest efforts ever made by the leader of the Opposition. It was a succession of petty carpings, little relevant to the occasion. Instead of discussing the items of the speech to any extent, Mr. Whitney took up the platform of Hon. Mr. Ross, as laid down by the latter when he took office, and attempted to show by instancing the paragraphs in reference to the offer of a remount station, and nickel steel, to the British Government, cold storage and drainage, that not one of these had been carried out, and he made such a weak effort that, when Premier Ross arose to reply he literally made a show of the Opposition leader's attempts. Mr. Ross showed that his representations to the British Government respecting purchase of remounts in Ontario had brought about the visit of Colonel Dent, who had purchased for the army 8000 horses in Canada, a large proportion of which came from Ontario, and over a million dollars had been spent in this country on these purchases. The British Government had not accepted Premier Ross' offer of nickel steel, but the Government's treatment of this question had brought about development of our nickel deposits, and there was now large capital and 1,800 men employed in the nickel industry where, a few years ago, none of either to speak of was employed. Mr. Whitney had declared that no action had resulted from the drainage policy of the premier. He was so ignorant on this subject that he did not know that a law dealing with this subject had been passed two years ago. Mr. Whitney had denounced the financial commission. Yet the commission showed that we had a large surplus of assets and a big cash surplus, which latter would have been wiped out if the Opposition's opposition to succession duties and the supplementing revenue bill had prevailed. This provided means to devote a million to good roads and assist the beet root sugar industry. And while we had a surplus of $800,000 in cash last year, the financial statement, Mr. Ross declared, amidst hearty Government applause, when it was brought down in a few days, would show a surplus this year of about a million and a half, nearly double the cash surplus of last year. The only time Mr. Whitney showed any of his old time vituperative energy was when he slid into the well-worn groove of the West Elgin and North Waterloo election irregularities. Mr. Ross effectively replied to these oratorical hysterics by showing that no Government had ever gone so far in punishing corrupt practices as the Liberal Government of Ontario had done in those very cases. Mr. Whitney's ravings were hollow, especially in view of the manner in which he winked at corruption in his own party. The people had taken the measure of his insincerity and took no stock in his laboued denunciations. Mr. Whitney and his followers had rehashed these things from every platform, but the people had no faith in them as the results of numerous bye-elections, including several elections by acclamation and several seats won from the Opposition showed. Mr. Whitney and his lieutenants had told these fairy tales in South Huron from every stump, but the people had not believed them, for in the recent bye-election there, the majority of the victorious Government candidate was increased from a few figures to nearly 300. If the opening essay of the Opposition at criticism, furnishes any indication, the Government's programme of useful legislation will not meet with any formidable opposition and the session as a debating session promises to be a very tame one. In the opening round the Government scored a very decided success, and one that will likely be retained throughout the session and extended into the Provincial elections that will follow it.

Madame Dulcina Magnan.

CURED OF

Consumption

Mrs. Magnan, 795 Cadieux St., Montreal was cured of consumption by Powley's Liquified Ozone. Dr. A. Johnston, 194 Bleury St., Montreal, examined her and reports that she is entirely recovered. Her solemn declaration—that of her husband, Eugene Alphonse Magnan and Miss D. Magnan, together with the two reports of Dr. Johnston are published herewith. They represent in the most convincing manner the fact that Powley's Liquified Ozone cures pulmonary tuberculosis.

The case of Mrs. Magnan is one of the most remarkable in the history of the treatment of tuberculosis (consumption) by any means. There have been no more extraordinary recoveries made under the personal supervision of Koch, Virchow or any of the great European scientists who have given this disease life study. It proclaims the fact most eloquently that consumption, a hitherto rightly dreaded plague can be successfully treated by Powley's Liquified Ozone—the new preparation of oxygen in liquid form.

Read these declarations and reports the like has never before appeared.

MRS. MAGNAN'S SOLEMN DECLARATION.

DOMINION OF CANADA, PROVINCE OF QUEBEC, CITY OF MONTREAL. } To-wit: In the matter of cure of MRS. EDOUARD ALPHONSE MAGNAN.

I, DULCINA ALLARD, wife of Edouard Alphonse Magnan, residing at 795 Cadieux St., in the city of Montreal, do solemnly declare that about two years ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and developed into a serious case of consumption and I was treated by two of the leading physicians of the city of Montreal, but without receiving any special benefit gradually growing worse.

That during my two years illness I was frequently confined to my bed and it was not expected that I would live, my case being considered hopeless,

That in the month of May last I procured a bottle of Powley's Liquified Ozone and continued taking the remedy till the middle of August, nineteen hundred and one,

That from the first use of the remedy my health began to improve and I gained in weight,

That the improvement continued until my health was entirely restored,

That in the month of August, 1901, I was examined by Dr. A. Johnston, of 194 Bleury St., Montreal, who pronounced my lungs perfectly sound and my general health—condition good.

That I believe that my restoration to health is entirely due to the use of Ozone—having during the period referred to taken no other medicine.

And, I made this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the "Canada Evidence Act, 1893."

DULCINA MAGNAN.

Declared before me at the City of Montreal in the Province of Quebec, this 10th day of September, A. D., 1901. {SEAL} R. A. DUNTON, Notary Public.

THE HUSBAND'S AFFIDAVIT.

I, EUGENE ALPHONSE MAGNAN, residing at 795 Cadieux St., in the city of Montreal, Commercial traveler, do solemnly swear that I am the husband of Dulcina Allard—residing with me at above address.

That my wife was seriously ill with consumption for a period of two years and her condition was such that the doctors in attendance held out no hopes of her recovery.

That in the spring of nineteen hundred and one my wife began the use of Powley's Liquified Ozone and used the remedy until the month of August last when she was entirely restored to health and when she was examined by a physician of high standing and pronounced to be free from disease

That I attribute my wife's cure and restoration to health entirely to the use of the Ozone she having used no other preparation.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the "Canada Evidence Act, 1893."

THE DAUGHTER'S STATEMENT.

DOMINION OF CANADA, PROVINCE OF QUEBEC, CITY OF MONTREAL. } To-wit: In the matter of cure of MRS EDOUARD ALPHONSE MAGNAN.

I, MISS DULCINA MAGNAN, residing at 795 Cadieux St., in the city of Montreal, do solemnly declare that I am the daughter of Edouard Alphonse Magnan and Dulcina Magnan, residing at 795 Cadieux St in the city of Montreal.

That a little over two years ago my mother contracted a severe cold which developed into a serious case of consumption from which the doctor in charge said she could not recover.

That in May, nineteen hundred and one, my mother began the use of Powley's Liquified Ozone which she continued to use regularly until the month of August following when she was pronounced cured. She is now attending to her household duties and is as strong and well as she ever was.

That I am of opinion that her recovery was entirely owing to the use of the Ozone.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the "Canada Evidence Act, 1893."

DR. JOHNSTON'S REPORTS.

THE OZONE CO., Ltd., August 9th, 1901.

On August 3rd, 1901, I was asked by the Ozone Company to examine Mrs. E. A. Magnan, residing at 795 Cadieux St., Montreal, and report on her condition. She gave me the following history: Age 40 Married Had nine children. Never had any serious illness, strong and healthy until two years ago At that time she took a bad cough with profuse greenish expectoration, followed in a short time by a hemorrhage, and felt very weak and sick, so much so that from last November until May she was in bed most of the time, had copious night sweats and a disgust for any kind of food, and could do very little work. In May, 1901, she began taking Ozone, and immediately her appetite began to return and she felt better. The expectoration became less and in a short time she was able to resume work. On examination, I find heart normal and no lesions that I could find in the lungs. She says at present she has a good appetite and can eat as much as her husband; bowels regular, sleeps well; face cheerful, eyes bright; cough and expectoration almost gone, and she is at present attending to her household duties. She says that Ozone has put her on her feet again. (Signed) A. JOHNSTON, M. D., Montreal, P. Q.

Further Report from Dr. Johnston, re Mrs. E. A. Magnan.

THE OZONE Co., Ltd., Montreal, P. Q.

Gentlemen: According to your request, on August 14, I again visited Mrs. E. A. Magnan, 795 Cadieux St., I found no trouble in her lungs and she looks well and strong. She feels well and attributes her present good health to taking the Ozone, and I have no doubt she is right. She has gained in flesh since I last saw her. (Signed) A. JOHNSTON, 194 Bleury St., Montreal, P. Q.

You can't want any stronger proof than these sworn statements that Powley's Liquified Ozone does cure Consumption. It does it in a simple way, too. Nature's way: the best way. No compound of drugs, no alcohol, simply oxygen in liquid stable form prepared only by us, requiring at least twelve days to turn out the finished product. Nothing else like it, truly a medical wonder.

If you are troubled with pains in the chest, slight cough, catarrh of the nose or throat, hoarseness in the morning, loss of appetite or tired feeling, look out, take them in time and save yourself years of suffering and possibly death.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is blood food, destroys the germs of consumption, stops their attack and heals the broken lung tissues. Cures you, not for a little time, but for all time. It doesn't cost much to prove it; better try it. Ozone is life.

BOOKLET IS FREE.

Let us send you special booklet, "The Great White Plague." It gives the causes of Consumption and the oxygen method of cure by Powley's Liquified Ozone substantiated by the sworn declarations of Wm. McKay of Sutton, and Mrs. Julia Sheffield, of Zephyr P. O., Ontario, who were, like Mrs. Magnan, cured after they had been given up to die. If you have Consumption, or have not, but know some one who has write to us and we'll send one to any address absolutely free.

The Laugh Is Still Coming.

A friend from a western city of Ontario sends the following: "A machinist in our shop got sick and hard up, and we took up a subscription for him, and I was appointed to collect. There was one old fellow in the shop that no one ever went near, for they all called him 'Crabby,' and he had his tools all pasted over with Scripture texts, so we missed him, and most of us gave a quarter, and some fifty cents. When I handed the committee the money one of the chaps said, "Hasn't old T—— given anything?' and the question was answered by a laugh of derision. But for fun it was agreed that I would go and ask the old man, and the rest of the crowd stood by, to give him the laugh. Well, he handed out a dollar, and said he was glad to help. I don't know what I did or what I said, but I turned and left the old fellow with a face that was scarlet.

"The laugh is still coming."

REVEALED IN SLEEP.

CRIMES CONFESSED BY THEIR PERPETRATORS WHILE SLUMBERING.

Dramatic Episode That Followed a Wedding in a Prussian Town—A Dose That Brought Retribution. Overheard in a Lodging House.

Criminologists say that the greatest terror that afflicts that fraction of humanity suffering from an uneasy conscience is not dread of the police by any means nor awe of any other acknowledged enemy of law defiers.

What the criminal dreads is sleep.

Sleep is, it appears, the friend of the righteous only. To men with the knowledge of dark deeds stored within them sleep is the most treacherous of foes. The countless poems that have been written in praise of it very naturally appear as so much cold blooded mockery to such as are in hourly dread of betraying themselves under its influence.

An untold number of crimes have been confessed by their perpetrators during sleep. Is it any wonder that those conscious of irregularities of conduct prefer to remain awake?

Perhaps the entire history of crime contains no more dramatic episode than that which occurred some years since in a Prussian township. The husband of a certain attractive young woman had vanished in a mysterious manner from his home, and all attempts to trace his whereabouts failed completely. Meantime a neighbor called Schmidt, who had been devoted to the young wife before her marriage, reappeared on the scene and paid her assiduous attentions. So successfully did he press his suit that within a year of his rival's disappearance the woman consented to marry him, and they were united at the parish church.

Now comes the extraordinary sequel. On the second night following the wedding the newly made bride lay awake, unable to slumber. Presently there came a gurgling cry from the sleeping form beside her, and a moment later the man in a loud voice proclaimed that he had killed the missing husband and had buried the body in a neighboring wood. This statement the sleeper reiterated several times, naming the exact spot where the corpse lay interred.

The wife, well nigh mad with terror, drank in the confession and next morning carried the remarkable story to the police bureau. The place named by the sleeper was searched, and, sure enough, the body of the vanished man was discovered there. The murderer was at once arrested and brought to his trial, where he was found guilty and sentenced to death. He went to the scaffold cool and cynical, having been sent there by his own confession, made during sleep.

Somewhat similar in several details was the case of an Austrian peasant who murdered his friend in order that he might woo the latter's sweetheart, a girl of unusual beauty. All attempts to trace the missing man had failed, and doubtless the affair would have remained a mystery to the end of time had not the criminal signed his own death warrant by confessing the crime while dozing by the fire in a friend's cottage. Bit by bit he described the incidents of the terrible affair, stating that he had destroyed his victim's body by fire.

Horrified by this awful confession, the friend immediately went out and sought a magistrate, to whom he confided the singular record. The man was then arrested and his cottage searched. Some garments and a watch belonging to the deceased being found there, his guilt was considered half proved, and when placed in the dock he made a full confession, repeating, in fact, what he had said during his slumber. The scoundrel was sentenced to death and was eventually executed amid the execrations of the populace who had assembled to witness his end.

Less tragic in tone, but sufficiently interesting, was the case which occurred, not so very long ago, in an American sleeping car, when a detective, who chanced to be occupying a certain lower berth, heard the sleeper above him burst forth into a long winded confession regarding several jewel robberies wherein he had taken part. Much impressed by the slumbering fellow's words, the official kept an eye on him. Further inquiries proved that the confession had been an exact record of what had taken place.

Many years ago a Liverpool common lodging house was the scene of a sleeping criminal's confession. The room was occupied by himself and one other, a young sailor, who was on his "beam ends" and well nigh penniless for want of a ship. While the sailor was lying awake, contemplating his dire position, he suddenly heard a curious and ghastly laugh issue from his room companion's lips. The laugh was followed by a long and rambling description of a murder he had committed in a suburb of Liverpool, and so horrible were the details uttered by the unconscious tongue that the sailor came near to fainting with terror.

However, he mastered his emotion and, having assumed some clothing, crept down stairs and informed the landlord of what had occurred. The latter at once fetched a policeman, who accompanied him to the bedroom, where the constable immediately recognized the sleeper as the man "wanted" for the crime in question. He was, of course, arrested, and at the trial which followed he was found guilty and sentenced to death. As for the sailor, he came in for a considerable reward from the murdered man's relatives.

A Russian woman while fast asleep in the hut of a shepherd, where she had taken refuge from a heavy snowstorm, confessed to having killed no fewer than seven infants intrusted to her charge. The shepherd's wife overheard the terrible admission and caused the woman to be detained. Investigations proved beyond all doubt that her unconscious lips had spoken absolute truth, and she was sent to penal servitude for life.

Perhaps one of the most extraordinary cases of a crime revealed during sleep was that of a Polish peddler who had killed a merchant on the road to Odessa and robbed him of a huge sum. The confession was made while the criminal was dozing on a sledge and was, of course, overheard by the driver thereof. The barrenness of the snowclad landscape and the speed at which the sled was traveling added to the weirdness of the confession, and as a result of the same and of investigations which followed it the peddler was convicted and condemned to lifelong imprisonment.

EVOLUTION OF THE SWORD.

The Five Stages Through Which This Weapon Has Passed.

While peering around one of the many old curiosity shops down on Fourth avenue, where are to be found all sorts of interesting curious, I saw a row of five swords hanging on the wall differing in shape and workmanship and apparently placed where they were for some special purpose.

"See," said the proprietor, who showed pleasure because I seemed interested, "that tells the story of the stages that the sword has passed through in its evolution. I divide it into five distinct parts. See that first one on the left, shorter than the others and broader at the point. It came from a ruin in southern Italy and represents unadulterated barbarism. It was for sanguinary use and tells us of the epoch of carnage. It was hand to hand and throat cutting in those days.

"Then comes a longer and more elaborate sword that was carried in the days when legends were born and is credited with feats that it never performed. It was called 'good sword' and 'trusty sword' in those days, and, although it did some good work, it was more of a badge telling of the wonderful things that the owner might do if occasion should require.

"Here is the third one, with its handle, in the form of a cross, that tells us of the feudal time and of the piety that prompted the crusades and the killing of the Saracens for a sentiment.

"Then we have this more slender blade that tells us of the days of fencing and of when gentlemen all carried swords as a mark of station and for offensive and defensive purposes when occasion required.

"And here is the last chapter in the eventful history, showing a sword that is a mere military accouterment, without any idea of being used for any purpose other than a badge of rank. Its glory has departed, its end has come, for it is now being discarded even as an emblem of military authority and will be known only in song and story."

EPILEPSY CUREABLE.

A Disease That Has Long Baffled Medical Skill.

Mr. M. A. Gauthier of Buckingham, Gives his Experience for the Benefit of Other Sufferers from This Terrible Malady.

From the Post, Buckingham, Que.

We veture to say that in our town of 3,000 inhabitants few business men are better known than Mr. M. A. Gauthier, the young and hustling butcher, of Main street. He wasn't however as energetic or as hustling a couple of years ago as he is to-day and for a very good reason — he wasn't well. Having gone into business ere reaching his majority his desire to succeed was such that no heed was paid to keeping the body in the state of health necessary to stand a strain, and in consequence of the extra demands upon the system it became run down to such an extent that epilepsy or falling sickness resulted, and these lapses into unconsciousness becoming alarmingly frequent, he consulted physicians and took some remedies, but without beneficial results. Finally seeing Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised as a cure for falling sickness he decided to give them a trial. As to the result the Post cannot do better than give Mr. Gauthier's story in his own words: "Yes," said Mr. Gauthier, "for nearly four years I suffered from epilepsy or falling fits, which took me without warning and usually in most inconvenient places. I am just twenty-four years of age, and I think I started business too young and the fear of failing spurred me to greater efforts perhaps than was good for my constitution, and the consequence was that I became subject to those attacks, which came without any warning whatsoever, leaving me terribly sick and weak after they passed. I got to dread their recurrence very much. I consulted many doctors and took their remedies to no purpose, the fits still troubled me. I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised and determined to try them. I did so, and the medicine helped me so much that I got more and kept on taking them until to-day I am as well, yes, better than I ever was, and am not troubled at all by epilepsy or the fear of the fits seizing me again. Thinking there may be others similarly afflicted I give my story to the Post; it may perhaps lead them to give this great medicine a trial."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a positive cure for all diseases arising from impoverished blood, or a weak or shattered condition of the nervous system. Every dose makes new, rich, red blood, and gives tone to the nerves, thus curing such diseases as epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, paralysis, rheumatism, sciatica, heart troubles, anaemia, etc. These pills are also a cure for the ailments that make the lives of so many women a constant misery. They are sold in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Can be procured from druggists, or will be sent by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cause For Kicking.

"I once treated a mule, and he didn't kick as much as you have," said the doctor to the obstreperous patient.

"Oh, well, the mule didn't have to pay your bill," said the patient quickly.—Yonkers Statesman.

WONDERS OF THE ALPS.

Their Most Impressive Features Neglected by Guidebooks.

Myriads of British and American tourists are year after year delighting themselves with the grandeurs of Alpine travel. Nothing in the world's history is more impressive than the story of the Alps. Ten or twelve million years ago, possibly far more, a long unseen line of weakness, a crack or fissure in the earth's crust, stretched away from France eastward hundreds of miles. On this line followed huge volcanic outbursts.

Next ensued a vast slow subsidence which went on through geologic epochs until where Mont Blanc now rears its summit 15,780 feet was a sea fringing an old continent. Large rivers emptied into it. Deposits of mud, sand, gravel, were laid one on another as the sinking went on until the layers became 50,000 feet, nearly ten miles, thick. Then at last commenced a great uplifting. The struggling subterranean forces raised a huge load.

For ages this went on until the rocks, crumbled, crushed, contorted, rose above the waters and continued to rise, forming lines of mountain chains and making Switzerland a tableland. Every hour since then rain and snow, river, glacier and avalanche have been sculpturing into peaks and carving into lakes and valleys that vast platform with its recent sedimentary covering and primeval granite core.

The result is a land of unequal grandeur. Find you this in the guidebooks? Not a word of it. Yet Professor Judd in his charming "Volcanoes" (Kegan Paul) told the tale years ago in half a dozen pages. Would not the traveler look on the Matterhorn, the Jungfrau, the stupendous Splugen, the massive Gothard, the Mer de Glace, the deep lake of Geneva, with quickened interest had he this story before him? And it can be told so easily, but 'tis not there.

A Story of Stevenson.

After one of Dumas' plays which he saw presented in Paris and in which a man employs an unworthy stratagem against a woman Robert Louis Stevenson wrote:

"I came forth from that performance in a breathing heat of indignation. On the day down the Francais stairs I trod on an old gentleman's toes, whereupon, with that suavity which so well becomes me, I turned about to apologise and on the instant, repenting me of that intention, stopped the apology midway and added something in French to this effect: 'No. You are one of the persons who have been applauding that piece. I retract my apology.'

"Said the old Frenchman, laying his hand on my arm and with a smile that was truly heavenly in temperance, irony, good nature and knowledge of the world, 'Ah, monsieur, vous etes bien jeune' (Ah, sir, you are very young)."

Suppressed the Play.

Vienna, Jan. 10.—A riotous anti-British demonstration was provoked yesterday at the town of Sal, in Hungary, on the occasion of the presentation of Wilson Barrett's play, "The Sign of the Cross." The police were forced to stop the play and clear the building. The papers heartily approve of the demonstration.

Crew Picked Up.

Atlantic City, N.J., Jan. 10.—The crew of nine men of the fishing steamer Sparta, which disappeared off this port on Thursday, Jan. 2, were landed at Algierrs, La., yesterday morning. The men were picked up by a passing steamer. The Sparta sank.

Burned to Death.

Halifax, Jan. 10.—Mary Sheridan, aged 4 years, was fatally burned yesterday. While passing a fire in her home her clothing ignited, and she received burns which resulted in her death last night.

Loss of Flesh.

If you find yourself falling below normal weight there is danger. The use of fish oils can temporarily add fat, but will never build up healthy tissue. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts through the blood and nervous system and carries new life and energy to every nook and corner of the body. It regulates the various organs of the body, makes the appetite good, adds healthy flesh and replaces the tissues wasted by disease. Gradually and naturally this food cure restores colour to the cheeks, increases the weight of the body, and thoroughly overcomes disease.

Ten for Suicide, Two Otherwise.

Dutton, Jan. 10.—The jury in the Urlin case returned at 12.30 yesterday morning, ten agreeing that W. G. Urlin came to his death by bullet wounds fired by himself while insane, two agreeing that he came to his death by bullet wounds inflicted by himself or parties unknown

A Big Deficit.

Berlin, Jan. 10.—The Minister of Finance, Baron Von Rheinbaben, in the Lower House of the Diet, yesterday presented the budget for 1902, in which the ordinary estimates showed a deficit of 70,000,000 marks.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

Not Intimate Enough.

"We never remember the faces of those we love most dearly."

"That's so. To save me I can't tell what a hundred dollar bill looks like."

The Average.

"Pa, what's an average man?"

"One who thinks his employer's business would be run a good deal better if he could have more to say in the matter himself."

Lame Back In the Morning.

There are many people who find it a difficult task getting up in the morning, on account of a terrible pain and soreness across the small of the back that makes rising a painful and discomforting operation. Ever know what it was to have your back so bad that when you'd try to get out of bed you'd almost scream with the pain?

Can't do much of a day's work starting off with a back as bad as that—not fit for pleasure either. Well, all this backache and pain, this stiffness and soreness comes because the kidneys are clogged up, can't do their work properly, and your back has to suffer for it.

Just try a box or two of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. What a change you'll find coming over you! You'll be able to spring from your bed in the morning as lively as a cricket, and feel refreshed and fit for your daily duties.

TOUCHED THE SPOT.

Joseph Weeks, Beckwith Street, Smith's Falls, says: "My back was in a bad way. I was desperately lame, and there was a dull grinding pain over my kidneys. At times I had headaches, and often I was dizzy, particularly if I had been stooping. I tried first one thing, then another, but there was no permanent benefit till I began using Pitcher's Kidney Tablets. They go right to the spot and I found prompt relief. Nothing before ever did me as much good. I would suggest to anyone suffering in that way to try them."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail, THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

A HAPPY LIFE.

How happy is he born or taught
That serveth not another's will;
Whose armor is his strongest thought,
And simple truth his highest skill;

Whose passions not his masters are;
Whose soul is still prepared for death;
Not tied unto the world with care
Of prince's ear, or vulgar breath;

Who hath his life from rumors freed;
Whose conscience is his strong retreat;
Whose state can neither flatterers feed,
Nor ruin make oppressors great;

Who envies none whom chance doth raise
Or vice; who never understood
How deepest wounds are given with praise;
Nor rules of state, but rules of good;

Who God doth late and early pray
More of His grace than gifts to lend;
And entertains the harmless day
With a well-chosen book or friend.

This man is freed from servile bands
Of hope to rise, or fear to fall;
Lord of himself, though not of lands;
And having nothing, yet hath all.

—Sir Henry Wotten.

Armor Plated Whales.

The remarkable fact that the earliest known ancestor or primitive type of the modern whale bore heavy armor on its back in the form of strong, bony plates has recently been set forth by the German paleontologist Dr. O. Abel. The plates occasionally found associated with remains of the primeval form of whale, the extinct zeuglodon, have generally been regarded as having belonged to gigantic turtles, but Dr. Abel shows that they were part of the skeleton of the zeuglodon itself. They resemble in their character the impenetrable bony shell of the huge glyptodonts that formerly inhabited South America. The suggestion is made that at the time when they carried armor whales were amphibious creatures, living on the coasts and needing special protection from breakers and from sharks.

The Assassin's Day.

Almost everywhere within the range of Christendom Friday is a day of proverbial ill luck. The following list of assassinations tends to confirm this superstition:

William of Orange, July 10, 1584—a Friday; Henry, III. of France, Aug. 1, 1589—a Friday; Henry IV. of France, May 14, 1610—a Friday; Gustavus III. of Sweden, March 16, 1792—a Friday; Lincoln of United States, April 14, 1865—a Friday; McKinley of United States, Sept. 6, 1901—a Friday.

NEURALGIA

We suggest curing a pain in the face by taking Scott's Emulsion into the stomach. Usual way of treating neuralgia is to rub liniment on the outside. That's only a makeshift.

Scott's Emulsion is nerve food. Scott's Emulsion feeds and strengthens nerves.

For an obstinate neuralgia, for nervousness, for nerve weakness take Scott's Emulsion. It's nerve food and nerve strength.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

Jolly Jack Tar.

"Jolly" is the word generally associated with the jack tar. He is the picture of health, and the health bubbles over in mirth and merriment. When people are sick, especially when sickness attacks the lungs the doctor often advises a sea voyage. But in the large majority of cases the sea voyage is impossible.

It is to the men and women of the workaday world to whom sea voyages or change of climate are impossible, that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery comes as the greatest earthly boon. The effect of this medicine upon those whose lungs are "weak" is remarkable. Even where there is bronchitis, spitting of blood, emaciation, weakness, conditions which if unchecked or unskillfully treated lead to consumption, "Golden Medical Discovery" in ninety-eight cases out of a hundred works a perfect and permanent cure. It strengthens the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the body in all its parts is not merely fed but nourished. And it is by nourishment that Nature builds up the body to resist or throw off disease.

"I had a terrible cough something over a year ago and could find nothing to stop it, or even to do me a particle of good," writes J. M. Farr Esq., of Cameron, Screven Co., Ga. "I chanced to see an advertisement of yours, and forthwith bought a bottle of your invaluable 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Before I had taken half a bottle I was entirely well."

DISASTER AT BOBCAYGEON.

Bror. Smiff Struck by a Sleigh and Prevented From Writing Editorial.

The advent of the winter combination of small boy and hand-sleigh has been disastrous to the gentleman who writes our leading articles, whose name it is scarcely necessary to mention is Smiff, Adolphe of that ilk, and accounts for the absence of an article touchingly descriptive of all the bountiful gifts for which the nation should be grateful. Mr. Smiff was walking down street on Thanksgiving morning, meditating upon such an article, gathering inspiration and the divine afflatus as it were, and neglected to notice in his rear a small boy in a red toque, who was bending over a hand-sleigh and gathering impetus through a pair of little legs that were driving for all they were worth. The small boy evidently did not notice the fossilized antiquity in front, and the doctors state it is not likely he will ever know what happened. Smiff's realization of what struck him, only came to him dimly as we go to press hence the absence of an article expressive of a thankfulness, that Canada has every reason for feeling.—Bobcaygeon Independent.

Catarrh is a Germ Disease.

Science armed with the microscope, has established it a fact, and this conclusion renders obsolete the practice of treating Asthma, Catarrh and Bronchitis by stomach drugging, sprays, snuffs, etc. Such treatments are an utter failure because they cannot penetrate the delicate air cells of the lungs, or permeate the air passages of the nose and bronchial tubes where the germs of Catarrh have their stronghold. Catarrhozone is the only certain remedy. It is inhaled by the mouth and after spreading through all the respiratory organs is exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone kills the germs, heals the inflamed tissues, clears the head and throat in two minutes, and cures in a few hours. Nothing is so effective, pleasant and simple as Catarrhozone. Two months' treatment $1.00. Small size, 25c. Druggists or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Served Him Right.

The twelve-year-old son of an Irishman of Philadelphia was thought to be ill with smallpox, but after an examination the doctor assured the father that Jamesie had no symptoms of smallpox, but was suffering from an attack of German measles.

At that the old man grew very wroth and began to pour the vials of his wrath upon the head of Jamesie. "How often have Oi told yes to kape away from thim Dosch children?" he demanded. "See phwat yes got for playin' wid thim. Now Oi s'pose yes'll be taken to the German hospital, an' it'll serve yes roight, ye young bla'guard."

Are Kidneys fit to eat?

Many people enjoy stewed kidneys. Did they know that it is the kidneys that abstract all the soluble impurities from the blood they would not eat them. Merrill's System Tonic reconstructs kidney tissue, tones the kidneys, and by also acting on the bowels, makes a complete cure of all kidney complaints. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50c. Sold at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Otherwise.

"Well, my dear madam, and how are you today?"

"Oh, doctor, I have terrible pains all over my whole body, and it seems impossible to breathe. Of course I can't sleep at all, and I haven't a particle of appetite."

"But otherwise you feel all right, don't you?" asked the doctor.

Warned.

"Mamma, what would you do if that big vase in the parlor should get broken?" said Tommy.

"I should whip whoever did it," said Mrs. Banks, gazing severely at her little son.

"Well, then, you'd better begin to get up your muscle," said Tommy, "cos papa's broke it."

The Dominion's Motto.

A correspondent asks, "What is the motto of the Dominion of Canada? What are the mottoes of the various provinces in the Dominion?"

Canada has no particular motto, but, as a part of the British Empire, may be presumed to have adopted the Imperial motto, "Dieu et mon droit; Honi soit qui mal y pense," the English of which is "God and my right; Evil to him who evil thinks." The provinces are without mottoes, except Prince Edward Island, which adopts "Parva Sub ingenti." (The small suject to the Great.) All the provinces, however, have distinguishing armorial banners.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

CHAPTER XVII.

The English, as a people, really know very little about the extent of our Dominion, its climate or resources, but in truth we are just about as ignorant of the same in Britain. The Imperials were simply astonished to hear us talking about travelling twelve or eighteen hundred miles by rail after disembarking before we reached our own homes. They never heard of such a thing, and couldn't possibly comprehend the veracity of our assertions. Why, in this mighty Britain they could, in a few hours' time, travel from the extreme north of Scotland to the south of England and cross the channel to Ireland's Emerald Isle. It was a terrible rebuff to them, when dwelling upon the majesty and dimensions of their country, to tell them that we had fresh water lakes into which we could throw every square inch of Great Britain, without any apparent change in the water's level.

On Sunday, the 12th, we sighted Ascension Island, which we might say was our first glimpse of land since we embarked, although some of us, on the way, had seen Fargo Island, fifty miles away.

It was early in the morning when the island appeared on the horizon, as a mere blue cloud, but to my mind it was slightly drab, and I presume some of my esteemed readers would laugh at such a statement, and immediately pronounce me colour blind. Let that be as it may, the island was there, with not the slightest resemblance of land. The surface was uneven, like that of a mountain, and for hours it was watched by thousands of eyes from the decks, as it gradually assumed a definite form, like a silhouette.

The morning hours slipped rapidly away, one by one, till at last, just as the picturesque landscape was apparently but a cannon-shot from our bow on the port side, the bugle sounded "fall in," and we were obliged to march off on the upper deck for Divine service. We reluctantly obeyed, and it was a time of uneasiness and excitement to be sure. We gave little attention to our spiritual needs, and scarcely could restrain the impulse to forsake the service and watch the land. Everybody was in a state of nervous excitement, and wished the clergyman would pronounce the benediction and say amen. Nor was our Chaplain, Rev. Mr. Lane, blind to his surroundings. He knew full well we were more interested in the scene before us than in anything he had to say or the hereafter, and as we stood on tip-toe, stretching our necks to get a better view, he remarked, "Well, boys, I know you're more interested in that piece of land out there than in anything I can say to you, and I don't blame you." He was a grand man, with many noble traits of character, pre-eminently qualified for the position he held, and I don't suppose in all his ministerial career he ever uttered words containing more gospel truth.

The island was directly opposite our vessel then, apparently not more than a mile away, but in reality much further, and we had a most magnificent view. It is not very large, and its physical features conveyed the idea of mountains, sandy hills and almost utter desolation. Barren and all as it was, it's sunny slopes of reddish sand, with here and there some odd specimen's of stunted vegetation, appealed to our emotions, and we appreciated it because it was land. Only those who have had an experience like ours on the sea can fully realize the magnetic influence that land exerts upon the voyageur. There was no manifestations of life, except at the signal station, from which a number of marine messages were transmitted by means of pennants hoisted on a flag pole or something similar. Those on the island, if I remember corectly, used the heliograph, but our ship's officers were unable to decipher the message, so they substituted the pennants. We expected to hear some tidings from the front, but were disappointed. This possession might present a more favourable aspect if we had been nearer, but as it was none of us entertained a wish to disembark, unless out of pure idle curiosity, for the island looked like that upon which Robinson Crusoe was stranded, and lived a life of perfect seclusion. It was quite a contrast to the picturesque scenery that greeted our famished vision the following day at St. Helena, that little island of universal historic significance, when it loomed up on the horizon. Like its sister, Ascension, it presented a rough, mountainous appearance, but its hills and valleys were clad in a most beautiful mantle of green. Tropical vegetation was exuberant. Some of the ravines were very deep, with most precipitous cliffs. The shore offered some little obstruction to navigation, as evinced by the wild splashing of the sea over submerged sand bars and reefs.

It was when coming home to England on the S.S. Armenian that I had the pleasure of an hour's respite, affording a grand opportunity for gloating over the beauty of the famous little island. We, at that time, had the mail on board for Commandant Cronje and his Burghers, and the pay for the men of the war-ships "Niobe" and "Peirorous." It was a Sabbath morning, and the marines were parading to Divine service on the upper deck, when we cast anchor almost within speaking distance of the "Niobe." Their band was in attendance, and it was a rapturous melody that floated to us on the still wings of the balmy atmosphere. Our Purser had at one time served in some capacity on this vessel, and he signalled it by a sort of deaf and dumb alphabetic code, receiving another message from an officer on the deck, after the same fashion. In a few minutes a boat was lowered from the man-o'-war, and eight or twelve tidy marines, accompanied by an officer and his servant, I suppose, rowed toward our port. This was the neatest exhibition of paddling I ever saw. These men acted so in concert that the inventive genius of man couldn't devise a machine to propel that craft with the same ease, speed and grace. Every man leaned forward, assumed an upright posture, and inclined backward simultaneously, with scarcely a sound nor the faintest sign of excitement or confusion. When they came alongside our vessel every oar, as quick as a flash, was elevated to a vertical position, with one end resting on the bottom of the boat, and they retained this during the entire time the boat was at rest. The boys were barefooted, and presented a prime appearance in their jaunty uniforms, — snowy white trousers, blue jackets, with white facings, and round caps. The officer wore a Prince Albert coat with a double row of gold plated buttons down the front—not down the back to be sure—gold epaulets on his shoulders, and a white cap with gold band, and black peak embellished with gold, as was his sleeves and collar. Talk about conceit! There is more pure, unadulterated conceit in one squadron of the navy than in the whole British army. Their lieutenants rank as captains in the army, I understand, and their sergeants as lieutenants. Certainly, if we are to believe reports, a naval officer is much better educated than his comrade in the army. When the time came for the boat to return, the officer resumed his position in the stern, and the the word "Ready," whereupon the two forward men sharply struck their oars together, and every blade reached the water with a splash at exactly the same instant, and the barque swiftly glided away like a shadow on the bosom of the deep.

We had set sail again before the boys reached their vessel, for our captain was out of all patience waiting for the Purser's return, and when he did come back, the Captain enquired if he had any notion of remaining there.

St. Helena is full of interest to the historian, and most of us had sufficient knowledge of that subject to associate the great Napoleon with the verdant island. How humiliating it must have been for this ambitious warrior and statesman to endure such confinement. That little man, whose military prowess made nations tremble, and elevated himself from the obscurity of a mere Corsican boy to the most honourable and lucrative position in the French army must for the future be practically isolated from the world. Can we ever imagine his feelings of depression? Just pause for a moment's reflection. This man, who once guided the ship of state of a great nation, surrounded with the pomp and dazzling splendor of a throne, is now forced to spend the residue of his years in comparative obscurity and ignominy. He is only one example in an ever increasing category of self-made men, who, by an injudicious use of their talents, are hurled from positions of honour and integrity. That same ambition which gave him prestige and power, ultimately brought him dishonour and impotency.

The Milwaukee never slackened her speed a knot, but simply signalled, which was all hocus-pocus to me, and in a short time we were once more out of sight of land. The trip was gradually assuming more interest, and in a few days we had a right jolly time celebrating St. Patrick's day—the 17th of Ireland, as I've heard them sometimes say. It was the first and only holiday receiving general observance, and was celebrated in real Irish style—so far as we knew. The beginning of the jollification was marked by festivities and a toast, "St. Patrick," to which the boys all promptly responded in the usual manner. The staff had generously presented every man, so inclined, with a pint bottle of lager for this purpose, but some of us were obliged to do so on ginger beer or soda water, but then that is nothing—sure I have drank half-a-dozen toasts on an eggshellful of water. The "booze" stirred up the aesthetic emotions of the khaki soldiers, and after dinner a great number repaired to the upper deck, where a long role of interesting, ludicrous, and in some instances really ridiculous sports were successfully run off. The band was present, and filled the air with stirring notes, some of them suffering painful distortions before they escaped from the instruments which were, as a general thing, securely bound with ropes to keep the artists from blowing them to pieces. There was revolver competition, two-legged races, three-legged races, wheelbarrow races, egg races, etc. This was the only time the boys saw an egg on the trip.

A Cough Leads to a Coffin.

There's a striking similarity in these two words. Both are to be dreaded. Coffins cost many dollars whereas 25c. buys a bottle of Four T's and cures the cough in 24 hours, making the coffin unnecessary. Four T's is acknowledged by all to be the best lung remedy in existence. Large bottles 25c. at Ormond & Walsh's Drug Storte.

INSTANT DEATH

Of Mr. Harry Ketchum's Little Son Near Brickley on New Year's Day.

A fatal accident happened in Percy on New Year's Day when the seven year old son of Mr. Harry Ketchum, who resides near Brickley, lost his life. In the afternoon about four o'clock, Mr. Ketchum drove to a nearby field to get some wood and three of his children accompanied him for the drive. While returning, the sleigh upset, a stick of wood striking the one boy on the head and killing him. The sad event has cast a gloom over the home, and the family have the sympathy of all their friends.

A CHEERFUL OUTLOOK.

It is not enough that we were successful last year and years before—progress must mark our present work.

The Turnbull Store has long been the leading centre of the Dry Goods trade of Peterborough and vicinity. Last year was by far the largest and most successful in its history. Our aim is that 1902 will see us make greater advances than ever. The reorganization of this business is done with a determination to discount and double discount the past. To this end, we bespeak the continued co-operation of lady shoppers especially.

What makes Turnbull's so distinctly Turnbull's is the fact that your interests are considered on a par with our own. Prices and quality go hand in hand. What we want to emphasize and what deserves recognition is the fact that:—

THE TURNBULL COMPANY BUYS ONLY NEW AND RELIABLE GOODS TO SELL AT PRICES AS LOW OR LOWER THAN INFERIOR GOODS ELSEWHERE

How well this has been done in the past is a matter of history. Our annual turn-over is among the largest in the Midland district, enabling us to buy in very large quantities. The emphasis of this fact is our price concessions to customers. Added to this is our valuable connection with three large manufacturing establishments, enabling us to secure merchandise and prices unknown to smaller buyers. And every dollar's worth is bought for Spot Cash. Can there be any doubt that we are in a position to serve you better during 1902 than ever before?

The friends we have we mean to keep, and every new acquaintance we want to hold. A trial will convince you that we practice what we preach.

Hon. R. R. Dobell Meets With a Fatal Accident in England.

INQUEST HAS BEEN ORDERED.

Minister Without Portfolio in the Present Dominion Government—A Successful Career as a Lumber Merchant and Shipowner—His Political Record—Died Without Regaining Consciousness—Many Mourn.

London, Jan. 13.—Hon. Richard Reid Dobell, Minister without portfolio in the Canadian Cabinet, was thrown from his horse at Folkestone on Saturday and instantly killed.

The Dobells arrived at Folkestone a week ago and were joined by Major Hull, a son-in-law, and family.

Mr. Dobell and Mr. Hull rode together Saturday, attended by his groom. When they reached the foot of Shorncliffe Camp, Mr. Dobell's horse was startled by a motor car, and Mr. Dobell was thrown, falling heavily on his head. He was picked up unconscious. He never regained consciousness, and was practically killed by the concussion.

Mr. Dobell was carried to a local convalescent home, where he received medical attendance.

The family will remain at Folkestone for the inquest.

THE NEWS IN OTTAWA

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Cables Condolence to Mrs. Dobell.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—The news of Mr. Dobell's death was a shock to his colleagues of the Cabinet. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was notified of the sad occurrence by a cablegram from Mrs. Dobell. The Premier expressed his deep sense of bereavement at the taking off of his colleague from Quebec, and at once cabled his condolence to Mrs. Dobell.

Hon. R. W. Scott said the death of Mr. Dobell would be a great loss to the City of Quebec, of whose interests Mr. Dobell was always solicitious. It would be a loss also to the Dominion, the Secretary of State said, as Mr. Dobell was a citizen of public spirit and far reaching influence in business circles.

Mr. Dobell and Mrs. Dobell left Ottawa about two months ago to spend the winter with their two daughters in England, it being Mr. Dobell's intention to return to his firm in the spring. A particularly sad feature of the family bereavement is the fact that Mr. William Dobell, the eldest son of the late Mr. Dobell, had sailed on Saturday from New York a few hours before the news of his father's death. He will, therefore, not learn of the melancholy occurrence until he reaches England. Mr. William Dobell was in Ottawa Thursday, and at that time looked forward with happy expectation to the meeting of his parents in London.

Mrs. Dobell is the eldest daughter of the late Sir David Macpherson, K. C. M. G. The children are: William M. Dobell, who is a member of the firm of Dobell, Beckett & Co.; Major Charles Dobell, of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, who was in command of the regiment recently at the evacuation of Pekin; Mr. Alfred Dobell, law student, of Quebec; Mrs. Domipic Brown, whose husband's estate is in Ireland; and Mrs. Hull, wife of Capt. Amyot Hull, of the Imperial army. Both Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Hull reside in London, England.

Mr. Dobell's Career.

Richard Reid Dobell was the son of the late George Dobell of Liverpool, England, and was born in that city in 1837. He was educated at the Liverpool College and came to Canada in 1857 to embark in the lumber trade. Together with his brother-in-law, Thomas Beckett, he founded the firm of R. R. Dobell & Co., of Quebec, having a branch in London, Eng., and he had been at the head of the house throughout. He was elected to the presidency of the Quebec Board of Trade, and was subsequently appointed one of the Harbor Commissioners for that city. While occupying these positions he took an active part toward securing the construction of the Princess Louise dry docks at Quebec. He was likewise instrumental in promoting the adoption of the cold storage principle on transatlantic steamers, and had been since 1895 president of the Cold Storage Company of Quebec. He was a director of the Quebec Railway Bridge Company. Mr. Dobell was a delegate to the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire, held in London in 1802, and also to the conference held in London in 1896. In 1892 he went to Cape Town to speak there in behalf of the commercial interests of Canada. In 1894 he was elected president of the deep waterways convention in Toronto.

Mr. Dobell was known as the projector of the new Atlantic cable, which it is proposed to lay between Clew Bay, Ireland, to Greenly Island in the Straits of Belle Isle. He was an ardent Federationist, and was long identified with the Imperial Federation movement. In 1896 he assisted Lord Rosebery in founding the British Empire League, to the council of which he was elected. He was formerly on the council of the Dominion Board of Trade, and was again elected president of the Quebec Board of Trade in 1895-96.

Mr. Dobell contested Quebec West for the House of Commons as an Independent in June, 1895, and secured a majority of seven votes, but subsequently lost the election on a recount. At the general election in 1896 he appeared as the general candidate of the Liberal opposition, and was returned by 231 majority. In his address to the electors he announced himself to be strongly in favor of tariff reform, of intercolonial trade, and also of fair reciprocal trade with the United States. He had throughout favored preferential trade with Great Britain.

On the formation of the Laurier Cabinet in July, 1896, he was called to the Privy Council and appointed a Minister without portfolio.

He was a staunch member of the Church of England. He was a vice-president of the Quebec Bible Society, and a trustee of Bishop's College University, Lennoxville.

Mr. Dobell married Elizabeth Frances, eldest daughter of the late Sir David Macpherson of Toronto. Their son, Charles Macpherson Dobell, graduated from the Royal Military College in 1890, was appointed lieutenant in the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, saw service with his regiment during the Burmese war, and was mentioned in despatches for bravery in the field. More recently the son has been serving in Crete. Another son, Alfred, is a graduate of Toronto University and of Osgoode Hall.

Whitewear and Remnants

A strong combination that should bring many people to Sutcliffe & Sons : : :

THE WHITEWEAR DISPLAY with its increasing interest, and how could it be otherwise?—so grand a display, so great an assortment of styles. Such tempting prices for the dainty conceits in Ladies' Lingerie has never before been shown in Peterborough, and never were they shown at such prices. We would say anticipate your spring and summer wants. Then come—but come anyway and see the magnificent ranges. Then you'll be sure to anticipate your future wants.

NOW FOR REMNANTS! Remnants marked for a swing. A busy season with big selling has made many Remnants. Remnants make lots of work and run into a pile of money. We don't like work, (unnecessary work) and we do like the use of money—that's one reason we run this business on a cash basis. Well, you can buy lots of Remnants for little money. They go grouped on the following tables Tuesday morning 8.30 a.m. :—

TABLE NO. I.

Remnants of Laces, Remnants of Ribbons, Remnants of Veilings, Remnants of Embroideries and Insertions, Remnants of Chiffons, Remnants of Nets, etc. You know the multitude of uses these Remnants can be put to. None marked to make money on—it's your turn for the profit.

TABLE NO. II.

A Table of Odds and Ends—one, two, or probably three of a kind—put at a get out price. It's a number of these lines that will occupy Table No. II.

TABLE NO. III.

TABLE NO. IV

Another large Table—full to overflowing with the result of big Dress Goods Mantle Cloth and Silk selling. We have sold bountifously in this department, and we have been more than usually liberal in the remnant prices. Dress Good lengths from 1 yard to 6 yards. Silk Remnants from ½ of a yard to blouse lengths. Mantle Cloths from 1 yard to 3½ yards.

And the Remnants don't stop at this. Every counter will have more or less remnants or odds and ends that will appeal to your buying sagacity.

COME EARLY! Always a choice in Remnants, though we think all these Remnants choice at price marked.

"I might have included the struggle between the Boers and Great Britain for supremacy in South Africa, but I say these are solid achievements in the cause of peace; and if we have been unable to remove continental prejudice, which has always existed, but was never more coarsely expressed, we have at least been enabled to settle many substantial differences which might have caused international conflict."

Extolling colonial patriotism, Mr. Chamberlain said: "Only a day or two ago I read in an influential Canadian paper an editorial which declared that the pro-Boers in England were injuring the Empire abroad and destroying the unity which is our national safeguard. This is only a sample of the loyalty expressed in every colony of the Empire.

"This is a new factor in politics. You must hereafter consult the colonies upon every vital question of Imperial politics."

In the future Great Britain would have to take into account the opinion of the colonies. She would have to consult them always, and if she wished them to stand by her side she would have to be guided by their wishes. Great Britain, the Secretary declared, was not entitled to make peace unless the terms were satisfactory to her colonial allies.

Mr. Chamberlain concluded by paying tributes to Lord Kitchener's stern resolution, the army's cheerful courage and Lord Milner's wise administration.

MR. JOE CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH

Replying to Foreign Criticism He Blames the Pro-Boers For the Ill-Feeling in Germany—Will Accept No Lessons From Von Buelow—Hereafter Colonial Opinion Must Be Consulted.

Birmingham, Jan. 13.—At a dinner of the Jewelers and Silversmiths' Association of Birmingham Saturday night Mr. Joseph Chamberlain made a speech in which he said he regretted the tendency in late years in political life to descend to meanness in attacking personal character. Every possible crime had been imputed to some members of the Government.

If there was a shadow of foundation for the worst of these charges he was unworthy of breaking bread with them, and instead of toasting the Government they ought to demand its instant impeachment. But in these vituperations there was a great deal of exaggeration and very little sincerity. After six years of executive strain he would be glad to make way for any of the alternate Governments which had been starring the provinces if he were assured that any one of them could deal with great national issues.

Mr. Chamberlain said he desired to protest in all earnestness against those who in their partizan zeal fouled their own nests, encouraged the enemies of Great Britain and furnished material to foreign critics for the malignant libel which was uttered against their country. (Applause.) It was said that these attacks were due to his indiscreet oratory.

"What have I said," continued Mr. Chamberlain, directing his attention to the criticism showered on him in the Reichstag, and especially Count Von Buelow's constigation, "I have said. I withdraw nothing; I qualify nothing; I defend nothing. As I read history, no British Minister has ever served his country faithfully and at the same time been popular abroad. I, therefore, make allowance for foreign criticism. I will not follow the example that has been set me. I do not want to give lessons to a foreign Minister, and I will not accept any at his hands. I am responsible only to my sovereign and my countrymen.

"I do not depreciate the importance of the good will of foreign nations, but there is something more important. It is the affection and confidence of our kinsfolk across the sea. Even our great losses in the war that has been forced upon us have brought in their train one blessing of infinite and lasting importance.

"That war has enabled the British Empire to find itself, and has shown to all it may concern that if ever again we have, as in the past, to fight for our very existence against the world in arms, we shall be supported by the sons of Britain in every quarter of the globe. Hardly any sacrifice can be too great for such a result."

"How can I," asked Mr. Chamberlain, "be made responsible for what Lord Grey has called 'filthy lies,' and what Lord Rosebery described as 'vile infamous falsehoods,' which has been disseminated in foreign countries without a syllable of protest, without the slightest interference by responsible authorities.

"My opponents must find some other scapegoat; they must look further for the causes of hostility, which I do not think deserved, but which always comes to the surface when we are in difficulty, and which I am glad to say has never done us serious harm."

Mr. Chamberlain said that when the present ministry came into office it was at a time when the country was at peace with the world, but the Cabinet had to meet at least six burning questions of international importance. These legacies which Lord Salisbury had to take up included the Venezuela boundary question, the Samoan difficulty and the French position on the Nile, all of which the Government successfully grappled and disposed of.

"Our American kinsfolk," continued Mr. Chamberlain, "have agreed to a treaty to enable the construction of an interoceanic canal which I believe will be of great advantage to the commerce of the world, as it will be of great advantage to the United States.

A WHOLE FAMILY BURNED.

House at Buffalo Overinsured and Its Owner and Another Arrested by the Police.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Henry Pearlstein, his wife and five children, ranging in age from one and one-half to twelve years, were burned to death at an early hour yesterday morning in a fire that destroyed a two-storey frame building at 1,047 Broadway. Joseph Supowski, who owned the building and kept a shoe store on the ground floor, has been placed under arrest pending an investigation. Karl Bracki, Supowski's brother-in-law, is also detained by the police. Supowski carried an insurance of $9,000 on the building and its contents, which the police say is a very liberal valuation.

The Pearlsteins and another family lived in rooms above the shoe store, and were asleep when the fire started. Supowski told the police yesterday that he accidentally dropped a lamp. A few minutes after the fire began there was a terrific explosion that blew out the front of the store and hurled some of the contents of the show windows into the middle of the street. Plate glass windows on the opposite side of Broadway were shattered, and the sound of the explosion was heard two blocks away. The flames enveloped the building in an incredibly short time.

The Pearlsteins were awakened, but before they could reach the only stairway leading from their rooms the fire had undermined the floor in the hallway, and it collapsed under their feet, carrying them down into a seething mass of flames. Their charred bodies were found at eight o'clock, four hours after the firemen had extinguished the flames. The body of the mother and babe were found together, the little one tightly clasped in its mother's arms. Pearlstein's body was found close to that of his wife. He also held one of the children in his arms. The bodies of the other three children were found huddled together close to the father's body.

Appropriates a Gunboat.

Colon, Colombia, Jan. 13.—Via Galveston.—The South American Steamship Company has refused to charter their steamer Lantaro to the Colombian Government to be used by the latter as a gun boat.

General Alban, the military commander of this district, yesterday issued a decree appropriating the Lantaro. He has taken possession of this vessel, and has deposited a sum of money equal to her value with Senor Ehrman, a banker at Panama. The captain and crew of the Lantaro will remain in the service of the Colombian Government. Canon are now being mounted on her, and she will probably sail for Panama to-day to attack the fleet of the Colombian Liberals.

Bad Times Gone By.

Steteinne, France, Jan. 13.—Favored by cold and fine weather, the opening of the ministerial electoral campaign here yesterday proved an unqualified success. M. Waldeck-Rousseau, replying to a toast of his health, made his great speech, in which he set forth the position of the Government in view of the coming general elections. The speech of the Premier took the form of a review of the policy of the Government and the work of the present Legislature. He declared that since the formation of his ministry, the country had acquired a security unknown for a long time previous, and that it required an incurable pessimism not to recognize that the bad days had gone by.

Frozen to Death.

Uxbridge, Jan. 13.—Edith Killner, whose home is in Hamilton, Ont., was found frozen to death about 7 miles south of here yesterday morning. She had come here from Hamilton only about a week ago, and was staying at the home of Mr. Fred Jaggard. Mr. and Mrs. Jaggard were in town yesterday, and left Miss Killner in charge of the children. About 6 o'clock she said she was going to Toronto, and made up a bundle of clothing and started out. This was the last seen of her. On going through a bush road yesterday morning Mr. Jaggard found her remains almost covered with snow.

THIS PROVINCE IS VERY HONEST.

The Auditors of Municipal Books can Find no Deficits.

J. R. STRATTON'S REPORT.

Mr. J. S. Lang, Provincial Municipal Auditor, Advises Use of Government Forms.

Toronto News.

Under the able administration of Provincial Secretary J. R. Stratton, this province will soon be converted into a land on which the sun of probity and virtue never sets, a veritable earthly paradise. During the last year, according to Hon. Mr. Stratton's report, there have been no absconding municipal treasurers in Ontario, and the audit of the accounts has shown a beautiful lack of deficits and most praiseworthy honesty in bookkeeping.

"The improvement in municipal accounts throughout the province, to which I called your attention in my report for last year, still continues, and I have the honour to state that I have no losses of importance in the form of deficits of municipal treasurers to report for 1901." This is the opening paragraph of the Provincial Municipal Auditor's statement, as laid on the table of the Legislative Assembly yesterday, and it strikes the keynote of the whole announcement.

During the year a treasurer was occasionally found who did not make use of the account forms recommended by the Government but such cases were rare and are getting more so year by year. As a rule the municipal treasurers in Ontario used and appreciated the new forms of account because they tended to accuracy.

The Auditor states that sufficient importance is not attached by the local auditors to the securities given for the responsibilities of county, township and other municipal treasurers. There is reason to believe, he says, "that these securities are in many cases worthless, being improperly drawn out, outclassed or expired by effluxion of time."

The Government audits were conducted in 1901, and the books of one hundred and sixty municipal offices examined.

The Auditor strongly urges school sections, and Public as well as High School Boards to use the cash books recommended by the Government.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The town is safe now after the return of our M.D., Dr. Keith, from his holiday outing. His patient, S. Lowe, on whom he performed an operation, is improving.

Our public school teacher, Mr. Mills and family, made a visit to their relatives in the township of Manvers during the holidays.

The first sermon of the new year by Rev. Wm. Kannawin was worthy of special notice. His text was "But the just shall live by faith."

Rev. Mr. Mounteer's discourse was full of thought and suitable for the beginning of the year. His sermon was from the words, "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin."

The chopper referred to in the last issue has quite recovered from his experience with the unknown beast in the swamp. He maintains that it was no vision but a real genuine animal that he saw, possessed of a most ferocious nature, and undesirable to be met by any person unless fully prepared and armed with one of those pompoms used in South Africa in capturing the Boers.

There is a great demand for good butter which can be found at the cheese and butter factory here. Farmers find that it is profitable to take their milk to the factory, as they will get more butter from the milk than if churned at home.

Would it not be in the interest and welfare of the town of Peterborough to have the leading roads into the Peterborough market made passable, if not in first class shape, so as to induce the farmers to do their trading in town. Bonuses are freely given to manufacturers to settle in the town; then why not press the matter of good roads, which would be the means of drawing custom to its business men and supplying the wants of its inhabitants? There are two leading roads in Cavan which can and should be opened, and for which the council of Cavan has been petitioned asking them to open the said roads. If they were opened it would shorten the distance between Mount Pleasant and Peterborough, going there and returning, about 7 miles. Is it right for a council elected to look after the interests of the electors to have two leading roads unfit for travel except for a short time in winter? The 13th and 14th concessions through the swamp are the roads referred to.

The Christmas song, "Glory to God" published by Mr. T. W. McLean, has met with pronounced success and a large sale. It has been sung in most of the large centres of population in Ontario, and has received the approbation of such prominent vocalists as Messrs. Harold Jarvis, of Detroit; Chrystal Browne, and H. J. Carnahan, of Toronto. Copies are for sale in Lindsay and Peterborough.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The question of who shall be reeve of Lakefield for the year 1902 was decided on Monday when Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald was elected to the office by a majority of 107 over Mr. Lillicrap.

Miss Jessie Smith of Toronto, is home on a visit to her parents.

Mr. J. M. Kilbourn arrived in the village on Tuesday to view the Lakefield Portland Cement Works, which were started on Monday.

Mr. Wm. Smith, of Calgary, arrived in the village on Monday on a visit to his mother. Mr. Smith's many friends will be pleased to see him back to his old home again.

The hockey boys had a good swift practice on Tuesday night. Although they have not had the time to prepare for the match on Friday night they should have had, they are in pretty good shape. Let every one turn out to the hockey match on Friday night, which will be the first match in the Trent Valley League Series. The game is against the Lakeviews of Peterborough.

On Monday last one of the large rotary kilns of the cement works was started turning for the first time. It is working most satisfactorily. The quality of clinker manufactured is a very high grade.

The Sabbath school of St. John's church gave an entertainment in the town hall on Friday evening of last week. A short play entitled "Betsy Baker," was put on, which kept up a ripple of merriment over the entire audience during the whole performance. Quite a large crowd attended.

Clementi Lodge, A. F. & A. M., met in their Lodge Room on Tuesday evening.

Master P. Sherin's condition is very much improved, and if he meets with no serious drawback his recovery is almost assured.

Sir John Bourinot's Opinion.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—Sir John Bourinot, commenting on the doubts raised as to the legality of the last session of Parliament and the Legislatures owing to the demise of Queen Victoria after the proclamations had been issued and no new notice given, said it reminded him of the famous essay of Archbishop Whately, "Historic doubts as to the existence of Napoleon Bonaparte."

Sir John said that it is specially provided by law that no Legislature body "summoned or called by Her Majesty or her heirs or successors" shall be affected by the demise of the crown, and consequently the proclamation referred to was in no way effected by the demise of the Queen.

Have Boers Offered to Quit?

London, Jan. 13.—The Globe's financial editor said a report which came from well-informed quarters was current in the city on Saturday that the Boer chiefs had made overtures to the British Government to the effect that they were prepared to lay down their arms, provided they were not exiled. Wednesday next is the Boer feast day, and it was said the surrender of the Boers would probably occur then. The War Office officials asserted that no proposals to surrender had been received from the Boers.

Acquitted of High Treason.

Washington, Jan. 13.—A cablegram received at the State Department from United States Consul-General Bingham at Cape Town announces the acquittal and release of Dr. Richards Anthony, who has been on trial there on a charge of high treason and aiding the enemy, Anthony is an American citizen, but has lived for some time in South Africa, where he married a Boer woman.

Marconi in New York.

New York, Jan. 13.—Signor William Marconi, inventor of the wireless telegraph, arrived here yesterday from Canada, where he has been the guest of the Dominion Government. This evening he will be the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. On Wednesday he will sail for Europe.

EVIL DAYS MENACE IRELAND.

Boycott Enforced in Sligo, and Disorder Is Feared.

New York, Jan. 13.—The Herald's London correspondent says: The state of affairs in Ireland is really worse. I am told, than many persons in this country have any idea of. In Sligo, for instance, several well-known men have been boycotted.

Those "in the know" declare the United Irish League only another name for the Land League, which some years ago created such disturbances in Ireland.

A well-known Irishman told me the other day he considered things so serious that the King and Queen would not pay a visit to Ireland this spring. He also said that, although "shooting hadn't commenced," as he expressed it, he was quite sure one might hear of such things any day.

Are Quick To See

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and disordered digestion.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the

Purging is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help and you will have no trouble.

Its a common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—

Mrs. E. M. Faith of Byrd's Creek, Wis., says: "I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says:—"Mr. White, of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia from which he had suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50 cents to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

All druggists sell them. A little book on stomach diseases will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

The Reason Why.

A commercial traveler had a cool reception from the other commercials staying at the same hotel. Somewhat puzzled, he asked the landlord to explain. Boniface hesitated a moment and then replied:

"Well, I hardly like to tell you, sir. Suppose I tell you a little tale instead. In this room a dog and a parrot were shut up one day. The parrot wanted some fun and yelled out 'Rats!' thus causing the dog to chase imaginary rodents. 'Rats!' screamed Polly a second time, but the dog did not move, so Polly hopped off the perch and when close to the dog again said 'Rats!' Then the dog had his turn, and Polly got back to her perch with a much disheveled plumage. Shaking her head in a melancholy way, she plaintively murmured: 'Now I know what is the matter with me. I talk too much.'"—London Tit-Bits.

WHO OWNS THE PRESCRIPTION?

Doctor, Druggist and Patient All Lay Claim to It.

To whom does the prescription belong—to the doctor who writes it, the patient who receives and pays for it or the druggist who puts up the medicine? This question has recently been the subject of an interesting discussion in the secular press, having been started by a New York journal, in commenting on a letter received from one of its readers complaining that a druggist who filled a prescription which he had received from a doctor and paid for would not return him the prescription. According to the newspaper, the druggist based his claim of ownership in the prescription upon the grounds of frequently being required to produce in court the originals of prescriptions which he had put up, in order to answer important questions, and, further, that he needs the prescription for his own protection in the event of any trouble arising from its taking, to show that he has put up only what the doctor has prescribed.

The druggist insists that it is not safe for a patient to hold a prescription which he can have filled at any time, for the reason that the physician formulates a prescription according to existing symptoms and the exact condition of the patient at the time, and if he, the patient, should take it at another time when he apparently may have the same trouble, but conditions are different, he will do himself a physical and the doctor a professional injury.

The doctor partially approves the claim of the druggist, modifying it only to the extent of requiring him to give a copy of the prescription to the patient, and declares that no prescription should ever be filled from a copy, which should be so marked, and that no prescription should ever be refilled, except upon the approval of the doctor who gave it, and that there should be a law to this effect.

These views of the question utterly ignore any property rights the patient may be supposed to have in the prescription. The patient pays the doctor for writing out the prescription and then pays the druggist for filling it. Now, what is it the patient buys? Is it only what the pharmacist hands him in box, bottle or paper? If so, what is it that he has paid the doctor for? The druggist receives full remuneration for his drugs, and compounding the prescription has cost him nothing. By what right, then, does he hold title to it? For self protection, it is claimed. But what about the patient's right to avail himself of whatever advantages may afterward adhere in the prescription? The patient, having purchased a prescription, has a property right therein which neither the doctor who wrote it nor the druggist who has filled it has, and he is therefore entitled to its possession. The druggist may be permitted to retain a copy.

Professional Orators.

When Lord Rosmead, then Sir Hercules Robinson, was governor of New South Wales, in the early seventies, it fell to his lot to admit the erstwhile cannibal kingdom of Fiji as an integral part of the British empire. During the incidental ceremonies he noticed that none of the great fighting chiefs spoke in person and that each of them had a professional orator on his staff. As an Irishman, with a strong sense of humor, Sir Hercules was naturally tickled by such a novel situation, and when he got back to Sydney he repeatedly eulogized the arrangement, pointing out that the man of action was very rarely a man of words and that civilization might very well learn a lesson from Pacific chiefs.—London Chronicle.

THE OZONE COMPANY, Ltd., TORONTO, ONT.

Gentlemen: About two years ago my stomach completely gave out. I was in a wretched condition, and my life was anything but pleasure. I tried several prescriptions from my doctor, and also other remedies which I saw advertised for dyspepsia, but I was getting worse all the time. I might say that at the same time I had a breaking out on my face and body, which gave me great annoyance. No remedy I took could relieve me of this vexatious disease. At last I was advised to try Ozone. The first bottle gave me relief. I took about ten bottles altogether, and I am thankful I can report to you that I am completely cured. I can eat anything now without the least uneasiness; also the itching eruptions, which I believed were germs in my blood, are all gone. I also use Ozone for my children when any ailment overtakes them. (Signed) ALEX. LANG, 67 Sumach St., Toronto.

LIBERAL DIVISIONS.

Trouble in Laval and in St. James' Division in Montreal.

HON. J. ISRAEL TARTE SPEAKS.

An Earnest Appeal That the Ranks Be Closed Up—Mr. Bergeron's Views on the Boer War at Variance With Those Expressed by the Quebec Leader of His Party, Mr. Monk.

Montreal, Jan. 13.—The political situation in Laval and St. James' division of Montreal is somewhat mixed, owing to the split among the Liberals of both districts. In the former Mr. Gohier persists in running as an Independent Liberal, although Mr. Wilson received the overwhelming vote of the convention, and as the constituency was formerly largely Conservative, there is danger that Mr. Leonard, the Conservative candidate, may be elected. In St. James' Mr. Drouin prevented a split by retiring, but there is still a great deal of dissatisfaction at the candidature of Ald. Brunet.

Hon. J. Israel Tarte, in this connection, spoke pretty plainly at a meeting called Saturday night in the interest of the Liberal candidate. Having referred to the efforts which he might call seditious, to stir up feeling against a French-Canadian Premier, he said that in 1900, and even in 1901, Mr. Bergeron was of opinion that the Government, with Sir Wilfrid Laurier at its head, should send 5,000, or even 10,000 men, and pay all their expenses. Mr. Bergeron was more loyal than the King, Queen or the Imperial authorities, who were willing to pay the expenses. Now Mr. Monk says that the Government should have consulted Parliament before allowing the Imperial authorities to come here and enroll those who wanted to go and get killed in South Africa. "I am avenged," said Mr. Tarte. "You all remember when the war began I was of the opinion that the Parliament of Canada should have been consulted before the Government took such an important step as sending Canadians to fight outside of Canada. Unfortunately, my opinion did not prevail. For my action on that occasion I was decried during the last election, and ever since, as a disloyal subject. To-day the Imperial Government simply asks those who wish to go freely, and it does not cost one cent to us. I have boundless confidence in the future of this young country, and for one will never allow the future of this country to be directed into new pathways until the people are fully and freely informed and consulted. I believe that on this score you can trust Sir Wilfrid Laurier with as much confidence as you would Mr. J. H. Bergeron." (Applause.)

Alluding to the trouble over the choice of a candidate, he appealed to them to set aside faction fights and work for the success of the Liberal party.

Canada's Foreign Trade.

Ottawa, Jan. 13.—Canada's aggregate foreign trade on the basis of imports for consumption and exports for the six months ended December 31 was $13,605,066 ahead of the same period in 1900.

The imports show an increase of $8,076,537, while the exports advanced by $5,528,529.

Compared with the latter half of 1900 there was an increase of nearly two millions in exports of fisheries, of a million in animals and their produce, of over three millions in agricultural products, and of three-quarters of a million in manufactures.

Premier Dunsmuir's Manifesto.

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 13.—Premier Dunsmuir issued a lengthy manifesto to the people of British Columbia Saturday morning, in view of the sudden call of the Legislature on the 20th of next March, seeing the likelihood of his defeat then and the necessity of his appeal to the country. It is believed among politicians that the call for the 20th was hurried at the instance of the Governor, who declined to sign further warrants without the authority of the Legislature. In his address the Premier says he would have willingly resigned had there been any likelihood of a union of parties in the House under someone able to form a stable Government.

British Prestige Secure.

Montreal, Jan. 13.— Hon. Gore Nasse, Japan's first Consul-General in Canada, arrived here yesterday from Korea, where he was formerly stationed. He expects a good deal of trade to be worked up between Canada and his country. The Consul-General declares British prestige has not suffered the least in the east, and that the best interests of Japan, Great Britain and the United States demand that they shall work together.

Land Sales of a Million.

Winnipeg, Jan. 13.—In addition to the enormous C.P.R. land sales the past year, there are the sales of the firm of Osler, Hammond & Nanton, which rank second to the C.P.R. in volume. This company sold during 1901 in small parcels of land, each sale averaging under half a section, 262,192 acres, for the sum of between $900,000 and $1,000,000. The land disposed of is scattered all over Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

Cunards Have Wireless Chat at Sea.

Queenstown, Jan. 13.—The Cunard Line steamship Umbria, from New York, arrived here Saturday. The captain reports that he was in wireless communication under the Marconi system with the steamship Etrulia of the same line on Jan. 8th for two hours and forty minutes. The distance varied from forty to 104 miles.

Socialistic Justice.

London, Jan. 11.—Messrs. H. M. Hyndman and H. Quelch, the British delegates to the International Socialist Bureau, which met at Brussels yesterday, blamed those nations which, while protesting against British barbarity in South Africa, found nothing to reprebate in the barbarity shown by the Prussians towards the Poles.

TO WEAK WOMEN EVERYWHERE

Mrs. Maxwell Tells how Much Pain and Suffering may be Remedied.

A Very Interesting Statement by an Elora Lady—She has Found a Panacea for all Female Weakness and Wants Every Woman in Canada to Know of it.

Elora, Ont., Jan. 12.—(Special.) Mrs. Maxwell of this place has written for publication a very strong letter in which she claims that Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured her of Female Weakness after she had tried almost everything else.

This good lady, according to her statement, suffered for a long time with kidney trouble, enduring the greatest pain with a dizziness and headaches that made her very ill. She was passing through what is always a critical period in every woman's life and her troubles were considerably increased by this. Indeed her life was for a time in great danger.

She says she used Dodd's Kidney Pills with the most remarkable results, being almost instantly relieved and in a very short time completely cured and restored to good health.

She is very grateful and in her letter she says: "I cannot find words to express my gratitude to God for my marvellous cure. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest medicine in the world especially for those of my age.

"I could scarcely move hand or foot I was so dizzy, and violent pains would shoot through my whole system, but now thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills I feel well and smart."

This case and its cure has created quite a sensation and Mrs. Maxwell's full and frank statement of the matter has been the subject of a great deal of comment.

Dodd's Kidney Pills seem to be an infallible cure for Diseases of Women as well as for Rheumatism, Diabetes, Bright's Disease and all Kidney disorders.

SIR WILLIAM MACDONALD'S OFFER.

Will Build Grade School in Ontario on Certain Conditions.

Toronto, Jan. 11.—Premier Ross yesterday announced the scheme of Sir William Macdonald in connection with his liberal donation for educational purposes in the province. Already Sir William has given $125,000 for an addition to the Guelph Agricultural College, and has proposed to make a grant for the establishment of a grade school in some thickly populated township. He will have to have an agreement or assurance first, however, with the trustees that they will see to the transportation of the scholars who may wish to attend. If they do this Sir William is willing to provide for the erection of a school which would also contain a library.

Another idea of the Montreal millionaire is the establishment of gardens in connection with schools. He proposes to give to eight or ten schools grants for the setting aside of gardens, in which would be grown plants, vegetables, etc. By this means teachers would be able to give a more practical instruction to the children attending the schools.

When these gardens are established Sir William will send an inspector or expert around to give lessons on the practical side of agriculture.

When the Baby Cries at Night.

there is a cause for it. Perhaps it is gas on the stomach, may be cramps or diarrhoea. Don't lose sleep, anticipate such contingencies by always keeping handy a bottle of Polson's Nerviline. Just a few drops in water given inwardly, then rub the little one's stomach with a small quantity of Nerviline, and perfect rest is assured for the night for both mother and baby. You may not need Nerviline often, but when you do need it you need it badly. Get a 25c. bottle to-day.

"TASTY TABLET DOSES"

An eminent physician, whose schooling has always been along the line of "strong tonics and bitters" for stomach troubles, now prescribes what he calls tasty tablet doses—Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets.

And he is only one of thousands of the medical profession who are "getting out of the rut" and taking the common-sense view of things, and instead of strong doses are prescribing for stomach troubles and the ills that are akin, this pleasant and never failing treatment. Read Your Hand.

Professor O'Brien, the scientific palmist and phrenologist, will close a very successful season in Peterborough on Tuesday night. He goes to Lindsay on Wednesday morning. The record which he takes with him of the personal signatures of so large a number of Peterborough citizens, whose hands and heads he has read, is the best testimony that the Professor could possess of the interest which he has aroused in the science in which he is so skilled, as well as the confidence shown in his integrity and ability. His second visit, whenever that should be, will doubtless be attended with even greater success.

A Coming Treat.

The annual concert of the St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild will this year be held on Monday evening, Jan. 27th, celebrating Burns' birthday. The concerts given by the Guild in the past go to show that the members do their very utmost to give as enjoyable an evening as can be spent during the concert season, and this year's concert, to be taken part in by such excellent talent as Donald McGregor, baritone, Ems Scott-Raff, reciter, Mlle. Decrey and Mr. Glidden's orchestra, will no doubt prove to be the best under the Guild's auspices, and the manner in which tickets are already being disposed of shows it to be one of the most popular concerts of the season. Tickets, 25c. for any part of the large St. Andrews' lecture hall, may be had down town as follows—From Mr. Waddell, at Mr. W. Hill's office, Mr. Bathgate, at McDonald's drug store, Mr. Maude, at J. HOCKEY.

Taking the match in Lindsay on Friday last as a criterion, the Peterborough people should see one of the closest and most exciting games in a long time on Tuesday the 21st, with the same teams.

All intermediates are asked to turn out to-morrow, especially Wasson, Comstock, Morgan, Watt, Lynch, Parnell, Glover, Graham, Whitcroft and Armstrong.

Friday's game in Lindsay goes to show the inadvisability of playing off a tie game in, a three or more club district. At full time the score was a tie, and its being played off makes it possible for a tie all round after the schedule has been played, taking the ground that the local team will win their home matches. Peterborough wanted this rule changed but it did not go through.

Lindsay has a well balanced team, and are playing as good hockey as will be found in any intermediate district.

The home team is well pleased with the showing made against Lindsay and are not overlooking the fact that condition is a very important factor in the playing of games, and consequently the players are to be found on the rink every night.

The Colts Hockey Team left this afternoon for Belleville where they will play their return game with the Belleville juniors in the O.H.A. Junior Series.

The next league game will take place in Peterborough on Monday night of next week when the Lindsay team will come up against the local Seniors. This should prove to be the match of the season and hockey enthusiasts should keep the date open.

The Lakeviews and Lakefield team will come together this week in the Trent Valley Series.

The Omemee team will journey to Bobcaygeon on Friday night to play their return game in the Trent Valley League Series.

An effort should be made to get the Fenelon Falls Team to come to Peterborough for a game.

Toronto Globe—The Peterborough Club voluntarily informed the O.H.A. committee that Walter Robinson, who played for the Colts against Belleville when Peterborough won by one goal, was not eligible under the age limit. There had been no protest or complaint from anybody, but the fact being discovered by the club, its officers, who believe in conforming to the rules, notified the association. No action was taken at Saturday's meeting, pending the receipt of information as to how the mistake was made.

Peterborough never before knew such blissful joy as when it picked up a Pittsburg paper which told of how "Scuddy" Phalen won the match for the All-Star combination against Queen's College the other night. And it is all the more remarkable from the fact that Phalan was never fast enough to beat a C.P.R. Havelock local; indeed, there was a time when he was the subject for comment as he stalked about the rink conjuring the forwards to "folly up," but never doing it himself. Since his sojourn in Pittsburg, "Scuddy" has been given the incubator treatment from which he has developed wonderful speed. He is the shining light in the Smoky City, and next to the Governor of the State and the Mayor of the town, the Pittsburg populace to a man declare "Scuddy" Phalen to be the 'works." —Telegram.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE TO THE COUNCIL

Was Read at the Inaugural Meeting This Morning.

MANY GOOD POINTS IN IT.

The Water Front Acquired by the Town —Matter of the Establishment of Railway Gates.

The inaugural meeting of the new Town Council was held at eleven o'clock, this morning, with His Worship Mayor Denne presiding and the following Aldermen in attendance, Messrs. Best, Corkery, Batten, Clinkscale, Rush, Shortly, Edgcumbe, Turner, Morrison and McGregor. Ald. Roger was the only absentee, being confined to his residence through illness.

The Mayor read his message to the Council as appended :

Gentlemen, — Permit me to congratulate you upon your election by the people of Peterborough to the honourable and responsible position of members of this council. The electors have done us special honour this year by electing us without opposition, and perhaps this honour is especially appreciated by those of us who were members of the council last year, as it shows in a marked manner that our course during the year met with approval. I do not take this unanimous choice to mean that the electors approved of our every act, but I think we are justified in considering it an expression of opinion that the electors believed the members worked honestly and faithfully in the interests of the town, and not without some measure of success.

The affairs of a municipality of the size of Peterborough always require a great deal of time and attention, even when there are no matters of special importance to be dealt with. The maintenance of the bridges, the streets and sidewalks, the keeping of the Fire Department up to an efficient standard, and the supervision and direction of the many interests of the municipality under the control of the council, require careful consideration and supervision in order that the work of the departments may be so carried out as to produce the best results with the least expenditure. It is of first importance that there should be no leaks or useless expenditure, for with a municipality as with any business enterprise, there cannot be waste without injury. Taxes are a burden on the industry and commerce of the town, and any undue burden will with certainty have the effect of checking commerce and industry, and consequently the prosperity and growth of the town. I have no doubt that in all these matters we will be able to co-operate to administer the affairs of the municipality with economy and efficiency, so that all expenditures will be for the benefit of the community.

There are several matters out of the ordinary course that will also require our best attention. The qualified ratepayers having adopted the bylaw to purchase the waterworks, it will now be our duty to give the bylaw its final reading and pass on to the carrying out of the purchase. The bylaw cannot be read a third time to-day, as sufficient time has not elapsed since its first publication to permit of that being done, and we should meet again in a day or two to pass the bylaw. The management of the works will be placed in the hands of commissioners, and I shall lose no time to have the necessary steps taken for their election, so that when the works are taken over the municipal machinery will be ready. But while the Council will be relieved of the responsibility of the management of the works, the disposal of the debentures to pay for them will be our duty, and with such a large amount we will need to carefully consider each step in order that the best sale possible will be made. The municipality is in an exceptionally good financial position, with excellent credit, and with the debentures further secured by being a first lein on the waterworks, there is no reason to doubt that we will readily dispose of them on advantageous terms.

I have again to refer to the subject of protection at railway crossings. The Grand Trunk has not obeyed the order of the Railway Committee of the Privy Council to establish gates at the crossings at Charlotte and Simcoe streets, but has instead placed flagmen there. While the flagmen are a measure of protection, that is not the kind of protection that we applied for and ordered, and it may be necessary to take steps to have the order complied with and the full measure of protection given, although I hope that the railway company will not make that necessary.

Previous to the late municipal elections I wrote to the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company pointing out the necessity for protection by means of gates at the George street crossing and on the last day of the year I had an interview at Toronto with Mr. Timmerman, the General Superintendent of this division. Mr. Timmerman did not dispute that protection was needed, but urged that a "Chicago crossing signal," would give adequate protection, and that the town should bear half the expense. Since then I have received a letter from Mr. Timmerman in which he says he is arranging to have a signal placed at the crossing, leaving the matter of expense an open question. I have replied to him that in view of the circumstances of this crossing we would not consent to the signal being considered sufficient protection and that the town took the position that it was not liable for any of the expense. I have no doubt, however, that the railway authorities, as they recognize that protection is needed, will see that the means adopted are adequate, and if the railway's experiment with the signal shows that it does no meet the requirements, gates will be substituted, and I hope that by friendly negotiations we will secure what is needed.

For the past eleven or twelve years the town has had an application on file in the Crown Lands Department at Toronto for the lots in the river inside and outside the Canadian Pacific Railway spur line, and year after year efforts have been made to put it through and secure the patent. The older members of the council will be familiar with these efforts, and the number of visits that have been made to Toronto in different years in connection with the matter. Last year this subject was again taken up and pushed to a conclusion. A number of difficulties arose in the way of securing the grant, the last being in connection with the railway spur line. The Government could not give the town any of the land used by the railway company, and thus was unable to give a right of access to the lands outside the railway line. This was the question that led to the lawsuit a couple of years ago with the railway company respecting the island. There was also a question as to the width of the right of way. I had several interviews with the Department and the railway authorities in November and December, the last being on Dec. 31st, when an agreement was reached and drawn up and signed by the solicitors of the Town and the Railway Company, and in accordance with it a patent will be issued. By the arrangement made the Town will receive the patent to about fifteen acres, and the railway company will receive a patent of their right of way. The Town will also give the Railway Company a deed of their right of way over the island owned by the Town and over which the spur line runs. There will be reservations in the grants to the Railway Company for streets sixty-six feet wide opposite Sherbrooke, King and Charlotte streets, so that there will be access to the lands outside the track. As the town owned the two islands, by a title received from the Dominion authorities, it will, with this property now obtained have a large block of land that will in time be most useful and valuable for various purposes. With the completion of the Trent Valley Canal, which cannot come any too soon for the interests of this Town, this land will be valuable for wharfage, and there will be room for a large esplanade that will become more and more valuable as the Town grows and its commerce increases. I expect that in a few days the patent for this land will be received. I am sure you will be pleased that this long standing matter has been closed, and in bringing it to a successful close valuable aid was given by Hon. J. R. Stratton.

I believe we can look forward to a year of continued progress and prosperity. The new factories for which buildings are now being erected will have a marked effect upon the growth of the town, and it will be our duty to endeavour to secure further increases to our already large list of successful manufacturing concerns.

We, as representatives of the interests of a growing community such as this is, must be prepared to take large views of any propositions that come before us, and at the same time carefully guard the interests of the ratepayers. It is often in connection with comparatively small matters that difficulties arise, and these small matters seem to annoy manufacturers more even than differences on larger questions, and we should, so far as possible, avoid friction with those who can so largely affect the fortunes of the town. The good will of a manufacturer who has interests throughout the continent, is well worth having, and it should be our policy to smooth the way for establishing every facility for manufacturing, and the commerce necessarily connected with it, at the same time avoiding injustice to others.

By working together in harmony, agreeing to disagree when necessary without affecting pleasant relations, and keeping in view the welfare of the town, which I feel sure will be the object of every member, we should have a pleasant and successful year.

General business was dispensed with and the usual bylaws were then passed naming the different standing committees for the year and appointing the auditors. Sheriff Hall and Mr. Andrew M. Clarke were reappointed at the same salary as last year.

Ald. Clinkscale and Batten moved that a committee to strike the standing committees for the year be composed of Aldermen Best, Shortly, Clinkscale, Rush and the Mayor.—Carried.

The Council then adjourned until eight o'clock this evening.

NEW YEAR'S FLOWERS.

It is a pretty custom to decorate the house with flowers and plants during the first days of the New Year, and it is not a very expensive custom either if you come to the right place for your decorations. A visit to the West End Greenhouses will show you that we have every flower and plant you want. There are roses, carnations, violets, lilies of the valley, daffodils, hyacinths, and narcissus, vieing with each other in sweetness. And then among the plants you will see pretty azaleas, cyclamens, ferns, of all kinds, and palms. A. Blade, Manager. Phone. 21B.

Wait for it—Watch for it.

Everyone likes to think of Peterborough as progressive — reaching out for advantages for the common weal of her citizens. The enterprise of Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co in securing the stock of the T. O. Rush Company yesterday at a price that permits of a special benefit to our citizens, was a lucky stroke of business for the town. The stock is practically new, the styles are this winter's, and the class of goods most dependable. Being so advantageously purchased, the clearing prices will be recognized as wonderfully low. In a few days Messrs. LeBrun & Co. will announce the date for commencing a rapid wholesale clearance of this stock at unprecedented bargains.

A PRESENTATION

To Rev. Father McColl by his Congregation.

Rev. Father McColl, of Ennismore, who was recently appointed Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, was yesterday morning made the recipient of an expression of appreciation by the members of his church. At the conclusion of mass Mr. Charles J. McDonald read an appropriately worded address to Rev. Father McColl, and Mr. William Crowe made the presentation of a well-filled purse. The reverend Father made a suitable reply, in which he referred to the pleasant relations that existed between himself and his people during his 9 years' stay amongst them, and the feelings of sorrow he felt at leaving them.

Rev. Father McColl will assume his new duties here on Sunday next.

PUBLIC VACCINATION.

Dr. Greer, Medical Health Officer, states that the physicians will be at the council chamber for the purpose of public vaccination at the same hours this week as they were on duty last week.

ASHBURNHAM BREVITIES.

The Civic Association meets Tuesday evening, Jan. 14th. There will be election of officers, and two important subjects of discussion.

Next Wednesday, Jan. 15th, the first regular meeting of the School Board will be held.

A great many are at present actively engaged in harvesting the ice crop.

Vaccination proceedings are going on quite satisfactorily, under the direction of our genial and energetic physician, Dr. Amys.

The public school concert is to be held on Friday, Jan. 31, in the town hall.

Buy Your Meats now.

Anyone wishing to buy beef by the quarter or in large quantities, should do so now as the probabilities are that we will see much higher prices in the very near future. Coarse grains of all kinds are very high, and few farmers are feeding stock for the market. We advise the public to avail themselves of the opportunity of buying at reasonable prices during the next few weeks. We are putting in a choice stock of Beef, Lamb, etc, and can guarantee you satisfaction at reasonable prices.

AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Rev. Dr. Torrance Makes a Feeling Reference to Deaths During the Year.

The services at St. Paul's church yesterday evening were of a memorial nature in memory of several members of the church who have been summoned away during the past week. It was a solemn occasion. The music was in keeping with the nature of the occasion and as the congregation commenced to move out at the close of the service the mornful strains of the Dead March in Saul pealed forth from the organ. During the past year there have been no fewer than 17 members and 7 adherents of St. Paul's church laid in their last resting place. The names of the deceased church members were read to the congregation by the pastor Rev. Dr. Torrance in the course of his very excellent discourse. Rev. Dr. Torrance took for his discourse the words, "O death where is thy sting? O grave where is thy victory?" The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. For as much as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Rev. Dr. Torrance first showed how the question of the apostle implies that there has been a victory. From the beginning death has had that victory, and sooner or later we must all fall before its stroke.

Rev. Dr. Torrance preached an excellent sermon from these passages, and in conclusion he directed his remarks to the work of death in St. Paul's church. He asked if it was not proper that their minds should be directed to such a subject as he had spoken on at the present time, when during the year 1901 there had been seventeen of the communicants of the church summoned to appear before their Maker. Besides these there had been seven adherents. They might have thought that with such a record the new year would have brought less sorrow amongst them, but three more persons identified with the congregation had passed away within the last twelve days. It was not his intention to speak of the dead, or to pass eulogies upon those who had been called home, but there was one of whom he ought to say a few words, because he had occupied a prominent place in the community, and was long and faithfully identified with the church. He referred to the late Mr. Roper, of whom it might be said that he never made an enemy nor never lost a friend. He wore the white flower of a blameless life, and always manifested an uncomplaining spirit, though in later years overcome with sorrow.

MR. MATCHETT'S DEMISE.

An Old Resident of Otonabee Passed Away Yesterday Evening.

At the ripe old age of 90 years, Mr. Robert Matchett, of Otonabee, passed away yesterday evening after an illness of about 24 hours. His demise occurred at the homestead, lot 19, concession 11, Otonabee.

The late Mr. Matchet was one of the early settlers in this part of the country. He was born in the county of Cavan, Ireland, in the year 1812, and at 12 years of age he came to this country, settling in the township of Cavan. After remaining there for a short time he moved to Otonabee, settling upon the farm where he spent the remaining years of his life. During his long residence in Otonabee, he made many warm friends and was always identified with everything that pertained to the advancement of the interests of the community. He was at one time a member of the Otonabee township council. He was identified with the Methodist church. He married a daughter of the late Adam Scott, who preceded him 23 years. There are left to mourn his demise three sons and two daughters. The sons are Messrs. James, of town; Creighton, of Otonabee, and Sandy, with whom deceased resided on the homestead. The daughters are Mrs. A. A. Stewart, and Mrs. John A. Bennett of Otonabee.

The funeral will take place from the family residence to-morrow at 1.30 p.m., to the Little Lake cemetery.

A DOURO RESIDENT.

Mr. Thos. E. Shannon Passed Away on Saturday Morning Last.

The Township of Douro lost one of its most prominent residents on Saturday morning, in the death of Thos. E. Shannon. The deceased had been ailing for about three weeks only, having been taken down with pneumonia. He was 42 years of age and was the son of the late Richard Shannon, of the same township. His widow, a daughter of Mr. James Petrie, of Otonabee, and two children are left to mourn his demise. The late Mr. Shannon was a Forester, an Orangeman and a member of St. Paul's congregation. The funeral took place this afternoon at one o'clock from his late residence, lot 3, concession 8, Douro, to Little Lake Cemetery.

THE ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Of the George Street Methodist Church.

Sermons by Rev. Mr. McIntyre of Napanee—Special Music by the Choir.

Anniversary services in connection with the George street Methodist church, were held yesterday, and are being continued to-day. The feature of yesterday's services were two excellent addresses by Rev. C. E. McIntyre of Napanee. Mr. McIntyre on both occasions preached to large congregations and delighted his hearers with able discourses. He has an excellent delivery, an easy manner, and the quality of portraying his ideas in a clear and comprehensive manner. Yesterday's services were also marked by special music by the choir.

In the morning Rev. Mr. McIntyre took as his subject, "The Transfiguration of Christ," his text being, "And after six days Jesus taketh with Him Peter and James and John, and leadeth them up into a high mountain by themselves; and he was transfigured before them."

The preacher spoke of the twofold nature of Christ—He received strength from an angel, and still all angels bow at His feet; and there are other instances of a like nature that were enumerated. The Transfiguration of our Lord is an event to which we should attach a great deal of importance. As to where the Transfiguration took place we do not know, but no importance need be attached to this, as long as we are certain that such an event did take place. The other circumstance was more important, viz., the solemn act of devotion that preceded the Transfiguration. Our Lord was sincere in this devotion, and nearly every instance in which our Lord is connected with any great act, there was some special preparation for it. Thus we are set an example for the need of strength for the emergencies of life. We should pray at all times; but when some principle is to be tried, when we are led by advertisity into the wilderness, or carried by prosperity to the high mountains, at such times we, like our Master, need to seek special aid from the Father.

The second important fact in the Transfiguration is the fact that there were witnesses. There were not many but they were reliable, and the speaker dwelt upon the virtues of Peter, James and John at some length.

Lastly, there was the magnificence of the Transfiguration. The three apostles, Peter, James and John, who reported it, each in his own style, give us to understand that it was sudden, grand and glorious. Still another circumstance was the appearance before them of Moses and Elias, and the part they took in the Transfiguration. From all this we are to learn to credit the divine mission of our Lord, the practical illustration of man's immortality, and an assurance of the comforting truth that we will know each other in the world to come. We will know our own loved ones—it would be sad, indeed, if we did not. We all have the opportunity, if we only take advantage of it, by following the example set for us by our Saviour.

A LOADED GUN.

The Old Mussle Loaders are Very Dangerous.

This is the season of the year when the small boy is rabbit shooting and fire arms are generally in use. Every precaution should be taken against acoident. Never take it for granted that a gun is unloaded. Don't point it at a person, whether it is loaded or not. It is a bad example and accidents may frequently happen. Through no act of carelessness on the part of anyone, an accident that might have been attended with serious results, came very nearly being recorded. Mr. Parker, who runs the bicycle repair shop, corner of Queen and Hunter streets, was repairing an old shot gun that was brought in for that purpose. He blew through the barrel from the muzzle and there was a circulation of air from out the nipple. He probed down the nipple with a wire, and there appeared to be nothing to satisfy him that the gun was loaded. When he held up the gun in a casual way it went off, and the contents came within an ace of his father-in-law, who was standing close by. It was a very narrow escape, and Mr. Parker has certainly learned a little more about guns.

CHURCH CHIMES.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

The services yesterday were most encouraging. A large number were present at the early communion. At the eleven o'clock service the church was well filled when Mr. Murphy spoke upon "Wings," which was illustrated by different species of birds. The service for men only in the afternoon was also well attended when the speaker spoke upon Esau's bad choice in selling his birthright. In the evening the church was crowded, chairs had to be placed in the aisle to seat the congregation. The Missioner spoke upon "Christ Our Advocate," selecting I. John ii, 1 for his text. A vivid description of a trial in court was given to illustrate the sinner standing before the bar of God for judgment. Witnesses such as conscience, the world, angels, and the Holy Spirit were introduced to give evidence for and against the two classes of sinners introduced. The sermon concluded with the famous trial of Warren Hastings in Westminster Hall and the burning charge of Edmund Burke on that occasion. The choir sang the anthem "Heaven is my Home" at the offertory, very nicely, Mr. Shepherd taking the bass solo. These special services will be continued this week at 4.15 and 8 p.m. To-night Mr. Murphy will speak upon the "Parable of the Sower."

Before Meredith, C.J.

Humphries v. Aggett.—Judgement (E. B. B.) In action tried at Peterborough, brought to have it declared that an instrument dated 7th January, 1852, made by Henry Hurl Humphries, sr., to Robt. N. Humphries, purporting to convey certain land, was never delivered, and, therefore, did not operate, and consequently that such land formed part of the estate of Henry Hurl Humphries, jr., to whom it was devised, subject to a life estate to Robert N. Humphries and his wife, by the grantor, who died in January, 1893; and also to set aside a conveyance of the land, dated 4th of May, 1898, made by Robert N. to defendant; and also to have defendant removed from his office of co-executor and co-trustee with plaintiff of the will of Henry Hurl Humphries, jr. The defendant, finding the conveyance of 1852 among his testator's papers, it is alleged, procured its registration and their conveyance of 1898. Held, that the conveyance made in 1852 was delivered and did pass the land to the grantee. All the words referring to assigns were struck out, and having regard to the kind of man Robert was shown to have been, and to the fact that he purchased and paid for the land, the idea was that if Robert died without issue it would revert to the grantor. There is nothing inconsistent with the view that the deed of 1852 was delivered, in the fact that the grantor, after the death of Robert and his wife, assumed a power to dispose of the land; and the non-registration is explained by considering the kind of man Robert was —shiftless and easily imposed upon. The conduct and acts of Henry Hurl Humphries, jr., and statements made by him as to Robert's ownership are inconsistent with the case plaintiff set up. Robert had the use and enjoyment from 1852 until his death, and the account kept by Henry Hurl, jr., after Henry Hurl, sr., handed him the deed of 1853, as well as the fact that permanent improvements were made and their costs deducted from Robert's rents are strong circumstances in the conclusion that Robert was the real owner. Henry Hurl, jun., does not appear to have made any claim to the land. The handing of the deed of 1852 over to Robert, which does not, however, appear to have been proved, have constituted a breach of trust. Robert had frequently demanded it, but it is to be regretted that defendant did not frankly inform his co-executor what had been done. The testator, having no estate in the land, nor being in possession, nor claiming it, the defendant was entitled to a conveyance of it from Robert, and is not a trustee for anyone. Action dismissed, but without costs. E. B. Edwards, K.C. for plaintiff. A. B. Aylesworth, K.C., for defendant.

ERRORS OF HISTORY

FICTIONS THAT FOR CENTURIES HAVE POSED AS FACTS.

Why the Colossus of Rhodes Could Not Have Spanned the Harbor—The Force of Leonidas at Thermopylæ. The William Tell Myth.

There have been woven into history many interesting stories that time and investigation have proved myths, but in spite of the efforts of the iconoclasts these mistakes of history still pass current with many people.

Probably one of the most affecting scenes connected with the making of literature is that described in the oft repeated story of the blind poet Milton dictating "Paradise Lost" to his daughters. Dr. Johnson, however, has been quoted as denying it. He said, furthermore, that Milton never even permitted his daughters to learn to read and write.

A favorite "piece" with western and southern schoolboys on recitation and exhibition days was a set of verses telling of the heroic stand of Leonidas and his brave "300" at Thermopylæ. The Abbe Barthelemy, who asserted that he had inquired minutely into the subject, wrote that, according to Diodorus, Leonidas had 7,000 men under him and that Pausanias gave the number of Leonidas' army as 12,000.

Did Cæsar say to the pilot:

"Why do you fear? You have Cæsar on board."

Many trustworthy historians declare that Cæsar never used the words quoted.

The inside of cigar box covers are sometimes ornamented with a picture of the Colossus of Rhodes, with ships in full sail passing between the outstretched legs of the gigantic statue. These pictures reflect the popular and what for centuries was the historical idea of the Colossus, which was accounted one of the seven wonders of the world. It may be interesting to know that all drawings of the statue are purely imaginary and, what is more, are modern, not ancient, efforts. The Colossus was erected in 305 B. C. The most trustworthy of ancient accounts of it is contained in a manuscript dating about 150 B. C., in which the height of the statue is given as 105 feet. The entrance to the harbor of Rhodes is 350 feet across, so that it was manifestly impossible that the legs of the Colossus should span the entrance to the port or that ships should sail beneath it.

As a matter of fact the Colossus was not built across the harbor, but on an open space of ground near it; but, for all that, it was a wonderful statue.

People whose sympathies are easily aroused have wept over the wrongs of Belisarius, the conqueror of the Vandals, who, many were taught, "begged his bread at the city gates" after having commanded victorious armies and been of much service to the state. The good old general was unquestionably an unfortunate and much abused man, but there is no proof that he begged his living at the city gates or elsewhere. Yet Van Dyke engraved him and David, the great Frenchman, painted him, and tragedies and romances were written around him in the belief that he did sit at the city gates a forlorn and disconsolate object with palm outstretched for alms.

The facts are, a conspiracy against the Emperor Justinian being discovered, two of Belisarius' officers confessed under torture that the old general was in the plot. He was condemned without further hearing, his property sequestrated, and he suffered imprisonment for six months. His innocence being established, Belisarius was released, and he died about a year later. But that he ever was reduced to the extremity of begging is declared to be absolutely untrue.

The schoolbook tale of William Tell shooting an apple from his son's head is also without foundation in fact. Tell's name doesn't even appear in the chronicles of Zurich, and the most ancient writing in which the story is mentioned bears date some 200 years after the event it pretends to describe. The story is a variation of an old Scandinavian saga. A similar bit of "history" is related of William of Cloudsley in England in the twelfth century.

It is denied also that Emperor Charles V. of Spain on his abdication adopted the habit of a monk and occupied himself in the manufacture of clocks. It is declared that he never ceased to be emperor de facto, and he never surrendered control of affairs of state.

Coming down to later times, the people of three different countries claimed three different men as inventors of the steam engine. In America there is a popular belief to this day that Robert Fulton built the first successful engine and steamboat. In England the Marquis of Worcester, who published an account of a steam engine in 1663, has received credit for the invention. In France Solomon de Caus (1615) was regarded as the genius who had given to the world a new motive power. Each of them may have conceived and worked out the idea of a steam engine without the slightest knowledge of what had been done in that direction before their day, but none of them might rightly lay claim to being the first in the field.

On April 17, 1543, Don Blasco de Garay launched a boat of 200 tons burden at Barcelona in the presence of the Emperor Charles V. The boat was propelled by steam and made ten miles an hour. She was called La Sanctissima Trinidada. The emperor gave to Don Blasco a handsome present, but did not regard the invention as practicable, and nothing came of it. From this it would seem that Fulton was centuries behind the times.—New York Mail and Express.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Morrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Don't Chide the Children.

Don't scold the little ones if the bed is wet in the morning. It isn't the child's fault. It is suffering from a weakness of the kidneys and bladder, and weak kidneys need strengthening—that's all. You can't afford to risk delay. Neglect may entail a lifetime of suffering and misery.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

strengthen the kidneys and bladder, then all trouble is at an end.

Mrs. E. Kidner, a London, Ont., mother, living at 499 Gray St., says:

"My little daughter, six years old, has had weak kidneys since birth. Last February I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Strong's drug store. Since taking them she has had no more kidney trouble of any kind. I gladly make this statement because of the benefit my child has received from this medicine."

WINE AND WATER.

A Simple Little Trick at Once Effective and Mysterious.

Here is a trick that is always effective, and, while it is very simple indeed, still it is bound to appear just a wee bit mysterious, and many, especially your little brothers and sisters, will be unable to explain it.

Take two ordinary claret glasses and fill one to the brim with claret and the other equally full with clear water.

Cover the top of the glass containing water with an ordinary visiting card so that there are no places around the edge uncovered by the card. Turn the glass upside down and place it on the top of the glass containing claret and adjust the glasses so that their edges meet exactly all the way around.

Now move the card slightly to one side so that there will be a little space at one side of the glasses inside uncovered by a card. At once a thin stream of claret will begin to rise through this space, not mixing with the water at all, but its edges clear and sharply defined. The water, too, will begin to descend into the glass containing the claret, a pure, glistening white stream against the ruddy red.

The stream of claret, too, rising through the sparkling white of the water presents a beautiful effect, and in a moment the claret will begin to spread about the top of the upper glass like the unfolding of a red rose and the water will spread in the bottom of the lower glass. The two fluids will not mix, but will present a delightful contrast of red and white with sharply defined edges.

In a very short time the claret and water will have changed places, the claret being in the upper gluss and the water in the lower. This is due to the difference in weight of the liquids; water, being the heavier, forces itself into the lower glass, and a portion of the claret is moved up to take the place of the descending water.

Eczema's Itch Is Torture.

Eczema's itch is torture, the skin seems on fire with the burning, stinging humour; at times it becomes almost unbearable, and in desperation you could tear the skin to pieces. You dare not exercise for fear of aggravating the itching, neither can you sleep, for no sooner does the body become warm than the trouble begins and instead of restful, refreshing, sleep, it is scratch, scratch, scratch, all night long. There is scarcely a moment's respite from this maddening malady at any time. Of course, you have tried nearly all the washes, salves, lotions and medicated soaps, but, like thousands of others, have been disappointed and disgusted.

Mrs. Ann McDonald, Kingsville, Ont., states: "For about three years I was a dreadful sufferer from Eczema. At times the patches of raw, flaming flesh would extend from my waist to my neck, and from the knees to the ankles. The intense itching almost drove me crazy, and though I tried all the local physicians, they could not even relieve the suffering. The flesh would crack open, and I do not believe that anyone ever suffered more than I did.

"I was told of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but did not believe that it could help me. After the fifth application of this preparation I began to feel the benefit of its soothing, healing effects, and now attribute a cure to the persistent use of this wonderful remedy. It is truly worth its weight in gold, and I never tire of recommending it to other sufferers."

You may be skeptical regarding the ability of Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure you. Most people are, after trying in vain to get relief from a host of remedies, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will not disappoint you. You will be surprised at the marvellous control which it has over all itching, burning inflammations of the skin, and the wonderful healing powers which it possesses. It takes time to thoroughly cure Eczema, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will do it. You will find relief after a few applications, and gradually, and naturally, the cure will follow. Besides being a positive cure for Eczema, Dr. Chase's Ointment comes useful in a hundred ways in every home for every form of skin irritation and eruption, chapped skin and chilblains. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 7

After the Wedding.

The Countess—You've no idea how embarrassed the count was when he proposed to me.

The Dear Friend—I heard it took considerable of your father's money to pay his debts.

Met More Than Half Way.

Dashaway—Well, old man, did you make up with your best girl?

Cleverton—Yes, but I thought I never would succeed in convincing her that I was wrong.—Brooklyn Life.

THREE PLUMP BABIES.

An Exhibition Which the Crusty Old Bachelors Thought Disgusting.

"Disgusting," said one old bachelor to the other.

"Isn't it?" said the other old bachelor to the one.

Three women had come into the street car at different intervals with babies of different intervals. The first baby was a lusty child with nerve testing lungs. The second was about a year old, and the mother, just a little bit embarrassed at the bachelors' glares, finally gained courage to take a bottle from a grip and plug up baby's mouth with a rubber neck. The third baby was the newest of them all and entered the car a mere white bundle in the arms of a dignified matron hardly out of short skirts.

Beginning to unwrap the bundle, which had been somewhat disarranged in the haste to embark, the proud mother first unfolded a cunning pair of blue worsted booties that might fit a grumpy old bachelor's thumb. Then, feeling the eyes of the world upon her, she showed baby's two fat legs, which were as pink as her own ears. Then the cunning sight was solemnly shut from all eyes by a procession of gowns all of white, laced, tucked, embroidered and plain, the fat legs kicking vigorously, and baby's laces bid them from sight.

Then the little mother sat the bundle upright and threw a soft cloak from the other end, disclosing a round face, a pair of blue eyes wide open in amazement and as pretty and baldheaded a baby from end to end as ever made a bachelor angry at his own lost opportunities. Then the three mothers smiled at each other's baby.

"Disgusting," said the bachelors. Then they went out on the platform, and one took a chew of tobacco and the other lighted the butt of a malodorous dead cigar he had been carrying.

Loss of Flesh.

If you find yourself falling below normal weight there is danger. The use of fish oils can temporarily add fat, but will never build up healthy tissue. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts through the blood and nervous system and carries new life and energy to every nook and corner of the body. It regulates the various organs of the body, makes the appetite good, adds healthy flesh and replaces the tissues wasted by disease. Gradually and naturally this food cure restores colour to the cheeks, increases the weight of the body, and thoroughly overcomes disease.

England's Last Lottery.

At 5 o'clock on Oct. 18, 1826, an immense crowd gathered at a hall in London to witness the last state lottery draw in England. The drawing of prizes on that occasion occupied less than two hours, whereas lotteries drawn some years previously were protracted for several weeks, the excitement being so great that doctors attended to let blood in cases where the proclaiming of winning tickets proved too overpowering for the holders.

From the days of Queen Anne lotteries had contributed largely toward the revenue, during the latter years bringing in from $1,250,000 to $1,500,000 per annum. The first public lottery held in England took place on Jan. 11, 1569. It was drawn at the west door of St. Paul's cathedral and continued incessantly, drawing day and night, till May 6 following.

Why He Was Single.

A good story is told of Sir John Tenniel, the famous English cartoonist. One day he was asked why he had never married.

"Well," he replied, "if I had married a girl she would always have wanted to be going about all over the place, and that would not have suited me, while, on the other hand, if I had married an elderly lady she would have worn a shawl, and that I could not have stood."

The Way the Money Goes.

Wife—I had to spend fifty of that five hundred for some necessary things.

Husband—Well, what are you going to do with the four hundred and fifty?

Wife—Oh, that goes for luxuries!—Judge.

Dear, Good Natured Soul.

"Bridget, were you entertaining a man in the kitchen last evening?"

"Will, mum, thot's f'r him t' say. Oi done me best wid th' m'terials at hand, mum."

Sixkiller's Arm a Deadly Weapon.

"Another man has been killed by a blow of the fist, which suggests the thought that at times the naked fist of a man, given proper impetus by a well developed biceps, is an exceedingly dangerous and destructive instrument," said a man who for many years lived at Vinita, in the Cherokee Nation.

"It recalls a bit of history local to the Indian Territory," he continued. "Not far from the Arkansas line there lived a half breed who went by the name of John Sixkiller. He was a bad man, but not bad in the ordinary southwestern way—that is to say, he was not a 'gun fighter,' although he enjoyed a general mixup immensely, and until the Cherokee council intervened he indulged in many such affrays.

"After three men whom he had 'laid out' had died of their injuries the council (tribal legislature) met and passed an act declaring that 'John Sixkiller's right arm is a deadly weapon' and that 'he is forbidden to use it against an adversary except to protect himself from death or great bodily injury.'"

Pussy's Sponge and Hairbrush.

Cats large and small make the most careful toilet of any class of animals, excepting some of the opossums. Lions and tigers wash themselves in exactly the same manner as the cat, wetting the dark, india-rubber-like ball of the fore foot and the inner toe, and passing it over the face and behind the ears. The foot is thus at the same time a face sponge and brush, and the rough tongue combs the rest of the body.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty. Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355.92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

AFFLICTED GENIUS.

Charles Kingsley was afflicted with stuttering.

Byron was possessed of a morbid fear of going out of his mind.

Thomas Carlyle was a chronic dyspeptic. A state of irritation appears to have been his normal condition.

Throughout his life Sir Walter Scott could only walk with a limp. As a boy he was afflicted with paralysis, which left him permanently lame.

Lord Nelson lost one of his eyes, and his left arm had to be amputated as the result of a wound sustained in one of his numerous engagements.

Alexander Pope was a hunchback, with a very caustic tongue, which once resulted in his being as good as told that he was "a crooked little thing that asks impudent questions."

Hogarth, the famous painter, had a prominent scar on his forehead, which was the result of an accident in his early days. He made this appear still more prominent in a portrait of himself which he painted with his own hand.

The face of Oliver Cromwell was disfigured with moles, pimples and warts. He must have been very proud of them, however, for when his portrait was being painted by Sir Peter Lely he swore he would not pay for it unless all these facial disfigurements were quite clearly shown.

STRETCH OUT.

Many a man is unable to stretch his arms or legs because of rheumatism. There is no excuse for this state of affairs. Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure will remove the disease in short order. In the case of Henry Hasler, Flinton, Ont., two bottles made him as sound as ever. He had suffered from muscular rheumatism in his arms and legs for two months and was perfectly helpless. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days' treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

Of Course She Was Glad.

"So you overcame that old antipathy of yours," her husband remarked, "and called on Mrs. Bobbles?"

"Yes."

"Do you think she was glad to see you?"

"I am sure of it."

"Ahem! You must have some reason for that belief outside of her assurances."

"I have. I had on the old dress that was made over twice, my hat was out of style, and my hair had become uncurled, while she had on a gown that could not have come from anywhere but Paris. Could she help being glad to see me?"—Leslie's Weekly.

OUR SUPPLY OF AIR

IN FIVE HUNDRED YEARS IT MAY BE ALL USED UP.

Some of the Things With Which Man May or May Not Have to Contend In His Desperate Struggle For Existence In the Future.

It seems that we or, rather, our descendants in a few hundred years may have to live without air or try to do so. An eminent British scientist has asserted that the oxygen supply of the world will be exhausted within the next 500 years, and oxygen is the vital force of the air as far as man is concerned.

Moreover, scientists generally admit that theoretically the oxygen in the atmosphere is diminishing. Every bucketful of coal burned in a furnace and every match struck uses up a portion of the world's supply of breathing air.

Scientists have made some very interesting speculations as to what would happen in the event of the world's oxygen becoming gradually used up. For instance, they say that with the decrease of oxygen in the air the heat of summer would become intense. This would not be the pitiless, parching heat of the desert. Moisture would hang heavy in the air. Steam would rise from the ground, and the sun would be veiled in clouds of vapor.

Plants would spring up and flower in a day and trees grow almost in a night. With time for adjustment the very luxuriance of vegetation would clear the air again and furnish breath to famished animal life. But the mischief, it is said, will have been accomplished in a few centuries. Alarm would spread too late. As oxygen becomes precious the entire human race would strive madly for some means of increasing it.

Every man would conserve his strength, because muscular effort requires the expenditure of much oxygen. Factories would not smoke any longer.

Huge electric plants would distill the seas into air. The banks of the ocean would be crowded with the humanity that would come to it to turn it by science from water to breath. Every year the waters would recede under the drain of the electrolysing process.

Man would become more puny with each generation. Death would confront the race, and pride of power and trade and achievement in art and learning would give way to a desperate struggle for life.

Certain animals, on the other hand, would thrive apace. Huge and brilliant fishes would swim the sluggish streams. Serpents would grow to monstrous size, and great frogs would croak in the swamps.

Indeed all of lower nature might reach its flower again before the death of man, as it did before his birth.

The sturdiest of the human species would survive longest. Scarcely on the last day would the last men be able to distinguish the faces of each other in the thick vapor. They would move about in the dense atmosphere with slower and slower steps. A torpor would creep over them, and they would die.

On the other hand, there may be sources of oxygen supply yet unknown to us. Man may invent an artificial process of freeing oxygen from its combinations. Or man may become a cold blooded animal and capable of existing upon an infinitesimal supply of oxygen.

Vegetation upon the earth would probably have to be swept away before our supply of breathing air gave out. In that case it is a problem whether man would not starve to death before asphyxiation came upon him.

As animal life is now constituted it cannot exist without oxygen. Vegetation, on the other hand, lives upon carbonic acid gas, which is useless to animals. This forms the main distinction between animal and vegetable life. Each supports a laboratory which works for the subsistence of the other.

Fish and other cold blooded animals live upon an infinitesimal amount of oxygen. They use it only in muscular effort. Their body heat is the same as that of the element in which they live.

Man, on the other hand, is not content with enough oxygen for this. He lives in a mean annual temperature of 55 degrees. He uses up a wasteful amount of oxygen in keeping his body temperature at 98 degrees. It is quite within the range of possibility that evolution may change all this. Naturally if a man's body temperature were low nature must provide some means for him to withstand summer heats. Perspiration might be more copious or, since we know theoretically that the sun's heat is diminishing, it may be that the mean temperature of the earth would be much lower by that time.

There are various makeshifts possible by which man might stave off oxygenless days. If he succeeded in tiding over a critical period into which he had got himself by wastefully using up his supply of breathing air, nature would come to his aid in time.

Processes of manufacture do not of course use up oxygen in the sense of destroying it. They cause it to combine with carbon to form carbonic acid gas.

If we find our supply of oxygen running short, we might invent an artificial way of converting vitiated air into good air again. Vegetation in its laboratory does this for us all the time.

We may imitate nature's laboratory. Having exhausted our fuel supply, we should depend upon electricity to furnish us the power. All the water on the earth is made up of hydrogen and oxygen in combination.

The oceans and rivers furnish a vast storehouse of oxygen if we can free this oxygen from the hydrogen. We can do this by electrolysis. The process is expensive, but in the face of a calamity like the death of the race we probably should not hesitate on that account.

One quart of water will furnish 500 quarts of oxygen approximately. This is enough to supply the normal man for from three to four hours.

Again, various processes of manufacture now free oxygen from its compounds in ores and allow it to combine with carbon to form carbonic acid gas. This is unnecessary.

As soon as oxygen becomes valuable oxygen from iron ores, for example, will not be locked up in useless products or in slag, but will be set free, so that instead of diminishing our supply we can alter some methods of manufacture so as to increase it.

Some scientists, however, do not believe that we shall continue to use up oxygen in manufacturing as we have for fifty years past. We can get heat without combustion. Electricity offers limitless supplies of heat and power which are not gained at all at the expense of our oxygen supply.

"Badly Crippled."

Rheumatism at its worst is a sort of living death. It chains a man to a chair or binds him to a bed, and metes out to him a daily martyrdom. At the best rheumatism is a painful malady, interfering alike with pleasure and business.

To cure rheumatism it is necessary to eliminate from the blood the acid poisons which are the cause of the disease. This is effectually done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It carries out of the blood the corrupt and poisonous accumulations which breed and feed disease. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands and sends an increased supply of rich, pure blood through vein and artery to strengthen every organ of the body.

"I had been troubled with rheumatism for twelve years, so bad at times I could not leave my bed," writes Mr. R. J. McKnight, of Cades, Williamsburg Co., S. C. "I was badly crippled. Tried many doctors and two of them gave me up to die. None of them did me much good. The pains in my back, hips and legs (and at times in my head), would nearly kill me. My appetite was very bad. Everybody who saw me said I must die. I took five bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four vials of 'Pellets,' and to-day my health is good after suffering twelve years with rheumatism."

THE HOME DOCTOR.

A handful of flour bound on a cut will stop the bleeding.

Ether, sprayed with an atomizer on the affected part, will often instantly relieve the pain caused by nauralgia.

Sometimes a rubbing with alcohol will rest tired feet, and it is also said that it is a sure preventive of a cold after getting the feet wet.

An almost infallible remedy for dysentery, it is said, is a decoction of blackberry roots and leaves, well boiled down in hot water, a gill of which is taken at each meal and at bedtime.

A simple remedy for warts consists of wetting them two or three times a day and then rubbing them with a piece of washing soda. In some cases they have been known to disappear under this treatment very rapidly.

A healing lip salve is made by melting white wax, one dram; sweet oil, one ounce, and spermaceti, one ounce. To this there may be added a piece of alkanet root for color, and, when cooling, a few drops of any extract for perfume.

Value of Rare Stamps.

"What's the use of collecting stamps?" sniffed the Practical Person. He leaned contemptuously over the album proudly brought out by his host. "What intrinsic value is there in a piece of paper that has been stuck on an envelope and smeared over with ink by a post-office clerk?"

"What value did you say?" repeated the owner of the album. "What value, eh? Well, what value is there in a collection of beer steins, or of old furniture a couple of centuries old, or of old armor? I'll tell you what value there is in stamps, without further embarrassing you."

He selected a scrap of paper, a clipping from the news—and offered it for the reading of the Practical Person.

"This," he said, "is the recent money result of the sale of a stamp collection."

Why She Was Silent.

A very silent old woman was once asked why it was she had so little to say. She replied that when she was a young girl she was very ill and could not talk for a long time. Whereupon she made a vow that if speech were given her once more she would never again say anything unkind of anybody. And thus she was as they found her.

He Was It.

The fresh young man walked into the restaurant and noticed a sign:

"This Counter For Clams and Oysters."

"Where is the counter for lobsters?" asked the young man.

"Oh, you can sit most anywhere!" said the waiter.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Iodine stains may be removed by wetting them thoroughly with strong ammonia water.

Cold starch is improved if there is added to every tablespoonful of starch half a teaspoonful of borax dissolved in a pint of water.

Every housekeeper should know that soap, as it is an alkali, sets vegetable and other stains and that therefore all stains should be removed before articles are put in the washtub.

Black lace may be washed in warm water to which a little borax has been added in the proportion of a teaspoonful to a pint. This lace should never be dried by the fire, as it will turn rusty. To sponge it use an old black kid glove.

If discolored linen articles are boiled in blue water two or three times, then put into clear water and afterward rinsed in blue water in which a small piece of whiting has been placed, it is said, it will will make them look worth your trouble.

To prevent black stockings assuming a greenish hue after being washed a few times, use in washing them a soap free of soda, and to the last rinsing water add a teaspoonful of good vinegar. Wring and clap into shape. A hot iron has a tendency to destroy the color, more particularly if they are damp.

Catarrh is a Germ Disease.

Science armed with the microscope, has established it a fact, and this conclusion renders obsolete the practice of treating Asthma, Catarrh and Bronchitis by stomach drugging, sprays, snuffs, etc. Such treatments are an utter failure because they cannot penetrate the delicate air cells of the lungs, or permeate the air passages of the nose and bronchial tubes where the germs of Catarrh have their stronghold. Catarrhozone is the only certain remedy. It is inhaled by the mouth and after spreading through all the respiratory organs is exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone kills the germs, heals the inflamed tissues, clears the head and throat in two minutes, and cures in a few hours. Nothing is so effective, pleasant and simple as Catarrhozone. Burke as a Bore.

The most eloquent essay carefully prepared beforehand when delivered by one wanting the orator's gifts may as a speech be an utter failure. Burke is perhaps the most striking example of this. He simply drove everybody away. This is well and amusingly described by Lord Erskine to the American embassador, Mr. Rush, who had asked him about Burke's delivery.

"It was execrable," said he. "I was in the house of commons when he made his great speech on American conciliation, the greatest he ever made. He drove everybody away. I wanted to go out with the rest, but was near him and afraid to get up. So I squeezed myself down and crawled under the benches like a dog until I got to the door without his seeing me, rejoicing in my escape. Next day I went to the Isle of Wight. When the speech followed me there, I read it over and over again. I could hardly think of anything else. I carried it with me and thumbed it until it got like wadding for my gun."

A Willing Martyr.

Schoolteachers sometimes ask their pupils queer questions, if one may believe a story told by the youngest member of the Withington family.

His mother one morning discovered a shortage in her supplies of pies, baked the day before, and her suspicions fell upon Johnny.

"Johnny," she said, "do you know what became of that cherry pie that was on the second shelf in the pantry?"

"Yes, ma'am," he replied. "I ate it. But I had to."

"You had to!" exclaimed his astonished mother. "What do you mean, child?"

"The teacher asked yesterday if any of us could tell her how many stones there are in a cherry pie, and I couldn't find out without eating the whole pie, could I? There's just 142."

Father's Idea of Shoes.

"Spell shoes," said the teacher.

"S-h-o-e-s," returned the little one promptly.

"Correct," said the teacher. "Of course you know what they are."

The little one nodded his head violently.

"My papa says," he announced, "that shoes are what drive the father of a family into bankruptcy."

POCKET COMPASSES.

Thousands of Them Sold Yearly to Hunters and Others.

"Pocket compasses," said a dealer in such things, "cost from 25 cents to $10 each, and they are made in various sizes, from tiny compasses half an inch or less in diameter up to those of about the size of a hunting case watch.

"Many compasses are carried in nickeled hunting cases. Some of the tiny open compasses are carried for a charm on watch guards.

"In the cheaper pocket compasses the needle turns on a brass bearing; in the costlier compasses on a bearing of agate. In either, of course, the needle will point north, but the compass with the agate bearing will wear much longer.

"A good pocket compass will last a lifetime. A considerable part of the cost of the more expensive pocket compasses may be due to the material used in them and to elaborateness of finish.

"A ten dollar compass, for instance, might have a pearl face, and so on, but a good compass, with an agate bearing, as good a compass, in fact, as a man needs, can be bought for $1.50.

"Every wise sportsman carries a compass, and compasses are carried by various other people. There are sold of pocket compasses of one sort and another thousands yearly."

A Cough Leads to a Coffin.

There's a striking similarity in these two words. Both are to be dreaded. Four T's is acknowledged by all to be the best lung remedy in existence. Large bottles 25c. at Ormond & Walsh's Drug Storte.

Harvard university derives its name from Rev. John Harvard, its earliest benefactor, who in 1638 bequeathed one-half of his estate, amounting to £800, for the endowment of the college. Harvard hall was built in 1765, Holworthy hall of brick in 1812 and Hollis Hall, also of brick, in 1764. Stoughton hall, being of the same dimensions and material as Hollis, was built in 1804, and a writer of 1817 states that "its appearance is somewhat in the modern style."

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

DOMESTIC SERVICE PROBLEM.

From the Montreal Witness.

Miss Gail Laughlin, in her recent report on domestic service, prepared under the direction of the United States Industrial Commission, discusses the difficulties. Coming to the question of remedies, she says that "household labour should have applied to it the business principles which are applied to other classes of labour," and the relation between employer and employee should be recognized as economic rather than personal. The services contracted for should be more carefully specified, fixed hours of labour should be established, so far as this is practicable, in household work, and trained service should be substituted for untrained. Training schools and an apprenticeship system are suggested and an account is given of the different training schools now existing in the United States.

Miss Laughlin says:

That there is a large and growing demand in this country for instruction, both practical and theoretical, in domestic science is made manifest by the fact that there is no difficulty experienced in securing positions as teachers by all well-prepared graduates from the normal courses in domestic science offered by technical schools.

The demand for such teachers comes from colleges, normal schools, public schools, private schools, industrial schools, hospitals, reformatories, Christian associations, and from settlements and other philanthropic institutions.

Unpalatable though it may be, there is much truth in the following statement by Miss Laughlin:

Naturally, employers desire better service. Naturally, too, they would prefer to obtain better service without making any concessions on their part, if possible. But already the demand for domestic workers, even for untrained domestic service, is greater than the supply. It is evident on the face of things that the situation will not be relieved by adding to the requirements made of employees. If more strenuous requirements are made along one line, there must be concessions which will more than counterbalance those made along other lines. The remedy must be found in making domestic service attractive to a large number of women by removing some or all of the objectionable features. In this way the supply of domestic workers will be so increased as to warrant the demand for trained and efficient service.

Miss Laughlin favours instruction in the public schools and colleges in cooking, the chemistry of food, and the broad general principles of household economics—the latter to be taught to boys as well as to girls. She gives a list of the colleges and universities that now offer courses in domestic science and urges more scientific study and investigation along this line. In conclusion, she says:

To summarize the conclusions reached: Conditions in domestic service are at present unsatisfactory. The testimony of people generally, and the facts stated by those who come most closely in touch with domestic labour, seem to establish that in a large proportion of cases the service rendered by domestic employees is unsatisfactory, and that the supply of competent domestic workers is far below the demand. In short, domestic service is largely in the hands of untrained and incompetent workers, and is unpopular with the majority of intelligent women wage-earners. The reason for this is not found in the wages paid, for it is admitted that wages in domestic services are, all things considered, higher than are the wages paid in many more popular lines of work. The reason is found in other conditions which exist, and primarily in the fact that the domestic employee is looked on as a personal servant rather than as an employee hired to perform specific service. Because of this view there is no fixed standard of work, the hours of labour are indefinite, the employee's entire time is subject to the control of the employer. The position of the employee in the household is that of a semi-dependent, her social position is that of an inferior.

To improve the character of domestic service, the supply of intelligent workers must be increased; to increase the supply of intelligent workers, conditions must be so modified as to make the conditions in domestic service conform, to as great an extent as possible, to conditions existing in other industries, and especially so modified as to put the social position of the domestic employee on a par with that of other wage-earners. In other words, domestic service must be put on a business basis. This can be done only through co-operation on the part of both employers and employees, co-operation based on a better and more scientific conception of the character of household labour. The process must be primarily educational, both as regards employer and employee. Instruction in the public schools in the elementary principles which bear upon household affairs would do much to give to the next generation a better understanding of the importance of household labour and of the principles underlaying it. The establishing of training schools in which young girls could obtain training in house work as a trade would, in conjunction with the offering by employers of business conditions, bring into domestic service an intelligent class of workers trained to perform the work for which they were hired. The scientific study and investigation of household labour in the higher institutions of learning would, in time, result in the discovery and application of better methods in household labour, and tend to improve household service, as such study and investigations have resulted in respect to agricultural labour.

The evils existing in domestic service arise chiefly from the failure to apply to such service modern economic principles. Those evils must be remedied by the slow process of evolution through education.

ONE OF BARNUM'S SCHEMES.

How He Got His Posters Into Canada Without Paying Duty.

"One of P. T. Barnum's most successful feats of bamboozlement," said a New Yorker, "was played upon the Canadian customs authorities. The veteran showman's tours were always planned far in advance, and one winter he made up his mind to take his great circus and menagerie through Canada during the summer after the next. This gave him about two years in which to mature his plans.

"One important item of a showman's expenses consists of his advertising placards, and Mr. Barnum was always lavish with these gaudy prints. He was aware that the Canadian government imposed a high duty on this class of imports, and yet he wanted to paint Canada red, yellow, blue and green with a lavishness that no showman had ever displayed there before.

"Now, there was no printing house anywhere in Canada that could begin to turn out the kind of work that Mr. Barnum required either in size, color or finish. Nevertheless his immense posters came under the same classification as much smaller lithographs and printed colored matter did, and he knew that the Dominion custom authorities would not abate one jot of the full toll, but would rather rejoice at the opportunity to mulct the foreigner who would convey so much money out of a country.

"So Barnum studied the question awhile and finally sent on at once a great lot of circus posters of the most gorgeous designs whereon yellow lions and clawed striped tigers and brown bears fought with blue hippopotamuses till gore flowed into beautiful crimson backgrounds. No agent appeared when the posters were detained by the Canadian customs officers to pay the duty. They were accordingly held for twelve months, then duly advertised for sale for three months more and finally put up at auction with a lot of other unclaimed parcels and were designated in the catalogue merely as 'colored prints.'

"Nobody took any interest in them when the auctioneer called for a bid, and finally the whole batch was knocked down for a song to a secret agent of the circus who had been sent up by Mr. Barnum for that express purpose."

Works Like a Charm.

Hanson—Wonder how it is that the Jugginsons get along so harmoniously. They never have any quarrels, apparently.

Burt—The reason is simple enough. Jugginson always lets Mrs. J. have the last word and she never tries to prevent him from having his own way.—Boston Transcript.

Mrs. Wunder—It seems to me that that music teacher is always asking for money.

Mr. Wunder—That's perfectly natural. His scale, you know, begins and ends with "dough."

Two Views.

"It is hard to lose one's relations," said the seedy individual with a mourning band on his hat.

"Hard?" echoed the man whose check is good for a million. "Why, sir, it's simply impossible."

ONE ON THE DENTIST

HIS ADVERTISING SCHEME WORKED A LITTLE TOO WELL.

It Brought Down Upon Him About the Coolest Customer He Ever Encountered and the Customer Got a Long Way the Best of It.

"I'm through with freak advertising," said the young dentist. "I've had my fling at trade secured through illegitimate tricks, and I've sworn off from further cultivation of the public in ways that are dark.

"It was about six months ago that I first resorted to irregular methods of securing patronage. Things were going fairly well with me then, but I made up my mind that I was entitled to still more business and in order to secure my just deserts availed myself of one of those idiotic advertising schemes. I wrote letters to total strangers whose names had been picked up haphazard out of directories and newspapers and inclosed bills for services rendered. These letters were all modeled on the same copy. In them I suavely expressed my hope that the cuspids and bicuspids of my unknown patrons had been in good condition since I last treated them, and I generously suggested that if they so desired I would be pleased to have them call and undergo a final dental examination as a guarantee of thorough satisfaction before the payment of the inclosed bills, which ranged from $25 to $50.

"Of course I never expected to get any money out of these bills. My object in sending them was to arouse curiosity among the fictitious debtors, who, having never even heard of me professionally or otherwise, would naturally be anxious to find out something about me and the strange circumstances of their unmerited bills. I had pursued this plan for about four months with tolerable success, when I sent out a bill and the stereotyped letter to a man who lived on West Twenty-third street and may be called Whitman for the purpose of the story. His bill was for $25. That letter, like all the others, was only a stray shot fired at a very elusive target, and the chance of getting a reply was only one in a thousand. In that particular case the long shot won, and two days after mailing the letter I was honored with a call from Mr. Whitman. He had a decidely strenuous manner, and his opening remarks fairly swept me off my feet.

"'Hello, doc,' he said briskly. 'I got your letter yesterday, and I was mighty glad to see that you are disposed to be so accommodating about that work you did on my teeth last week. The fact is you did an infernally poor job. The plugs have all fallen out already, and you warranted them for ten years. That being the case, it's nothing more than common justice that you should fix me up again. I had intended to kick against paying your bill, but since you are willing to rectify your mistake, why, I'll give you another trial, and if you do all right the second trip I'll pay you the $25 without a murmur.'

"I stared at Mr. Whitman in amazement. Quite certain was I that never before had I met the gentleman, and consequently I was positive that I had never plugged his teeth. On the impulse of the moment I said as much.

"'My dear sir,' I gasped, 'you must be mistaken in your dentist. I have no recollection of having done any work for you.'

"Mr. Whitman glared at me ferociously. 'Oh, ho,' he growled, 'so you are going to try to deny your butchery, are you? You're going to try to put it off on somebody else, are you? Well, sir, you can't do anything of the kind. Fortunately I've got your bill right here to prove that you and nobody else did it. If you didn't tinker with my teeth, you have no business to send me a bill for dental services. But you did send me a bill, and for $25, too, so you can't go back on your own work.'

"Without a doubt Mr. Whitman was the coolest customer I ever met. If he had not been quite so brazen, I think I should have had the audacity to insist that there was some mistake, and I should have trumped up some explanation that would have seemed half way plausible; but, as it was, his nerve far exceeded my own, and his high handed attack so thoroughly undid me that for the life of me I couldn't muster the courage to invent one single lie. He saw his advantage and followed it up boldly.

"'I'm ready for you to go to work right now,' he said, 'and I see that you have no patients waiting and can soon be ready too. We may as well get at it straight off. I always like to get a disagreeable job over with as soon as possible.'

"As the gentleman delivered himself of this bit of wisdom he plumped himself down in the operating chair and opened his mouth to my inquiring gaze. The first look amazed me. I never saw such a set of teeth. Clearly somebody had been pegging away at them and quite recently, too, and the bungling the incompetent workman had been guilty of was frightful to contemplate. He had bored and filed and gouged recklessly, and the task Whitman had called upon me to do was to fill the cavities and otherwise repair the damage inflicted by my obstreperous predecessor. Whitman noted my expression of disgust.

"'I'm not surprised that you feel like kicking yourself around the block,' he said. 'You certainly must admit that it is about the sorriest job ever inflicted on a man's mouth. Lord, I should think you'd lie awake nights, lambasted as you must be by your conscience for such diabolical butchery.'

"I suppose I could have denied the job even then and won out in my contention, but one glance at that infernal bill settled me, and I went to work. It took me six mortal hours to get Mr. Whitman's mouth into respectable shape. He fairly beamed upon me when the ordeal was over.

"'You're the right kind of chap, after all,' he said. 'I guess you do know your business in spite of your first blunder. I don't know what was the matter with you the other day. You must have been rattled or something. Here, sir, is your $25.'

"Mr. Whitman laid down the money and clapped on his hat and was out of the office before I could say 'scat,' and I sat down and wept over the paltry sum I had received for a difficult piece of work that would have been cheap at $75."—New York Times.

Substantial Consolation.

A Georgia girl wrote to her lover:

"Dear John—I cannot marry you; but please don't kill yourself!"

To which John made answer as follows:

"Dear Molly—No danger. I've just won $50 on a horse race!"—Atlanta Constitution.

The "Devil's Own."

Who is the patron saint of lawyers? is a question that might pertinently be asked on a day when both bench and bar attend their devotions prior to the opening of the law courts. According to one old story, a famous Brittany lawyer once appealed to Rome for the appointment of a saint. The pope proposed that he should go round a certain church blindfolded and lay hold of the saint nearest to hand. Following this suggestion, he stopped and grasped a certain figure, crying, "This be our patron saint!" When the bandage was removed from his eyes, he found that, although he had stopped before the altar of St. Michael, to his horror he had laid hold not of St. Michael, but of the figure under St. Michael's feet, the devil; hence of course the nickname of the inns of court volunteers, the "Devil's Own."

SELECT THEIR OWN COFFINS.

Many Persons Do This While They Are In Good Health.

The undertaker nodded in a friendly manner. "You look healthy enough," he said.

"I am healthy," laughed the caller.

"Ah," said he, "then you didn't come to pick out a coffin for yourself?"

"Hardly," was the startled reply. "Do people come here for that purpose?"

"Lots of 'em," said he. "A good many more people pick out their own coffins now than when I first started in business. Then it was a novelty for a man to come in and ask to be shown a comfortable coffin that would fit him, but now such requests are common. Often people in seemingly good health undertake such a quest. They seem to regard the selection of a casket of equal importance with the making of a will and do not deem it advisable to wait until sickness comes before making preparations for the inevitable.

"I have on my order book now no fewer than twoscore commissions to provide prospective customers with a certain style of coffin whenever it may be needed. These coffins are always chosen with strict attention to detail in material and trimming, and some of the future occupants drive a pretty close bargain for their last house. This haggling seems fearfully bad form in persons who will be all over and done with when the commodity in question is brought into requisition, and one cannot help but wonder why they don't wait and let their survivors attend to the scrapping.

"But not all the people the purchase of whose coffins is personally conducted come to me. Occasionally I go to them, and I am no longer surprised to receive a summons to bring my samples to invalids who are unable to leave the house, but are unwilling to trust the final disposition of their bodies to their friends.

"There are some who go a step beyond the selection of a coffin, who buy it outright and store it away in their own home. As a rule all these ultra particular people are willing to trust to the honesty of the undertaker, and the fraternity honors the confidence by fulfilling to the minutest detail their antemortem instructions."

Sayings About Breadcrumbs.

In the days when the "bread loaf" was dear careful mothers had a set of thrift sayings which are seldom heard in this time of the big, cheap loaf. Crumbs were regularly swept up and kept for some useful purpose. If a child threw crumbs in the fire, the old fashioned mother lifted a warning finger and said, "If you throw crumbs in the fire, you are feeding the devil." Children were told that the better part of a loaf was the crust, and when a child was sent to the shop for bread the order was to ask for "a crusty loaf." If a child left its crust, came the warning: "Yes, my lady (or my lad), you'll want for a loaf some day. You'll find hunger's a sharp thorn."

THE LIBERAL LEADERS

Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman Virtually Accepts Rosebery.

AN OVATION TO MISS HOBHOUSE

London Liberals Met and Received Lord Rosebery's Letter With Cheers, Hoots and Hisses Mingled, But Liberal Leader Invited Him to Public Life on Present Liberal Platform.

London, Jan. 14.—The inaugural meeting of the London Liberal Association, at St. James' Hall, last night, has been awaited with great interest, principally because it was probable that light would be thrown upon the future relations between Lord Rosebery and the Liberal party. Taken as a whole, the demonstration could hardly be taken as an enthusiastic welcome to Lord Rosebery's reappearance in public life.

Lord Rosebery was not present at the meeting, at which Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Liberal leader in the House of Commons, and Earl Spencer, were the principal speakers. The temper of the meeting was distinctly hostile to the ex-Premier. The speech of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman clearly indicated that if Lord Rosebery returned to the Liberal fold he must come unreservedly and in full accordance with the present policy of the Liberal party.

The hall was crowded. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Earl Spencer were greeted vociferously. Miss Hobhouse, who was the first person to agitate regarding the condition of the concentration camps in South Africa, was called to the platform, and received an ovation.

In the meantime, pamphlets denouncing Lord Rosebery as a traitor to the party were thrown broadcast from the galleries. The reading of Lord Rosebery's letter of regret was received with mingled cheers, hoots and hisses, the latter predominating.

In his letter, Lord Rosebery said he hoped that the meeting would aim to secure the unity of "common-sense Liberalism," to which the writer hoped he had contributed in his recent speech at Chesterfield.

SURPRISED AT DAWN.

Major Woolmarans and Forty-one Other Boers Captured.

London, Jan. 14.—General Kitchener reports to the War Office that Col. Wing surprised a laager at Boschman's Kraal, twenty miles from Ermelo, at dawn Saturday, and captured 42 Boers, including Major Wolmarans and two officers of the Staats Artillery.

To End the Boer War.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—The Chicago branch of the American Transvaal League adopted last night a petition calling upon President Roosevelt to enforce the neutrality law. A large number of judges, lawyers and other prominent men signed it. The memorial sets forth that if the augmentation of Great Britain's military supplies (horses and mules) from New Orleans were stopped, the South African war would come to a speedy end.

Successful Night Marches.

London, Jan. 14.—Gen. Bruce Hamilton has returned to Ermelo from a ten days' expedition on the Swaziland border, where, in four night marches, 105 Boers were accounted for. The enemy has become so thoroughly scared by the presence of the columns that he is careful to keep out of striking distance, and the British have to rely more than ever on night marches. The strain on the men and the horses is great, but the system adopted by Gen. Hamilton gives the maximum of mobility and minimum of discomfort to the troops. Each man carries two days' rations and extra horses carry one day's rations. As the veldt at present provides excellent grazing for the animals, a force is enabled to operate at least three days. In the meantime wheeled transport follows independently and joins the mounted troops as soon as possible.

Blockhouses Have Dogs.

Cape Town, Jan. 14.—Most of the blockhouses in Cape Colony now possess a dog. A member of the colonial parliament, who traveled by rail from Kimberley to East London, says the animals are not "on the strength" of the blockhouses, but are kept as pets. The soldiers, with their innate love for dogs, collect the animals on their own initative as companions. These dogs are probably useful, however, as four-footed watchmen.

True Bill Against Krause.

London, Jan. 14.—The grand jury to-day found a true bill against Dr. Krause, the former Governor of Johannesburg, on the charge of inciting Cornelius Broeckeman, the ex-public prosecutor of Johannesburg (who was executed Sept. 30 last), to murder John Foster, an English lawyer, who was attached to Lord Roberts' staff.

An Editor's Daughter

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—Miss Florence Cameron, who has been commissioned as one of the nurses to accompany the third contingent to South Africa, is a daughter of Mr. John Cameron, editor of The London Advertiser.

Recalled by Death.

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 14.—Trooper McDonald of Prince Albert received a letter from home Friday telling him that all at home were well, and on Saturday morning he received a telegram announcing his father's death. He immediately resigned from the C. M.R., and left for home.

Corps Over Strength.

Halifax, Jan. 14.—The Field Hospital Corps, being over strength, three members were transferred to the C.M.R. yesterday.

Peace Propaganda.

Vienna, Jan. 14.—The late Jean De Bloch, Russian Councillor of State, who died at Warsaw, Jan. 6, has bequeathed 500,000 roubles to charity. These bequests include 50,000 roubles for the propaganda of his peace ideas.

TO BE BURIED IN ENGLAND.

Remains of the Late Hon. R. R. Dobell Not to Be Brought to Canada.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—Information has been received here that the remains of the late Hon. R. R. Dobell will be buried in England. Lord Strathcona will represent the Canadian Government at the funeral.

Verdict of Accidental Death.

Folkestone, England, Jan. 14.—A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of the Hon. Richard Reid Dobell, the Canadian Minister without portofolio, who was thrown from his horse and killed near here on Saturday last.

Anglo-Canadian Sympathize.

London, Jan. 14.—At yesterday's meeting of the Canadian trade section of the London Chamber of Commerce, of which Mr. Dobell was the prime mover, Lieut.-Col. Laurie, M.P., presiding, a resolution was passed, conveying deep sympathy to Mrs. Dobell and family in their great loss.

Cabinet Condolences.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—There was a Cabinet council yesterday afternoon at which all the ministers were present. A resolution of condolence with Mrs. Dobell will be adopted by the Cabinet and forwarded to England at once.

SITE OF CANADA'S CAPITAL

Is Referred to by Secretary of State at Ottawa's Inaugural on Monday.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—The Secretary of State, Hon. R. W. Scott, occupied a seat beside Mayor Cook at the inaugural meeting of the city council yesterday. In 1852 Mr. Scott in referring to what the city would be fifty years hence, said that he trusted it would still be the seat of Government. Still it required no prophetic eye to see the star of Empire was moving westward. Fifty years hence Canada would have 20,000,000 population, and of these 10,000,000 would be west of Lake Superior. But he hoped that notwithstanding this the loyalty of the people would still stand by the seat of the capital, which was selected by the greatest ruler the country had ever known. But that there would be an agitation for moving the capital westward was a certainty.

Farmer Takes His Own Life.

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 14.—Michael Ruttan, aged 64, a Frontenac County farmer, in jail here awaiting trial on a charge of incest, committed suicide by hanging, using a leather waist belt and a large roller towel for the purpose. He fastened the belt around his neck, slipping it through the towel, and fastened the towel to the iron railing of the landing on the second floor, and jumped off. He was a widower, and connected with some of the best families in the county.

Killed by a Falling Plank.

Toronto, Jan. 14. — The Morse Soap Works was the scene of a fatal accident yesterday morning, as a result of which William Corbett lies dead at 48 Munro street. Corbett was engaged on the ground floor, when some workmen on the second floor accidentally dropped a plank, which struck him on the head, inflicting injuries from which he died about 5 o'clock last evening.

No News of Miss Stone.

London, Jan. 14.—Wiring from Constantinople, the correspondent of The Daily Chronicle, says there is no news of Miss Stone, the captive American missionary, and that the delegation which some days ago left Salonica for the interior to meet Miss Stone's captors, have not yet met the bandits.

Second Attempt Succeeded.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 14.—J. H. Enbody, an American, aged 24, suicided yesterday at Arcola. He took two ounces of laudanum, and left this message in a magazine: "Advise relatives in Ames, Nebraska, of my death." No reason is given for the act, which is the second attempt in two weeks.

Let Act Be Enforced.

Winnipeg, Jan. 14.—The following resolution was passed at a citizens' mass meeting last night in St George's Church: "Resolved that in the opinion of this meeting any delay in putting the liquor act in operation, such as would be caused by again referring the question to the people, would be unfair, un-British and unjust to the majority of Manitobans who have waited so many years for satisfactory legislation, and have spoken in an emphatic way on it, on at least two occasions. This meeting demands that the liquor act, the proclamation of which was held over until the decision of the Privy Council should be at once proclaimed to come into force June 1, 1902."

Manitoba's Parliament.

Winnipeg, Jan. 14.—Last evening's session of the Legislature was not very lengthy; the only business was the speeches of J. T. Gordon and James Argue, who respectively moved and seconded the reply to the speech from the throne.

Whitewear and Remnants

A strong combination that should bring many people to Sutcliffe & Sons : : :

—THE WHITEWEAR DISPLAY with its increasing interest, and how could it be otherwise?—so grand a display, so great an assortment of styles. Such tempting prices for the dainty conceits in Ladies' Lingerie has never before been shown in Peterborough, and never were they shown at such prices. We would say anticipate your spring and summer wants. Then come—but come anyway and see the magnificent ranges. Then you'll be sure to anticipate your future wants.

NOW FOR REMNANTS! Remnants marked for a swing. A busy season with big selling has made many Remnants. Remnants make lots of work and run into a pile of money. We don't like work, (unnecessary work) and we do like the use of money—that's one reason we run this business on a cash basis. Well, you can buy lots of Remnants for little money. They go grouped on the following tables Tuesday morning 8.30 a.m. :—

TABLE NO. I.

Remnants of Laces, Remnants of Ribbons, Remnants of Veilings, Remnants of Embroideries and Insertions, Remnants of Chiffons, Remnants of Nets, etc. You know the multitude of uses these Remnants can be put to. None marked to make money on—it's your turn for the profit.

TABLE NO. II.

A Table of Odds and Ends—one, two, or probably three of a kind—put at a get out price. It's a number of these lines that will occupy Table No. II.

TABLE NO. III.

TABLE NO. IV

Another large Table full to overflowing with the result of big Dress Goods Mantle Cloth and Silk selling. We have sold bounteously in this department, and we have been more than usually liberal in the remnant prices. Dress Good lengths from 1 yard to 8 yards. Silk Remnants from ½ of a yard to blouse lengths. Mantle Cloths from 1 yard to 3½ yards.

And the Remnants don't stop at this. Every counter will have more or less remnants or odds and ends that will appeal to your buying sagacity.

COME EARLY! Always a choice in Remnants, though we think all these Remnants choice at price marked.

Distinguished Germans Publish Obscene Sheets.

EMPEROR ORDERED REMOVAL

The London Times Says That "In Coarseness, Obscenity and Venom They Are Without Parallel in Modern Times"—Not Gutter Sheets But Sold at Stations on State Railways.

London, Jan. 14.—A remarkable article appeared in yesterday's Times under the caption of "Literature of German Anglophobia," recounting the character of the anti-British cartoons which have appeared in the German newspapers, which, The Times says, "in coarseness, obscenity and venom are without a parallel in modern times."

The Times' article, which is two columns long, says: "These papers are not gutter-sheets, but are sold everywhere at the stations of the state railroads, even at Potsdam station, where the Emperor is constantly traveling. He was finally obliged to personally order their removal."

"Neither are these papers anonymous. One of the most infamous of all, entitled 'The Boer War,' bears on the title pages the names of persons distinguished in the literary and artistic world of Germany. From a purely technical standpoint the paper is an art production, but it is difficult to find words to convey a notion of the filth which its cultured artists and writers venture to lay before its cultured German readers. British soldiers are represented as robbing the dead. Mr. Chamberlain's state coach is depicted as a cart laden with skeletons, and King Edward is shown dead drunk in his bedroom, receiving the news of Cronje's surrender. But, the crowning piece is a cartoon entitled 'Hero Worship.' The then Princess of Wales, Queen Victoria and the Prince of Wales standing, with the young princesses by her side, is decorating a youthful soldier. The legend underneath reads textually:

"'An English Princess decorating the youngest soldier in the British army with the Victoria Cross, because, although only thirteen, he has already outraged eight Boer women.'

"This obscenity, sold in respectable shops, was eagerly bought by the public, and lies on fashionable drawing-room tables."

The wisdom of the publication of the article at this juncture is much questioned. The Star says:

"The Times yesterday, of all days, begins a series of articles on the offensive German caricatures. The Times ought to hesitate before it deliberately flogs the passion of the people. Are our publicists mad? Can they not see the abyss towards which they are hounding this long-suffering nation?"

Kaiser's Envoy Sees King.

London, Jan. 14.—The court circular announces that Admiral Baron Von Zenden-Bibran, chief of the naval Cabinet of Emperor William, has been received in audience by King Edward and that he delivered a letter from the German Emperor.

The Times suggests that the letter is intended to assuage the present present political estrangement.

Give Ample Approval.

London, Jan. 14.—The morning papers, commenting on Chamberlain's latest utterance give ample approval.

FOLLOWS PRINCE BISMARCK,

German Chancellor Says No Deviation Will Be Made in Policy.

Berlin, Jan. 14.—Yesterday in the Reichstag Chancellor Von Buelow disclaimed all desire to slight the Catholics, saying the Government policy was neither Protestant nor Catholic, just as his policy was neither Liberal nor Conservative. "I know," added the Chancellor, "only one policy, just as I know only one single individual nation. The questions at issue in the eastern provinces are not religious, but are national. Now that these national conflicts are forced on us, only two possible courses are open—either to allow ourselves to be vanquished without a struggle or to protect our skins. The Polish question is the most important before the nation, and on its settlement depends the development of the immediate future of our Fatherland."

The Chancellor concluded with assuring the Germans of East Prussia that the Government would not deviate in the slightest from the track laid out by the "greatest German," the late Prince Bismarck.

Silent on Modus Vivendi.

St. Johns, Nfld., Jan. 14.—The colonial legislature will meet Feb. 18. The Colonial Government has, up to the present time, received no request from the British Cabinet for the renewal of the French shore modus vivendi, which expired Dec. 31, 1901. It is believed in official circles here that the cabinets of France and Great Britain are consulting over the prospect of affecting an arrangement of this question more acceptable to Newfoundland.

Lasts a Lifetime.

That is just what they say of Vapo-Cresolene. The vaporizer is practically indestructible, and the Cresolene is certainly not expensive. This way of treating affections of the throat is most economical, and is also most effective. Our little picture illustrates how it's used. You put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light lamp beneath, and then breathe-in the soothing, healing vapor. For whooping-cough and croup it's a perfect specific. 6

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. Vapo-Cresolene Co., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Not Much Doing on Monday—First Petitions Asking For a Prohibitory Law Were Presented.

Toronto, Jan. 14.—The session of the Legislature yesterday lasted twenty minutes, and was attended by a scanty House. Considerable business was, however, transacted, and promise given that the work would be facilitated more rapidly than usual. Another large batch of petitions from Methodist congregations in accordance with an organized plan, asking for a prohibitory liquor law, were received. An important bill introduced by the Premier confirms a new agreement with the Canadian Niagara Power Company, extending the time for the completion of their work. The public accounts are expected by the end of the week, and in the event of their being presented the budget speech may be expected early next week.

Bills Get First Reading.

Premier Ross moved the first reading of the bill confirming the agreement of the Victoria Niagara Falls National Park. It will receive its second reading on Thursday, as will also these bills introduced by the Attorney-General: Bill respecting the temporal statutes relating to property and civil rights, incorporated with the statute law of Ontario; bill to provide for the revision of the statute law; bill to amend the Marriage Act; bill respecting mortmain and the disposition of lands for charitable uses; bill to amend the Manhood Suffrage Registration Act; bill to amend the Juror's Act.

The Premier announced that the Committee on Standing Orders would meet to-day, so that the private bills could be brought down at an early date.

The Striking Committee presented its report to the House naming the various standing committees. There are few changes from last year, and the report was adopted. Hon. J. T. Garrow goes on the Legal Committee, Committee on Agriculture and Colonization and several others.

THORNTON'S DEPOSIT

The Threshold of Parliamentary Life Seems Fatal to Him.

MADE HIS DEPOSIT PERSONALLY

The Conservative Candidate Has Committed the Identical Violation of the Election Law That Caused All the Trouble in Queen's County, N. B.—In That Case the Liberal Lost His Seat.

Bowmanville, Jan. 14.—Consternation reigned yesterday in Conservative circles in West Durham, because, after all the litigation in connection with the irregularities in the last election in this riding, it has become known to them that Charles Jonas Thornton, the Conservative candidate, has committed the identical violation of the election law that was committed by Mr. King, the Liberal candidate in Queen's County, New Brunswick, namely, personally paying the election deposit, instead of doing it through his regularly appointed financial agent, Mark Munday. At the nomination here on Wednesday last Mr. Thornton paid his deposit himself, having previously taken the precaution to get from the bank two hundred one-dollar Dominion of Canada bills, instead of depositing a marked check, as was done at his last nomination by his solicitor, Mr. R. R. Loscombe. It is surprising that Mr. Thornton should have made this irregular deposit, for section 143 of the Dominion elections act plainly states that no payment except with respect to the personal expenses of the candidates shall be made by or in behalf of any candidate otherwise than through an agent.

These particulars are published in a Statesman extra issued last night with this comment: "The facts about Mr. Thornton's deposit for this election are as herein stated, but, as everyone in West Durham knows, Robert Beith would not take any such advantage as was taken by the Conservative candidate in the Queen's County case. The Liberals voted in the House of Commons for a motion condemning the action of the returning officer in that instance. They also condemned the Government of the day for sanctioning the action of the returning officer. The election in West Durham will be honorably conducted, but it is well for the electors to be apprised of these facts before they go to the polls on Wednesday, Jan. 15th."

PARLIAMENT, FEB. 13.

A Short Session—Sir Wilfrid Laurier to Attend the Coronation.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—It has been decided to summon Parliament to meet on February 13. The session is expected to be short, and the legislators will probably have again returned to their homes by the time the Premier sets forth to attend the coronation of King Edward. All doubt as to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's going to London has been set at rest by the receipt of the official invitation. This was read to the Cabinet yesterday, but it will be some time yet before it is settled who are to accompany the Premier. All the colonial Premiers will proceed to London for the coronation, and advantage will be taken of the occasion to hold an intercolonial conference, when matters of mutual interest will be discussed. In view of the fact that reciprocal trade and the construction of the Pacific cable are to be among the questions considered, it is thought probable that the Postmaster-General, the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Customs will accompany Sir Wilfrid to England. It also seems to be taken for granted that a military contingent will be sent to act as a body guard for the Premier and his colleagues. The alterations and improvements at the House of Commons are now well advanced, and there is now no doubt that everything will be in excellent order when the members assemble on Feb. 13.

Reply to Canadian Complaints.

Melbourne, Jan. 14.—Regarding the complaint of Canadian manufacturers that the new tariff of the Commonwealth of Australia is injuring Canadian trade, the Prime Minister of the Commonwealth, the Rt. Hon. E. Barton, says that Canada has benefited by 35 years of protection. He thinks, therefore, that the Canadians should appreciate the desire of Australia to place her manufactures on a sound basis like that of Canada.

Dowie's Band Must Go.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 14.—The full court of British Columbia has affirmed the judgment of Justice Drake, sentencing Elder Brooks of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to three months in jail for counseling one of his adherents not to engage a doctor when his children were suffering from diphtheria. It is thought that this will drive Dowie's little band out of the province.

Refreshing Sleep

COMES WHEN

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

ARE USED.

Miss Margaret Brown, 627 Colborne St., London, Ont., says:—"My mother has been afflicted with nervousness and general debility for a long time. She suffered a great deal with insomnia, and found it almost impossible to sleep.

"I went to W. T. Strong's drug store and got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve pills, which she took, and derived so much benefit from them that I bought another box for her. They have done her a wonderful lot of good, making her nervous system much stronger, giving her restful sleep, and removing many other symptoms which previously distressed her.

"I can truly say that these pills are a great remedy for any one suffering from weak nerves, general debility, sleeplessness or heart trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists.

BIGAMY CASE FELL THROUGH.

Joshua W. Curts Was Not Wrong in Going to Ohio and Marrying.

Toronto, Jan. 14.—In the Assizes yesterday Joshua W. Curts was tried and acquitted of a charge of bigamy. He was accused of marrying Melinda May Abbott at Niagara Falls, N.Y., during the lifetime of his first wife, Frances Collier Curts. He was represented by counsel, who argued that there was no case to go to a jury, inasmuch as there was no evidence that Curts went to the United States for the express purpose of marrying while his first wife was alive. Chief Justice Meredith, in instructing the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, said: "I do not think there is evidence to prove that the prisoner wished to evade the criminal law by going to Ohio to get a divorce. He went to get rid of the injustice which limits divorce in this country to the jurisdiction of Parliament, a tribunal which nine-tenths of Canada's citizens cannot afford to approach to secure the cancellation of an unhappy marriage.

Under the circumstances no evidence was offered in the case of Melinda May Abbott, also charged with bigamy.

Reward of Merit.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favour, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that to-day it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians, who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics. They contain no cocaine nor opiate, and are given to the little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Reitiger, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist's, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets urged me to try them so much that I did so and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

Send for book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free. Address, F. A Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

A Prisoner.

"I thought you guaranteed that suit of underwear you sold me not to shrink," said the customer who entered the store and stood in a somewhat cramped attitude.

"I did," replied the merchant. "If it shrinks, bring it back."

"I have brought it back," said the customer in evident embarrassment, "but I got caught out in the rain and can't get it off."

FOLLIES OF FASHION

SARTORIAL VAGARIES OF THE CENTURIES THAT ARE GONE.

Grotesque Styles That Reigned In the Time of Chaucer—Raiment That Rivaled the Rainbow and Men Who Starched Their Beards.

It is a little gratifying to reflect that, however the man of today may compare with his ancestors of bygone centuries in physique and morals, his dress is much more moderate and inexpensive, even if it is less picturesque, than theirs.

It is true that here and there one may find some foolish young man whose taste in dress is as extravagant as that of any "buck" of the days of the Georges. There is, for instance, a son of a well known peer who has the reputation of never wearing a suit twice. He has a wardrobe of waistcoats of all the colors of the rainbow, ranging from a light blue spangled with silver stars to a deep green satin with buttons of eighteen carat gold, each of which is adorned with the painted face of a beautiful woman.

Another wealthy aristocrat is credited with having as many suits and uniforms as there are days in the year and with spending on his tailor's bill a sum which would pay the yearly salary of a minor cabinet minister.

But such men are modestly arrayed compared with the dandies of many a past century. The earl of Northumberland who lived in the latter part of the fourteenth century boasted no fewer than sixty suits of cloth of gold alone, and the bishop of Ely of that time had a change of raiment for every day of the year.

Much later, in Queen Mary's time, the wardrobe of a bishop might have been the envy of Solomon for the variety and costliness of its contents, and even a simple village priest, according to Fuller, wore "a vestment of crimson satin, a vestment of crimson velvet, a stole and fanon set with pearl, gowns faced with taffetas, etc."

In the days of Chaucer fashionable men wore clothes as many colored as Joseph's coat, so that "while one leg would be a blaze of crimson the other would be tricked out in green or blue or yellow, without any regard to harmony or contrast."

Even as late as the middle of the eighteenth century a dandy would deck himself in "a vivid green coat, a waistcoat of scarlet, yellow breeches and blue stockings," and the gentleman of a few years later wore, among similar sartorial vagaries, "a coat of light green, with sleeves too small for the arms and buttons too big for the sleeves; a pair of Manchester fine stuff breeches, without money in their pockets; clouded silk stockings, a club of hair behind larger than the head that carries it, a hat of the size of a sixpence on a block not worth a farthing."

At one fashionable epoch our ancestors, to quote the words of a quaint chronicler, "would weare clothes so tighte to ye skin that it might well be conceived they wore no clothes at all," and at another they would wear them "so voluminous that a single suite might well have afforded rayment for a whole familie, and so stuffed out with feathers that, of a verity, their wearers resembled nothing so much as walking sackes."

At another period it was the grotesque fashion to combine on one person the dress of all the countries of Europe—the hat would be Spanish, the coat French, the trousers Turkish, and so on—so that the wearer was a "walking epitome of the dress of a continent."

At one time shoes would be worn with square toes of such width that a royal proclamation was issued limiting the width to six inches, and these shoes were succeeded by others which came to the finest of points at the toes.

In Henry II.'s time shoes with points two feet long were worn by the fashionables, and in the reign of Henry IV. these points had grown to such an inordinate length that in order to be able to walk at all it was necessary to attach the tips to the knees by chains, which were of gold or silver, while the tops of the shoes were carved with all kinds of fantastic designs.

In the early part of the eighteenth century it was a common thing for a man of fashion to spend several hours a day with his valet, among the many quaint operations being "the starching of the beard and the proper perfuming of garments, the painting of the face and anointing with oils, tinctures, quintessences and pomatums." It is even said that some of the dandies of the time bathed in wine and milk "for the preservation of their complexions and the rejuvenation of their energies."—London Tit-Bits.

Sharp Attack of Lumbago.

Know what Lumbago is? Pain catches you right in the small of the back,—makes stooping over or rising up excruciating agony. Wrong kidney action is the cause of the trouble, and if you let Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets set the kidneys working right you'll be quickly cured.

Here is some evidence:

Mr. James A. Searls, the well and favorably known boot and shoe merchant of Norwich, Ont., made this statement:—"During a recent sharp attack of Lumbago, in which the pain was extremely severe, I took a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They took the pain out of my back so quickly, and so far as I can see made a cure that is so permanent, that I consider them unequalled for that most prevalent and painful affliction. I am only too pleased to recommend them to other people who may be suffering as I was."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a box, at all druggists or by mail, THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

HAIR OF THE SLOTH.

It Is Green In Color and For a Peculiar Reason.

It is a very curious fact that certain plants grow and thrive on the hair of sloths. Apart from its extremely coarse and brittle nature, the most striking peculiarity of the outer hair of the sloth is its more or less decidedly green tinge. Now, green is a very rare color among mammals, and there ought, therefore, to be some special reason for its development in the sloth, and, as a matter of fact, the means by which this coloration is produced is one of the most marvelous phenomena in the whole animal kingdom, so marvelous, indeed, that it is at first almost impossible to believe that it is true.

The object of this peculiar type of coloration is, of course, to assimilate the animal to its leafy surroundings and thus to render it as inconspicuous as possible, and when hanging in its usual position from the underside of a bough its long, coarse and green tinged hair is stated to render the sloth almost indistinguishable from the bunches of gray green lichens among which it dwells. In the outer sheath of the hairs of the animal there are a number of transverse cracks, and in these cracks grows a primitive type of plant—namely, a one celled alga.

And for the benefit of nonbotanical readers it may be well to mention here that algæ, among which seaweeds are included, form a group of flowerless plants related on the one hand to the fungi and on the other to the lichens. In the moist tropical forests forming the home of the sloths the algæ in the cracks of their hairs grow readily and thus communicate to the entire coat that general green tint which, as already said, is reported to render them almost indistinguishable from the clusters of lichen among which they hang suspended.

It Needs no Testimonial.

It is a guarantee in itself. If testimonials were required they could be furnished in thousands from all sorts and conditions of men in widely different places. Many medicines are put forth every year which have but an ephemeral existence and then are heard of no more. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has grown in reputation every day since it first made its appearance.

The Wood by the Sea.

Duncan Campbell Scott has an excellent poem in The Canadian Magazine for December. It is in two parts, the first dealing with "The Sea by the Wood," and the second with "The Wood by the Sea." It is the second part that we consider to be an exquisite bit of work, although in describing the sea in the first part the poet gives his picture this fine touch:

You can hear the sails of the sunken ships
Stir and shiver and sway.

But in his description of the wood by the sea, Mr. Scott has written something that appeals strongly to the imagination—the wood that is so very old and still that it is startled when a dead cone falls:

The pines are weary of holding nests—
Abe a-weary of casting shade;
Weirdly moulder the resin crests
In the pungent gloom of the glade.

Weary are all the birds of sleep,
The nests are weary of wings,
The whole wood yearns to the swaying deep
The mother of restful things.

If mine were the will of God, why then
The wood should tramp to the sounding sea,
Like a marching army of men.

Who that has stood alone in a native wood overlooking the sea, yet beyond the sound of it, has not felt something of the spirit which Mr. Scott has expressed in so choice a way? This is a poem that will probably find many admirers

WHY HE WAS TURNED DOWN.

Good at Drill, But Knew Nothing of Shooting or Riding.

Over the signature "A Disappointed One," a witty correspondent, writing to the current issue of The Canadian Military Gazette, draws attention to some features of military training in Canada. He describes himself as having a grievance, and proceeds to describe an imaginary experience, thus:

"It is connected with the enlistment of men for the Canadian Yeomanry. Being anxious to see service and obtain some real experience in the field, I presented myself before the recruiting officer at London. I may say that I have been a prominent N.C.O. in a crack rural corps of No. 1 district, and have acted as drill instructor at the annual camps for several years. I have also attended two courses of instruction at Toronto and London respectively, and was fortunate to obtain high marks on both occasions.

"Well, when we were drawn up for inspection by the D.O.C. I was picked out among a number of others as being a likely man for selection. I passed the doctor as sound in every way, and was marked 'fit.' We were then taken to the miniature rifle range, and fired a number of rounds at a target. I acknowledge that I was not very proficient at this, nor at the riding test which followed, because I had never been instructed in this work. Consequently I was rejected. I was deeply hurt and pointed out to the D.O.C. my qualifications as a soldier and instructor. He replied that 'he was sorry, but men were wanted for work, not play.' What was particularly galling to me was the fact that two friends of mine from the next county were both enlisted. They know no more about drill than a pair of goats, but as they spend a lot of spare time shooting rabbits in the winter they proved to be pretty handy with the rifle. This seemed to take the eye of the recruiting officer, so I was turned down. Now, Mr. Editor, what I want to know is why we are not taught these things at the schools, if they are the chief qualifications required when fighting men are needed.

"During my two courses at Toronto and London I never saw a row of ammunition, nor spoke to a horse. Can you explain matters or offer me any consolation? I must say that I believe in the theory that if a soldier can't shoot he is no use, and it does appear ridiculous that in the militia orders calling for recruits it is set forth that 'they must be able to shoot.' One might as well advertise for a cook, stipulating that she must be able to light a fire, or for an office clerk with the proviso that he must be able to write."

TO WEAK WOMEN EVERYWHERE

Mrs. Maxwell Tells how Much Pain and Suffering may be Remedied.

A Very Interesting Statement by an Elora Lady—She has Found a Panacea for all Female Weakness and Wants Every Woman in Canada to Know of it.

Elora, Ont., Jan. 12.—(Special.) Mrs. Maxwell of this place has written for publication a very strong letter in which she claims that Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured her of Female Weakness after she had tried almost everything else.

This good lady, according to her statement, suffered for a long time with kidney trouble, enduring the greatest pain with a dizziness and headaches that made her very ill. She was passing through what is always a critical period in every woman's life and her troubles were considerably increased by this. Indeed her life was for a time in great danger.

She says she used Dodd's Kidney Pills with the most remarkable results, being almost instantly relieved and in a very short time completely cured and restored to good health.

She is very grateful and in her letter she says: "I cannot find words to express my gratitude to God for my marvellous cure. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest medicine in the world especially for those of my age.

"I could scarcely move hand or foot I was so dizzy, and violent pains would shoot through my whole system, but now thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills I feel well and smart."

This case and its cure has created quite a sensation and Mrs. Maxwell's full and frank statement of the matter has been the subject of a great deal of comment.

Dodd's Kidney Pills seem to be an infallible cure for Diseases of Women as well as for Rheumatism, Diabetes, Bright's Disease and all Kidney disorders.

Aluminum Nails.

After many unsuccessful experiments and trials, an alloy of aluminum has been made with which nails, staples, and tacks can be made to compete with copper. Among other advantages claimed for the new material is that it is not affected by the weather, and will not deteriorate, as in laying roofs, lining tanks, etc. As the alloy is non-corrosive and non-poisonous, the new nails ought to find favor among makers of refrigerators and other articles used for food storage. When the difference in point of number and weight is taken into consideration, it is seen that aluminum nails are about 4 cents a pound cheaper than copper nails. It is not intended to put them in competition with ordinary steel nails.—Hardware.

The Varsity Glee Club of Toronto, will visit Peterborough on the evening of Jan. 22nd. It had been thought by many that a dance in honour of the university boys would be quite opportune, the same to take place at the conclusion of the entertainment in the opera house. The young men of the town, however, who have been looking into the feasibility of the scheme have decided that it is impossible to entertain the Glee Club in such a manner. The opera house could not be put into condition in time, and there is no other available place for a dance, as large as the proposed one would necessarily be.

They left for their wedding tour on the 4.40 p.m. train for Toronto and thence to Detroit where they will reside.

A large deputation was present from the Peterborough Poultry and Pet Stock Association, and was heard on motion of Ald. Clinkscale and Batten.

President Leary was the first speaker. He explained that the Association did not go begging for aid amongst the merchants, but relied for support on the sale of membership tickets and the grants given by the Town and County Councils. Last year the Town had not been asked for a grant. The show this year would be held on January 21st, 22nd and 23rd, and by present indications there would three times the number of exhibits ever shown before. There was a special need of funds as coops for 650 birds had just been purchased jointly with the West Peterborough Agricultural Society. The speaker did not consider it necessary to explain at length the amount of good which was being done by the Association. Anyone who purchased fowl on the market could not but notice the improvement lately. He asked that the poultry man be given the use of the market hall and also a grant. The idea was, if possible, to throw the doors open to the public and abolish the admission fee, if the council dealt generously with the Association.

Mr Wm. Collins, secretary-treasurer of the Association, stated that the County Council had granted $35.00. He told of the big show of birds which was expected and mentioned the two addresses which are to be delivered at the meeting by A. E. Silverwood.

On motion of Ald. Clinkscale and Corkery, the matter was referred to to the Finance Committee.

THE STANDING COMMITTEES.

2. That a grant of $300.00 be made to the Mayor to meet the contingent expenses of his office.

3. That as usual $100.00 be appropriated and set aside as a fund for the contingent expenses of Chairmen of Committees, and that the Treasurer be authorized to pay such expenses out of this fund on the certificate of the Chairman of the Finance Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. CLINKSCALE,
Chairman.

Ald. Corkery moved in amendment to the report that the first three committees be composed of the entire council. There was no seconder, however, and the report was adopted on motion of Ald. Clinkscale and Batten.

Bylaws were passed appointing High School Trustees and members of the Board of Health. The High School Trustees appointed were Robt. Fair, Vincent Eastwood and F. J. Jameson, the latter replacing Mr. Henry Denne, who has resigned. Mr. William Eyres and Mr. Geroge Schneider were appointed as members of the Board of Health, the former succeeding Mr. Henry Denne and the latter being re-appointed.

On motion of Ald. Clinkscale and Batten, the usual monthly payments will be made to the Children's Aid Society.

Ald. Rush and McGregor moved, that the first monthly payment be made to the Board of Education. — Carried.

The Council then adjourned to meet later in the week when the Waterworks Bylaw will be given its third reading.

AN ASSEMBLY.

The Non.-Coms. and Men of the Regiment Will Give One.

A meeting of the non-commissioned officers of the 57th Regiment was held in the drill shed last night for the purpose of discussing the advisability of giving a regimental dance. After due consideration it was decided to give an assembly on or about the 31st of January, and committees were appointed to make the preliminary arrangements. It has not been decided just yet how large the affair will be, but as it is being give under the auspices of the non-coms. and men of the regiment it is very likely that it will be gotten up on an extensive scale. The non-coms. and men are, indeed to be congratulated on the enthusiasm they are displaying throughout the winter months in the affairs of the regiment.

THE ASHBURNHAM COUNCIL.

The Inaugural Meeting was Held Last Night.

Reeve Smith's Remarks to the Council—Accounts Passed—Correspondence.

The inaugural meeting of the Ashburnham village council was held last night. There were present, Mr. J. H. Smith, reeve, and Councillors W. Johnston, R. Sheridan, R. Pollock, and F. Adams.

Reeve Smith addressed the council and the ratepayers present. He did not intend to make any lengthy remarks, but he might say that he hoped the present year would be one of the most prosperous in the history of the village. There were reasons to believe that this would be the case, as everything at present looked most promising. During the past year they had kept the disbursements down within the estimates, and they would endeavour to do the same during 1902. Concerning the present year's business, he thought a very important question would be in the way of permanent improvements, in the matter of street pavements. He considered that putting down plank walks each year was a waste of money. He would also like to see a re-arrangement of the street numbering, as well as a few other minor matters. With the aid of the council, which is, as far as personality is concerned, the same as last year's council, and which had done excellent work in the past, they would be able to work together for the best interests of the village.

The Reeve's remarks were loudly applauded.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and, on motion, adopted.

Applications for the position of auditor were received and upon motion of Councillors Adams and Pollock, Messrs. T. Q. Quartermaine and Jas. Brain were appointed at a salary of $8 each.

The position of assessor brought forth applications from several new aspirants. They were Messrs. Allen McCarthy, Thos. Bridgewater and Geo McWilliams.

Mr. William Cook applied for the position of street inspector, etc.

On motion of Mr. Adams, seconded Mr. Pollock, all the appointments, with the exception of auditors, were referred to the committee of the whole council to report at the next meeting of the council.

An application was received from the Otonabee Power Company asking permission to erect poles down Douro street to Driscoll Terrace, and thence down Elizabeth street to the bridge.

This communication caused a little discussion. Mr. Adams thought that it was about time that they were receiving some money out of these companies. He did not want to prohibit them entirely, but they should have some restrictions placed on the companies owning poles in the town. In view of this fact he would move that the matter be referred to a committee of the whole council, which in conjunction with the village solicitor, would look thoroughly into into the matter and see that the village was properly protected.

AN OYSTER SUPPER.

Reeve Smith of Ashburnham Entertained his Council Last Night.

Last night Mr. John H. Smith, the newly-elected Reeve of Ashburnham, entertained the members of the council, the town officials, and the newspaper reporters, to an oyster supper at the conclusion of the inaugural meeting. An adjournment was made to Reeve Smith's residence on Stewart street, where a very appetizing spread had been prepared by Mrs. Smith, and the little assemblage did ample justice to the good things provided. Then a few hours were spent in discussing in an informal way the municipal affairs of the village. The opinion was general that Ashburnham was going to enjoy during the next few years a boom such as it never before has known.

THE HIGE TEA.

It was a Very Successful Affair Last Night.

The anniversary services in connection with the George street Methodist church, concluded last night with a high tea and entertainment, which were very largely patronized. The ladies of the George street church have always been known for the excellence of their high teas and it was no wonder then that many took advantage of the opportunity afforded them of dropping in for tea, instead of going home. The tea of course was served in the basement of the church, the interior of which was arranged in an exceptionally attractive manner. The tables were laid out with much taste and were attentively waited on by the ladies of the church. Tea was served from six until eight o'clock.

It was shortly after eigh to'clock when the entertainment opened in the body of the church. The Sunday school orchestra, under the able direction of Mr. R. Glidden, supplied several excellent selections as the audience filled the seats in the body of the church. By 8.15 a fair congregation had assembled and the second part of the programme was opened by a quartette, composed of Messrs. Mulligan, Turner, Daly and Davis.

Rev. C. E. McIntyre, the speaker of the evening, was then called upon for an address, and in his opening remarks stated that it always gave him pleasure to come to Peterborough—he could see people in the audience upon whom he had practised matrimonial ceremonies when he first entered the ministry. He said he would not occupy much of their time as the people had come together for a social evening—not to hear a sermon. He had been asked to speak on church matters, and in a few words he explained the different influences that attracted people to the House of God. A church might be a grand building, and have a preacher that could deal with current topics, or a strong choir, but unless its services were characterized by the presence of the Holy Spirit, its labours were in vain.

Mr. Mulligan followed with a fine selection, exceptionally well rendered, and the benediction brought to a close a most enjoyable evening.

MORE MARRIAGES.

Last Year was a Record one in Peterborough.

Town Clerk Armstrong has just completed his official returns of births, marriages and deaths for the year 1901. The following are the figures of 1901 as compared with those of 1900:

	Births.	Mar'ges.	Deaths.
1900	212	97	174
1901	215	113	160

It will be observed from the above figures that there has been an increase of 3 births, an increase of 16 marriages and a decrease of 14 in the number of deaths.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT.

The report of the directors was submitted as follows:

Your Board of Management beg to present for your consideration, the following statement of the business of the Public Library for the year 1901.

The year just ended was on the whole a quiet and uneventful one in the history of the Public Library. While business in our progressive town has been booming, and fresh enterprises of many kinds have been entered upon, the effect seems to have been to take the attention of the people from books, and the number read, though larger than last year, was less than in some previous years. But any slacking up in book-reading has been more than made up by the reading of periodicals and papers in the reading rooms which are generally well filled by members, and, at times, by others who ought to become members. The general idea entertained by the latter class is that Public Library means Free Library, and that no more is required than to come in and help themselves.

The Library Committee have during the year past added to the Library 283 volumes. They have used their best judgment in selecting these, but they ask, and will be glad to receive the assistance of members in selecting new books, and trust that all will enter in the book kept for that purpose, the names of such books as they would like to see placed on the shelves.

The class in Machine Drawing held during last winter was one of the largest we have ever had, and was fairly successful. After an examination conducted by the Education Department of Ontario certificates of proficiency were awarded as follows: Primary Course, 2 certificates; Mechanical Course, 10 certificates; and Special Subjects, 1 certificate.

The Reading Rooms are open to the members from 10 a.m., to 9 p.m., daily, and they are supplied with 7 daily newspapers, 15 weekly papers, and 64 magazines and periodicals.

CENTRAL CHARITY BOARD.

An Expression of Regret at the Departure of Ven. Archdeacon Casey.

A meeting of the Central Charity Board was held last night. In the absence of the chairman, Mr. Robert Innis, the vice chairman, Mr. J. J. McBain, presided. The following other members were in attendance: Messrs. Fowler, Miller, Stock, Buller, Batten, Rush and Kempt.

A number of applications for aid were considered. Mr. J. J. McBain reported that he had purchased 10 cords of dry cedar at $2 per cord, and 30 cords of dry hardwood sawed in four foot lengths at $4.55 per cord.

In view of the withdrawal of Ven Archdeacon Casey from the Board by reason of his removal from town, Mr. McBain moved, seconded by Mr. Rush, "That this Board has learned with regret that the Ven Archdeacon Casey is about to leave Peterborough; he having been a member of this Board since its organization and a faithful and most useful member. Archdeacon Casey has shown, while a member of this board, that he is a broad-minded gentleman, one who is most charitably inclined, and at the same time judicious and careful, and his counsel has been of great service to the Board. While regretting his removal, we wish him well in the charge to which he is going."—Carried.

DIED IN HASTINGS.

Mrs. Archibald Fraser Passed Away on January 9th.

A very sad and unexpected death occurred on Monday morning, Jan. 7th, when Mrs. Archibald Fraser, of Hastings, passed away.

Mr. Fraser left home about nine o'clock, Mrs. Fraser being apparently then in the best of health. About 11.30 the youngest daughter came home from Norwood, and finding no one at home supposed that her mother had gone over to her son's, who lives near by. Mr. Fraser on coming home about 12 o'clock, enquired for the mother, and received the daughter's supposition in reply, and thinking all was well, went to the barn to do some work, when he was dumfounded to find his wife lying on the floor of the barn, where she had gone to feed the poultry. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but to no avail, life was extinct, and the soul had gone to give an account of its stewardship.

Mrs. Fraser, whose maidon name was Susanna Greenbank, was a daughter of the late James Greenbank, and was born in the village of Norwood, March, 1844. In 1864 she was united in marriage to her now sorrowing husband, and the union was blessed with eleven children eight of whom are living, viz., Messrs. Thos. A. and James A. of Hastings; John of Russell, Man.; and Archie, of Norwood; Mrs. Belleghem, and Misses Lillie and Margaret, matron and assistant matron, respectively, of the Protestant Home, Peterborough, and Miss Edith, at home.

The family have the sincere sympathy of the whole community in the loss of one who, though of a reserved nature, was a devoted wife and mother. The remains were interred in the Norwood cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

SOME MISTAKE.

Stump is Residing in Peterborough at Present.

The Lindsay Post says: "The Belleville papers a few days ago contained news of the death, near Buffalo, of W. J. Stump, some years ago clerk in the Benson House, here, and later engaged in the hotel business in Belleville. Mr. T. W. Greer, agent for the British Empire Ass. Co., issued a policy for $2,000 on his life to Mrs. Stump, now in Toronto, but has not yet received the claim papers."

There must be some mistake in connection with this item as Billy Stump is at present working at the Oxford Hotel.

It is a well known fact that the medical men have in the past strongly opposed the use of green tea, pointing out that it was injurious. This was on account of the artificial colouring that was used in its preparation in Japan and China, but since the introduction of Green tea from Ceylon, by the Salada Tea Company, medical men find no objection whatever to its use; the entire absence of artifical colouring with the pale delicate liquor so desirable to the Green tea drinkers is threatening to destroy the entire Japan tea trade. With the cup that cheers The Salada Tea Company is always to the front.

NAPOLEON'S ORDER.

THE LEGION OF HONOR AND HOW IT WAS FOUNDED.

Despite the Ridicule the Project at First Invited Its Inauguration Proved That Napoleon Knew French Human Nature.

France owes the Legion of Honor to Napoleon. All orders of chivalry had been abolished by the revolution and had left a gap which it was not easy to fill. "They are mere geegaws," said Monge, the chemist, who had taught the revolutionists how to make gunpowder out of plaster of paris. "Geegaws, if you will," the first consul answered, "but people like them. Let us approach the question frankly. All men are enamored of decorations—the French more than any. They positively hunger for them, and they have always done so."

This was at Malmaison in 1802. In May the consell d'etat was invited to consider the project of the institution of the Legion of Honor. It was ridiculed by many, notably by Morean, who as victor of Hohenlinden was bitterly jealous of the victor of Marengo. At a dinner party he sent for his cook and said to him in the presence of his guests: "Michel, I am pleased with your dinner. You have indeed distinguished yourself. I will award you a saucepan of honor." Mme. de Stael was also satirical upon the subject. "Ah, one of the decorated?" she used to ask each guest who was shown into her salon.

But Napoleon had gauged human nature correctly. His Legion of Honor did meet a felt want, and it was definitely inaugurated on July 14, 1804. Among the eminent men of science and men of letters on whom it was then bestowed were included Laplace, the mathematician; Lalande, the astronomer; Cuvier, the naturalist, and Legouve, the poet. The most notable name omitted was that of Bernardin de St. Pierre, just then in disgrace for championing Mme. de Stael, whom Napoleon had banished, but he got the decoration later on the entreaty of Queen Hortense.

After Jena Goethe was decorated. A little later high promotion in the order was given to General Lamarque, to whom Sir Hudson Lowe had surrendered at Capri. "What did you do with him?" asked Napoleon. "The king of Naples had him exchanged for a Neapolitan general who was a prisoner in Sicily." "Very well; there is no harm in letting this English colonel go. He is not dangerous." It seems not unlikely that Sir Hudson Lowe remembered this sarcasm when he was Napoleon's jailer a few years afterward.

After Napoleon's downfall the question of suppressing the Legion of Honor arose. Chateaubriand, whom Napoleon had not decorated, strongly urged its abolition. So did Puzzo di Borgo. Marshals Victor, Marmont and Macdonald opposed. After debate it was decided to recognize and retain the order, not on any high moral or patriotic grounds, but because Louis XVIII. could not afford to make himself more unpopular than he was already by stripping people of their decorations. Chateaubriand and Lamartine consented to accept the red ribbon, but it was also conferred upon a great number of worthless personages and so brought into contempt.

There have been many Legion of Honor scandals since those days, but one of them surpasses all the others in magnitude. This is, of course, the Wilson scandal, the history of which, though intricate, is worth recalling.

The trouble may be said to have begun on the day on which Mlle. Alice Grevy fell in love with an opera singer who need not be mentioned here. He wanted to marry her, and she wanted to marry him, and the papers were beginning to couple the two names in a manner most embarrassing to the president of the republic. The president, however, sent the opera singer about his business and found his daughter another husband, not a very good husband, but the best husband he could procure on the spur of the moment. His choice fell upon M. Daniel Wilson, who had long been one of M. Grevy's political supporters and was a financier of some mark.

No sooner was M. Wilson established at the Elysee than he proceeded to enrich himself by various means. Among other things, he founded a paper called Le Moniteur de l'Exposition Universelle, which really covered a traffic in decorations. The whole story came out in a state trial toward the end of 1887. It was proved that Wilson had made a regular practice of selling the Legion of Honor, or, rather, of inviting people who wanted it to bribe him to use his influence to obtain it for them. His overtures were presented through his jackals, Generals d'Audlan and Cafferel and Mmes. Limousin and Ratazzi, and the whole party had to stand in the dock together.

Wilson was sentenced to two years' imprisonment, a fine of 3,000 francs and five years' deprivation of civil rights. He appealed, and the court of cassation annulled the judgment. The accused, said the judges, was obviously guilty of everything that he was charged with, but as his offenses were not anticipated by any punitive law he could not be punished. So he retired to the country and tried to live down his bad name. As he ultimately got himself elected conseiller general, one must suppose that he succeeded in this object.

His Mission.

A lawyer was passing along the street carrying under his arm a law-book when he was accosted by a self righteous individual: "Ha, Mr. Blank! And where are you going to preach to-day?"

"I don't preach, I practice," replied the lawyer.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

CURE FOR CATARRH.

A Remedy Which an Old Virginian Says Is Infallible.

An old Virginia horse breeder who is visiting in New York claims to have an infallible cure for catarrh. "It seems to me," he said "that 90 per cent of the people of New York city suffer more or less from catarrh. If they will do as I suggest, they can cure themselves in short order.

"A friend of mine who used to live in Yonkers had such a severe case of catarrh that he was compelled to give up his business and go to Colorado. The doctors told him that the high altitude of that state would benefit him. He remained in Colorado nearly a year and then found himself as badly off as when he left Yonkers. After he had made up his mind that nothing could cure him and that he might as well die at home as among strangers he met an old tinker, who gave him the remedy, which cured him in three months.

"Dissolve a little powdered alum in a pint of cider vinegar. Use the solution as a gargle three or four times a day. It won't do any harm if you swallow some of it. Two or three times a day, but particularly just before going to bed, dip a chicken feather in vaseline and stick the feather up the nostrils. I suppose any contrivance bought at a drug store for the purpose will do just as well as a chicken feather, but the old tinker insisted that there was some medicinal virtue in the feather.

"The gargle clears the throat and the lower portions of the air passages from the nostrils. The vaseline heals the diseased condition of the affected parts. In a week the sufferer will feel better, and if he will keep up the treatment he can be assured that he will be cured."

An Appeal To Mothers

To Protect the Little Ones From Coughs and Colds That so Frequently Lead to Consumption in Later Years.

It is possible that you have been accustomed to consider that every advertisement is for the benefit of the advertiser only. In this you have been mistaken, as you will probably admit if you read about Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and have an opportunity of testing its value in your family.

Every mother is anxious to learn of effective means of combating the ills which cause her children to suffer. Many have learned how to conquer croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, sore throat, severe coughs and colds, by reading the advertisements of Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Some mothers have even taken the trouble to write letters thanking us for making known to the public the merits of this great cough and cold medicine. They realized that to them the advertising was news of great value.

It almost seems like wasting space to tell of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. So many know about it, have tested its virtues, and seek its healing power whenever in need of treatment for throat and lungs. But there are many rivals and many imitations. Hosts of druggists stand ready to offer a substitute if the buyer is not firm in his demands for the genuine and reliable Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

You cannot afford to let your cold run on and on, developing into chronic bronchitis, serious lung trouble or consumption. You cannot plead ignorance of effective treatment. Prudence suggests the wisdom of keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house all the time to protect the children, and grown people as well, from the ills of cold weather. 25c a bottle. Family size 60 cents. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 8

Woman's Horrible Death.

Montreal, Jan 13.—Amy McPherson, 20 years old, daughter of Daniel McPherson, Lensingnan street, got up Saturday morning at 3 o'clock, on account of feeling unwell, and, after lighting a lamp, became so faint that she fell on it. Her clothes became ignited, and she died four hours afterwards.

"TASTY TABLET DOSES"

An eminent physician, whose schooling has always been along the line of "strong tonics and bitters" for stomach troubles, now prescribes what he calls tasty tablet doses—Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets.

And he is only one of thousands of the medical profession who are "getting out of the rut" and taking the common-sense view of things, and instead of strong doses are prescribing for stomach troubles and the ills that are akin, this pleasant and never failing treatment. Every day sees the walls of prejudice crumbling, and nature getting the recognition she merits—for nature's cures are surest. Sixty tablets, 35 cents. 16

A CONSOLIDATED CROP.

Why the Detroiter Could Not Buy the Farmer's Apples.

It was a Detroiter who was hunting for apples in northern Michigan, and, having got track of something extra, he drove out several miles to see the farmer. There were apples in plenty, and the buyer started in to do business. He was checked up almost at once, however, by the farmer, who said:

"Stranger, did you take notice of my daughter Hetty at the house?"

"Why, yes, I say a very smart looking girl," was the reply. "If she is your daughter, I must congratulate you. How many barrels of Spies did you say you had?"

"Yes; Hetty is a smart gal and a good gal," mused the farmer without reference to the apple question. "There are about six fellers around here who are shining up to Hetty."

"Yes; a girl like her is never without a lover," said the buyer. "She'll be stepping off before you know it. I should say you had at least twenty barrels of fall Pippins."

"But Hetty's a-lookin' a leetle higher—a leetle higher. She ain't satisfied to marry no farmer's hired man. She kind o' feels that she belongs among the style. Did you notice her walk?"

"I noticed that she had a very graceful glide for a country girl. How many Seek-no-furthers do you think you've got?"

"And her hair is done up same as they wear it in Chicago," chuckled the father as he proudly straightened up. "Mebbe you didn't notice her feet, but she only wears No. 4 shoes, and they've got high heels on."

"Yes; I see. But what about the apples? How many Greenings have you?"

"And Hetty's jest as good as she is purty. She has never caused us an hour's trouble. If any one is looking for a wife, they might go a heap farther and fare worse."

"But I'm not looking for one," replied the buyer. "I'm here to buy apples."

"You didn't hear about Hetty, then?"

"No."

"And you didn't come out to get a look at her?"

"No. I'm here to buy your apple crop."

"Hetty would make some man a mighty smart wife. There ain't many like her."

"Yes; she's a fine girl, no doubt, but I couldn't marry her if I wanted to. I've got a wife and three children."

"Oh, you have! Why didn't you say so at once?"

"Because I didn't know that it made any difference. Have you many Snows?"

"You can go right on, stranger—right on," said the farmer, with a wave of his hand.

"But I'm here to"—

"Yes; I know. I've got the biggest apple crop in Michigan, and you want to buy 'em, but you can pass right along. The apples and Hetty go together this year, and you can save your breath to carry you out of the gate and into your buggy!"

THE FATE OF CORONETS.

Lord Brougham's Became G. W. Childs' Fruit Dish.

Peers and their coronets are soon parted when the ceremonial use has been served. The fate of one coronet is told by a correspondent of M. A. P. He writes: "When I was staying some years ago in Philadelphia with G. W. Childs, the well known proprietor of The Ledger newspaper there, I noticed at dinner one evening a peculiarly shaped gilt stand used as a support for a china dish containing grapes. My host, observing that I was scanning it rather closely, said: 'Oh, that is the coronet Lord Brougham wore at the queen's coronation. I have taken out the velvet cap and turned it upside down. The golden balls form excellent feet, and it makes a most elegant dish stand.' Which it certainly did."

But what is the fate of coronets compared with the fate of coronation robes? A large portion of George IV.'s wardrobe, including the coronation robes, was put at public auction in the summer of 1831. There were 120 lots disposed of, and some of the items are interesting. A pair of fine kid trousers, of ample dimensions and lined with white satin, was sold for 12 shillings. The sumptuous crimson velvet coronation mantle, with silver star, embroidered with gold, which cost originally, according to the auctioneer, £500, was knocked down for 47 guineas; a richly embroidered silver tissue coronation waistcoat and trunk hose, £13. The purple velvet coronation robe, embroidered with gold, of which it was said to contain 200 ounces, brought only £55, although it cost his late majesty £300. An elegant and costly green velvet mantle, lined with ermine of the finest quality, presented by the Emperor Alexander to George IV., which cost 1,000 guineas, was sold for £125

Having Fun With His Name.

After all, it is Ernest Seton-Thompson. The name will be kept as a nom de plume. He has ten brothers, and twenty years ago they all agreed to change their name by process of law. They were scattered throughout the world, and for some reason the step was not taken.

"That is the name under which I am known, and, although Seton is the correct name, I have no objection to Seton-Thompson. The bright boys in the newspapers can have their fun, but I am still with 'the wild animals I have known.'"

Distracting Head Noises

Due to Catarrh—Annoy by Day and Prevent Sleep at Night.

The projections of tissue on each side of the head are not the ears—that is, the real ears. What we usually call the ears are only contrivances to catch sound waves and conduct them to the real mechanism of hearing further inside the head. The internal ears, the real ears, are curtained off from the outside air by the ear drums, and yet it is necessary to have air in the middle ears to conduct sounds to the structures that impress their vibrations on the brain. This air for the middle ear comes warm from the throat through little passages called the "eustachian tubes." The blood-heated nose and throat warm this air and free it of all dust and irritants before it reaches such delicate structures as are most concerned in the sense of hearing.

The most common cause of deafness is a blocking up of the eustachian tubes by extension of catarrh into them. While the shutting off of air from the throat causes hardness of hearing so far as external sounds are concerned, it is apt to imprison certain other sounds made by the circulation in the head or conducted along such hard structures as communicate with the internal ear. These head noises or imprisoned sounds are very perplexing and sometimes almost distracting, vexing and annoying by day and preventing sleep at night. These sounds are varied as they are confusing. They are often likened to the purring of a cat, the roaring of a seashell, the rumbling of machinery, the buzzing of a bee or fly, the humming of a mosquito or of a humming bird, the tinkling of bells, the singing of a tea ket le, the crackling of a wood fire, the hissing of a snake or goose, the murmur of running water, the soughing of the wind, etc.

Nine-tenths of the cases of deafness are due to catarrh, and nearly all cases of progressive hardness of hearing, especially if one can hear better some times than at others and if troubled with head noises, are caused by catarrh of the eustachian tubes, or where only one ear is effected with too little sound from the outside and too much from the inside the catarrh has gotten into one tube only.

An attorney and public speaker, who had been a catarrh sufferer for years says:

"Every fall I would catch a cold which would settle in my head and throat and hang on all winter long and every winter it seemed to get a little worse. I was continually clearing my throat and my voice became effected to such an extent as to interfere with my public speaking.

"I tried troches and cheap cough cures and sometimes got relief, but only for a short time, until this winter when I learned of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, through a newspaper advertisement. Two fifty-cent boxes which I bought at my druggists, cleared my head and throat in fine shape and to guard against a return of my old trouble I keep a box of the tablets on hand and whenever I catch a little cold I take a tablet or two and ward off any serious developments."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, acting on catarrh only through the blood, will reach and cure catarrh in the eustachian tubes as well as elsewhere, and this is why so many who have taken it for nasal catarrh have been surprised at being cured of their deafness and head noises.

● Stuart's Catarrh Tablets cure all kinds of catarrh of all parts of the body. Acting through the blood, they reach every part alike. They are sold at all drug stores for 50 cents a box.

HE SAVED THE SCOW

A CLEVER BIT OF STRATEGY IN AN ENGINEERING JOB.

How a Young American Engineer Brought His Spirit of Invention to Aid in Solving a Wreck Problem in South America.

"It is easy enough for an engineer to show ability in New York or in other big towns where he can get about all the tools and conveniences ever devised. It is when an engineer finds himself in the wilds of a jungle or up in the mountains, hundreds of miles from civilization, that his own natural ingenuity and invention count," said a veteran engineer to a youngster who had been admitted to the ranks of the Engineers' club.

"Down in Surinam, Dutch Guiana, where the arrival of a sailing schooner causes a sensation, where a mail steamer enters the muddy harbor once in two weeks to tarry two hours to get rid of its mail and to take on a few passengers, there was once a young American engineer who showed that he had the proper spirit of invention to advance him to the front ranks of the profession. Like all the best inventions, his was the simplest one, and it was one that was widely talked about among the profession to the credit of the inventor.

"To understand the story properly you need a trifling insight into Surinam and its habits. Here Indians may be seen on the streets wearing only a breechcloth. The white population is so scarce that all are thrown together as if in one large family, Englishmen, Americans, Germans, Dutchmen and Frenchmen all combining together and forming clubs and society to keep themselves from dying of sheer lonesomeness.

"In this primitive town there was a man who held the splendid monopoly of owning a large scow. That, up there, seems a remarkably small thing to be proud of, but the value of even a scow depends entirely upon where the scow is and what it will cost to replace it. This particular scow had been built by American ship carpenters sent especially from the United States at great expense. There was not another scow in the entire harbor, and about all of the heavy river work to be done for the city and plantations and mining companies was done by this one vessel. Its loss, therefore, would have been not only a severe one for the owner, who had a monopoly of the business in those days, but it would have been little short of a national calamity.

"One day, while the scow was anchored in midstream, one of those smashing black squalls for which the tropics are famous broke over the river, and for twenty minutes you could not see ten feet away or hear a man shouting at your elbow. When the storm finally abated, the scow was not to be seen, and it was found she had gone down, deck load and all. To most of us there seemed about as much chance of raising the vessel as there would be to raise an ocean steamer sunk in the middle of the Atlantic.

"It was about this time that the young engineer took a hand in the problem. He asked the dimensions of the scow and was told that it was 12 by 60 feet, and then he announced that if the owner would provide him with four men he would raise the scow for a certain sum of money. The bargain was made, though the contractor refused to say how he would go about the job.

"Now, you must know that aside from the ebb and flood tide, which alternate every six hours, there is also what is known as a spring tide. This comes with the full of the moon, and it has the effect of making a higher flood tide than any during the month. The opposite to the spring tide is the neap tide, and that happens at the dark of the moon, with the effect that at no other tide during the month is the ebb tide so low as it is at that time. The difference in the height of water between the ebb at neap tide and the flood at spring tide is considerable.

"The engineer waited until neap tide. On that day he towed a number of logs down the river. These he anchored over the scow and sent men below to fasten chains to one side of the scow, and these he fastened to the logs on the surface. Then he waited patiently. As the spring tide approached he towed other logs down the river until he had enough to make quite a raft, and on the day of the highest tide all the logs were tied together and fastened. The tide rose steadily, and the more it rose the more the raft went down under the strain of the pull on the chains. At last, just as it seemed that the raft was unequal to the occasion, it was seen to bob up violently, and a moment later there was a commotion in the water, and the scow appeared. What had happened, of course, was this: The chains pulling upward on one side of the scow tilted it more and more until the deck load began to slide off, and finally, when all the stones had slid into the river, the scow came up under its own buoyancy. The remainder was simple. The vessel was towed to the shore, where it was hauled up on the sand, and when the water receded holes bored into the hull caused the scow to empty. Later the holes were plugged up again, and the old ship was as fine as silk."

George Was Slow.

She—If you could have one wish, George, what would it be?

He—It would be that—that—that—oh, if I only dared tell you what it would be!

She—Oh, please go on! Do tell me!

He—I dare not. But, oh, if only I could!

She—Well, why don't you? What do you suppose I brought the wishing subject up for?-

Didn't Agree With Him.

"You should never take anything that doesn't agree with you," said the doctor.

"If I'd always followed that rule, Marie," said the patient, turning to his wife, "where would you be?"

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

The Fruit Cure For Some of the Ills of the Human Body.

The curative value of fruit is becoming more and more insisted upon by those who make a study of dietetics. Grapes are recommended for the dyspeptic, the consumptive, the anæmic and for those with a tendency to gout and liver troubles. Plums, also, are said to be a cure for gouty and rheumatic tendencies. The acid fruits, especially lemons and oranges, are particularly good for stomach troubles and rheumatism.

It is not sufficient, say the advocates of the fruit cure, to eat a small quantity at breakfast or dinner. One should eat from two to eight pounds of grapes a day, or, if oranges are the curative agency, the number to be eaten in a day may vary from three to six.

A healthy condition of the body depends upon a perfect balance of foods taken. There are many other factors entering into the question, but this feature must not be forgotten. Few people there are who can keep healthy without fruit.

How absurd, some one says, to be told to eat fruit when everybody eats it. Yes, but how do you eat it? Do you take a definite amount of it, the same as you do of meat and potatoes, or do you eat it as you do candy?

If you suffer from an acute attack of indigestion after a dinner of soup, meats, pickles, sauces, salad, cakes, pastries, with spices and condiments enough to blister the skin, to say nothing of the delicate lining of the stomach, pray do not aver that indigestion arises from the morsel of fruit taken at the end.

Be honest with your stomach for a month. Eat no more than you need of simple food, into which the true luxuries of nature, such as apples, oranges, pears or other fruit, shall enter. Try, if only as an interesting experiment, to eat sparingly of the cruder articles of diet and more of those suited to your real needs and see to it that fruit forms a part of each meal.

"But there are so many kinds of fruit that I cannot eat."

"There it is again. Because you cannot eat seventeen kinds of food at one meal, ending with fruit, it of course was the apple or the strawberries that did the harm."

"But doesn't fruit make the blood thin?"

"It certainly does, and we are mighty glad of it. Ask any doctor who has practiced medicine for ten years with his eyes open, and he will tell you that the great majority of grownup people have blood too quick.

"The minerals and natural acids of the fruit are the very best conceivable remedies for this thickened condition of the blood. Fruit then becomes both a food and a medicine, a necessity and a most delightful luxury."

A Singular Bequest.

A peculiar fate is said to overhang the family of the late Sir Julian Goldsmid. An ancestor of his, so says the legend, once gave shelter to a rabbi, who, at his death, left to him a bequest of a mysterious box, which was on no account to be opened until after the customary seven days of mourning. If opened before that time, a curse would fall upon the family.

Curiosity got the better of superstition, and the box was opened before the seven days were up. In it was found a document which said that as the injunction of the rabbi had not been heeded no future owner of the estate would be succeeded by a son. And such, strangely enough, has been the case ever since.

Arab Music.

Arab music has been described as the singing of a prima donna who has ruptured her voice in trying to sing a duet with herself. Each note starts from somewhere betwen a sharp and a flat, but does not stop even there and splits up into four or more portions, of which no person can be expected to catch more than one at a time.

JUSTICE

Is portrayed as a woman, yet her sex might complain that they get scant benefit of her powers. There is little justice, it would seem, in the suffering that many women undergo month after month.

Justice acts upon the legal maxim that ignorance of the law cannot be pleaded in mitigation of punishment. It is ignorance which causes so much womanly suffering. Ignorance of the requirements of womanly health; ignorance on the part of those who attempt to cure and fail, and ignorance of the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly diseases. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"When I first wrote to Doctor Pierce concerning my health," says Mrs. Mollie E. Carpenter, of Linaria, Cumberland Co., Tenn., "I was so weak I could only write a few words until I would have to rest; was so weak I could hardly walk. Words cannot express my sufferings; dimness of sight, palpitation, shortness of breath, black spots or else shining lights before my eyes, terrible headache, numbness in my arms and hands and tongue, also my jaws would get numb; constipation, falling of the uterus, disagreeable drains, soreness through my bowels; in fact I was diseased from head to foot. Now I can do my own washing and cooking. I can take a ten quart pail in one hand and a six quart pail in the other (full of water), and carry both one-fourth of a mile and never stop to rest. I am as heavy as I was at 19 years (125 pounds). I used thirty bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and twenty-five vials of 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW YORK PAWNSHOPS.

The Police Keep Tab on the Customers Who Use Them.

Perhaps the person who happens to be temporarily "hard up"—and who isn't sometimes—and who goes into a pawnshop, glides into one of the stalls and "soaks" his watch, for a day or perhaps two, fancies that nobody will know anything about it.

That person will be wrong. There has been a great deal more to it than that. His name and address will have been reported to police headquarters and registered there, together with the number of his watch, and all this will be on record in black and white, not only for the present generation, but for posterity.

Incidentally, it will probably surprise the general reader to learn how many watches are pawned in New York in the course of a year. As a matter of record, there are considerably more than 1,000,000 watches entered in pawn at the various licensed shops in this city in the course of a twelvemonth.

Of course these are not 1,000,000 different watches, for a good many of them are realized upon and taken out several times. The number pawned, too, varies from month to month, but on an average there are quite fully 100,000 different entries monthly for pawned watches reported to police headquarters and there filed away for future reference.

The reason for the entry of the watches, with their numbers and the names and addresses of their owners, is that a means may be provided for the tracing and recovery of articles that have been either stolen from or lost by their original owners. Every morning each pawnbroker in the city goes to the nearest police station and there reports his pledges of the day before.

In the case of watches—and the same rule applies to typewriters and bicycles—the last three numbers of the article are written down on a card, which is filed away. The complete number is also entered, but only the last three figures count in the filing away process. If the number of the watch, for instance, is 265,784, the card will be put in the 784 box.

Here is an illustration of the working of the system: Suppose it is reported to police headquarters that a watch the last three numbers of which are 784 has been pawned. This report is put in the box with all the 784 cards. The next day the report may be received that a watch numbered 265,784 has been pawned. Box No. 784 is looked into, and if the stolen watch is numbered 265,784 all there is to be done is to go and get it.

On the Free List.

Some years ago there was a tollgate on a plank road leading to Elmwood cemetery, Detroit. All funerals were allowed to pass along this road without paying.

One day Dr. Pierce, a well known physician, while paying his toll, jokingly remarked to the gatekeeper:

"Considering the benevolent character of our profession, I think you ought to let us pass free of charge."

"No, no, doctor," said the gatekeeper; "we can't afford that. You send too many deadheads through as it is."

A Cheap Hack.

Just a little exposure to this changeable weather gives one the "hack" which, when neglected, leads to pneumonia, congested lungs, or perhaps consumption, unless Four T's the great guaranteed cough and cold cure, is taken, which does away with hacking in 24 hours. Price 25cts. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

Intentional.

The caller had a grievance.

"That communication I sent you yesterday," he said, "was signed 'More Anon' as plainly as the words could be written. You printed it in your paper this morning 'Omega.'"

"I know it," replied the editor. "We didn't intend there should be any more anon."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Glass, if washed in cold water, will be brighter and clearer than if washed in hot water.

A pan of lime set on the shelves near jellies, fruits and jams will prevent their molding.

To clean mahogany wash it with warm water and soap. Then apply beeswax and sweet oil and polish with chamois.

A little kerosene oil judiciously applied with a flannel cloth will do wonders toward renewing the youth of a sewing machine.

In bottling pickles or catchup boil the corks and while hot you can press them in the bottles, and when cold they are sealed tightly.

A large rug of linen crash placed under the sewing machine will catch threads, clippings and cuttings and save a deal of sweeping and dusting.

Chinese and Japanese matting may be much improved by sponging with strong salt and water, but the wet must not be allowed to sink through.

The best disinfectant for use in the bathroom is copperas. Dissolve a couple of pounds of it in about a gallon of hot water and pour a portion hot down all the drains. It is easily handled and has no odor.

Advertising Versus Merit.

The enormous sale of most medicines has depended entirely on large advertising. The enormous sale of Merrill's System Tonic has arisen solely from the merit of this wonderful compound. We say it is the best medicine to purify the blood, build up the system, strengthen the nerves and regulate the bowels made. Invest 50 cents in one bottle and you will know that we speak the truth. The Colts Lost to Belleville Last Night.

Some Curling News of Interest The C. R. U. Trophies—Other Notes.

HOCKEY.

The Peterborough Colts went down to Belleville yesterday to play their return game with the juniors of that city in the Junior O.H.A. series. The team was considerably weaker than that which played against Belleville here a few nights ago, and the boys were defeated by a score of 16 to 4. The Toronto Globe reports the game as follows:

Belleville, Jan 13.—The first hockey match of the season in the O. H. A. junior series was played here to-night between the Belleville and Peterborough juniors. As the local team were one goal behind in the game which was played last week in Peterborough, much interest was taken in to-night's contest. There was a large attendance, but the game was too one-sided to be exciting. Belleville out-played the Colts from the start, scoring ten goals to their opponents one during the first half, by fast and clean hockey, in which Adams, Burrows and Huff bore off the honours. In the second half the play was still fast, and Belleville's goal had several narrow escapes, but they managed to score. Peterborough's play improved, but Belleville scored 6 goals to their 3, winning by 16 to 4. The teams:

Peterborough—Davidson, goal; Lee, point; Hamilton, coverpoint; Armstrong, McGrath, Kennedy, Cameron, forwards.

Goal Umpires—W. Robinson and H. Wallace Timekeepers—H. Allen, of Belleville and J. T. McCabe, of Peterborough Referee—J. L. R. Gorman of Belleville. The decisions of the referee gave satisfaction to both teams.

The juniors should not feel discouraged at the result of the game. Armstrong and Whitcroft were both unable to accompany the Colts, and Robinson, who was on the team before has since been apprised of the fact that he is over age.

A good practice was held last evening. A full turn-out of the intermediate team is called again for to-night.

Lindsay plays Port Hope this evening in Cobourg.

Mr. Edgar Brundrette is playing point for the Newmarket team. At Brampton last night they defeated the home team by 7 to 6.

A small book containing the scheduled games for the season has been placed in the hands of every curler and each man knows upon what evenings he is to play until March 3rd. Some wonder has been expressed that no provision has been made for playing off for the Colts' Cups between the two clubs, these trophies having been presented to the Thistles and Granites for annual competition. The games, however, will probably be arranged to take place in March.

Rinks skipped by D. Davidson and R. Kerr will play the Tankard rinks to-night.

RUGBY.

It might be thought that Rugby is a dead issue for a few months, but such is not the case. The boys have received notice that they are to be presented with penknives as souvenirs of their winning the Championship. The following letter explains itself:

E. S. Clarry, Secretary Peterborough Rugby Club:—

Dear Sir, — I have expressed you to-day, per Canadian Express Co., sixteen penknives to be presented to your team as trophies for the season, 1901. Hoping these will prove acceptable. I remain, yours truly,

HERBERT MOLSON,
Secretary C.R.U.

They Drove Pimples Away.

A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

LOCAL LEGAL.

DIVISIONAL COURT.

Before Falconbridge, C.J., Street, J., Ton, J.

Brotherson v Corry.—Judgment (E. B. B.) on motion by plaintiff to set aside non-suit entered by Lount, J., in an action for negligence tried at Peterborough, and for a new trial. Action by Andrew Brotherson, a labourer of the township of Otonabee against James A. Corry and E. G. Lavardure, contractors for the construction of a section of the Trent Valley Canal, to recover damages for injuries received by plaintiff while engaged in working for the defendants in such construction. A derrick used in the work fell upon plaintiff, owing to the alleged negligence of defendants in not sufficiently supporting the derrick, and by reason of a defect therein. Held, Britton, J., dissenting, that the non-suit was right and should not be disturbed, because no negligence on the part of defendants was shown. It is not a case in which the doctrine of resio saloquitur quitor should be applied because evidence of proper and careful construction was given by defendants; Scott v London Dock Co., 3 H & C. 596, Moffatt v Bateman, L R 3 C P, 115, Black v Ontario Wheel Co, 19 O R, 573. The case is one therefore in which the jury are asked to say that the derrick was negligently constructed when no witness on either side has said so, and where the only opinion expressed by any witness is that it was properly and not negligently constructed. The case is within the doctrine of Walsh v Whitely, 21 Q B D, at p. 378. Motion dismissed with costs. D W Dumble, Peterborough, for plaintiff; A B Aylesworth, K C, and D O'Connell, Peterborough, for defendants.

COURT OF APPEAL.

Before Armour, C J O, Osler, Maclennan, Listor, J J A.

Dover v. Denne.—A B Aylesworth, K C, and E B Edwards, K C, appealed from order of Ferguson, J, dismissing appeal from the report of the Master at Peterborough, who found that the defendant, Denne, one of the three trustees under the will of Stephen Wood, who died in 1892, was not liable to make good a loss of about $5580 by reason of the breach of trust of his co-trustee, Burnham, who died in December, 1897. The testator by his will desired, "that the said John Burnham in the administration and management of my estate shall be entitled to the same professional remuneration as if he were not such trustee as aforesaid." After the commencement of this action in January, 1899, the plaintiff for valuable consideration, released the third trustee, Carruthers, from all liability for breach of trust, reserving her rights against defendant, Denne. The Master found that Denne had no reason whatever to suspect that Burnham, whose reputation for honesty and integrity was very high in the community, would be guilty of misappropriation of the trust funds; that when the testator was about to make his will he asked Denne to become one of the executors and trustees, but Denne refused, as he said he was old and did not know much about such things; thereupon the testator told him he did not want him to act in that way, because Burnham would manage everything as he had always been heretofore doing, and that he only wanted Denne's name, in order that if anything should happen to Burnham, Denne would communicate with testator's son-in-law in England, the defendant Carruthers; that thereupon Denne consented, honestly believing that he was not obliged to take any part in the management of the estate. The Master also found that the beneficaries and third trustee, Carruthers, acquiesced in the sole management of the estate by Burnham; and that defendant Denne was not liable, referring to R S O ch 129, sec 3-28, 62 Vict, ch 10, sec 1; and holding that there had been here no delegation of the trust, and even had he (Denne) been sole trustee, and had left the management of the estate to Burnham, he would not have been liable; Speight v Gaunt, 22 Ch D, at pp 762, 768. Counsel for appellants contended that defendant's evidence showed that he accepted the trust simply on account of gratitude, and does not support the defence or Master's finding; that any verbal agreement between testator and Denne as to latter's responsibility could not be give in evidence or affect Denne's liability. He accepted the burdens of the trusts afterwards, without disclosing any understanding he had with the testator, and the law cast upon him certain duties, not in relation to the testator, but to the other parties interested, and his duties are towards them, and any relieving agreement must be with them. They referred inter alia to Clark v Bellamy, 30 O R 532, re Turner, Barker v Ivimey, (1897) 1 Chy 536, Wynne v Tempest, 13 Times L R 360, Robinson v Harkin, (1896) 2 Chy 415, and F A Anglin on Trustees, etc., where the cases are collected. They also contended that parol evidence of any agreement with testator, in effect varying the will could not be given; Williams on Executors, 9th ed, p 1160, G H Watson, K C, and Louis M Hayes, Peterborough, for defendants. R S O ch 129, ss 3, shows that probate creates no liability in the trustee. Mitchell v Ritchie, 11 Gr 511, 12 Gr 88 is directly in point. Cumming v Landed Banking & Loan Co, 19 A R, 447, 22 S C R, 246, and Ewart v Gordon, 13 Gr 40, show when character of executor ends and trustee begins. Here the defendant acted "honestly and reasonably, and ought fairly to be excused," 62 Vict 15, and the discretion of the court has been exercised in the first instance by the Master, and then on appeal, and ought not to be reviewed. Re Clifford (1900) 2 Chy 707, is also in point. The release of Carruthers released Denne, Sharp v Jackson, (1899) A C at p 426. Whether relationship be debtor and creditor or joint tort feasor; Dock v Mayere (1892) 2 Q B 513. The release is not a covenant not to sue. Ex p ——— Clifford, 6 Ves 608 as to reservation clause. Not finished.

MANY MESSAGES AT ONCE.

Signor Marconi So Predicts of Wireless Telegraphy.

New York, Jan. 14. — William Marconi, the inventor of wireless telegraphy, was the guest of honor last evening at the annual dinner of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. The only formal addresses were those by President Charles Proteus Steinmetz, Signor Marconi, Prof. Elihu Thomson and Dr. Michael I. Pupin.

Signor Marconi, on being introduced, first described what his system had accomplished. He then referred to the prevailing opinion that when a message is sent into space any one of the necessary apparatus can intercept that message and read it.

He said: "Messages can only be read when the receiver and transmitter are attuned. This attuned system as perfected is not at present deemed necessary that each ship should be equipped with apparatus which will permit of their reading a message sent from any other ship because of the possibility of aid being required in case of danger."

PURSUERS' HORSES GAVE OUT

Lord Kitchener's Weekly Report of a Hopeful Character—During the Week Ending Jan. 11, There Were Captured Boers 203, Surrendered 90, Killed 20 and Wounded 9 —Canadian Boys Off.

London, Jan. 15.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Johannesburg, dated Monday, Jan. 13, reported the narrow escape of Gen. Botha from capture by Gen. Bruce Hamilton. Hearing of a concentration of Boers at Knapdaar, Bruce Hamilton went to the spot, but only to find the Boers had been given the alarm, and 400 of them were trekking three miles distant, with Gen. Botha, in a Cape cart, leading.

Bruce Hamilton chased the Boers for seven miles, until his horses gave out, and captured 32 Boers and quantities of ammunition and stock.

Kitchener's Weekly Report.

Perhaps the most important point in Lord Kitchener's weekly report, dated Johannesburg, Monday, Jan. 13, is the omission of all mention of Gen. Dewet, from which it is deduced that the British Commander-in-Chief is more than usually hopeful of effective results from his present efforts to surround Dewet. The British Commander-in-Chief reports that since Jan. 6 20 Boers have been killed, 9 have been wounded and 208 have been captured, and 90 have surrendered.

To Checkmate Stead.

London, Jan. 15.—A despatch from Wellington, N.Z., to The Times says W. T. Stead has returned the £200 paid for advertising New Zealand in The Review of Reviews to put the colony in the position of accepting a free advertisement from a pro-Boer. The New Zealand Government, however, will probably checkmate Mr. Stead by using the money to send more men to South Africa.

OFF FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

Troopship Manhattan Departs With Part of Third Contingent.

Halifax, Jan. 15.—The first detachment of the Canadian Mounted Rifles, consisting of D, E and F Squadrons and four troops of A Squadron are now on the briny deep, having embarked yesterday morning on the troopship Manhattan, without any special incident. Large crowds assembled to see the boys off, but there was no particular enthusiasm. At the camp the departing lads were warmly cheered by their comrades, and the general talk was "I'll see you in Cape Town." Col. Evans and Adjutant Church led the march, the 1st C. A. band playing the men to the ship, where a guard of honor from the R.C.R. with a band met them. Major-General O'Grady-Haly, Col. Cotton, Col. White and other officers were on the jetty. After the men were on board Col. Cotton and other members of the Examining Board inspected the quarters. The ship sailed at 2 o'clock. Veterinary Officer James of Ottawa and Capt. Snider of Portage la Prairie were on the ship.

Thirty Westerners Recruited.

Winnipeg, Jan. 15.—A party of about 30 western men who have recruited to complete the new contingent of C.M.R. for South Africa, arrived in the city from the west yesterday afternoon. The party have all been enlisted in the west, none of them being in the division under Major Gardiner, D.O.C. From Fort Steele there are 16 men, 6 from Calgary, the balance from Medicine Hat and Regina.

Winnipeg, Jan. 15.—Capt. Woodhouse, formerly quartermaster-sergeant of Mounted Rifles in the Yukon, passed through here Monday to join the C.M.R. at Halifax. He walked from Dawson City to White Horse, to enlist with the C.M.R., a distance of about 400 miles. He declined to give an account of his long walk, saying it was nothing to brag of.

Gorrie Drank Belladonna.

Toronto, Jan. 15.—At 1 o'clock this morning, Louis Gorrie was taken to the Emergency Hospital, suffering from belladonna poisoning. He was unconscious and appeared to be in a critical condition. The usual antidotes were administered, with the result that he recovered somewhat. At 2 o'clock he was still in an unconscious condition. How Gorrie came to take the poison is not definitely known. Gorrie is about 25 years of age and has a wife and one child. He is a tailor.

SHULTZ TO HANG FEB. 7

His Excellency Lord Minto Declined to Interfere.

MR. GILBERT PARKER'S VISIT

Senate Becoming Liberal—Conservative Seats Vacant Through Death and Old Age—Hon. David Mills' Poems—Manitoba School Funds Augmented—Business of the Sault Ste. Marie Canal.

Ottawa, Jan. 15.—His Excellency the Governor-General has declined to interfere in the case of Frederick Lindley, alias Shultz, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Craig at Sault Ste. Marie, and the condemned man will accordingly be hanged on Feb. 7th.

Mr. Parker's Visit.

Mr. Gilbert Parker, M.P., is in the city. He had luncheon at the Rideau Club yesterday with Lieut.-Col. Biggar, who, like himself, claims Belleville as his birthplace. Last evening Mr. Parker dined at the residence of the Premier. Among those invited to meet the distinguished novelist were Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. William Mulock, Hon. F. W. Borden, Sir Sandford Fleming, Sir John Bourinot, Lieut.-Col. Biggar, Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ald. P. D. Ross and Mr. Arthur Guise. Mr. Parker leaves this morning for Toronto.

The Senate Becoming Liberal.

The political complexion of the Senate is rapidly changing and the Conservative majority has almost disappeared. At the present time the upper Chamber is composed of 43 Conservatives and 34 Liberals. Senator Prowse's recent death increases the vacancies to four. These will be filled by the appointment of supporters of the Government, so that when Parliament meets the Liberals will number 38, as against 43 Conservatives. This would give the Opposition an apparent majority of five. As, however, a number of Conservative Senators may be unable to attend, owing to their advanced age, it is quite possible that the coming session may witness a Liberal majority in the Senate on a straight party vote for the first time for many years. When the four vacancies in the Senate have been filled, it will make thirty appointments to the Senate by the Laurier Government in five and a half years, as against 41 appointments by the Conservative Ministers in 18 years. The last Conservative to be admitted to the Senate was Hon. Louis J. Forget. He was appointed on June 15th, 1896, just eight days before the Tupper Government met with its disastrous defeat. The first Liberal elevated to the Senate by the Laurier Government was Hon. Alfred A. Thibaudeau. He was called on August 22nd, 1896.

Notes.

Lieut.-Col. Smith, editor of The Militia Gazette has been appointed a member of the Medal Claims Board, and has arrived in Ottawa to take up his work. Lieut.-Col. Smith is regarded as an able exponent of military matters.

The Cobourg Company of Garrison Artillery is given 200 marks out of a possible 220, for general proficiency.

The fifteen trackers asked for by Lord Kitchener have been recruited in the west, and are now on their way to Halifax to join the main body of the Mounted Rifles at Halifax.

A charming collection of poems by Hon. David Mills has just been published here. There are thirty-two pieces in the little volume, all of more or less merit. Some of them have a beauty and charm which strikingly reveal the fine mind and poetic genius of the author.

$100,000 a Year For Manitoba.

Ottawa, Jan. 15.—The Dominion Government has decided to ask Parliament at the ensuing session to amend the act so as to permit of the accruing interest upon the sale of school lands in Manitoba to be paid over to that province from year to year. This will probably increase the income of the province by $100,000 per year.

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Some Sensible Advice to Women by Mrs. E. Sailer.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I passed through what is known as 'change of life,' I had two years' suffering,—sudden heat, and as quick chills would pass over me; my appetite was variable and I never could tell for a day at a time how I would feel the next day. Five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound changed all that, my days became days of health, and I have enjoyed every day since—now six years.

"We have used considerable of your Vegetable Compound in our charitable work, as we find that to restore a poor mother to health so she can support herself and those dependent upon her, if such there be, is truer charity than to give other aid. You have my hearty endorsement, for you have proven yourself a true friend to suffering women."—MRS. E. SAILER, 756½ Hill St., Los Angeles, Cal.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

No other person can give such helpful advice to women who are sick as can Mrs. Pinkham, for no other has had such great experience—her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice free—if you are sick write her—you are foolish if you don't.

ADDRESS TO FATHER McCOLL.

Appended is the address which was read to Rev. Father McColl in connection with the presentation mentioned in yesterday's issue:

To the Rev. Father McColl, Parish Priest, Ennismore:

We, the members of St. Martin's church of the parish of Ennismore, have learned with feeling of deepest regret, that this parish is about to lose its priest, one, who for the past nine years has laboured unceasingly and untiringly for the good of the parish, and the advancement of the interests of the church, and at the same time we feel it a privilege to have an opportunity of showing you, in some small way, our esteem and our love.

Nine years ago you came amongst us for the first time an entire stranger, to assume the weighty responsibilities of this parish; you are now leaving us, not as a stranger, but as a greatly beloved friend whose departure fills our hearts with sadness. You proved, Rev. Father, a spiritual guide whose wise counsel and admonitions have worked incalculable good in our parish. By your piety, your zeal and devotion, to Holy Mother church, you have set before your parishioners an example that has left a deep and lasting impression on the minds and in the hearts of your flock. The spiritual life of the congregation has been quickened by your painstaking care and the faithful discharge of your sacred duties. Nine years constitute but a brief season in the life of a parish, but this period, brief as it is, has been full of good work, a period rounded out by harmonious, friendly, loving relations between the pastor and his people, a period in which the members of the congregation have derived lasting benefit from your wise and wholesome teaching, in which they have learned how to live, the better, a Christian life, and to discharge their duties as faithful and loyal children of the church.

Not alone have you looked after our spiritual welfare. In the discharge of your manifold and arduous duties as a priest, you have found time to acquire a full and perfect knowledge of the conditions necessary for our temporal success. At great personal sacrifice, you stored your mind with these facts, so useful to the agricultural community over which you presided. The progress made by your parishioners during the term of your incumbency speak conclusively of the great benefit they have derived from your instructions, and while we trust we have spiritually advanced under your teaching, we feel that we are better and more prosperous farmers, as a result of the interest you have taken in the practical and temporal duties of our life. Your practical and technical knowledge of advanced agriculture has produced amongst us results of greatest moment and conduced to our temporal well-being in no small degree.

But we recognize in you, reverend Father, one quality which has won our affection in a permanent degree. The interest you have taken in our children, the care and love you have bestowed on the little ones of our parish, has gained for you a warm spot in our hearts. With never ceasing zeal you have inculcated in their young minds the principles and doctrine of their holy religion. You have, by your piety and devotion, created and nourished in their hearts a love for their church, and with advancing years, you have formed their character and laid for their future years a deep and broad foundation upon which to build the superstruction of a true, Christian life. In this manner have you sown in the minds of our children the seeds of spiritual life, that in due time, will blossom into bright fruition of Christian virtues. If, of all your good qualities, this stood alone, it would have won for you a debt of gratitude which we could never hope to repay, and, in years to come, we and our children will remember in our prayers, with grateful hearts, the kind and loving priest, who has in our midst wrought lasting good.

We feel therefore, that in your removal we are losing a good friend, a wise counsellor and a spiritual adviser, who, in thought, word and deed worked for his people's good.

At the same time we desire to express our satisfaction on learning that your many stirling qualities have raised you to a position of great importance and usefulness, as evinced by your recent appointment to the important position of rector at St. Peter's Cathedral at Peterborough. It is with the greatest regret that we see you leave us. We would indeed have you live with us yet for many years. But we bow in humble submission to the will of our good Bishop, whose command we, as you also, reverend Father, must obey. He knows best in his wisdom the needs of the wide diocese entrusted to his care, and the changes he finds necessary to make though they may cause wrenches of the heart, yet we are sure they are made, with a single eye to the good of his people, and though we lose a good and loving pastor, we have the great consolation of knowing that we have provided for us, as your successor, a young and zealous priest who will, we doubt not, continue your work with the fervour and devotion for which he is characterized.

In conclusion, Father, let us say that though you will no longer live amongst us, yet we know that you will not forget your old parishioners, and we trust that you will often avail yourself of the opportunity of again seeing your old friends.

We are, reverend Father,
Yours respectfully,
Signed on behalf of the parish,
PAUL COSTELLO,
WILLIAM CROUGH,
MARTIN DORAN,
JOHN O'DONOGHUE,
WILLIAM SULLIVAN,
MICHAEL PERDUE,

Are Quick To See

Good Doctors are Quick to See and Appreciate Real Merit in New Medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and disordered digestion.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the

Purging is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help and you will have no trouble.

Its a common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—

Mrs. E. M. Faith of Byrd's Creek, Wis., says: "I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them, I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says:—"Mr. White, of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia from which he had suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50 cents to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

All druggists sell them. A little book on stomach diseases will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Baby's cold may be cured in a night by using Vapo-Cresolene, which has been extensively in use for twenty-four years. All druggists

VANITY OF VANITIES

Andrew Carnegie Has Learned Lesson of Long Ago 'Preacher.'

TALKS OF WEALTH AND ITS USES

There's Nothing in Money Beyond a Competence Says the Multi-Millionaire—Recommends a Good Managing Wife and Laughter to Working Men—Mr. Carnegie's Advice at Y.M.C.A. Meeting.

New York, Jan. 15.—The 26th anniversary of the railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian Association was celebrated last night in this city. There are 170 local railway branches of the Y.M.C.A. in the United States and Canada, with a membership of more than 43,000, and an annual expenditure of more than $400,000, of which sum the railway corporations contribute about 50 per cent.

Andrew Carnegie in an address discussed wealth and its uses, and made use of these expressions: "The best of wealth is not what it does for the owner, but what it enables him to do for others.

"And let me tell you there is nothing in money beyond having a competence, nothing but the satisfaction of being able to help others.

"It is one of the most cheering facts of our days that under present conditions the wages of labor tend to rise, and the price of necessaries of life to fall.

"There is nothing that the success and happiness of a working man so much depends upon as a good managing wife.

"And here let one who has almost without intention or desire had himself loaded with somewhat more than a competence, tell you soberly that what one has beyond this brings little with it, and sometimes nothing desirable with it. What all of you should strive for is a competence, without which Junius has said no man can be happy. No man should be happy without it if it be within reach, and I urge all of you to save a part of your earnings these prosperous days and put it in savings banks at interest or, better still, buy a home with it.

"It took me some time to learn, but I did learn, that the supremely great managers, such as you have these days, never do any work to speak of themselves; their point is to make others work while they think. I applied this lesson in after life so that they did the work and I did the laughing, and I commend to your superintendents the thought that there is very little success where there is little laughter. The workingman who rejoices in his work and laughs away its discomforts is the man sure to rise."

THE LEGISLATURE.

18,000 Applications Received For Volunteer Land Grants, and 2,750,000 Have Been Set Aside For Occupancy.

Toronto, Jan. 15.—At the Legislative Assembly yesterday, a large number of petitions, principally from Methodist churches, were presented, praying for the enactment of a prohibitory liquor law.

Mr. Hoyle introduced a bill to reduce the expenses of the administration of justice.

Mr Matheson asked what amount was received by the Province during the past year as bonus on timber limit sales, and what amount was still owing on account of bonus on past sales.

Hon. E. J. Davis stated that the amount received was $571,383 and that the sums falling due between the present time and June 20th, amounted to an aggregate of $210,-247.

Mr. Matheson asked how many applications had been received for volunteer land grants under the act of last session; how many townships had been set aside for such grants, and what was their total area.

Hon. Mr. Davis replied that about 18,000 applications had been received and that 19 townships had been set aside as open for the location of volunteer land grants, having a total area of 2,750,000 acres. No grants had as yet been located.

The House rose after a sitting lasting about a quarter of an hour.

PROHIBITION IN P.E.I.

The Supreme Court in Latest Judgment Sustains the Act.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Jan. 15.—The Supreme Court yesterday morning delivered judgment as to the validity of the Prohibition Act. The decision arose out of application by Angus McDonald to remove by certiorari a record of a conviction made against him to the Supreme Court on the ground that the Prohibition Act is ultra vires. The judges were unanimous in sustaining the law. McDonald's application was dismissed.

A Prohibition Act on the same lines as the Manitoba Act went into force in the Province of Prince Edward Island last spring. It prohibits the sale of intoxicants within the province, but does not prohibit the importation, so that it does not interfere with Dominion revenues in the same way that it has been declared the Manitoba Act does interfere.

There is a peculiarity, however, about the Prince Edward Island Act. The Scott Act was in force in every county and town of the province, except the city of Charlottetown, where it has been in and out of force with varying regularity for some years. The new act gives prohibition to all the island, but in the counties the Scott Act, being the Dominion act, comes first.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The run of live stock at the cattle market to-day was large, 82 carloads all told, composed of 1383 cattle, — hogs, 1474 sheep and lambs, with a few calves.

The quality of fat cattle was not as good as the season should command, too many unfinished lots being rushed in to get the good prices being paid.

Trade was brisk, especially for well-finished butchers and exporters. Medium to common butchers were not as good sale as they were last week.

MONEY RAN SHORT

The Change That Event Produced In the Circus Acrobat.

Some interesting stories are told about the circus business, but one of the best heard in a long while was told by an old press agent:

"The show had had a prosperous season in the north. The proprietor made up his mind there could be no end to good business, and he planned a trip south for the winter months. The cotton crop was poor, and all intelligent circus men steer clear of the south when cotton is poor. His friends went to him and tried to get him to give up the winter trip, but he was persistent.

"When the show struck Arkansas, business began to drop off. The people didn't have the money, and they couldn't patronise the show.

"One Thursday night notices were posted in the dressing tent that the show would close the season on Saturday night and that the employees would receive their salaries on Sunday.

"On Sunday morning all were on hand to get their 'dough.' The cashier was at the window of the ticket wagon and was handing it out with accustomed alacrity. To appreciate this story you must understand that all circuses pay off their hands alphabetically, the Arnolds, the Burtons, the Campbells, Dentons and so on. When the cashier got down to the W's he ran short of money and several had to go without.

"There was a fellow of the stage name of Zeno who did stunts on the horizontal bar and who was late in getting over to the ticket wagon. When he rushed up all out of breath and found the wagon closed, there was plenty of trouble in sight. Some of the other belated employees whose names began with initials near the bottom of the alphabet announced to him that there was no more money, and then the air was blue. He started out on a hunting tour for the circus proprietor.

"'I'd like to know why I don't get my money?' he began.

"'I am sorry, old man,' said the proprietor. 'I have tried to be square. I have paid out my money until I ran short.'

"To make a long story short, the proprietor made all sorts of apologies and finally succeeded in pacifying the horizontal bar man.

"'You have been with me several seasons, and you know that I aim to do what is right,' said the circus proprietor. 'I want you to sign a contract with me for next season, and the first money I make I will see that you are reimbursed for waiting.'

"Zeno signed the contract reluctantly and went away to his home. Spring came, and the 'only big show' was having its seats painted, chariots regilded and everything got in readiness for the opening. About two weeks before the opening the performers began to assemble at winter quarters. One afternoon when the train pulled up at the station Zeno alighted. The proprietor was there to greet him.

"'Hello, Zeno!' he exclaimed as he slapped him on the back. "By Jove, I am glad to see you, old man!'

"'Not on your life!' said Zeno. 'My name is Ajax this season.'"

TO WEAK WOMEN EVERYWHERE

Mrs. Maxwell Tells how Much Pain and Suffering may be Remedied.

A Very Interesting Statement by an Elora Lady—She has Found a Panacea for all Female Weakness and Wants Every Woman in Canada to Know of it.

Elora, Ont., Jan. 12.—(Special.) Mrs. Maxwell of this place has written for publication a very strong letter in which she claims that Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured her of Female Weakness after she had tried almost everything else.

This good lady, according to her statement, suffered for a long time with kidney trouble, enduring the greatest pain with a dizziness and headaches that made her very ill. She was passing through what is always a critical period in every woman's life and her troubles were considerably increased by this. Indeed her life was for a time in great danger.

She says she used Dodd's Kidney Pills with the most remarkable results, being almost instantly relieved and in a very short time completely cured and restored to good health.

She is very grateful and in her letter she says: "I cannot find words to express my gratitude to God for my marvellous cure. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest medicine in the world especially for those of my age.

"I could scarcely move hand or foot I was so dizzy, and violent pains would shoot through my whole system, but now thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills I feel well and smart."

This case and its cure has created quite a sensation and Mrs. Maxwell's full and frank statement of the matter has been the subject of a great deal of comment.

Dodd's Kidney Pills seem to be an infallible cure for Diseases of Women as well as for Rheumatism, Diabetes, Bright's Disease and all Kidney disorders.

A Church Kicker.

"When I go to the theater," says a churchman quoted in the Philadelphia Record, "I sit in a finely upholstered seat. Underneath is a rack for my hat, and on the back of the seat ahead is a place to hang my overcoat. In the church which I attend every Sunday is an uncomfortable, straight backed pew, into which the ushers always insist upon crowding visitors after my wife and I are seated until sometimes six persons are seated in a space scarcely large enough for four to sit comfortably. Hats and wraps must look out for themselves.

"Of course, when I go to the theater I pay for my seat; but, in spite of the fact that salvation is free, I also pay pew rent in church. I might also enter a protest against women wearing their hats in church, but I won't. Sometimes it's a relief to retire behind one."

An Old Friend in Town.

There arrived this morning at Ormond & Walsh's drug store a large consignment of Four T's, that great gaurnnteed cough medicine which cured so many people last winter. If you or your children have coughs or colds don't neglect them but get a 25c. bottle of Four T's and be well in two days.

Beauties of Mt. Assiniboine.

The beauties of Mt. Assiniboine are best seen from the north or west. From these view points the pinnacle rises in an almost perfect pyramid that appeals strongly to the lovers of perfection in the grandeurs of nature. From the north, at a distance of a mile or more from the base, this pyramid peak looks smooth enough to have been chiseled out of the solid granite of which it is constructed. But both the east and the south sides present many attractions to the mountain lover. The regular pyramid of the peak is lost sight of from these points, and especially the south side of the mountain, which but few white men have ever seen, is an almost perpendicular wall rising to a height of thousands of feet. This side of the mountain does not present the beautiful sculptured effect of either the north or west sides, but it presents in its massive rugged walls something that is even more impressive than sculptured walls.

A Painful Accident.

Mr. W. J. Northey, of Smith, met with a painful accident on Tuesday morning while working in the woods. It appears that while trimming up a tree a cedar twig ran into his ear. He at once jerked it out, but fancied by the discomfort he felt that it was not all extracted. The pain increased, and his son Ottis drove him to Peterborough quickly. Dr. McCullough attended the case and found a piece of the twig had punctured the ear drum, and after a painful operation extracted the remaining portion. The organ is causing Mr. Northey a great deal of suffering.

Mr. Kent's Progress.

The Vancouver Province, in a recent issue contains the following reference to Mr. Herbert Kent, formerly of Peterborough:—"Among the candidates for the park commissionership is Mr. Herbert Kent, manager of the local telephone company. Mr. Kent is a well known and highly respected citizen, and is one of Stanley park's most enthusiastic lovers. In pleasant weather he spends most of his spare time there. In the minds of most of us he has become identified with Stanley park by reason of his affection for it. He knows every nook and corner of it and is enthusiastic in plans for its improvement. Mr. Kent should make a very good park commissioner. The Province would like to see him elected."

SPORTING PASTIMES.

HOCKEY.

Lindsay played Port Hope in Cobourg last night, and the latter club won by 6 goals to 5. If Peterborough can win from Port Hope in Cobourg the district championship will be easily landed. If Port Hope wins, however, the three clubs will be a tie and the games will have to be replayed.

There will be a hockey practice this evening as well as a scratch match to-morrow night between the Colts and Intermediates.

Lindsay by their showing against Port Hope last night are right in the running for this district, and Tuesday night's game here will, no doubt, be a most interesting one.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the second form boys of the Collegiate Institute, a hockey club was formed, with the following officers:

Patrons — Mr. C. Fessenden, Mr. J. Fife, Mr. J. Jefferies.

Patronesses — Miss M. Fife, Mrs. J. Fife, Mrs. Fessenden, and Mrs. Jefferies.

Hon. Pres. — H. R. H. Kenner.

There are a number of promising young players in this form, among whom are the following, H. Hall, T. Kelly, A. Mulhern, H. Cressman, R. Orr, W. O'Brien, A. Mann, H. Sawers, R. Todd and B. Kelly.

The club then chose their colours after a great deal of discussion. They are blue and white.

LOTTIE TAYLOR TOOK HER LIFE.

Sad Case of Suicide in Belmont Township.

TOOK 5 GRAINS STRYCHNINE

And Then got Into Bed—Was 15 Years of Age—She Wrote a Letter to Her Father.

A very sad case of suicide is reported from Belmont Township, the unfortunate victim being Lottie Taylor, the 15 year old daughter of Mr. Thomas Taylor, who resides near Belmont Lake. The deed which ended a bright young life was committed on Saturday night, the girl taking five grains of strychnine which she purchased from a drug store at Havelock, alleging it to be for the purpose of poisning two dogs. The girl was found dead in bed by her father on Sunday morning, and the circumstances are told in a letter from Dr. Jeffs to Coroner Gray. The Havelock physician writes as follows:

Sunday, Jan. 12th.

I was called to the case this a.m. Investigation shows that she committed suicide last night between 10 p.m. and 2 a.m., by taking five grains of strychnine, which she procured from the drug store here, for the purpose of poisoning two dogs. The girl is fifteen years of age, and lived nine miles from the village. As far as I can find out she had no motive for doing the deed. She was unwell a month ago. She preferred working out to staying home, and was very fond of dancing. She wrote the enclosed note and left it on the table beside the strychine bottle, spoon, and some sweetened tea. Then she went to bed after putting on a clean white pair of drawers and night gown. She died on her back in a natural position in bed. The girl was a very wilful person, and anything she took a notion to do she generally accomplished. She was to a dance on Tuesday night, and some parties at it told her that she could not come to the dances if she did not keep better company, referring to her escort, he being a man addicted to drink.

Dear Father and Brothers,—I cannot be with you always—you all seem to think that I have disgraced you all. I think I will put a finishing touch on it. I will my soul to God and pray that you will all go to heaven when you die, and I die forever. I hope the people will be able to talk about me to their satisfaction when I am gone.

Good-bye to you all

LETTER FROM HALIFAX.

Messrs. Bert Cranfield and Leo O'Connor Express Their Thanks for Send-off.

The following letter has been received by the Examiner from Messrs. Bert Cranfield and Leo O'Connor, two Peterborough boys who are now members of the Canadian Mounted Rifles. In some unexplainable manner the letter has been delayed in transmission, having been mailed some time ago.

Halifax, N.S., Jan 3.

Dear Editor, — We desire through the columns of your paper to express our hearty thanks to the boys of the Canadian General Electric Company Works, and to our many friends in town for the complimentary supper and purse presented to us on our departure from town for Halifax, en route to South Africa. It is difficult to find words to express our feelings in this respect, and also to those who assisted in giving us such a hearty send off; but we wish to say that their kindness is much appreciated by us, and we will in every instance do our best through our actions to bring honour and credit to the town. We will never forget the good old town and the thousands of loyal Canadians who gathered at the station to bid us farewell. The boys here are all well and desire to be remembered to all at home. Again thanking our many friends, and you, Mr. Editor, for your kindness, we remain, yours truly,

Bert Cranfield,
Leo O'Connor.

DOWN THE RIVER.

Has Mr. Wedlock Sold His Handsome Residence?—Dr. Willis' Enterprise.

It is said that Mr. James Wedlock has sold his handsome residence, "Frogmore," on the banks of the Otonabee River, and intends locating at Boyce's Landing, better known as Highland Park, about two and a half miles below Hale's Bridge. The purchasers of Mr. Wedlock's residence are said to be American gentlemen. Highland Park is one of the prettiest spots on the river, and would make an ideal summer resort

Dr. Willis, of Hiawatha Lodge, is erecting a small chapel on his premises. This will prove to be quite a convenience for those who spend the summer on the Otonabee.

PETERBOROUGH AND THE CABINET.

(From the Peterborough Times.)

The Review seems to be critical of the Lakefield News because the latter has declared itself in support of Mr. Stratton as a candidate for the representation of West Peterborough. We congratulate the News because it has had the manliness to take a definite stand, and because that stand is one looking to the promotion of the best interests of the riding and of the town of Peterborough. Peterborough has been long enough in the background and now is the time we need a friend in court, that is to say, that it is decidedly in the interests of the town to have as its representative a Cabinet Minister and Member of the Government, so that this town will be represented both in the House and in the Government, who will have greater opportunities in this double capacity to give this town more effective service than he was ever able to do in an ordinary representative capacity. That is not to say that Mr. Stratton has not well done his duty by Peterborough in the past. But we now need all the friends and all the influence we can reasonably command. Peterborough is on the eve of great development and the great industries now coming into operation are only a beginning of what our facilities warrant, and our ambition urges us to try to accomplish. We are on the highway to a higher realization of what our future as a manufacturing centre, and centre of population should be. Anyone familiar with affairs knows that in doing things friends with connections, business, financial and otherwise, can, where the will is added, do much to help forward the progress of the town. Mr. Stratton has been a good friend to Peterborough in the past. He is known as an energetic and indefatigable worker; he never lets pass unheeded a chance to do the town a good turn, and since he has become a Minister his zeal for Peterborough's interest seems to have increased with his increased capacity to serve the interests of the town. This may seem to be a narrow and parochial view to take of a representative's relations. But we have reason to know that while Mr. Stratton discharges his official duties most successfully and carefully—improving the service with decreased expenditure, among the benefits of his business knowledge and experience—his capacity for work leaves him ample opportunity for helping this town and this riding. We have the best town in Canada, better than most of the minor cities, so called, and we want to use every aid available, and employ the services of the most powerful and influential friends we have. One of these is the Provincial Secretary, and it seems to be a pertinent question to consider whether or not our interests do not demand that the services we have tested to our advantage should be retained. The Times in the coming campaign will heartily give its support to Mr. Stratton from the Peterborough standpoint.

SEWERAGE SYSTEM FOR ASHBURNHAM.

A Paper Read on the Subject Last Night.

AT THE CIVIC ASSOCIATION.

An Interesting Meeting Which was Held Last Night—Mr. F. Adams Occupied the Chair.

A meeting of the Ashburnham Civic Association was held in the Council Chamber last night, and while the attendance was not very large, the interest displayed in the meeting was most encouraging. The chair was occupied by Mr. Frank Adams in the absence of the president, Mr. E. A. Peck.

It was decided to postpone the election of officers for the ensuing year until the next meeting of the Association.

The chairman then called upon Mr. R. B. Rogers, superintending engineer of the Trent Valley Canal, to give a paper on "Sewerage System in Ashburnham." His address was of more than ordinary interest and was much appreciated. The estimated cost would be $10,000. He illustrated his talk by the use of maps, etc.

After some preliminary remarks, Mr. Rogers continued as follows:

Let us consider first the sanitary condition of the houses in our village, for like a crowd of people the crowd is made up of individuals, and the condition of that crowd is as the condition of each of the individuals composing that crowd; so the sanitary condition of the crowd of houses which we call our village is as the sanitary condition of each of the houses within its bounds. What are the sanitary arrangements found in the greater majority of the houses in our village. The space occupied by the dwelling house, the outhouses, wells are comparatively small, though not necessarily so. Am I not right when I say that the general rule is to throw the dish water out on the nearest unoccupied ground near the back door, and the ordinary house slops not much farther out or into the privy pit? When the heat of the sun strikes on the back yards in the spring or summer will any one say that the sanitary condition of such yards is good? Next take the position and condition of that necessary building, the privy. In ninety-nine out of every hundred it is the ordinary pit closet in which the liquids percolate into the adjoining soil, which if not far enough from the well from which the drinking water is obtained, will soon make itself felt amongst the members of the family. Not only is the smell of such closets disagreeable, but the gases arising therefrom are most injurious to the health of the members of the family, and also to those of the next adjoining property owing to the condition in which so many closets are kept. As to the wells; as I have just mentioned, how many wells are located only a few feet from the closets, or the place where the house slops are thrown out. If the nature of the soil between the well and closet is at all porous it is not long before the water is contaminated by the closet, and diphtheria, and fevers follow.

Now I think I have fairly stated the facts as they exist in our midst, and I think you will agree with me that they are not satisfactory, but the question is, what is the best method to adopt to improve the condition of things? The majority of our voters have cast their votes in order to make our village more than the ordinary country village, in that they have voted to have a complete system of waterworks. In doing this they have changed very considerably the former conditions of things, and having done so, they should go further, and provide for the changed conditions of affairs. We have water at our doors provided by the common tax of ourselves. The more users of this water the cheaper the individual tax becomes for the support of the system as a whole, so the object of all should be to increase the number of users of water. But the use of city water means the free use of water, and the question is, what are we to do with the comparatively large extra quantity of waste water? If the full benefit and economy of the city water supply is to be enjoyed, sinks have to be used, and the question is, where is the waste water from the sinks to go to? It has either to run into the open yard, or a cess pool, or a sewer. As to the question of allowing the waste water to run into the open yard. I do not think there is any difference of opinion that it is most injurious to the health, not only to the members of the household, but those also in the immediate neighbourhood where such a mess is at our doors. In the next place if a system of cess pools are inaugurated, before a great length of time these will, likewise, prove a public nuisance and a nuisance to the public health, and in the long run resort will have to be made to providing a system of sewerage, after the soil of a great part of our village is polluted by open drains and cess pools. With regard to the system of sewerage to be adopted; there are a number of systems of sewerage but I do not think when we consider the natural features of our village that there is any room for doubt as to which system should be adopted, viz: the combined system or the same system as they have in the town of Peterborough. Without having the actual levels of the streets but judging by my eye as to the levels of the different streets of our village, I should say that it would be hard to conceive of more favourable conditions for an economical system of sewers than exists in our village. Let us consider what these conditions are: The first and most important consideration is, where are we to empty the sewage? I should say that the nearest point where we could empty the sewage would be at a point in the current of the river on the east side about half way between the point of the cemetery and the locks bridge. The current and volume of water is sufficient to carry all the sewage we will have without any nuisance or inconvenience being created. The sewer pipe could easily be laid along the bottom of the lake, along the east shore at a depth of say, five feet; the water being let out of the lake to allow of this being done, under which conditions it could be done very economically, merely a ditch being made the depth of the pipe. This main sewer would then leave the lake at a point near the new lock at the entrance of the canal on the east side. It would then pass along the low land east of the lock and cross the canal above the upper entrance piers of the lock, and cross the low land to a point near the intersection of Sophia street with the abandoned right of way of the G.T.R. From this point the sewer would run along the east side of the railway track to Elizabeth street, which is the lowest level at which the connection between the north and south side of the village, and is most favourable for such a purpose. I do not anticipate that there would be any trouble in obtaining permission from the G.T.R. Company to sink the sewer, as suggested, along their right of way From the intersection of Elizabeth street the main sewer could be carried along Elizabeth street, easterly and up Stewart street, as far as Dufferin street. Sewers from the hill on Lake street opposite Mrs. John Burnham's could be carried north along Lake street to Elizabeth street, to the main sewer at the G. T. R. track. The sewer on Mark street would run both north and south from opposite the school building. Brown street sewer would run south to Elizabeth street, and Douro street east and west from the main sewer on Stewart street—and so on. There appears from a casual survey of the different localities that there would be no difficulty in reaching any part of the village, except some very small isolated portions. When necessary, the main sewer could be carried northward from the north of Stewart street along the low ground beside the creek.

Now as regards the cost of the system. Of course no one would ever think of constructing a complete system of sewers to cover the whole village, or even a great part, without spreading it over a number of years, and in this way the burden of taxation would be greatly lightened. But a start will have to be made, and as a matter of course the sewer will have to be started at the outlet, and run up to say Elizabeth street.

A LETTER FROM CHINA.

Local Missionaries Resuming Their Work Amongst the Orientals.

Kiating, Oct. 1st, 1901.

To the Leagues of the Peterborough and Cobourg Districts,—

Dear Fellow-workers, — Greetings to all from your representative in Kiating, China. Yes, we have arrived at our station, and it is a pleasure to be among the people once more. They all seemed pleased to see us, and our old friends have given us a most hearty welcome.

I think our last letter to you was written after our arrival in Chungking. On reaching there we found all the foreign houses suffering from congestion. However, Dr. Kilborn kindly made room for us. During the time we remained with them our eldest daughter was very ill with fever, and when the hot season came on the Commissioner of Customs kindly offered us the use of his bungalow on the hills, an offer of which we were most thankful to avail ourselves. During our two months stay there our wee lassie got quite strong again, and we all gained in health.

On Monday, September 2nd, the heat having moderated, we moved again to the city and prepared for our overland trip, setting out on Wednesday, September 4th. The overland travelling in China has many unpleasant features, but it is so much quicker than the water, that one can put up with much. Our trip to Chentu, a distance of 340 miles, occupied only 11 days, Sundays inclusive, as compared with six weeks required to make the 500 miles by river. In overland travel one must carry one's own bedding, also an oiled sheet to first spread over the inn beds in order to insure a degree of freedom from lice, bed bugs, etc. The bread, meat, etc., must also be carried as there is no chance to prepare them en route. We lived to a great extent on rice, native vegetables, and yet had four coolie loads, each coolie carrying more than 80 pounds.

We treated ourselves to the luxury of three carriers to each sedan-chair. This is very unChinesy—no Chinaman, no matter how heavy, would use his money so foolishly, unless he be an official. But we feel that there is no more practical way of teaching Christian principles than by using some of God's money to lighten the burdens of his poor heavily ladened ones. We cannot afford as Christ's "living epistle" to be niggardly and as self seeking as the heathen about us. Our day's journey was from twenty-seven to forty miles according to the difficulties of the road and the convenience of the stopping places.

When we first came to China it seemed terrible to be carried by men and even yet Dr. Smith has a strong dislike for it. But the men beg for the privilege to carry you if they see you walking. It is to them what mining or stone quarrying is to a man at home, a means of livelihood, and the only means they have.

We had a delightful trip. One thing that the Chinese excel in is farming. Their little terraced farms are like gardens. Scarcely a weed; no land neglected. It was nearly the end of the rice harvest when we started out and, because of the dry season, the crop had been very disappointing in that region where they depend on the natural rain supply. Whole fields were left uncut, some not headed at all, and many with heads unfilled. It was very interesting to watch the flooded rice fields being ploughed. The crude single handed plough drawn by the ungainly, plodding water-buffalo; man and beast wading knee deep in mud and water, all of which we had ample time to note. Dr. Smith remarked that you would require a magnifying glass to see them move. Certain I am, the poor despised ox team of Canada are swift in comparison. But it must be weary work for the clumsy creatures to draw their great weight free, sunk thus to the body in mud. Further on our journey we saw the sweet potato vines in profusion. Also fields of cotton plant with yellow blossoms, green bole and the opened bole with downy fruit peeping from it, all on the same plant. Several places women and children were gathering the down. The plants we saw were no where higher than ordinary currant bushes, not growing in clusters, but, singly distributed about a foot apart. The sugar cane was abundant in some districts and grew to great heights. Some we judged was nearly fifteen feet high. When we reached the great Chentu Plat, where the system of irrigation is perfect, the rice was just ripening and gave promise of a most abundant harvest. At three o'clock on Saturday, Sept. 15th, we reached Chentu. We had given no notice of our coming but some of our old servants saw us pass and came running to welcome us. The families on our own street, too, came to their doors to greet us. It was so good to see them all and to get home. Yes it was home, and those who greeted us were friends, glad to see us back. God has been good to us. Thoughts of the past, its discouragements, dangers and preservations; the present with its joys and duties; the future so uncertain yet so safe in His keeping, thronged upon us. Praise the Lord for all His mercies. May He give us His grace and spirit that we may work acceptably for Him as long as He wishes us to stay. It was very touching to meet the people. It was refreshing to find some few of the faithful ones among the many for whom the temptations have been too strong. We held a service on Sunday and were pleasantly surprised to find the church full—how so many learned of the service on such short notice I do not know. Dr. Smith preached from the text, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, etc.," Amongst other things he said, "One thing I am ashamed of is, that of those professing to be Christ's many have been so unfaithful as to use the influence of their connection with the foreigner to extort money, unfairly, from those who know not Christ, thus bringing the Church and the Gospel into disrepute. Such deeds must receive their merited punishment."

They all listened most attentively. No one left the church during the service. One feels encouraged when we remember that He has said, "My word shall not return unto Me void." If we sow the seed, He will water it. Oh! one does long for a pure church. It is hard not to be disheartened sometimes, yet that is weak and sinful. The church is not spotless in the home land, where, comparatively speaking, everything tends to help the Christian life. Here in Satan's stronghold, where morals are corrupt to putrifaction and public sentiment is degrading rather than stimulating, we need patience, Christ like patience and forbearance, especially when we remember that these Christians are verily babes in Christ, in spiritual knowledge as well as in spiritual life. Pray for us and for them that we may all be filled with the spirit.

As we were to settle this time in Kiating we remained in Chentu only long enough to pack our furniture, and move down by boat to Kiating. Had a very agreeable voyage, making the one hundred and twenty-five miles in forty hours.

The following Sunday, September 22, we had service in the church here. The school had been kept going, and the children all attended besides a number of others. The text Dr. Smith used on this occasion was "I determined not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified."

We are now pretty well settled. The dust, cobwebs and mould accumulated in the long closed house have been swept and washed from the walls and windows; our furniture has also been washed and put in place, and our dishes and cooking utensils freed from rust and dust, and we are in fair living order once more. We anticipate a pleasant season of service here in Kiating. Pray for us.

Yours in His Service,
GRACE O. SMITH.

THE OFFICIAL TALE.

NOT EAGER FOR A CHANGE IN COLONIAL COURT OF APPEAL

Story of the Failure of the Negotiations Between Representatives of the Colonies—Meeting of the Colonial Experts in London at the Request of the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain—Hon. D. Mills' Part.

A White Paper issued yesterday (Cd. 846. Price 3½d.) contains the correspondence relating to the proposed establishment of a Final Court of Colonial Appeal, with the recommendations of the Conference of Colonial delegates who met in London in June and July last, and the final decision of His Majesty's Government. It will be remembered, says The London Daily News, that a proposal to strengthen the representation of the self-governing colonies on the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council was made known by Mr. Chamberlain during the debate on the Australian Commonwealth Bill. The project was dropped at the time of the representation of the Australian delegates, and it was decided to take an early opportunity of consulting the Colonies on the subject. On February 14, therefore, Mr. Chamberlain telegraphed to the Governor-General and Governors of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Natal that "it is earnestly desired to deal with the matter this session, and His Majesty's Government desire assistance of Colonial legal experts to discuss matters with Lord Chancellor, law officers, and myself," and asking in each case that the name of the delegate proposed by the Colony should be telegraphed as early as possible.

As at first formulated, the plan was that the number of delegates should be confined to a single representative of each of the three great groups of colonies, viz., one from Canada and Newfoundland, one from Australasia, and one from South Africa—though Mr. Chamberlain was prepared, if desired by the colonies in question, to agree to separate representatives from New Zealand and Natal. The manner in which the original suggestion was regarded by these colonies is indicated in their replies. On March 1st Sir W. F. Haly-Hutchison telegraphs:

Ministers desire separate representation of Colony; they suggest W. B. Morcom, K.C., as delegate.

New Zealand is no less prompt:

March 6: Sir James Prendergast, late Chief Justice, has been selected by my Government to discuss Judicial Committee of Privy Council.

Newfoundland is equally anxious for independent representation, and the Crown Colonies, who appear to have been altogether omitted from the scheme, have also a word to say. On April 3rd Sir F. A. Swettenham, Governor of the Straits Settlements, telegraphs:

Legislative Council and Chamber of Commerce urge that one member Final Court Colonial Appeals be selected from Crown Colony Judges or retired judges.

On behalf of Ceylon, Sir J. West Ridgeway forwards on March 29 a memorandum from the Attorney-General of the Colony and resolutions from the bar of Ceylon and the Chamber of Commerce in the same sense, at the same time expressing his own opinion in favor of the adoption of the proposal. As a result of these suggestions Mr. Chamberlain finally appointed Sir W. J. Smith, Chief Justice of Guiana, to represent the Crown colonies at the conference.

There is an interesting despatch from the Earl of Hopetoun, written in reply to Mr. Chamberlain's first despatch, and suggesting the cautious attitude of the Government of the Commonwealth. Telegraphing on February 26, Lord Hopetoun says:

"Referring to your telegram of 14th February Commonwealth Ministers desire to be furnished with some outline of the proposals of His Majesty's Government as to suggested strengthening of colonial representation on the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, in order that they may be the better able to consider what instructions delegates from the Commonwealth should receive in embodiment of their views of the proposal, unless indeed, it should be found preferable to leave the matter entirely in the hands of His Majesty's Government without any special representation of the Commonwealth."

Replying on March 4, Mr. Chamberlain states that:

"No proposals yet formulated beyond decision to provide four additional Law Lords to secure permanent and adequate representation of great colonies and India. Questions of tenure of office, preservation of existing courts and procedure will be for discussion by conference. Earnestly hope your Government will send delegate."

On June 4 Lord Minto transmits a minute of the Privy Council of the Dominion. The Council observe:

Your Excellency's Government is not dissatisfied with the manner in which the Board of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council is at present constituted, and as now advised they do not see any advantage to be gained by the creation of four additional Law Lords, to be chosen from the self-governing colonies, with seats in the House of Lords as well as on the Judicial Committee.

Of late years and since it has become almost the settled practice to summon to the sittings of the Board the most distinguished jurists at the centre of the Empire whose services were available, the people of Canada have been generally satisfied with this condition of things.

The committee is desirous that your Excellency's delegate should thoroughly discuss with the Lord Chancellor, the Law Officers of the Crown, and the other delegates, the many problems which would necessarily follow any attempt to change the existing Appeal Courts of the Empire, and they will be prepared carefully to consider any recommendations which may be made as the outcome of the proposed conference. They repeat, however, their opinion that with the information they at present possess, the creation of the four Colonial Law Lords suggested would not inspire any additional confidence in the Judicial Committee.

The conference held its first meeting on June 26. On July 4 Mr. David Mills, who had been elected chairman, forwards to Mr. Chamberlain the following recommendations:

1. Appeals should continue to lie from the colonies and from India to His Majesty in Council.

2. It is desirable that appointments to the Judicial Committee should be from time to time made in such numbers as may be considered necessary from one or more of the following:

(a) The Dominion of Canada and Newfoundland.
(b) The Commonwealth of Australia.
(c) New Zealand.
(d) South Africa.
(e) The Crown Colonies.
(f) India.

3. A member so appointed should vacate any judicial office which he may be holding at the time of his appointment to the Judicial Committee.

4. The selection of such members should not be restricted to judges and ex-judges.

5. Every such member should be appointed for life or for a term of years. In the event of it being decided that such appointments to the Judicial Committee should be made for a term of years, suitable pensions should be provided for all members who complete such term of office, and the term which may be decided upon should be sufficiently long to be an inducement to properly qualified men to accept appointments to the Judicial Committee. It is considered that such a comparatively short term as seven years would not be sufficient for that purpose. It is recommended that the term should be one of at least fifteen years.

6. Although the question of salary is not apparently one of the matters for the consideration of which the conference has been assembled, it is suggested that the salary to be paid should be sufficiently ample to induce men possessed of suitable qualifications to accept appointments to the Judicial Committee.

7. It is desirable that arrangements should be made for securing a larger attendance of Lords of Appeal at sittings of the Judicial Committee.

8. That, with the view to the avoidance of delay, the simplification of procedure and the lessening of costs, each colony should be invited to suggest such alterations or amendments as it may desire in the Orders in Council, restricting or regulating appeals from such colony and the General Rules of Practice including those as to costs of appeal.

These recommendations are signed by all the delegates except Mr. Emerson (Newfoundland) and Mr. Henry Hodges (Australia) and Sir James Prendergast (New Zealand). In a letter to Mr. Chamberlain Mr. Hodges said that "in his opinion it was desirable that there should be only one Court of Final Appeal, which should have vested in it the appellate jurisdiction of the House of Lords and of His Majesty in Council; that this court should contain representatives from India, Canada, South Africa, and Australia, and should ordinarily sit in two divisions, though, in cases of exceptional difficulty, both divisions might sit together. He was of opinion that it was desirable that an entirely new court should be formed, which he considered would command the administration and respect not only of the whole British race, but of every race in the British dominions, and would be a powerful factor in the development of a closer union between all parts of the empire."

In a despatch to the Governor-Generals and Governors, dated August 10, the Colonial Secretary says that as "the result of the conference has been to show that no far reaching alteration in the present tribunal is desired, or would be considered satisfactory by the colonies generally, and so long as the colonies are of that opinion, His Majesty's Government do not propose to make any material changes for the establishment of an Imperial Court of Appeal."

Western Range Horses.

The great objection Col. Dent had to western range horses was the way in which they were broken. They are allowed to run wild with the bunch until they are often four or five years old before they have a rope on them, it is only natural that such an animal should be nervous and wild. Here is the method of breaking: A rider goes and rounds up the bunch and chases them into the corall; here the victim is selected and from a point in the centre the roper swings his lariat. Sometimes the bronco has to be violently thrown before the saddle can be adjusted. Then the bronco buster mounts armed with guirt and spurs, a contest ensuing in which the horse bucks violently to get clear of a burden it doesn't understand. Sometimes he will have to "break the horse's heart" to conquer him, then the result will be a dead head devoid of spirit.

It was suggested that more attention be paid to the colts—that they should be handled and petted when young and made to understand that men don't mean to injure them, thus greatly minimizing the trouble of breaking when the time came to saddle them.

Papa—Are you sure that you and mamma thought of me while you were away?

Grace—Yes; we heard a man kicking up a great row about his breakfast at the hotel, and mamma said, "That's just like papa."

Extreme Case of Nervousness.

Female Weakness and Exhaustion—Had a Very Painful Operation—Was Pale and Weak and Fainted Often—Doctors Failed to Help her.

There is scarcely a limit to the sufferings which women endure when their nervous system become run down and give way beneath the burdens which they are forced to bear. There are ills peculiar to women, which in nine cases out of ten are the result of a low state of vitality and a depletion of nerve force. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures women of their ills, irregularities and weaknesses by thoroughly restoring the vigour of the nerves.

Every woman will read with interest the following letter from a lady who has been cured of a serious illness by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. She says the testimonials she reads are not half strong enough.

Mrs. Benjamin Hatfield, Hillyard street, St. Johns, N.B., writes: "For three years I was a sufferer from extreme nervousness and female weakness and found it necessary to undergo a very painful operation. I was pale and weak, had no appetite and would sometimes faint two or three times a day. For seven weeks I was under the doctor's care but he seemed unable to help me. Despairing of recovery, I took the advice of a friend, who told me that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food would build me up and make me strong and well again. After four months' use of this preparation I found myself greatly improved, but continued the treatment for one year, using in all sixteen boxes. I have been blessed with a young daughter now, and believe that I am as strong and well as ever in my life. As a result I cannot say too much in favour of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It has performed a complete and thorough cure in my case, and I am healthier and fleshier than I have been for years. The testimonials I see are not half strong enough. I tell my friends and neighbours about it, and many of them join me in pronouncing Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the most effective restorative obtainable. Desiring that other sufferers may benefit by my happy experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I willingly give you permission to use this testimonial."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an up-to-date, scientific preparation of most extraordinary merit. It has proven itself the most effective nerve restorative of the age. It is certain to benefit everyone who uses it, because it forms new red corpuscles in the blood and creates new nerve force. It is especially efficacious in the cures of female ills and weaknesses; 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 9

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355.92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

THE DUST IN THE AIR

ITS FUNCTION IN THE MECHANISM OF A SUNSET.

Color Effects of the Microscopic Particles That Impregnate the Atmosphere—The Hue of the Sun and the Earth's Blanket.

Most people if they were asked to state the color of the sun would say that it was orange, and they would as confidently assert that the color of the atmosphere was blue. Recent researches and investigations, however, point to the conclusion that the real color of the sun is blue, while that of the atmosphere surrounding the earth is orange. Commonly the earth's atmosphere appears so transparent and translucent that it is hard to realize the fact that it has as much effect on the light and heat coming from the sun as if it were a roof of thick glass. But the atmosphere is very far from being as colorless as it seems to be, and the best way of discovering its true tint is not to gaze immediately overhead, but to look away toward the horizon. By so doing the atmosphere will be seen, as it were, in bulk, for overhead there is only a small accumulation of it compared with the many miles of thickness through which the vision travels when the eye looks toward the horizon.

The atmosphere surrounding the earth then may be likened to a screen of an orange color, and it will be readily understood that any light passing through this screen will experience some remarkable modifications. Now, as already stated, it appears highly probable that supposing any one could see the sun from a position outside the earth's atmosphere the light coming from this central luminary would be seen to be not white, but blue. This blue is of course not a pure monochromatic blue, and the expression really means that it sums up the dominant note in the color scheme. What, therefore, the atmosphere may be considered to do is to stop out or absorb all the colors at the blue end of the spectrum, the residue filtering through to the earth as white light. When the rays of light first left the sun, the blue rays were the strongest, but very soon after they entered the earth's atmosphere their progress was impeded, and of all the rays journeying from the sun they quickly became the weakest. On the other hand, the red rays, which at first were inconspicuous, had the facility of penetrating the earth's atmosphere and were the most in evidence at the end of their long journey.

The first step, accordingly, to be taken when investigating a sunset is to realise that the white light from the sun which is commonly supposed to be composed of the seven primary colors should rather be thought of as a residue of the original radiations. A further important point is to bear in mind that all radiations of light are of different wave lengths. This fact indeed is at its very foundation, so to speak, of all sunsets, and it is the prime agency by which their flaming, gorgeous tints and colors are produced. It is due to this fact, for instance, that in the neighborhood of large towns the sun nearly always appears to set as a red ball of fire. The rays of light at the red end of the spectrum are of a much longer wave length than any of their fellow rays, and so are the best qualified for penetrating the dense bank of haze which so commonly floats over all large towns and cities. In such localities, as the sun sinks to rest, the green rays are first absorbed by this bank of haze, and then the yellow, and, lastly, the orange and the red, the latter, more often than not, being the only ones to get through at all. A careful observation of a sunset will reveal the fact that the colors fade in the above mentioned order, and the reason they do so is that they are of different wave lengths.

Now, the color in the sky may, as it were, be painted on the clouds, or on the hazy air, or on the open sky itself. As regards the latter, the color that is most conspicuous is of course the blue, and in seeking for the origin of this tint it will be found that the search leads to an explanation of many of the other colors. On looking up into the sky on a cloudless sunny day, when the swallows, perhaps, are flying so high that they appear but as tiny specks in the dome of blue, it seems almost impossible to think of the atmosphere as being otherwise than perfectly clear and translucent. It is, however, in reality charged with minute dusty particles, which have always been found in myriads whenever the atmosphere has been tested either over the open sea or at the top of high mountains. These particles of dust, it will be seen, are the agents principally responsible for tinting the atmosphere blue and for filtering out the gorgeous hues of a sunset.

In the lower strata of the atmosphere the coarser particles of dust not only scatter the waves of light, but they also reflect them, so that at these lower levels the blue tint is diluted by white light and is accordingly not so intense as when seen, say, from the top of a high mountain. At this elevation only the finer varieties of dust are floating, and there is little reflection of the light, but much scattering, and hence it is here that the blue attains its greatest intensity. In that part of the sky nearest the sun the rays of light come in a direct line to the eye of the observer, and the scattering of the light does not appear so great as when one looks across the path of the beams, and it is due to this circumstance that the sky near the sun is not of so intense a blue as portions of the sky farther away. A similar kind of thing happens in respect to the clouds, where dust readily accumulates and, reflecting the light, produces their brilliant whiteness. At the edges of the clouds, moreover, the atoms of dust are busily engaged in refracting the beams of light, and to this cause is due that brilliant fringe of brightness which so often adorns many of the largest clouds. Not only therefore does the atmospheric dust filter out of the blue light that tints the sky, but it also fabricates the pigments that color the clouds, effects which can most readily be observed in contemplating the glories of the setting sun.—Arthur H. Bell in Knowledge.

That torturing and disfiguring disease has its cause in an impure condition of the blood. The impure condition of the blood often arises from a diseased condition of the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. When digestion is imperfect, the nutrition of the body is inadequate to its needs. The blood becomes thin, poisons accumulate in it, and these poisons often manifest themselves in some eruptive disease.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates poisonous substances from the blood, purifying it and increasing its quantity and richness. The "Discovery" cures perfectly diseases of the blood and other diseases which originate in a diseased condition of the stomach.

The "Discovery" is absolutely a non-alcoholic and non-narcotic medicine. There is nothing "just as good."

"For three years I have suffered with that dreaded disease, eczema," writes Mrs. J. Koepp, of Herman, Oregon. "I was told to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I did, and after I had taken fourteen bottles I was permanently cured. It has been a year since I stopped taking your medicine and it has never appeared since. I think your medicine a wonderful cure and hope others suffering as I did will take it and be relieved of their suffering."

A REMARKABLE YEAR

THE PECULIAR WEATHER THAT MADE 1816 A PHENOMENON.

No Summer Except What Little Came in December—In New England the Year Was Called "Eighteen Hundred and Starve to Death."

European and American data represent the year as having been phenomenal in almost every particular. In New England the year went by the name of "eighteen hundred and starve to death," and the summer months are known in history as "the cold summer of 1816," so remarkable was the temperature.

The sun's rays seemed to be destitute of heat, and all nature was clad in a sable hue. Men and women became frightened and imagined that the fire in the sun was being rapidly extinguished and that the world would soon come to an end. Ministers took the phenomenon for the text of their sermons, and pseudo scientific men talked of things they knew not of, while the fanatics took advantage of the occasions to form religious organisations.

The winter of 1815-16 was very cold in Europe, but comparatively mild in this country, and did not in any way indicate the severe weather that soon prevailed. Even the almanacs were silent, and, although the usual indications "about now look out for cold weather" or "this is a good time for snow" were entered in the regular portions of the book devoted to the winter predictions, those used for chronicling the pleasanter months had no such alarming warnings.

January was mild, so much so that for days the people allowed their fires to go out, as artificial heat made the buildings uncomfortably warm. This pleasant weather was broken by a severe cold snap in February, but this low temperature passed in a few days, and a warmer condition similar to the month previous set in. March "came in like a lion, but went out like a lamb." There was nothing unusual in the climatic conditions of the month which differed from those generally found in the windy season. April was the advance guard of this strange freak in temperature. The early days were warm and bright, but as the month drew to a close the cold increased until it ended in ice and snow and a very low temperature. To those who delighted in balmy May days and loved to watch the budding flowers the May of 1816 was a bitter disappointment. True, buds came, but so did the frost, and one night laid all vegetation a blackened waste. Corn was killed, and the fields had to be made ready for another planting, but the people's astonishment was complete when they found ice formed to the thickness of half an inch in the pools. June, the "month of roses," was this year a month of ice and desolation. The "oldest inhabitant" was surprised, for never before had the mercury sunk so low in the tube in these latitudes in the last month of spring. Frost, ice and snow were common. Almost every green thing that had taken advantage of a few warm days to develop was killed, and various kinds of fruit were nearly all destroyed. One day the beautiful snow fell to a depth of ten inches in Vermont, seven inches in Maine and three inches in Massachusetts and central New York. Matters were beginning to be interesting. People were undecided whether to spend the winter in the south or at the seashore and mountains. One day the latter resorts were desirable, and the next would decide in favor of the former, but on the whole the southern clime was preferred.

July was accompanied by frost and ice, and those who celebrated the glorious Fourth "not wisely but too well" found an abundance of ice handy for immediate use the next morning. It was not very thick, not more than one-sixteenth of an inch, but it was ice, and it caused the good people of New England, New York and some sections of Pennsylvania to look grave. That month Indian corn was destroyed in all but the most favored locations, and but a small quantity escaped.

Surely August would put an end to such cold weather, but the farmers as well as hotel proprietors were doomed to disappointment. The midsummer month was if possible more cheerless than the days already passed. Ice formed even thicker than it had done the month before, and corn was so badly frozen that it was cut for fodder, and almost every green plant in this country as well as Europe was frozen. Papers received from England stated that the year 1816 would be remembered by the generation then living as a year in which there was no summer.

What little corn ripened in the unexposed states was worth almost its weight in silver, and farmers were compelled to provide themselves with corn grown in 1815 for the seed they used in the spring of 1817. This seed never cost so much, being difficult to get even at $5 per bushel.

The last month of summer was ushered in bright and warm, and for two weeks the now almost frozen people began to thaw out. It was the mildest weather of the year, and just as the inhabitants got fairly to appreciate it old Boreas and Jack Frost came along and whitened and hardened everything in their path. On the 16th ice formed a quarter of an inch thick, and winter clothing that had been laid away for a few days was again brought forth and wrapped round shivering humanity. By this time the people had given up all hopes of again seeing the flowers bloom or hearing the birds sing and began to prepare for a hard winter.

October kept up the reputation of its predecessors, as there was scarcely a day that the thermometer registered higher than 30 degrees. November was also extremely cold, and sleighing was good the first week of the month; but, strange to relate, December was the mildest and most comfortable month of the entire year, a condition which led many people to believe that the seasons had changed about.

Of course the cold spell sent breadstuffs to an unheard of price, and it was impossible to obtain for table use many of the common vegetables, as they were required for seed. Flour sold in 1817 in the cities for $13 per barrel, and the average price of wheat in England was 97 shillings per quarter.—Boston Globe.

Ungraceful Man.

"Did you ever watch a man taking a drink of water in a public place, in a railroad station or on a train, where he is aware that many eyes regard him? Watch this some time," a drummer said. "You'll find it interesting. The man, you see, holds the glass in his right hand while he drinks, and it is inability meanwhile to make his unoccupied left hand look graceful that makes the spectacle worth while.

"One fellow as he stoops over the cup in an elegant attitude, an attitude like that of bowing, solves the enigma of what to do with his left hand by putting it in his trouser pocket. Another holds it behind his back. A third puts the thumb of it in the pocket of his waistcoat, and a fourth swings the hand like a pendulum to and fro at his side. But all men, do what they will with their left hand, look awkward and self conscious when drinking in public, and it is amusing to watch them."

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

He Studied It.

H. Rider Haggard, in "A Winter Pilgrimage," tells this anecdote:

"When I was a 'soaring human boy,' my father took me up the Rhine by boat with the hope and expectation that my mind would be improved by contemplating its lovely and historic banks. Wearying of this feast, very soon I slipped down to the cabin to enjoy one more congenial, that of 'Robinson Crusoe.' But some family traitor betrayed me, and, protesting, even with tears, that I hated views, I was dragged to the deck again. 'I have paid 6 thalers,' shouted my justly indignant parent as he hauled me up the steamer stairs, 'for you to study the Rhine scenery, and, whether you like it or not, young man, study it you shall.'"

Profitable Weddings.

What is known as the "pay wedding" is popular in Germany. The bride receives the guests with a basin set before her, and into this each visitor entering the reception room drops either some jewelry, a silver spoon or a piece of money. In some parts of the country the expenses of the marriage feast are met by each guest paying for what he or she may eat and drink. Some visitors pay high prices, and the happy couple make a handsome profit out of their wedding, as many as 300 guests often being present at such a festivity.

PARRY A COMPLIMENT.

Accept One Always, but Never Take It Seriously.

The famous Mme. Recamier said that she always found two words sufficed to make her guests seem welcome. Upon their arrival she exclaimed, "At last!" and when they took their leave she said "Already?" If taken literally, we should deprecate the flattery. Flattery is insincere praise and wrongs him that gives and him that takes. It is sometimes kinder to accept a compliment than to parry it.

One may say "Thank you, it is pleasant to be seen through such kind (or partial) eyes," or perhaps, "It is a comfort to know that friendship is partly blind as well as the mythological boy," or any nonsense that serves to show that one appreciates the spirit that prompted the kind expression, however wide the truth.

The frequent repetition of the name of the person addressed holds a subtle compliment, implying more complete concentration of the speaker's thought upon his or her personality.

De Quincy says: "More is done for the benefit of conversation by the simple magic of good manners than by all varieties of intellectual power."

It is the sympathetic and responsive listeners that call forth the best efforts of a talker. For such are reserved his choicest stories, his finest thoughts.

A ready smile acts as inspiration, and interest shown in the conversation of others stimulates and vivifies their thoughts.

To a good listener the diffident will say what they think, and the verbose will think what they say.

There is nothing more trying than to find that one's conversation is receiving but a divided attention and nothing more rude than for a person to pick up a book or paper and look over it while pretending to listen to what one is saying.

Advertising Versus Merit.

The enormous sale of most medicines has depended entirely on large advertising. The enormous sale of Merrill's System Tonic has arisen solely from the merit of this wonderful compound. We say it is the best medicine to purify the blood, build up the system, strengthen the nerves and regulate the bowels made. Invest 50 cents in one bottle and you will know that we speak the truth. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

Brampton, Jan. 14.—Mr. Thomas Foster, head shipper for W. E. Milner & Co., grain merchants, dropped dead at the elevators of this firm yesterday morning. Heart failure was the cause.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

If It Will Help.

It appears that we must now learn to sing it "God Save Our Lord the King." If there was any prospect of saving him from the avalanche of flummery and medievalism that is threatening him, his respectful and loyal subjects would be prepared to sing almost anything.—Woodstock Express.

CARE-LINED FACES

Are not always the sign of mental worry, for many a person goes silently along day in and day out, suffering almost beyond telling from bodily pain, and the only sign that betrays it is the care-lined face.

Stomach out of order? Indigestion with its cutting acids making every breath you draw a dagger pain? Dyspepsia gnawing to almost the point of distraction? Can't sleep? Nervous? You needn't suffer—South American Nervine puts "all things to rights," chases the seam from the brow, and instead of the care lines there'll be the glow of health. First bottle helps; a few bottles cure. 18

FOUR ADDRESSES IN ONE DAY.

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick has an Unique Experience.

THE PEOPLE OF HIS PARISH

Could not let Him Depart Without Showing how Much They Appreciate Him.

Last Sunday Rev. Father Fitzpatrick was called upon to respond to no less than four addresses, two being from his congregations at Lakefield and the Point, and two from the choirs. The presentations accompanying each address were beautiful and costly, and speak volumes for Father Fitzpatrick's popularity among his people. Mr. Martin Coughlin read the address for St. Paul's congregation, Lakefield, as follows:

Rev. M. F. Fitzpatrick:

Rev. and Dear Father,—Your parishioners have learned with deep regret of your early departure from this parish, where for the past four years you have laboured so zealously for the welfare of your flock. We cannot but seriously deplore your removal from the scene of your labours to another parish in the diocese, but we are pleased to learn on your own account that the change will be at least to a larger and better one.

We feel deeply our loss for we cannot but remember the exemplary and faithful manner in which you have discharged the sacred duties of your priestly office, nor can we overlook, still less forget, the purity and sanctity of your daily life, the good example you have ever shown us, your generosity to the poor, your zeal for education, your care for the youth and your kindness to all the congregation.

We sincerely hope that kind providence, who ever watches over and guides His people, will continue to bless and prosper you in your new sphere of action, and that the people of your new mission may appreciate as fully as we do your high character and worth, and that your priestly labours among them may be abundantly blessed.

We now desire on behalf of the congregation of Lakefield to present you with this water-pitcher which we beg you to accept, not for its intrinsic value; but as an evidence of our good will, and as a mark of our attachment.

In conclusion we earnestly pray that the same divine providence, who has hitherto blessed and preserved you, may continue to do so, both spiritually and temporarily in your new field of labour, and that your life may long be spared to you and the people to whom you will minister, and at life's close, may you be happy in the consciousness of duty well and faithfully done and receive the reward of the faithful servant of God in the world beyond the grave.

We are, Rev. and Dear Father, on behalf of the congregation of St. Paul's,

MARTIN COUGHLIN,
CORNELIUS YOUNG,
WILLIAM LEAHY

Miss Maud Leahy made the presentation, being a large, handsome silver water-pitcher.

Mr. Michael Quigley read the address for St. Paul's choir, as appended:

Rev. and Dear Father Fitzpatrick:

It is with feelings of regret and sorrow that we, the members of St. Paul's choir, received the announcement of your departure from our midst, our beloved priest and friend.

We earnestly hoped that the separation would not take place so soon; but as His Lordship has recognized in you those stirling qualities worthy of the highest consideration and which necessitate your removal to a better and higher sphere, we most reluctantly bow to the inevitable, and assemble this morning to congratulate you on your merited elevation, and to testify in a slight manner our sincere love and admiration for you, our beloved instructor, and to give evidence of our heartfelt sorrow at your leaving.

For four years you have zealously laboured amongst us, unceasingly caring for our spiritual and temporal welfare. You have watched over us in our trials and difficulties and laboured faithfully to instruct us in our religion.

We congratulate you, Dear Father, on your most deserved promotion, and trust that it is but a forecast of further ecclesiastical honours. We are, Dear Father, loath to say "farewell," but we do so in the sweet and and consoling assurance that your thoughts will often be directed to the members of St. Paul's choir, and that your prayers will rise for us as incense on the altar of God.

We ask you to accept this gift as a slight token, and hope that to look upon it will be to remind you of your people at Lakefield, and their admiration of your zeal for them.

MOLLIE YOUNG.

Mr. P. A. Kearney read the subjoined address for St. Mary's congregation, Young Point.

To Rev. M. F. Fitzpatrick:

Rev. and Dear Father,—As you are about to sever your connection with the parish of Young's Point, we, the members of your congregation, cannot permit the occasion to pass without expressing our sincere regret at your departure.

During the few short years you have laboured amongst us you have endeared yourself to the hearts of all, both old and young. Ever willing, night or day, in the discharge of your many and arduous duties.

We assure you, Dear Father, that your absence will be keenly felt, not alone by this congregation, but by all who had the pleasure of knowing your untiring zeal and piety.

We beg of you, Dear Father, to remember us in your pious prayers and in offering of the Holy sacrifice of the Mass, and ask you to accept this small purse as a token of the high esteem in which you are held by the parishioners of St. Mary's.

With best wishes for a happy future in your sacred calling.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

P. A. KEARNEY,
P. P. YOUNG.

Mr. P. P. Young handed Father Fitzpatrick a well filled purse.

In the afternoon, St. Mary's choir waited on Father Fitzpatrick and Captain Scollard read the following address:

Rev. M. F. Fitzpatrick:

Dear Father,—We, the members of St. Mary's choir, Young's Point, take this present opportunity to express to you the high esteem and regard in which you are held by each and every one of us, your edifying and priestly life for the past four years that you have been with us, has endeared you to us all, and has stamped upon our memory recollections which we assure you we will long cherish.

You have indeed been a true priest, zealous for the glory of God, and for the salvation of souls committed to your care, and it is with much sorrow we have learned you are about to leave us.

Accompanied with our best wishes, we ask you, Dear Father, to accept this little gift as a slight token of our gratitude, for your many acts of kindness and warm appreciation of the priestly virtues which has endeared you to us.

In conclusion, we extend our congratulations to the good prople of Ennismore in your appointment as pastor, and assuring them that we, who have known you so well, feel that a signal blessing is bestowed upon them, and may we ask, Dear Father, that in your charity you will sometimes remember us in your holy offices, particularly in the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Signed on behalf of the choir.

Miss Maggie Kearney, organist, presented Father Fitzpatrick with a whole set of silver-ware, valued at $30.00.

To each of these addresses Father Fitzpatrick responded in feeling terms. He referred to his first coming amongst them, the difficulties he encountered. The great work he was able to accomplish, owing to their hearty co-operation, and the genuine and generous support he received in everything he undertook. He referred with pride to the harmony and solid friendship which characterized the members of his choirs and their readiness on all occasions to assist him. He thanked in an especial manner the good women of the parish for the manner in which they worked at his pic-nics, and in all works relative to the material advancement of the parish. He knew he was going to a good parish, to a good home, to a good church and to a good people, but the kindness he received from the people of Young's Point and Lakefield, would never be forgotten. He thanked His Lordship, Bishop O'Connor, for giving him charge of such an old and well established parish. He concluded by wishing that God's choicest blessing might be with the people who, during four years, had stood by him, and enabled him to make a home of which priest or people might well feel proud.

On Thursday evening Jan. 9th, the Rev. Father Fitzpatrick gave a farewell supper to his choirs of Young's Point and Lakefield. Some twenty sat down to a sumptuous repast, to which, it is needless to say, ample justice was done.

Father Fitzpatrick has much reason to feel proud of the musical attainments of his choirs. For the past eight years the choir at Young's Point has been under the able direction of Miss Maggie Kearney, and the advancement they have made during that time is most gratifying, especially during the last four years since they had the good fortune of having a resident pastor. Miss Minnie Young holds a similar position at the head of the Lakefield choir, and is sparing neither time or pains to bring the choir to a proper and suitable standing.

Father Fitzpatrick spoke in the highest terms of both his organists, and of the individual choir members, for the grand spirit of co-operation which they always manifested, and and the spirit of harmony and unity which always existed and was most pleasing to all.

Mr. C. Young, who, though not a member of the choir, is always privileged to be present at such gatherings, also spoke of the very excellent work done by the choirs and the kindly feeling which evidently existed between the members and their pastor. Mr. P. P. Young was also present and made a few appropriate remarks on behalf of the choir.

1. "Annie Laurie," "Minstrel Boy," by Mrs. P. P. Young.
2. "Sunbeam" and "Peace be Still," Miss Mollie Young.
3. "Many Years Ago" and "Twelve Months Ago To-night," Miss Josie Phelan.
4. "Hello Central Give Me Heaven," "When the Harvest Days are Over, Jessie Dear," Miss Lottie Kearney.
5. "Marguerette," Miss M. Quigley.
6. "The Holy City," by the choir.
7. Selection, by Miss Minnie Young.

A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

"THE IDEAL LIFE."

This Subject was Well Handled in All Saints' Church Last Night.

The special mission services conducted by the Rev. Mr. Murphy are continuing with great interest, manifested by the large attendance. The last of the children's services was held yesterday, and the room was filled to the doors.

The service last night was well attended when the subject "The Ideal Life" was ably handled. The text chosen was Romans viii, 29th—"Whom He did foreknow He did also predestinate to be conformed to the image of His son." This was the will of God to us that our lives should be fashioned after the ideal life of Christ. The process of Christ's life was then taken up, beginning with His birth in Bethlehem. This was entirely God's work, so must our new birth be—man has nothing to do with it. There will be the two natures "lusting one against the other," but the true life will be when the human is in entire submission to the Divine. The birth is but the threshold of the life, so must we go on copying the Divine example of prayer—entire dependance and service.

Passing over to death and resurrection the speaker showed that by the ascension Christ was taken to His own proper place—then came the gift of the Holy Spirit. If we want that gift we have but to give Christ His proper place in our hearts.

Each afternoon of this week, beginning to-day at 4.15, Mr. Murphy will give addresses to grown people on "The Christian Life." The subject at the 8 o'clock service to-night will be "The Deluge." Special music. All welcome.

There are roses, carnations, violets, lilies of the valley, daffodils, hyacinths, and narcissus, vieing with each other in sweetness. WAR NEARING THE END

Significant Remark Made by His Majesty the King.

CURRENT BELIEF ENDORSED

British Mule Transport Foundered or Blown Up by Boer Spy in the Gulf of Mexico—Hundreds of Dead Mules Floating For a Distance of 40 Miles—News of the War.

London, Jan. 16.—King Edward has given the royal endorsement to the belief current among the public that an early declaration of peace in South Africa may be anticipated. "The war might now be regarded as approaching its conclusion," were the words used by His Majesty yesterday morning in addressing the officers of the Guards after reviewing a draft of 1,200 of the Grenadiers, Coldstreams, and Scots Guards, who start for South Africa to-day.

FOUNDERED OR BLOWN UP.

Feared That British Mule Transport Has Been Lost.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 16.—It is believed in shipping circles here that a British transport, laden with American mules, bound for South Africa, has been intercepted and blown up by a Boer spy in the Gulf of Mexico or has foundered. A schooner arriving on the lower coast reports hundreds of dead mules floating for a distance of 30 miles. This news has greatly stirred shippers here, who fear that further desperate attempts will be made to stop the export of mules to Cape Town.

The more conservative elements attribute the floating carcasses to a disaster to one of the British vessels during the storms that have been raging near the coast this week. Despatches from Quintana, Texas, which is only a short distance south of Port Eads, say that the schooner Olga has put into Matagorda Bay to shelter from the fierce gale blowing on the Gulf, and that Captain George Peterson reports having seen long rows of dead cattle and mules floating in the water. He describes the range of the dead stock as covering at least 40 miles.

The recent attempt to blow up the British transport Mechanician in this port is recalled by those persons who incline to the opinion that a British transport has been blown up. The attempt to destroy the Mechanician was charged to Boer agents.

How They Were Murdered.

Pretoria, Jan. 15.— News recently reached Warmbaths that six Boers in this vicinity were apparently desirous of surrendering. Two intelligence officers, named Steere and Kerr, went to ascertain particulars, a few men following as a precaution. Steere and Kerr, riding in advance, came on one or two Boers and began parleying with them, when fire was opened by some other Boers who were concealed, and both officers were shot dead.

Phones in Blockhouses.

Norvals Point, Jan. 15.—The new line of blockhouses from Beaufort West to De Aar, guarding the railway, which the men of the West Riding Regiment have been erecting, is now completed. The blockhouses are from twelve hundred to sixteen hundred yards apart, and are in telephonic communication with one another. The work of fencing the line with barbed wire is proceeding and when this is finished it will be exceedingly difficult for the enemy to cross the railway.

Boer Peace Proposals.

London, Jan. 16.—A report, apparently reliable, has it that Dr. Zuyper, the Dutch Premier, who arrived here on Saturday night and left yesterday, came here for the purpose of discussing with Lord Salisbury Boer peace arrangements.

The War Office has been informed that the Boers are saving their strength with a view to striking several heavy blows just previous to King Edward's coronation, and thus spoil the festivities.

They think that the resulting moral effect on English opinion would be helpful to their cause. Lord Kitchener has therefore been urged to redouble his efforts to terminate the war before the coronation.

Boer Losses in 1901.

London, Jan. 16.—The following table, compiled from official returns, shows the progress of the war during the year 1901:

Killed, prisoners and surrendered (May)	2,640
Killed since May	1,182
Wounded since May	707
Prisoners since May	8,186
Surrendered since May	2,172
	14,887
Rifles	5,838
Wagons	5,750
Horses	40,848

FIFTEEN ADDITIONAL SCOUTS.

Field Hospital Corps to Separate From Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Ottawa, Jan. 16.—Fifteen additional scouts or "trackers," who were engaged in the Northwest at Lord Kitchener's request, for service in South Africa, will pass through Ottawa on Friday, en route to Halifax. With them will be 15 men recruited in the West to supply deficiencies in the ranks of the Canadian Mounted Rifles, caused by dismissals from the force after the corps reached Halifax. The outfitting of these men will be accomplished without a day's delay. Col. Macdonald, chief superintendent of military stores, has shipped to Halifax the last of the wagons and tents required for the Field Hospital Corps. Its equipment is now complete.

The Field Hospital Corps has no connection with the Mounted Rifles. It was recruited at the request of the War Office, and outfitted as a separate unit, in accordance with Imperial army requirements. In all probability after the third contingent has been detailed for duty in South Africa, the Hospital Corps and the C.M.R. will be separated, and may not be in touch with each other till their period of service is concluded.

Canadians Married in Cape Town.

London, Jan. 16.—The marriage is announced at Cape Town, South Africa, Tuesday, of Major Duncan Stuart, to Miss May Fraser, daughter of the late Dr. J. W. Fraser, both of this city. The bride left this city on Dec. 7 for South Africa, and while at Cape Town was the guest of Mrs. White. Both the bride and groom are very popular in this city. Mrs. Stuart is a sister of Mr. Alex. Fraser, K.C., the well-known barrister. The gallant major was captain of R Company, and commanded the company in the fight at Dornkop against the Boers.

The results of the bye-elections of yesterday are shown above. Seven Liberals are elected in the nine constituencies that voted, or, counting the acclamation in Beauce last week, the ten seats in which nominations were held on the 8th return eight Liberals, and two Conservatives. The greatest victory is that of West York where the Conservative majority of over 800 was converted into a minority; but Hon. Mr. Harty's magnificent majority in Kingston, Mr. Beith's return in West Durham, and the crushing defeat of Mr. Bergeron in Montreal are also important features of the day.

At the last election Addington was won by the Conservatives with a majority of 529; West Durham, with 40; West Hastings, with 842, and West York with 880. Kingston was won by the Liberals, with a majority of 192; Laval, with 319; L'Islet, with 100; St. James' Division of Montreal, with 1,641, and West Queen's, P.E.I., with 735.

Mr. Campbell's Thanks.

The appearance of Mr. Campbell at an upstairs window stirred anew the enthusiasm of a great gathering of electors to the highest pitch. It was some minutes before he could make himself heard. He was interrupted during his remarks again and again by ringing cheers. He said: I have to thank my friends for the great service they have rendered me to-day in electing me by such a handsome majority as member for West York. I do not know that I ever had an election which was contested so keenly as this has been, and that we have been able to convert a majority of 820 against us into a majority of 150 in our favor is most remarkable. I know that I have received to-day a great many votes from our Conservative friends, and for those votes I return my most sincere thanks. I thank my Conservative as well as my Liberal friends for the work they have done for me to-day. It is not often, gentlemen, that we have to celebrate such a great victory as we have won on this occasion, and it is well that we should bear in mind the means by which we have won this great victory. It has been won by hard, persistent work on the part of our friends. With the help of many of our political opponents I have been able to redeem the riding of West York, and am now the member. I can assure you that I appreciate very much the great honor that has been conferred upon me, and I can also assure you that every effort I can make will be put forth to advance the interests of West York and of the Town of Toronto Junction.

I hope I will be able to so perform my duties in the House of Commons that the Conservatives who supported me to-day will never regret the efforts they put forth in my behalf. I congratulate you as well as myself upon the splendid victory which has been won; it is your victory, and I hope you will keep your armor bright, and prepare yourself for the next contest, which will be held within the next few months.

NATURE STUDY IN ONTARIO SCHOOLS.

Plan Under Which Sir William Macdonald Will Act

IN ASSISTING EDUCATION.

Other Provinces to Share in Generosity —For the Rural Districts.

Premier Ross has announced the details of the plans under which Sir William Macdonald proposes to improve the education in rural schools in Canada, and to establish new courses at the Guelph Agricultural College, and for which he has made such generous donations. The plan is presented in four parts, three under the division of nature study, and the fourth under the division of domestic economy or household science.

Part one of the plan is intended to give object lessons of improvements in education from the consolidation of five, six, or more, small rural schools into one central graded school, with a school garden and a manual training room as part of the equipment.

It is proposed to offer financial assistance to one locality in Ontario and one locality in each of the Provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island, to induce the people to undertake and carry on object lessons of improvements in education, with school gardens and manual training, all under the control of the regularly constituted educational authorities.

It is pointed out that such schools have been carried on successfully in the States, and that it should be no more difficult to collect children to such a school than to arrange a milk route.

A TRAVELLING INSTRUCTOR.

Part two of the plan is for the purpose of giving object lessons of the value of school gardens and nature studies as a part of general education at individual rural schools, to be begun by means of a travelling instructor, who would visit and spend one-half day per week with the children and teacher at each school of a group, for a term of three years or until a considerable number of suitable trained and qualified teachers would be available to carry on such work themselves at rural schools.

It is proposed to offer financial assistance to one group of ten or fewer schools in one locality in Ontario, and to one group in each of the Provinces of Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island, to enable the people to provide school gardens, and to undertake and carry on object lessons and experiments with improvements in education, all under the control of the regularly constituted educational authority.

TO IMPRESS KNOWLEDGE

It is argued that when a child does anything with its own hands, such as planting a seed, pulling up a plant, making examination of the changes which have taken place during its growth, making a drawing of it, mounting it, and putting its name on it, he receives impressions by the sense of touch, he sees, he hears the hears the noise of the movements he makes, and he smells the soil and the parts of the soil with which he is dealing. Those impressions are definite and lasting; they add to the sum of sensuous knowledge; they prepare for the perception of logical knowledge, in a common-sense way. Evening continuation classes for rural districts are also suggested under this plan.

TO TRAIN TEACHERS.

Part 3 of the plan has for its object to assist for providing short courses of instruction and training for teachers for rural schools who desire to qualify themselves in those newer subjects and methods of education.

It is proposed to offer to the Province of Ontario at the Agricultural College at Guelph a gift of a building, including a nature study plant-growing house, and such equipment as may be required in addition to what is there at present, for the accommodation of teachers while taking a short course in nature study for rural schools.

In Canada it might be possible to arrange for courses of training for, say, thirty teachers at one place, each course to last for two or three months.

For a period of three years, at least, fifteen teachers of rural schools outside the province of Ontario are to be eligible to receive instruction and training in each short course without any fees.

For the first year it is proposed to make (1) an allowance at the rate of five cents per mile for the actual distance from the teacher's school to the Ontario Agricultural College to help in meeting travelling expenses, and (2) an allowance of $ 2,500 to help in meeting the expenses of board and lodging to every approved teacher who has taken a full course satisfactorily.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE.

Part 4 of the plan is intended to assist in providing courses of instruction and training in domestic economy or household science for young women from country homes, in order that they may have opportunities for acquiring practical and advanced education not less suitable and helpful to them than the present courses at the Ontario Agricultural College are beneficial to young men who take them with earnestness and cheerfulness.

It is proposed to offer to the Province of Ontario at the Agricultural College at Guelph, (1) a residence building to accommodate not less than 100 female students and teacher students, daughters of farmers, and others, and (2) class rooms, kitchen, laboratories and other equipment necessary for courses of instruction and training in domestic economy and household science.

Special regard might be given to properly arranged lessons and exercises.

FOR HOG RAISERS.

The Canadian Bacon Trade in Great in Danger.

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

A great many undesirable hogs are being marketed by the farmers of Ontario. These are being converted into export bacon and forwarded to Great Britain, and because of their quality are sold there at a loss. This loss must ultimately be borne by the farmers, although the packers at the present moment are being severely punished.

As an example we quote the condition of the trade of the George Matthews' Co.'s factory, Ottawa, for the months of November and December, 1901, and the first week of January, 1902. In November, 1901, a total of 8,970 pigs were received at this factory. Of these 5,703 were selects, 1602 were lights, 1244 were light fats, 86 were heavy fats, 97 were sows, 5 were stags, 13 were cripples, and 220 were stores, these latter being lean pigs, unfit for any purpose. Of 5151 hogs received at the factory in December, 1901, the selects numbered 2875, the lights 1172, the light fats 720, the heavy fats 51, the sows 74, the stags 7, the cripples 35, and the stores 217. From the 2nd to the 4th of January, 1902, 1069 hogs were received. Of these 276 were selects, 508 were lights, 156 light fats, 10 heavy fats, 14 sows, 6 stags, 7 cripples, and 92 stores. This makes a total for the nine weeks of 8854 selects, 3282 lights, 2120 light fats, 147 heavy fats, 135 sows, 18 stags, 55 cripples, and 529 stores, making a grand total of 15,190.

Pigs termed "Selects" are those that can be made into the best class of Wiltshire bacon, and are the sort that have made Canadian bacon famous on the English market. In order to keep up the price of hogs, the packers must receive the sort of hogs that will make the finest Wiltshire sides. To make this the packers must have smooth, deep, well fed pigs, with a large amount of lean fat in the carcases, in proportion to the amount of fat. They must be well finished and weigh on reaching the packing house from 180 to 200 lbs. On the pigs termed "Lights" the packers lost at least $1 per head. The "Light fats" can be cut up and put into the retail trade, but too large a number of these light pigs would at any time glut the local market. The "Heavy fats" can be worked up when not too numerous, but will sell for at least one half dollar per hundred live weight less than "Selects." "Sows" and "Stags" are very poor property, and can only be used in supplying a very inferior trade. In order to be of any value to the packers "Sows" and "Stags" should be made as fat as possible. "Cripples" are of little or no value to the packers and are always fed at a loss to the farmers. "Stores" should never reach the pork packers, yet thousands of them are sent every week to the market by the farmers.

If the farmers continue to market such a large number of undesirable pigs it will seriously injure the Canadian bacon trade in Great Britain, and will bring about greatly reduced prices for hogs throughout Canada.

FROM OLD QUEBEC.

The Historic Capital Furnishes a Story of Interest to Many.

The newspapers in and around the city of Quebec are just now relating the story of a well known French-Canadian gentleman who for years has been a martyr to Dyspepsia.

The sufferings Mons. Bouchard endured have been beyond the power of tongue or pen to describe. His pains were very severe, so much so, that for two years he had but little pleasure in life. Dyspepsia wrought its worst punishment in him and nothing he could get seemed able in any way to alleviate his distress.

At last, however, he has found a cure. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have met and conquered his Dyspepsia, have relieved him of all his pain and distress, and have made an all-round well man of him. He is very grateful and is full of praise for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, which he says, "have made a new man of me."

This story should be of greatest interest to thousands who are now suffering just as Mons. Bouchard did before he used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. If this remedy can and does cure such acute and advanced cases it surely will cure any case of stomach trouble.

It is but reasonable to at least give a trial to a medicine that has proven itself to be effectual in so very many cases. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are no experiment but a tried and proven remedy for Indigestion, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Bloating, Palpitation of the Heart, or any of the many symptoms of deranged or impaired digestive machinery.

Mons. Bouchard's address is 300 St. Valier, Quebec.

Baby's cold may be cured in a night by using Vapo-Cresolene, which has been extensively in use for twenty-four years. All druggists.

Reward of Merit.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favour, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that to-day it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians, who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics.

They contain no cocaine nor opiate, and are given to the little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Reitiger, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist's, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes; "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets urged me to try them so much that I did so and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

BENSFORT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Mr. Jos. Kerr and family, of Nelson, Manitoba, is visiting his parents.

Mr. Jno. Kerr had a slight attack of paralysis, some time since, but we are pleased to say he is again able to be around.

Mr. Andrew Finnie, Jr., has had a severe attack of rheumatism, but is recovering.

Mr. Watson, of Harwood, has his shingle mill, in Mr. Geo. McLelland's swamp, in full operation. He has bought a quantity of cedar from Mr. McLelland and has a large gang of men at work taking it off.

Mr. Wm. Smith has his saw mill at work again and is doing a rushing business in his usually efficient manner.

Dr. Willis, of "Hiawatha Lodge," is building a church, which will add much to the appearance of his property. Mr. Albert Nurse is the architect and builder and may be congratulated upon the very efficient manner in which he performs his work. It is said to have a seating capacity of nearly four hundred, and will add much to the convenience and pleasure of those who camp on the river and lake in the summer.

Mr. Thos. Armstrong, our postmaster, has had the name of his office painted in gold letters on the show window of his store.

The snow fall of the last few days has greatly improved the sleighing. The farmers are now busy hauling grain and wood, which has been considerably delayed by the want of better sleighing.

Mr. Geo. Smithson left Monday for the shanties of the Dickson Company. He is receiving good wages and will in all probability reach Bensfort well and happy in the spring.

MINISTER OF MARINE.

The Portfolio Accepted by the Hon. James Sutherland.

Ottawa, Jan. 16.—It was reported last night that Hon. James Sutherland has been offered and has accepted the portfolio of Marine and Fisheries. It is further stated that he will be sworn in by his Excellency the Governor-General to-day. Hon. Mr. Sutherland's selection as the administrator of a department which has such an important influence upon the shipping and transportation interests of the country will give great satisfaction to his numerous friends. Mr. Sutherland has all the qualifications that insure success as an administrator.

Toronto, Jan. 16.—At the annual meeting of the Toronto Street Railway yesterday, the financial statement showed a net profit of $510,726.92, as compared with $454,162.85 for the preceding year. The company has declared out of the net profits two quarterly dividends of one per cent. each for the first half, and two quarterly dividends of one and one-quarter per cent. each for the last half of the year, aggregating $270,000, leaving, after deducting pavement charges paid to the city, the sum of $172,726.92.

THE POPE'S CONDITION.

A Rome Correspondent Says He Is Slowly Passing Away.

London, Jan. 16.—Vanity Fair's correspondent at Rome writes: "The death of the Pope may be expected any day, as His Holiness can only be said to be just alive. He takes little nourishment, and is generally half unconscious. He suffers no pain, and simply dozes the hours away without comprehension of what is going on around him."

May Vaccinate by Force.

Toronto, Jan. 16.—A number of people in the Township of Clinton in the Beamsville district, who call themselves "Saints," have smallpox. They do not believe in doctors, and although under quarantine, absolutely refuse to be vaccinated, saying they will go to jail first. The local health authorities have written to Dr. Bryce, asking if they would be justified in vaccinating the obstinate ones by force. Dr. Bryce replies that the Health Act requires health officers in the case of an outbreak of a disease such as smallpox to use all possible care to prevent its spread. This, in his opinion, justifies them in vaccinating by force if necessary. He says this was done down east during the outbreak some 20 years ago.

Lynch to Be Arrested.

Dublin, Jan. 16.—The Evening Herald says warrants for the arrest of Col. Arthur Lynch, formerly of the second Irish Brigade on the Boer side in South Africa, are in the hands of the London police, and should Colonel Lynch appear in that city to-day with the object of taking his seat in Parliament he will be immediately arrested.

Mob Owns Spanish Town.

San Sebastian, Spain, Jan. 16.—The decision of the municipal authorities to suppress the annual popular holiday, consisting of tormenting bulls safely tethered, occasioned serious rioting yesterday, during which many persons were injured and much property was sacrificed. A mob stoned the town hall, the residences of the municipal officers and the barracks of the gendarmes, and swept through the streets undaunted by the shots of the gendarmes. The latter were powerless until a force of troops arrived and charged the rioters. Many arrests were made.

Marconi's Stay Lengthened.

New York, Jan. 16.—Signor Marconi said yesterday that he could not transact the business which brought him to New York in time to sail for England yesterday, but would probably be able to sail on the Umbria Saturday. He expects to be abroad about three months, and will spend most of the time in perfecting and increasing the power of his station in Cornwall, England. On his return to this side of the Atlantic he will spend, he said, much of his time at the new station to be built on Cape Breton between Sydney and Glace Bay.

MR. LATCHFORD'S BILL

Temiscaming Railway to Be Built by a Commission.

WILL ALSO OPERATE THE ROAD

Crown Land to Produce the Money For the Construction of the Railway—Brisk Debate in the Legislature Over Mr. Foy's Bill to Abolish the Scrap-Iron Assessment.

Toronto, Jan. 16.—At the Legislature yesterday a large number of petitions in favor of prohibitory legislation were presented. Among the bills introduced was one by Hon. Mr. Latchford to authorize the construction of the Temiscaming and Northern Ontario Railway. The bill provides for the construction of the railway by a Royal Commission from North Bay to a point on Lake Temiscaming or one of the adjacent townships. A land grant of 20,000 acres per mile in provided for and the commissioners are empowered to raise money by debentures for the construction and maintenance of the road.

Mr. Foy, in introducing a bill to amend the Assessment Act said he should ask that the bill should be read a second and a third time forthwith, so as to come into operation as speedily as possible. An act had been passed last session with the intention of doing away with what was known as the "scrap iron" method of assessing property. The judges on appeal has decided that the act did not alter the basis of assessment, that it merely provided for assessing at a scrap-head valuation the plant of a corporation as a whole instead of by wards. The object that was in view by every member of the House in passing the act of last session had not been attained. He urged that as in four cases appeals were now pending, an act should be passed forthwith having a retrospective effect carrying out the intention of the House. The bill provided that section 2, chapter 29 of 1 Edward VII. should be read as if the following proviso were added at the end of section 18 a.

"Provided that the said property extending over more than one ward shall be valued for the purpose of assessment as real estate of the incorporated company liable to assessment therefor at the actual value thereof estimated at the cost of reproducing and replacing the same for the purposes for which the same is owned, operated or used and regard being had to the then state of repair and any other circumstances affecting such value."

His bill was submitted with a view of accomplishing what the House did not accomplish last session. He should ask for a suspension of the rules so that the bill might pass as rapidly as possible.

Hon. G. W. Ross said the bill had been introduced in a very extraordinary way. It was hastily prepared—not free from typographical errors. He had only just received a copy that afterooon. He was glad to have such a complete vindication from the insinuations cast by the Opposition on the course of the Government in the matter of the scrap iron assessment as Mr. Foy's statement that it was the intention of every member of the House, which of course included the Government side, to amend the law last session. The matter was subjudice. He had given repeated assurances that it was the intention of the Government to amend the act, but he did not think it would be thoughtful and judicious legislation to anticipate the action of the Court of Appeal. The Opposition had objected to "railroad legislation" and to rush the bill through by suspending the regulations without due consideration would certainly be railroading it through the House. The honorable member seemed so anxious to anticipate the action of the Government that they were not willing to await the action of the Court of Appeal. He must protest against the ill-advised course proposed of putting the bill through at one sitting No interest would suffer by following the ordinary course, and he need hardly repeat his assurances that the Government would amend the law so as to abolish the scrap iron principle of assessment. The course proposed was entirely uncalled for by public exigencies and could not be received with any favor by the Government side of the House.

Mr. Lucas contended that the case was sufficiently urgent to warrant a suspension of the rules and the adoption of the bill forthwith. The Government had not so long since called a special session in order to pass declaratory legislation of a retrospective character. He did not know that he could fully accept the Government's assurances as the Premier showed a disposition to trifle with the subject.

Mr. Gross said that the legislation of last session had received careful consideration. He did not see the necessity for haste, and thought the House should await the decision of the Court of Appeal.

Mr. Whitney thought there were cases of urgency which would justify acting in haste. The Government had taken other bills from the Opposition side of the House and he did not see why they should hesitate to accept this. It could not be said that the bill took anyone by surprise. If the Government were afraid that Mr. Foy would obtain popularity why did they not take up the measure and gain the popularity themselves.

Mr. Foy said that the subject had already received full consideration, but the mind of the House was already fully made up and all that remained to be done was to put into words what they intended should be the law. Under these circumstances the usual objections to hasty legislation would not apply. He wanted legislation in time to affect the assessment of Toronto for 1902.

Hon. J. M. Gibson said that Mr. Foy had been playing to the gallery.

Mr. Foy asked the Speaker if such language was in order.

The Speaker ruled that the phrase was parliamentary.

Mr. Gibson said no other object could be attained by the bill than gaining a little cheap popularity for the mover. Even if the bill received second and third readings immediately nothing would have been gained unless the assent of the Lieut.-Governor were obtained. It was unseemly and improper to bring up a question for legislation which was before the courts. Any relief which could be given by Mr. Foy's bill could be afforded in the ordinary course of legislation and this being so there was no excuse whatever for setting aside the rules of procedure. There were times when those rules had been set aside under the plea of urgency, but that was when the session was approaching its close and time would not permit of the usual delays.

Mr. Crawford thought the Government should be glad to be afforded the opportunity to rectify their legislation of last year.

Mr. Garrow said that a more outrageous proposition than that embodied in the bill was never submitted to an Legislature. The case of the "Constable" session presented no parallel whatever.

The bill received a first reading.

Mr. Foy moved that the bill be read a second time.

The Speaker ruled that the motion was irregular and contrary to the rules of the House, and the rules could not be suspended unless the House was unanimously in favor of doing so. The bill would come up for a second reading on Friday.

UNDER MONTREAL.

Houses Beneath the Present City in a State of Good Preservation.

Workmen engaged on the building of an extension in the premises of Messrs. Evans and Sons, wholesale druggists, St. Jean Baptiste street, were afforded a view of a portion of old Montreal the other day. In tearing down a building on St. Gabriel street, they came across two large vaults or passage ways, extending right down the street.

On examination they found that they were built of masonry, several feet thick, and were covered by a roof of solid stonework. They were provided with holes for stove pipes, and every portion was in a perfect state of preservation.

The spot is known by historians as old Quebec, and was the centre of the settlement at the time the Hudson Bay and Great North-Western Fur companies had stations in Montreal. Right along the western side of St. Gabriel street there are a large number of cellars joined together by passages. It is believed that the North-Western Company had its storerooms situated there. The idea in building the cellars so solidly was for protection in case of fire. Later on, when Montreal had become a commercial town, and warehouses were being erected, oftentimes they were built on the foundations of these old buildings and sometimes right on top of them, as was the case with the building at present being pulled down.

The long passages found across the streets, which have oftentimes been spoken of with a good deal of mystery, were undoubtedly from the convent on St. Jean Baptiste street to some of the outhouses. Before any streets were opened up, the nuns had a very large piece of property. As they were a cloistered order at the time, the passageways were built under the streets in order that the nuns should not be obliged to appear in public. In this way a long passageway was constructed under St. Paul street to a garden situated on the river front, and another westward under St. Sulpice street into Notre Dame church, in order that the nuns might attend the different services. The only buildings in the city built in the solid old French style are those occupied by the Antiquarian Society, on Notre Dame street east, and that adjoining, and a portion of the building occupied by the Fathers of St. Sulpice, next to the French Church.

A TILSONBURG BUTCHER.

Pins His Faith to Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

Mr. C. H. Parker, Tilsonburg, Ont., the well known butcher of that town, has been using Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets for a backache and kidney trouble that had been bothering him. When asked to give his opinion of these Tablets he made this statement:—

"During a recent, sudden, and sharp attack of backache and kidney trouble, due to cold caught in the shop, I was induced to try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. I got a bottle and after I had used half of them the pain was gone. This I think is rapid enough results for anyone. I think they are a mighty good medicine."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are the newest and most effective remedy for backache, lame or weak back, Bright's disease, diabetesm dropsy, puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, gravel, rheumatism, specks floating before the eyes, kidney weakness of children and old people and all urinary troubles. TRICKS OF THE TRADE.

Cups, Brushes and Sponges That Are Left In Barber Shops.

"What becomes of all the old shaving mugs?" was the question asked the barber.

"What becomes of the owners?" was the response.

Neither side seemed disposed to answer the query, and there was an awkward silence. The barber slapped his razor on the strop, smeared some extra lather on the victim's mouth so he wouldn't be inclined to interrupt and said in a stage whisper:

"Now, I'll tell you, but I don't want it shouted from the housetops. We use the mugs again."

He paused and sighed as he tossed the questioner's head the other way.

"Yes," he continued, "we use them again. We don't like to lose customers; but, if we must lose them, why, we don't mind if they leave their cups, etc., behind. It's surprising how many do; but, then, barbers do mostly a 'shifting trade.' It's no secret that we urge customers to have their own cup Most of them are satisfied if they have a private cup, brush and sponge. We supply them with the man's name on the cup for $1.50, and our profit on the transaction is 50 cents. When a man has a razor and comb and brush besides the other tools, he generally takes the whole lot away when he's leaving, but countless cups, brushes and sponges are left behind in every barber shop.

"The cups are always good. Many of them contain such common names as John Smith, William Jones, etc., and when some other John Smith or William Jones orders a cup we simply supply him with the cast off one. Sometimes they need a little touching up with gilding; but, on the whole, it's very profitable.

"The brushes and sponges? Oh, we use them on the transients."

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

By Our Own Poet Morgan.

At the banquet in his honor in Toronto last week the Hon. William Mulock rounded off his peroration with these lines, which he ascribed to Kipling:

"It's only an old bit of bunting,
It's only an old tattered rag,
But soldiers have died for its honor,
And time has ennobled the flag."

It is our good friend Mr. J. C. Morgan who was the author of this stirring stanza, and not Mr. Kipling. Mr. Mulock owes Mr. Morgan an apology. Kipling is not the only poet of Imperialism—Orillia Packet.

Origin of Indian Summer.

There is an Indian legend to the effect that after the first frosts Manitou resorts to the island in the Georgian Bay which is called after himself, and there reposes and smokes the pipe of peace. The autumn haze which is seen in Indian summer is the smoke from his pipe, and the warmth is the heat of it. More than one of our Canadian poets have enshrined the legend in appropriate verse.

THE WIRE IS PURCHASED.

The Otonabee Power Company Buys Forty Tons of Copper Wire.

Mr. W. H. Meldrum, on behalf of the Otonabee Power Company, has just placed an order for forty tons of copper wire with the Kingan Hardware Company, agents for the Dominion Wire Company. Copper was selling at 18 1-2 and 23c. a pound a month ago, and the careful foresight and business ability, which was exercised in delaying the purchase until there was a drop to 13 1-2 cents a pound, has resulted in a saving to the company which will more than pay the manager's salary for the year.

Another big saving was made in the purchase of the plant from the Canadian General Electric Co., which was purchased at a lower price by $6000 than any other similar plant in the country.

The work of stringing the wires into town will not be undertaken until about the first of March, although three strands will be run from the Auburn power house to Dam No. 5, for the purpose of transmitting electricity to drive the steam pumps, which begin work on Monday clearing out the excavations for the wheel pits.

The wire which has been purchased will be drawn by the Dominion Wire Company and covered by the Canadian General Electric Company.

THE VACCINATION.

Many People Returned to the Council Chamber to get Their Certificates.

The local physicians are kept busy these days issuing certificates to those who were vaccinated last week. The council chamber presents a lively appearance to-day and the percentage of those whose vaccination "didn't take" is decidedly small.

The patient at Jackson Park is progressing quite favourably and will be able to sit up in the course of a few days. Dr. Bingham states that he thinks that the patient can get along now without his continual attendance.

The Nicholls Hospital which has been under quarantine for the past 14 days will be opened to the public again to-night.

THE T. A. S. MADE A PRESENTATION

To Venerable Archdeacon Casey, Last Night.

GIVEN A HEARTY SEND-OFF.

Archdeacon Casey's Reply — Several Members Address the Meeting Expressing Regret at his Departure.

The T.A.S. rooms, George street, presented a most attractive appearance last night, it being the occasion of an enthusiastic send-off to Ven. Archdeacon Casey by the members of the Society. Ven. Archdeacon Casey has always taken a deep interest in the affairs of the T.A.S., the members of which could not see him leave town without expressing to him an appreciation of his efforts in their behalf. There was a large attendance of members and their friends and the chair was occupied by Mr. Joseph Bagley, president of the Society. There were also on the platform besides Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Rev. Father John O'Brien, Joseph Mahar, J. Hickey, Fred Derocher, Fred McFadden, John O'Brien and J. P. Shevlin.

The chairman after a few introductory remarks in which he referred to the kindly interest Ven. Archdeacon Casey had always taken in the affairs of the Society, called upon John O'Brien to read an address, which was as follows:

THE ADDRESS.

To Venerable Archdeacon Casey,—

Rev. and Dear Father, — In meeting here to-night to say farewell, we are brought back, many of us, to our infancy, others to our youth—to the time you left us before—and if we were then grieved at the removal of the young and zealous curate from our midst, how much more deeply affected we are on the departure of our Venerable Rector. Since your removal to Peterborough eight years ago, many enterprises have been undertaken for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the parish, but probably none has received more attention, or has been more kindly fostered by you than St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society. Hence we desire to thank you as a body for the deep interest you have taken in our thriving Society, and also for the kind manner in which you have helped us in our undertakings. It was always a source of great joy to us to see your pleasant countenance, and when there was an entertainment of any kind your cordial encouragement endeared you to us all.

Dear Father, we ask you to accept these gauntlets as a token of the esteem in which you are held by the T.A.S.

Hoping that you will always remember us in your progress, we wish you God speed, and a happy New Year.

Signed on behalf of the T.A.S.

JOHN O'BRIEN,
JOHN P. SHEVLIN,
JOS. BEGLEY,
JOHN E. SULLIVAN.

Mr. J. P. Shevlin then presented Archdeacon Casey with a pair of otter gauntlets.

ARCHDEACON CASEY.

Ven Archdeacon rose to reply and was cordially received. He felt that he could not express his feelings on the present occasion for more than one reason. The address had brought back to him, recollections of the time when about 25 years ago he first came to Peterborough as a young curate. When he returned later on the people had all seemed to have grown old but during the past years he had learned to love the young ones and all alike.

This Society, too has been established during the past eight years is one which I think will bring to me many blessings; not that I have had so much to do with it, but the fact that it has been established during my rectorate here is one that I shall always bear in rememberance and one that shall be a source of much joy to many in the future. Therefore their joy will be down to my benefit.

There was difficulty at first experienced in founding the Society on a sound basis. Certainly this has now been accomplished and he felt sure it would be permanent, and that they would always have here in Peterborough a T.A.S. that would be a credit to the town and the province. Certainly in the whole of Ontario, or Canada, in fact, no Society is doing more good than the St. Peter's T.A.S. This is in a large measure due to their chaplain. One of the great difficulties in making a Society is in arousing enthusiasm amongst the members so that they will work together and for that object which was at end. All were working hard for the cause of temperance under their excellent and enthusiastic chaplain Rev. Dr. O'Brien.

The Archdeacon said that he was going to Lindsay and he hoped that within 12 months they would have there a flourishing temperance society. One of the regrets he felt in particular was the fact that he would be unable to attend the Society's re-unions. The meetings of the T.A.S. had been a benefit to them all morally, socially and intellectually. He would never forget the people of Peterborough and the members of the Society. He would pray to God to strengthen them in their good resolutions and to advance the cause of temperance. He congratulated the officers of the Society upon their excellent work, and in conclusion he asked them to remember him in their prayers and he would remember them.

Rev. Father O'Brien and Messrs. J. Mahar and J. P. Shevlin also spoke in feeling terms of the departure of Archdeacon Casey.

The affair closed by the singing of God Save the King.

During the evening the Misses Dorris rendered a piano duet.

MORE PRESENTATIONS MADE.

Young Ladies of the Sodality and Convent Pupils

All Wish to Testify to their Regret at Losing the Venerable Archdeacon.

The Convent Hall was crowded last evening by the members of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Peter's Cathedral, who assembled there to say farewell to their devoted chaplain, Ven. Archdeacon Casey.

The Venerable Archdeacon was accompanied by Rev. Dr. O'Brien. The Mother Superior of the Convent, who always takes such a great interest in the Sodality, was also present.

After an instrumental quartette by some of the young ladies of the Sodality, Miss O'Connell came forward and read in a very touching manner the following address. The presentation was made by Miss Vivian Clancy.

Venerable Archdeacon Casey, Chaplain of Young Ladies' Sodality, St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterborough,—

Rev. and Dearly-Loved Father, — With feelings of deepest sorrow we, the members of the Sodality, come this evening to bid you a sorrowful farewell and to express in words all too feeble the sense of loss that weighs heavily upon us. You have been so much to us for the past eight years—the faithful guide, the wise counsellor, the earnest and loving friend, that our hearts feel too full for utterance at the thought of parting.

Still we would be devoid of feeling were we to allow this opportunity to pass without at least showing some manifestation of respect towards that Father who has laboured so zealously and untiringly in our behalf.

The deep interest you have taken in our Sodality, your kind words, your sympathetic looks, your consoling manner, are to us golden memories of the past, but they speak more clearly to the members of the Sodality than any written record of your life.

It has been your desire that we should be well instructed in the truths and teachings of our holy religion, and with this end in view you have never ceased to instruct us in all that pertains to our spiritual welfare. You have ever held before the mind of the Children of Mary, that model of women, and at each recurring Feast in her honour, you have spared no pains to place vividly before our minds her admirable qualities, and try to instil in our souls the love of that Mother, and desire to model our life after her's.

And what is better still, your daily life has ever been a shining example in the practice of those Christian virtues which you inculcated by your earnest and assidious teaching. Counting your own labour, your own sacrifices, as nothing; the glory of God and the salvation of souls were your sole incentive. We hope that we sufficiently appreciate so lofty motives, which prompted such a faithful performance of duty on your part, and that we fully recognize your many claims on our gratitude for the untold benefits conferred upon us.

The memory of your kindly deeds and loving words are deeply engraved on our hearts—neither time nor absence will ever efface.

You may rest assured, Rev. Father, that our humble petitions will ever ascend to the throne of the Most High for your temporal and spiritual guidance; in return we would ask one favour, that in the stillness of the Sanctuary you would remember the young ladies of the Sodality of Peterborough.

We earnestly hope that God may bless you with health and strength to labour long and faithfully in His vineyard, and that in your new field of labour you may be surrounded by friends whose hearts are as true as are the hearts of those assembled here to-night.

We ask you, dear Father, to accept this fur collar as a token of gratitude and appreciation from the devoted members of the Sodality.

We have the great comfort in knowing that you are not far removed from us, and in conclusion we say, Rev. Father, "Come, when you will, there's a welcome for you!"

This morning the pupils of Notre Dame Convent presented Ven. Archdeacon Casey with a handsome arm chair and an appropriate and interesting programme of music was rendered and formed an enjoyable part of the proceedings. Amongst those who assisted in the programme were Miss Lewis, Miss Annie Simons, Miss Houlihan, Miss Kelly, Miss Dorris and Miss H. Dean. The address was read by Miss Mary Geary. Instrumental music and vocal selections were rendered.

Advertising Versus Merit.

The enormous sale of most medicines has depended entirely on large advertising. The enormous sale of Merrill's System Tonic has arisen solely from the merit of this wonderful compound. We say it is the best medicine to purify the blood, build up the system, strengthen the nerves and regulate the bowels made. Invest 50 cents in one bottle and you will know that we speak the truth. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists.

THEY HELD THEIR ANNUAL MEETING.

Peterborough Central Agricultural Society.

PRES. DOBBIN RE-ELECTED.

The Board of Directors—The Financial Statement—The Discussion.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Central Agricultural Society, was held in the Police Court Chambers here on Wednesday afternoon.

The chair was occupied by the president, Mr. F. H. Dobbin, and there were also in attendance Messrs. W. J. Green, sec.-treas., G. W. Fitzgerald, Ed. M. Elliott, Dawson Kennedy, Geo. Bennett, Wm. Collins, R. H. Leary, W. Saunders, Mr. Arnott, and R. J. Mackey.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read, and on motion adopted.

The president, Mr. F. H. Dobbin, addressed the members regarding the past season's operations. As was well known, the fair had not been successful financially, and it remained for the board of directors to determine what changes should be made in regard to attractions, so as to induce the people to patronize the affair to a greater extent. The total gate receipts for 1900 were $1800.42, and for 1901 were between $800 and $900, there being a falling off in the attendance to the extent of over $800. The expenses for running the show last year were somewhat less than the previous year. The directors worked hard, but it appeared to him that they were working from the wrong end—that is to say, they should endeavour to obtain a larger membership, and pay less attention to special attractions, with a view of drawing increased gate receipts. These special attractions last year cost them considerable, but had they not put them on at all their gate recepts would have been the same, and the finances of the society would have about balanced for the year. The country people attended the fair fairly well; the town people did not.

The president then submitted the following balance sheet for the year:

A letter was read from Mr. G. C. Creelman, secretary of the Canadian Association of Fairs, regarding the better improvements of the shows of the Agricultural Societies, and asking that one or more delegates be appointed to the Canadian Convention at Toronto on Feb. 19th and 20th.

Some little discussion followed the reading of the letter and finally upon motion an appropriation was made for one or more delegates to attend.

HORTICULTURISTS' ANNUAL MEETING.

Mr. Adam Hall was Re-elected President.

THE DIRECTORS' REPORT.

Discussion as to the Annual Exhibition—The Receipts and Expenditures for the Year.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society was held in the Town Council Chamber yesterday evening. Although the attendance was somewhat small there was great enthusiasm displayed by those present, and the indications are that the Horticultural Society is on the eve of great prosperity.

The chair was occupied by the president, Mr. Adam Hall, and amongst those in attendance were Messrs. H. L. Beal, sec.-treas., W. H. Hill, T. A. S. Hay, Jas. English, Alf. Saunders, Frank Mason, Sam Jordan, B. Cooney and Percy Hamilton.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and on motion adopted.

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

The report of the Directors was submitted as follows:

Peterborough, Jan. 15th, 1902.

To the members Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society:

Gentlemen,—We, your directors, beg to submit the following report:

The annual exhibition which was held Sept. 5th, 1901, was not a success as far as attendance was concerned, the number of entries being fewer than the previous year, but of a better quality, and consequently secured more prizes. Nevertheless your directors feel that something must be done to secure a larger number of entries for the current year. We would suggest that now as the Society is in a financial position to do so, the prize list be increased and in addition some special prizes be offered. A committee would be appointed to interview those having flower and vegetable gardens and try and induce them to exhibit at our annual exhibitions. We find that some Societies present its members with a year's subscription to a magazine or paper devoted to Horticulture, and we would suggest doing something of this kind if satisfactory arrangements could be made.

With reference to the parks, your directors have had a very busy year. As you are aware we have during the past year taken over the Central Park, and have expended considerable time and money in improving it. We have had it levelled, seeded, and water pipes placed all through it, we also planted about twenty shade trees and some flower beds, and with the assistance of the Town authorities have had a cinder path laid, which has made a great improvement.

In Victoria Park we placed some new shrubs, cut down some old trees where there were too many, had the fountain and seats all painted, and also repaired the walk, as instructed at your last annual meeting. The flowers for the beds were all purchased by tender and your directors succeeded in procuring the services of Mr. Cooney as caretaker for both parks, and we feel that the splendid appearance of the parks are due to his untiring efforts to make them look their best.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of your directors.

ADAM HALL, President. H. L. BEAL, Sec.-Treas.

THE OFFICERS

Pres.—Adam Hall.

1st Vice-Pres.—Jas. Stevenson.

2nd Vice-Pres.—D. W. Dumble.

Sec.-Treas.—H. L. Beal.

Directors—Hon. J. R. Stratton, Jas. English, H. Nesbitt, F. Adams, H. C. Rogers, A. L. Davis, T. A. S. Hay, Dr. Burnham, T. E. Bradburn, E. A. Peck, W. H. Hill, and Percy Hamilton.

Considerable discussion then took place as to the park management and many new features were suggested.

The annual show of the Society was a matter of considerable discussion. It is a well known fact that interest has not been as keen in this annual affair as it should be and an effort will be made to make it more attractive. Many think that the difficulty lies in the fact that amateur florists do not care to compete against professionals and to overcome this an arrangement will likely be arrived at whereby the local professional florists will continue showing but will not scoop the others as to prizes.

LIBERALISM TRIUMPHANT.

The Liberals of Canada have cause to feel perfectly satisfied with the result of yesterday's bye-elections. Out of the ten constituencies the Liberals were victorious in eight. West York and West Durham are both Liberal gains and in Beauce a Liberal was returned by acclamation. Mr. Archibald Campbell succeeded in West York in turning a Conservative majority of 820 into a Liberal victory by 150 and in West Durham Mr. Beith is to be congratulated on winning out from Mr. Thornton, whose claim that he had been unjustly unseated, was worked for all it was worth. Hon. Mr. Harty's victory over Mr. Metcalfe is a popular one the country over. His astuteness as a former Minister of the Ontario Government was generally recognized and a sweeping majority was given to him. The Quebec constituencies, all of which were held by Liberals, remains true to the cause, although personal matters introduced caused the former majorities to be somewhat lessened. Both Mr. Frost and Mr. Wartman, who were Liberal candidates in Conservative constituencies, were successful in cutting down the majorities considerably.

COLD SPRINGS.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 8th, the Cold Springs Union Sunday school held their annual business meeting. There was a large attendance of the members and friends of the school. The report of the Secretary-Treasurer was very encouraging and showed the work to be on a solid basis. The total membership of the school is 54, the average attendance for the past year being 39, which would no doubt have been larger but for the sickness that visited our neighbourhood. One pupil attended every Sunday of the year, while others were present 50 out of the 52, all of whom receive a gift from the school. The class collections amounted to $52.06, an increase of $7.50 over that of last year. The Bible Class was the banner class for the year, it having every member on the roll and teacher present for 21 Sundays out of the 52. The following are the officers for the ensuing year;

Supt.—Miss. Laura Bennett.
Asst. Supt.—Mr. Gillespie.
Sec.-Treas.—Miss Gillespie.
Normal Inst.—Mr. Sisson.
Home Class Sec.—Miss Kitney.
Organist—Miss M. Gillespie.
Asst. Organist—Miss Long.

After the election of officers, Mr. Walton Sisson, on behalf of the Sunday school, presented the Superintendent, Miss Bennett, with a handsome writing desk, after which refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

MARCONI'S EXPLOIT.

THE STORY IN DETAIL OF HIS NEWFOUNDLAND MISSION.

THE FIRST TRIAL WAS SECRET

How Messages Came From the Cornwall Station—Caught by the Ear—The Famous Scientist Is Convinced That Ere Long Wireless Messages Will Be Crossing the Atlantic.

It is not given to every man to stagger humanity in either a baleful or beneficent sense, but Mr. Marconi, the distinguished young scientist, who has compassed the marvelous achievement of communication across the Atlantic Ocean by wireless telegraphy, merits the credit of having startled the world in a manner that will work wonders for the public good. Circumstances have combined to make this the greatest spectacular scientific event of modern times; it has revolutionized all the accepted theories as to electricity and its uses, compelled scientists and thinkers to revise and newly adjust their methods of working and research, and has at one stroke placed its discoverer in the foremost rank of famous men of the age. In the history of modern scientific development, four great epoch-making events may be recorded — the perfecting of the electric light, the laying of the Atlantic cable, the inventing of the telephone, and the discovery of the Roentgen rays. To these may be added a fifth, that represented by Marconi's exploit last week, and this is undoubtedly the most wonderful of them all, for no more extraordinary conception has ever yet had its birth from the mind of the most imaginative novelist than this seemingly incredible feat of transmitting intelligible signals over 2,000 miles of space, without wire or cable or any other visible or tangible agency whatever.

The story of his early experiments and gradual success in the matter of wireless telegraphy is an oft-told tale. A special correspondent of The Globe takes up the parable where, having accomplished everything that was possible within the limited ocean areas which separate the British Isles from the European continent, this scientific Alexander turned in search of new worlds to conquer. To a genius of his transcendant ability, boundless energy and all-embracing capacity the prospect of eventually spanning the Atlantic and linking together the two hemispheres by his electric waves must have been ever the dream of his life, the ambition which spurred him on to attain comparatively great things and to attempt even greater. When his experiments between England and France were shown to be a complete success, and the British Admiralty had set its seal of approval upon the system by installing it upon several warships, he induced his company to establish a large power plant at Poldhu, Cornwall, for still more important tests. As compared with his ordinary stations, located around the British coasts, and used mainly for marine purposes, this Poldhu depot possessed powers about one hundred times greater.

The Machinery Used.

It consists of the buildings wherein the generators and instruments are stored in 20 masts, each 210 feet high, supporting aerial wires, and so connected as to form a gigantic conductor by means of which the volume of electricity produced in the generator is forced through the wires and projected into space, causing the oscillations of ether waves, which radiate through the atmosphere, traveling outwards in every direction to the uttermost ends of the earth. Poldhu station was built some eight months ago, but was partly blown down in the big gale which swept the English Channel in September, and is not yet completely restored. But it proved sufficiently effective to enable Mr. Marconi, in October and November, to experiment — having great things in view—with their most distant station, that at Crookhaven on the coast of Ireland, 225 miles away. While he was receiving messages at the latter post, he observed that the strength of the signals which were recorded was very great, so much so, indeed, that his long experience in the subject enabled him to conclude that they would manifest an observable activity at a distance ten times as far. As it was imperative that if such a result was obtainable the facts should be determined as soon as possible, Mr. Marconi determined to take ship at the earliest convenient date for Newfoundland, the nearest part of the western hemisphere to the British coast, and therefore the natural one from which to make the requisite observations. As the momentous step he was taking represented such an amazing extension of the existing scope of the system, he wisely decided to keep secret the real object of his mission to the colony.

Reasons for Secrecy.

He shrewdly reasoned that, if he stated his purpose beforehand and failed, the world would discredit his invention in its modest form, while if he failed now, he would try again later, and if he succeeded his success would be all the greater from coming upon the world so unexpectedly. Fortunately for him a legitimate reason for his visiting Newfoundland existed in the fact that he was interested in the possibility of signalling the Cunard liners traversing the ocean beyond the Grand Banks, 400 miles from that coast, and he announced his intention of undertaking experiments looking to that object, a sufficiently ambitious one in the minds of the public, seeing that it represented doubling his previous attainments. He left England on Nov. 26th on the Allan liner Sardinian, and arrived at St. John's on Friday, Dec. 6th. He was accompanied by his two assistants, Messrs. Kemp and Paget, and they brought with them all requisite apparatus and also two balloons and six kites, for the purpose of elevating their aerial wires, so that the signals, diffused through the ether, might be caught in passing and recorded on his instruments located in some suitable building at the base of the wire.

On arriving, and before beginning operations, he waited upon the Governor, Sir Cavendish Boyle, the Premier, Sir Robert Bond, and the members of the Ministry, who promised him the hearty co-operation of the Government and placed the resources of every department at his disposal to facilitate his work. They also offered him the temporary use of such lands as he might require for the erection of depots at Cape Race or elsewhere, if he determined to establish marine stations, which it was then understood he contemplated. He decided to begin his work on Signal Hill, a lofty eminence overlooking the port and forming the natural bulwark which protects it from the fury of the Atlantic surges. This hill is crowned by a plateau two acres in extent, affording an ample area for manipulating the kites and balloons and on a crag above the harbor is the new Cabot Memorial Tower designed as a signal station. In the vicinity is an old military barrack, now used as a hospital, and in part of this the Marconi apparatus was set up. It consisted of a very sensitive coherer, an electric battery and a telephone.

Permanent Station Not Needed.

Mr. Marconi, for the purposes immediately in view, did not require a permanent station at this point, his equipment of balloons and kites being regarded as adequate, seeing that he could always fall back upon the erection of a high mast or staff, the appliance with which the public have become most familiar in connection with his work. Accordingly, on Monday, December 9, he and his aides began their labors on Signal Hill. By Wednesday they had inflated their balloon, and it made its first ascent, only to break clear after a short while and drift away to parts unknown. It was a balloon 14 feet in diameter, and with a cubic capacity of 1,400 feet charged with hydrogen gas and designed to uphold the "aerial," which weighed about ten pounds, besides a stay to hold the sphere comparatively motionless. On Thursday he succeeded in elevating one of his kites to a height of 400 feet, it keeping the "aerial" in position, and by this means he was fortunate in being able to receive the trans-oceanic signals, which have annihilated space and made the abandonment of the submarine cable as certain as that the electric light has superseded the tallow candle. In order that readers may understand how it was done I must explain that Mr. Marconi before leaving England prepared a series of instructions for the guidance of the chief electrician at Poldhu station, Cornwall. Mr. Marconi was kind enough to show me his pressc opied duplicates of these instructions of his official letter-book. They intimated that, after his arrival in St. John's, he would wire a certain date (as, Tuesday, December 10), to the Poldhu operator, who was every day after receipt of this cablegram enjoined to make the signal "S" (which letter is represented in the Morse code by three dots, thus . . .), at regular intervals daily during the hours of 3 to 6 p.m., Greenwich time, until ordered to desist. The hours given were in local time at St. John's 11.30 a.m. to 2.30 p.m., the most convenient period for working at St. John's, and Mr. Marconi's idea was that if his theories as to the force of the electric waves were correct, he would be able to receive distinct and effective signals at his base at this place

The Great Day of Trial.

On Thursday at 12.30 o'clock the great idea was transmitted into an assured fact. Mr. Marconi at his instrument in the old hospital received the expected signals

In view of the importance of all that was at stake, he decided not to trust to the automatic recorder, but to use a telephone attached to the coherer instead. For ordinary work a recorder is used—an instrument in connection with which a tape is worked, the dots and dashes being printed thereon. The human ear is, however, infinitely more sensitive than the recorder, and therefore the inventor chose it as his medium for the reception of the all-important signals.

They were quite audible to himself and his assistant, Mr. Kemp, who also noted them. The two observers were at the instrument at different times, and the signals clicked along at irregular intervals during three minutes. They were again noted at 1.10 p.m., and at 2.20. They came in a great number of the conventional formula, which he had instructed to be sent, were distinct and unmistakable, and were received about twenty-five times altogether.

On Friday again, at 1.30 p. m., they were repeated, but were less distinct and not renewed after a brief period, Mr. Marconi's conclusion being that the kites, which worked badly, prevented the records being made with the same distinctness and regularity as on Tuesday.

Saturday's Attempt Failed.

On Saturday a further attempt was made to obtain a repetition of the signals, but it was unsuccessful, owing to adverse weather conditions, it being found impossible to elevate the kites, of which no less than three were smashed by falling to the earth. He thereupon decided to discontinue the experiments until he could erect a pole 200 feet high on Signal Hill, or at some other point which possessed the requisite facilities, so that he would thus be rendered independent of wind or weather. Another advantage with the pole would be that he could use a heavier wire, as with a kite, elevated 400 feet, the wire must necessarily be slight, while that suspended from a mast being stouter, would form a better conductor for the electric waves.

After Thursday's experiment Mr. Marconi wired his company in London of his success, and invited an opinion as to the wisdom of giving the news to the press. The reply being favorable, he announced the fact to the newspapers and correspondents at St. John's on Saturday night, and the world was soon made aware that another great scientific truth had been established, perhaps the most remarkable in some respects that the world has ever been enlightened by. When one comes to think of all that was at stake in his attempting this stupendous effort one cannot but be amazed at the courage and confidence which animated the clever young scientist to adventure upon such a seemingly hopeless quest.

The Future.

Regarding th future of his project, Mr. Marconi claims that ere many months it will be possible to transmit commercial messages across the Atlantic by his system at one-twentieth the present cost of cabling them.

By means of three stations—one in Cornwall, one in Newfoundland and one in Massachusetts—it will be possible to link together the two hemispheres by this wonderful electric agency and to have the ether above us controlled to our use and made play its part in our commercial economy, bearing messages of every import from all parts of the world. That his anticipations may be realized to the fullest extent must be the wish of all who desire the advancement of the world and the extension of scientific research.

Eczema's Itch Is Torture.

Eczema's itch is torture, the skin seems on fire with the burning, stinging humour; at times it becomes almost unbearable, and in desperation you could tear the skin to pieces. You dare not exercise for fear of aggravating the itching, neither can you sleep, for no sooner does the body become warm than the trouble begins and instead of restful, refreshing, sleep, it is scratch, scratch, scratch, all night long. There is scarcely a moment's respite from this maddening malady at any time. Of course, you have tried nearly all the washes, salves, lotions and medicated soaps, but, like thousands of others, have been disappointed and disgusted.

Mrs. Ann McDonald, Kingsville, Ont., states: "For about three years I was a dreadful sufferer from Eczema. At times the patches of raw, flaming flesh would extend from my waist to my neck, and from the knees to the ankles. The intense itching almost drove me crazy, and though I tried all the local physicians, they could not even relieve the suffering. The flesh would crack open, and I do not believe that anyone ever suffered more than I did.

"I was told of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but did not believe that it could help me. After the fifth application of this preparation I began to feel the benefit of its soothing, healing effects, and now attribute a cure to the persistent use of this wonderful remedy. It is truly worth its weight in gold, and I never tire of recommending it to other sufferers."

You may be skeptical regarding the ability of Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure you. Most people are, after trying in vain to get relief from a host of remedies, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will not disappoint you. You will be surprised at the marvellous control which it has over all itching, burning inflammations of the skin, and the wonderful healing powers which it possesses. It takes time to thoroughly cure Eczema, but Dr. Chase's Ointment will do it. You will find relief after a few applications, and gradually, and naturally, the cure will follow. Besides being a positive cure for Eczema, Dr. Chase's Ointment comes useful in a hundred ways in every home for every form of skin irritation and eruption, chapped skin and chilblains. 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 7

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $186 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355.92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

BOER WAR'S LESSONS

WHAT THEY ARE FROM VIEWPOINT OF HIGH CANADIAN OFFICER.

Value of Mounted Infantry Proved in South Africa, But It Does Not Follow That Cavalry Will Be Useless in Future Conflicts—The Canadian Mounted Rifles in the Campaign.

The Military Institute in Toronto promises a splendid series of lectures this winter. The first one was delivered the other night by Lieut.-Col. Lessard, who commanded the Canadian Mounted Rifles in South Africa.

In the first portion Col. Lessard drew some valuable lessons from the war, with particular reference to cavalry and mounted infantry. The latter part of his address was a graphic narrative of his own experiences in South Africa, and was of absorbing interest. It was illustrated by maps and by blackboard drawings, and conveyed a vivid idea of several thrilling incidents and critical situations of the campaign.

Col. Lessard pointed out that there were only 20,000 horses in the British army on a peace establishment. Therefore at the outbreak of the war it was short 88,000 horses, which had to be got somewhere, and shipped to South Africa.

Subsequently there was the large number required to repair wastage, which, owing to the character of the war and other causes, was unusually great. At present there were 80,000 horses in South Africa, exclusive of transport and other mounted details.

Some people imagined, said Col. Lessard, that the war had shown that the cavalry feature was to disappear entirely, and give way to mounted infantry. This was virtually assuming that Great Britain invariably would be fighting an army like the Boers, composed almost entirely of mounted infantry, whereas the probability was that any war would be with the armies of Europe. Some had also affirmed that the cavalry should be swept away, because it did not fulfill quite what was expected of it in South Africa. But it should be remembered that from the very commencement it was seriously handicapped in the matter of horses, having frequently to press forward with animals barely recovered from the effects of long voyages, untrained, and unacclimatised. It was much harder for the untrained horse to carry the weight of a man and his equippment than the trained horse; the untrained horse would play out much quicker. In fact the horses reached South Africa more or less played out, and instead of a whole month's rest which they should have got at Cape Town, they were so urgently needed that they were pressed forward with unreasonable despatch, cooped up on a narrow gauge railway, with necks bent for three or four days; then after detraining they had to undergo a march of seven days, with an allowance of only 10 pounds of oats per day, no hay, and water only when available. There were times when the cavalry were ordered to pursue and could not do it; it was all the horses could do to walk with their load; often, indeed, the riders had to dismount.

It was strange that if mounted infantry was to supersede cavalry altogether, that Russia, France, Germany, and other countries had taken no steps to adopt the system. They had attaches with both Britons and Boers, and they had fully reported to their Governments. Col. Lessard said he believed that the first feature of any European war of the future would be a mighty encounter between cavalry forces, which would be a great factor in determining the issue of the war. Still the Boer war had firmly established the value of mounted infantry and the British army was the only European one using that branch.

There was a tendency to decry the value of discipline and training. A more correct view seemed to be that if the Boers had the military value in units equal to that which they possessed individually, they would have succeeded to a degree unpleasant to contemplate. The training of the future should combine the individuality shown by the Boers and the colonials with the power of acting in units and in the coherent fashion that good training only could produce. The soldier 100 years ago had only to obey; now he had to think. (Applause). Cavalry, so far from being abolished, should be rendered more efficient, as the eyes and ears of the army. It should be brought up to date and fight on foot as well as mounted. It used to be considered a disgrace by the cavalry to fight on foot, but they must get down to it. They should be light men, lightly mounted on well-bred horses, perfectly trained.

Col. Lessard quoted Sir Edward Hutton's definition of mounted rifles as being infantry rendered mobile for a temporary purpose, and his opinion that to meet the future demands of strategy and tactics, the present system of mounted infantry should be placed upon a recognized and solid basis. "I think our cavalry in Canada should be mounted rifles," said the lecturer. This could not be done, however, by saying the word, as he knew cavalrymen who declared they would be nothing else, just as there were artillerymen and infantrymen who declared they would be nothing else. He did not blame them at all; it was a perfectly natural spirit, and he appreciated it. From the standpoint of the British army it was not easy to contemplate fighting a European power without a cavalry, though, of course, the man on foot must still be the backbone of the army. While admitting this, they must also admit the necessity of mounted infantry. Only a certain force of cavalry could be kept up owing to the great expense. According to Sir Edward Hutton, mounted infantry should not act as an auxiliary to cavalry; they should be the same as cavalry in this respect. He seemed to think mounted rifles would be much less expensive than cavalry, on account of the latter's costly dress and saddlery.

Col. Lessard said he must say a word for "Tommy Atkins," whether a mounted or infantry man. Critics had dilated only on his mishaps; they said he lacked individuality, that he was helpless on the field. People had heard all this sort of talk, but hardly any of Atkins' brilliant achievements. He (Colonel Lessard) had fought with English troops, and his conclusion was that if they made mistakes and lacked individuality then other European troops must be similarly lacking. While attached to Gen. French, as well as in command of my own regiment, I have been fighting with regular troops, and I cannot recollect one instance where regular troops did not come up to all that was expected of them." (Applause.) The speaker related several incidents, showing remarkable initiative and intelligence on the part of British regulars, such as when a lieutenant and ten men captured 29 of Steyn's staff.

The lecturer described the brilliant work of Gen. French in the Colesburg district, and expressed the belief that if he had had 15,000 men instead of 2,500, he would have gone straight through to Bloemfontein at the time. Col. Lessard left French's staff, being ordered to Cape Town to take command of the Canadian Mounted Rifles. One of his squadrons—Major Williams—was detached from the regiment, much to his regret. This regret he mentioned to Gen. Kitchener, who came to see him on one occasion, whereupon the general, whom he found one of the most approachable and affable of men, immediately restored the squadron. Col. Lessard recounted very realistically the several engagements in which the Canadian Mounted Rifles took part, beginning at Brandfort, and ending at Belfast, where three of the regiment won the Victoria Cross. He told of one Canadian subaltern who, with a squad of men, gave chase to a Boer convoy without asking orders, having no time to notify his commander. There was some talk of arrest by the general, but next morning the Canadians turned up with the captured convoy, including a wagonload of ammunition, whereupon everything was serene, and the officer highly commended.

The lost child, who presently finds his way home in the policeman's protecting arms, is hugged to his mother's heart with a new joy. But the mother's heart is empty as her arms when her children are lost for life. How many a woman goes through such an experience, appealing in vain for help to local doctors, who confess that they are "puzzled" to understand the cause of the trouble.

In similar cases Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been used with such success that its record commends it to every woman whose children fail of vitality. "Favorite Prescription" gives the mother strength to give her child. It strengthens the female organism, giving great elasticity to the organs of maternity, and making the baby's advent practically painless. It is the true woman's medicine, establishing regularity, drying weakening drains, and healing inflammation.

"I can cheerfully recommend Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription as the best medicine for women," writes Mrs. Mary Murdock, of 220 Taylor St., Topeka, Kansas. "I am the mother of ten children and only one living—the tenth one. She is one year old and is as well and hearty as can be. She is a beauty. Of my other babies, some were born at right time, but dead, others were premature births; one lived to be one year old, but she was always feeble. I tried different doctors, but none of them could tell what my trouble was. They said I was well and strong. I was examined by surgeons, but they found nothing wrong, and they were puzzled to know what my trouble was. I did not know what to do, so I thought this last time I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took it the entire nine months and now I have a fine baby girl, and I cannot praise your medicine enough for the good it did me."

Steam Trawling in the Pacific.

A scheme is on foot in Victoria, B. C., for the establishment on an extensive scale of steam trawling, a mode of fishing which is entirely new to our Pacific waters, where our gill nets, drag seines and bait hooks have been solely used. This style of fishing, which consists in the use of a huge dredge or beam trawl, dragging along the bottom of the sea, is most effective for the capture of halibut and flat fish, such as the sole. It is thought that the adoption of steam trawling will result in large catches of excellent fish, which cannot be taken by the methods at present employed. Hitherto the fishery authorities in Canada have not favored the use of the beam trawl, owing to the conflict which took place in European waters, especially off the coasts of Scotland, between the ordinary fishermen and steam trawl companies. On three occasions during the last ten years attempts have been made to introduce steam trawling on the Atlantic coast of Canada, but the Fisheries Department did not regard the innovation with favor, and in some cases the experiments were disappointing. Hence, these enterprises in Canadian waters fell through. The Canadian fishery laws do not make any provision for steam trawling, but the impression prevails that if the enterprise is revived it will meet with greater favor than was formerly extended. The New Zealand Government has lately been experimenting with the steam trawl, and 150 hauls were made along the coast of that colony, resulting in the capture of some ten species of valuable fish. A report recently issued by the Government of New Zealand speaks hopefully of this mode of fishing.

Where Canada Can Beat Persia.

Prof. Ward, of the Natural History Museum, of New York, lately returned from a trip through parts of Europe and Asia. While in Persia Mr. Ward was shown a meteorite weighing 113 pounds, which fell in 1880, and which, it was claimed, was the largest ever found. As a token of good will the professor was presented with a piece of it, weighing 2 1-5 pounds, which now safely reposes in the New York Museum, and which, he says, is worth its weight in gold. There are only four meteorites known he says.

If the professor would make a trip to Oakville he could be shown a fifth meteorite, weighing 130 pounds, and which, curiously enough, fell in the same year as the Persian one—1880. The owner of the farm near Oakville, and his family, were sitting on the verandah one evening, when they saw something bright strike the earth 500 yards away, and with a hissing sound, sunk out of sight. The heavy mass had buried itself over seven feet. It was allowed to cool, and afterwards was raised, and now is an object of curiosity to the neighbors. It as well as the farm is now owned by Mr. Harry Giddings, of the Cedar Grove Stock Farm, who says that Prof. Ward can have it at a slightly less price than its weight in gold.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

A Stupid Horse.

Lawrence Sullivan, who resides in Huntley Township, must have a charmed life. About ten o'clock last Saturday night he left town to drive homeward. He allowed the horse to find the road itself, and, in the blinding storm of snow and sleet then raging, made himself comfortable in his cutter. But the animal, which had formerly belonged to a farmer near Rosebank, started along the tenth line towards that village. Mr. Sullivan was unconscious that his horse was on the wrong road. Imagine his surprise when he found himself hurled into the air by a snowplow, his cutter smashed into atoms, and his horse killed. This occurred at the tenth line crossing of the Canadian Pacific Railway track. His escape from instant death was miraculous. Next morning Mr. Sullivan blamed the whole affair to the stupidity of the horse.—Almonte Gazette.

Throw Away Your Pill Boxes.

Why take pills when one dose only makes another necessary? Merrill's System Tonic tones the liver and restores the muscular power to the bowels, thus curing constipation to stay cured. When the bowels are right dyspepsia and nervous troubles disappear. 50 pleasant-to-take doses only 50 cents. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

POINTERS ON MANICURING.

When the nails are fragile, a little wax and alum rubbed upon them will strengthen them. If brittle, a little almond oil or cold cream will be found beneficial.

To remove white spots from the nails use a mixture of refined pitch and a little myrrh upon them at night, wiping it off the next morning with olive oil.

When about to manicure the hands, dip the fingers into warm, soapy water and hold them there for a minute or two in order to soften the nails and the scarfskin about them.

The scarfskin should be gently pushed back from the nails before they are polished. It should never unless absolutely necessary be cut with the scissors.

Agnails, improperly called hangnails, may be prevented by proper attention to the scarfskin which surrounds the nails.

For manicuring only a pair of curved nail scissors, a nail file, an orange stick, a chamois polisher, a bottle of vaseline and a box of rose salve or nail powder are necessary.—Mary E. Walker, M. D., in Ladies' Home Journal.

ON CRUTCHES.

Even if you are obliged to use crutches Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure can fix you up. This was the experience of John J. Peters, Sharbot Lake, Ont. He suffered with rheumatism in his legs (sciatica) for a year and had to creep about on crutches all the time. Fortunately he tried Dr. Hall's remedy and it only took three bottles to cure him completely. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

A DEATH "DODGER"

Chronicle all the escapes from death and put them in letters that all the world can see, and you'll find if history were written faithfully, Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart will hold the record for having "baulked death's rampage."

It goes to the very brink and snatches from the death Angel's grip. Gives relief in thirty minutes. It is a heart specific. A few doses relieve the most stubborn of cases, and a few bottles will turn the scale of health. It never fails to cure. 16

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST.

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir, — Will you kindly grant a place in your columns for a few words on a subject in connection with which there seems to be some misapprehension at the present time.

The constitution of the Church of Christ, is the subject to which I refer.

Of whom is the Church of Christ composed? is an enquiry upon many lips just now in this community. In religious assemblies, from pulpits, and in prayer meetings, the momentous question is being discussed. The answer can be found only in the Word of God. The Head of the Church is the only one who can define the Constitution of the Church.

What then, from this standpoint, is the Church of God? And who are its accredited members?

Paul tells us that the Church is the body of Christ, and that Christ is the Head of the Church. In other passages she is called the Bride, and Christ the Bridegroom. Again, she is called the Sheepfold, of which Christ is the Shepherd. All these representations indicate close and vital union between Christ and His Church. They all imply that there is no membership without union to the Living Head. This union constitutes Church Membership everywhere, and without it there is membership nowhere.

Membership in a Presbyterian, or Methodist, or Episcopal Church does not in every case mean membership in Christ's Church. Many things are said of this latter class which cannot be said of all the members of any visible Christian organization on earth. It is not true of all that they are born of God—that they are in Christ—as the branches are in the vine. The Bridegroom does not say of the church visible, "Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee." All whose names are on earthly church rolls cannot unite in saying of the Bridegroom, "He is the chief among ten thousand, and the one altogether lovely."

It is a sad mistake when preaching about the glory, the honour, the beauty and the completeness of the Church, not to distinguish between the wheat and the tares—between those who enjoy real spiritual life, and those who, although they have a name to live, are in reality dead. How sad to allow mere moralists and formalists in the congregation of worshippers to conclude that Christ is saying to them, "Ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God," and that they "are no longer under the law, but under grace,"—"Without spot or wrinkle, or any such thing."

It may be asked how can this be said of any one living on earth? The answer is easy. It is because of their identification with Christ. He of God is made unto those who have received Him wisdom and righteousness and sanctification and redemption.

For any one who is a lover of pleasure or a lover of self, more than a lover of God to call himself a member of Christ's church, is the height of profanity; and yet many do this, and are encouraged to do this, because they are not told to the contrary by their teachers.

There is no man that liveth and sinneth not. It is not in themselves that Christians are holy, harmless and undefiled, but in Him who is their Bondsman, who has been made sin for them that they might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

The Lord knows them that are His; we do not in every case. The Shepherd says, "My sheep know My voice, and they follow Me." This is the grand test of membership in Christ's Church. Union to the visible church prior to union to the Head of the Church is a false position, and church officers who accept of candidates for church membership without examination as to their love to the Saviour are unfaithful to their trust.

Little or no sickness here.

Our druggist has been unable to secure the necessary quantity of vaccine for applicants, Peterborough having ordered so extensively.

The Presbyterians had a very large number of communicants last Sun-Sunday, showing the prosperity of this branch of the church under their earnest pastor, Rev. W. Kannawin, B.D.

Dr. Keith of Mount Pleasant, six miles south of here, has decided to make this point his headquarters in the future, and to make only periodical visit to Mount Pleasant.

The Canadian Order of the Woodmen of the World, at Omemee, have secured Pauline Johnston and W. McCrae, to give an entertainment on Tuesday, January 21st. It promises to be the entertainment of the season.

The Farmers' Institute meeting and entertainment on Wednesday, 15th, bids fair to be an interesting gathering. The Misses Clancy, vocalists, and other local talent, will appear at the evening meeting.

CURLIANA.

In the tankard draw for group No. 5, Campbellford defaulted to Bobcaygeon, yesterday, and the Peterborough Thistles played the latter during the evening. A large number of enthusiasts were at the rink to witness the game and some good curling was seen. Skip Sam Ray gave the veteran Skip Read quite a trouncing, although the game was a tie at the beginning of the ninth end. Sam, however, got two ones, two threes and two ones in succession, which won him the match as he was able to hold his advantage to the end. Skip Tom Rutherford and his opponent Skip Will Davis had a much closer struggle and therefore a more interesting game to watch. It was nip and tuck up to the 16th end when the score was a tie. Tom and his men, however, were the better finishers and in the last six ends tallied six to Bobcaygeon's two, winning by four points. The rinks were composed as follows:

Bobcaygeon.	Peterborough Thistles.
Rink No. 1.
Login	J S Knapman
Boyd	C N Brown
Bottom	C Rutherford
W J Read, sk...11	S Ray, sk...23
Rink No. 2.
Bell	J Stanger
Robinson	W G Ferguson
VanNorman	A Blade
W Davis, sk.....15	T Rutherford, sk...19
26	42

The score by ends was as subjoined:

Ray	...03020110113311010220o1—23
Read	.....10301002000000101oo11o—11
Rutherford ...	30010201101200113011110—19
Davis	...02203010030011000100o1—16

The Thistles now play against Lindsay and will try to make arrangements to have one rink play here and the other in Lindsay, which would seem to be a fair proposition.

The regular games which were scheduled to take place, last evening, and had to be postponed will be played off on Monday night.

Skip Whiten states that he never saw a more perfect game than was played by Skip Flavelle and his rink in Lindsay on Tuesday.

HOCKEY.

There is some doubt yet as to the date on which Lindsay will play the return game here. A telephone message from Lindsay at noon to-day stated that they would be here on either Monday or Tuesday.

The following intermediate players are asked to turn out to play the Colts to-night: Armstrong, Whitcroft, Wasson, Comstock, Morgan, Glover, Graham, Watt and Parnell.

The Colts' team which was at Belleville is asked to be out to play the above intermediates to-night at 6.30.

The Examiner's Keene correspondent writes as follows: If there is one thing Keene sports excell in, it is in suffering a defeat or winning a victory with grace. During the past years they have had their fair share of laurels in the field of sport—in lacrosse in the far-off eighties, when one of our worthy doctors ably defended the flags—again on the diamond when, some of our now sedate citizens more than once contested the superiority of our dusky friends of Hiawatha or the burghers of Villiers, and who of us that does not feel the blood tingle under our little toes when we recall to mind the crowds assembled at the school yard to witness the first eleven carry the banner of victory successfully for years against all comers. When one recalls the boys who so ably defended the honour of Keene, one cannot but become reminescent and watch the scores of memories flee by—Wigmore, the Quinn boys, the Fifes, the Walshes and numbers of others.

It was in the early nineties that "Bummer" Laing, brimming over with hockey, confided in his friend "Butler" Roche and as a result a hockey club was formed. A match was arranged with Warsaw, and for this special occasion "Hector" Leag was imported, as they feared the locals were not fleet enough to meet Warsaw. However, "Heck" being rather too fleshy to be fast was never again asked to give his might (mite.) I am not quite sure whether "Bummer's" team won or not, but the game is very important inasmuch as it was the beginning of hockey in the village. In succeeding years, many new players took the places of the old, and the game has steadily progressed, and a hockey season is not a hockey season unless we meet in two or three games with our old crony, Millbrook. Last season Millbrook could not play, owing I believe to the mismanagement of the rink—not to the boys—and no game was played.

This year, however, the boys of that town have gotten together with an open air rink, and are in the game. We had them here last Friday and although they were not in their old form they showed material for a first class team. Knowing it was their first night and two years out of business it was not expected to see them in their old form. Before winter is over things will certainly be different. One could not but admire the grit the boys showed and the real spirit of sport to play even although losing.

In next Friday's game we expect a better balanced score. Our hand to Millbrook in sport!

They Drove Pimples Away.

A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

The Last Execution at Tyburn.

The last execution on a permanent gallows in London took place at Tyburn on Nov. 7, 1783, the malefactor being one John Austin, condemned for highway robbery with violence. For centuries Tyburn had been the scene of executions for criminals condemned in Middlesex, and before the erection of the permanent gibbet occasional hangings had taken place, record existing of the hanging of Judge Tressilian and Nicholas Brembre at that place as far back as 1388.

The gallows consisted of three posts, and around it were open galleries, resembling race stands, in which seats were let. On account of the disgraceful scenes on the road, executions were transferred in 1783 to the area in front of Newgate, despite the objections of residents, and on Dec. 3 of that year the first hanging took place there, when no less than ten were executed.—London Chronicle.

An Interesting Relic.

In the matter of diminutive bank notes a correspondent sends an account of a curious note which he has in his possession. It is a card measuring 2 by 2½ inches, on one side of which is twice printed the word "Twopence," while on the other the sum is printed in words and figures round the border. In the middle is the following: "I promise to pay the bearer, on demand, twopence. By order of the Corporation of the City of New York, Feb. 20, 1790. D. Phœnix, City Treasurer."—London Graphic.

Not Durable.

"Marriages may be made in heaven," he said thoughtfully, "but if so, they're dealing in a cheaper grade of goods up there every year. They don't last any thing like the way they used to."

Premier Says He Knows Nothing of Peace Negotiations.

THE KING OPENS PARLIAMENT

Special Reference to Troops' Humanity in South Africa Evokes Aristocratic Cheers—Lord Salisbury Speaks in Lords, and Mr. Chamberlain Replies to Sir William Harcourt —Irish Questions.

London, Jan. 17.—King Edward opened Parliament yesterday afternoon with a ceremonial in all essential respects similar to that of February last.

After robing, King Edward and Queen Alexandra entered the House of Peers, and occupied their thrones beneath a canopy, with the Prince and Princess of Wales on either side of them. The other members of the royal family were seated on chairs at the foot of the steps leading to the throne.

The speech was not an important utterance. His Majesty referred in gratified terms to the world tour of the Prince and Princess of Wales, expressed regret that the war in South Africa was not concluded, said he trusted the decision of the sugar conference would lead to the abandonment of bounties, and noted the conclusion of the Isthmian Canal treaty.

The only departure from the extremely decorous character of the proceedings occurred when the King referred in the Speech from the Throne to the humanity of the British troops in South Africa. This led to an unprecedented scene in the House of Lords, Peers and Peeresses and high officers of state broke out into a prolonged cheer, which was repeated again and again to the evident satisfaction of His Majesty, but to the apparent dismay of the officials of the House.

IN THE LORDS.

The House of Lords was well filled when business was resumed. The Prince of Wales occupied the seat formerly used by his father. Many peeresses were in the gallery.

The Lord Chancellor, Earl Halsbury, formally read the King's speech.

The Earl of Harrowby and the Earl of Lytton moved and seconded the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne.

Earl Spencer (Liberal) criticizing the address, said that, while he recognized the impossibility of granting the Boer demands for independence, yet he deprecated insisting on unconditional surrender. His Lordship urged the Government to promise the Boers autonomy similar to the Governments of Australia and Canada.

The Premier, Lord Salisbury, whose entrance into the House was greeted with hearty applause, said he was glad to hear the Earl of Spencer vent an utterance for which he, the Premier, had been frequently and unsparingly condemned. It was quite true that there was no possibility of granting the Boers independence. The Premier pleaded that they should not allow their eagerness to improve their party position, and make them forget the issue, whether or no Great Britain should be victor in the war. He reminded the opposition that a wrong settlement now would impose grave difficulties and embarrassments upon the nation for many years to come.

Lord Salisbury continued by defending the martial law in South Africa, and urged the opposition to remember they were not dealing with the question whether they could make out a good case against the Government. Neither was it the Government's business after being gratuitously attacked to inform the Boers on what terms they would be forgiven, especially since the Boers had not yet expressed a wish to be forgiven.

Replying to the Premier, Lord Rosebery said he favored a passive policy of peace, which would receive overtures when these were made, and that in this connection he wished to know the truth of the rumors concerning the visit to London of Dr. Kuyper, the Premier of Holland; had Dr. Kuyper brought such overtures?

"Not so far as I know," answered Lord Salisbury.

"Have any overtures been received from the Boer leaders in Europe?" asked Lord Rosebery.

To this question Lord Salisbury answered: "No."

IN THE COMMONS.

After the speech from the throne had been formally read and the addresses in reply had been moved and seconded, the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, spoke, in general terms, against the course of the Government in South Africa, urging conciliation in place of brute force. He said the same, to a large measure, was true of Ireland, where the Government at present, was "floundering between concession and coercion," and urged the adoption of the most liberal program toward Ireland.

Mr. McNeill (Irish Nationalist, member for South Donegal), created the earliest scene by deploring the fact that the Nationalist members had been immured in dungeons at the behest of Mr. Wyndham (the Chief Secretary for Ireland). He moved the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter. When the Speaker declined the accept the motion, Mr. McNeill questioned his ruling and was called to order.

Sir William Vernon-Harcourt (Liberal) by attacking the institution of martial law in the Cape Colony and by accusing the Government of grossly unconstitutional conduct in advising the Ministers of the Cape Colony not to summon the Cape Parliament brought up Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, who was in a most militant mood. Mr. Chamberlain declared that Sir William Vernon-Harcourt ought to have placed a question of such vast importance in the form of an amendment and proceeded to justify absolutely the action of the Cape Government. Mr. Chamberlain said he did not care a scrap for legal opinions on one side or the other, that the Government had to deal with an emergency, and that it had followed the universal practice of all countries. He also said the Government of the Cape Colony would ask Parliament to indemnify their acts.

Sir William Vernon-Harcourt asked: "When will that be done?"

Mr. Chamberlain retorted: "When is the war going to end?" (Laughter and cheers.)

John Redmond (chairman of the Irish parliamentary party): "By the next general election."

In the course of this speech, Mr. Chamberlain was protesting against the suggestion that he should overrule the Privy Council, when Mr. Redmond interjected: Hear, hear, you ought to be King."

Amid laughter, Mr. Chamberlain replied: "That is very good of the honorable gentleman, but that is not my ambition."

The House of Commons then adjourned.

There was only a meagre attendance of members when the House of Commons met at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to commence the work of the session. Irish affairs cropped up almost immediately. Earl Percy, Conservative, moving a resolution to the effect that the election from Galway of Col. Arthur Lynch, "who was commonly and notoriously reported to have aided the King's enemies," was an insult to the House, and a committee should be appointed to consider the course to pursue.

The Speaker declined to accept the motion until notice of it was given in the usual way.

Nationalists Defeated.

Cork, Jan. 17.—The municipal elections here have resulted in the defeat of Eugene Crean (member of parliament for the southeast division of Cork), ex-Mayor Roche, and other nominees of the United Irish League. This is attributed to a speech made by Mr. Crean during the campaign in which he declared that if King Edward came to Cork, for the purpose of opening the International Exhibition, he would be hooted through the city.

STRONG PEACE RUMOR

The Appropriation of Farms Leads to Protests.

STOCKS RISE IN SYMPATHY

Strong Influences Said to Be at Work to Be Urging Boer Leaders to Give Up—Some Burghers Indirectly Approaching the British Government—Enthusiastic Send-off For the Guards.

London, Jan. 17.—A strong belief prevailed in financial circles here late yesterday, that negotiations for peace had been re-opened between the leading Boers and the British Government. South African stocks rose in sympathy with the reports.

The exact nature of what was going on was not known, but it was learned that leading Boers had indirectly approached the Government, protesting against the appropriation of farms in the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies by British settlers, which system is now being rapidly pushed, and that strong influence had been brought to bear on the Boer leaders to save at least a vestige of property for their followers.

Whether what was passing yesterday between the Boers and the British Government can be termed peace negotiations, or what will be their result, can only remain speculation for the present. The stock exchange evidently takes a hopeful view of the outcome. British consols, the best barometer of Imperial affairs, rose nearly half a point on the London Exchange. It is regarded as certain that the King would not have made his optimistic statement of Wednesday had he not had assured information to go upon.

Women Clung to Them.

London, Jan. 17.—So far as unrestrained public enthusiasm was concerned the opening of parliament spectacle was nothing to what occurred earlier yesterday, when the Guards' reinforcements left their barracks en route to South Africa. The Guardsmen tramped through the dark streets of the metropolis at 6 o'clock in the morning, accompanied by an uproarious mob of civilian friends, singing songs to the accompaniment of bands. The songs and music, however, did not drown the crying of women, who clung to the necks and arms of almost every man of the contingent.

Millions For Railroads.

London, Jan. 17.—It is announced here that Lord Kitchener has been authorized to expend £835,000 ($4,175,000) for the extension of railroads in South Africa, Lord Kitchener having arrived at the conclusion that this course would materially aid in the subjugation of the Boers.

Victorian at Halifax.

Halifax, Jan. 17.—The troopship Victorian, which is to take the second section of the Second Regiment of Canadian Mounted Rifles to South Africa, reached quarantine at noon yesterday. Upon her arrival in the harbor embarkation of the troops will be at once proceeded with. The Field Hospital Corps is also going on this vessel.

Two Canadians Ill.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—Two more Canadians in the South African Constabulary are reported to be ill. A despatch to the Governor-General from the Casualty Department, Cape Town, says: "Kenneth Morrison, dangerously ill of enteric fever, at Heidelberg, Jan. 10. His father is P. Morrison, Yorktown, N.W.T. Beverley A. G. Sheffield, ill of enteric fever at Heidelberg, Jan. 10. His mother is Mrs. N. Fenwick, Fairworth, N.B."

Danes Indignant at Germany.

London, Jan. 17.—It is a remarkable fact, says the Copenhagen correspondent of The Times, that the excessive expressions of German Anglophobia seem to be sweeping away the Danish sympathy for the Boers. A wave of indignation against Germany is now spreading over the country. The newspapers consider that the German insults to King Edward are directed also against King Christian and the Danish royal family.

LINDSAY'S SENSATION.

Town Solicitor Says Mayor and Four Aldermen Are Disqualified.

Lindsay, Jan. 17.—Yesterday Solicitor John McSweyn of this town handed out an opinion in which he holds that all the members of last year's Council are disqualified from holding office for two years. As Mayor Ingle and four aldermen elected this year are among these the opinion has created a sensation. Mr. McSweyn bases his opinion upon the fact that last year's Council used about $1,000 of the Collegiate Institute sinking fund for town purposes, and put in the place of that money mortgages on town property, whereas the statute requires that sinking funds shall have the security of a chartered bank or farm land. The penalty for violation of this statute is disqualification for any municipal office for two years.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—The Mounted Police Department has last night received a report, brought to Victoria by the steamer Cottage City, of the disaster which befel the three Mounted Policemen at the post of the Stickeen River. It was reported that all three men at the post had been drowned by the upsetting of their boat, but it is now learned that Fitzgerald survived. His comrades, Campbell and Heathcote, were lost.

Thomas Ballantyne, Stratford; honorary vice-president, John Prain, Harriston; president, Aaron Wenger, Ayton; first vice-president, Jas. Connolly, Porter Hill; second vice-president, J. N. Paget, Canboro; third vice-president, Robert Johnston, Bright. Directors: District No. 7, J. W. Steinhoff, Stratford; District No. 8, Harold Eagle, Attercliffe Station; District No. 9, J. H. Scott, Culloden; District No. 10, Thomas Ballantyne, jr., Stratford; District No. 11, T. B. Miller, London; District No. 12, John Brodie, Mapleton; District No. 13, A. F. MacLaren, Stratford; secretary-treasurer, George Hately, Brantford; auditors, J. A. Nelles, London; J. C. Hegler, Ingersoll; representatives to Industrial Exhibition, Toronto, J. N. Paget, A. F. MacLaren, M.P., Stratford; Western Fair, London, T. B. Miller, London, and J. R. Isaac, London.

Dairy Royal Commissioner.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—The outcome of a series of complaints between producers and sellers of country produce, was the passage recently of an order-in-council appointing W. G. Parmelee, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce, a Royal Commissioner to investigate the general question of the handling, weighing and shipping of dairy products. The investigation will open in Montreal on Tuesday, the 20th. Further enquiries will be held at St. Hyacinthe, 30th; Victoriaville, 31st; Brockville, Feb. 11.

Twenty-Two Drowned.

London, Jan. 17.—The Copenhagen correspondent of The Daily Mail says that the Norwegian barque Arab Steed, Capt. P. Pedersen, which left London Dec. 9 for Christiana, has sunk in the North Sea and that 22 persons were drowned.

Consignments May Be Forwarded to South Africa en Transport.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—Having obtained from the War Office permission to have general Canadian freight carried on steamers for transportation of hay and other army supplies to Cape Town, the Department of Agriculture has arranged a plan for enabling manufacturers of food products, wood goods and agricultural machinery to forward consignments to South Africa at minimum freights. The freight charges from St. John, N.B., to Cape Town, S.A., including loading on the ships and discharging, will be at the rate of $5 per ton of forty cubic feet. The ocean freight must be prepaid to the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, on or before the date of sailing. The Department, of course, accepts no responsibility for goods after they have been landed at South Africa, where they must be consigned to agents.

Sworn In as Minister of Marine and Fisheries on Thursday.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—Hon. James Sutherland was yesterday moraing sworn in as Minister of Marine and Fisheries. The ceremony took place at Rideau Hall at noon, in the presence of his Excellency the Governor-General. There were also present Hon. R. W. Scott and John J. McGee, Clerk of the Privy Council. The Premier was absent, being confined to his house by a severe cold. Mr. Sutherland's acceptance of an office of emolument renders his re-election necessary. The writ for a new election has accordingly been issued. Sheriff Brady is the returning officer. Nominations will take place on the 29th inst. Should Mr. Sutherland be opposed, polling will be held on Feb. 5, but it is thought the Minister of Marine will be returned by acclamation. TO AMEND JURORS ACT

Bill to Save Expense Where There Are No Prisoners.

BUDGET FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY

An Interim Vote of $450,000 Passed by the Legislature—Estimates May Be Down Monday, If Not, Budget Speech Will Be Held Over Till Thursday—Some Proposed Bills.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—Yesterday's session of the Legislature was brief and developed no business of great importance. The estimates, in skeleton form, were laid on the table, and Hon. Mr. Gibson introduced a measure to amend the jurors act. The bill contains some of the clauses of his reform measure of last session, which was not then passed. Forty petitions from individual Methodist churches and from circuits of the same body, asking for a prohibitory liquor law, were presented. Before the session closed, the Premier said he hoped the estimates and the public accounts would be laid on the table on Monday, in which event he would deliver the budget speech on Wednesday. If they were not presented on Monday the budget would not be held until Thursday.

A vote of credit of $450,000 was passed for current expenditure until the estimates are passed. The amount is made up of the following items: Civil government $50,000; legislation, $65,000; administration of justice, $50,000; education, $50,000; maintenance of public institutions, $100,000; agriculture, $20,000; repairs and maintenance of public buildings, $10,000; changes on Crown Lands, $20,000; public works and buildings, $10,000; miscellaneous $65,000.

The Attorney-General introduced a bill to amend the jurors act. It provides that the county selectors of jurors may determine that the county court shall sit at the same time as the High Court, and that the same set of jorors may be used at both courts. It also provides that clerks of courts may, if there is no business for the courts, give the sheriff five days' notice to that effect, and the sheriff in turn shall notify the jurors not to attend. No fees or mileage is to be allowed to jurors who attend after having received notice not to do so, but any juror who might attend in good faith and not having been notified to the contrary, will be allowed pay for one day only.

A bill will be introduced by Mr. Lee (East Kent) to amend the election act by providing that mariners and trainmen may vote where they have resided for two days prior to the elections. Mr. Lee's object, he says, is to prevent managers, etc., of companies from depriving their employes of a vote should they differ from them politically, by sending them away on the day of the elections.

The Canada Western Railway is applying for a charter from Fort Frances north through Rat Portage to the boundary of the Keewatin district, a distance of about 200 miles.

Mr. Auld (South Essex) is anxious to have the game law amended so that the open season for quail shooting should be one month, instead of two. He also wants it made lawful to shoot rabbits all the year around. He will introduce a bill to this effect.

Mr. McDiarmid (West Elgin) intends introducing a bill to amend the assessment act so that the amount of income to be exempt from taxation shall be increased from $700 to $1,000.

Mr. Conmee headed a deputation composed of Mayor Cameron and W. J. Morgan of Rat Portage, and N. W. Rowell, which waited on Hon. J. M. Gibson yesterday afternoon with the request that the Government pay half the cost of constructing a $12,000 bridge over the Winnipeg River between Rat Portage and Keewatin. They also asked that several roads be built in that district.

Last year the revenue of the Crown Lands Department was $1,630,000, an increase of about $100,000 over 1900. In 1892 and 1893 only has this amount been exceeded. The revenue from timber dues last year was $824,843, while for the preceding year it was $576,320.

A. M. McKinnon has been appointed local master and local registrar at Guelph at $2,000 per year.

DON'T WANT REFERENDUM.

Temperance Workers in Manitoba Are Opposed to the Proposition.

Winnipeg, Jan. 17.—A deputation of 500 temperance representatives waited on the Government yesterday to urge the enforcement of the Liquor Act without a referendum.

Premier Roblin said that while the Government policy was a referendum, their representations would be taken into consideration by himself and colleagues.

Mr. Bernier announced that the policy of the Catholic Church was one of opposition to prohibition.

An Emphatic Protest.

St. Thomas, Jan. 17.—The prohibition convention held in the Centre street Baptist church, was very largely attended. Delegates were present from East and West Elgin. A serious of resolutions were adopted enthusiastically calling upon the Government for the immediate enactment of a prohibition law and condemning a referendum of any kind as unnecessary.

A Story of Mark Twain.

"I met Mark Twain on a river steamer when he was a very young man," said an aged westerner. "At that time he was rather a gaunt young fellow, with sleepy southern manners and a drawl peculiar to the river town in Missouri. Something in my appearance attracted his attention, for he stared intently at me whenever we met. It so happened that I wore on one foot an Indian moccasin, having been injured shortly before.

"Finally I demanded, with some irritation, whether he had ever seen me before. He looked me over and drawled:

"'Well—your—face—is—familiar.' Then he dropped his eyes to the deck with a troubled frown. 'But—I—can't—recall—your—feet.'"

Are Quick To See

Good Doctors are Quick to See and Appreciate Real Merit in New Medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and disordered digestion.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good.

Purging is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help and you will have no trouble.

Its a common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—

Mrs. E. M. Faith of Byrd's Creek, Wis., says: "I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them, I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says:—"Mr. White, of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia from which he had suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50 cents to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

All druggists sell them. A little book on stomach diseases will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

COMPANIES INHIBITED.

Must Not Interfere With Dam in Ottawa Without Permission.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—The Minister of Public Works served notice yesterday upon all the water power leases of the Chaudiere, including the Ottawa and Hull Power and Manufacturing Co., and the Messrs. E. B. Eddy Company on the Quebec side, and J. R. Booth, the Messrs. Bronson, the Ottawa Electric Railway Co., and the Ottawa Investment Co. on the Ontario side, inhibiting them from any interference with the river dam without permission from the Crown. This is the outcome of representations made to Mr. Tarte last Friday that the Ottawa and Hull Company threatened to cut away the portion of the dam which crossed their property on the Quebec side, and which it was claimed would seriously affect the entire water power on the Ottawa side of the river, including that used in furnishing the city's water supply, light and electric traction.

AFFAIRS IN PEKIN.

Chinese Oppose Russia in Getting Complete Control in Manchuria.

Pekin, Jan. 16.—The Emperor went from the Forbidden City to the Temple of Heaven before daylight today, offered sacrifices and gave thanks for his safe return to Pekin. All signs of the British occupation of the Temple were removed, and the streets traversed were illuminated. A military escort surrounded the Emperor, and a great body of nobles and officials followed him in chairs or on horseback. The Manchurian negotiations continue slowly. Russia, in spite of her protestation of firmness, is disposed to compromise. The Chinese particularly oppose giving Russia complete control of the mining and railroad concessions.

Indians Increasing in Canada.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—The report of the Department of Indian Affairs gives the Indian population of the Dominion for 1901 as 99,527, an increase of 517 over the previous year. There are 290 Indian schools in the Dominion, of which 40 are classed as undenominational, 104 are conducted by the Roman Catholic church, 93 by the Church of England, 40 by the Methodists, and 13 by the Presbyterian Church. There were in 1901 on the rolls of these schools 9,576, a decrease of 58 compared with the previous year.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock were not large, 20 car loads all told, composed of 915 cattle, 550 hogs, 627 sheep and lambs, with about 15 calves.

The quality of fat cattle generally was only medium, too many unfinished coming forward.

Trade was good, with prices about steady all round for cattle and sheep, while hogs took another drop of 12½c per cwt. all round, with the market easy.

DR. SVEN HEDIN.

Swedish Explorer Who Has Just Returned From Thibet.

Dr. Sven Hedin, the celebrated Swedish explorer, who has just reached the Vale of Cashmere on his return from his two years' visit to Thibet and the Gobi desert, was believed to have been lost in the land of mystery and lamas, which has been the death of so many bold spirits. Sven Hedin is one of the most interesting men in Europe. He was born in Stockholm in 1865, and at 23 he had already been honored with doctorates of philosophy from the Universities of Upsala in Sweden, Halle in Germany and Oxford in England. These were only the beginning of a long line of honors from every country in Europe. Russia, the land most benefitted by Dr. Hedin's discoveries in the Orient, tendered him extraordinary honors. Dr. Hedin's career as an explorer began in 1885. In 1893 he made his second journey to the remote east, and was unheard of for four years. Then he turned up in Pekin. On his return to Sweden King Oscar appeared in public arm in arm with the remarkable young man. Dr. Hedin is of a retiring disposition and hates all kinds of ostentation in his honor. The results of his present journey, in which he was financially backed by King Oscar, will be read with interest.

Received as a Private Individual.

One of the authors of "The Czar and His People" gives the following instance of Tolstoi's independence of thought and action.

General Loris Melikoff had been given such unbounded power to act against the Nihilists that, as he said, he was virtually created vice-Emperor. He discovered in the course of his official investigations that one of the leading Nihilist chiefs was in the habit of visiting Tolstoi, and one day Melikoff himself went out to the novelist's country house. Before the visitor had announced himself Tolstoi recognized him and said:

"You are Loris Melikoff. Do you come to see me officially or as a private man? If you come officially here are my keys. Search, open everything. You are free to do so."

"I do not come officially," replied Melikoff.

"Very good," answered Tolstoi, and calling two stalwart servants, he said to them, "Throw this man out of the house!"

The order was obeyed to the letter, and Melikoff dared not seek redress.

THE TORONTO FORMATION.

Prof. Coleman's Interesting Review of the Basic Condition of the Queen City and Its Neighborhood.

In his recent lecture before the Canadian Institute Prof. A. P. Coleman spoke as below on "The Interglacial Period in Toronto:"

The series of deposits composing the Toronto formation are of four varieties—the sands and clays of the Don, with their warm climate trees and Mississippi unios; the peaty clays of Scarboro', with their seventy extinct beetles and their small flora, suggesting a cool, but not arctic climate; the stratified sands overlying them, probably forming a continuation of the cool climate period; and the western sands and gravels, with elephants, bisons and some shellfish, affording little evidence as to climate.

At its highest point the great interglacial lake must have stood more than 150 feet above Ontario, since the upper beds of the cold climate deposits reach 152 feet. Then came a fall, and, with the lowering of the lake, the channels of the rivers must have been re-arranged, for the old bay was now largely filled with clay and sand; and in the Scarboro' section there is evidence of the cutting of three valleys through the stratified sand and peaty clay. The one to the east, where the River Rouge and Highland Creek now flow, was cut down below the present level of Lake Ontario for about five miles.

Toward the west of the Scarboro' exposure the stratified sand gradually thins and disappears beneath the boulder clay, and the same is afterwards true of the peaty clay, which sinks below the lake at Victoria Park at the east of Toronto. Here probably another wide valley was cut, though its western shore is not seen distinctly. The upper stretch of the Don Valley, which turns to the east after emptying into Toronto Bay, discloses only till and the overlying unfossiliferous beds in its ravines, though peaty clay rises to 152 feet near Mount Pleasant cemetery toward the west, and to nearly 100 feet at Price's brickyard to the southeast, suggesting an old river valley between, perhaps of an interglacial Don.

As no inter-glacial deposits have been found clearly belonging to this later low water stage, there is no evidence as to the climate during the latter part of the inter-glacial time; but we may suppose that it grew colder until the region was once more covered with an ice sheet, probably corresponding to the Wisconsin till of the States to the southwest.

One who studies the complex set of glacial and inter-glacial beds of the Toronto region is strongly impressed with the length of time demanded for their production. When the Toronto beds began to be formed the water level in the Ontario valley was probably lower than now in Lake Ontario, and some erosion had already taken place in the Don Valley and at other points. There had been time for the warm climate plants to return from exile in full force and for forest trees of a most varied kind, though mainly deciduous, to grow and fall on the banks of the rivers.

The unios, too, had already migrated north from the Mississippi stronger, in species than they are now. All this may imply as long a time after the Iowan ice sheet withdrew as has elapsed since the last ice sheet departed before the lowest beds of the Toronto formation were even begun.

Then came the raising of the rocky barrier at the eastern end of the Ontario basin to sixty feet above the present level, and a halt at that level while the upper sands became browned and cemented with limonite. The climate grew colder and then ninety-four feet of clay and fifty-five feet of stratified sand were laid down at Scarboro, the eastern barrier rising meantime to 152 feet above the present level.

Then there was a halt at the elevation toward the northeast and at length a reversal of the motion, the northeastern end of the basin being depressed until the great Scarboro lake was drained to a level probably much lower than that of Ontario.

The damming of the inter-glacial waters is held to be due to epeirogenic changes and not to the presence of ice, since it is inconceivable that an ice dam should hold its place at the Thousand Islands during the ages of mild climate required for the growth of the luxuriant Don forests, largely composed of trees that now barely reach the southern edge of Canada.

It is not fair to assume that the time after the Iowan ice retreated until the commencement of the Toronto formation was as long as from the retreat of the Wisconsin ice to the present, a time variously estimated at from 7,000 to 30,000 years. The raising of the northeastern barrier of the Scarboro lake to a height at least 150 feet above that of Lake Ontario may also have required thousands of years. These two stages cover only the first half of the inter-glacial time, and probably an equal number of thousands of years were required for the depression of the outlet below that of Lake Ontario and the cutting of wide and deep valleys through the Toronto formation.

To arrive at the total length of the inter-glacial period it is not extravagant to double or even triple the number of years since the last ice age, giving estimates of from 14,000 to 60,000 years or more. It will, of course, be understood that the length of time Niagara began to cut its gorge can be estimated only vaguely and that the guess at the length of the inter-glacial period given here is still less certain.

How long a time the later series of bowlder clays and inter-stratified materials, more than 200 feet thick at Scarboro, required in their formation one can hardly even guess, but one of the glacial retreats amounted probably to more than fifty miles and may alone have demanded centuries of recession and advance.

BLIND AND IN WANT

LAST DAYS OF JULES VERNE MOVE HIS FRIENDS TO TEARS.

Famous French Author, "He of the Great Imagination," as the French Call Him, and Once the Pet of Society, Reduced to Abject Poverty—Some of His Greatest Stories.

Jules Verne, "he of the great imagination," as the French call him, the writer of 80 fabulously successful novels, lies dying at his home in Amiens, old, blind and penniless. His son is now in England with the hope of getting some of his father's admirers to place their names on a subscription list that the dying man may lack neither doctors nor medicine while he yet lives, nor a decent burial when he dies.

The world's farewell to the novelist must be to him a bitter contrast to its welcome and to the hospitality he enjoyed during his stay. From every point of view his life has been successful. He had fame in every civilized country, money in consequence thereof, the friendship of the great among his countrymen, health and the love of a devoted wife. Today the last alone remains to him. His fame diminished as his writing waned. He had spent his money and the faculty of making more departed with old age. His friends are dead and he has become blind.

Verne's books were a new sort, different in kind from any that had been published in France. The love motif was entirely absent. His heroes were adventurers, travelers, who nevertheless, in contradistinction to the conventional daredevil, spent none of their time in either getting beautiful maidens into distress by breaking their hearts, or in getting them out of it by breaking their maligners' heads. The Verne adventurers fight and beat other men or more frequently nature. The laws of time and gravity are their pet antipathies. The tales were all pseudo-scientific. Their author succeeded in accomplishing the previously impossible, for he made the marriage between science and fiction, two creatures of an incompatible temperament, happy. At least so far as the lay world could judge.

M. JULES VERNE.
Famous French Writer, Author of More Than Eighty Stories.

But he himself was not made happy by his work. In his later days he has been frequently melancholy, because, as he continually said, he thought he had accomplished nothing worthy in literature. A favorite remark of his has been: "Je ne compte pas dans la litterature Francais." "I amount to nothing in French literature."

George Sand, the great woman novelist, admired his tales. After reading several stories which he wrote about balloons and flying machines, she asked him to take another tack. One of his greatest novels, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," followed. Then one of Cook's tourist time tables gave him the idea of "Around the World in Eighty Days," which is the best known of his writings. Even to-day, when by means of the transcontinental railroads a traveler manages to make a circle around the earth in less than 80 days, he is wont to boast of having defeated the resourceful Phineas Fogg.

Verne was not a traveler. He never tried to visit any of the places he wrote about. The majority of the sites he writes about are inaccessible to members of this age and generation, anyhow, and maybe their describer thought it was not worth while to go to the rest. He always said his hardest work came when he had to read up about the places he had not seen but would describe.

He worked hard, a fact shown by his output—80 imaginative novels in less than 40 years. Arising at 4.30 in the morning, he worked till 11 before eating; then came breakfast, and in the afternoon four or five hours more of work.

When the first draft of a book was done he corrected and recorrected until he had gone through the proof sheets seven or eight times. His publishers say that his last correction looks entirely unlike the first draft; that the outlines of the plot and even the names of the characters are changed.

Verne began to write at the age of 12. "Poetry, it was then, and dreadful, too," he says himself. When graduated from college he went on the Paris bourse and in a few months' speculation lost considerable money. He was always glad of it, however, because he claimed he was thus enabled to see at close range that nervous energy and lightning-like thinking which makes his heroes interesting.

Li Hung Chang's Widow.

Li Hung Chang shared his great wealth very generously with his wife. Princess Li, who has the deformed feet of all Chinese ladies, and who cannot therefore make any attempt at walking, has nevertheless over 100 pairs of expensive shoes. Her silk dresses recently numbered 1,000 and her fur wraps over 500. When she went abroad Princess Li was carried in a most magnificent chair of state, for she cared much more for display than her husband.

A Cheap Hack.

A STORY OF LINCOLN.

The Letter That Was Stolen and the Rascal Who Stole It.

Benajah G. Jayne during most of the civil war was the personal assistant of Edwin M. Stanton, the famous war secretary. One day Lincoln sent for Jayne to come to the White House. "My boy," said he, "there is a letter I would like to have you look at."

Jayne picked up the letter and found it was from General Dix. It conveyed the information that several Federal prisoners had escaped from Libby prison with the aid of Abbie Green, a woman famous during the war. The letter also said that, as the fact of Abbie's assistance was well known, she had been obliged to flee from Richmond and even then was on her way to Washington on the flag of truce boat.

"Now, my boy," said the president, "I don't know what I should say to any rascal who would steal that letter and have a bill passed through congress to grant $10,000 to the relief of Abbie Green." Mr. Jayne "stole the letter," and the next day both branches of congress passed the bill to grant $10,000 to Abbie Green. The following morning "Honest Abe" sent for Jayne again.

"I told you I didn't know what I should say," he said, with a twinkle in his eye, "to the rascal who would steal that letter and have congress act on it. Now, I've made up my mind what to say. You go down to No. — — street, get Abbie Green, take her down to Chase at the treasury, and don't you let her go until she gets that money."

FROM OLD QUEBEC.

The Historic Capital Furnishes a Story of Interest to Many.

The newspapers in and around the city of Quebec are just now relating the story of a well known French-Canadian gentleman who for years has been a martyr to Dyspepsia.

The sufferings Mons. Bouchard endured have been beyond the power of tongue or pen to describe. His pains were very severe, so much so, that for two years he had but little pleasure in life. Dyspepsia wrought its worst punishment in him and nothing he could get seemed able in any way to alleviate his distress.

At last, however, he has found a cure. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have met and conquered his Dyspepsia, have relieved him of all his pain and distress, and have made an all-round well man of him. He is very grateful and is full of praise for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, which he says, "have made a new man of me."

This story should be of greatest interest to thousands who are now suffering just as Mons. Bouchard did before he used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. If this remedy can and does cure such acute and advanced cases it surely will cure any case of stomach trouble.

It is but reasonable to at least give a trial to a medicine that has proven itself to be effectual in so very many cases. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are no experiment but a tried and proven remedy for Indigestion, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Bloating, Palpitation of the Heart, or any of the many symptoms of deranged or impaired digestive machinery.

Mons. Bouchard's address is 300 St. Valier, Quebec.

Swallowing Salt Water.

One of the most beneficial features of a sea bath is the salt water inadvertently swallowed by bathers. It is a wonderful tonic for the liver, stomach and kidneys. In many cases it will cure biliousness when all drug preparations have failed. It is peculiarly effective in ordinary cases of indigestion, disordered stomach and insomnia and has been known to produce excellent results in many cases of dyspepsia.

Clean sea water is full of tonic and sedative properties. It won't hurt anybody. Indeed two or three big swallows of it would be of positive benefit to nine bathers out of ten. It is not, of course, a palatable or tempting dose to take, but neither is quinine or calomel. You seldom if ever see an old sailor who is bilious or dyspeptic or a victim to insomnia, and why? For the reason that an ocean of good medicine spreads all about his sky, and he doses himself copiously with it whenever his physical mechanism becomes the least bit deranged.

Cruelty to Lobsters.

It is singular how the cruel practice of boiling lobsters alive continues. Our forefathers—and indeed our parents—let calves bleed slowly to death, on the theory that in no other way could white meat be secured, and later on calves were bled one day and killed the next. Now, every one knows that a calf can be killed in a humane manner and the veal made just as good, and, generally speaking, animals killed for food have been put out of the way in a much more humane manner than formerly. But lobsters are still tortured out of existence, the only difference being that, while formerly they were exclusively boiled to death, now some are boiled and some are broiled. Which process causes the most agony no one can say.—Exchange.

She need not lack these if she will only use Ferrozone. It makes blood, gives appetite, gives strength to the nerves, colour to the cheeks and brightness to the eyes. Monotonous Tones.

If voices were cultivated toward expression in speaking as well as in singing, the variety of tone would be very agreeable to the listener. Many people find the monotonous tone used in everyday conversation very irritating and would hail with delight any method which would tend toward breaking this tiresome sameness. Even beauty of tone does not save this monotony from condemnation. It is like striking one key of a musical instrument over and over again. The teaching of elocution should be of aid in this direction or the practice of reading aloud, striving to give proper expression to each sentence.

LEGAL BOOKS BY THE YARD

Contents Are Waste Paper, but the Bindings Impress Clients.

"Legal fillings at all prices, in sheepskin or calf." That is an advertisement that you may occasionally see in the catalogue of dealers in legal books.

The term "legal fillings," says a writer in Stray Stories, is applied to well bound volumes that contain nothing but an odd assortment of worthless price lists, old reports and sometimes cut newspaper pages. The covers are handsome, but the pages are merely so much waste paper.

The volumes are sold to young solicitors who wish to impress their clients by a formidable looking library, and, as they have a studied legal appearance, they have their effect upon the visitor.

A cheaper line of these "books," made of blocks of wood covered with cloth or calf, handsomely tooled and bearing a title in gold, can be bought at prices varying from $2.50 to $4 per dozen.

One secondhand bookseller in London has made a small fortune by having old books of all kinds that might be worth about a penny or twopence apiece rebound in handsome style. He has a title printed in gold on the back, indicating that the book is some learned work upon medicine or chemistry. These he sells to young doctors at about 20 cents each, which leaves him a good profit.

The books make a good show in the consulting room and help to give the impression that the young medico is a deeply read man.

Three Curious Bells.

There is a curious legend connected with the bells of Messingham church. It is said that a long, long time ago a traveler was passing through Messingham when he noticed three men sitting on a stile in the churchyard and saying, "Come to church, Thompson; come to church, Brown," and so on. Being very much surprised, he asked what it meant and was told that, having no bells, they called folks to church in this way. The traveler remarked that it was a pity so fine a church should be without bells and at the same time asked the men if they could make three for the church, promising to pay for them himself.

They undertook to do this. They were respectively a tinker, a carpenter and a shoemaker. When next the traveler passed that way, he found the three men ringing three bells which said, "Ting, tong, pluff," being made respectively of tin, wood and leather!—London Tit-Bits.

What's the Matter?

"Don't know what's the matter, but losing flesh," is often reported of persons with weak digestion of diseased nerves, or of over-worked people. Scott's Emulsion is a wonderful maker of new flesh and blood.

There Are Two Kinds of Mustard.

There are two varieties of mustard—black and white. Black mustard is the most valuable for commercial purposes. Its seeds are very minute, weighing not more than one-fiftieth of a grain each. Its pungent taste is caused by an essential oil. This oil can, like fruit flavors, be exactly imitated by the chemists. Both as a table condiment and as a medicine mustard has been known from a very remote period.

As now found in our grocery stores this spice consists of white and black mustard seeds, mixed and ground fine. The white mustard keeps better than the black variety and is not so bitter. A good deal of the mustard sold is adulterated, sometimes with wheat flour, but more often with tumeric, the pulverized root of a common East Indian plant.

Both Caught.

There are two Portland women who have lost faith each in the other. They were attending the meeting of the literary union and on emerging from the hall found a sharp shower in progress. Each announced to the other that she must telephone for a carriage, and they departed into different stores, ostensibly for that purpose. When, ten minutes later, the women met in a Spring street trolley car, allusion was made the carriage.

YET ANOTHER PRESENTATION

The Separate School Boys Express Their Regret

At His Departure From Town—The Archdeacon's Feeling Remarks in Reply.

Yesterday afternoon the boys of St. Peter's Separate School presented the Venerable Archdeacon Casey with a handsome valise, accompanied by the following address:—

Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral,—

Rev. and Dear Sir,—It is with sincere regret that the boys of St. Peter's Separate School assemble here to-day to say farewell on the eve of your departure from amongst us. In bidding you adieu we are reminded that we owe you a debt of gratitude which we can never repay. On all occasions you have been most anxious concerning our welfare, and notwithstanding your many duties you have devoted much of your valuable time to the work of instructing us carefully and thoroughly in the very important subject of Christian Doctrine. You have also earnestly encouraged and exhorted us to the faithful practice of our religious duties. As superintendent of our school you have given many practical proofs of your great interest in us, and your kindly and sympathetic words have always stimulated us in the pursuit of our studies.

We assure you that the impress of your noble work shall remain indelibly graven in our minds and hearts, and that your name shall ever be retained as a link in the golden chain of our memory.

As a slight token of our gratitude and love we ask you to accept the accompanying gift with our prayers that you may long enjoy happiness and good health to exercise your sacred ministry in the new sphere to which you have been called.

Signed on behalf of the pupils,
F. L. Giroux, T. Riley, J. Eano, F. E. Jones, F. Lynch.

The Venerable Archdeacon made a touching reply. He thanked the boys for their evidence of good will towards him and said that he always had a special fondness for children. He thought they had every opportunity of securing a good education of which they should be careful to take every advantage, but they should also aim at developing into manly and upright citizens. To say the parting word was hard, but he was consoled by knowing that he would have frequent opportunities of meeting them in the future. He would always have a lively interest in their welfare. "To render the parting sweeter," as the Venerable Archdeacon said, "he did not forget to bring a well-filled bag of candies for the children."

Rev. Father O'Brien also made a few well-chosen remarks. He was pleased to be present on such an occasion to honour the good priest, who for the past eight years had done so much for them. He was sure that Archdeacon Casey would feel amply rewarded if they remained true to the teaching which he had instilled into their young hearts.

A musical selection closed the proceedings, Miss McCabe, music teacher of the school, presiding at the organ.

TOWN COUNCIL MET LAST NIGHT.

The Waterworks Bylaw Received its Third Reading and was Passed.

E. H. D. HALL'S APPOINTMENT.

He is the Town's New Solicitor—Trouble in Store for Tourist Peddlers.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held last evening, with Mayor Denne presiding, and the following members in attendance: Ald. Best, Batten, Clinkscale, Morrison, Turner, McGregor, Rush, Shortly and Edgcumbe.

COMMUNICATIONS

were received and dealt with as follows:

From D. McCabe, asking for a renewal of his bowling alley license on the same terms as last year.—Referred to the License Committee.

From R. Mathison, Supt. of the Ontario Deaf and Dumb Inst., Belleville, re the application of Norman Kirk for admission, and agreeing to give the boy a trial under a certain bylaw of the institution. On motion of Ald. Batten and Clinkscale, the treasurer was authorized to issue a cheque for the railway expenses, etc., incurred in sending the boy to Belleville.

From William Taylor, asking for a refund of $20 on his peddler's license. Referred to the License Committee.

An account of J. E. A. Fitzgerald of $7 was referred to the Finance Committee.

Ald. McGregor inquired as to the dissatisfaction of certain teamsters who stated that they were unable to obtain work drawing stone.

Ald. Best stated that as far as he knew every teamster who applied for work was able to get it. He had heard no complaint.

Ald. Best introduced the bylaw authorizing the purchase of the waterworks, and the issue of debentures for $230,000 in payment therefor. It received its third reading and was passed being, as the Mayor remarked, the largest issue of debentures ever undertaken by the town.

Ald. Rush and Shortly moved that the Finance Committee be authorized to have the waterworks debentures printed and ready to sell, and to advertise for offers, in such manner as they deem best, and also to borrow a sum of money sufficient to pay the purchase price of the waterworks namely, $230,000, temporarily, until the debentures are sold, and to pay for the said works on or before Jan. 31st, 1902, in accordance with the agreement made between the corporation of the town of Peterborough and the Peterborough Water Co., and that the Mayor see that immediate steps are taken to have the Waterworks Commissioners elected.—Carried.

Ald. McGregor moved that Mr. E. H. D. Hall be appointed town solicitor for the present year.

The Mayor pointed out that before such a motion could take effect the services of the present solicitor would have to be dispensed with.

Ald. McGregor and Turner then moved, "That the services of E. B. Edwards as Town Solicitor, be dispensed with."

The motion was carried.

Mayor Denne stated that when in Toronto on Tuesday Mr. Edwards had gone to the Ontario Government buildings, and interfered in the negotiations now under way between the Government and the town in connection with the granting of a patent to the town of the water front. The patent had not been issued as there was a hitch between the Dominion and Ontario Governments in connection with some small matters concerning the patent, but he stated that the patent would be issued in due course.

Ald. Best said that Mr. Edwards had gone to Mr. Aubrey White with no authority from the council, and had caused a delay in the carrying out of the agreement.

In reply to a question from Ald. Morrison, the Mayor stated that the money had already been paid for the waterfront by the town, and that there was a memo. as to the agreement between the Government and the town.

Ald. Edgcumbe—"I think it is a little unfair to dismiss the Solicitor without giving him a chance to explain his conduct."

The Mayor—"I have talked with him about it. I don't like any man to over-ride me and the whole council. Mr. Edwards had no authority whatever to interfere in the matter. He stepped in between me and the Deputy Commissioner of Crown lands and made trouble for the town. He knew nothing of the proceedings which have already taken place. I have been to Toronto in connection with this affair time and again, and the Town Clerk has been up with me three times. Mr. White has also been here talking the matter over. The least Mr. Edwards could have done was to have spoken to me or some of the chairmen of committees."

Moved by Ald. McGregor and Best, "That Mr. E. H. D. Hall be appointed Town Solicitor at the usual salary."—Carried.

The matter was then brought up concerning the alleged custom of the hackmen of driving diphtheria patients to the hospital and afterwards taking passengers to and from the stations, etc., thus causing the disease to spread.

Mayor Denne advised that any case of this nature coming to the notice of the Aldermen should be reported to the Medical Health Officer.

Alderman Morrison stated that another question which needed investigation was the matter of so many fakirs from outside points canvassing the town for business. During the week he had been solicited to buy pictures, picture frames, books, tea, etc., by men who paid not a cent of taxes, and who hurt the business of the local merchants. He would like to see a good stiff license imposed on peddlers, with a rebate to local men.

The Mayor said that he would be only too glad to take any steps which would tend to protect the merchants.

On motion of Ald. Morrison and Clinkscale, the matter was referred to the License Committee.

The council then adjourned.

THE TOWN SOLICITORSHIP.

A matter of considerable surprise was sprung on the Council last night, when the resolution was introduced dismissing Mr. E. B. Edwards, K.C., from the office of Town Solicitor. Mr. Edwards has been the Town's legal adviser for a matter of some twenty odd years, and in that period his services were surely of worth or he would never have been retained. This being the case it appears to the Examiner, without discussing the matter at length, that as Ald. Edgcumbe said, "It is a little unfair to dismiss the solicitor without giving him a chance to explain his conduct."

W. J. ENGLISH'S TROUBLE.

He Says he can Easily Arrange the Matter of His Worthless Cheques.

Special to the Examiner.

Toronto, Jan. 17th.—When Walter J. English, a young Peterborough man, was charged at the Police court this morning with passing a check on A. Clubb & Sons, when he had no funds in the bank, he pleaded guilty but said he could explain the matter.

His checks had been honoured in the past by the Canoe Company in Peterborough, which had an account in the bank there.

The Magistrate said the plea was really one of not guilty, and remanded English till Monday.

English said that if he could get out to see Hon. Geo. A. Cox or Hon. J. R. Stratton he could arrange the matter in a few minutes. The Magistrate fixed bail at $500.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

HOCKEY.

The intermediates and colts will have a practice game to-night. The following intermediates will please be on hand as early as possible, as well as the colts team; Armstrong, Comstock, Glover, Wasson, Parnell, Graham, Morgan, Whitcroft.

The probable line up of the Intermediate forward line for the game with Lindsay, will be:

The Lindsay club has not been as prompt as it should be regarding the settling of the date for their match with Peterborough. Even at this late date it is not definitely settled on which night the game will be played. It will be on either Monday or Tuesday and most likely the latter date. The unfairness of Lindsay in acting in such a manner is quite apparent, as Peterborough will have little or no opportunity to advertise the game. The locals have been practising very hard of late and will give a good account of themselves.

The Port Hope team will play here on Friday night of next week.

At a meeting of the O.H.A. Executive last night matters of local interest were taken up.

Peterborough Juniors in their first match with Belleville, had a player who was over age. The Executive was so informed voluntarily by the Peterborough Club. It was also reported that Belleville did likewise in the return game. If this is found to be the case both games will be cancelled, otherwise only the first will be declared void and will be replayed at Peterborough, the home team paying Belleville's hotel expenses in addition to mileage.

The last business of the meeting was to pass a resolution expressing strong disapproval of the practice of playing regular and recognized seniors in intermediate games as a violation of the spirit of the rules.

The sporting editor of the Lindsay Post has rather a peculiar way of writing up hockey matches. He referrs to Lindsay's win over Peterborough by one goal as a "Waterloo for Peterborough," and yet when Lindsay is defeated by the same number of goals by Port Hope, it is a case of Lindsay putting up a "star" game to hold the score so close. The Post then goes on to say; "It was shard fought battle all through, but Port Hope had the advantage because they knew every inch of the Cobourg rink, as all their games are played in that town. Therefore it is very gratifying to Lindsay citizens that our team made such a creditable showing on strange ice." As a matter of fact this is Port Hope's first game this year on Cobourg ice, and just what the Post's sporting editor hopes to gain by talking in this fashion is hard to say. It is nothing but just and right that a home team should be given all the encouragement possible, but what good can it do to make such a discrimination between "Waterloos" and "star games," and talking such rot about Cobourg ice being an advantage to Port Hope when the Ontarios have not played on it any oftener than Lindsay this year.

CURLIANA.

M Comstock,	W Pringle,
J D Collins,	O Labelle,
M Green,	R Kerr,
R J Frost, sk...17	J Jeffries, sk...8

To-night's schedule games will be postponed in order to allow the Tankard rinks to have practice matches.

Wm. Badge's Trouble.

Wm. Badge and Geo. Moncrief are having some trouble. The former is the proprietor of a second hand store on Simcoe street, and he claims that Moncrief, who worked for him, has appropriated certain moneys. Moncrief says that a partnership existed, and does exist, between them. In support of his statement he produces a license, which is taken out in the names of Badge and Moncrief. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and elected to be tried by jury. He was remanded until Monday.

THE POWER QUESTION.

A meeting of those interested in the power on the Otonabee between Peterborough and Lakefield will be held to-morrow morning, at 10.30, in the Town Clerk's office in order to take action regarding the regulating of the flow of the stream.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Charlotte street Methodist Sunday School was held last night, at which reports of a very encouraging nature were received, and the officers of last year were re-elected. A full report will appear to-morrow.

MURRAY STREET ANNUAL MEETING.

The Yearly Reports Were Submitted Last Night.

THE DEBT IS ONLY $2,500.

Subscriptions Came in Readily to Defray the Cost of the New Improvements.

There was quite a large attendance at the annual congregational meeting of the Murray street Baptist church last evening, when very comprehensive and encouraging reports were submitted concerning the progress in the different branches of church work.

The total cost of the improvements undertaken during the summer, amounted to $4,611.16, which sum includes the cost of the new organ. Contributions by subscription towards clearing off this indebtedness already amount to $2,147.50. The total debt of the church has been reduced to about $2,500, truly a most satisfactory state of affairs.

The chair last evening was occupied by the pastor, Rev. Jonathan Bastow.

After the reading of the minutes of the third quarterly business and intervening meetings, the reception of reports was then taken up.

CLERK'S REPORT.

Mr. A. Martin, church clerk, read his annual report as appended:

During the year ending Dec. 31st, 1901, there were received into membership of this church—By baptism, 2; by letter, 8; on experience, 1; a total of 11, as against 27 the year previous.

There were dismissed—By letter, 16; by withdrawals, 11; by deaths, 1; a total of 27; as against 12 the previous year, leaving a total decrease of 16.

During the year the membership roll was carefully revised, hence the large decrease by withdrawals.

Our total membership on Jan. 1st, 1901, was 262, and on Dec 31st, 236

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. W. Aldridge, chairman of the Finance Committee, read his annual report as follows:

Your Finance Committee begs to report for the year ending December 31st, 1901, as follows:

Our total receipts for the year were $3673.53, as against $3355.73 the previous year, a gain of $317.80. Our expenditure was $2768.52, as against $2444.79 the previous year, an increase of $323.73. This increased expenditure is accounted for by our increased giving to Missions and to expense of furnishing front and rear additions. We are pleased to be able to state that the amount contributed to Missions last year by this church exceeds that of year previous by 29 1-2 per cent., or $166.36, the total being $780.-14. This is by far the largest amount in any one year for these objects in the history of this church. This does not include amounts contributed for other denominational objects.

Our collection by Mission envelopes was $290.55, for 1900 the collection was $215.32, being an increase of $75.23, this was divided among the four great Missions in the same manner as last year.

The arrearages amount to $30.00. This is larger than last year so we would impress upon the members, especially those contributing quarterly, the necessity of paying the amount due the last Sunday of each quarter.

Our receipts were obtained as follows:—Open collections, $321.77; Envelopes, $1,467.90; Mission Envelopes, $290.55; Special Offerings, $502.31.

With our increased accommodation and facilities for work, our expenses must of necessity increase also, especially our fuel and light accounts, and we would respectfully ask that each member be as liberal as possible, and that those who can afford to increase their subscriptions will do so voluntarily.

The usual canvass of the church members, will be made in the near future.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. ALDRIDGE,
Chairman.

Peterborough, Jan. 16th, 1902.

The report was adopted.

TRUSTEES' REPORT.

Mr. Geo. S. Matthews, chairman, read the annual report of the Trustees, as appended:

Your Trustees beg to report for the year ending December 31st, 1901, as follows:

At the last annual meeting of the church it was decided to make some improvements to our church and Sunday School building, by providing a better entrance to both floors from the front, to replace the small vestry in rear of the church by building sufficiently large to provide the much needed class room accommodation for the Sunday School, room for a pipe organ and pastor's study, and to improve the church grounds.

Acting on your instructions we immediately set to work, and by the time the frost was out of the ground we had our plans completed, the contract let for the organ, and had commenced operations on the rear end addition to the church.

We expected to have had the building and organ completed in June, but were advised by the organ manufacturers strongly against putting the instrument in before the buildings were thoroughly dry, so the organ was held back until the middle of August, when it was sent forward and erected.

On Sunday, September 15th, the church was formally re-opened, and on the Monday evening following our organ inspected and formally opened by Prof. A. S. Vogt, organist of the Jarvis street Baptist church, Toronto. Prof. Vogt in making his report on the organ spoke very highly of it, and stated that some of the softer stops were exceedingly fine in tone quality, one in particular, the Viol de Gamba, being the finest he had ever heard, not even excepting his own organ in Jarvis street Baptist church. We value the high opinion of Prof. Vogt, as the opinion of one of the very best authorities on organs that we have in Canada, and it is gratifying to know on such high authority that we have received good value for the money expended.

In addition to the organ loft, the new vestry contains upstairs, a room for our pastor, and three other rooms that are available as class rooms for the Sunday School; while down stairs we have two good class rooms and a furnace room. The arrangements in this building are, so far as we know, quite satisfactory.

The new entrance to the church and school room we consider a great improvement to the appearance of our church from the outside, while inside the stairways leading to the church being wide, properly covered with matting, and in doors, and the entrance to the school being practically on the level, make the conveniences and comforts of this building particularly noticable.

In the Sunday School room we made a few improvements. Changing the stairway at the entrance, moving the library doors and putting in new doors at south end of main room, necessitated retinting ceiling and walls, and painting all new or damaged wood work. This work was also done in the Library where another door was put in, giving access to store room under main stairway, and in the infant class room where a separate entrance was made for the little ones, so that they might come or leave without disturbing the scholars in the main room.

In the Church we raised the floor at the rear end some 14 inches, carrying the incline forward about half way to the front. The organ console we had placed in front of the platform, and moved the choir from the south-west corner to the centre of the church, immediately in front of the pulpit platform, placing seats in the south-west corner to correspond with the other side of the church. These changes we believe have made a decided improvement to the interior of our church in every respect.

The grounds surrounding the church have also received attention. That portion to the east and in front of the church has been properly terraced and seeded down or sodded. A lawn hydrant has been placed in position so that the grass may be kept properly watered, thereby adding to the appearance of the property. The wooden walks both to the front and side entrances have been replaced with granolithic.

These improvements have cost a large sum of money, but your trustees have endeavoured to do the work in such a thorough manner that it will not have to be done over again. We have done our best to keep down the expenses, but we have not sacrificed the quality of material or workmanship for the sake of saving on the first cost, when in our opinion it would not be wise to do so.

The actual cost of these improvements to the church is as follows:

Contract price of organ	$1800 00
Lowering console, $125.00, of which the church only paid	57 35
Front and rear additions, sewers, walks and grounds, $1,204.77, less rebate of deposit for sewer, $20.00; sale of stone $3.00; sale of gravel $41.25	1340 52
Accounts outstanding	913 39
Total	$4011 16

Your treasurer's statement of the building and improvement account shows that we still owe a total of $2,539.07, and in view of this large debt we thought it would be better not to add to the amount by painting the outside of the church, i.e., the brickwork, or change the glass in the windows until this amount is reduced. We hope however that the time is not far distant when we shall be able to make these improvements also.

In December last a deputation from the Sunday School waited on the trustees, and requested us to urge the church to assume the financial support of the school, thereby permitting the school to devote all their collections to Missions. After carefully considering the matter we concluded that we could not recommend such a course at the present time, as our financial position would not warrant this extra call. We however recognize the importance of the Sunday School, and would recommend that if the school needs financial assistance to enable it to do better work, that the church authorize us to give such assistance as the trustees may deem proper.

Your trustees would like to see some nice vines planted around the church, and instead of purchasing these with church funds would suggest that our members contribute these in time to plant this spring. We would recommend the Boston Ivy as the most suitable vine.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. S. MATTHEWS,
Chairman.

Peterborough, Jan. 16th, 1902.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Geo. S. Matthews also read a report of the committee who canvassed the members for subscriptions to the improvement and Organ Fund, which showed that $2,869 had been subscribed. A number of voluntary subscriptions were also received from persons who were not members of the congregation.

B. Y. P. U. REPORT.

Mr. Percy Blade, on behalf of Miss Mary Garbutt, secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union, read an encouraging report of the work during the past year.

Miss Bella Mann, treasurer of the B.Y.P.U. read the financial statement which showed that the total receipts were $51.98, and the disbursements $45.11, leaving a balance of $6.87.

WOMEN'S MISSION CIRCLE.

Miss M Nicholls, secretary, read the annual report of the W. M. C. as follows:

In presenting this report we gratefully acknowledge God's hand in leading us through the year, a Circle, unbroken by death.

Eleven meetings have been held, with an average attendance of 24. Number of subscribers for the Link, 23; Visitor, 60; number of contributors to Foreign Missions, 47; Home Missions, 49.

Amount sent to Foreign Mission treasurer, $126.91; Home Missions, $87.60; Northwest Indians, $8.25; monthly collections, $6.05; total for the year, $228.81.

The funds of our Society have been raised by special subscriptions for special objects, thankofferings and membership fees. The monthly collection fund is used for general expenses. There was a balance of $6.47 on hand from last year, and $5.00 of this was voted to Home Missions. At the thankoffering service in November, Mrs. H. Matthews was presented with a life membership certificate for home missions by the Circle.

We have kept in touch with the work on our own mission fields through our denominational papers and delegates' reports of the annual gatherings of the Society. A visit from Miss Tapscott, Provincial Secretary for Mission Bands, brought us in closer touch with that branch of the work. In March, Mrs. Sharp gave an interesting account of the work on St. Peter's reserve.

Our Circle subscribes for the Missionary Review, from which is gathered general missionary news of all denominations in all lands. Doors are open, fields are white but labourers are few.

The Baby Sick?

Then probably it's a cold. Babies catch cold so easily and recover so slowly. Not slowly, however, when you use Vapo Cresolene. Then a single night is all that is necessary for a cure. You just put some Cresolene in the vaporizer, light the lamp beneath, and place near the crib. While baby sleeps he breathes in the healing vapor. Cold loosens, inflamed membranes heal, and all trouble ceases. It's a perfect specific for whooping-cough and croup. 8

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. CORONATION MODES.

MODELS OF COSTUMES ON EXHIBITION AT THE DUKE OF NORFOLK'S.

Some of the Styles of These Dresses Are Declared to Be Ugly and Unbecoming, and It Is Said That Through the Queen Peeresses Are Likely to Secure Changes in Some of Them.

All London is interested in the exhibition at the town house of the Duke of Norfolk of wax models showing the style of costumes prescribed for the lords and ladies who will attend the coronation of King Edward. Wax figures, splendidly got up and clothed in the garments which were fashionable in medieval times, are being shown in Norfolk House for the benefit of those modern nobles who have no notion of these antique trappings now revived for the coronation. These models show the crimson velvet and ermine of the baron, the velvet train of the baroness, and the other accoutrements and harness which have caused so much discussion and fretfulness among the limited number of persons who may have to wear them, and who have been puzzled by the vagueness of the official directions. The pictures presented above show the character of the models. They are reproduced from drawings made by an artist who visited Norfolk House for the purpose.

There is likely, even yet, however, to be considerable change in the dresses of peeresses for the coronation. It has been pointed out to the Queen how excessively ugly and unbecoming the costume selected is, and it is by Her Majesty's wish that the Duke of Norfolk has announced a change is likely to be made. Everybody is simply delighted, for never was there a more general consensus of opinion than that as to the hideousness of the velvet robes and kirtle.

The coming coronation means a great deal of work for the King, as well as the earl-marshal. His Majesty devotes a considerable portion of each day to consideration of questions in connection with the ceremony. There are a number of interesting "rights" still unsettled.

Lord Kingsdale and Lord Forrester both enjoy the favor of keeping their hats on in the presence of the King. This was a favor granted by King John to Lord Kingsdale and which was exercised by the twenty-third peer in the presence of King William III. His predecessor did the same in the presence of both King George II. and George IV., but the privilege was never exercised in the presence of Queen Victoria. Lord Forrester obtained the right from King Henry VIII.

Lord Inchequin has the privilege of using scarlet liveries, the same as worn by the royal servants, on account of the descent from the royal line of Thomond, princes of Ireland.

But of all the claims raised with regard to the coronation service the prettiest is undoubtedly that of Rear Admiral Fellowes, on behalf of his niece, Miss Beatrice Fellowes, to perform the office of herb-strewer. It is recorded that at the coronation of George VI. a Miss Fellowes exercised this office. Accompanied by six maids, bearing baskets of flowers and sweet herbs, she walked before the King in the procession to Westminster Abbey, strewing the way before him. There are many who are hoping this service will be allowed, as it would be such a picturesque addition.

The Prince of Wales will be one of the most picturesque figures in the whole coronation ceremony. He will wear his long velvet mantle, ornamented with ermine, spotted diamond fashion. The sleeves of the Prince's mantle will be widely doubled back in a fold below the elbow.

The coronet he will wear is of gold unjeweled. Maltese crosses and Gallic fleur de lis alternately surround the coronet, which is surmounted by an arch bearing the orb and cross. In the center are the Prince of Wales' three plumes, placed in an upright position, the form in which they have been arranged since 1878. Before that date they were worn drooping.

The subject of much talk is coronation flowers. Some persons are still declaring the lily of the valley is Queen Alexandra's favorite flower. As a matter of fact Her Majesty is devoted to all flowers. If she has any special preference it is for small pink carnations, which are generally to be seen in her apartments when they are in season.

An Appeal To Mothers

To Protect the Little Ones From Coughs and Colds That so Frequently Lead to Consumption in Later Years.

It is possible that you have been accustomed to consider that every advertisement is for the benefit of the advertiser only. In this you have been mistaken, as you will probably admit if you read about Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and have an opportunity of testing its value in your family.

Every mother is anxious to learn of effective means of combating the ills which cause her children to suffer. Many have learned how to conquer croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, sore throat, severe coughs and colds, by reading the advertisements of Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Some mothers have even taken the trouble to write letters thanking us for making known to the public the merits of this great cough and cold medicine. They realized that to them the advertising was news of great value.

It almost seems like wasting space to tell of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. So many know about it, have tested its virtues, and seek its healing power whenever in need of treatment for throat and lungs. But there are many rivals and many imitations. Hosts of druggists stand ready to offer a substitute if the buyer is not firm in his demands for the genuine and reliable Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

You cannot afford to let your cold run on and on, developing into chronic bronchitis, serious lung trouble or consumption. You cannot plead ignorance of effective treatment. Prudence suggests the wisdom of keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the house all the time to protect the children, and grown people as well, from the ills of cold weather. 25c a bottle. Family size 60 cents. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 8

Turning the Tables on the Church.

One of the earlier yeomen of a country that shall be nameless, at least until the hero of this story dies, was a pump-maker, a good citizen, but with "no religious preferences." One day he was waited upon by one of the church assessors, who handed him a bill for the support of preaching.

"I hain't heard no preaching," said the old man, somewhat surprised.

"Well, brother, it's your own fault, then," replied the churchman. "It's been accessible to all every Sabbath for a year."

The old gentleman acknowledged the corn and paid. Not long after this the parish received from him a bill for a pump.

"We have bought no pump of you," was the answer.

"Well, then," replied the old gentleman, with a twinkle in his eye, "it's your own fault, for I have been making them for years."

WINDT'S ROUTE.

A Quarter of His Tour Around the World Will Lie Over Canadian Soil—An Interesting Map.

The route which the explorer, Mr. Harry de Windt, will take in his tour around the world on behalf of The London Daily Express is flattering to the national pride of a Canadian. A full quarter of it will lie over Canadian soil, and Siberia alone will offer him a greater territorial resistance. The map is interesting at the present moment for another reason which makes it fit in, without too much straining, with the Marconi exploit. When the laying of an Atlantic cable was still a problem of the future, and especially after the first attempt had come to grief, the route of Mr. Harry de Windt is almost an exact reproduction of the line by which it was proposed to join the two hemispheres together by an overland telegraph. The successful laying of the cable has put this effectually out of mind, and now Marconi seems in a fair way of preparing a like oblivion for the cable in its turn.

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Usefulness.

It is a great satisfaction at the close of life to be able to look back on the years that are past and to feel that you have lived not for yourself alone, but that you have been useful to others. You may be assured also that the same feeling is a source of comfort and happiness at any period of life. Nothing in this world is so good as usefulness. It binds your fellow creatures to you and you to them; it tends to the improvement of your own character, and it gives you a real importance in society, much beyond what artificial station can bestow.

No one has Won the Money.

The $1000 reward offered by Merrill, the Brantford Druggist, for a better cure for habitual constipation than Merrill's System Tonic has not yet been won. Besides its wonderful tonic action on the liver and intestines it is a pleasant and powerful blood purifier, thus curing all nervous affections such as sleeplessness, loss of vigour and twitching of the nerves. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50c. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355.92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

SOME LEGAL FREAKS

CURIOUS TWISTS THAT OBTAIN IN ENGLISH CRIMINAL LAW.

A Person May Be Guilty of Perjury Though He Swears to the Truth—No Such Offense as Trespass—Points About Forgery.

In no branch of the law as it is dispensed in Great Britain are such curious points to be found or a greater number of anomalies to be met with than in the criminal branch thereof.

It may be news to some people, for instance, to know that there are a number of things in existence which cannot be stolen, such as a corpse, animals ferae naturae—i. e., animals wild in a state of nature (with certain exceptions created by statute)—soil of the earth, etc. To attempt to steal nothing would appear on the face of it to be an impossibility, much less a crime, but a man indicted for attempting to pick a lady's pocket which was subsequently found to be empty was found guilty of an "attempt to commit theft," though, in fact, there was nothing in the pocket to steal.

Any one lucky enough to pick up a sovereign lying in the road will be glad to hear that, if at the time of finding it he had no reasonable means of discovering the owner of it, and also if he did not at the same time conceive the idea of appropriating it to himself, he will not be guilty of stealing if he keeps his lucky find, even if the rightful owner discovers and claims it.

Most people walking in the country must have noticed on numerous occasions boards or placards posted up in woods, fields, etc., notifying in large letters that "trespassers will be prosecuted," but few are aware that such notices are utterly useless and no one need feel the least alarm thereat, there being no such offense known in criminal law as such a trespass, and a person could never be prosecuted for such an offense. They are, in fact, in the words of that eminent jurist, Sir Frederick Pollock, in his well known work, "Pollock on Torts," a "wooden falsehood."

It is a common fallacy to imagine that the crime of forgery consists in signing another's name, though in fact committing forgery consists in making and uttering any false instrument in writing with attempt to defraud; thus it may be a forgery to omit a word from a document, and it will be a matter of considerable surprise to many to learn that it is possible for a person to forge his or her own name. A person, however, who fraudulently inserts another's name on a picture, thereby selling it as the work of some other artist, is not guilty of forgery, as a picture is not an "instrument in writing."

The crime of perjury also does not quite "fit in" with the generally accepted idea, which is that if a person, after being sworn on oath to speak the truth, swears falsely, he is guilty of such offense. This is correct with the important qualification that the fact the witness has sworn to must be material to the case. Thus, if a witness on being duly sworn gave a false address on being asked where he lived, this, though untrue, would not amount to perjury, as the place where the witness lived would be quite immaterial.

That a person may be guilty of perjury though speaking the truth may seem a curious anomaly, but such nevertheless is the fact, as the test of perjury is not whether a person is speaking what he believes to be the truth; so, if a witness, for instance, on being asked, "What colored tie was the prisoner wearing when you met him?" replied "red," when in fact he did not really notice, he would be guilty of perjury, even though the prisoner was in reality wearing a red tie when the witness met him.

Numerous other instances of crimes which present similar curious points to the above might be given, and, in passing, persons taking out insurances against burglary might note that this crime can only be committed between the hours of 9 p. m. and 6 a. m.; that breaking into a house by means of an open door or window is not burglary, although entering a house by sliding down the chimney is.

We must not conclude this article without a short reference to a comparatively recent case in which a man not possessing the means to pay entered a restaurant, where he ordered and ate a good dinner. As, however, he was unable to pay for the same he was given in charge and subsequently indicted for "obtaining goods by false pretenses." The case resulted in the prisoner's acquittal on the ground that he had not been guilty of any false pretenses.

This individual therefore had a good meal on the cheap, but we should not advise any enterprising reader to emulate his example, as, although he could not indeed be prosecuted for obtaining goods by false pretenses, it seems that he will still be criminally liable under the bankruptcy act for obtaining credit by fraudulent means.—London Tit-Bits.

Averting a Panic.

On one occasion John Philip Sousa by his promptness was the direct means of stopping a panic which might have had the most disastrous results. While his band was playing before 12,000 people in St. Louis the electric lights in the hall went out suddenly. People began to move uneasily in their seats, and some even began to make a rush for the doors. Coolly tapping with his baton, Sousa gave a signal, and immediately his band began playing, "Oh, Dear, What Can the Matter Be?" A tiny ripple of laughter that went round the audience showed that confidence had partially been restored. When the band began to play "Wait Till the Clouds Roll By," the laughter deepened into a roar of merriment that only ended when the lights were turned on again.

WHAT MRS. HAYTER SUFFERED.

"I had been sick for more than a year with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Lucy Hayter, of Jacksboro, Jack Co., Texas. "Several different doctors treated me, but none did me any good. One doctor said that I never could be cured, that I had Bright's Disease. I suffered nearly death at times; had spells the doctors called spasms. Was bed-fast most of the time for six months. My mother begged me to try Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

WHAT DR. PIERCE SAID.

"With but little hope I wrote to Dr. Pierce, and he said 'he could cure me.' I began to take his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and although I had given up to die, I began to improve from the start, and by the time I had taken twenty-two bottles I was entirely cured. I weigh more than ever before in my life and am entirely well."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures through the stomach diseases of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., which have their origin in disease of the stomach and its associate organs.

Carpenters' Kidneys.

"I have had kidney and urinary troubles for more than three years with severe pain in the small of my back and in both sides. I could not sleep without difficulty, and I had severe neuralgic pain in both temples. Seeing the advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. They have given me quick relief, removing the pain from the back and sides, and banishing the neuralgic pains from my head. The urinary difficulty is now entirely gone, I feel fresh and vigorous in the morning, and am much stronger in every way since taking these pills." CLARENCE E. DIFFERENCES IN FOGS.

Sea Mist and London Gloom Have Nothing in Common.

The fog of London and the fog of the sea alike discompose traffic, and omnibuses and steamships alike have had to lay to for safety. But while the London fog gets into your inmost room and baffles even the electric light—though the candle comes out triumphant curiously—the densest fog at sea does not disturb the saloon or the stateroom. Why is that?

The word "fog" has not been traced further back than the sixteenth century, but the thing was known in the early years of the fourteenth. The commons, with the prelates and nobles visiting London for the parliaments and on other occasions, united to petition Edward I. to compel the burning only of dry wood and charcoal, as the growing use of sea coal corrupted the air with its stink and smoke, to the great prejudice and detriment of health. In 1306 the king prohibited the use of coal. Heavy ransom and fines were inflicted for disobedience. In the case of recalcitrant brewers, dyers and other artificers the furnaces and kilns were destroyed. But the restriction was evidently removed, for in 1308 $250—probably equal to about $4,000 now—was paid from the exchequer for wood and coal for the coronation of Edward II.

The Game Destroying Locomotive.

Said a railroad engineer: "The average man has no idea how many animals and birds are killed every year by the cars. If you will walk along a railroad, you will see toads, frogs and snakes almost every mile that have been cut in two by the engine.

"But these are not the only forms of animal life that suffer. I have run down woodchucks, racoons, squirrels, hedgehogs and pretty nearly every other sort of small animal. Once I saw a ruffed grouse sitting on the track. It waited and did not seem at all afraid. When at last it did get up, the engine was so close that it struck the bird and tossed it to one side, dead.

"But the strangest experiences I ever had were in the south. I was running an engine on the Queen and Crescent road, which goes through Lake Pontchartrain on a long trestle. Ducks and other water fowl were numerous on the lake, and the sight of a headlight seemed to attract them, just as the light in a lighthouse attracts many birds. One night we struck a flock of ducks that smashed into the engine and cab as though it were raining them from the clouds. They broke the forward windows of the cab, and we gathered up enough ducks for two good, big game dinners."

Kindred Vices.

The Rev. Justus Forward, settled in Belchertown, Mass., a hundred years ago, once reproved a workman for swearing while he was plowing a new field. "Swear!" said the man. "I guess you'd swear."

Mr. Forward took the plow and hurried after it, indignantly denying the charge. Then, as the field became more impassable, he began panting:

"I never did see the like! I never did see the like!" When he had gone once round the field, he stopped breathless and said:

"There, you see I didn't find it necessary to swear."

"No," drawled the other man, "but you've told more'n fifty lies. You said you never did see the like, and you saw it all the time I was plowin'."—Youth's Companion.

COSTLY PLATE.

Some London Companies Have Old and Interesting Services.

Few people, at least in this country, possess plate worth such a fabulous sum as that owned by London's lord mayor during his term of office. Its face value has been computed to be slightly over £20,000, though three times that amount would not buy it owing to the historical interest attached to many of the articles.

The two solid silver soup tureens which are employed at the banquet to distribute 100 gallons of clear turtle to the guests are valued at £500 apiece and are said to have been in possession of the corporation for over a century.

Moreover, there are a gross of silver dinner plates worth £1,500, 200 ice pails valued at nearly £1,000, 200 entree dishes, the cost of which £2,000 would not cover; 80 solid silver meat dishes worth another £2,000, and hundreds of other articles, such as grape scissors, salt cellars, wine cups, waiters' trays, decanter labels, etc., all of solid gold or silver and valued at over £5,000.

This collection of plate is constantly being increased, for every lord mayor at the expiration of his term of office is expected to add an item, the cost of which must not be lower than 100 guineas.

In addition the lord mayor's official regalia is costly in the extreme. The diamond pendent that bangs about his neck could not be bought for £1,000, and his collar cost a quarter of that sum, while his pearl sword necessitated the corporation spending £900 when it was new.

But the other companies in the city possess plate of even greater value. The Goldsmiths, for instance, own the most priceless collection, the worth of which it is impossible to estimate. It includes Queen Elizabeth's coronation cup, for which an offer of £5,000 was refused some time ago. The Fishmongers' company boasts of, among other things, a silver chandelier, and estimates of its value have never fallen below £3,250.—London Tit-Bits.

How Lamp Chimneys Were Invented.

Lamp glasses were invented by Aime Argand, the inventor of the famous lamp and gas burner which bears his name. He had been experimenting for some time in trying to increase the light, but to no purpose. On the table before him lay the broken neck of an oil flask. This he took up carelessly and placed it, almost without thought, over the wick. A brilliant flame was the result, and the hint was not lost upon the experimentalist, who proceeded to put his discovery into practical operation at once.

POULTRY POINTERS.

Ducks and geese need no grain when they have plenty of grass.

Chicken fatten faster on cooked food than on raw because it is more easily digested.

When soft feed is given to either young or old fowls, it should never be thrown on the ground.

When closely confined, the loose grain fed to fowls should be scattered among litter of some kind, so that they can scratch it out.

There is nothing so bad for the health and well being of poultry as confining them in close quarters and preventing them from taking needed exercise.

One of the most important items to insure success in the hatching of chickens in winter is to get the eggs from a flock of healthy and vigorous fowls.

There is better health among roving fowls because they get the food that is best for digestion and get the necessary grit to help the gizzard do its work.

When necessary to administer medicine by placing it in the drinking water, keep the birds from drink for several hours. They are then thirsty and more apt to get a good swallow.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

Algebraic.

A man owes 4 cents. He pays 2 cents one day, 1 the next, one-half cent the next, and so on, one-half each day of the debt. Now, although on the fourth day he only owes one-quarter of a cent, if he should be endued with the gift of immortality and he should continue to pay the debt at the same ratio, he could never pay all of it. There would always remain that half of the former day's payment, provided he had counters small enough to make the payments.

Because you haven't used Catarrhozone is the best reason why you should use it right away. It will cure the Catarrh that makes your breath so heavy and your hearing so poor. Catarrhozone is a scientific cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Asthma, recommended by doctors and druggists as a certain cure. Mr. Henry A. Taylor, the oldest druggist in Halifax, says, "Catarrhozone gives satisfaction wherever it goes. It is simple and convenient to use, and enjoys fully three times the sale of any other Catarrh remedy sold in the city." Catarrhozone is guaranteed to cure, and if it fails you can have your money returned. Price $1.00 for two months' treatment. Small size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Street Car Straps.

It is not entirely prudent to put your hands in the straps furnished in the street cars for overflow passengers. Turn one of these straps in any car not fresh from the shops inside out, and the reason will be plain. Handled as they are by all sorts and conditions of men, they are really carriers of disease. The abraded skin of your finger may touch an infected spot, and dangerous bacteria may adhere to it, which at the next movement of the hand may be transferred to the delicate tissues of the mouth or eyes.—Exchange.

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

FATHER PHELAN LEAVES LINDSAY.

Parishioners and Citizens Express Their Regret.

EVIDENCES OF APPRECIATION.

The Rev. Gentleman Presented With Three Addresses, a Purse of Gold, a Secretary and Chair and Other Valuable and Substantial Gifts.

Lindsay Post.

The good people of St. Mary's Parish have been sorely tried of late in having to endure the severance of cherished relations between two beloved priests. Barely three months ago, Rev. Father Phelan, who had ably assisted the late Mgr. Laurent in administering to the spiritual and other needs of the congregation — one of the largest in Ontario—was called by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor to labour elsewhere, and his departure was made the occasion of a remarkable demonstration of affection and regard by the parishioners, who during the four years of his stay in their midst had grown to love him with a strength only inferior to that of the bond existing between the people and their long faithful pastor and adviser, Mgr. Laurent.

Little did those who participated in that sad leave taking think that in a few short months, Rev. Father Phelan would again be in their midst to assuage the deep grief aroused by the saddest occurrence since the passing away of Father Stafford — the death of the good Mgr. Laurent. Bishop O'Connor, knowing the tender relations that had existed between Father Phelan and the congregation again transferred him to Lindsay to administer the affairs of the parish pending the selection of a permanent pastor. The Bishop's choice was a wise one, Father Phelan being peculiarly fitted for the charge by reason of his knowledge of the parish affairs, the deep-rooted and tender friendship that had existed between Mgr. Laurent and himself, and also because his generous, sympathetic nature ever responded readily to sorrow with gentle and reassuring words. It was but natural perhaps, that the congregation should cherish the hope that Bishop O'Connor might see his way clear to permit Father Phelan to remain in Lindsay, but the practice of the Roman Catholic church is to make young priests earn promotion by earnest, self-denying and trying labours in smaller and more scattered parishes, and as this rule is well known, no surprise was expressed when the announcement was made ten days ago that Father Phelan had been transferred to the parish of Young's Point, where Father Fitzpatrick had laboured for nine years.

When the news was made public the members of the congregation held a meeting, and resolved to again mark in a fitting manner their high appreciation of Father Phelan's performance of his priestly duties and his good qualities as a man. The plans culminated last evening, when at the Parish Hall, Father Phelan was made the recipient of several addresses, a purse containing $90 in gold from the ladies, and a handsome oak secretary and chair from the men of the parish.

The Parish Hall was crowded to the doors, between two and three hundred parishioners, and a number of Father Phelan's Protestant friends being present when Mr. A. P. Devlin, chairman, called the gathering to order, and Mr. W. E. Cain, Headmaster of the Separate School, read an address.

Miss A. O'Connor next stepped forward and read a touching address from the ladies of the congregation, Miss O'Hoarly presenting the purse and gift of altar linens.

Father Phelan on rising to reply to the address was visibly affected, and it was some minutes before he succeeded in regaining his composure. His remarks were substantially as follows:

My Dear Friends, Ladies and Gentlemen of Lindsay. — Yes, indeed, there are occasions in the life of man when he lives in the full realization of his inability to give proper and fitting expression to his feelings.

To-night my dear people, such an occasion has arisen within me. Less than three months ago, when at the summons of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, I was translated to Peterborough, and in good holy zeal and heartfelt gratitude you assembled in this same hall and made such a magnificent offering, accompanied with such good wishes, little did I think that such a short time was to elapse before my return. But the Angel of Death, with his ever inevitable hand, seized upon the good Monsignor in the zenith of his priestly glory, thus effecting the sad occasion of my recall to Lindsay parish.

You have credited me with many talents and qualities of which I feel I am not the possessor. For four years I have been amongst you endeavouring to discharge the priestly functions of labouring for the glory of God and the salvation of souls. If in my work I have had any success you must remember that I had as adviser and tutor that eminent divine, the late lamented Monsignor Laurent.

Whilst among you, my good people, you have opened your hearts in many ways, leaving upon me everlasting impressions of practical illustrations forming the inestimable bond which ties the priest to his people. The chaste affection and co-operation of the people of Lindsay I have always shared, for which you will always have my blessing and thoughts in the sacrifice on God's holy altar.

I am delighted to see present a number of Lindsay friends who are not of our belief. It is an undoubted evidence of the good will and harmony that prevails in this community. For my Protestant friends I hold the greatest respect and kindliest wishes. May such harmonious feelings ever exist, and the blessing of the King of Kings be ever on you.

I cannot give suitable expression to my thoughts and feelings to-night. Your two beautifully arranged addresses have pictured me as I should be, not as I am. To the ladies of the parish I am deeply grateful for the kind words, generous gifts, and above all, their expressed good will. To the men my thanks are many for their excessive generosity, their kind references and gracious blessings.

Of Lindsay and its associations I will always cherish the fondest recollections and constantly keep in mind the many evidences of your love and strong attachment.

In conclusion I again thank you and ask you to remember me in your daily prayers. Bidding you farewell, and wishing you the choicest blessings of the Almighty, I express the fondest recollections and constantly keep in mind the many evidences of your love and strong attachment.

In conclusion I again thank you and ask you to remember me in your daily prayers. Bidding you farewell and wishing you the choicest blessings of the Almighty, I express the fondest hope of man—that we shall all meet on that radiant shore.

Among the other speakers were Messrs. O. Bigelow, W. C. Cain, A. D. Mallon, H. J. Lytle, G. H. M. Baker, W. F. O'Boyle, A. P. Devlin and Wm. Steers. God save the King brought the pleasant affair to a close.

The same evening Father Phelan was waited on by the ladies of St. Mary's Sodality, who presented an address and a full set of Faber's Works in handsome binding.

The ladies of St. Joseph's convent also contributed to the many expressions of good will by presenting to their spiritual adviser with a set of magnificently embroidered altar cloths for the church at Young's Point, and several members of the congregation who wish their names withheld, manifested their esteem for their departing pastor by asking his acceptance of substantial sums for use in his new parish.

Rev. Father Phelan left town this morning at 11 o'clock for Peterborough and was attended to the station by a large number of parishioners. The leave taking was hearty and affecting.

AN "AT HOME"

That was Given in the Sons of England Hall.

The Daughters of England last night held a very delightful at home in the Sons of England Hall, Hunter street, last night. The chair was occupied by Mr. Waram, and during the evening an impromptu programme of songs, recitations and music was run off, those taking part being Miss Pedler, Miss Paterson, Miss Mary Ruth, Miss Kingscote and Mr. A. Kingscote.

The recitations of Miss Paterson were particularly enjoyable.

Refreshments were served, and all present passed a very enjoyable evening.

Last night's "at home" was the first of a series that will be given on the evening of the first Thursday of each month.

DR. KUYPER'S MISSION

Reuter's Despatch Says He First Consulted Boer Envoys.

CRUELTY CHARGES REFUTED

Botha Much to Blame—Kitchener's Magnanimous Offer Was Rejected—Schalkburger's Charges of Rough and Cruel Treatment of Boer Women Emphatically Denied—Concentration Camp Statistics.

London, Jan. 18.—Reuter's Telegram Company has received the following despatch from Amsterdam: "According to trustworthy information, Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch Premier, recently intimated to the Boer delegates the desirability, in view of Lord Rosebery's speech at Chesterfield of their giving some intimation to the British Government of the basis upon which they would entertain peace negotiations.

"Dr. Kuyper pointed out the improbability of any of the great powers intervening in South Africa in the near future and suggested that he be allowed informally to sound his friends in London, in the hope of a semi-official response.

"The Dutch Premier accordingly met Abraham Fischer, the leader of the Boer delegates, and others at Brussels, where a long conference was held, after which Dr. Kuyper proceeded to London. The result of his visit, if any has been attained, is not yet known.

"It is understood that Dr. Kuyper distinctly assured the Boers that Holland, under no circumstances, would act as an intermediary.

"Dr. Leyds, the representative in Europe of the Transvaal, is expected shortly at The Hague."

CONCENTRATION CAMPS.

What the Imperial Blue Book Just Issued Has to Say of Them.

London, Jan. 18.—A blue book issued yesterday morning on the subject of the concentration camps in South Africa contains further detailed explanations from Lord Milner, the English High Commissioner, and Lord Kitchener, as to the causes of the excessive death rate in the camps and refutations of the charges of cruelty.

Lord Kitchener emphatically denies Commandant Schalkburger's charges of forcible removal and exposure of pregnant women, and other accusations of rough and cruel treatment, and says:

"I offered Botha to leave the families and relatives of fighting burghers in undisturbed possession of their farms if Botha would agree to spare the farms of the families of the surrendered burghers. Botha emphatically refused, saying—'I am entitled to force every man to join, and if they do not join, to confiscate their property and leave their families on the veldt.'"

The blue book gives statistics for the month of December last, when there were 117,017 inmates of the camps, and 2,880 deaths, of which number 1,767 were children.

READY FOR COL. LYNCH.

Mr. Balfour Announces That He Arrested on Landing.

London, Jan. 18.—In the House of Commons yesterday A. J. Balfour, Government leader, said that Germany had not asked for assurances in regard to reference by Von Buelow to utterances of Mr. Chamberlain at Edinburgh. Lord Lansdowne, in unofficial conversation, said it had been pointed out to the German Ambassador that Mr. Chamberlain made no charges of barbarity against the German army.

Mr. Balfour said Colonel Lynch, M.P. for Galway, would be arrested immediately after landing on British soil.

A Change of Base.

London, Jan. 18.—Col. Arthur Lynch, formerly of the Transvaal Irish Brigade, who was recently elected to represent Galway in the House, is determined, it is said, to present himself in Parliament. His main desire is to avoid arrest before reaching Westminster, as his arrival there will be the occasion of an Irish demonstration. It is stated that he is prepared to prove that he was not a combatant, but only a newspaper correspondent.

The Trial of Dr. Krause.

London, Jan. 18.—The trial of Dr. Krause, the former Governor-General of Johannesburg, on the charge of inciting Cornelius Broeckman, the public prosecutor of Johannesburg (who was executed by the British authorities in South Africa), to murder John Douglas Foster, an English lawyer, who was on the staff of Lord Roberts, opened at the Old Bailey yesterday. If the prisoner and his friends had been suspected of a design to explode dynamite in the court the precaution against the admission of unauthorized persons, could not have been more stringent. Every one was closely scrutinized and compelled to produce a card of admission. The prisoner pleaded not guilty.

Dr. Borden to Inspect Troops.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—Hon. Dr. Borden, Minister of Militia, will leave Saturday evening for Halifax to inspect the Canadian Mounted Rifles, previous to their departure for South Africa on the Victorian. The department learns that the ship will sail from Halifax on Saturday the 25th. Major-General O'Grady-Haly, who has just returned from Halifax, where he inspected the contingent, says it is composed of as fine a body of men as any officer could wish to command in active service.

The Pope Is Not Ill.

Rome, Jan. 18.—The Pope is in excellent health, considering his age, and there is no truth whatever in the stories that he is gravely ill. On the contrary, he received yesterday the members of the Roman aristocracy at the Vatican and delivered a speech urging Catholic union against the divorce law proposed by the Italian Government.

OWNERS OF THE POWER.

Meeting of Those Interested in Flow of the Otonabee.

They Intend Organizing and Making Arrangements to Prevent a Clash of Interests.

An important meeting of the owners of power along the Otonabee River was held in the town council chamber this morning, when matters of mutual and individual interests were discussed, and steps were taken to form a permanent organization. The chair was occupied by His worship, Mayor Deane, and amongst those present were Messrs. James Kendry, M. P., Adam Hall, E.H.D. Hall, J. C. Shuck, Wilson Henderson, John Carnegie, Arthur Stevenson, J. W. Kilborne, W. H. Meldrum, Wm. Irwin, T. E. Bradburn, Wm. Scott, and several others.

Mayor Denne opened the proceedings by stating the object of the meeting after which Mr. R.B. Rogers, superintending engineer of the Trent Valley Canal, was asked to address the meeting concerning a trouble that had arisen during the past few days. He began by stating that they had had a considerable amount of difficulty with the water during the past year, but the climax was reached the other day when Mr. Kilborne notified him that according to his lease with the government he had full control of the water in the river after the navigation season. He asked the speaker to place in two stop logs at Young's Point, which he had done, but it had apparently caused some dissatisfaction amongst the other power owners further down the river. He would like to know just what his position in this regard should be.

Mr. Kilborne, the manager of the Lakefield Cement Company, addressed the meeting. He wished to define his position in regard to the regulation of water in the Otonabee. He had always entertained the opinion which apparently was not shared here, that the control of these waters should be held by those who own the lands along the banks. For instance when a man owns both sides of the stream and the land under that stream he certainly owns the water in that stream. Not having sold it he has control of it. His predecessors owned the water where he is now located and sold the rights for navigation purposes only, and outside of this he claimed that he has the right to use it reasonably for lands along the banks. Every other person below had the same right to use it as it may come to them, but the further up the stream the greater the privilege.

Having thus defined his position as above, Mr. Kilborne went on to speak of the benefits that would accrue from the formation of a power owner's association. He was sorry if he had injured anyone in enforcing what he considered was his rights.

Mr. Kendry said that he had been connected with business on the Otonabee River for the past 30 years. His interests and Mr. Kilborne's were in many respects the same. However, he was always of the opinion that the water of the Otonabee River was controlled by the government. Mr. Kilborne or no other man had any right to stop the water for two days as had just been done. He must allow the natural flow of the river. It does not matter what Mr. Kilborne thinks, it is what the public must have. How Mr. Rogers can be directed by Mr. Kilborne was more than he could understand. If the night had been a cold one the town would have been totally without fire portection and as it was the mill had been closed down for a day or more. He was not going to stand it; the river was 3 feet lower to-day than it should be and this was owing to Mr. Kilborne's action. "You don't control this river, Mr. Kilborne," said Mr. Kendry in conclusion.

Mr. Kilborne claimed that he did not cause the stoppage in the water. They never dreamed of the right to stop the water. The conditions were attributable to something else.

Mr. Kendry contended that Mr. Kilborne had asked Mr. Rogers to put in the stoplogs, and he had no right to do so.

The discussion dragged along for an hour or two on the question as to whether Mr. Kilborne had the right to place in the stop-logs, and as to whether the putting in of the stoplogs caused the backing up of the water.

Mr. Kendry contended that over a thousand men had been affected by the occurrence.

Mr. John Carnegie held that there must be a natural flow of water all the time.

Mr. Rogers made an explanation of his action and explained as to the regulation of the water the year round. He wanted to know when he should put the stop-logs in, when asked by Mr. Kilborne.

Mr. Meldrum said that in calling the meeting, Mr. Kilborne had done an act that should have been done years ago.

Mr. Kendry said that Mr. Rogers had no more right to put in the stoplogs when Mr. Kilborne asked him, than when he was asked by any other power owner. He was going to write the Government about it.

Mayor Denne suggested that as the fire protection of the town was at stake it would bring matters to a head by notifying the Government of the matter.

After an unlimited amount of discussion Mr. Kilborne moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry, "That this meeting deems it to be advisable in the interests of the power owners on the waters of the T.V.C. System to form an association to be called the Trent Valley Power Association for the purpose of furthering their common interests in the conservation of waters contributory to this system; the officers to be Pres., two 2nd Vice-Presidents, Secretary-Treasurer, and a Committee, to whom should be entrusted the care of the association; that there shall be a small membership fee, and that steps be taken to induce all power owners to become members."

Mr. R. R. Hall spoke of the information that an association might be able to gather that would be helpful to them all, and he moved that a committee composed of Messrs. Carnegie, Kendry, Shuck, Scott, Kilborne the Mayor, the mover and the seconder be appointed to draught a constitution and make further arrangements to complete the organization.

Mr. Meldrum seconded the resolution, which was carried.

Mr. A. Stevenson was appointed Provisional Secretary.

Mr. Kilborne consented to the taking out of the stop-logs in the meantime, and the meeting dispersed very harmoniously.

LABOUR UNION MEETING.

Regular Meeting of Peterborough Union No. 9240—Officers for 1902 Installed —Lively Discussion.

The regular meeting of the Peterborough Union of Labour was held in the Sons of England Hall last night. The President, Wm. Henry, occupied the chair.

Communications were read from the secretary of the American Federation of Labour, respecting an increase in the capitation tax and other matters.

It was decided not to increase the initiation fee at present, which is only 25c.

Four new members were initiated.

The newly elected officers for 1902 were installed by the president as follows;

Pres.—W. Henry.
Vice-Pres.—J. W. Reynolds.
Treas.—W. Taylor.
Fin.-Sec.—John Raper.
Rec.-Sec.—W. F. Redfern.
I. Guard—John Connors.
O. Guard—C. Mundon.
Finance Committee — John Gibson, J. W. Miller and P. McNamara.
Auditors—J. W. Miller and M. Armstrong.

Mr. P. McNamara introduced a motion respecting the elegibility of hotel keepers to become members of the union in future. The motion raised considerable discussion in which J. W. Miller, Rev. J. C. Davidson and Mr. McNamara took an active part.

The meeting adjourned shortly after ten o'clock.

THE HARNESS MAKERS.

The harness makers of the town met in session the same evening in the committee room adjoining the hall, and discussed the question of organizing a union. No definite action was taken, as the men are getting all the information necessary first.

SUNDAY FUNERALS STOPPED.

The Cemetery Board Decides to Forbid Them.

At a meeting of the Little Lake Cemetery Board yesterday afternoon, a resolution was passed prohibiting Sunday interments unless in extreme cases, when the presentation of a physician's certificate will be necessary.

Similar action has been taken by a large number of the cemetery companies throughout the province.

MR. EDWARD'S STATEMENT.

The following letter has been sent by Mr. Edwards to the Mayor and as the published account of what took place at the meeting of the Council tended to reflect on the conduct of Mr. Edwards, as a professional man, we publish the letter:

T. H. G. Deane, Esq., Mayor, Peterborough:

Dear Sir,—The statements made at the last meeting of the Council to the effect that I had unwarrantably and improperly interfered in the matter of the issue of the patent to the Town, are not correct. So far from interfering with the issue of the patent, my sole object in calling upon Mr. White was to expedite it, and to see that it was properly issued in accordance with the agreement prepared and signed by Mr. MacMurchy and myself as solicitors for the C.P.R. and the Town respectively, when we were before Mr. White on the 31st, December last, and my whole course with regard to the matter was, as I hope to be able to clearly show, in accordance with my duty and in the best interests of the Town.

As the statements made are calculated, if not contradicted, to injure me as a professional man independently of the office of Town Solicitor, and as I think it is but fair that any officer of the Town for over 20 years should not be summarily dismissed without being given a chance to be heard in answer to any charges made against him, I desire that I may have an opportunity at an early meeting of the Council of being heard in answer to what is alleged against me.

Yours truly,
E. B. EDWARDS.

STATEMENT BY MARCONI.

Inventor Will Be Able to Secure Privacy of Messages.

New York, Jan. 18.—Signar Marconi yesterday morning gave out an insight to his great achievements in wireless telegraphy. He said:

"I am more confident than ever that when it is completed I shall give to the world as the first result of my labors in the transmission of power without wires to great distances, a system of telegraphy capable of infinite expansion and securing the absolute privacy of the messages. I shall shortly make known a novel principle, which will to a large degree remove the popular belief that it is impossible to attain that degree of secrecy which is practicable with cables.

"I respect rigorously the rights of others, and when I give my system to the world I shall ask the entire technical profession to point to any feature of my system which is not of my own creation."

SATURDAY, JAN. 18th, 1902.

THE FRENCH-CANADIANS AND THE MAIL ANE EMPIRE.

(From the London News, Independent Conservative.)

In the recent Mayoralty election in Toronto, the World, the organ of Mr. Maclean, the defeated candidate, talked pretty plainly of the policy of the Toronto Mail and Empire, past and present.

Amongst other things, the World accused the Mail of engendering and inflaming race prejudice upon all occasions with a misguided intention of furthering the party interests. And it must be confessed that the assertion of the World is amply borne out by the actions and course of the Mail and Empire of to-day, and the Mail of years past.

Berating your neighbour, especially if your neighbour be a French-Canadian, may be good policy from a local point of view in Toronto, but is it the policy of a journal which has the welfare of the Dominion as a whole at heart? Is it the policy of one honourable man towards another? Is it a policy, which if pursued, will weld the people who compose the Dominion into a friendly whole? Is it a policy which if pursued will bear fruit in the shape of mutual confidence, mutual respect and mutual trust?

Is it right to intimate, to even say, that Sir Wilfred Laurier is a traitor at heart, whom only the spoils of office keep from showing himself in his true light? Is it manly, or honourable, or just, to throw the fact in the faces of our neighbours in the east that they are French; that we whipped them in 1759; that we consider them traitors, and that we are ready and eager to grind them in the dust with an iron heel?

Is it fair, is it reasonable, to demand or expect that these people—these French-Canadians — shall forget their ancestry, entirely, shall act identically, shall speak identically, as we English, Irish and Scotch? No thoughtful man, no reasonable man, will say that such a demand or expectation is reasonable or just.

In Saturday's issue, the Mail and Empire in an editorial paragraph says that a certain French-Canadian candidate's chances of election are being spoiled by the fact that Mr. Tarte is giving out that the candidate is loyal to Britain. This is narrow, spiteful, mean, paltry and prejudiced. And when the Mail makes such statements as this, it is deluded if it imagines it is expressing the opinions of the Conservative parrty of Canada. Such assertions are unwarranted, and it is traitorous to the best interests of Canada to attempt to substantiate them, as the Mail does, by garbling the speeches and distorting the actions of the people of Lower Canada.

We as Canadians have no reason under the sun for shouting traitor at our brethren in the east. When the Americans severed the tie which bound them to Britain in the closing days of the eighteenth century, the French-Canadians stood to Britain to a man, and practically maintained British supremacy in the eastern provinces.

Again in 1812 the French-Canadians stood to the British guns, and with the aid of British regulars, forced the Americans to cease their attempted conquest of the country. And it must be remembered that this was at a time when France and England were in the throes of a bloody and bitter war.

In 1837 the disaffection in Quebec was not as great as in Ontario, and when the Fenian Raid took place, the French Canadians were loyal to the core. In the Soudanese war the French-Canadian voyageurs made themselves famous in the service of Britain, and when the Boer war broke out and the first contingent left for the front, the English-Canadian, the Irish-Canadian, the Scotch-Canadian and the French-Canadian marched side by side, fought side by side, and died side by side.

What, then, in the name of all reason, does the Mail and Empire demand as a proof of loyalty on the part of the French-Canadians? They have given their life blood to maintain British supremacy, and surely greater loyalty than this no man hath!

In private life a man who nags at his neighbour is justly looked down upon, and the Mail is not pursuing a wise policy, or a policy which will make friends for it, or add to its prestige, by nagging at the French-Canadians.

People who live outside of Canada and read the Mail and Empire, must be of the opinion that the future of this country is anything but bright, as the editorial page of that journal teems with articles calculated to lead the reader to believe that the Canadian house is a house divided within itself. This is about all the good articles of the kind accomplish.

Let the French-Canadians alone. They are minding their own affairs, and are respectable, loyal subjects. It is not fair to use them as stepping stones in Liberal and Conservative controversies.

COLDS

A LAND OF GREAT PROMISE.

Mr. D. A. Jones Enthusiastic Over New Ontario.

Looks Upon it as Destined to Lead the World in Wheat and Beet Root Sugar—"Two Crops a Year."

Mr. D. A. Jones of Beeton, writes as follows to the Globe:

Since my return from the north and New Ontario I have had many communications from various parts of Canada, and some from the United States, asking for information regarding New Ontario. To all those requiring information I would say, if they write Mr. Southworth, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, he will give every information possible, as he is a very efficient officer. But for those wishing to get cheap farms that will increase in value by leaps and bounds, go to New Ontario, the land of promise. The nearest point from Toronto which I would recommend is the Temiskaming district. At the present time it is much nearer markets than lands further west, and the wisdom of those who have taken up land there will be demonstrated soon.

This is a poor man's country, as well as a rich man's country, very suitable for both. For there are great opportunities up there for either. It is a real sportsman's paradise, for its waters afford the finest fishing and the forests abound in game. It is a poor man's home, for he by judicious management may become rich, and those who are rich can expand and add to their wealth rapidly. It is the farmer's paradise because he can grow better and bigger crops than he can grow on many of our expensive farms in southern Ontario. It has many great advantages unknown to some of our southern farmers.

This past season one of the finest crops of barley grown was just sprouting through the ground the first of July. Samples shown could not be finer. The extra percentage of sunshine up there ripens crops with greater perfection than further south. Take, for instance, wheat, which can be grown in new Ontario weighing seventy pounds to the bushel, and the finest hard wheat, and the immense yields up in new Ontario as compared with our poorer yields in southern parts should induce many of our young men to go and start farming.

Settlers can harvest two crops in one year. In winter they can have a rich harvest in pulpwood, for which they get cash as fast as they can put it on the banks of lakes, rivers and creeks, which abound in every part of the country, where it may be floated in the spring to mills or railroads, the price usually being sufficient to pay for clearing the land, putting up buildings, and supporting the family during the time, and sometimes more. There is great demand for labour, and men and teams are eagerly sought after at high wages, and no one, if he will work, requires to go idle.

In summer the farmer grows larger crops with much less attention than can be grown farther south. The land may be ploughed when wet without it becoming baked and lumpy during the dry season, as the lumps generally subside through the effects of rain and sunshine, and form a dressing for the roots of the crop growing. The soil being a rich loam, and marl clay deposit in a measure accounts for its great richness and ease with which it may be tilled.

THE LAND TO THE NORTH.

Now, this section of New Ontario is only a small overflow south of the watershed, of perhaps forty or fifty townships, which was formed during the deposit at that vast wheat belt lying north of the watershed of northern Ontario, where all the waters empty northward into James Bay. Just imagine this immense area of from twenty to forty millions of acres lying north of the watershed or height of land suitable for growing the finest hard wheat in the world. Now, let us hope that ere long most of this vast area, sometimes called the great clay belt of new Ontario, will become the greatest wheat-producing belt in America. It is very much larger than Manitoba, which is gainning such notority the world over for its superior hard wheat. There are very few places in the world where the finest hard wheat can be grown in quantities, and they are fast diminishing in comparison to the great increase in Canada. Now the day is fast approaching when Canada will be looked to for the world's supply of hard wheat. When this immense wheat belt of new Ontario produces, as it could, one or two hundred millions of bushels of the finest hard wheat annually, then we will begin to see what a hidden mine of wealth lies in store for us in new Ontario.

FRUITS AND BEETS.

When this northern wilderness is fully opened up would you be surprised to find some sections of it will yet produce the finest apples and other fruits, as it is favourably affected by the waters of James and Hudson Bays, similar to the fruit belt by the Niagara district by Lake Ontario waters? Nor is this all. It will yet become one of the greatest, sugar producing section in America, and perhaps in the world. It is more favourably situated, being suitable for growing beets with a greater percentage of saccharine matter than any of the more southern localities. And why? Because it has by far the greatest percentage of sunshine, which is one of the chief factors that increases the percentage of sugar in the beets; and where can you find such a rich deposit of deep, loamy soil, where beet-root can penetrate easily to any depth? Bounded as it is on the north by such an immense body of water, whose influence affects and tones the temperature to a degree just right for sugar-beet growing, wheat raising, etc.

This is no dream, and it only requires a careful study and knowledge of the facts to convince the most sceptical. The profits from sugar-beet growing, which have so naturally increased the value of farm lands in the vicinity of the beet-suar factories, should increase in proportion to the greater percentage of saccharine matter contained in the beets. If this is true, it will not surprise those who fully understand all the details to find that the average percentage of sugar is so much greater in the nothern-grown beets that it will attract an immense capital to this northern new Ontario, which will be known as the great sugar belt, as well as the great wheat belt.

And when it becomes fully developed one hundred dollars per acre or more will not be considered a high price for lands favourably situated, near sugar factories. As fast as this new Ontario is opened and settled, pulp and paper mills will spring up in all favourable localities, and flour mills will follow as soon as sufficient wheat is grown to warrant capitalists to erect them on the great water-powers. Then, so soon as sugar-beet land can be prepared, sugar factories will follow as rapidly, and as many as favourable localities for them can be found, because they will be able to manufacture sugar up there as cheap or cheaper than elsewhere. Why can it be manufactured up there cheaper? First, because the land to grow the beets on is cheaper; it is also free from weeds, requiring less attention to grow them, and with the higher percentage of sugar gives greater profits in growing.

Building material is plentiful, water-powers are in abundance, so the power can be had much cheaper than by steam. Limestone and pure water are plentiful, and as the beets will contain a greater percentage, perhaps 25 per cent. more saccharine matter, than southern grown beets will, will they not then take one-quarter less expense to evaporate? Perhaps it is not generally known that the climate north of the height of land and south of James Bay is far milder than it is just south of the height of land, and I would suggest that hardy fruit trees should be planted at various suitable points over this territory, a few at each place, to test the climate for their culture. Sugar-beets might be planted also in many localities, by the various woodmaggers sent into this northern country, and they could have samples brought out in the fall to test, which would well repay the slight extra expenditure for the information thus early acquired. I would further suggest that tobacco seed be sown at suitable points, and results noted. As the Indians are so fond of tobacco, they no doubt would take an interest in growing it, so it might be tested without much expense. As a stock-raising country it would be excellent, for the spruce forests would give stock as much protection from cold as ordinary barns in Manitoba. But you have all the material in new Ontario to build as you desire free.

Now, this great wilderness of wealth is in new Ontario; very few white men have crossed it from north to south, and fewer still from east to west; but some of us who have, and have carefully observed the true character of the country, are amazed at the hidden wealth up there. Fortunes are in store for thousands there, as millions must be spent in developing the country, and tens of millions will be received for the products of it.

I have already trespassed too much on your valuable space, so will close, but at a future date will endeavour to give some further hints, and will here say that our most sanguine expectations will be far eclipsed with actual results in northern new Ontario, the land of promise.

Reward of Merit.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favour, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that to-day it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians, who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics. They contain no cocaine nor opiate, and are given to the little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Reitiger, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist's, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets urged me to try them so much that I did so and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

If You Are Sick

Let Me Know it.

I wish simply your name and address—no money. Tell me which of these six books you want.

I will send with it an order on your druggist to let you have 6 bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. He will let you take it for a month; then if it succeeds, he will charge you $5.50 for it. If it fails, he will send the bill to me. He will trust to your honesty, leaving the decision to you.

Such an offer as this could not be made on any other remedy. It would bankrupt the physician who tried it. But for five years I have supplied my Restorative on these terms to 500,000 people. My record shows that 39 out of each forty paid for it, because they were cured.

This remedy alone strengthens those inside nerves that operates all vital organs. It brings back the only power that can make each organ do its duty. No matter how difficult the case, it will permanently cure, unless some organic trouble like cancer makes a cure impossible.

I have spent my lifetime in preparing this remedy. I offer now to pay for all you take if it fails. I cannot better show my faith in it. Won't you merely write a postal to learn if I can help you.

Simply state which book you want and address Dr. Shoop, Box 67, Racine, Wis.

Dominion Government's Majority in the Commons is 57.

CORNED BEEF INVESTIGATION

A Board of Inquiry Now Sitting at Ottawa—The Quality Was Complained of by British Officers—Recommended For Decorations—N.Y.C. Gets O. and N.Y. Railway—A Big Demand From the Yukon.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The Government now holds 133 seats in the House of Commons, as against 76 opposition, showing a ministerial majority of 57. There are, however, four seats yet vacant—Victoria, B. C., Lisgar, Quebec West and Maisonneuve, or Terrebonne. Mr. Prefontaine was returned for both the last-named constituencies, but cannot say which seat he will hold until the election proceedings in Terrebonne are concluded.

To Retire Certain Judges.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—It is stated that a movement is on foot to compel the retirement from the bench of certain judges who are incapacitated either by extreme age or physical infirmity from properly discharging their judicial duties. This action is said to be contemplated by members of Parliament, who promise to bring the matter before the House of Commons when it meets. The proposed action, according to rumor, meets with the approval of a numerous section of the legal fraternity, who have experienced great inconvenience from the existing state of affairs.

May Get a New Trial.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—It is not improbable that Frank Wabey, the Indian who was recently sentenced at Hull for the murder of Trader McCabe at Silver Lake, may get a new trial on a technicality, discovered yesterday. The scene of the murder is away in the upper Gatineau regions, and it was assumed to be situated in Ottawa County. Yesterday it was discovered to be situated in Montcalm, and Wabey's counsel will move for a new trial in the Chef Lieu of that county

N.Y.C. GETS O. AND N.Y.

Report Revived in Ottawa of Vanderbilts Getting Control.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—The report is revived that the Ottawa and New York Railway has been acquired by the New York Central, and that henceforth the Ottawa line will form part of the Vanderbilt system and be worked as a through line between the Canadian capital and the Empire City. The connection between the two systems has been complete since the opening of the bridge across the St. Lawrence at Cornwall last year. Inquiries at the office of the Ottawa and New York Railway in this city failed to bring about a confirmation of the story, but there is admittedly a probability that the road will ultimately be acquired by the New York Central system.

QUALITY OF TINNED MEAT.

An Investigation Upon Some Sent From Canada to South Africa.

Ottawa, Jan. 18.—A board of experts at the Department of Agriculture yesterday afternoon to enquire into the character of certain shipments of Canadian tinned meat sent to South Africa. The investigation is the result of complaints made by British officers in the field about the quality of the tinned meat shipped from Canada. The Department of Agriculture interested itself in the matter, and asked that samples of the meat reported against be shipped back to this country for enquiry. This was done, and the samples reached Ottawa a couple of days ago. The commission of inquiry consists of Dr. Montizambert, director-general of Public Health; Lieut.-Col. Biggar of the Army Service Corps; Mr. Thomas Macfarlane, chief analyst of the Inland Revenue Department, and Mr. Bate, of the firm of Bate & Co.

Representation in the Senate.

The addition of five elected members to the present Yukon Council.

The division of the territory into electoral districts, and the setting apart of money for election expenses and members' traveling expenses.

Control of the liquor traffic in the Yukon.

The nomination of an Inland Revenue officer in the Yukon.

The right to establish breweries.

The setting apart of funds for the maintenance of schools and roads.

The right for the Yukon Council to adopt all ordinances relative to Yukon matters independently of the Ottawa Government, which, however, should retain the right of veto on Yukon statutes.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Presentation of Petitions and Introduction of Bills the Only Business Brought Before the House.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—At the Legislative Assembly yesterday about fifteen petitions in favor of Prohibition were presented, and it was not a particularly good day for petitions either.

Bills were introduced by Mr. Barr to amend the manhood suffrage Act by Messrs. Hoyle and Preston to amend the Municipal Act and by Mr. Auld to amend the Ontario Game Protection Act.

Hon. Mr. Gibson, in moving the second reading of the bill to amend the Marriage Act, explained that it was not proposed to amend the law as it stood, but simply to set forth on the Statute Book the prohibited degrees of consanguinity. Only the Dominion Parliament could alter the law. The measure was therefore a merely formal one.

The bill received a second reading and the House adjourned.

New License Inspectors.

The following additional license commissioners for the province have been appointed:

Haldimand—James Mitchell, Robert Buckley, Andrew Williamson.

South Essex—John Askew, Horatio Y. Pickering, Alexander Chauvin.

MR. MARTIN MAY RUN.

The Vacancy in the House of Commons For Victoria, B.C.

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 18.— Mr. Joseph Martin announces that he will again seek the suffrage of the people of Victoria, this time for the Commons. Since the announcement of the call for the Liberal convention in Vancouver on the 30th, Mr. Martin and his friends have manifested a great deal of activity at the different association meetings, in having delegates elected thereto favorable to him.

ALMOST A MIRACLE

Wrought in the Case of a Charlottetown Lady.

Her Doctor Said She was in Consumption and Held out no Hope of Recovery—To-day She is Well, Strong and Active.

(From the Islander, Charlottetown.)

Statistics published from time to time show the number of deaths occurring throughout this country from consumption to be as great as the number caused by all other preventible diseases combined. It is no wonder, therefore, that the medical fraternity has at last awakened to the fact that the most urgent means must be taken to prevent its further spread, and to teach the public that while the disease is readily communicated from one person to another, it is not necessarily inherited, though the tendency to it may be. It is therefore, of the utmost importance that people with weak lungs should take the greatest care of themselves to prevent consumption obtaining a hold upon them. Pure, out-of-door air, lots of sunshine, wholesome food and a good tonic medisine to keep the blood rich, red and pure, will enable anyone to resist the inroads of the disease. As a blood forming tonic there is no medicine the equal of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills where freely and fairly used, will strengthen the weakest constitution, and have cured many cases of consumption when taken in its early stages. Proof of this is given in the case of Mrs. Abram Henry, of Charlottetown, P.E.I. To a reporter of the Islander who called upon her, Mrs. Henry said: "A few years ago I found myself growing weak and pale, and emaciated. I took various medicines on the advice of friends, but none of them appeared to do me any good, and two years ago my condition became so much worse that I was obliged to take to my bed, and call in a doctor, who said that my lungs were affected, and that I was going into consumption, and he told my mother, who was mostly in attendance upon me, that my recovery was very doubtful. I grew gradually weaker and weaker. I could not sit up for five minutes; my lungs pained me; I coughed severely, lost almost all desire for food, and when I did eat, I found it difficult to retain food on my stomach. I fell away in weight from 148 pounds to 100 pounds, and I do not think any of my friends expected to see me get better. But some of them urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to do so. I began by taking one pill a day, for my stomach was very weak, but I was soon able to increase this to three pills a day, and finally as my strength was increasing under their use, I took nine pills a day. The change which came with the use of the pills was little short of miraculous, and so marked and rapid that inside of two months after I began their use, I was able to leave my bed and move about the house, and soon after I was able to walk about in the open air and make short visits to my friends. On one of these occasions I met the doctor who had attended me, and he asked me what I had been taking that had made such an improvement. I replied that I had been taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and he said 'all right, continue them; they won't hurt you anyway.' Well, I continued taking them until I had used seventeen boxes, with the result that I never felt better than I do now—not even in my girlhood days. It is more than a year since I stopped taking the pills, and you can see for yourself what they did for me. I may say, too, that my weight has increased to 137 pounds. I am not anxious for publicity, but when I think of what the pills did for me, I believe I ought to sacrifice my own feelings for the benefit of some other poor sufferer."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have produced such remarkable cures as the above, because they are wholly unlike ordinary medicines, which only act upon the symptoms. These pills go direct to the root of the trouble, making new, rich blood, and giving increased strength with every dose. In this way they cure consumption in its early stages, also such diseases as paralysis, rheumatism, St. Vitus' dance, heart trouble, neuralgia, dyspepsia, chronic erysipelas, and all the functional troubles that makes the lives of so many women miserable. The genuine pills are sold only in boxes bearing the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If you do not find them at your dealers, they will be sent postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Miner Frozen to Death.

Vancouver, B.C., Jan. 18.— News reached here from Nelson of the sufferings of three miners and the death of a fourth from exposure in the mountains 50 miles west of Nelson. On Jan. 4, J. P. Stevens, W. G. Thomas, S. Rockaway and M. Wall started across the mountains to visit a claim. Before night they became lost in drifts of soft snow on the mountain top. They missed their way and spent three days in the extreme cold and bitter wind of the worst blizzard on record in that section. On the fourth day Stevens and Thomas managed to reach camp, and at once sent back for Rockaway, who had been left exhausted on the trail. He was found frozen to death.

Killed by Oilcloth.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 18.—Charles Howard, a laborer, was struck by a sling load of oilcloth on the steamer Manchester-Trader yesterday and knocked head foremost into the hold. He received injuries from which he died a few minutes later. He leaves a widow and three children.

SUICIDE NEAR BOTHWELL.

Well Known Farmer Takes His Life by Hanging—Found Dead.

Bothwell, Ont., Jan. 18.—Clarence McRitchie, a well known farmer, hanged himself yesterday morning in his barn near here. He had gone to the barn to harness up, and was found a few minutes after by a boy who went out to help. He had thrown a rope over a rafter, and after tying it around his neck jumped from a democrat wagon, breaking his neck. Though well off, he had of late, been worrying over some money matters.

FROM OLD QUEBEC.

The Historic Capital Furnishes a Story of Interest to Many.

The newspapers in and around the city of Quebec are just now relating the story of a well known French-Canadian gentleman who for years has been a martyr to Dyspepsia.

The sufferings Mons. Bouchard endured have been beyond the power of tongue or pen to describe. His pains were very severe, so much so, that for two years he had but little pleasure in life. Dyspepsia wrought its worst punishment in him and nothing he could get seemed able in any way to alleviate his distress.

At last, however, he has found a cure. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have met and conquered his Dyspepsia, have relieved him of all his pain and distress, and have made an all-round well man of him. He is very grateful and is full of praise for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, which he says, "have made a new man of me."

This story should be of greatest interest to thousands who are now suffering just as Mons. Bouchard did before he used Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. If this remedy can and does cure such acute and advanced cases it surely will cure any case of stomach trouble.

It is but reasonable to at least give a trial to a medicine that has proven itself to be effectual in so very many cases. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are no experiment but a tried and proven remedy for Indigestion, Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Bloating, Palpitation of the Heart, or any of the many symptoms of deranged or impaired digestive machinery.

Mons. Bouchard's address is 300 St. Valier, Quebec.

CHIEF JUSTICE M'COLL DEAD.

Head of the British Columbia Judiciary Passes Away Suddenly.

Victoria, B.C., Jan. 18.— Chief Justice McColl of the British Columbia Bench died in convulsions in his rooms at the Occidental Hotel here at 10 o'clock Thursday night. He came over a week ago to attend the full court, but failed to take his place an the bench. He had been afflicted with Bright's disease and this enfeebled his heart. He was the third son of Rev. Dr. Angus McColl of Chatham, was born in 1854 and appointed Judge in 1896.

HOCKEY.

The Ontarios went up from Port Hope to Lindsay, last night, and walloped the Intermediate team of the latter town by four goals to one. It's only fair to the Lindsays to state that their crack forward Dennison was debarred from playing.

The Lakeviews, of Peterborough, last night succeeded in defeating the Lakefield team by a score of 6 to 2, thus winning out in the first round of the Trent Valley League series. The Lakeviews could not get the local ice for their game which should have, according to schedule been played here, and an arrangement was made to send the team to Lakefield. They had to overcome a lead of three goals which the northern men had on them, and after a very hard fight they succeeded in doing so. The team was greatly augumented by the presence of Crowley and Parnell, who played brilliant games.

The teams were as follows:

Lakefield—Goal, Wagner; point, J. Ridpath; cover point, Murduff; forwards, G. Ridpath, Stabler, Gray and Strickland.

Lakeviews — Goal, McCoy; point, Graham; cover point, Thornton; forwards, Parnell, Crowley, O'Connor and Meagher.

Referee—Parker Crossley.

The score at half time was 1-3 in favour of Peterborough.

The Lakeviews will now run up against Norwood in the next round. The game will be played in Norwood on Friday night, next.

In the T. V. L. Series Bobcaygeon won the round from Omemee, and Keene won the round from Millbrook.

TOOK LEAVE OF PETERBOROUGH.

Ven Archdeacon Casey Left for Lindsay To-day.

CONGREGATION'S FAREWELL.

They Presented Him With an Address and $300 in Gold—An Interesting Ceremony.

Ven. Archdeacon Casey, who for the past eight years has performed the duties of Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, left this morning for Lindsay, having been transferred to the charge of that town.

Ever since the announcement of his removal from town Ven. Archdeacon Casey has been the recipient of many expressions of regret at his leaving, and many and sincere expressions of good will for his future. The various societies for which he has labored during his residence in Peterborough, the educational institutions with which he has been identified, have taken advantage of Ven. Archdeacon Casey's intended departure, to express to him their appreciation of his efforts on behalf of his people.

Last night in the Cathedral the last of these presentations was made, when at the conclusion of the benediction, Ven. Archdeacon Casey was presented with an address and a purse of $300 from the congregation.

THE ADDRESS.

The address was read by Mr. D. O'Connell, and the presentation of the $300 was made by Mr. H. LeBrun, on behalf of the congregation.

The committee which had charge of the getting up of the presentation advanced to the front of the Cathedral and Mr. O'Connell read the address in a clear and audible voice.

The cathedral was filled with members of the congregation, and the service was very impressive

The address was as appended:

To the Very Reverend Archdeacon Dominick Jeremiah Casey, Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral:

Very Reverend and Dear Sir,—Eight years ago you assumed the responsible duties of Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, and during that time your indefatigable zeal and your great earnestness and tender solicitude in the spiritual and temporal welfare of your parishioners have won for you their love and admiration. Now upon the eve of your departure they cannot allow you to leave them without giving expression to the deep sense of regret they feel at their loss and the appreciation and gratitude they have for the great benefits they have derived from your able and efficient administration.

Manifold are the duties of the Rector of this large parish, and great the work to be done to meet the needs of its people. But with assiduous care and neverceasing interest have you discharged these duties and performed this work. The Catholic Associations and Societies established in this congregation by your predecessors have been benefitted by your guiding hand and wise counsel, and in them have been taught and practiced with increasing efficiency the duties and responsibilities of Catholic men and women. The great cause of temperance has received your kindest encouragement, and under your supervision has been established and fostered St. Peter's Total Abstinence Association, which has worked incalculable good amongst your parishoners, and increased in their midst in an eminent degree, that contentment and prosperity characteristic of a sober and industrious people.

To you has been reserved the task, at once difficult and noble, of increasing the efficiency of the Hospital of the Diocese, and making its provisions ample to meet both the demands and the needs of the rich and indigent. Under your administration has been erected the House of Providence, a Home for God's poor, where the aged, the orphan and the afflicted may find a refuge, in which not only are their temporal needs provided for, with tender solicitude, but they have administered to them the consolation of their holy religion. The Cathedral Church in which you have so often offered up the holy sacrifice of the Mass has, during your incumbency, been beautified in its interior decoration, and made a temple worthy of its sacred character. Your zeal in the cause of learning, in the moral and intellectual training of the young, is evidenced by the efficiency of our schools of which you have been for many years the painstaking and assiduous superintendent, and in whose well-being you have always taken the deepest interest. And by your co-operation you have had a large share in almost freeing from debt all these various institutions, provided for the spiritual and temporal needs, not only of the parish, but to a great extent of the Diocese. These institutions have grown and increased in our midst, and by the wise administration of their affairs, their burden was scarcely felt by the people, till now the last vestige of the debt is about to be wiped away. These are the external evidences of the religious and temporal progress made during your incumbency and are but the means to the spiritual, the intellectual and temporal advancement of your people. They will long endure to your memory, nor will the poor and the afflicted of the parish soon forget the kind pastor whose generous hand and kindly heart so often soothed them in their afflictions, and helped them in their troubles.

But if there is one quality by which you will be longest remembered, it is the fatherly interest you have taken in the children of the Parish. Their training, the formation of their character, were ever the objects of your tenderest care. Their education, that education so potent in its results, the education received and implanted in the minds of the young, under the guidance of religion inculcated with moral precepts and catholic doctrines. In future years many a young man of the Parish will look back to his school-boy days with the fondest recollection and find there the foundation of his temporal success and his spiritual well-being.

And the members of the Parish generally, so greatly benefitted by your administration, how will they remember you? By the sympathy and kindness with which you pointed out to them the duties of their life, by the clearness and force with which you taught them the doctrine of their religion, by the fervor and zeal with which you stirred in their hearts a fidelity to their church and a love for their creator. These inestimable gifts to your people will never be effaced from their minds and always in their prayers, in their homes and before the altar, will they remember you as their Spiritual Father.

They will endeavour to show by their actions at all times that the seed which you have sown has not fallen on barren soil, and they trust that sometimes in the holy sacrifice of the Mass you will not forget the congregation amongst whom you lived so many years, and who regret so much to part from you. It is true they grieve at your departure, but their good Bishop, who so wisely presides over the Diocese, knows best where to place the labourers in that part of the Lord's vineyard entrusted to his care. To his will they bow, confiding as faithful children in his judgment and love for his flock.

In conclusion very reverend sir, let us hope that God, in His great goodness and mercy, may long spare you to perform the duties of a faithful and loving priest.

Ven. Archdeacon Casey in reply, spoke in very fitting terms. He said that he thanked them very sincerely for the touching address that they had just presented to him, and he took it as a message that came from the fulness of their hearts. They gave him credit that did not belong to him, inasmuch as he was here as Rector of St. Peter's, and endeavoured to fulfil the wishes of the Bishop. If they were gratified with the work which had been accomplished it is to His Lordship's credit it is due, and not to his own. He wished to see the Cathedral surrounded by the works of charity, and a great deal had been accomplished in this regard. There is the hospital and the House of Providence, which had been built for the aged, the poor and the orphans. Christ had always cared for suffering humanity, and therefore he worked under His guidance, and he thought that the House of Providence would be a lasting remembrance to the Bishop of Peterborough.

Referring to the different societies of the church, the Ven. Archdeacon quite modestly disclaimed the amount of credit that the address stated was due him for their healthy condition. It did not require a great deal of work on his part to kindle their zeal. We see a large number of the Catholic people of Peterborough making every effort to fulfil God's commands, as is evidenced by the large attendance at communion.

During these eight years, the T.A.S., which would always be a source of joy to his heart, had been organized and would tend to develop a sober and industrious people. They will prosper, not only in this world, but in the world to come. The Society was a credit to the Bishop and to its zealous chaplain, Rev .Dr. O'Brien. Speaking in regard to his connection with the educational institutions of the town, Ven. Archdeacon Casey referred to his love for the little ones of his flock. Did not Jesus say, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven!" In the children the soil is ready to receive the seed. The sowing is moistened with the grace of God, and if good seed is planted, they will be strong spiritually in after life. You have reason to be proud of your schools; you have the means of educating your child as he should be. Education in science, etc., is not sufficient; the heart of the child must be carefully trained as well as the mind. They are taught religion in their schools; taught to practice virtue, to avoid sin and to prepare themselves for Holy Communion. The soul must be saved first, for what does it profit a man if he gaineth the whole world and not save his soul? They had reason to be thankful that their schools afford this teaching, and may they always preserve that right. Preserve the right to educate your children and if you neglect your duty toward them there is no hope for your salvation. No state has the right to take your children from the church and educate them. He hoped this would always be the case and that the church will always be known for its sound education and its Christian schools.

"I never shall forget all the kindness that you have shown me and the respect, love and affection you hold towards me. You are a true Catholic people. You love your Bishop and your priests and I thank you sincerely and will always remember you and your acts of kindness, and I hope that you will long remember me. I am going to a strange people to do the command of the bishop and I need your prayers. I did not come quite a stranger to you eight years ago, having been in Peterborough as a curate twenty-nine years ago. You will have to over-look my failings and pray to the Almighty God that He may make my work fruitful. I feel that my work here has not fallen on barren soil and I hope that it will not in Lindsay."

Archdeacon Casey referred to the piety of his flock and he said that he felt that his work had not been in vain. Without saying any more he would bid them farewell and he asked Almighty God to pour down His blessings upon them and their children, and may they grow up to be a prosperous generation. May Holy God Bless you and pour down upon you the fullness of His grace.

At the conclusion of the ceremony those present were given an opportunity of personally bidding goodbye to Ven. Archdeacon Casey in the vestry.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Of the Charlotte Street Sunday School for the Past Year.

The following is the report of the secretary of the Charlotte street Sunday School for the past season:

I beg to submit the 28th annual report for the year ending 31st Dec., 1901.

The year 1901 showed a continued and marked advancement in the growth and progress of the school.

The total number of scholars on the roll is 432, an increase of 10; with an average attendance of 301, an increase over last year of on.

The largest attendance on any one Sunday was 364; the smallest 169.

There were 2 new teachers added to the staff, making the number of teachers and officers 38, with an average attendance of 36. This is an increase of 6 over 1900.

The total number of verses recited during the year was 4473, or an average of 301.

The largest ordinary collection was $8.60; the smallest, $3.22.

Miss Coe's class is entitled to first place for having recited the largest number of verses the greatest number of times. This is the second year this class of boys has had this honour.

The classes having the highest collections the most Sundays during the year are as follows,— Girls — Mrs. Darke's class. Boys—Miss Thomas'.

The missionary collections for the year were $44.67, and of this amount $23.50 had been sent to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, leaving a balance of $41.17 to go through the church channels.

Mr. Young's Mr. Dawe's and Miss Thomas' classes are deserving of special mention for their liberality to the cause.

Last year we increased our orchestra leader's salary from $50 to $60 per year. Mr. Hodgson has performed his duty perfectly satisfactorily to the school, and I would beg to recommend that he be re-engaged at the same salary.

We would not forget to mention our gratitude to the other members of the orchestra, who have received no remuneration for their services, and have been equally as faithful in performing their duty. Mrs. Campbell has continued her much appreciated services as pianist in addition to her duty of teaching.

In reviewing our last year's work it has many encouraging features. The attendance of the scholars has never been better, which no doubt is due to the faithful attendance of the teachers.

The Angel of Death has only visited our ranks twice this year. The names of the deceased are Wilfred True and Ethel Rawlings, two of our brightest scholars.

One of the most prominent features is that our school room is becoming too small to accommodate our scholars, and I would beg to recommend that during the coming year we take some steps to form an extension fund and that we set aside a certain amount or a certain number of Sunday collections for this purpose.

The extra expense during the year on the library is due to the fire at the Examiner office, when we lost in the neighbourhood of $80 worth of books. We are thankful that we have been able to replace them and start the New Year without owing a cent.

THE REVIEW REVIEWED.

(From the Lakefield News.)

We have to thank the Peterborough Review for the very generous amount of free advertising with which it favoured us in its issue of Saturday last. We are too modest, however, to assume that that paper took the line it did in the belief that we should be pleased or flattered by its attentions. But whether kindly or maliciously meant, the effect is the same; we have received the advertisement and we are correspondingly grateful.

The first count on which the Review falls foul of us is in regard to our article on Hon. J. R. Stratton and his claims on the confidence of the electors of this riding, and it does so in language that borders on the vitriolic. It is only a sample, however, of the bitterness with which that paper has pursued Mr. Stratton ever since he became a member of the government, and which, far from endangering his popularity has created in the minds of many honest men a feeling of indignation at such exhibitions of petty and common-place vituperation.

The position the News has taken in the matter has been in the belief that Mr. Stratton since he became the representative of this constituency, has proved himself the best one that it has ever had and looking over the field of possible candidates who may be brought forward to oppose him, there is no one who in our opinion can compare with the gentleman we have mentioned, either in qualifications or experience. We say this in the true spirit of independence. We have nothing to gain or lose in saying it and we flatter ourselves that we are well enough known and respected in this village to have our word pretty generally believed, even in the face of such disparaging utterances as the Review has seen fit to put forth.

The Review, in common with many other publications of a strictly partisan type makes the old mistake of confusing independence with neutrality. We are not, nor do we ever intend to be "trimmers" or fence straddlers, and the soonor the Review gets it into its editorial head that our independence is not a thing of shreds and patches, but combines a good wholesome regard for straightforwardness and plain dealing with an absolute disregard for partisan abuse of any type whatsoever, perhaps the better.

We had no intention of dabbling to a large extent in party politics, our main concern was and is still, with the representation of this constituency, and seeing that we have the interests of this community at heart to every whit as great an extent as the Review we are equally entitled to give vent to our opinions concerning them. And we intend to do so. The Review will find that it cannot ride rough-shod over us in the majesty of its larger circulation.

Another matter on which the Conservative organ takes upon itself to berate us, is for printing a notice of an atlas which Mr. Stratton has sent for distribution amongst the school children of Lakefield. We should have thought that for this that gentleman deserved praise rather than censure. The atlas spoken of is practically a valuable text book. It contains excellent, up-to-date maps of the Dominion and Newfoundland, a map showing the comparative area of the British Isles and Canada and the United States; and maps of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Assinboia, Manitoba, Ontario and New Ontario, with profusely and beautifully illustrated matter, descriptive of the great resources of Canada, calculated to make every Canadian boy and girl who peruses it, proud of their native or adopted land. The little sneer, as to "Where Mr. Lang comes in," amounts to little. Lakefield is in Mr. Stratton's constituency for Provincial election purposes, and we should judge that he has a right to do what he chooses in the interests of the village. If Mr. Lang lets the chance of doing a good turn pass him by, why should Mr. Stratton be hauled over the coals for not doing likewise?

A TORONTO WEDDING

In Which a Great Many Peterborough People Will be Interested.

The Globe:—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Bertram, 9 Walmer road, was the scene last evening of a very brilliant wedding, when their daughter, Ella A. Bertram, became the bride of Mr. C. W. Pitt of the Collins Inlet Lumber Company. The ceremony took place in the drawing-room in presence of a large company of friends, and was performed by Rev. W. G. Wallace of Bloor Street Presbyterian church. The bride wore a very handsome gown of white Canton crepe over white taffeta, the tucked skirt en train and trimmed with real lace and a frill. The corsage was ornamented with tucking and a bertha of real lace. A veil and orange blossoms were worn, and a bouquet of bridal roses was carried by the bride. The bridesmaid, Miss Lilian Hall of Peterborough, wore a gown of white taffeta, trimmed with tucking and chiffon, and carried pink roses. Mr. Robert Bertram was groomsman. As the bride entered the room, escorted by her father, the bridal song from Lohengrin was sung by Mrs. C. McCaul Home, the sister of the bride, and Miss Ann L. Huston played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The drawing-room was decorated with pink roses and white tulips, with garlands of smilax. The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of black silk with white embroidered chiffon vest touched with pink. At the close of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pitt were warmly congratulated by many friends, and after lunch took the evening train to New York. Mrs. Pitt's travelling dress was of brown broadcloth, tailor-made, brown and white toque and Persian lamb coat. The gift of the groom to the bride was a handsome diamond ring, and to the bridesmaid a pretty pearl pin. Many beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Pitt are held, among the most valued being a cabinet of solid silver tableware from the ladies of Bloor street Presbyterian church, where Miss Bertram was organist of the Sunday school, and at various times filled other positions, "In token of appreciation of valued services." Among the invited guests were Miss Pitt, Orillia, sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Miss Hall, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bertram, Peterborough; Mrs. W. A. Hall, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, Peterborough.

SPECIALISED TREATMENT FOR DEAFNESS.

In the "Journal for the Deaf," we find a complete description of a special treatment together with upwards of 200 recently cured cases, that will be of absorbing interest to those who have any difficulty with the hearing. An instance of a cure in a most obstinate case is the following:

The Rev. Mr. Heel, of Dartmouth-park, London, had for the last thirty years suffered from deafness, accompanied with most intolerable noises in the head, an affection which greatly interfered with the performance of his religious duties, and which, besides, caused him considerable annoyance in all social intercourse. On different occasions the Rev. Mr. Heel had attended specialists, in the hope of getting rid of this troublesome infirmity, but with little or no result, and he had, therefore, with some sense of logic, come to the conclusion that his case belonged to the great category of those evils, which, being unsusceptible of remedy, must of necessity be endured in the best possible manner. But Hope can never be entirely eradicated from the human heart, and having some time ago heard repeatedly of the extraordinary results obtained by deaf people from the Drouet treatment, he decided to try once more and do away with the old nuisance. The success which attended his efforts was, indeed, most surprising, for the cure of his old complaint was attained in no more than twenty-one days from the commencement of the treatment, and proved, subsequently, to be absolutely final. It must, in truth, be said that, considering the old standing of the disease and the rapidity of the cure, this case stands as quite exceptional, the majority of the cures effected by the Drouet Institute taking on an average from thirty to fifty days' treatment, but it is by no means unique. We find, indeed, in the "Journal for the Deaf" several most interesting reports of cases of quite as long standing, in which the cure had been effected in a remarkably short time.

Among the features of the Drouet treatment which especially interest any person suffering from Deafness, Ear diseases, and Throat and Nose affections, is the admirable system by which one can receive advice and use the treatment successfully without leaving home. For all information, write to the Secretary of the Drouet Institute, 72, Regent's Park-road, London, England, who will answer such communications absolutely free of charge. A copy of the "Journal for the Deaf" can also be had gratis, and will be accompanied by a Pathological Report Form, which enables any patient to submit his or her case so clearly that the Consulting Physician can send accurate information of the treatment necessary to effect a cure.

PRIZES OFFERED.

Mr. E. A. Peck Will Give Books to Ashburnham Pupils.

The Ashburnham public school is again to profit by Mr. E. A. Peck's kindness. For the past two years he has given handsome prizes for spelling and arithmetic in various classes.

Next June he intends to repeat them, and will present a handsome volume to the pupil who comes highest in these two subjects combined, in each of the following classes; Junior Second, Senior Second, Junior Third and Senior Third, Junior Fourth and Senior Fourth.

The prizes will be awarded according to the showing made by the pupils in their monthly reports, and as these depend upon the result of the weekly examinations, (and in spelling upon daily tests), it can readily be seen that the successful pupils must attend regularly and work faithfully throughout the whole term.

Mr. J. W. Garvin, B.A., one of the newly-elected school trustees in the village, has presented to the Ashburnham public school a very handsome set of "Canada, an Encyclopaedia of the Country," in five large volumes.

The work is prepared by a corps of eminent writers and specialists and is edited by J. Castell Hopkins, the author of several well written books.

The school is to be congratulated on securing such an excellent work of reference for the pupils and teachers, and the hearty thanks of all concerned are due and tendered to Mr. Garvin for his liberality and public-spiritedness, thus so thoughtfully manifested.

Cured of Consumption

Mrs. Julia Sheffield Was so Reduced With Hemorrhage and Disease That She Only Had 50 Lbs. of Flesh on Her Bones.

Powley's Liquified Ozone Makes Her Well.

Mrs. Julia Sheffield, of Zephyr P. O., Scott Township, Ontario Co., Ont., wife of Joseph Sheffield, was cured of consumption, pulmonary tuberculosis by Powley's Liquified Ozone, after she had been given up to die. Her case had been regarded as completely hopeless. She had had a photograph taken of herself, husband and children so that her family should have something with which to remember her when she was gone. The pall bearers had even been selected. We present herewith her solemn declaration as to her cure:

Mrs. Sheffield's Solemn Declaration.

Dominion of Canada Province of Ontario, County of Ontario, To Wit:

In the matter of Julia Sheffield, of the Township of Scott, in the County of Ontario, and in the matter of her restoration to health.

I, Julia Sheffield, of the Township of Scott, in the County of Ontario, married woman, do solemnly declare that

On the 15th day of February, 1900, I was taken down with pneumonia and inflammation of the lungs and was in bed seven weeks, during the course of my illness I had profuse bleedings of the lungs and was unable to work and was in bad health all the following summer, and had an extreme cough and would cough for two and three hours at a time. On the 28th of June 1900, I moved into my father's house, Wm.

MRS. JULIA SHEFFIELD.

Woodruff, at Mt. Albert. About the 18th of August, 1900, I was forced to take my bed again and was in bed most of the time until the end of the year. About that time the attending physician told my father that there was not half a pound of flesh on my body and that it was impossible for me to recover and that it was only a matter of a short time until death would come. I was sinking rapidly every day. At this time I was taking creosote at the extent of sixty drops a day. I had four physicians attending me from the time I took sick until I commenced taking Ozone, and they each and all pronounced that I had consumption and could not recover.

I finally rallied and was able to get up and go around the house with assistance, but I was gradually sinking and my vitality was very low.

My husband had been advised to try Ozone, and one Sunday at the beginning of 1901, he purchased a 50c. bottle at Mount Albert and I commenced taking it at once. After taking the second bottle I began to improve and I have now taken 12 bottles and have gained in flesh at least 28 pounds. My health is almost completely restored and I look and feel as well as ever I did, and I fully believe that I am completely cured.

I am now back to my husband's home and doing my work as usual. My friends and neighbors are simply astounded to see me out and well again. I am glad to be able to recommend to suffering humanity the great Ozone that has cured me.

I have also recommended the Ozone to several of my friends, and I know of another young lady at Mount Albert who is taking it for consumption and she is getting better.

I fully believe that had it not been for Ozone I would have been in my grave to-day, and to Ozone and Ozone alone I attribute my cure and the enjoyment of health and comfort to-day, and I consider it a "God send" to suffering humanity.

And I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath, and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

(Sgd.) MRS. JULIA SHEFFIELD.

Declared before me at the Township of Scott, in the County of Ontario, this 6th day of May, A. D., 1901.

J. McCULLOUGH, Notary Public for Ontario.

Other Solemn Declarations.

Attesting declarations were received from her husband, Joseph Sheffield; her mother, Elizabeth Woodruff; her father, W. H. Woodruff; her sister, Ethel May Woodruff and her husband's employer, John R. Dunn. They all declare that Mrs. Sheffield was so ill with consumption that they regarded it only the matter of a very short time before she would die. They were all greatly astonished at her complete recovery—they would have been delighted with a temporary benefit and they believe Powley's Liquified Ozone to be a most extraordinary preparation. You can write any one of these good people—you will simply confirm what we tell you because these statements are all positive facts.

What Powley's Liquified Ozone Is.

Let us tell you what Powley's Liquified Ozone is and what its uses are. You can see by the foregoing case what it does. Ozone is a preparation of oxygen in fixed liquid form manufactured only by us, by a special process requiring twelve days. It supplies oxygen to the body—is blood food—creating a healthy condition of all the tissues. Ozone is a powerful antiseptic as effective and harmless internally as applied externally. It destroys the germs of disease—in that way it is especially valuable in consumption as it stops the germ attack and gives nature a chance to rebuild the broken lung tissues. Ozone forms healthy flesh—it is a great scientific discovery.

How You Can Use It.

We want you to know how valuable a preparation Ozone is for your own use. If you have consumption of an advanced type we need not give you any detailed advice—use it as did Mrs. Sheffield. If you have, however, any tendency to lung trouble, such as shortness of breath, continued cold on chest, bronchial affection, a bad cough you should be extremely careful and take Ozone regularly. It prevents the possibility of any serious trouble by stopping the ailment and restoring all the tissues to a state of good health. If you have any tendency to system weakness, such as languid feeling, no appetite, always tired, hoarseness in the morning have a care and take the Ozone as a preventive. You have no idea what great trouble you may be saving yourself—what benefit you are conferring on your body.

CAUSTIC GERSTER.

Comment the Singer Made on a Kiss That Patti Received.

While the rivalry between Patti and Gerster in San Francisco in 1884 was at its height it was made known that General Crittenden, governor of Missouri, had given Patti a kiss. Thereupon Mme. Patti was interviewed, when she spoke as follows:

"I had just finished singing 'Home, Sweet Home,' last Thursday evening when a nice looking old gentleman, who introduced himself as Governor Crittenden, began congratulating me. All of a sudden he leaned down, put his arms around me, drew me up to him and kissed me. He said, 'Mme. Patti, I may never see you again, but I cannot help it,' and before I knew it he was kissing me. When a gentleman, and such a nice old gentleman, too, and a governor of a great state, kisses one so quick that one has not time to see and no time to object, what can one do?"

The following dialogue on the subject between Mme. Gerster and a reporter who had interviewed her was afterward published:

Modest Reporter—I suppose, Mme. Gerster, you have heard about that kissing affair between Governor Crittenden and Patti?

Mme. Gerster—I have heard that Governor Crittenden kissed Patti before she had time to resist, but I don't see anything in that to create so much fuss.

Modest Reporter (interrogatively)—You don't?

Mme. Gerster—Certainly not. There is nothing wrong in a man kissing a woman old enough to be his mother.

A Mediæval Psychologist.

Professor Munsterberg of Harvard, whose specialty is psychology, relies to some extent on the point of a good story in enforcing his positions in abstract demonstration. He has one on the association of ideas that will illustrate. A mediæval magician—more accurately called "fakir" nowadays—announced that he had invented and had for sale a magic pot. If certain rather common stones were mixed and placed in the pot, with a certain portion of water, and the whole shaken diligently for an hour, the stones would turn to gold provided that during the hour the operator should not think of a hippopotamus. The fakir sold a great many for fabulous sums, and not one of the purchasers ever demanded a return of the money. The fakir knew his business. He was in advance of his age in psychology, in his skill in permanently fixing in his customer's minds the association of that old pot and a hippopotamus.

THE ENGINEER'S FINGER.

It Nearly Caused the Blowing Up of His Locomotive.

"The closest I ever came to blowing her up," said the engineer, "was when I was firing on the C. and J. for Bill Johnson. It was my first trip on the engine. I had been braking before that, and I knew Johnson by reputation. They said he was the hardest on his firemen of any engineer on the road. He just kept them throwing in coal all the time, they said, and needed a fresh man every other trip. I didn't know whether they were telling the truth about him, but when I was told to go out with him I made up my mind that he wouldn't do me up. If he wanted her kept hot, I would keep her sizzling if I had to melt the grate bars.

"Johnson, I soon found, was a man who had little to say to his fireman. He looked like a man who expected the work to be done to his liking without having to do much talking about it. He told me when we met on the engine that it was the duty of the fireman to keep up steam, and he showed me the steam gauge. I was to keep my eyes on that. I knew that much myself, but I suppose he thought it was necessary to tell me. He said nothing more to me, and I said nothing to him. But how he did make me sweat!

"He sat on his box, with his hand on the throttle, looking out of the window, and every time I looked up his first finger was pointing at the steam gauge dial. I bent my back and poked and shoveled and shoveled and poked. The indicator was creeping around the face of the dial, and about the time I thought I had steam enough on to satisfy him and would straighten up for a breathing spell I would see him still with his hand on the throttle and his finger pointing at the dial. I was getting mad, and I can work like blazes when I'm mad. I wanted him to say something to me. If he had, I would have whipped him right there and quit the road.

"But when he wouldn't give me a chance to pick a fight there was nothing for me to do but work. I saw that a lot of steam was going to waste, and I just hung one of my hooks on the valve to keep it down. Then I did send her up. I didn't know how much the boiler would stand and didn't care. That was Johnson's affair. I kept my eye on his finger, and when I saw it pointing at the dial I poked and shoveled. I could never get him to look at me. He was staring ahead every time I stopped long enough to look at him, and he had his hand on the throttle and that finger still pointing at the dial. I settled myself down at last to either give him enough steam or blow her up. I was melting the steel about the firebox when I heard a yell.

"'You blankety blank,' Johnson cried, 'what do you mean? Another minute and you would have blown us up!'

"'I intended to,' I retorted, 'or make you take down that finger.'

"'You confounded ass,' shouted Johnson, 'don't you know that that's a stiff finger?'"

Why Mountains Never Grow Smaller.

The mountains are always moving down into the valleys. When springtime comes, every stream will run muddy in its course. At this rate all the soil from the hills would soon be gone were not this soil being constantly replaced. Water soaks into the crevices of the rocks, and when it freezes it swells with almost irresistible force. That a very little of it can crack an iron pipe most of us have found out to our cost. Thus the rock is split, and the pieces made in this way are again broken into finer and finer fragments until new soil is made to take the place of that which is so rapidly moving down to the lowlands. —Professor S. C. Schmucker in Ladies' Home Journal.

Extreme Case of Nervousness.

Female Weakness and Exhaustion—Had a Very Painful Operation—Was Pale and Weak and Fainted Often—Doctors Failed to Help her.

There is scarcely a limit to the sufferings which women endure when their nervous system become run down and give way beneath the burdens which they are forced to bear. There are ills peculiar to women, which in nine cases out of ten are the result of a low state of vitality and a depletion of nerve force. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food cures women of their ills, irregularities and weaknesses by thoroughly restoring the vigour of the nerves.

Every woman will read with interest the following letter from a lady who has been cured of a serious illness by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. She says the testimonials she reads are not half strong enough.

Mrs. Benjamin Hatfield, Hillyard street, St. Johns, N.B., writes: "For three years I was a sufferer from extreme nervousness and female weakness and found it necessary to undergo a very painful operation. I was pale and weak, had no appetite and would sometimes faint two or three times a day. For seven weeks I was under the doctor's care but he seemed unable to help me. Despairing of recovery, I took the advice of a friend, who told me that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food would build me up and make me strong and well again. After four months' use of this preparation I found myself greatly improved, but continued the treatment for one year, using in all sixteen boxes. I have been blessed with a young daughter now, and believe that I am as strong and well as ever in my life. As a result I cannot say too much in favour of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It has performed a complete and thorough cure in my case, and I am healthier and fleshier than I have been for years. The testimonials I see are not half strong enough. I tell my friends and neighbours about it, and many of them join me in pronouncing Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the most effective restorative obtainable. Desiring that other sufferers may benefit by my happy experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I willingly give you permission to use this testimonial."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an up-to-date, scientific preparation of most extraordinary merit. It has proven itself the most effective nerve restorative of the age. It is certain to benefit everyone who uses it, because it forms new red corpuscles in the blood and creates new nerve force. It is especially efficacious in the cures of female ills and weaknesses; 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 9

EASY TO FIND

When you find a medicine that makes your regular food taste good, when you find a medicine that strengthens a weak stomach—then you know you're going to put some flesh on.

Scott's Emulsion does these things. We recommend it whenever the system needs more flesh. If you are thin and able to eat begin regular doses. That's your part. Scott's Emulsion will do the rest. Not flabby—but solid flesh.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

SIR HENRY AND THE CABBY.

Brooklyn John Gets a Notion That the Actor Is Crazy.

Sir Henry Irving, while filling his Brooklyn engagement, made his home at the Hotel Margaret on Columbia Heights, and it was his custom every pleasant afternoon to drive in Prospect Park, writes the New York correspondent of The London Express.

One afternoon the driver came with the usual vehicle—a closed carriage—and set out ignorant of the fact that the spare, silk-hatted old gentleman who had climbed in was the distinguished actor.

In what seemed to be a very short time for an afternoon outing the carriage returned, and cabby came into the office looking much concerned. With the air of one imparting grave news, and, jerking his thumb over his shoulder in the direction whither Sir Henry had disappeared, he said to the clerk:

"The old lad is dotty. Shortly after we got into the park I heard a groaning inside, then I heard the words: 'Hates any man the thing he would not kill.' At that I drove out and brought him back as quickly as possible. He was a kind-lookin' old gent, too, but I didn't like that kind of talk!"

Here is a Pointer.

Because you haven't used Catarrhozone is the best reason why you should use it right away. It will cure the Catarrh that makes your breath so heavy and your hearing so poor. Catarrhozone is a scientific cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Asthma, recommended by doctors and druggists as a certain cure. Mr. Henry A. Taylor, the oldest druggist in Halifax, says, "Catarrhozone gives satisfaction wherever it goes. It is simple and convenient to use, and enjoys fully three times the sale of any other Catarrh remedy sold in the city." Catarrhozone is guaranteed to cure, and if it fails you can have your money returned. Price $1.00 for two months' treatment. Small size 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

No one has Won the Money.

The $1000 reward offered by Merrill, the Brantford Druggist, for a better cure for habitual constipation than Merrill's System Tonic has not yet been won. Besides its wonderful tonic action on the liver and intestines it is a pleasant and powerful blood purifier, thus curing all nervous affections such as sleeplessness, loss of vigour and twitching of the nerves. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50c. Sold by Ormond & Walsh.

MERIDIAN OF GREENWICH.

An English Town Which Is the Headquarters of Father Time.

Greenwich, as an English town, is nothing very remarkable, but as the headquarters of Father Time it is the most important spot on the earth. Its time is in every longitude of the globe, and every land, excepting Spain, Portugal and Russia, measures the hours from its meridian. No navigator on duty is without Greenwich time in sight, and every town and geographical point is known by its distance east or west from the Greenwich observatory.

Ask the time, and the answer is always in even hours ahead or behind Greenwich or else the exact Greenwich time. In Great Britain, Belgium and Holland you get the Greenwich time. One hour before Greenwich time rules in Germany, Austria-Hungary, Denmark, Italy, Sweden, Norway and Switzerland.

Two hours ahead of Greenwich is adopted in Bulgaria, Roumania and Turkey in Europe. Eight hours ahead of Greenwich applies in the Philippines. Nine hours before the Greenwich time is used in Australia.

Ten hours ahead of Greenwich is official in Victoria, Queensland and Tasmania. The United States, Canada and Mexico have adopted the fifth, seventh and eighth hours after.

So it is around the earth—every tick of every clock regulated by Greenwich time.

Burro Punching Profanity.

In his book "A Day With a Tramp and Other Days" Walter Wyckoff tells the following story of profanity and burro punching in the west:

"The burros plainly shared the feeling of relief in reaching a more passable region, and the art of burro punching began consequently to disclose its difficulties.

"They were most difficult to manage at the fords. Generally they scattered to the four winds at the first approach to water, and when we had corralled them again and forced them down to the brink they would stand calmly, planted ankle deep in the stream, resolutely determined not to move.

"It was then that Price gave vent to real profanity, and I am bound to own that it was effective. When beating and prodding and the milder invective failed to urge the burros forward, Price would stand back, pale with rage, and begin to swear, calling upon all his gods and blasting the reputation of his beasts unto the third and fourth generation of their ancestors.

"By some subtle perception they seemed to understand that this meant business, and slowly at first, but presently, as though they rather enjoyed the water, they waded through and started down the trail beyond."

Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Cutting.

A Scotch lawyer was well reproved when, seated by a lady fully aware of her own plain looks, having bowed to his hostess in giving the toast, "Honest Men and Bonnie Lasses," she rejoined, raising her own glass, "We may both drink that toast, since it refers to neither of us."

Consumption

A cure that cures Consumption and its many kindred ailments is now within the reach of every sufferer. PUL-MO was perfected after many years of study and experimenting by a well-known German scientist, and has effected more cures than any other preparation which has been offered to the public. PUL-MO, while somewhat new in Canada, has been and is curing thousands of cases, and we have on file many testimonials and kindly letters written us by grateful people who have been returned to perfect health.

PUL-MO is the only absolute cure where there is Consumption, Throat and Lung trouble, Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Night Sweats, Chills, Fevers, or any other symptoms which may indicate a tendency toward consumption. PUL-MO has cured thousands of cases which had been treated by physicians without success, and finally pronounced by them as hopeless.

PUL-MO stands alone—the use of any other medicine as an assistant is not necessary. Eat good plain nourishing food, get plenty of fresh air and out-door exercise, and use PUL-MO as directed, that is all—Nature will do the rest.

Large Sample FREE

We know positively that it does all we claim, and to demonstrate our implicit faith in the merits of PUL-MO, we will gladly mail a sample bottle free of charge, direct to your post-office address, securely sealed in a patent mailing tube or box; but as we have gone to considerable expense in securing these mailing tubes for the convenience of our patrons, we ask you to send 10 cents to cover the cost of mailing. Only one sample of PUL-MO will be sent to any one person. Give PUL-MO a trial and convince yourself that it cures. All we ask is, that you take it as directed. PROLOG TO HENLY'S NEW BOOK.

Thanks to the glory and praise of the green land
That fired my women, and that holds my dead,
England, and with her the strong broods that stand
Wherever her fighting line are thrust or spread!
They call us proud?—Look at our English Rose!
Shedders of blood?—Where hath our own been spared?
Shopkeepers?—Our account the high God knows,
Close?—In our bounty half the world hath shared.
They hate us, and they envy?—Envy and hate
Should drive them to the Pit's edge?—Be it so!
That race is damned which miscounteems its fate:
And this, in God's good time, they all shall know,
And know you, too, you good green England, then—
Mother of mothering girls and governing men!

SNUBBED MARIE CORELLI.

How an English Schoolmistress Rebuked the Novelist.

A correspondent who has been visiting Shakespeare's town writes that Miss Marie Corelli figures by no means among the least of the local attractions at Stratford-on-Avon. She has quite a large establishment and her carriage and coachmen are much observed when she drives about. The townspeople do not seem to take her very seriously. She is talked of as being "queer," a literary person whose ways are naturally a little unconventional.

When Miss Corelli made her home in Stratford-on-Avon, she was then at work on "The Master Christian," published last year. To her vexation, she found that the house next to hers was occupied as a private school. It appears that at a certain hour in the day, when she was most engrossed in her work, the classes would be up for calisthenics, and the disturbance became very annoying to Miss Corelli. She wrote to the schoolmistress and, informing her that she was at work on a masterpiece of literature, which she hoped to give to the world in a few months, requested her to change the distracting hour of noisy exercise to one that would be more convenient to her. Miss Corelli received in effect the following reply by return:

"Dear Madam—I beg to remind you that my school was here before you made your home in this town and that I cannot change the hour of the exercises as you suggest, not even to further the important work upon which you are engaged. Indeed I may say that if your masterpiece is to be at all like the works which you have already written anything I can do to prevent its publication will be regarded by me as a blessing to the world."

The King and One Barnes.

An old story of the King. When — as Prince of Wales—he visited America in 1859, it was inevitable that all good Americans should wish to have speech with him. Now, at a place called Natick, not many miles from Boston, there lived one Barnes, who kept a hotel. Barnes was a good-natured fellow with a bad stammer, and was the butt of the practical jokes of such wags as there were in Natick. On the eve of the big parade in Boston, he announced his intention of going to see the Prince.

"Whatever for?" said one of his friends. "You won't get near him, and ten to one you won't so much as get a glimpse of him."

"I'll b-b-b-et ten dollars that I'll g-g-et right up to him and t-t-talk to him, t-t-too," stammered Barnes, greatly daring.

The bet was taken there and then, a committee was appointed to go to Boston with Barnes to see fair, and next morning he was piloted by its members to the city and up to the ropes which had been stretched to keep back the crowd. They could see the Prince, but a squad of police prevented all outsiders from getting anywhere near him. Yet Mr. Barnes simply murmured:

"W-w-w-ait a minute." As he spoke, the beautiful black horse which had been picked for the Prince's riding was led up. He was very fresh—too fresh, as the sequel proved—but the grooms quieted him down well enough for the Prince — then little more than a boy — to mount safely. But scarcely was he seated, when the horse began to plunge and rear very violently, so that the Prince was unseated, landing on all fours on the turf. There was the wildest excitement in the part of the crowd nearest at hand, and the police lost control—and Mr. Barnes' opportunity came. He dodged under the ropes, and was the first to grab the bridle of the riderless horse.

The Prince quickly rose and limped to the horse's head, while all circled round to see if he were badly hurt.

"Your horsce is feeling p-p-pretty good to-day, P-p-prince," remarked Barnes as the Prince came up.

"A little too good," was the terse reply.

Still holding the bridle, Barnes turned to the "committee," who were craning over the ropes, watching the incident with an excitement that had driven all thought of the ridiculous wager out of their heads.

"I guess I'll take that t-t-ten dollars now!" he shouted.

Lowering Glasgow's Death Rate.

Twenty-five years ago there was in central Glasgow a great accumulation of narrow streets, dismal lanes and filthy closes, "where disease and death held high carnival and vice and crime lifted their heads unabashed." But special acts of parliament have been obtained, and the larger portion of this district has been reconstructed, and the remainder is being dealt with. As a result, the death rate, which in 1876 was 27.4 per 1,000 is now 21.1 per 1,000 for the whole town. The death rate of the central district was 40 per 1,000, and it is still 30 per 1,000.

Blood Disorders

are simply kidney disorders. The kidneys filter the blood of all that shouldn't be there. The blood passes through the kidneys every three minutes. If the kidneys do their work no impurity or cause of disorder can remain in the circulation longer than that time. Therefore if your blood is out of order your kidneys have failed in their work. WASP WAISTS

Are not much in evidence among American women. The women of America are workers, and a weak waist handicaps a worker. But woman has a greater handicap than a weak waist. She may have a perfect form, beautiful and strong in all its lines, and yet be weak because her strength is undermined by diseases peculiar to her sex.

There is no room for argument as to the weakening effect of these diseases. There is also no room for argument as to the power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to cure them. It regulates the periods, stops unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It is a purely vegetable preparation, and cannot disagree with the weakest constitution. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all narcotics.

Sick women suffering from chronic forms of female diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free, and so obtain the invaluable advice of a specialist in the diseases of women. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. [illegible] Buffalo, N. Y.

"I cannot tell how grateful I am for your kind advice and good medicines," writes Mrs. John Cooke, Hastings, Northumberland Co., Ontario. "I had been in poor health for four years back, and this spring got so bad I could not do my work. I went to the doctor and he said I had ulceration and falling of the internal organs, but I thought I would try your 'Favorite Prescription.' I took five bottles and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and I can safely say that I never felt better in my life. I have spoken well of your medicines wherever I have been."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the liver healthy. They assist the action of "Favorite Prescription" when a laxative is required.

HEROISM AT A FIRE.

The Result When Neither Girl Would Climb Down First.

Not long ago a hotel was partially burned and was the scene of some sensational escapes as well as of more than one death. A young woman was telling of her experiences on that night, when she and a friend occupied a room on the third floor. They had been talking until a late hour, when they were startled by the cry of "Fire!" "We jumped up," said the girl, "and rushed to the door. Flames filled the corridor. The elevator shaft and the fire escapes were quite cut off from us, and nothing remained for the people on our side but to use the windows. As Kate and I stared out at the red glow in horror one or two people passed the windows, letting themselves down by the ropes. We looked out at them, dazed for a moment, and the crowd below shouted, 'Don't jump!' Then my brain cleared. I am pretty good at climbing, and somehow the idea of my being injured never entered my head. I said to Kate: 'Quick! Take the rope and let yourself down!' Kate turned to me and said quietly, but firmly: 'I am stronger than you. You go first.'

"'I won't,' said I, with insinuating contempt. 'You know I can always take care of myself.'

"'I shan't go first,' said Kate.

"Then we both lost our tempers. 'Kate,' I said, 'your chief fault always was obstinacy.'

"'Oh,' said she in withering scorn, 'and you're not at all obstinate, staying up here to burn!'

"One form after another passed the window. The flames shone brighter than ever. I was furious at Kate and she at me. We shook our fists at each other. The crowd shouted, 'Don't jump!' and I shrieked back at them: 'I'm not going to jump, you idiots! It's Kate's fault!'

"Really, when I think of the names we called each other, standing there with death creeping closer every moment, I blush. The crowd yelled frantically. 'I won't go first!' I shouted at Kate.

"'I won't stir an inch!' she shrieked at me.

"'Then we'll die!' I cried melodramatically.

"'Don't be a fool! Take the rope!' she yelled.

"'No!' I shouted. Just then there was a great shove at the door, and the firemen shouted in the corridor, 'It's all out!' Kate and I fell into each other's arms hysterically. We vowed never to speak of our idiocy, but we have a sense of humor, and so we've both told the story of our heroism."

Shaking Hands.

At a duel the combatants discharged their pistols without effect, whereupon one of the seconds interfered and proposed that the duelists should shake hands.

To this the other second objected as unnecessary.

"Their hands," said he, "have been shaking this half hour."

The Return Trip.

Captain—Oh, yes; but they always go back in the first cabin.

Burdock Blood Bitters.

CURES SCROFULA.

Mrs. James Carr, Umfraville, Hastings Co., Ont., says: "My little boy, two and a half years old, was in a terrible condition and suffered a great deal from scrofulous sores. My husband bought a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters for him and gave it to him, and by the time he had finished the second bottle there was not a sore to be seen. On account of this wonderful cure I can honestly recommend B.B.B. to all who suffer from any disease arising from bad blood.

CURES BOILS.

Mr. Oliver J. Murray, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes as follows: "About six months ago I was troubled with painful boils, for which I could get nothing to cure me. As a last resort I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle completely rid me of boils, and my health was never better than at present.

Economical.

A good story is related of an English theatrical manager who, by thrift and hard work, had amassed a fortune.

Previous to the production of one play the stage carpenters had to repair a trap, and the head carpenter went to the manager and informed him that it could not be done in the dark.

"Well, lad, thee won't have t' gas," answered the manager. "Here, tak' this and buy a candle."

And he handed him a halfpenny.

The carpenter pleaded that they wanted two in order to get sufficient light.

"How long will t' job tak' thee?" asked the manager.

"About ten minutes," was the reply.

"Then cut t' candle in two," was the answer. "Thee won't have any more money."

An Emerson Thought.

He who knows that power is in the soul, that he is weak only because he has looked for good out of him and elsewhere and, so perceiving, throws himself unhesitatingly on his thought, instantly rights himself, stands in the erect position, commands his limbs, works miracles, just as a man who stands on his feet is stronger than a man who stands on his head.

"Commence" or "Begin."

Commence or begin? The best writers, and the best speakers, also, prefer "begin" to "commence" for all everyday purposes. The reason for this preference is not, as some have said, that "begin" is older, for "commence" is of very respectable antiquity; nor is it, as others have said, that "begin" is of Anglo-Saxon origin, for words of French or of Latin origin that have been fully adopted into our language are just as good English as native words. It is rather that "begin" has the strength of simplicity, whereas "commence" has fallen into disrepute from being associated with the cheap finery of writing.—Elizabeth A. Withey in Ladies' Home Journal.

International Inquiry.

"Why do you English people insist on calling an elevator a 'lift' and a pie a 'tart?'" inquired the young woman.

"Really," answered the young man who came over to get married, "I can't say. I was about to ask you why so many people here call a lift an 'elevator' and a tart a 'pie.'"

FUN FOR THE DINNER TABLE

Suggestions by Which a Hostess Can "Make" Conversation.

A hostess always finds that it requires more tact to keep the ball of conversation rolling while her guests are at table than any other time. The following suggestions may prove of value as an ice breaker:

To each guest give a card on one side of which is a dainty pen and ink sketch of some vegetable, an artistic bunch of celery, lettuce or fruit. On the opposite side have the heading:

"HOW SOME OTHER PEOPLE ATE."

Below have the following statements, the descriptions to be answered by words ending in "ate:"

No. 1 never ate alone—Associate.
No. 2 never ate with his superiors—Subordinate.
No. 3 ate very daintily—Delicate.
No. 4 ate in the most lusty way—Invigorate.
No. 5 ate like somebody else—Imitate.
No. 6 ate so that he constantly grew worse—Deteriorate.
No. 7 ate in high places—Elevate.
No. 8 ate in a way that compelled attention—Fascinate.
No. 9 ate with other representatives—Delegate.
No. 10 ate with the politicians—Candidate.
No. 11 never ate today what he could leave until tomorrow—Procrastinate.
No. 12 ate so that his food was well chewed—Masticate.
No. 13 ate more than was necessary—Exaggerate.
No. 14 was always the last one to eat—Terminate.—What to Eat.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

Her Opportunity.

Kate—Well, I got my revenge on Laura, after all.

Alice—How so?

Kate—She let me trim a hat for her.

Selfish.

Mrs. Keyboard (in drawing room of hotel)—Why do you always sit at the piano? You can't play a note.

Old Stokes—Neither can any one else while I'm here.

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS . . .

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The shades of night were beginning to lower before the last act was played, and many of the boys had gone down to tea, not caring to remain any longer on deck. The boys slept well that night for they hadn't indulged to that extent to cause swelled heads, horrifying dreams or awe inspiring hallucinations. The long voyage was drawing to a close with, fortunately, not a fatality to record among contingent or crew. We were, as it were, exiles, completely isolated roaming the great desert of waters, sailing on day and night we know not where. There were no landmarks to tell us where we were. But it was not at all imperative that we should know, for latitude and longitude with the Southern Cross and other constellations guide the mariner who had learned to navigate the trackless sea, by carefully consulting these and properly devised charts; his most reliable friend is his compass. How accurate are the guides of the sea-rover, when he can leave one port and sail for a month of days and nights over thousands of miles of sea and without miscalculating by a hair's breadth almost, steer his vessel into the long-looked-for haven. Early in the morning of the 21st we sighted the coast of Africa, and as the day advanced the continent became more clearly visible. About three o'clock in the afternoon, Table Mountain loomed up on the horizon, and at exactly 5.05 p.m. cast anchor in Table Bay. Making no allowance for any discrepancy in time, we were exactly one month to a minute sailing in Atlantic waters, for you will remember that we left Halifax on Wednesday, February 21st at 5.05 p.m., and on Wednesday, March 21st, landed in Cape Town at 5.05 p.m. Travelling by water is not like travelling by land in more respects than one. On the latter, if a railway train be the means of conveyance, you can rush into the depot with lightning speed, tarry a few minutes, and hustle on again, but on the former you travel slowly, cast anchor in the harbour, and wait your turn to enter the docks. Each vessel at the Cape is only allowed twenty-four hours to land her passengers and cargo, and when the last minute has elapsed she must move out and leave room for others, or pay heavily for the privilege of unloading the remainder. Most of us were unfamiliar with marine laws, and expected to sail right into the docks and land at once. You may imagine our surprise on being told that there were four other transports in ahead of us, and in consequence would be obliged to remain where we were for ninety-six hours. These four days affected us more than a whole week's sailing, for we fairly yearned to be on shore and were at that moment only a short distance from it. Had the walking not been so soft and moist, I don't knowbut some of us would have ventured reaching it in that manner, but as it was we very wisely demurred. When we had cast anchor a small steam yacht that glided around the bay like a revenue cutter, came alongside, and a gangway being lowered a number of officers, war correspondents and a newsboy came on board. We were simply famished for news, and to appease our mental craving made no hesitation in paying a shilling for a penny daily. This was the newsboy's harvest, and having no competition, he set his own price on his wares, and got it, too. He was like the Tommies on Greenpoint Camp ground, I presume. These fellows frequently came over to our lines, and were amazed to see every one of us possessing a sovereign or two. They never had such a thing themselves, in many cases, and when they returned to their own lines, it was made the subject of much comment. Some said the "Bloody Canadians" were made of gold, which was not literally true. However, the boy sold his papers, and we paid the piper. After a careful perusal of its printed pages the truth dawned upon us that we had "paid too much for our whistles," for there was far more war news in any little rural paper in Canada, due, I suppose, to the strict censorship at the Cape, which suppressed the publication of important despatches, on account of its proximity to the seat of war. In style the Oriental paper bears more analogy to those of Great Britain than to the American; the front page being entirely devoted to advertisements. The next evening this same little black urchin came to us as he was going his rounds among the transports, but because some of the boys thoughtlessly uttered some sinister remarks about his complexion, he refused to sell us a single copy! It was quite a rebuff to us, too. Just imagine! We who had sailed out of the enlightened Western Hemisphere, where there is so much intelligence, must be taught such a forcible lesson in decorum and social etiquette by a little black Kaffir boy — a native of the Dark Continent! Soldiers, indeed, as a general thing, need a series of such lessons, for they rarely know what to say, or when to say it. Possibly the fellow who made the remark was one of the "happy-go-luckies," who believe in doing as Rome does in Rome. Nothing is more absurd. You may win friends or associates by practicing this folly, and gain popularity among certain classes, but we should never sacrifice character and reputation for popularity. Be men of principle, stability, and have the courage to stand by honest, upright convictions, and the so-called inhabitants of Rome will respect you just as much as though you debase yourself to win their approbation. Be a soldier and a man—every inch a man, and not a weather vane. Some fellows seem to imagine when they are in uniform they are beyond all social and moral restraint; have a full and free license to indulge in every kind of sport, legitimate or illegitimate and make no hesitation in sacrificing their own character and reputation and that of their corps to gratify their own insatiable and selfish lusts. Leave such things in the nursery, and let some grandmother defend them with her knitting needles, for they are too puny morally to withstand even the most gentle evil zephyr. If an older soldier smokes, the young recruit must smoke; if the former drinks, the latter must drink, and generally gets intoxicated on two tooth-picks and a cigarette. They are really as good imitators as monkeys, but apparently seldom copy after a sensible veteran. How long are such fellows going to persist in maligning our reputation and continue to drag their colours through the gutters of disgrace? Be men, not imitations!

THE IMPERIAL LIFE

Another Most Successful Year Added to the Company's Record.

Substantial Increases in Every Department Mark the Opening Year of the Twentieth Century.

Toronto, January 17th. — The annual meeting of the Imperial Life Assurance Company of Canada was held to-day, its president, Hon. Sir Oliver Mowat, Lieut.-Governor, in the chair. A few days ago at the opening of the legislature His Honour congratulated the province upon the abundant evidences of prosperity throughout the land. In his presidential address to-day he stated that he had the gratification of congratulating the Imperial Life Assurance Company upon its marked and substantial progress. The report submitted evidenced that the company has again added another successful year to its unexcelled record. New life insurance applications, amounting to $3,974,000 were received. The number of policies issued exceeded that of any previous year, and the amount thereof was considerably in excess of that for 1900. The more important items in the statement, compared with those for 1900, are as follows:

	1900	1901	Increase	Po.
1. Total insurance in force	$9,236,550	$11,236,700	$2,010,350	21.8
2. Total Assets	1,102,092	1,330,804	237,712	2.16
3. Reserves on Policies and Annuities	507,488	708,785	201,297	33.7
4. Annual Premium Income	319,900	395,170	75,310	23.5
5. Annual Income from Interest on Investments	30,273	53,502	17,229	47.5
6. Total Annual Income	356,133	448,672	92,530	26.0
7. Benefits Paid and accrued to Policyholders	43,794	79,021	35,227	80.4

Concluding, Sir Oliver said: — "A volume of new business, almost $4,000,000, was transacted, which indicates that both the management and the agency staff have been very efficient. The fact that the number of applications rejected was unusually large, and that the death losses have been less than were expected, show that much care has been exercised by the medical department in the selection of lives. The company's funds, now amounting to $1,339,804, have been carefully invested by the executive, as attested by the fact that the company has never lost a dollar through an investment; that no investment causes the company the least anxiety and that the average rate of interest earned during 1901 was 5.39 per cent. The net addition of over $2,000,000 to the total assurances increases that item to the $11,236,700 in force on Dec. 31, 1901, and proves the satisfactory character of the business secured by the company. The method employed in determining the reserves is an index that the directors are determined that the company's motto: "First, and Paramount, Absolute Security to Policy-Holders," shall be a reality. I am therefore confidently enabled to say, in moving the adoption of the report that all essentials to the upbuilding of a strong, progressive and substantial company are embodied in the Imperial Life."

The First Vice-President, Mr. A. E. Ames, who followed, said, "The Imperial's progress would best be gathered from the following comparisons taken from recent annual reports:

Period.	Insurance in force.	Premium income.	Interest income.
1897	$1,185,725	$ 38,309	$10,937
1898	4,169,125	117,897	12,464
1899	7,142,625	218,827	27,403
1900	9,236,550	315,784	36,272
1901	11,236,700	395170	53,502

Period.	Total income.	Assets	Reserves for policies and annuities.
1897	$ 43,787	$ 340,479	$ 38,426
1898	130,352	677,061	180,761
1899	243,233	930,443	441,112
1900	351,906	1,102,092	547,488
1901	448,672	1,339,804	708,785

The figures certainly indicate that the Imperial Life has made rapid and steady progress. In every one of the above six cardinal items each year shows a handsome advance, more especially with regard to Reserves for Policies and Annuities."

TO BE SHOT SATURDAY

Lord Kitchner Confirms Scheepers' Death Sentence.

MYSTERIOUS BOER MEETINGS

Continental Enemies of Great Britain Are Very Active—Said to Be Peace in the Air, But Dr. Leyds and Kruger Hard to Persuade—Charges Against Boer Commandant Kritzinger.

Graf-Reinet, Cape Colony, Jan. 19.—Lord Kitchener has confirmed the death sentence passed upon the Boer, Commandant Scheepers, who was captured last October. He will be shot next Saturday.

Mysterious Boer Meetings.

Brussels, Jan. 20.—Dr. Leyds, the European representative of the Transvaal, and the Boer delegates met again yesterday at some mysterious rendezvous. Dr. Leyds now denies himself to everybody.

It is asserted that Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch Premier, on his return to The Hague from London had a conference with Mr. Wolmarans, one of the Boer delegates, who sent another delegate to consult with Mr. Kruger, and that another meeting will be held next Monday.

In spite of Boer denials, a strong feeling exists here that some peace movement is afoot between Great Britain and the Boer delegates, but that there is difficulty in arriving at any acceptable basis of terms, Mr. Kruger and Dr. Leyds being reluctant to commit themselves.

It is declared in Boer circles here that a number of Englishmen, supposed to be officials of the British Government, arrived at The Hague under assumed names last Saturday and were later visited and entertained at dinner by the British Minister here.

Kritzinger Charged With Murder.

Cape Town, Jan. 19.—The Boer Commandant, Kritzinger, who was captured at Hanover Road, Cape Colony, about a month ago, is charged with four murders, in addition to train wrecking and cruelty to prisoners.

Kritzinger was one of the most successful Boer leaders in guerilla warfare in Cape Colony. It is asserted by some that he is really a Cape rebel and therefore a British subject and as such deserves the fate of Commandant Lotter, another Cape rebel, who was hanged last October.

On Christmas Eve The Paris Rappel printed a despatch from Durban, Natal, stating that Gen. Louis Botha, the Boer commander-in-chief, was holding five British officers and had notified Lord Kitchener that if Kritzinger was sentenced to death they would be shot.

Col. Doran's Success.

Cape Town, Jan. 19.—Col. Doran's column attacked Wessel's commando, twenty-four miles from Richmond, Cape Colony, last night. One Boer was killed and six others were captured. Three natives and a number of horses were also taken.

Four Boers Captured.

Ladybrand, Orange River Colony, Jan. 19.—Small bodies of Boers have made many attempts lately to break through the line of posts and get into the southeastern district. On Thursday three separate attempts of this kind were repulsed. Col. Balfin's column, which is operating near Ficksburg, captured four Boers on Thursday. Col. Delisle has driven Commandant Maras' forces toward Doornberg.

The Basutos Impressed.

Maseru, Basutoland, Jan. 19.—The Basutos continue to be greatly impressed with the resolution of the British Government in conducting the war.

It is difficult to satisfy the demands for labor from the Johannesburg and Kimberley mines from here, owing to the large number of Basutos being already employed as drivers and leaders with the British fighting columns.

It was faund necessary during the clearing operations in the northeast of the Orange River column to burn all the native huts and grain and to commandeer their cattle, the leaders of the British columns giving receipts and sending the natives into the refuge camps. Since the line of blockhouses has been maintained from Bloomfontein to the Basutoland border, large quantities of grain have been going through. Wheat and mealies are here in great quantities awaiting rail transport. The crops now being reaped are the best on record. There is, roughly speaking, £2,000,000 worth of wheat now in this country, all available for the Government.

Col. Lynch Stays in Paris.

Paris, Jan. 20.—Col. Arthur Lynch, the recently elected member of the House of Commons for Galway City, who is said to have fought on the side of the Boers in South Africa, in an interview denied that he had tried to go to England for the opening of Parliament. Col. Lynch said he had not left Paris, for the good reason that he appreciated the fact that he would not be allowed to reach his goal—the House of Commons. Col. Lynch added that his future movements would be governed by the counsels of the Irish party, in which he has every confidence, and by the wishes of his constituents.

Transvaal resolutions, approving Great Britain's conduct of the war in South Africa, and Mr. Chamberlain's refutations of foreign slanders. The mention of Mr. Chamberlain's name evoked cheers. One speaker declared that if Germany were an enemy of England, she was an enemy of New Zealand. The colony would send its last man to end the Boer war by enforcing unconditional surrender.

WELCOMED THEIR PASTOR.

Venerable Archdeacon Casey of Peterborough,

Met at the Station Saturday Morning by Leading Members of St. Mary's Congregation.

From the Lindsay Post.

Venerable Archdeacon Casey, recently appointed rector of St. Mary's church, by His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, arrived from Peterborough Saturday morning on the 9 o'clock express, accompanied by Rev. Dr. O'Brien, of the Cathedral clergy. They were met at the station by twenty or more of the prominent members of the congregation, and escorted to the Presbytery, where St. Mary's new pastor received the hearty greetings of the members of the deputation representing the congregation. Venerable Archdeacon Casey returned thanks in a neat speech, saying he had heard much concerning the piety, loyalty and generosity of the people of St. Mary's, and the warmth of his reception went to establish the correctness of the information.

ANOTHER PNEUMONIA VICTIM.

The Death of Herb W. Pentland, Occon January 8th After a Brief Illness.

The following obituary appears in the Prescott Arizona, Weekly Journal-Miner:

Sadness again pervades the community, while overshadowing grief and sorrow prevails in one home, occasioned by the death this morning of Herb. W. Pentland. A week ago, and even less than that, he was in the hey day of youth, with hopes and ambitions all centered in the future, to-day his body lies an "inanimate object, clad in its death robes ready for the tomb."

He had been suffering for two or three weeks with a cold which he seemed unable to break, and on Friday afternoon symptoms of pneumonia made their appearance, and he took to his bed and was attended by two physicians who did everything that medical skill could suggest. It was realized from the first that his condition was serious as the disease had fastened itself with a firm grasp upon his system. His condition remained about the same until yesterday afternoon when a slight change for the better seemed to take place. It proved only ephemeral, however, as towards night his symptoms grew worse and continued until death occurred as stated at the above hour.

H. W. Pentland came to Prescott several years ago, with his parents, when but a mere boy and grew to manhood here and was universally esteemed and respected by all who knew him. He entered the drug store of W. W. Ross and learned the business with him, remaining in his employ until the latter sold out and then continued with his successor, Harry Brisley. A short time since he resigned his position there to enter the employ of Fen S. Hildreth, with whom he remained until his death.

He has served the city as its treasurer for several terms, holding the position of city treasurer at the time of his death. He was an enthusiastic member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and exemplified the teachings and principles of charity of the Order, in his daily life.

The blow is a specially severe one upon his family, following so closely the death of his brother which occurred through a railroad accident the latter part of August. His sister who has been attending the normal school at Los Angeles, and brother in Mexico have been notified by telegraph of his death, and the funeral will not take place until after their arrival.

The deceased was a nephew of Mr. J. D. Pentland, of Peterborough.

Kingston Body-Snatching Case.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—Chief Murray of the Provincial Detective Department has returned from Kingston, where he investigated the recent outrage at the Cataraqui Cemetery, in which three corpses were stolen from a vault. Mr. Murray places the onus on four medical students, one of whom purchased a saw to cut iron, and which was used to remove an iron bar from a window of the vault.

KRAUSE GETS TWO YEARS.

Severe Sentence After Protracted Delays and Numerous Changes.

London, Jan. 20.—The trial of Dr. Krause resulted in the severe sentence of two years' imprisonment, after protracted delay and numerous changes in the form of the proceedings and the invalidation of the main counts of the indictment on technical grounds.

German Cash For Boers.

Berlin, Jan. 20.—The sum of 6,000 marks, equivalent to $1,428, is, it is said, being contributed daily throughout Germany to the support of the Boer cause. One well acquainted with the facts stated yesterday that since Dec. 1, more than 200,000 marks, nearly $50,000, had been so contributed. He added that, on the coming anniversary of Buller's reverse at Spion Kop, hundreds of German theatres would devote their receipts to swelling the Boer funds, and predicted that the money thus raised would aggregate an unusually large sum.

New Zealand Approves.

London, Jan 20.—A despatch from Wellington, N Z., to The Times says a patriotic meeting, attended by thousands of persons, has passed

When in Bed

Put some Vapo-Cresolene in the vaporizer, light the lamp and place it near the head of the bed. Then all the time the baby sleeps it will breathe in the healing, soothing vapor. The hard, tight cough loosens; the fever gradually goes down, the breathing becomes natural, and pneumonia is avoided. Every part of the throat and bronchial tubes are touched by the medicine. For the hard colds and coughs of children nothing equals Vapo Cresolene. 9

Vapo Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. A Vapo-Cresolene outfit, including the Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a life-time, and a bottle of Cresolene, complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. (From our own Correspondent.)

Miss M. Kenneally left on Saturday for Grafton, where she has been engaged as teacher in the public school.

Miss McKenzie and Miss Mary Strickland started for Boston on Tuesday last, where they intend spending three weeks visiting friends.

Mrs. David Smith gave a most enjoyable dance on Monday evening.

It is with regret that the people of Lakefield learned of the removal from this parish of Rev. Father Fitzpatrick. The reverend gentleman's pleasant face and pleasing manner will be much missed by the residents of Lakefield.

The first regular meeting of the municipal council of the Corporation of Lakefield for the year 1902, was held in the town hall on Monday, Jan. 13th.

Mr. J. E. Kelly presented a petition to the council signed by five ratepayers, asking for the withdrawal of S. S. No. 10, Douro, from the union with the village, and made verbal request that an arbitrator be appointed by the village.

Moved by Councillors Fitzgerald and Kelly, that the reeve be instructed to issue his warrant to the village clerk to hold a new election to fill the vacancies in the council caused by resignation of parties nominated on Dec. 30, 1901.—Carried.

Bylaw No. 358, entitled a bylaw to appoint auditors for the village of Lakefield, for the year 1902, received its several readings, was passed, sealed and signed by the reeve and clerk; rule or order No. 50 being suspended for the evening.

Mr. R. S. Barlee and Mr. A. V. Hill were appointed auditors.

SURPLUS $2,571,292

Gratifying Condition of the Finances of Ontario.

LAST YEAR'S ADDITION $427,209

A Great Showing in Spite of Heavy Payments in Railway Subsidies and Certificates During the Year—The Bank Deposit Is Now $1,468,492—Some Details of the Public Accounts.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—The public accounts of Ontario for the year 1901, which are about ready for presentation to the House, will show a most gratifying condition of the provincial finances. There was a surplus on the year's transactions of $427,209.43, while the assets of the Province, including cash in the bank, exceed the liabilities by $2,571,292.71. This is in spite of heavy payments in railway subsidies during the year.

The total receipts last year were $4,466,043, as against $4,192,940 in 1900. The expenditures were $4,038,834, compared with $4,003,729 in the previous year. This surplus of nearly half a million was built up largely by an increase of nearly $200,000 in the receipts from Crown lands; an increase of about $20,000 from liquor licenses; about $12,000 from charters for incorporated companies; about $8,000 from taxes on corporations, and $140,000 from succession duties. On a few trifling items there were decreases compared with 1900.

The slight increase in total expenditure was due largely to extra charges in settlement and colonization, in connection with Crown lands, the building of the Cobourg asylum, education, hospitals and charities. The expenditures in legislation and administration of justice were reduced about $20,000.

The cash surplus in the banks to the credit of the Government has increased by $434,946.68. On December 31st, 1900, the cash surplus was $1,033,546.31; on December 31st, 1901, it was $1,468,492.99.

Are Quick To See

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and disordered digestion.

Almost everybody's digestion is disordered more or less, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good.

Purging is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and excretion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help and you will have no trouble.

Its a common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way.

We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. However—

Mrs. E. M. Faith of Byrd's Creek, Wis., says: "I have taken all the Tablets I got of you and they have done their work well in my case, for for I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ia., says:—"Mr. White, of Canton, was telling me of your Dyspepsia Tablets curing him of Dyspepsia from which he had suffered for eight years. As I am a sufferer myself I wish you to send me a package by return mail."

Phil. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: "Your dyspepsia cure has worked wonders in my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before. I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50 cents to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide.

All druggists sell them. A little book on stomach diseases will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

CURED OF GENERAL WEAKNESS

A Delicate Girl.

There are tremendous demands made on a young girl's strength at certain periods in her life. Nature must have nourishment for certain organs and she exacts it from the rest of the body. You can make the body strong so that it can supply almost any demand if you take Powley's Liquified Ozone. Miss Francis Lamson of Woodstock, tells an interesting story.

Gentlemen: For some time back I have felt my physical condition very much impaired from weak stomach and also general weakness. I had a friend who had tried Powley's Liquified Ozone, and it helped her so much that I concluded to try it. I had not taken more than half of the bottle when I felt such a remarkable change in my condition that I was almost amazed at myself. I noticed my color growing much clearer and I felt better in every way. I recommend every young lady to use Ozone.

(Signed) Miss Francis Lamson, 45 Reeve St., Woodstock, Ont.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is most valuable for any irregularities or weakness of women or girls. It makes nature help nature, it adds strength to the system and fortifies it to supply every need that woman's delicate and complicated construction demands. A SHOT GUN ACCIDENT.

Farmer Shot by Friend—Leslie Wilson of Innerkip Responsible For the Sad Death of Joseph Bray.

Woodstock, Jan. 20.—Joseph Bray, a farmer, residing near Walmer, was shot and fatally injured by Leslie Wilson, the head cheesemaker for E. M. Johnson's cheese factory at Innerkip Saturday morning. The shooting, which was purely accidental, took place at the factory shortly before noon. The victim, whose leg had to be amputated, died Saturday night from shock and loss of blood.

The circumstances of the accident are sad. Bray arrived at the factory during the morning with a load of milk, and was waiting to have it unloaded. A number of the factory men and patrons were around the building, when a white owl appeared in a tree close by the building. Leslie Wilson, the head cheesemaker, ran across to a neighbor's, and, getting some cartridges, returned and loaded both chambers of a double-barrelled gun. One of the charges he emptied into the owl. He brought the gun to an easy position again, and was preparing to deliver a second shot, when the gun went off. Bray, who was standing only a few feet away, received the full charge right in the leg.

The injured man was taken to his home at Walmer, and a doctor was called. It was found necessary to amputate the limb. But the shock and loss of blood proved too great, and he died in the evening. It is presumed that in attempting to reload the empty chamber, Wilson touched the trigger of the other one.

The dead man is about 35 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children

Inspector Murray left Toronto on Sunday night for Watertown, N.Y., with extradition papers to bring back Melville Hall, under arrest there. Hall is wanted in Cornwall for alleged dynamite outrages.

The Vatican accounts for last year show that only 2,300,000 lire have been received for Peter's pence, which is the worst year since 1870. The United States is third in the list of contributors with 249,000 lire.

ON CRUTCHES.

Even if you are obliged to use crutches Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure can fix you up. This was the experience of John J. Peters, Sharbot Lake, Ont. Fortunately he tried Dr. Hall's remedy and it only took three bottles to cure him completely. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. A NEW FREIGHT LINE

Contract Signed For a Quebec And Manchester Service.

SERVICE WILL BEGIN APRIL 1.

Sir Christopher Furness, the Great Northern Railway and the Manchester Line Interested—Steamships Will All Be Over 8,000 Tons Burden—Saving of 800 Miles as Compared With Buffalo Route.

London, Jan. 20.—The result of the visits to America of Sir Christopher Furness is that on Saturday James McNaughton, vice-president of the Great Northern Railway of Canada; R. B. Soker, manager of the Manchester Liners, Limited, and Furness & Lewis, representing the Furness-Withy Company, signed a contract for a permanent line of steamships between Quebec and Manchester. The service will be at least fortnightly and will begin on April 1. The steamships will all be over 8,000 tons burden.

Mr. McNaughton, in explaining the scheme, said: "The object of my company is to develop the grain, packing-house products, and other carrying trade to Europe by way of Canada. We intend to bill through from Chicago, Milwaukee, Duluth and Quebec to London, Manchester, Liverpool and Antwerp. The St. Lawrence route, by a combination of four interests, will effect a saving of 802 miles, as compared with the Buffalo route from the western part of the United States. We expect to have all the lines running soon. The one from Quebec to London is already running, and, on Saturday I signed an agreement for the one from Quebec to Manchester. I am now negotiating for the lines from Quebec to Antwerp, and expect that the matter will be arranged in a few days."

SECOND EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

Panic in Chilpancingo in Guerrero Lasts Two Days.

Mexico City, Mex., Jan. 20.—Chilpancingo, the capital of the state of Guerrero, has been in a panic for two days. There came a repetition Friday of the shock of Thursday, razing to the ground many houses spared in the first earthquake.

The people are camping out on the Alameda and in the fields. Hundreds of families are ruined. The buildings destroyed include the 17th Battalion's barracks, from which the soldiers were ordered, thus saving their lives. The school buildings were wrecked, but the children were all saved, their teachers giving the order for them to march to the street when the first rumbling of the earth began.

Great fissures opened across the streets. The church of San Mateo, in one of the other districts, was nearly destroyed.

Among the dead already found are two young girls. The list of the wounded includes many prominent citizens. No official list of dead or wounded has yet been made.

In the town of Chilapa many buildings were wrecked, three persons were killed and four were injured.

In the towns of Tixtla, Iquala and Marchitlan many buildings were cracked.

In Zumpango del Rio three persons were injured, and the prison, town hall, schools and courts were damaged.

QUEBEC FARMER HAS HARD TIME

Stricken and Helpless With Work to be Done—Deprived of the Power to Work.

Pierre Lussier of Lac Weedon was Indeed in an Unfortunate Plight—He Expresses His Thanks for a Complete Restoration to Health and Strength.

Lac Weedon, Quebec, Jan. 20th.—(Special.) Pierre Lussier is a farmer who like every other husbandman has much work which must be done in season. Many of a farmer's duties will not admit of a postponement; they have to be attended to promptly, and poor Mons. Lussier had not the strength to do these toilsome tasks. He had no children to help him on the farm, and as vigorous and trained arms are necessary, he was feeling very downcast on account of his inability and weakness.

He had one of the worst forms of Kidney Disease, and this reduced his strength to that of a mere child. The pain he had to bear was very great, and always seemed to come on him worse just at the time that he had some important work to do.

He had suffered in this way for over twenty years, sometimes better, sometimes worse, but always sick and suffering, and constantly growing worse, till for the last two years he was unable to do anything.

He decided to try a treatment of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and from the very first dose he began to improve. After he had used eight boxes he was well enough to work again but he kept on using the pills till now he is well and strong.

For years he could not walk a quarter of a mile without assistance, but recently he walked eight miles without resting. He says:

"I owe it all to Dodd's Kidney Pills which have done wonderful things for me."

This cure of such a severe case of over twenty years standing is regarded by our people here who know the facts as little short of a miracle.

STRENGTHENS THE STATE.

Life Insurance is for the protection of those dependent on a man's life; their dependence makes it an unavoidable duty Those dependent we assume to protect by our contract, at his personal cost; our duty to them is to make that contract as large, as secure, and as certainly available to them as possible; thus every Policy written conserves the interest of the State. A man with a Life Insurance Policy is apt to be a good citizen. Anarchists have no use for Life Insurance, and the state has no use for anarchists. The State should encourage every citizen to carry insurance. This Strengthens the State, abolishes alms-houses, and creates property that can be taxed. Further, the income from Your labour ends with Your life. The cost of living to the family continues. Take measures to have the income continue also. The Life Insurance Policy Does It.

The most enterprising and progressive of all the Canadian Life Offices to-day is the Sun Life of Canada. Ten years ago the Company had Life Assurance in force to the extent of $16,759,355,92. On the 31st of December last, this amount had been increased to $57,980,634.68. The increase, therefore, of Life Assurance in force during the last ten years amounted to the tremendous sum of $41,221,278.76.

HOCKEY.

The first Intermediate match of the season takes place at the rink on Tuesday night, when the Peterborough Intermediates will face the Lindsay representatives for the second time this season. The game should draw a good attendance, and the local team will endeavour to reverse the score that was made in Lindsay some weeks ago. The team will be as follows:

Goal, Wasson; point, Glover; forwards, Armstrong, Morgan, Watt and Whitecroft.

The game of the season in Peterborough will be on Friday night, when the Port Hope seven will visit Peterborough. There is no more enthusiastic hockey town in Canada than Port Hope, and they give their team great support. On Friday night the team will come out to Peterborough with about 100 supporters. They intend running out a special train.

The Lakeviews are doing splendidly. They have landed in the second round of the Trent Valley series, and will now run up against Norwood. The first match will take place in Norwood on Friday night, and the outcome of the contest will be eagerly awaited. The Lakeviews have a number of fast men amongst them being Crowley, McCoy, Meagher and Parnell. McCoy is by long odds the best goal keeper in Peterborough. He hails from Campbellford, where he played the game before. His work up at Lakefield the other night was nothing short of marvellous.

Parnell has decided to throw in his lot with the Lakeviews. For some time the management of the Lakeviews and Peterboroughs did not know where Parnell stood in this regard. Although he had been signed by the Lakeview men in the Trent Valley League it was felt by some that he would figure in a wider field. However all doubt is now cleared up, and Parnell has returned to his old love, so to speak—to the organization where he first learned the game.

The Omemee Beavers are out of the running in the Trent Valley League. They have been put out of business by the Bobcaygeon team, and for the balance of the season they will have to be content with exhibition matches. This was Omemee's first season in the league, and they showed up fairly well. The Bobcaygeon team will now run up against Fenelon Falls.

Mr. Roy Bravender, of Lakefield, was in town yesterday. Mr. Bravender, who is a new-comer to Lakefield, is the manager of the hockey team of that town. He says that next year they hope to have a good strong organization.

A light practice will be held this evening. All members are asked to be out.

Port Hope's two victories over Lindsay mean that the Peterboroughs in order to win the district have to beat Port Hope both here and on their own ice. The team that wins should come pretty close to landing the championship. The standing of the clubs in the district is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	To play.
Port Hope	2	0	2
Lindsay	1	2	1
Peterborough	0	1	3
Belleville	Withdrawn.

Lindsay claims that Port Hope will win the district and the Ontarios say they are too strong for Peterborough even on the local ice. After Port Hope plays Peterborough's fast little team the Ontarios will have to "go away back and sit down."

Lakefield is talking of protesting Friday night's match. They claim that Parnell was not eligible to play in the Trent Valley League by reason of his connection with the Peterboroughs. It is just a matter as to whether a spare man may be counted as having played. Parnell was a spare man at Lindsay in the O.H.A. game. The opinion seems to be that the Lakefield club has no grounds for a protest.

THE EDUCATIONAL SERVICES.

Special Sermons by Out of Town Ministers

In George Street and Charlotte Street Methodist Churches Last Night.

Special services in aid of the Educational Society of the Methodist Church, were preached yesterday morning and evening in George street and Charlotte street Methodist churches. The special preachers for the occasion were Rev. E. B. Lanceley, of Port Hope, and Rev. H. Emory, of Whitby. Both gentlemen are strangers to Peterborough congregations, and they made splendid impressions upon the large congregations that were present both in the morning and evening.

At the George street church Rev. Mr. Emory took for his text the 9th verse of the 11th chapter of Acts. "But the voice answered me again from Heaven, 'What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.'"

He did not intend preaching a sermon in support of the Educational Society, as they were all aware of how important it is to have educated men in the pulpit. He would leave that question to themselves. The words of the text were the words of Jesus to Peter, who was discriminating between the things that God had cleansed. The preacher's sermon was therefore on the matter of discrimination in this regard. He thought that in this age of about one thousand churches and about as many creeds, there came a divine and pleasing voice to all to keep vice and intemperance from our midst. Humanity had been too discriminate in sacredness, and has shut a large majority of men outside the holy bonds. He would like to see this sentiment of sacredness press equally on all sides, as the air and the sun do in the material world.

Continuing with his remarks, Mr. Emory said that he considered that if a wealthy man hoards his money he is a miser; if he is an employer of labour, he is a public benefactor; but if he clothes the poor he is exercising his stewardship. The speaker did not see how anyone could say that they were told in the Sacred Word that they were told to be more holy during Lent than during any other period of the year. He did not argue that we should be less religious but he maintained that we should not crowd all our piety into the walls of the church during the period of Lent, or into the Sabbaths of the year. There should be seven Sabbaths, instead of one, in the week. The church should not be the only holy institution in the land; the church, the schools, country house, the Government House, should all be filled with religion, and then the world itself would be holy.

Rev. Mr. Lanceley, in the evening in the George street church, preached a very interesting sermon. He showed the great progress the world had made educationally speaking during the past 25 years. He referred to the flourishing condition of the Young Men's Christian Associations, the Christian Endeavour Societies, and many other such institutions.

Rev. Mr. Lanceley preached a very excellent sermon at Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday morning. He took his text from Matthew xi. 9. "But what went ye for to see, etc." Mr. Lanceley's theme was the Brotherhood of Man, and in his discourse he endeavoured to show our responsibility to our fellow man.

At Charlotte street church Mr. George Schneider officiated as organist for the first time. He is relieving during Miss Stephen's absence. Miss Hendren, during the offertory, sang very sweetly "I'll go where you want me to go, Oh Lord." The anthem in the morning was "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me?" Mrs. Pearce taking the solo most acceptably. The evening anthem was entitled "Saviour when night involved the sky," in which Mr. F. Skitch took the solo. Miss Hendren sang "Abide with Me."

At George street church, the morning anthem was "Hast Thou not Known." The offertory solo was rendered by Mr. G. W. Mulligan, his selection being "The Beautiful City." The music at the evening service was especially interesting. The anthem "O Lord how manifold," was rendered in excellent style by the choir of 40 voices. Miss McCarter sang a beautiful arrangement of "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Hosanna in Excelcis," by St. Quintin. Miss McCarter's singing drew forth many complimentry references at the close of the service.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Rev. A. W. Craw, B. A., Warkworth, preached in St. Andrew's church yesterday morning and in St. Paul's in the evening.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.

Large congregations were in attendance at St. Luke's yesterday, when most interesting addresses were given by the Rector both morning and evening. Special prayers were offered for the local volunteers for service in South Africa and special hymns were also sung.

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST.

The musical portion of the services in the Murray street Baptist church yesterday were especially attractive. In the morning Myre's "O Wondrous Cross" was sung in most pleasing harmony, as a quartette by Miss Hall, Miss Stevens, Mr. Routley and Mr. Miller. The evening anthem was entitled "O Holy Jesus," Ewing. The solos were well taken by Miss Hall and Miss Stevens. As an offertory duet Miss Hall and Miss Stevens sang "Motherly Counsel."

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

The special mission services which have been conducted during the past two weeks by Rev. Arthur Murphy, were concluded last night, when a large number of people were unable to gain admission. As it was, chairs were placed in the aisles, in the choir and in the vestry, and many stood throughout the service.

Mr. Murphy gave three powerful addresses throughout the day. In the morning he spoke from "Manna," drawing many helpful lessons from its teaching as illustrating the way of salvation. There were a large number who remained to partake of the Lord's Supper.

The afternoon service for men was most inspiring, nearly two hundred men listened to a telling address on "A Foolish Rich Man," St. Luke, xii, 16 to 21.

In the evening the subject was "The Children of Israel Crossing." A large number have received "Memorial cards" as token of blessing received during the mission.

Though the mission is the first that has been held in All Saints, the interest increased from the beginning, and much good has been accomplished.

At last night's service the choir rendered Ebdon's Magnificat and Plummer's Nunc Dimittis in D, and the anthem, "What shall I Render?" The male quartette sang by request, "The Way of the Cross."

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD CONCERT.

The first concert under the auspices of Sherwood Forest Camp, Woodmen of the World, will be held in the Sons of England hall to-morrow evening, Jan. 21st. Mr. W. H. Meldrum will occupy the chair. A very interesting and attractive programme has been prepared, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations, etc. Mr. Harry Clarke will contribute a solo on the trombone. A GALT MAN ARRESTED

Thomas McGiverin Arrested in Buffalo for Grand Larceny.

HELD THERE FOR EXTRADITION

It Is Said That He Tampered With the Funds of the Galt Methodist Church to the Tune of Several Thousand Dollars—Alleged Recent Attempt at Suicide—Other Shortages Have Since Come to Light.

Galt, Jan. 18.—Thomas McGiverin, who was arrested in Buffalo yesterday, charged with grand larceny, and is being held by the Buffalo authorities for extradition to Canada, was until the latter part of last year a highly-respected resident of Galt. He is a married man about 55 years of age, and came from Hamilton to Galt about 25 years ago. He was for several years a member of the Town Council, and has been prominently identified with the Methodist church here as treasurer of its funds and superintendent of the Sabbath school.

The discovery was made by the board of the church about three months ago, that McGiverin was short in his accounts. Nothing could be elicited from him as to his true financial position, and an investigation was held, which disclosed a very bad state of affairs, involving a shortage of several thousand dollars. Moneys received for the purpose of reducing mortgage indebtedness were not so applied, and the fact was concealed by means of forged vouchers. This had been going on for two or three years, until dishonored bank cheques became so numerous as to create suspicion, which led to the exposure.

When the report got out everybody was astonished. The matter was quietly discussed as the commonest topic of conversation for some weeks after discovery. Mr. McGiverin was Clerk of the Third Division Court, and was also engaged in the fire insurance and real estate business. Considerable shortage in connection with insurance and real estate and money borrowed from private citizens came to light and simply amazed the townspeople. Opportunities for restitution were offered by representatives of the Methodist church, but were not taken advantage of.

Where the money went is a mystery. McGiverin was a man of very steady habits and did not live extravagantly. Towards the end of December last, criminal proceedings were threatened, which apparently caused him to attempt suicide, as he was found in his office about midnight a day or two later in an unconscious condition from escaping gas, the pipe being severed. A week's medical treatment restored him. He quietly left town immediately afterwards. A warrant was then issued for his arrest at Hamilton, but he had gone on to the United States. Nothing more was heard of his whereabouts until yesterday.

ARGUMENT CONCLUDED.

The Case in Celebrated "Scrap Iron" Appeal Before the Court—Now Stands For Judges' Decision.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—Mr. Aylesworth, counsel for the Ontario Government in the celebrated "scrap iron" case before the Court of Appeal, concluded his argument yesterday morning, and was followed by Mr. J. S. Fullerton, Corporation Council of Toronto; Mr. McVity, representing the city of Ottawa; Mr. Lynch-Staunton of Hamilton, representing the Bell Telephone Company; Mr. H. O'Brien, representing the Toronto Electric Light Company, and Mr. H. M. Mowat, representing the Ottawa Street Railway Company. The case now stands for decision.

Mr. Aylesworth quoted a judgment in the English Court of Appeal in the case of the city of London against the London School Board, which laid down the principal that the property should be assessed at somewhere around what the owner or tenant would give for it. In the case at issue, valuing the property as a whole machine, what would the Street Railway Company pay for it if they wanted it and the property was likely to go over to somebody else? It was on that basis that the assessment should be made. The Toronto Street Railway Company should be taken into consideration as a possible purchaser of the system as a whole. That idea should be taken into account in interpreting the act. Mr. Aylesworth argued that the franchise made the property more valuable. It was impossible to estimate the value of the property without taking into consideration the peculiar situation of the property and the use made of it. A house was not valued so much as mortar and bricks, but, as a whole, and the street railway should be assessed as a whole. He argued that this was the intent of the Legislature in the Assessment Act, and that the act expressed the intent clearly.

Because you haven't used Catarrhozone is the best reason why you should use it right away. It will cure the Catarrh that makes your breath so heavy and your hearing so poor. Catarrhozone is a scientific cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Asthma, recommended by doctors and druggists as a certain cure. Mr. Henry A. Cold Affects the Liver.

Severe Headaches, Constipation and Kidney Disorders the Result—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Correct the Action of Filtering and Excretory Organs.

The liver is very easily affected by change of temperature, nervous strain and over-eating, and is the cause of more pains and aches than any other organ of the body. It is the duty of the liver to filter from the blood the poisonous bile, which it passes into the intestines to act as nature's cathartic. One of the first results of a sluggish, congested liver is constipation, alternating with looseness of the bowels and what is commonly called biliousness.

Bitter taste in the mouth, sallow complexion, a coated tongue, severe headaches, pain under shoulder blades, fulness in right side, dizziness, ill-temper, peevishness and depression of spirits are indications of an ailing liver. The remarkable effectiveness of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in regulating the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels easily places it first as a treatment for derangements of these organs. There are few people who are not more or less subject to biliousness in the winter season, when more or less confined to the house, and so rendered sensitive to change of temperature. Meat diet and the artificial foods of winter also tend to make the liver sluggish, the kidneys inactive and the bowels constipated.

The promptness with which Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills correct the action of the filtering and excretory organs and rid the blood of poisonous bile impurities commend them to reasoning people as a suitable family medicine to be kept in the home all the time. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are prompt, pleasant and natural in action, far-reaching in effect and perfectly scientific. They have proven their right to your confidence in scores of thousands of cases, many, no doubt, in your immediate locality.

Do not imagine that you are experimenting when you begin to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. If your liver, kidneys or bowels are deranged this preparation will set them right. It does not seem wise to suffer from biliousness, kidney disease, constipation or similar ailments when you may as well keep your health in perfect order with this tried and tested remedy. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto.

Murder in Cape Breton.

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 18.—Another tragedy was recorded on the Island yesterday. George Gillon and Archibald Graves were on the street at Alberton, C.B., and as there had been bad feeling between them, a squabble ensued. After they were separated Graves, who was in liquor, made after Gillon again. Then Gillon pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired twice. Both bullets entered the abdomen and Graves fell dead. Gillon gave himself up to the police.

"Yes. I want some lead pencils."

"We haven't any lead pencils. We have some wooden cylinders with graphite on the inside of them. Will they do as well?"

No one has Won the Money.

The $1000 reward offered by Merrill, the Brantford Druggist, for a better cure for habitual constipation than Merrill's System Tonic has not yet been won. Quackery Versus Science.

The old idea of taking blood thinning compounds in order to purify the blood is an error, as the system is thus left in a vitiated condition. Merrill's System Tonic not only purifies the blood in a thorough manner but the iron contained in it again enriches the blood, leaving one with a lot of good, rich, red blood. 50 pleasant-to-take doses for 50 cents at Ormond & Walsh's pharmacy.

Flying Predictions.

Prominent Figure in British Political Life Is No More.

London, Jan. 20.—A notable figure in English political life has been removed by the death of Sir Ellis Ashmead Bartlett, who passed away Saturday morning as the result of an operation for appendicitis. The deceased gentleman was Conservative M.P. for Sheffield (Eccleshall), was the eldest son of the late Mr. Ellis Bartlett of Plymouth, New England (U.S.A.), and was born in 1849. He was appointed Civil Lord of the Admiralty in 1885, and reappointed in 1886.

A POWER CONTRACT AWARDED.

Involves $500,000 For Canadian Wheel Pit and In-Take Canal at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, Jan. 20.—Vice-President Rankine of the Canadian Niagara Power Company yesterday announced that the contract for the construction of the wheel-pit and intake canal of the Canadian works has been awarded to Messrs. Dawson & Reilly of St. Catharines. This contract involves an expenditure of over half a million of dollars.

The wheel-pit and in-take canal, which will be constructed in Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park, will be on a large scale. The wheel-pit will be 175 feet long and parallel to the river with a width of 29 feet and 160 feet deep. The power company has now awarded contracts amounting to one and three-quarters of a million of dollars. The largest of these are the ones cited above to Dawson & Reilly, the tunnel to A. C. Douglas, which is 2,200 feet in length, and the big circular coffer dam, which is nearly completed, by the local contractor, James Barry of Niagara Falls, Ont.

The proposed power transmission line can be ready to take power to Toronto and cities en route by Oct. 1. This will be temporary, and the power will be taken from the plant of the Niagara Falls Power Company on the American side until the Canadian works are completed. The construction of the Canadian plant will take two years. Many applications for power on the Canadian Niagara frontier are being received by the company.

ELECTION AT DAWSON.

An Elective Council Preferred to Three Commissioners—The Through Telegraph Line Down For Three Weeks.

Dawson, Y.T., Jan. 10, via Ashcroft, B.C., Jan. 19 and Toronto Globe Jan. 20.—Dawson's first election as an incorporated town took place yesterday. The issue was an elective Council, Mayor and Councillors, versus a commission of three citizens, appointed by Commissioner Ross, running the town under him. The heaviest taxpayers favor the latter, as they consider it more economical. The body of the people demanded self-government. Interest was keen and the campaign active. The result was 687 British votes cast, with 79 majority for an elective Council. The temperature was fifty below during the voting.

The through telegraph line has been down for the past three weeks.

The river trail is rough, with open water at several points. The mails are irregular, and communication with the outside continues uncertain.

Elected by Acclamation.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 20.—On Saturday afternoon Dr. James Rudderick of St. Martin's was nominated for the seat in the New Brunswick Legislature made vacant by the death of John McLeod, member for St. John's County. Mr. Rudderick is a Government supporter. There was no opposition, and he was declared elected.

Two Weeks in Jail.

Arthabaskaville, Jan. 20.—Odilion Gregorie, accused of manslaughter, was given two weeks in jail on Saturday.

Able to Answer.

Uncle—What are you crying for, Georgie?

Georgie—Teacher caned me because I was the only one—boo-hoo—able to answer a question today.

Uncle (indignantly)—This is scandalous, my poor boy! What was the question?

Georgie (between sobs)—Who put the bent pin in the teacher's chair?—Tit-Bits.

Unneighborly.

"Here is a department store advertising that it will put initials on umbrellas free of charge."

"That is what I call an act destructive of all neighborly feeling. Think how you would feel going around with an umbrella with somebody else's name on it!".

Life at Stake

Somewhere in the world life is at stake every minute of the day. Right at our own doors, perhaps, is going on a struggle as grim and fierce as any fight or flight on record. You hear the hollow tearing cough; see the ooze of blood which tells of the wounded lungs; mark the emaciated body and hectic cheek, and know a life is at stake.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has saved many a life in just such a crisis. It cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, stops the hemorrhage, strengthens "weak" lungs, and restores the emaciated body to its normal weight and strength.

There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

"I desire to send you this brief, unsolicited testimonial," writes Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Barium Springs, Iredell Co., N. C. "In 1898 one of my daughters was suffering on account of a severe cough, hectic fever, wasting of flesh and other symptoms of diseased lungs. I promptly gave her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with gratifying success, and she now enjoys excellent health. This experience caused me to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to my neighbors, who, without exception, used them with favorable results."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only, or if cloth bound volume is desired send 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

Begin life where you are.

Go to work earnestly and confidently.

Carefully look over what is to be done.

Keep a cool head and cultivate poise.

Do not be overcome by seeming mistakes.

Do as well as you can what lies nearest at hand.

Only weak people are cast down by apparent failures and blunders.

Sometimes our apparent mistakes help us along more than our seeming success.

Errors are sometimes very expensive: but, then, again, they often save in the long run more than they cost.

Those who win in life's battles are the brave, courageous ones who look upon all experience as being educational.

Meet your difficulties and problems calmly and with a belief that if you do your part they will be solved and overcome in the best way.

Medical Science Advances.

It is not more than half a century ago that physicians considered a surgical operation with its risk, expense and pain as the only cure for piles. To-day it is only the out of date doctors that think of such treatment. It is cruel and extravagant to operate for a disease which is far more certainly cured by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. You may be skeptical, but for proof you are referred to tens of thousands of cases that have been cured by this famous preparation.

Candies.

Such candies as peanut brittle are far less injurious than fancy mixtures, as they are made by simply melting sugar and are without acids. Acid in the presence of heat splits ordinary sugar into two forms, dextrose and levulose. These are both deadly sweets and much more prone to fermentation than real sugar. This is the reason why so many housewives cannot make good cranberry or other jelly.

The Great Qualification.

The animals were preparing for amateur theatricals.

"I want to be the heavy villain," said the sheep.

"You!" snorted the intelligent horse. "You'd make a fierce looking villain, wouldn't you?"

"Maybe not," retorted the sheep, but I'll bet none of you can beat me saying 'Bah!'"

How She Got Over the Grip.

"I ain't done took de grip myself yit, Bruddah Gooseberry. My ole woman been poorly wid it, but she got ober it sho'tly."

"I'se glad to heah dat, Bruddah Orchad."

"Yes, she died wid it."

EIGHT CONVINCING REASONS...

WHY YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE CO'Y OF CANADA.

1. It is a purely Canadian Company, having all its funds invested in Canadian securities, and transacting business only in Canada.

2. It maintains the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

3. It maintains relatively the strongest policy reserves of any Canadian Life Insurance Company.

4. Its past record — the greatest guarantee of the future — has been unparalleled in Canadian life insurance.

5. Its policy contract is one of the most liberal issued, consistent with safety and equity.

6. It has a Capital of $1,000,000, which makes policy-holders' security unquestionable. At the same time, the assured is practically in the same position regarding profits as if he held a policy in a mutual company, the Imperial's charter providing that at least 90 per cent. of all profits shall be divided amongst policy-holders.

7. For every $100 of liability to policy-holders it holds $180 of securely invested assets. These assets are all of the highest order, and will bear the closest scrutiny.

8. An Imperial policy never depreciates in value, but, on the contrary, is constantly becoming more valuable. It is the most valuable estate you can leave behind you.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 21st, at 8 o'clock, in the Association rooms on George street. All members and friends of the Association are most cordially invited to be present.

The annual Board meeting was held on Monday last, when most encouraging reports were presented from the various departments of the work. A nominating committee was appointed, to report at the annual meeting regarding the Board of Directors for the coming year.

At the regular monthly business meeting of the Victoria Club held on Thursday afternoon last, the following officers were elected for ensuing quarter:

President—Miss Banks Clementi.
Vice-Pres.—Miss Gussie Daly.
Secretary—Miss Edna Pratt.
Treas.—Miss Edna Yelland.
Pianist—Miss Mattie Robertson.
Concenor of the Membership Committee—Miss Florence Creamer.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the retiring officers for their faithful services during the past term.

Loss of Flesh.

If you find yourself falling below normal weight there is danger. The use of fish oils can temporarily add fat, but will never build up healthy tissue Dr. Chase's Nerve Food acts through the blood and nervous system and carries new life and energy to every nook and corner of the body. It regulates the various organs of the body, makes the appetite good, adds healthy flesh and replaces the tissues wasted by disease. Gradually and naturally this food cure restores colour to the cheeks, increases the weight of the body, and thoroughly overcomes disease.

CURLERS' SONG.

Respectfully dedicated to the President and members of the Victoria Curling Club, Hamilton, by A. H. Wingfield:

We're brithers a' and gathered roun'
The sillinin' tee ance mair,
To play for beef an' greens, an' help
To drive awa' dull care,
Then tak yer brooms an' play yer stanes
Wi' muckle, mirth an' glee;
But O, be sure ye play them straught
An' curl to the tee.

Chorus—Curl to the tee, my boys,
Curl to the tee;
The channel stane is Scotia's game,
Then curl to the tee.

The skips are anxious, ane an' a',
Now that the game's begun,
They're rinnin' o'er wi' canny Jokes
And fu' o' mirth an' fun,
Now Robin lad, I ken ye weel,
A grosset I will gie
If ye're the first the day to lay
A pat-lid on the tee.

Chorus—Curl to the tee, etc.

Noo Tam, my lad, ye see my broom;
Just lay yer stane doon here—
Be sure ye draw a canny shot;
The ice is keen and clear,
Ah! mon, ye're daft! Ye're ragin' wild
Ye surely canna see!
Ye're o'er the hills an' far away—
Three yards ayont the tee!

Chorus—Curl to the tee, etc.

Noo Jock, ye're playin' weel to day;
Ye ken I trust to you;
They're lyin' shot, but let us see
The best that ye can do.
Just tak an' in-wick aff this stane,"
Cries ootbold Skip McPhie—
"That shot was worth a mint o' gowd,
For now we're lyin' three."

Chorus—Curl to the tee, etc.

The game is done; the victory's won;
Victoria's to the fore;
But let us a' shake hands aroond,
As in the days of yore.
Oor friens tho' they're beaten noo
Hae little cause to mourn;
The losers o' the game to-day
May winners be the morn;
But let us a' sit doon again,
An' soop dull care awa',
We're a' John Tamson' bairns, ye ken
An' brithers ane an' a'.

Chorus—Curl to the tee, etc.

SIMPLE CURE FOR SMALL-POX.

Edward Hine, a correspondent of the Liverpool Mercury, in a communication to that paper, says: "I am willing to risk my reputation as a public man, if the worst case of small pox cannot be effectually cured in three days simply by cream of tartar. This is a sure and never failing remedy. One ounce of cream of tartar dissolved in a pint of boiling water, to be drunk when cold, at short intervals. It is known to have cured a hundred thousand cases without failure. I have myself restored hundreds by this means. It never leaves a mark, never carries blindness, and always prevents tedious lingering. If the people would only try it and report all the cures to you, you would require to employ many columns if you gave them publicity."

MR. BABB WRITES.

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Dear Sir,—In your issue of Thursday you have an anonymous letter on a question more suited to Christian fellowship or teachings from the pulpit than a place in a secular paper. As a general rule I do not like anonymous letters any more than I like anonymous books. If a letter be a good one no writer need be ashamed to put his name to it, and if a bad one he ought to be as much ashamed of sending it forth as he evidently is of giving his name. But as most things have their use so anonymous letters like anonymous books may sometimes contain rough unpalatable truths which are worth listening to, even though they come, like arrows in the dark, from an unseen hand, and even if they contain untruths or half truths, false or exaggerated charges, or are written from bad motives or in a wrong spirit, still they may be worth examining that the false accusations may be disproved or the few grains of truth be winnowed from the chaff and dust of falshood. I do not know if "Fidelis" intentionaly excludes the Baptist church from the Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopal churches, however much as he may disprove of their tenets, common courtesy alone would have entitled them to a rank with others, as their ministers are associated with and take their part in all public meetings. I dare not think that "Fidelis" is a member of either church he refers to, and yet if his description be agreeable to truth he knows all the wheels and working of the machine, the juggernaut of the churches. The letter is written, the shaft is shot, happy they whom it hits not and whose record is on high.

"CANADIAN CRYSTALS."

Under the attractive title "Canadian Crystals," Rev. Thomas Watson, of Colborne, has issued a volumne of his poems, some of which have appeared in the Examiner, and been read with great pleasure. The book is dedicated to Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal "in view of what his name represents to the Canadian Nation and to the British Empire." The range of the author's conception is large, including selections which are classed under the headings Patriotic, Imperial, Domestic, Educational, Matrimonial, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year, In Memoriam and Evangelical. A clear, sweet ring of patriotism and Canadianism prevails through Mr. Watson's works, and in leisure moments we can dip into his little volumne with unalloyed pleasure knowing that when the book is laid down again we will have the feeling that time has not been wasted, but on the contrary that something has been absorbed into the system which will brighten the remaining hours of the day

END THE WAR QUICKLY

Appealing Petition From the Burghers to Gen. Botha.

CHAMBERLAIN ON SETTLEMENT.

Colonial Secretary Gives an Idea of the British Side of the Terms Upon Which End Will Come—Kitchener's Generous Basis Will Not Be Repeated —The Subject in the French Chamber.

New York, Jan. 19.—The correspondent of The Times, writing from Pretoria, says: "Nearly every day produces evidence of the demoralization of the Boers in the Eastern Transvaal. A petition bearing the signatures of many prominent prisoners captured recently by the British has been issued imploring Botha to end quickly the terrible war.

Commandant Trichard has also written to Botha, telling him that he must come quickly to talk with his (Trichard's) commando, as his men are very much dissatisfied, threaten to surrender and will no longer listen to their immediate commander.

The prisoners now falling into the hands of the British invariably seem relieved rather than otherwise at being captured. But it must not be inferred from this that a wholesale surrender of the Boers is necessarily imminent. The only alternative is to continue the paring-down process uninterruptedly.

"The great difficulty being met with by the British forces in these operations is the want of horses. What is required, apart from the spare horses, is large columns, only half the men being employed at night. It is impossible to require the men to stand more than three night marches weekly."

CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH.

Terms on Which Settlement in South Africa Will Be Made.

Loadon, Jan. 21.—The Colonial Secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon said there was no foundation for the reports that overtures for peace in South Africa had been made by the Boer envoys.

The first important debate of the session began in the House of Commons last night on an amendment to the address moved by Frederick Cawley (Liberal) in reply to the speech from the throne. The debate was called out by Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, who vigorously took the field in defence of the war. He made the significant statement that if, as Lord Rosebery's speech intimated, the Boers believed they could at any time secure a repetition of Lord Kitchener's terms, he wished to inform them that they were mistaken.

Mr. Chamberlain added, however, that the Government's program was not one of extermination. It would not propose any general confiscation of property. Justice would be meted out for military offence and other crimes. But there would be large amnesty, and the Government expected to extend the conquered people full political rights as soon as practicable.

Mr. Labouchere (Liberal) declined to support the amendment of Mr. Cawley.

John Dillon (Irish Nationalist) proposed to omit that clause of the amendment providing funds to carry on the war, and added a clause denouncing the policy of the concentration camps. Mr. Dillon's amendment was rejected by a vote of 283 to 64, the majority of the Liberals voting against it.

Winston Churchill will resume the debate to-day on Mr. Cawley's amendment, to the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, and a division will be taken at night.

Would Entangle France.

Paris, Jan. 21.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday M. Berry (Conservative), introduced interpellations bearing upon the war in South Africa. M. Berry urged the French Government to bring about intervention in South Africa.

Abbe Lemire also called upon the Government to aid the Boers, not only by sympathy, but by diplomacy, to become a free people. The Abbe concluded with saying: "We made the United States free; let us make the Boers free also."

M. Delcasse, replying, said: "Whatever may be the sympathies, all here profess for that courageous people, intervention on the part of France would only result in entangling her foreign policy, and it is the duty of the Government to retain the entire liberty of that policy."

The Chamber unanimously approved the declaration of M. Delcasse and then adjourned.

AGAIN WE TALK — WHITEWEAR —AND— REMNANTS

Never have we had such a successful sale of Whitewear, and never have we had so much free advertising, for every visitor to our Whitewear section is strongly impressed with the magnitude of the display, the vast assortment, the dainty conceits, the skilfully made garments, and the wonderfully reduced prices that reign during this Whitewear Sale. A fortnight ago it was our intention to remove the Whitewear from our second floor to its home on the ground floor Monday, but the daily increasing sales and interest during the past few weeks impells us to retract this idea—and for another week it will remain on our second floor, where abundant light, plenty of space, and an airy but warm room, appeals to every customer's buying comfort. Our previous advertisement gave you some of our lower lines, but we don't stop there—read of these—the good sort :

REMNANTS RE-MARKED!

Not all the Remnants re-marked, but a lot of them. They were marked cheap before—that was certain—but some lengths aren't so generally useful as others. These have come under THE RED INK AGAIN, and must make their exit. Strikes us many customers will like to "adopt" these Remnants after the second dip of the red ink. All these Remnants are marked in plain figures—all have the length written on them—all are on the tables of the centre aisle, and all must go and that soon, for the tables thus occupied have other uses awaiting them. Will you be here to select some of the Remnants to-morrow ?

OUR POULTRY EXHIBITION.

It is Now on in the Market Hall.

There is a large List of Entries—Those Who Have Exhibited.

The fifth annual show of the Peterborough Poultry and Pet Stock Association opened to-day in the market hall, and gives promise of becoming one of the most successfu lin the history of the local association.

To-day has been spent for the greater part in arranging the exhibits and judging the birds, and this evening at 7 o'clock the doors will be opened to the public.

This year's show is excellently arranged, and the interest shown by the exhibitors and others must be most encouraging to the Board of Directors, to the energetic Preaident, Mr. R. H. Leary, and to Mr. William Collins, the faithful Secretary.

There are about 650 birds of all kinds on exhibition, and the entries in almost every class are up to the average. The number of entries this year is about 200 more than any former occasion in Peterborough. Some really fine specimens are to be seen, and the Judge, Mr. D. C. Trew, of Lindsay will exeprience no little difficulty in making awards.
